ONE of the curiosities of the sensational advertising of subjects for preaching is seen in the announcement of a Brooklyn sermon recently. The concluding part of the advertisement reads, "'Thus saith the Lord.' Take Tompkins cars at Grand street ferry." Another queer advertisement is intended to attract people to South Brooklyn, and concludes by saying, "'Lost sheep.' Take Third avenue cars."

THAT marvellous purifyer Burdock Blood Bitters, will speedily change the sallow face to one of freshness, health and beauty. It regulates the Bowels, acts promptly on the Liver and Kidneys and strengthens the system when broken down by Nervous or General Debility. Ask your druggist for a trial bottle, the cost is only ten cents. Large bottles $1.00.

CAPT. SARGENT S. DAY, of Gloucester, Mass., writes : "I was suffering with rheumatism ; I used a small portion of St. Jacobs Oil, and was at once cured. I have also used it for a sprained ankle and bruised foot, and never once found it to fail. It is superior to any other medicine I ever had in my house, and I will never be without a bottle of this great pain destroyer." The Captain is wise.

WHY become a suffering martyr to Headache, when Burdock Blood Bitters will surely cure the cause of all varieties of either Sick or Nervous Headache, clense the system, regulate the Secretions, relieve Constipation of the Bowels, purify the Blood, renovate the Liver and tone up the Nervous System, and distressing headache will be unknown. Sample bottles ten cents. Large bottles $1.00.

IT is understood that the price which the Duke of Westminster has got on Cliveden is £250,000. He has already had an offer of £200,000 for it. The offer came from a gentleman of great fortune, who is well known in the neighborhood. Says a writer in the London World :—"There is not, I suppose, in the wide world, a place more happily and beautifully situated and surrounded—that terrace alone is a dream."

MR. JOHN STEWART, provincial land surveyor, has arrived at Ottawa from the Northwest, after completing the survey of the townships between July 3rd and September 23rd. The land blocked by Mr. Stewart is on the Great Souris plains. He reports it good farming land, although not quite so heavy as some part on the prairies. Game of all kinds was abundant, particularly near Moore mountain, about 100 miles from Fort Ellice.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, WEAKNESS AND DEBILITY. —From Geo. S. Bixby, of Epsom, N. H.—Having received great benefit from the use of Peruvian Syrup, I am willing to add my testimony to the thousands of others constantly sounding its praise. During the war I was in the army, and had the misfortune to be taken prisoner, and be confined in Salisbury and other Southern prisons several months. I became so much reduced in health and strength as to be a mere skeleton of my former self. On being released, I was a fit subject for a Northern hospital, where I remained two months and then came home. My physician recommended and procured for me several bottles of Peruvian Syrup, which I continued to use for several weeks, and found my health restored and my weight increased from ninety pounds to one hundred and fifty, my usual weight, and I have been in my usual good health ever since. I can cheerfully recommend it in all cases of weakness and debility of the system, whether rising from an impure state of the blood, dyspepsia, or almost any other cause, believing it will in most cases give entire satisfaction. Sold by all druggists.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and complete restoration of vigor and manhood. Also for Rheumatism, neuralgia, Paralysis, Liver and Kidney difficulties, Ruptures, and many other diseases. Illustrated pamphlet sent free. Address Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

ZOPESA.

(FROM BRAZIL.)

The New Compound, its wonderful affinity to the Digestive Apparatus and the Liver, increasing the dissolving juices, relieving almost instantly the dreadful results of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and the TORPID LIVER, makes Zopesa an every day necessity in every house.

It acts gently and speedily in Biliousness, Costiveness, Headache, Sick Headache, Distress after Eating, Wind on the Stomach, Heartburn, Pains in the Side and Back, Want of Appetite, Want of Energy, Low Spirits, Foul Stomach. It invigorates the Liver, carries off all surplus bile, regulates the Bowels, and gives tone to the whole system.

Cut this out and take it to your Druggist and get a 10 cent Sample, or a large bottle for 75 cents, and tell your neighbor about it.

Why will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's German prescription, and it is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced their has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced. 2d1w1y

Out of Doors.

Pure air and proper out-door exercise tend greatly to the prolonging of life. Live out of doors as much as possible, it will hurt no one where proper precautions are observed. A distinguished writer on health was in the habit of saying :—"However bad the air may be out of doors, it is always worse in the house." People shorten their lives by too close confinement indoors. To those whose daily employment necessitate being most of the day in-doors, we would say be sure and keep N. H. Down's Vegetable Balsamic Elixir at hand. You are extremely liable to be troubled with coughs, colds and lung disease, and no safer or more, more reliable remedy can be taken. It costs but little to try it.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. Brown's Bronchial Troches do not disorder the stomach like cough syrup and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age, Sold at 25c. a box everywhere. d52w9

Are You?

Are you a Dyspeptic? Have you Indigestion? Is your Liver sluggish? Does your food trouble you? Does sleep fail to refresh you? Is your appetite and energy gone? ZOPESA (from Brazil) will cure you, tone you up, and invigorate your whole system. It is a gentle purgative, acts as a wonder upon, and gives strength and energy to the Digestive apparatus. It is strongly anti-billious, carries off all surplus bile, tones the Liver, gives sound Digestion and speedy health to the Dyspeptic and the Billious. Try a 10 cent sample at least of J. D. TULLY or T. RUSTON. d96w24

A Wise Deacon.

"Deacon Wildes, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors visiting us so often." Bro. Taylor, the answer is very easy, I used Hop Bitters in time ; kept my family well and saved the doctor bills. Three dollars worth of it kept us well and able to work all the time. I'll warrant it has cost you and the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time." "Deacon, I'll use your medicine hereafter.

1—Farmers and Mechanics.

If you wish to avoid great danger and trouble, besides a no small bill of expense, at this season of the year, you should take prompt steps to keep disease from your household. The system should be cleansed, blood purified, stomach and bowels regulated, and prevent and cure diseases arising from Spring malaria. We know of nothing that will so perfectly and surely do this as Electric Bitetrs, and at the trifling cost of fifty cents a bottle—Arch. Sold by TAYLOR & MACDONALD. d5w27

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS OF CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic ; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d. ; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, billiousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

Accident to Dr. Harvey.

We regret to learn that our old and respected citizen, Dr. Harvey, who is now on a visit to his son-in-law, Mr. Merrick, of Shoal Lake, Manitoba, met with a rather serious accident a few days ago. From the meagre information obtainable, we gather that the doctor was on a train running from Portage La Prairie to Brandon on his way to Shoal Lake, when the accident occurred. It appears that the track has only been recently laid and was not properly ballasted. When near Brandon the train left the rails close to a steep embarkment, but fortunately the cars did not overturn, or we would probably have to record a terrible loss of life, as the train was crowded with passengers. Doctor Harvey, along with a number of others, was thrown out, and he sustained rather severe injuries to his right side and both hands, and arms. He was at once conveyed to Brandon, and under his directions a druggist lanced both arms to allow the coagulated blood to escape, which operation relieved him somewhat. He was at once taken to his son-in-law's residence, and at last accounts he was still suffering from the efforts of the accident. His friends fear that paralysis may set in.

The Jubilee Singers

About fifty availed themselves on Thursday evening of the opportunity offered of hearing the celebrated Fisk Jubilee Singers at Port Hope. The small room that serves as a music hall for Port Hope was densely packed with a large and fashionable audience. A number of seats for the Peterborough contingent had been reserved, but only sufficed to accommodate the ladies of the party, the sterner sex, taking a "stand up" seat in the vicinity of the door. The entertainment was one of the best that we have had the opportunity of attending for some time, and the expectations of those who had anticipated something extra were fully realized. For fully two hours the sable singers kept their auditors in wrapt attention, the wild thrilling melodies, peculiar to their race, being rendered in a masterly manner; every piece was deservedly encored. Those who went from Peterborough are under a debt of gratitude to the Midland Railway authorities and Messrs. R. B. Williamson and Singleton, of Port Hope, for the rich treat they enjoyed. The special train arrived here about 12.30 o'clock.

Butchering Beef.

The 6:15 train on the Midland last night ended the career of two cows. About five miles down the line, a whole herd of cows were standing on the track at a crossing, and the train passed through, making a passage in quick time and despatching two of the bovines that did not move soon enough. The engine came very near leaving the rails, as the carcase of one of the animals blocked the way. The train men removed the carcases from the track and the train moved on, arriving a few minutes late.

The Weather.

The weather to-day has been warmer than for some days. The nights and mornings are very cold, and heavy frosts are the rule. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—Fresh to strong easterly to south-easterly winds; cloudy to rainy weather.

Presentation.

We learn that the teachers and scholars of the Midland Presbyterian Sunday School presented Mr. W. G. Thomson with an address, accompanied by a large gold chain and locket, a few evenings before his leaving for Peterborough. Mr. Thomson was superintendant of the school, and although only a short time resident among them, was much respected by all in connection therewith.

POLICE COURT.

"PEGGY," THE VAGRANT.

FRIDAY, Oct. 28.—After being absent for some time Miss "Peggy" Oakley made her bow before the Magistrate this morning, charged with her old offence, vagrancy, by P. C. McGhee.

"Peggy" as usual had a long story to tell about her travels since she left town, and stated among other things that she had been sent from Belleville to Peterborough, by an individual named Holden. She wore a linen duster and as customary had her shawl tied tightly over her head. In her right hand she had a prayer book and in her left a small package of tea, which she was munching incessantly, "just to give her breath a sweet smell." She declared that she had not tasted whiskey for six weeks, and wondered why she was arrested.

She was remanded to gaol for a week.

Fire Water and Gas.

At a recent meeting of the Fire Water and Gas Committee of the Town Council, it was decided to purchase two hundred feet of "Merryweather hose" direct from England. The hose is highly recommended and is said to be cheap and very durable. This order is just for trial and if suitable, more will be purchased. The question of renewing the gas contract which expires this fall, also came up, and was discussed at considerable length. The committee obtained the prices charged in most of the towns and cities of the Dominion, and find that the rate paid here, $20 per lamp, per annum, is about the average. Several new clauses will probably be inserted in the contract, if it is renewed.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Davis, returned home last evening after their wedding tour.

Dr. Ramsay, of Orillia, is in Port Hope, endeavouring to form a court of Foresters in that town.

Mr. T. B. Tate, of the Victoria Railway, Lindsay, was in town yesterday.

It was Needed.

The Street Inspector and his men are engaged in laying down a proper approach to the Fire Hall on Simcoe street, so that the apparatus can be run out and in, without any danger of being shaken to pieces. The work has been needed for a long time.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

Subscription Books.

Agents are wanted to canvass for subscription books, bibles, albums, &c., for Messrs. Ham & Brown, who have opened their office in Henthorn's block. They require twenty agents for this purpose and to canvass for Raymond's sewing machines. d75

Cattle for Canada.

The Liverpool Journal of Commerce, of Oct. 5th, says:—The fine steamship Dominion, which leaves the Mersey to-morrow for Quebec and Montreal, will take out one of the most valuable consignments of polled Angus cattle ever shipped from this country. It includes the cows Charmer III., bred by the late Mr. McCombie, of Tillyfour, and purchased for one hundred guineas at the recent sale of the Marquis of Huntly's stock; Mary of Balquharn breed by Mr. Adamson, Nelon; Princess of Monthletton; the heifers Princess Dadmar, Fairflower, Gretchen, Beatrice of Canada, bred by Mr. M'Combie; Pride of Endovie, Annie III., Princess of Paris, and Canadian Lass. These animals, after having undergone the usual ninety days' quarantine at Quebec, will be conveyed to Eastview, the estate of the Hon. J. H. Pope, Minister of Agricultural for the Dominion, at Cookshire, in the Province of Quebec. They were purchased for the hon. gentleman by Mr. George Wilken, Waterside of Forbes, Aberdeenshire, who was instructed to spare no expense, so that the best quality of stock might be obtained. It is worthy of mention that Mr. Pope, who is probably one of the most competent judges of stock on the American continent, has already some sixty head of pedigree polled Aberdeen cattle at Eastview, and, with the addition referred to, it may be said that he is now the owner of the best herd of this class of cattle outside Great Britain; indeed, it is questionable whether it can be surpassed by any other at present in the British isles. The same steamship will also take out a number of shorthorns for Mr. Joseph Hickson, of the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada.

Death of an ex-M. P. P.

Mr. Henry Corby, formerly M. P. P. for East Hastings, died yesterday morning at Belleville, after a long and lingering illness. Mr. Corby was a native of Hanwell, near London, England, and came to Belleville in 1832. He was successful in business and was highly popular in town, filling various municipal offices, including that of Reeve of Belleville up to 1867, when he was elected a representative of East Hastings in the Ontario Legislature, and Mayor of Belleville in 1867, and 1868. In 1871 he was again elected to the Legislature, this time by acclamation, but owing to illness he did not offer for re-election in 1875 since which time he lived in retirement, much of the time confined to the house by asthma, from which he finally died. Mr. Corby leaves a widow, his third wife, and a numerous family. His character may be summed in the title popularly bestowed upon him, "Honest Henry Corby." He was in his 75th year. His funeral will take place at 3 p. m. on Thursday.

HINTS FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

Simple and tasteful table-covers for bed-rooms may be made of pale blue canton flannel trimmed with antique lace, or with velvet ribbon feather-stitched on, and finished with fringe made of blue spilt zepyhr or Shetland wool.

THE yellow stain made by the oil used on sewing machines can be removed if, before washing in soapsuds, the spots be rubbed carefully with a bit of cloth wet with ammonia.

COUGHS AND COLDS are often overlooked. A continuance for any length of time causes irritation of the lungs or some chronic Throat Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Troches are an effectual Cough Remedy

FLIES are said soon to disappear from a room containing a plate of the following mixture:—Half a teaspoonful of black pepper in powder, one of brown sugar, and one of cream mixed together.

HAGYARD'S PECTORAL BALSAM is composed of the most healing balsams and gums. The Balsams, which enter into its composition, were used by the natives when America was first discovered, and are combined with other vegetable tonics, so blended together, that it is a specific for all affections of the throat and lungs. Thousands of bottles are used annually, and it is considered one of the standard preparations of the day.

"HAIL, beauteous, bounteous, gladsome Spring,"—this was Mark Twain's prize poem—but the dire diseases incident to Spring, spoil the romance. Burdock Blood Bitters is the prize remedy, the remedy prized by all who have tried it as the best Blood Purifying Tonic and System Regulator in the market. It cures all Blood Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple. Sample bottles ten cents, for sale by all dealers in medicine.

Humbert and Queen.

PONTAPEL, Oct. 27.—The King and Queen of Italy have just arrived upon Austrian territory. A motely crowd of Italians and Austrians had collected at the frontier. During the night they lighted fires, and erected an immense triumphal arch on the very spot where the frontier begins and ends. A band played the Austrian and Italian anthems alternately, the crowds singing in the meantime, letting off firecrackers, and camping out through a bitterly cold night. The King and Queen breakfasted at nine at Villach, and took refreshments at Murzzuschlag at two in the afternoon, when they started direct for Vienna. Triumphal arches have been erected at most of the stations on the road. The Empress of Austria arrived in Vienna this morning from Pesth, accompanied by Baren Popsca, the Countess Furstenberg, and the latter's daughter and her two ladies-in-waiting. It is at the Empress' special invitation that the Queen of Italy accompanies King Humbert.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Tender for Work in British Columbia.

SEALED TENDERS will be received by the undersigned up to NOON on WEDNESDAY, the 1st day of FEBRUARY next, in a lump sum, for the construction of that portion of the road between Port Moody and the West-end of Contract 60, near Emory's Bar, a distance of about 85 miles.

Specifications, conditions of contract and forms of tender may be obtained on application at the Canadian Pacific Railway Office, in New Westminister, and at the Chief Engineer's Office at Ottawa, after 1st January next, at which time plans and profiles will be open for inspection at the latter office.

This timely notice is given with a view to giving Contractors an opportunity of visiting and examining the grounds during the fine season and before the winter sets in.

Mr. Marcus Smith, who is in charge at the office at New Westminister, is instructed to give Contractors all the information in his power.

No tender will be entertained unless on one of the printed forms, addressed to F. Braun, Esq., Sec. Dept. of Railways and Canals, and marked "Tender for C. P. R."

F. BRAUN,
Secretary.

SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of many to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES:—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

A STORMY SCENE.

There was a stormy scene in the Chambers of Deputies yesterday. Upon the President pro tem arriving several members desired to speak. The Chamber was not bound by rules. The President's predecessor, being the head member, while attempting to ascend the platform was seized by an Usher who hurled him down.

AMERICAN.

CONVICTION CERTAIN.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—A Washington special to the Times says that in spite of reports to the contrary Collector Bliss who has charge of the "Star Route" prosecution, says emphatically that he regards the cases made up against defendants very strong. He informed the President three weeks ago, after a careful examination of the evidence, that he had no doubt of the guilt of the accused, or of their being sufficient legal evidence to commit them.

UNFAITHFUL FIREMEN.

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 29.—Nearly all the members of the fire department have been arrested, charged with starting the numerous fires of the past year for the purpose of having the department made a paid one.

DOG FIGHTERS' DESERTS.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 29.—The owners of the dogs in the recent notorious dog fights have been indicted.

THE WAY TO STOP IT.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The clown Welch and James Acelston, charged with assaulting with intent to rob and ravish Kate Marsden, an emigrant girl, whom they decoyed from the train to a hotel here, have been sentenced to Auburn prison for twenty and two years respectively.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 29.—The Warden Memorial Tabernacle, a Presbyterian church in this city, was burned last night. It cost $150,000. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary. Joseph Walker, a fireman was badly injured by falling walls.

1—FARMERS AND MECHANICS.—If you wish to avoid great danger and trouble, besides no small bill of expense, at this season of the year, you should take prompt steps to keep disease from your household. The system should be cleansed, blood purified, stomach and bowels regulated, and prevent and cure diseases arising from spring malaria. We know of nothing that will so perfectly and surely do this as Electric Bitters, and at the trifling cost of fifty cents a bottle.—Exch. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

CABLE.

LOSS OF A SWEDISH BARQUE.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Swedish barque Haknas was abandoned in latitude 49 north, longitude 37 west. The captain, officers, and three men were drowned, but the rest of the crew were saved.

THE ANTI-JEWISH RIOTS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 28.—A court-martial at St. Petersburg has sentenced the leaders of the Anti-Jewish riots to ten years' exile in Siberia.

THE ENGLISH FARMERS.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Mr. Shaw Lefevre, First Commissioner of Works and Buildings, speaking at Reading, contended there was no analogy between the land questions in England and Ireland, but the grievences of the farmers in England would be considered in due time.

CONFEDERATE BONDS.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Considerable dealings in Confederate bonds are again reported as a slight improvement on yesterday's prices.

EGYPTIAN SENSITIVENESS.

CAIRO, Oct. 28.—The Egyptian Government has issued circulars to the European press informing them they must cease publishing articles calculated to wound the national feeling under pain of suppression. A similar warning has been issued to the Arab press relative to articles against foreigners.

KAIROUAN OCCUPIED.

PARIS, Oct. 28.—A column from Susa entered Kairouan without opposition. The insurgents retreated southwards after pillaging the city.

WITH ALL HANDS.

MADRID, Oct. 28.—The British steamer Calliope has been lost on the Spanish coast and only one person saved.

MORE HELLERY.

DROGHEDA, Oct. 28.—An extraordinary discovery of dynamite with a fuse and cap was made by officers of the Great Nothern railway at Drogheda station last evening. It appears that a passenger of respectable appearance was observed by a fellow passenger who travelled from Dublin to Malahide by the down express train to be handling a parcel from which the ends of cartridges were seen protruding, and on the arrival of the train at Malahide the guard's attention was called to the fact that combustibles were being carried in the train. The guard took possession of the parcel, and placed the affair in the hands of the superintendent, who endeavored to get the name of the supposed owner of the parcel, but failed, the party denying any knowledge whatever of it. The parcel weighed nine pounds, and was found to contain dynamite.

FOR AMERICA.

PARIS, Oct. 28.— Father Sheehy and Mr. Healy, M. P., leave for New York tomorrow.

THE LADIES' LEAGUE.

DUBLIN, Oct. 28.—It is stated all the Ladies' Land Leagues in Ireland will be immediately suppressed.

THE NO RENT AGITATION.

O'Sullivan, a prominent member of the Cork branch of the Land League, has been arrested, charged with inciting tenants not to pay rent. The leaguers of Fermanagh and Leitrim have issued similar incitements. An armed band visited houses in the neighbourhood of Carrick on Shannon threatening rent payers with death.

FOR IRELAND.

GIBRALTAR, Oct. 28.—The British channel squadron has proceeded to the coast of Ireland.

THE GERMAN ELECTIONS.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The St. James' Gazette commenting on the German elections, says the result is a drawn battle between Prince Bismark and his opponents. The Prince's home and financial policy, it thinks, have not obtained that approval from the electors which he sought, and the Conservatives, whilst acknowledging their comparative defeat, rejoice at the proofs of the gradual Conservative reaction, which the returns show has set in in Alsace and Loraine. The French delegates retain their seats despite the efforts of the Government to defeat them. The Socalists polled a large vote in some places, but in the large towns throughout the country the liberals have almost held their own, while in small districts Conservatives have made gains, the manufacturing classes favouring the Prince's protective policy.

GAMBETTA'S VICTORY.

PARIS, Oct. 28.—The French Chambers opened to-day, and Gambetta was elected provincial president of the Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 317 against, and 29 in favour of, Brisson, the vice-president of the last Chamber. The announcement was received amid great cheering. It is stated Gambetta ran for the presidency of the Chamber to test his strength with the deputies as a prelude to taking office.

AFFAIRS IN SOUTH AFRICA.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—It is understood that the withdrawal of the British troops from South Africa will proceed with all speed.

AMERICAN.

LEAGUERS IN AMERICA.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Oct. 28.—O'Connor was met at the railway station by several thousand people, and escorted to the hall by a procession of Irish-American socities and local Land League organization. The line of march was brilliantly illuminated, and there was much enthusism.

THE MISSISSIPPI DISASTER.

ROCK ISLAND, Oct. 28.—Of twelve persons who took refuge on the barque at the time the steamer Gilchrist was wrecked, and were saved, only one was a passenger, the rest being officers of the steamer and most of the crew. Mrs. Wendt and four female passengers were picked up clingingto a plank. Other three were drowned. Mrs. Wendt was badly scalded. Firemen Sanford and Brown, a coloured man and a passenger clung to the pilot house and were rescued this morning. Brown was badly scalded. He and Mrs. Wendt will probably die. All day parties have been out searching the river and island below in hope of recovering the bodies of those supposed to be lost by the wreck of the steamer Gilchrist. So far, however, the search has been fruitless. The friends of those supposed to have taken passage on the Gilchrist are here awating intellegence concerning their missing friends, but owing to the confusion and absence of those posted on the passenger list great doubt exists as to the number and names of the lost. A heavy rain to-day prevented the diver from making an investigation of the cabin and hull of the sunken steamer, which lies in about twenty feet of water. An inspection will probably be made to-morrow when it is probable a number of bodies will be recovered, as three or four people were seen in the cabin and other portions of the boat as she went down.

FLORENCE DAKES, who brutally assaulted Chas. Geddes, has been arrested. So far bail has not been accepted.

IT IS DOUBTFUL if the foot ball matches will come off to-day as the weather is very inclement.

THE STOCK MARKET was firm to-day.

TORONTO.

Special to the Review, Oct. 29.

A COMMITTEE of the City Council has resolved to recommend the granting of $5,000 to the sufferers by the Muskoka bush fires.

A SERIES of local races took place on the Newmarket course yesterday. No outside horses participated.

THOROLD.

Special to the Review Oct. 29.

A MAN NAMED John Garner was drowned in the new canal at lock 23 here, about half past one this morning. The lock master on duty, hearing an unusual splash, ran to where it proceeded from, but no trace was found until this morning, when Garner's cap was found. His body was afterwards found by grappling for it. He was last seen under the influence of liquor.

OTTAWA.

Special to the Review, Oct. 29.

SHORTLY AFTER ONE O'CLOCK this morning fire was discovered in the Brewery on Wellington street. The brigade lost no time in responding to the alarm, but the inflammable nature of the building made it difficult for the firemen to stop the flames even in their incipient state. The building was wholly destroyed. The loss is estimated at $25,000, which is partially covered by insurance.

LONDON.

Special to the Review, Oct. 29.

JOHN MASON has been arrested on a charge of being the person who committed a burglary at the house of Wm. McMullen, one of the asylum attaches last summer.

THOMAS GALLOWAY and Thos. Moore, the livery stable hostlers, who stole a horse and buggy from Geo. Hoscox, some time since, were arrested at Granton yesterday. The horse and buggy were found at Chatham.

TORONTO.

Special to the Review, Oct. 29.

IN THE CONSPIRACY CASE in which Edith Brownson charges a neighbor named Johnston with putting up a job to have her house proved disorderly, Johnson admitted running a house of ill fame in a different house on another street. She was disgusted and gave it up because so many elderly men brought young girls there. The evidence has been of a salacious character.

IN THE MERCER REFORMATORY there are 127 women and 20 girls. In the asylum there are 682 patients. In the Central prison there are 315 convicts.

THERE HAVE BEEN 363 cases of typhoid here this summer with only 6 per centage deaths. An ordinary percentage would be 16. At present there are close on 40 cases.

A SOLITARY DRUNK on the boards loomed up to-day. There are a small number of arrests.

PETER MCMERRY was the person to-day accused of beating his wife, and though her body was cut she wanted him released.

THE GRAND JURY recommended the asylum to be neither curtailed nor abolished.

THE RECORDING STEWARD'S shortage of the Bloor Street Methodist Church's funds turn out to be over $1,700. He has made over his property to cover the amount, but the business creditors will dispute this.

See to It?

Zopesa, (from Brazil) will cure the worst case of Dyspepsia. A single dose will relieve in a degree that shows its wonderful curative powers, and its peculiar action on the Stomach and Digestive Organs. It is a positive and absolute cure for Costiveness and Constipation, acting in a remarkable way upon the system, carrying off impurities. As a LIVER REGULATOR its actions are most remarkable. It tones and stimulates the Liver to action, it corrects the acids and regulates the bowels. A few doses will surprise you. Sample bottles 10 cents.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and complete restoration of vigor and manhood. Also for Rheumatism, neuralgia, Paralysis, Liver and Kidney difficulties, Ruptures, and many other diseases. Illustrated pamphlet sent free. Address Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

1—FREE OF COST.—All persons wishing to test the merits of a great remedy—one that will positively cure Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any affection of the Throat or Lungs—are requested to call at Taylor and Macdonald's Drug Store and get a trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, free of cost, which will show you what a regular dollar-size bottle will do.

"Don't Know Half Their Value."

They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney Complaint, as recommended. I had half a bottle left which I used for my two little girls, who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them one night if I had not given them Hop Bitters. They did them so much good I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say you do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough.—B., Rochester, N. Y.—American Rural Home.

In the month of October Typhoid, Bilious, and Malarial Fevers are very prevalent. For a sure preventative take, according to directions, DR. CARSON'S STOMACH BITTERS. They purify the System and cool the Blood. They are used to great advantage in Fever and Ague districts. In large 8 oz. bottles, at 50 cents. J. D. TULLY, special agent for Peterborough.

THE COUNTRY PRESS.

The Lindsay Warder says the Peterborough REVIEW puts its foot down on clubbing of country with city papers. The REVIEW is quite right. The advantage is altogether on the side of the city papers. We had something to say some time ago about the city and country press, but we don't know that the REVIEW rushed to our support. However, it dosen't matter. We attempted, perhaps very imperfectly, to show how much more valuable the country paper was, in its own locality, to the best city paper published. It is hard, though, to beat that into the heads of those who think that they are getting much more for their money when they give up their local paper to take one of the city weeklies. If these same people, who take the Mail or Globe, because "there is far more in them" than in the Warder, were asked to pay Mail and Globe prices for advertising, they would lift up their hands in holy horror. No, the Mail or Globe suit very well at one dollar a year, but when it comes to advertising cattle, lost, strayed or stolen, farms for sale or rent, the local paper is beaten down, if possible, to meet their views. The country publishers are to blame in allowing themselves to be beaten down. But what is one to do? In no other profession of the community is there such a want of unanimity as in the newspaper business. There is a shocking want of esprit du corps amongst its members, and all the contabulations of the so-called Canadian Press Association seem powerless in meeting the difficulties in the way. When one paper will take an advertisement for one dollar that another paper asks one dollar and a half for, the mischief is apparent. The greatest foes of the newspaper fraternity are those of their own household. If the publishers of country papers were only a little more independent, they would fare far better. It is all a mistake sending out papers year after year without being paid for in advance. But self-styled enterprising papers will carry a large load of indebtedness for the paltry pleasure it derves in stating the extent of its circulation. When country publishers come right down to hardpan, and agree to send out no paper until paid for, much better for themselves and the public at large. The Toronto World speaks very sensibly when comparing the value of city and country papers. Our contemporary says:

"The country weeklies are feeling the pressure of the city weeklies. Practically the big weeklies sent out by most of the dailies in Toronto, Montreal, London and Hamilton at an average price of seventy-five cents a year, are displacing the influence and reducing the revenue of the local papers. Now this is not a thing to be encouraged. Above all things, the farmer and residents of the villages should not let their local papers decline for want of support, nor should they grumble at paying one dollar and a half for a paper that has much less reading matter than the "great dollar paper" published in the city. An incalculable difference exists between the two, and in favour of the local journal; the latter has the interest of the subscribers at heart; the big weekly from the city is animated in no such way; indeed, may be opposing local interest in favour of centralization. It may be that there are too many papers in the country, but time and competition will weed them out, leaving at least two or three strong weeklies in each county."

No, the country papers have become a power in the land, and the sooner the country subscriber wakens up to the fact that by supporting the local paper he is the better serving his own interests, so much the better will it be for all concerned.

Fatal Circus Row.

CHARTERSVILLE, Ga., Oct. 26.—After the performance at a circus last night a difficulty occurred between the circus men and the deputy marshall and others. A negro was shot and killed. Others on both sides were badly beaten and bruised. Two circus men were shot. Whiskey caused the trouble. A lion and a bear escaped from the cages during the melee. The bear was killed, but the lion is still at large. Considerable excitement prevails.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—The late election here is very significant. Prof. Virschow, Progressist, polled 17,000 votes against 11,200 for Dr. Stoecker. Bebel polled 13,574 against 19,528 for Trager, Progressist, and 8,239 for a Conservative. Hazneclever polled 10,647 against 18,899 for Klotz, Progressist. No Conservative or anti-Semitic candidate for the Reichstag received enough votes here to entitle him to enter as a candidate in the second ballot. Henrici, a notorious Jew baiter, only received 800 votes out of 40,000. News from the provinces denotes a strengthening of the Liberal ranks. The defeat of the Conservatives is most significant in places where the Government put forth all its strength to support them. A large force of police was on duty in the streets here during the day, and numerous arrest were made.

A TENEMENT HORROR.

Perilous Position of a Whole Family in New York—Driven Out of the Windows.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—This morning a fire suddenly broke out in a three-storey tenament in West 16th-street, built in court, surrounded by six-storey brick tenements; and not ten feet from either, packed with poor people. J. Parkerson, wife, daughter Annie, aged 9, and Queenie, the baby, lived on the third floor. The only way to get up or down to the third floor was by wooden stairs outside the house. While the Parkersons were in bed at six a.m., the house got fire by drunken inmates of the lower floor upsetting a lamp. When the Parkersons were awakened by the smoke the lower part of the house was destroyed, the outside stairway burned down, and there was no means of escape except through a window down into the narrow space between the burning house and the tall tenament adjoining, the walls of which were red-hot and the pavement below covered with embers. Parkerson threw two bed ticks down to break the fall, and before they could burn up dropped his wife down, then his daughter Annie, and then took the baby in his arms and hung out of the window, preparing to drop with it. The window sill burned off and he fell, striking his head against the hot brick wall opposite with such force as to knock him senseless. The baby fell struck her head against the same wall, fractured her skull, and had her cheek burned off against the hot bricks. When Parkerson and the baby reached the bed-ticks the ticks were on fire, and both being unconscious. Mrs. Parkerson and daughter Annie had to drag them out through the narrow alley filled with burning wood, and when they reached the street all four were aflame, their clothes having ignited, and the mother and daughter became unconscious from exhaustion. All were taken to the hospital. The frame building had been condemned by the building department three years ago, and they had ordered it torn down, but the landlord had influence, and continued to have it remain and he packed it with tenants.

SCOTLAND.

IT is proposed to close up Dumbarton prison.

SIX hundred persons took the temperance pledge in Kirkintill in one week lately.

LETTERS from San Francisco, via New York, lately reached Glasgow in 15 days.

THE receipts of George Heriot's Hospital for last quarter were £9727, and the disbursements £9725.

DR. SCOTT, secretary of the U. P. Home Missions, has been presented with £3560, in recognition of his services during the last 13 years.

THE Duke of Edinburgh has consented to act as president of the International Fisheries Exhibition to be held in Edinburgh in April next.

THE harvest about Strathaven is finished, and in bulk the crop far exceeds that of an average. It has been secured in good condition.

THE Marquis of Tweeddale has granted to his tenants on the Yester estate a reduction of 15 per cent on the half-year's rent.

THE Rev. Walter Home, minister of Polwarth the "Father of the Church," has resigned his charge in consequence of advenced age.

THE estate of Eccles, 465 acres, was lately exposed to sale in Edinburgh at the upset price of £25,000, but there was no offer.

THE estate of Netherhall, in Balmaghie, has been purchased by Mr. A. Montgomery, Boreland, at £9,000.

A SHORT railway route from Perth to Edinburgh is proposed, by which the distance would be reduced to 47 miles, as against 70 at present, via Stirling.

SALMON and grise are unusually numerous in the Tweed. On the 7th inst. Mr. Denison, angling near Kelso, caught four salmon and six grise, of which the united weight was 117 lb.

THE Duke of Hamilton has left Arran for London. His party while in Arron bagged 3112 braces of grouse, besides black game, snipe hares, rabbits etc., and over thirty stags.

THE half-yearly meeting of the proprietors of the Bank of Scotland was held on the 4th inst, and a dividend declared at the rate of 13 per cent. per annum.

THE triangular shooting match, 20 men aside between Edinburgh, Stirling and 1st Lanark took place at Edinburgh on the 8th inst., and resulted in the order given.

Two of the four furnaces at Hurford have, in accordance with the agreement of the Scotch ironmasters, been extinguithed to curtail the production. This will throw many out of work.

THE buildings in parliment square, Edinburgh, recently acquired by the Government from the Union Bank, are to be converted into offices for the Lord Advocate and Solicitor General, and also for Earl Roseberry.

THE Rev. Mr. Fogo, of Row, having completed his jubilee as minister of the parish, a number of friends, including the Duke of Argyll, have subscribed the sum of £1,000 as a testimonial to the aged clergyman.

THE Teviotdale Farmers' Club met at Hawick on the 9th inst. and discussed the present farm rents, the resolution come to by them was that the hill farms are let 50 per cent, above their value, and arable farms still worse.

AT a meeting of the East Lothian Agricultural Club on the 7th inst, the present harvest and the future prospects of agriculture were under discussion, and a resolution was adopted setting forth that a reduction of rents was necessary to enable tenants to continue in their holdings.

THE recent performance of the "Antique" in Greek at the Edinburgh Acadmay has recalled the fact that it was first performed in Scotland 36 years ago, and has never been repeated since till now. On that occasion the role of Antigone was taken by Miss Helen Fancit; at the recent performance in the Academy it was taken by a handsome boy.

MR. BEECHER told his congregation at Plymouth Church on Sunday how he stole when a little boy, "You might open a hundred preserve closets before me now," he said, "and I would not be tempted; but once, when I was small, I remember I invaded the sancity of the preserve closet." His features broadened into a smile at the remembrance, and the congregation smiled with him. "My mother put me for punishment into a dark closet, in which unfortunately, she had put same fresh doughnuts. I went in there hoping to repent, and I would if it hadn't been for the doughouts. Fortunately for me the humour of the situation struck my mother, and I escaped with no worse consequences than a fit of indigestion."

BRONCHITIS.—From John Flagg, Esq., of Bennington, N.H.—"Three years since I was very much reduced with a dreadful cough, which resulted in Bronchitis, affecting me so severely as to render it difficult to speak in an audible voice. To this was added severe night sweats, and I was fearful of going into a decline. After recourse to various remedies to no purpose, I made use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, a few bottles of which fully restored me to health. Since that time I have had several severe attacks of cough, but the Balsam have always moved them. I always keep it by me, and should not know how to do without it." 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

The DAILY EVENING REVIEW is delivered to subscribers at ten cents a week.

FROM ALL OVER.

SUDDEN CHANGES IN THE WEATHER are productive of Throat Diseases, Coughs and Colds. There is no more effectual relief to be found, than in the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches."

MR. WM. MCCULLA, mayor of Brampton, at Hamilton disposed of waterworks debentures (5 per cent.), amounting to $40,000 of that town, to Mr. George H. Gillespie, at ¼ per cent. premium.

TO INDITE WELL and to write well are valuable accomplishments, but a good pen is helpful to the one, and indispensible the other. Those of the Esterbrook make are well known and widely appreciated.

THE Deputy Marshal of Wyandotte, Kansas, Mr. C. Patterson, says he has had the rheumatism off and on all his life and never found anything to benefit him until he tried St. Jacob's Oil, which always relieves him at once.

WORDS OF WISDOM.—No doctor will fail to impress his patients "that the mouth and teeth should be healthy because it receives the food and prepares it for its digestive work." Use Sozodont, gratify your family physician, and enjoy life comfortably.

IN Norway, it is said, the erection of telegraph poles and wires scares all wolves away from the neighborhood, and many miles of line have been put up for the double purpose of securing rapid communication and immunity from the wolves. Large districts have thus been cleared of the dangerous and troublesome brutes.

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.—With ordinary good grooming, and the occasional use of Harvell's condition Powders, any horse, no matter what the condition of his health or physique, can be so restored in every relation, as to make him an almost new animal. They are sold everywhere.

FOR CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, AND CHOLERA INFANTUM, as well as all Summer Complaints of a similar nature, Perry Davis' Painkiller, acts with wonderful rapidity, and never fails when taken at the commencement of an attack, and often cures after every other remedy has failed.

REV. B. S. TAYLOR is a young but bright light in the Methodist Church, and until recently was located in Sand Lake, near Troy, N.Y. His salary was not paid as regularly as he desired, and he caused some excitement one Sunday by making the following statement from the pulpit: "Not until some one is created who can manufacture his own buckskin breeches and live on wind pudding can a person exist as pastor of this church, and until such a person is found I declare this pulpit vacant. The congregation will arise and receive the benediction." For this little eccentricity Mr. Taylor's license was revoked, but friends interested themselves and procured its return.

Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters are in every sense of the word a worthy family medicine, and we are glad to learn that they are rapidly taking the place of those nauseous little Pills. J. D. TULLY is agent for the Bitters here.

THE GATE.

"Will you think of the old gate, darling,
In long, long after years,
Often, perhaps, with loving smiles,
Sometimes perchance with tears?"

"I will think of the old gate, darling
In the lane where we used to meet,
When I hurried along the well-worn path
With glad and eager feet."

Where we lingered so long in the gloamin'
Unwilling e'en then to part,
Telling each other our joys and cares,
Heart speaking out to heart.

How often we talked of our children,
Of Annie so bonnie and fair,
Of Katie so clever and winsome,
Of Eve with her golden hair.

You spoke in your pride of Willie,
Your gentle and manly son,
And me of my dear old Harry—
My absent and much loved one.

And we wondered as mothers will wonder
The fate of our loved ones to know,
And trusted our strong love could shield them
From sin stains and earthly woe.

Or we talked of the time they might scatter,
And flee from the parent nest,
Though out hearts might be longing to keep them,
For have we not loved them the best?

Aye, that gate was many a meeting
Through the pleasant summer hours,
And your face was a fairer greeting
To me, than the sweetest flowers.

But the autumn leaves are falling,
And the wintry winds must roar,
And our talks at the gate are over
Till summer returns once more.

There's another gate, my darling,
Leading up to the golden street;
Are we pressing onward to meet there
With glad and eager feet?

For there we shall know no parting,
But ever our song shall be
The love of that precious Saviour,
Who ransomed both you and me.

M. E. MUCHALL.

THE OUTSIDE CONGREGATION.

Why Young Men Will Stand Outside of Church Doors on Sunday Evenings.

When, in the natural course of events, it becomes necessary for young men to don winter garments and overcoats, they, as a rule, relinquish to some extent, with their summer clothes the common practice of assembling around the doors of a church during service on Sunday evenings. The windows and doors of the church are closed with the approach of the cold weather, and thus the hearing of the minister's voice on the outside of the building is rendered an impossibility. This may, perhaps, account for the discontinuing of the practice before mentioned. Yet there are some evil-minded persons who will, no doubt, say that these young men do not gather in front of the church to listen to the preacher, but to wait until the close of the service in order to convey a correspondingly young member of the gentler sex to her paternal residence. To arrive at the real truth of the matter, let us join the crowd that has assembled in front of one of the most

PROMINENT CHURCHES OF TORONTO

(for the more prominent the church, the largest the crowd), and observe quietly their actions. First, it is noticed that they are all well-dressed, and that they are very orderly and well-behaved. Even the policeman on the beat does not deem it necessary to utter the sterotyped "move on now!" probably because he is aware, from past experience, that they will "move on" as soon as the worshippers within have left and not before. The young men gather in clusters of twos or threes and discuss—well probably the discourse of the minister. That occasionally, however, some of them inveigh against the length of the sermon may be learned from the remark, "Well, Rev. Mr. —— is pretty long to-night." And indeed what else could be expected? for until the church authorities place seats outside for their accomodation, young men cannot be blamed for complaining when the minister dwells too exhaustively on "Fifthly." As the sermon draws to a close an increased feeling of restlessness is noticed, and now and then one of the bolder members of the "outside congregation" venture on tip-toe to the half open door, gazes within for a moment, and then returning resumes his conversation or his promenade, as the case may be. At length one of them on his return trip announces with an evident sigh of relief, that "they are taking up the collection now." Instantly the observor fancies that he has arrived at a solution of the problem so often propounded, as to what these young men want outside instead of inside the church. The solution arrived at is this; it is the ice cream season, and consequently the amonnt of small cash on hand or in the pockets of the majority of young men is very slight. To go to church regularly necessitates the loss of at least half a dime every Sunday evening, and as every half-dime counts, these young men prefer to listen to the sermons outside, where they are not forced to pay for them. This is at least of the mystery, and in future, whenever a similar crowd is seen, they should be looked upon with pity instead of held up to ridicule, as the case now is. Poor fellows, cheap as religion is, they cannot afford to procure it in the orthodox fashion. Having, then, heard the sermon and escaped the collection, it is but natural that these "poor unfortunates" should form into a line on each edge of the sidewalk and pass comments sotto voce on the "fortunates," who have been inside, as they pass through. Now and then a member of the line is seen to fall out, and with many a blush and stammer—his confusion being due, no doubt, to his shame at being a member of the outside church—offers his arm to a young lady, and if it is accepted, moves away a willing captive. Another and another drop out from the line with the same happy result, until the last of the inside congregation has disappeared when the surviving outside members also wend their way homewards, wishing fervently that they might be allowed to class church collections as travelling expenses.

Now, however, the cold weather is approaching, ice cream and boating have lost their charms; the young ladies of Toronto are too sensible to demand in the place oysters, and beyond an occasional visit to a concert, the average young man is put to no other expense, consequently he can afford to occupy a seat in church at least twice every month. He, however, still longs to be one of the guard of honour and with that object in view takes possession of a seat in the gallery, within easy reach of the door. Having thus arranged everything for a quick exit, as soon as the amen of the benedict is pronounced, he makes for the door, and arriving outside falls in, and waits patiently for the same happy consummation as in the summer time.

Having solved the great mystery, how can it be cured? This, perhaps, is a still harder question to answer, and unless the church officials pass a law prohibiting all young men under the age of twenty-five from adding to the collection, it is to be feared that the same lamentable state of affairs as regards outside congregations will continue to exist in she future. It is to be hoped, however, that some action will be taken in the matter during the winter, such as passing a law of the above nature, or, failing this, the placing of a number of seats in juxtaposition to the doors and windows, which will, although not so good, still prove beneficial.—Mail.

EXPELLED FROM THE CHURCH.

A Pennsylvania Presbyterian's Dancing and its Consequences.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 26.—The sessions of the Presbyterian Synod, now meeting in this city, have been taken up all this week with the hearing of the case of Heber Donaldson, who was expelled from the church at Emlenton on account of dancing. According to Mr. Donaldson's story he was an active member of the church at Elmenton, and in April last, being at a private party, he attempted to walk through the figure of a quadrille, something he had never before attempted. He admitted the dancing, but denied that there was any law of God or the Church that pronounced it a punishable offence. But of this he could not convince the church session, and they suspended him from the communion of the church. From this he appealed to the Claron Presbytery, but they refused to sustain his appeal, and as a last resort the case was brought before the synod.

REASONS FOR THR APPEAL.

Mr. Donaldson stated to the synod that his reason for bringing his appeal beford the synod was:—

First—The Clarion Presbytery erred in not allowing me to discuss the moral phase of dancing.

Second—The Presbytery erred in sustaining the action of the session, as that with which I am charged does not contain the elements of an offence either under the laws of God or of the Presbyterian Church.

Third—The Presbytery erred, as their decision was not supported by the evidence, there being no proof on record that any sin was committed on the occasion in question.

Fourth—The Presbytery erred in sustaining the action of the session, as their decision involves the making of new conditions of communion, and the making of conditions of church membership which are not conditions of salvation.

Fifth—the Presbytery erred in that they proceeded immediately by judicial process, without having first resorted to other milder remedies as provided in our book of discipline.

MR. DONALDSON IS A LAWYER, and had his case prepared with great care and attention. His first point was, "Is dancing prohibited by the Word of God?" and on this subject he quoted verse after verse from the Scripture where dancing was indulged in, and "used as a means of glorifying God, and yet in this enlightened age it may not be used as an amusement without offending some member of the Church of Christ." He then called attention to the Kirk session of Scotland in their persecutions in cases of amusement in the seventeenth century, in which they decided that consistent church members should avoid the very appearance of evil, but he maintained that by so doing every minister of the Gospel was made a monk and a spy upon his congregation, and such a course was not sanctioned by the Scriptures, in which is ever to be found mentioned music and dancing, the latter full as frequently as the former, and yet in the seventeenth century even music was considered sinful and dangerous. "I consider said Mr. Donaldson, "as sinless as a smile or a song. The sin is in the abuse of it, hence if you don't abuse it you don't sin."

DANCING IN ITS PURITY,"

At a late hour last night, and after much discussion, the synod sustained the action of the Emlenton church in expelling Mr. Donaldson from the church. The case has created quite a stir in religious circles. The action of the synod is by many most seriously criticised.

ZOPESA.

(FROM BRAZIL.)

The New Compound, its wonderful affinity to the Digestive Apparatus and the Liver, increasing the dissolving juices, relieving almost instantly the dreadful results of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and the TORPID LIVER, makes Zopesa an every day necessity in every house.

It acts gently and speedily in Biliousness, Costiveness, Headache, Sick Headache, Distress after Eating, Wind on the Stomach, Heartburn, Pains in the Side and Back, Want of Appetite, Want of Energy, Low Spirits, Foul Stomach. It invigorates the Liver, carries off all surplus bile, regulates the Bowels, and gives tone to the whole system.

Cut this out and take it to your Druggist and get a 10 cent Sample, or a large bottle for 75 cents, and tell your neighbor about it.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. Brown's Bronchial Troches do not disorder the stomach like cough syrup and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25c. a box everywhere. d62w9

Manufacturers of Reapers, Mowers, Threshing Machines, prefer "Castorine" Machine Oil to any other. It will outwear lard, seal or elephant, and is warranted not to gum.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's German prescription, and it is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced their has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced. 2d1w1y

Out of Doors.

Pure air and proper out-door exercise tend greatly to the prolonging of life. Live out of doors as much as possible, it will hurt no one where proper precautions are observed. A distinguished writer on health was in the habit of saying:—"However bad the air may be out of doors, it is always worse in the house." People shorten their lives by too close confinement indoors. To those whose daily employment necessitate being most of the day in-doors, we would say be sure and keep N. H. Down's Vegetable Balsamic Elixir at hand. You are extremely liable to be troubled with coughs, colds and lung disease, and no safer or more more reliable remedy can be taken. It costs but little to try it.

Daily Evening Review

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1881.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

A Narrow Escape.

It is asserted that William Brown, of Peterborough, one of the passengers by a late excursion train to Manitoba, fell from the car as they stood on the bridge over the Mississippi at La Crosse. It seems that the train stopped on the bridge at night time and divided. Mr. Brown, in attempting to step from one car to another, which was at the time several hundred yards distant, found himself in space tumbling over and over like a circus performer, on his way to the water forty feet below. He struck the river in good shape, and being a first-rate swimmer quickly made his way to the pier where he found a safe landing, and was shortly afterwards drawn up to the bridge by some of the workmen. He was damp but none the worse otherwise.

Hen Hunters.

Peterborough is infested with a gang of "hen hunters" that are doing some tall work during the midnight hours. The other night some person or persons entered the premises of a resident of Aylmer street and carried off some half a dozen of the said gentleman's "brahmas," and left another of them with its head chopped off lying close to the gate. Not contented with this haul, they partook themselves to the house of a neighbor, and there again raised havoc in the poultry line, carrying off four of the brood. This sort of thing is assuming large dimentions, and if the "roost prowlers" are nabbed, they will, no doubt, get their just asserts at the hands of the tormented parties and the Police Magistrate.

Midland and Grand Junction Railways.

The traffic returns of the above railways for the week ending Oct. 21st, 1881, were as follows:—

MIDLAND RAILWAY.—Passengers and mails, $3252.91; freight, $10998.07; total, $14250.98, as compared with $10470.99 for the corresponding week of 1880, being an increase of $3779.99; and the aggregate traffic to date is $330230.76, being an increase of $50386.75 over 1880.

GRAND JUNCTION RAILWAY.—Passengers and mails, $687.73; freight, $1978.52; total, $2666.25, as compared with $1499.72 for the corresponding week of 1880, being an increase of $1166.53; and the aggregate traffic from 1st June to date is $49439.84, being an increase of $29486.18 over 1880.

The Weather.

The weather is following the Toronto predictions very fairly. This morning was wet and miserable, but about noon the sun came out and continued to shine during the afternoon in a manner of late almost unknown to us. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—Fresh to strong easterly to south-easterly winds; cloudy to rainy weather.

Hunters Home.

A number of gentlemen from town who have been up in the north country hunting for the last two weeks, returned home on Friday night, after a successful hunt. They report having had any amount of sport, and bring home six of the finest deer that we have seen this season. Their friends gladly greet them on the streets, but the hunters appear annoyed when asked "How does venison sell this year in the back country?"

Another Old Resident Gone.

A gentleman residing on Aylmer street informs us that some prowler carried off from his premises on Friday night a duck that has been in possession of his family for over ten years. The man that eats that "old resident" must have good strong teeth, and his digestive organs will requre to be in first class condition, or we are afraid that there will be a corpse or a bad case of nightmare.

Summer Hotel.

A company is being formed at Port Hope to erect a summer hotel at Midland city; Messrs. Kennedy and McVittie, of Barrie, are submitting calculations and getting up plans with that end in view.

Bulk Oysters

By the pint or quart for sale at Carton's Fruit Store. d102

Inviting Incendiaries.

It is indeed a wonder to us that incendiary fires are not of more frequent occurrance in our town, when we consider the careless manner in which outbuildings, filled with straw and other combustable materials, are left open. On George street, the store formerly occupied by McKeiver and Hogan, and the only vacant store in town that we know of, is perfectly open, the back doors and front windows allowing intruders to pass out and in at will. Inside of the store are heaps of paper and straw, while pieces of boxes are plentiful. A first class opportunity is thus offered to evil minded persons to start a fire that might distroy the whole business portion of the town, if it once got a good start. The store is a splendid lodging place for tramps, who at any time might accidently drop a half burned match on a heap of refuse and thus perhaps unknowingly start a fire. We hope that whoever has chage of the building will see that it is properly closed.

"Three Hands Round."

This morning a plasterer and two laborers who had probably quit work on account of the wet weather, indulged in a free fight in the vicinity of the Mechanics' Institute building. The three were very drunk, considering the early hour, and were very demonstrative, in a very quiet way. One of the laborers and the plasterer had some words and clenched; both fell, laborer underneath. The plasterer at once proceeded to pound his prostrate foe, and gave him several hard hits. Laborer number two suddenly seemed to find out that laborer number one was getting the worst of the fight and concluded "to take a hand in" himself. He at once entered into the spirit of the thing, and matters were lively, until the two were separated. Result, reconciliation and no blood spilt. Police absent. Spectators many.

Poor Peggy.

Before P. C. McGhee took "Peggy" Oakley to the gaol on Friday morning, she raised "old hob" in the Constables' room. Chief Johnston was at her "boarding house" getting some clothing belonging to her, and she was left alone with the other officer. As soon as she found out that she was to go to gaol again, she commenced to pull her hair and pound her head, varying the performance every few seconds by hurling a large heavy chair at the officer and trying to upset the stove, all the time uttering the most foul language and hurling all kinds of curses and epithets at policemen in general, and P. C. McGhee in particular. After some trouble she was landed in gaol and again commenced to abuse the officials there before she was placed in a cell.

Our Manufacturers Abroad.

We learn from the Sentinel-Star that at the recent Union Agricultural Show held in Cobourg, that our local implement manufacturers were very successful. They won the following prizes:—Wooden Plough, P. Hamilton; Iron Beam Plough, P. Hamilton; J. Whyte & Co., Gang Plough, P. Hamilton. Green Crop Cultivator, P. Hamilton; Sulky Horse Rake, P. Hamilton; Reaping Machine, P. Hamilton; Straw Cutter, P. Hamilton.

Vennor's Almanac.

Vennor's almanac for 1882 is now in the printer's hands, and will be issued in both French and English in the course of a few days. In order to meet the great demand for this favorite almanac, the first edition will be a very large one. Orders may be sent to the Toronto News Company. Our booksellers should order at once in order to receive the work at an early date.

When?

We are asked every day when the streets are to be macadamized, and upon enquiry we find that every person in authority is just about as wise as we are, i. e., they know nothing about it. One citizen suggested that the street and bridge committee are waiting until the heaps of stones rot before the work commences. Perhaps that citizen is correct.

Wet Saturdays.

The merchants complain that every Saturday this month, and this is the fifth, have been wet and the business transacted, was therefore of course, far smallar than it should have been. As soon as we astertain the secret of controlling the weather, we will give fine weather every day. Better luck, next month.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

New Goods.

Use the Poland Metallic Hair Brush "for headache." British Plate Mirrors for ladies' toilet. Choice lot of those very desirable Gentlemens' Dressing Combs. TAYLOR & MACDONALD, Medical Hall, Corner of George and Hunter Streets.

Free Shower Baths.

Pedestrians complain of the constant dripping of water from the roof of Burnham's block, and seem to think that too often, in wet and dry weather, they are treated with a miniature shower bath while passing on the sidewalk. Repairs wanted.

Just in Time.

The street inspector made a good guess this trip and was lucky enough to have the mud heaps removed just before the heavy rain came. There will soon be more work of the same kind to do.

Coming.

The great Anthony and Ellis, Uncle Tom's Cabin Company, and the Memphis University Students, appear at Bradburn's hall on Monday evening. They are greeted with crowded houses everywhere. Go early to secure a seat.

Oysters! Oysters! Oysters!

Fresh oysters by the plate, raw, stewed or fried, at the St. James Hotel and Restaurant.

Coming Again.

Look for the coming of Messrs. G. E. Plummer & Co., with another heavy stock of Fancy Goods and Plated Ware similar to last year's stock, which had such a big run. Auction sales will begin next week in T. Menzies old stand, next door to Taylor & Macdonald's drug store, George street. See advertisement in Monday's REVIEW. 1d103

A Wise Deacon.

"Deacon Wildes, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors visiting us so often." Bro. Taylor, the answer is very easy, I used Hop Bitters in time; kept my family well and saved the doctor bills. Three dollars worth of it kept us well and able to work all the time. I'll warrant it has cost you and the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time." "Deacon, I'll use your medicine hereafter.

SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of mpny to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES:—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

CANADIAN TELEGRAMS.

HAMILTON.

Special to the Review, Oct.

JOSEPH SHANNON, Thos. Connors and George Donohoe, glass blowers of this city, were capsized yesterday and were in the water nearly an hour before being rescued. They were duly cared for by Capt. Campbell of the beach.

T. J. BELL, of Dundas, returned from his Anti-Scott act campaign in Welland, and is sure the act will be defeated.

E. P. HAMMOND, noted evangelist, will commence a revival campaign here shortly.

KINGSTON.

Special to the Review, Oct. 31.

A DRY GOODS STORE of Messrs. Richmond and Boyden, was burglarously entered between Saturday night and Monday morning and fourteen pieces of silks and satins stolen. The robbery no doubt took place on Saturday night, as on Sunday morning a piece of silk was found under a sidewalk on Queen street by the police, but they neglected to report the fact to the dry goods merchants, and the robbery was not discovered until this morning when Richmond and Boyden's premises were opened. A reward of $200 is offered.

MONTREAL.

Special to the Review Oct. 31.

THE ALLAN S. S. Circassian, from Quebec, arrived at eight o'clock this morning for Rimoski.

FRANCAIS MORIEHN, found guilty of murdering his wife, was sentenced to-day to be hanged on January 13th.

POLITICIANS are actively engaged here already in connection with the local election which takes place on Nov. 20th and polling on Dec. 2nd.

THE MARQUIS DEBASSANO is at the head of an important scheme of colonization for this Province.

THERE IS A GREAT indignation expressed here at the police authorities for holding David, who assaulted Geddes, in the police office instead of sending him to gaol.

THE STOCK MARKET was rather week to-day. Ontario declined to 59½.

TORONTO.

Special to the Review, Oct. 31.

THE SMALL BOY stone throwing nuisance has culminated in what may be a murder. A man named McManns, under the influence of liquor, was tormented by a gang, but as he did not retaliate, the fun grew menotonous, so Patrick Ellwood and Thomas Fennel took to pelting the inebriate with stones. The latter who was fined for this offence last week, threw a rock and missed McManns, whereupon Ellwood came up to within six yards of McManns, and let fly a large stone, which struck the inebriate on the forehead and rolled him over insensible into the ditch. Doctors dressed the wound but McManns has been delerious ever since. The youngsters, who are about 10 years of age are in gaol, bail being refused. At noon it was not certain whether McManns would live or die.

ROBT. HUNTER AND WM. SPILLERS, Toronto sportsmen, are in gaol at St. Clair flats for disregarding a summons to answer to a charge of poaching upon the Chatham reserve. Jos. Taylor, another of the party, escaped, and has arrived home.

HAGYARD'S PECTORAL BALSAM is composed of the most healing balsams and gums. The Balsams, which enter into its composition, were used by the natives when America was first discovered, and are combined with other vegetable tonics, so blended together, that it is a specific for all affections of the throat and lungs. Thousands of bottles are used annually, and it is considered one of the standard preparations of the day.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

CABLE.

PREPARED FOR PARNELL.

ARMAGH, Oct. 29.—Cells have been prepared in the gaol at Armagh for Parnell and forty others. Among the arrests to-day is that of an Englishman, Capt. Dugmore, late of the 64th regiment, former Home Rule candidate for Portarington,

THE EMPRESS EUGENE.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Ex-Empress Eugene visited Fontainebleu incognita on Thursday. She was greatly moved when shown the former apartments of the late Prince Imperial.

SPANISH POLITICS.

MADRID, Oct. 29.—The Chamber of Deputies has commenced to debate the address in reply to the royal speech. Pidal moved an amendment censuring the Government for not protesting against the distrubance during the removal of the remains of Pope Pius IX. The Minister of Foreign Affairs said it was impossible for the Government to interfere in the internal affairs of Italy. The amendment was rejected by 204 to twenty-eight.

GAMBETTA'S TRIUMPH.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—The vote for President of the Chamber of Deputies was a great triumph for Gambetta. His friends did not anticipate so large a vote. President Grevy states he will call on Gambetta to take office, leaving him the fullest latitude. Gambetta declares his readiness to accept office.

THE FRENCH IN TUNIS.

KAIROUAN, Oct. 29.—The French soldiers have been strictly forbidden to leave the camp to visit the city. The order caused much discontent. The insurgents occupy the mountains thirty-six kilometres to the southward of Kairouan, where they have excellent and abundant supplies and water. The capture of the city is considered of no value. A French gunboat bombarded Khoursef village, near Mehdir, where a number of Tunisian insurgents had taken refuge, and compelled the latter to surrender.

PARNELL'S LETTER.

DUBLIN, Oct. 29.—The Freeman's Journal publishes a letter from Parnell, dated Kilmainham. He depreciates the plan of evading the recent proclamation of the Government by the formation of tenants' defence assocations to replace the Land League. He says such associations would be tolerated by Gladstone only so long as they appeared to be disposed to carry out his views, and would be mongrel reactionary associations such as were formerly condemned by Davitt. Every man in Kilmainham is willing to remain there any number of months or years that may be necessary.

A CHIEF DEAD.

TUNIS, Oct. 29.—Ali Ben Amar, chief of the Tunisian insurgents, is dead. The insurgents are much demoralized.

TENNYSON'S LATEST.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Alfred Tennyson has published a dramatic monologue, entitled "Despair," in the current number of the Nineteenth Century. It is the story of a man and wife, who, having lost faith in a good future life, resolve to commit suicide by drowning; the woman is drowned, but the man is rescued by the minister of the sect he has abandoned.

SEVERE WEATHER.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 29.—Ice from Lake Ladoga has floated into the river Neva. The steamboat service is suspended and all the canals are frozen.

THE LAND COURT.

DUBLIN, Oct. 29.—The farmers are flocking to the Land Court in increasing numbers every day. Sixteen hundred applied yesterday, thirty-six hundred to-day. The staff of clerks is working night and day, yet all are completely swamped. It is in contemplation to appoint more sub-commissioners, as the four now about to sit are inadequate to labour. It would take two years for the present staff to work off the cases which will probably apply during the coming month.

STILL HESITATING.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—The Land Leaguers are still hesitating whether or not to transfer their headquarters to Paris. Virtually they are there already, for the only important leaders of the League not in gaol, with the exception of Arthur O'Connor, T. P. O'Connor and Justin McCarthy, are at the Hotel Normandie. Arthur O'Connor was here a couple of days ago, but received a summons to London, where he arrived yesterday. The Leaguers have a shrewd suspicion that the French Government would not tolerate any regular organization hostile to England on French Territory. It is probable, however, that the centre of the movement will for some time to come be here, but opening offices appears to be impossible.

ATTACKED BY A MOB.

BELMUT, Oct. 29.—Seven hundred persons attacked the police serving summonses at Belmut. The police fired, and several persons were wounded. Dr. Thompson's premises and several stacks of wheat and hay harvested by emergency men were maliciously burned at Ballyduff. Large crowds witnessed the fire with indifference.

THE GERMAN ELECTIONS.

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—From the results of the elections already known it may be broadly said that the Urban population is pretty well known to have pronounced against Bismarck's economic policy, but the reports from the rural districts not yet received, may turn the tide. The final result will not be known for several days, as many second elections are necessary, especially where the contest is between the Progressists and Socialists. The victory of the Progressists in Berlin is complete, although the Conservatives have gained much ground here since the last general election, which is significant. The most striking and significant fact brought out by the election is the great and decided increase in the strength of the social democracy, not so much by the members returned as by the number of votes given.

EARL COWPER RESIGNS.

DUBLIN, Oct. 29.—Earl Cowper, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, will soon be relieved, at his own request, by Earl Spencer, Lord President of the Council, and the latter probably will be succeeded by Earl Derby.

BLAINE'S CIRCULAR.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Saturdary Review, commenting on Blaine's circular, says Great Britain may perhaps deem it expedient to declare that no pretention can be strengthed by the use of menacing language. It may be well to preserve the formal right of protesting against any encroachment upon the neutrality of the canal precedent to the time of the Mexican expedition. Sound reasons might have been opposed to the American claim, but it is highly probable the banks of the canal will become virtually subject to American sovereignty, and it would be difficult to displace the occupants in possession.

THE TOTAL ARRESTS.

DUBLIN, Oct. 29.—There are now four hundred Land Leaguers imprisoned. It is probable Parnell will be sentenced to fourteen days' privation of visits for having written the letter published in the Freeman's Journal. The officers of the prison are under the apprehension that a sworn enquiry will be held touching the letter.

FATHER SHEEHEY'S DEPARTURE.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—Father Sheehey, acting under medical advice, has abandoned his original intention of returning to Ireland. He sailed for America from Havre to-day, accompanied by Mr. Healy, and charged with the duty of thanking the Americans for the assistance given to the League, and it may be presumed of asking a continuance of their generous favours. Healy will lecture in the United States.

DON CARLOS AGAIN.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—There was a rumour current yesterday that Don Carlos is expected here. A police agent was waiting for him last night at the Gare du Nord, but the illustrious representatives of Divine Right did not make his appearance.

AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS

Press Despatches to the Review.

CABLE.

SWISS ELECTIONS.

BERENE, Switzerland, Oct. 31.—The elections for members of the National Council, show very little change in the position of parties in this country, whose population gives the Council ten additional members.

GAMBETTA'S ELECTION.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The sub-committee of chamber of deputies pending a closer examination of the votes, have not yet declared valid the election of Revillon the intransigent opponent of Gambetta in the second electoral division of Belleville. It is stated that they have discovered errors which may possibly cause its invalidation.

AMERICAN.

BUOYANT BOYNTON.

OMAHA, Oct. 31.—Over 20,000 people witnessed the arrival of Professor Boynton, the Navigator. He had been in the water since Friday, with the exception of a few hours, when cooking his meals on shore.

$500,000 STOLEN.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 31.—The loss to the Wisconsin Central Railroad, by the alleged thefts of employees is estimated as high as half a million of dollars.

OUR SHAKEY PLANET.

HENNIKERN, N. J. Oct. 31.—Quite a severe earthquake was felt here this morning. The shock was also felt in other places.

FIERCE FLAMES.

EAGERFIELD, Q.C., Oct. 31.—Thomas Brown, and several other negroes were injured, but there was no loss of life here yesterday by the fire. Many families were in bed when the alarm sounded. Some barely escaped with their lives. There is much destitution and hundreds are homeless. Appeals have been made for aid. The loss is about two hundred thousand dollars.

"A BIG LIE."

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Vanderbilt says that the report that he was ill on Saturday is "a big lie."

MURDER MOST FOUL.

WALLINGFORD, Conn., Oct. 31.—Michael Earle's daughter when returning home found her aged father dead, with several wounds on his body. Frank Carroll, an old man, has been arrested on suspicion.

CONSPIRING CONDUCTORS.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 31.—The Wisconsin Central Railroad expect to prove an explicit conspiracy among conductors Cunningham and Brown, who have been arrested. Twelve others have been suspended. It is alleged that the conductors refraining from punching tickets turned them in to the station agents, who, in conspiracy sold them again. The conductors also divided the cash taken for the tickets and were in league with scalpers.

BIG BANK BURST.

NEWARK, N.J., Oct. 31.—The Mechanics' National Bank has closed in consequence of the statement of the cashier to the directors yesterday. An investigation is going on. The bank has been regarded as the strongest here. The stock sold at 180. It is reported that the cashier is a defaulter to the amount of $200,000.

SHIPPING MATTERS.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 31.—R. Mills & Co. are laying the keel for a new barge to be an exact duplicate of the Hamilton J. Mills just finished at their yards. The propellor Clarion was raised on Saturday from the bottom at Grosse Isle, Dewart River. The hole in the bottom was not closed up but three steam pumps kept her up. Most of the coal was lightened. She was placed in the dry dock.

1—FARMERS AND MECHANICS.—If you wish to avoid great danger and trouble, besides no small bill of expense, at this season of the year, you should take prompt steps to keep disease from your household. The system should be cleansed, blood purified, stomach and bowels regulated, and prevent and cure diseases arising from spring malaria. We know of nothing that will so perfectly and surely do this as Electric Bitters, and at the trifling cost of fifty cents a bottle.—Exch. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.

"Don't Know Half Their Value."

They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney Complaint, as recommended. I had half a bottle left which I used for my two little girls, who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them one night if I had not given them Hop Bitters. They did them so much good I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say you do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough.—B., Rochester, N. Y.—American Rural Home.

In the month of October Typhoid, Bilious, and Malarial Fevers are very prevalent. For a sure preventative take, according to directions, DR. CARSON'S STOMACH BITTERS. They purify the System and cool the Blood. They are used to great advantage in Fever and Ague districts. In large 8 oz. bottles, at 50 cents. J. D. TULLY, special agent for Peterborough.

THE MANITOBA BOOM.

Winnipeg's Growth and Prospective Advantages—The City soon to Rival Chicago.

A letter from Winnipeg received on Friday by a gentleman in Toronto gives the following interesting information regarding the growth and prospects of the city of Winnipeg. The writer says:—"I have no fear of the bottom dropping out of Winnipeg, though some of our numerous small towns may burst up. There has been $2,000,000 spent in building this year in Winnipeg. We have five railways running in here and more to come. There are already contracts let for $1,000,000 of buildings next year. The population has increased this year from 10,000 to 15,000. Prices on Main street are high, but even there rents are so high that a man can make on his money buying at the present rates. In fact there is enough business here for a city of 40,000 people already, and I believe in five to seven years we must reach this number. As long as the building continues there is no fear of prices dropping. The rise in value is due to the healthy demand for lots to build on. Toronto people have no idea of this country until they see it. My idea is that every acre of land in Manitoba is worth three acres in Ontario, and that in twenty years this province will be the leading province and backbone of Canada. Men are making rapid fortunes here, not only in real estate, but in every business, dry goods, hardware and lumbering. Even a farmer here can make a competence in three or four years by farming. In all wealth-producing qualities Manitoba is a long way ahead of Ontario. This makes me think there is very little danger of Winnipeg going through the same experience as Toronto did twenty years ago. Our development must be at least four or five times as rapid as that of Ontario. We are starting with fertile land, abundance of capital, and improved machinery, and we have no woods or stumps to grapple with. Winnipeg is established as the wholesale centre of the North-West and I think that if

TWELVE PER CENT

THE PRESENT PROTECTIVE POLICY

is maintained Winnipeg is destined to become the St. Louis of the North-West. As the Marquis of Lorne said in his speech at the Manitoba Club, there is no position as good as this for a great city. There will, of course, be occasional depressions, but a man who is able to hold must come out all right in this city. It only took ten years to raise Chicago from a population of 10,000 to one of 80,000, and judging by the way population is pouring in, I think the experience of Chicago will be repeated in Winnipeg. The possession of Manitoba and the North-West gives Canada a chance of becoming a nation instead of a mere Province, and I think there is a far greater career open here than in the older Provinces, both in regard to money making and ambition. There is ample room in the Canadian North-West for 20,000,000 of people—probably more. It makes every man who travels here indignant with for hindering its development and depreciating it. The Grits are in a minority of about one in one hundred here. The Syndicate are popular and are doing their best to justify the choice of the Government."—Mail.

THE GRITS

THE LOCAL PAPER.

The Lindsay Post says the publishers of the leading country papers have now forced upon them by the eager and reckless competition of two Toronto concerns, a question of some importance, viz:—the maintenance of the present subscription prices of their papers. A couple of years ago the proprietors of the Mail, in order to secure for their weekly edition "the largest circulation in Canada," reduced the price to $1.00 per year, the price before having been $1.50. This no doubt had its effect, for the Globe has now made a similar reduction. The net prices obtained for each paper, as any practical man knows, will scarcely cover the cost of the white paper. The city weekly enjoys the advantage of drawing set up type from the daily, so that it does not have to bear the heavy item of type composition. It is printed at a time when the presses for the daily are idle, so that the cost of presswork is reduced to a minimum. Still, the same reckless competition has not been at all profitable to either parties, as is well known, and not long ago by a combination the price of the daily issues was advanced from six dollars to seven dollars per annum. The money thus obtained is apparently to be squandered on the weekly editions. A good many of our Conservative contemporaries took occasion some five years ago to protest against and condemn the policy of the Mail in the matter of the weekly edition, and to point out that whatever it gained would be at the expense of its colleagues of the rural press. However this may be we do not allude to the subject in a complaining or captious spirit. We simply desire to point out two or three facts for the information of those who may be instituting comparisons. We are confident that a first-class local paper will hold its own as against any city paper, and we have never looked upon city weeklies as dangerous rivals. We agree with the concluding portions of the subjoined extract from the Peterborough Review as to the relative value of the two classes of papers. What we desire now to state is that in all likelihood the Toronto papers will in a year or two get tired of "running" each other, and advance the prices of their weekly editions to the old figure. They can do this without the least difficulty. They raised a dollar in their daily edition by a stroke of the pen. The publisher of a country weekly, on the other hand, if he lowered his price now, would find it almost impossible to go back to the $1.50. It would be a work of great difficulty. The line indicated by the Peterborough Review is far better and wiser; and it is the one we intend to carry out.

THE SLAVERY OF BRITISH FREE TRADE.

It is time that the people of this country should learn to think for themselves on this important subject instead of borrowing their ideas from the works of politico economical writers, who, while claiming to belong to the school of the author of the "Wealth of Nations," repudiate all his doctrines, praising what he denounced, and everywhere denouncing what he advised—to wit, the careful cultivation of the home market by means of which the products of the land should be consumed on the land, to the advantage of the laborer and the land owner, the manufacturer and his operatives, the ship carpenter and the merchant. From the day of the publication of his great work to the present hour, English political economy has steadily receded, until it has at length brought the nation into a state of exhaustion, from which extrication would seem almost impossible; and yet, free as we claim to be, we have a great party which advocates all the errors of the vicious system as grand truths, and unites with the teachers of those errors in repudiating the doctrines of the only political economist worthy of the name who has been produced in England—Adam Smith. From his day to the present hour, England has never, to our knowledge, made a single contribution to the science of which he is called the "father" that will stand, although theory has followed theory, and Ricardo and Malthus have been almost defied as the great benefactors of mankind in discovering and announcing the existence of great natural laws, in virtue of which famine and pestilence are the results of obedience to that first of all the commands of God—"Increase and multiply;" and increasing poverty among the masses, with icreasing inequality of condition, is to be the reward of that growth of population and wealth which always follows obedience to the great law of Christ—"Do unto others as ye would that they should do unto you." The object of the present British system, denounced by Adam Smith as calculated to diminish the return for labor and capital, both at home and abroad, and advocated by all of his successors as calculated to increase the return for both, is that of making England "the workshop of the world." To attain that object it was necessary to underwork the world, and everywhere supplant the native manufacturer in his native market. It has been done in Ireland, and the results are destitution, with famine of so frequent occurrence that the Emerald Isle lies almost a corpse upon England's hands. It has been done in India, until the whole class of small landholders has utterly disappeared, and the productive power of the country is so diminished that the Government must become bankrupt from the hour that China shall acquire power to prevent her people from being demoralized and poisoned with the opium, to secure the power to smuggle which England battered down cities and sacrificed many lives in the celestial empire. It has been done in the West Indies until they have all been ruined. It has been done in her North American provinces until their first desire has become that of abandoning the free trade policy as disastrous. It has been done in Portugal until that ancient ally of England is reduced to the lowest abyss of poverty. It has been done in Spain by aid of the smugglers of Gibraltar and Portugal; and there, as everywhere, the result has been the same—impoverishment and destitution on the part of the people, and weakness on the part of the government. It is now working out its legitimate and inevitable results in Japan, where a recently prosperous nation is sinking day by day, under the malign influences of British free trade, into penury, privation, wretchedness and distress.

Having exhausted many of her customers and driven the rest to self-protection to save themselves from the insatiate greed of her policy, the poison now reacts upon England herself. Her system has built up the fortunes of the few, who have become the sole possessors of land, while the whole body of small owners and occupants that existed in the days of Adam Smith has disappeared. The day laborer has taken the place of the small farmer, and from day to day the tendency to the accumulation of the land in the hands of large owners increases as the productiveness of labor decreases. The nation has fully and fairly realized what was said by Adam Smith, when he spoke of "a nation of shopkeepers." It is a nation of middlemen, living at the cost of the producer on one hand, and of the consumer on the other, and having for its whole code of moraly the obligation of "buying in the cheapest and selling in the dearest market." To produce cheaply, the large manufacturer must have labor cheap, and the more that land is centralized in the hands of the few, the greater must be the competition for employment, and the lower must be the wages of the unhappy laborer or workman, delivered over to the tender mercies of other middlemen who stand between the tradesman and his workmen. The consequences are precisely those anticipated by England's true and only political economist—Adam Smith. The class of high minded English merchants, renowned in earlier times for their probity and trustworthiness, has disappeared, to give place to a body of commercial gamblers, whose dishonesty and rottenness are brought full into view on the occasion of each frequent recurrence of a financial revulsion—the little agriculturist of olden time has become the occupant of the lanes and cellars of Glasgow, Liverpool and Manchester—the artisan has become the slave of the middleman—while the nation, becoming daily weaker, sinks from the station of the proud England of former times to become the mere creature of the lords of the loom, the dukes of the mine, and the earls of the shop, to help them carry on the exportation of merchandise which the impoverished people cannot afford to consume at home.

Such are the results of an insane effort to compel the world to permit England everywhere to interpose herself between the consumers and the producers of the fruits of the earth—such are the results of a long series of laws having for their object the establishment of a monopoly of the machinery for the production of cloth and iron—and such as they are they are precisely those predicted by Adam Smith over a century ago.

It is to aid in the maintenance of a vicious and destructive system like this that we are invited in the sacred names of friendship, of international comity, of universal peace, and of freedom in trade. In their names we are invited to close all our mills and furnaces—in a phrase, to stop manufacturing on our own account, and to impoverish ourselves—merely in order to supply more raw materials to enable the cotton and iron lords of Britain to swell their immense fortunes, to monopolize more land, pull down more cottages, drive more laborers to the lanes and alleys of London and Liverpool, Manchester and Glasgow, increase the competition for employment, and thus create a still lower market for labour whose products are to be sold abroad at large profits in markets artificially made dear. In their prostituted names we are invited to contribute towards the maintenance of a system which has done and is doing more for weakening, demoralizing and enslaving the people of the world, than any other that has ever been devised, and that must be annihilated before liberty can stand firmly on its feet. We say, nay!—Chicago Industrial World.

A THOUSAND DOLLAR ROBBERY.

An Old Farmer's Treasure Box Taken from His Bedroom.

Harrowsmith, Oct. 23.—During last night a robbery occurred which for coolness and audacity has not been surpassed in this part of the country. Mr. Hugh Peters, a well-to-do farmer living in close proximity to this place, retired to bed as usual last evening, and whilst he slept some persons effected an entrance through the cellar. They passed thence to the bedroom and removed, literally from under the old gentleman's nose, a large Old Country chest, in which he had kept his cash and valuables. The thieves took the large chest through a very narrow stairway into the cellar and made off with their plunder without disturbing the inmates of the house. They obtained an old English gold watch valued at $100 which hung upon the wall. The chest contained in gold $60; in British North America Bank bills, $220; Canadian silver, $90; and American half-dollars and Mexican dollars to the amount of over $100; also notes to the amount of $400, making a loss of over $1,000. The strangest part of the proceedings is the fact that no trace of the chest or trail of the burglars, notwithstanding the diligent efforts of the neighbors, can be discovered. The opinion steadily gains ground that the robbery was perpetrated by persons intimately acquainted with the interior of the house.

BELLEVILLE.

The Late Mr. Corby.—The funeral of the late Mr. Corby took place on Friday afternoon, and was very largely attended.

Frame Buildings Burned.—A frame building on Murray street occupied as a grocery and dwelling by Daniel Blondin, took fire this morning and was burned to the ground. Another frame building adjoining, owned by B. Truisach and occupied by Peter Johnston was also destroyed. Blondin saved most of his furniture, but his stock was destroyed. He was insured in the standard for $530 on stock and furniture. The building was owned by Mrs. Cole. Johnston saved his furniture and effects.

Struck by a Piece of Timber.

Lancaster, Oct. 28.—A serious accident occurred at South Lancaster this afternoon to Mr. D. McCrimmon, merchant and postmaster of that village. While assisting in putting up a smoke-stack in the new steam saw mill of Messrs. McArthur & Raysede, one of the pulleys on the derrick gave way, when a piece of timber fell, striking McCrimmon on the face, fracturing his nose, and knocking him to the ground, where he remained unconscious for a time. The doctors think that unless internally injured, he will recover, and be able to attend to his duties in a few days.

Shot for a Deer.

Mr. S. O'Gorman has received a letter from Stewart's Bay Nippissing District, with the information that a Mr. Ellis was shot on the 16th inst. by a companion who mistook him for a deer. They were about one hundred yards apart when the shot was fired. The wounded man, who was struck in the right breast, walked about five yards and said, "Mornington, you have shot me," and then showing the wound dropped dead. Mr. Ellis leaves a wife and eight small children, the eldest twelve years and the youngest three months old.

TRACTS, TRACTS.

"God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty.—" I. Cor. I. 27.

While lately engaged in distributing tracts,
This question has many times been Asked, "where do you get such valuable tracts
For never before have we seen
Their like, and we read them o'er and o'er,
And long for the time when you would bring us more?"

All who would desire such good tracts to obtain
May do so, for now you can buy,
At Miss Sanderson's, for a very small sum
A choice, well assorted supply,
And christain workers here also may gain
Aids, to strengthen their hands in their grand campaign.

For next to the bible, which cannot be
Supplanted by even the best
That the cultured minds of the sons of death
Can give, have these tracts been blest
To the saving of souls in lands far and near,
And in mansion and in cabin their fruits appear.

Yes, God has been pleased in his mercy to bless
These messengers fraught with his love,
Though humble their agency thousand of souls
Shall praise him in mansions above,
With the glorified hosts who the white throne surround,
That they through their means a redeemer had found.

There the thoughts of the good and the wise you may read
With pleasure and edified be,
And faith and repentance the ground work of true
Conversion, exemplified see
In persons transformed by the power of the word
To the praise of the glory of Jesus their Lord.

Dear reader think not that the time or the means
Is misspent that help you to lay
Up riches enduring that never will fail
Though heaven and earth pass away,
For what will avail health or learning, if grace
Hath not made thee meet for the heavenly place.

DISTRICT INTELLIGENCE

BOBCAYGEON.

THE EXTREME NORTH.—The Independent says that Mr. Niven and party are away in the extreme north, surveying and exploring the country to the the north of Lake Nipissing, and twenty-five miles west of Lake Tamisgaminque on the Ottawa river. Up to the present time the country in question has been rarely visited by white men, and by none others than the servants of the Hudson's Bay Company, and one or two surveyors. The lake is thirty miles in length and near the centre of it is Bear Island, on which is situated the stores of the Hudson Bay Company, and an Indian village of about sixteen families. Provisions are necessarily sold at a very high price. Flour $20 per barrel, and 3 pounds of pork for $1. Tea, tobacco, etc., in proportion.

AN EXCITING BEAR hunt occurred the last week in September. A bear killed a cow and calf, pasturing on an island near the village, and the Indians, hearing the cries of the animal, started in pursuit with guns and dogs, and succeeded in sleighing Bruin, but not before he had torn three dogs to pieces, and had nine bullet holes through him. The bear was a very large one, his skin is on exhibition at the chief's wigwam, and is the largest bear skin ever seen there. The cattle killed were all the Indians had, and were bought by them last year, and brought here as a commencement of cattle raising.

THE country around the lake is generally very rocky, covered with small timber, pine, birch, and popular. It does not hold out much inducement to the settler or the lumberman. Fur is very plentiful, also moose, cariboos, fish, etc. The party are all in robust health, and will be back in good time for Christmas.

CHEESE.—Mr. Fairbairn's cheese factory continues to do a capital business, and he sells all he can make at 15c. a pound. He has no trouble in selling it for many of his customers call at his house and carry it away with them. That which he does not sell to customers around here, he sends to Lindsay, where it is eagerly sought after. It is proving a very profitable business. He has now only thirty cows in milk, but the number will be increased to fifty in the spring.

PRESENTATION.—Many of our readers in this village will learn with great gratification that the Rev. Mr. Smiley since his removal to Durham has rendered his ministration most acceptable to the Methodist congregation of that town. Mrs. Smiley has been equally happy in her efforts in the Great Cause. On Friday last a large party called at the parsonage and presented Mrs. Smiley with a purse of $30 and Mr. Smiley with an address. Whatever were the contents of the address, Mr. Smiley may be assumed that they could not express greater regard for Mr. Smiley personally, or a more true appreciation of his talents, scholarship, and sincerity, that is entertained for him in this village to the present day. Durham should congratulate itself on having for a minister, a gentleman, a scholar, and a good man.

ONEIDA.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—The Herald says that our old and respected citizen, Mr. Wm. Curry, met with a painful accident on Monday night. He had gone out after dark to get a pail of water and while in the act of pumping, the bolt which holds the handle of the pump in position came out, causing it to fly up and strike him on the cheek bone just under the left eye, inflicting a severe wound. Mr. Curry informs us that had he been standing up straight the force of the blow would have floored him. The blood flowed copiously, and the surroundings of the optic have partaken of a dusky hue.

A. O. U. WORKMEN.—Mr. Wm. Long, organizing officer of this order, was in Omemee on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week for the purpose of organizing a lodge for this village, but was not, we are sorry to say, able to obtain a sufficient number of members. There can be no doubt that such an organization would prove a great benefit to the place. If ten or a dozen of our most enterprising business men would take hold of the affair a good lodge could be established in a short time. Mr. Long will be here again in a week or so when another attempt will be made.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Thursday afternoon last Mr. A. E. Byers met with an accident which might have proved fatal. He was in the act of getting into Mr. Merrison's buggy, when the horse made a sudden start throwing him down between the wheels, spraining his left wrist and bruising his left leg. In falling Mr. Byers seized a spoke of one of the front wheels and held it from turning, thus saving himself from more serious injury.

THE EXODUS.—On Monday last Mr. Chas. Marr, of this village, left for Manitoba. We wish him a safe and pleasant journey. Mr. John Wolstenholm moved to Peterborough last week as did also Mr. Cummings.

THE lumbermen of Kingston district are receiving $4 per month more than they did last year.

One of the outcomes of the recent disastrous fire in the Philadelphia factory, by which so many lives were lost, is a suit for fifty thousand dollars' damages brought by the parents of the victims against owners and operators of the establishment.

A COMPANY of Davenport, Iowa, sent an agent to invest its $20,000 capital in Leadville mines. He put all the money into seven ventures that yielded nothing, while three others that turned out well proved to have been made on his own private account. The company has voted a lack of confidence in him.

CAREFUL estimates place the income of the London Times at $5,180,000 per year; that of the Telegraph, $600,005; that of the Standard, $325,000; that of the News, $150,000. Thirty years ago the Times stated in an editoriol article that its gross income was equal to that of the most flurishiug of the German principalities.

JNO. ADAMS, ESQ., of Ambleside, Scugog, has lately received several head of cattle of the polled Angus breed, from the farms of the Hon. Mr. Pope. They are without horns, (polled you know,) perfectly black, and very pretty. We wish him success in raising high class cattle.

"I CONSIDER it a great pleasure," writes A. J. Doak, Esq., manager American House, Amesbury, Mass., "to state that the inflammatory rheumatism which so severely affected my feet, yielded at once upon a few applications of the St Jacobs Oil, which is worthy of the highest recommendation."

A FASTIDIOUS girl has written to the Presidents of all the principal colleges to enquire whether she should say "mumps is" or "mumps are." Some of the Presidents spoke feelingly of "one mump," while others were tenacious of "one mumps." It is strange that authorities differ on such vital questions.

HAGYARD'S PECTORAL BALSAM; a few doses relieves the most distressing cough, and a twenty-five cent bottle has cured many a sufferer from Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Influenza, Hoarseness and Soreness of the Chest. It is the grand specific for all throat and lung complaints leading to Consumption.

A quantity of ore from the Palmer mine has been arrayed at the United States Assay Office, 30 Wall street, New York, and the result shows one oz. of gold to the ton, valued at $20,67, with a trace of silver. As the mining and crushing of the ore does not cost more than $6 per ton, it is evident there is a bonanza in the Palmer mine.

THAT marvellous purifyer Burdock Blood Bitters, will speedily change the sallow face to one of freshness, health and beauty. It regulates the Bowels, acts promptly on the Liver and Kidneys and strengthens the system when broken down by Nervous or General Debility. Ask your druggist for a trial bottle, the cost is only ten cents. Large bottles $1.00.

J. ELLIOTT & SONS, Kingston, shipped the past season 7,000 cattle and 5,000 sheep. The average price paid for the cattle was $80; they sold in England for £20 to £25, leaving a bare margin for expenses. This year's business, they say has been unprofitable, owing to high freight and glutting of the English market with Australian mutton and Yankee dead meat.

WHY become a suffering martyr to Headache, when Burdock Blood Bitters will surely cure the cause of all varieties of either Sick or Nervous Headache, clense the system, regulate the Secretions, relieve Constipation of the Bowels, purify the Blood, renovate the Liver and tone up the Nervous System, and distressing headache will be unknown. Sample bottles ten cents. Large bottles $1.00.

Two residents of Napanee, Mr. Cyrus Woodcock and Mr. Lloyd, sustained slight injuries while blasting sand stone at Lansdown, for the glass works, on Thursday of last week. They had put in a charge of gunpowder which failed to explode and sometime afterwards some of the men were working with a pick-axe in the vicinity when the charge exploded. The two men mentioned above were the only persons hurt and their injuries were of so trifling a nature that they have since been able to resume work. The report which first came to Napanee was that both men were dangerously injured.

BRONCHITIS.—From John Flagg, Esq., of Bennington, N.H.—"Three years since I was very much reduced with a dreadful cough, which resulted in Bronchitis, affecting me so severely as to render it difficult to speak in an audible voice. To this was added severe night sweats, and I was fearful of going into a decline. After recourse to various remedies to no purpose, I made use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, a few bottles of which fully restored me to health. Since that time I have had several severe attacks of cough, but the Balsam have always moved them. I always keep it by me, and should not know how to do without it." 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

HINTS FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

OLD wall-paper may be very much improved by simply rubbing it well with a flannel cloth dipped in oatmeal.

THE best duster with which to clean carved furniture is a new paint brush; you can remove absolutely all the dust with it. Try it.

MIX a little carbonate of soda with the water in which flowers are immersed, and it will preserve them for a fortnight. Common saltpetre is also a very good preservative.

WORDS OF WISDOM.—No doctor will fail to impress his patients "that the mouth and teeth should be healthy because it receives the food and prepares it for its digestive work." Use Sozodont, gratify your family physician, and enjoy life comfortably.

FOR CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, AND CHOLERA INFANTUM, as well as all Summer Complaints of a similar nature, Perry Davis' Painkiller, acts with wonderful rapidity, and never fails when taken at the commencement of an attack, and often cures after every other remedy has failed.

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.—With ordinary good grooming, and the occasional use of Harvell's condition Powders, any horse, no matter what the condition of his health or physique, can be so restored in every relation, as to make him an almost new animal. They are sold everywhere.

IRELAND.

THE Ballinasloe October fair opened on Oct. 7th with a display of 50,000 sheep.

THE wife of Colonel O'Callaghan was fined 50s. at Tulla, on Oct. 7th, for carrying a rifle without a license.

THE reports that farmers are applying in large numbers to the Land Court, are confirmed. This is a direct defiance of the League's authority, and shows more conclusively than anything else that Parnell's power is winning fast.

MR. JUSTIN MCCARTHY'S constituents have warmly endorsed his action in the English Parliament. He has been addressing meetings in the county of Longford, receiving addresses, and many earnest assurances of the esteem in which he is held.

THE Earl of Meath, in reply to a letter from his tenantry, asking for lime for manuring purposes, refuses their request on account of the new relations between landlord and tenant instituted by the land Act, which he says deprives landlords of one-third of their incomes, and transfers it to their tenants.

Two volumes have been presented to the Pope, containing an address signed by 26,000 Romans, protesting against the misconduct of the crowd which assailed the Papal cortege on the night of the 13th of July, when the remains of the late Pope were being removed from St. Peter's.

ACCORDING to present arrangments, the Empress of Austria will hunt next spring in the county Meath, Ireland. Summerhill is being prepared for her Majesty's reception, the stud being located at present at Brownstown, on the Curragh. A cead mile failte awaits the Royal huntress, who will certainly not be boycotted there.

THEcompetition for Irish land will only be weakened by industrial employment. Until the great majority of the working people can earn money in factories and mills, the only field open for their labor will be grabbed at with avidity. On September 14th the good will of three acres of land in Monaghan was sold for £90. Thirty pounds would be the reasonable value of the plot.

1—FREE OF COST.—All persons wishing to test the merits of a great remedy—one that will positively cure Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any affection of the Throat or Lungs—are requested to call at Taylor and Macdonald's Drug Store and get a trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, free of cost, which will show you what a regular dollar-size bottle will do.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. Brown's Bronchial Troches do not disorder the stomach like cough syrup and balsams, but act directly on the Inflamed parts, allaying Irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25c. a box everywhere. d52w9

Why will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's German prescription, and it is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced their has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced. 2d1w1y

Out of Doors.

Pure air and proper out-door exercise tend greatly to the prolonging of life. Live out of doors as much as possible, it will hurt no one where proper precautions are observed. A distinguished writer on health was in the habit of saying:—"However bad the air may be out of doors, it is always worse in the house." People shorten their lives by too close confinement indoors. To those whose daily employment necessitate being most of the day in-doors, we would say be sure and keep N. H. Down's Vegetable Balsamic Elixir at hand. You are extremely liable to be troubled with coughs, colds and lung disease, and no safer or more more reliable remedy can be taken. It costs but little to try it.

Are You?

Are you a Dyspeptic? Have you Indigestion? Is your Liver sluggish? Does your food trouble you? Does sleep fail to refresh you? Is your appetite and energy gone? ZOPESA (from Brazil) will cure you, tone you up, and invigorate your whole system. It is a gentle purgative, acts as a wonder upon, and gives strength and energy to the Digestive apparatus. It is strongly anti-billious, carries off all surplus bile, tones the Liver, gives sound Digestion and speedy health to the Dyspeptic and the Billious. Try a 10 cent sample at least of J. D. TULLY or T. RUSTON. d90w24

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produces a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened; the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

The Anthony and Ellis Ideal Uncle Tom's Cabin Company arrived in town to-day, and will put on the stage at Bradburn's hall to-night the great and popular play, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." This company is one of the largest and best travelling, embracing 25 people, the Memphis University Students, six blood hounds and a trick donkey. Every one is full of enthusiasm over the production of Uncle Tom's Cabin, and it is not too much to say that the best representation of it ever given will be offered the public here. Each season the enterprising managers add new attractions and seek in every way to improve what was already well nigh perfect. Topsy, the girl that growed, is given to the life by the famous artiste, Miss Kittie Lougee. Her songs, dances and banjo solos are nightly greeted with immense applause. Little May Hillman as Eva gives a magnificent piece of child acting, and Mr. S. M. Cook as Uncle Tom, portrays the faithful old slave to the life. The popular comedian, Jas. E. McElroy, as Marks, the lawyer, is beyond criticism, and every character is well handled—the whole forming the best rendition ever given of that popular story. The closing tableau, "The Rock of Ages or Eva in Heaven," is most touching and beautiful. The popular low prices which have made this management so successful are still in vogue, and with seats at 25, 35 and 50 cents no one will be obliged to stay at home.

A Curious Proceeding.

On Saturday night an incident occurred on George Street, in the very centre of the town, that has occasioned considerable talk. Several different stories are told, and of course it is a difficult matter to get at the exact facts. It appears, however, that a highly respectable lady was walking down the front street, when she suddenly found herself clasped in the arms of a drunken man. Naturally the lady was terribly frightened, and of course, found relief by fainting. She was assisted into a store where she soon recovered. The man states that the occurrence was purely accidental, and says he was in danger of being run over and sprang forward to prevent such a catastrophe, and the lady being in front of him, he put his hands against her to prevent himself falling. Such are both sides of the story, and we expect that the true facts will come out in the Police Court.

Christmas Cards.

Mr. G. B. Sproule, bound to be ahead, as usual, has now on exhibition at his studio, on Hunter street, the finest collection of Christmas and New Year's cards that we have ever seen. His stock embraces samples of all the finest cards produced by Prang, of Boston, the most celebrated manufacturer in the world, and the cards are copyrighted this year, so that you are sure of getting the very latest. Mr. Sproule's cards are far superior in every respect to any ever before brought into town. Every card is a gem and a work of art. It is impossible to describe them, they must be seen. He shows among others, copies of the cards that secured the $1,000 prize. Persons in want of cards should call at once as they are sure to sell quickly.

Pay for Your News.

The agents and employees of the Great North Western Telegraph Company are forbidden to hereafter give the public information for which they do not pay. It will now be the cheapest plan to consult the papers for the news. This is one more step in advance.

Pay List.

The fortnightly pay list of the men engaged on the street and bridge work, presented to the clerk on Friday, amounts to $170.89, of which sum $40.49 is for lumber, etc. The season is now rapidly drawing to a close and work will soon cease.

POLICE COURT.

FOUND DRUNK.

MONDAY, Oct. 31.—John Strain, aged 28, was charged with being drunk in a public place by P. C. McGhee. He was arrested about 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon and was kept in the cells and gaol until this morning. Defendant pleaded guilty.

CHIEF JOHSTON said he had never known defendant to be as bad before.

Judgment fine $2 and costs $3.50.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.

Charles Beavis was charged by P. C. McGhee with being drunk and disorderly on the public streets on Saturday night. Defendant pleaded not guilty.

P. C. MCGHEE, sworn,—He saw two men on Hunter street about 12 o'clock on Saturday night. They were singing and shouting at the top of their voices. In company with another officer he followed them up. He recognized defendant's voice and shortly afterwards arrested him on Stewart street. Defendant was under the influence of liquor and staggered. He placed him in the cells and afterwards in gaol. Defendant and Daniel Cushing were going to fight at the corner of Hunter and Bethune streets.

DEFENDANT did not remember swearing, but admitted singing "a bit of a song" on the street.

The MAGISTRATE said that such conduct was disorderly. Defendant asked for a chance this time and promised never to appear before the Magistrate again.

The Magistrate imposed a fine of $2.00 without costs, which was promptly paid.

DITTO AND DITTO.

Daniel Cushing, with a splendidly colored black eye, appeared to answer a charge of being drunk and disorderly on the public streets on Saturday night, preferred by P. C. McGhee.

Prisoner admitted being on the street and in company with Beavis when he was arrested. He said he was not drunk but that he had a flask of liquor in his pocket when the officers took him.

The MAGISTRATE said that being out on the street in an intoxicated condition at such an hour was an offence itself.

Judgment, fine $2 without costs, to be paid before Saturday next.

The Great Through Route.

A special telegram from Midland informs us that the schooners Fellowcraft, Lady Dufferin, Lady Macdonald and Midland Rover are at the elevator unloading grain, while the Erin and Consort are just coming in. This represents about 150,000 thousand bushels of grain arriving in one day. With these figures before them, who can say, when the crops of the present year are below the average, that the Midland is not securing its full share of the through grain trade? With increased facilities next year in the shape of rolling stock, shorter line, and two shipping ports at Belleville at Port Hope, the Midland is bound to be the great grain carrier of the continent.

A Thieving Servant.

Recently a respectable looking girl applied to Mr. J. King, Miller at Hall's mill, for a situation as servant, and her services were accepted All went well until Saturday night, when the girl was sent down town for some goods. She did not return until a late hour, and was heard getting into the house. On Sunday morning it was found that her bed had been occupied, but that she had left, taking with her various articles of wearing apparel and household goods, on which she had no claim. The police have a very good clue as to who she was, and are on the lookout for her.

The Midland's Traffic.

The Intelligencer remarks that the freight traffic on the C. J. R. has been so heavy this week that there are not cars enough at the command of the Company to carry the freight that is awaiting transport at Belleville and other points. The same can be said of the Midland Railway, and as will be seen by an notice in another column, the customers of the road are requested to have their way bills and freight at the station at least thirty minutes before the freight trains depart.

The Weather.

The weather continues fine and the public are well pleased. Probs. promises continued mild weather and that is exactly what we want. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—Light to moderate westerly, veering to southerly and south-easterly winds. Cloudy, continued mild weather.

Rifle Association.

Col. Villiers, the new Deputy Adjutant General of the district is expected to be here on Wednesday on Thursday for the purpose of inspecting the arms, clothing and accoutrements of the different companies. There is some complaint made that members of the Rifle Association who got rifles for the recent matches are very slow about returning them. All rifles now out are wanted in at once for the inspection.

Promenaders.

On Saturday night the weather was exceedingly fine, and of course the promenaders were out in full force and did the "two block walk" to their hearts' content. On Sunday night again the streets were thronged until a late hour. Everything was very quiet and orderly, and we only hope that every Saturday night to come will be the same.

Who's Right.

It is said that the muskrat and Vennor do not agree. The former is constructing his house with reference to protection against a hard winter, while the latter predicts an open winter. Now, let us see which knows most about the weather, the muskrat or Vennor.

In Advance.

Four darkies, one astride of a donkey, and two of them behind drums, three bloodhounds, two banners and numberless small boys paraded the principal streets this afternoon, advertising Anthony and Ellis' troupe which plays to-night.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

INTERESTING FACTS CONCERNING WOOD-PULP.

Until recent years only a few varieties of wood were used in making wood-pulp. The poplar was early liked for this purpose on account of its clear white fibre and the ease with which it could be converted into pulp. Spruce has been considerably used of late, and hemlock makes a good quality of pulp. A large number of factories have been established for the making of wood-pulp alone, and there are good reasons why its manufacture should be often carried on separate from the other processes of paper making. Less capital is needed for making pulp only. The cost of a modern wood-pulp mill, with a capacity of five tons a day, is about $30,000, while a paper mill of the same capacity would cost not less than $100,000. Moreover, since pulp, as a commercial commodity, is easily transported, pulp making, unlike the paper making process, which can often be best carried on in or near some city, can be advantageously conducted in an out-of-the-way place, where abundance of timber is at hand, and where water power, the cheapest of motive powers, and often found in connection with the clear, pure water necessary for pulp making, is abundant. Formerly the wood designed for pulp making, after having been reduced to pulp by powerful machinery, was boiled with strong chemicals in a generator, under great pressure, until the mass was digested into pulp; but recently many mills have introduced the grinding process. The wood, after being steamed soft, is ground by powerful machinery, which almost entirely dispenses with the caustic acid before so largely used, and thereby saves much expense. Of late experiments have been made in Canada with a view to utilizing the vast accumulations of sawdust at the lumber mills for the purpose of paper making, and some of the pulp made from sawdust has been sent to England to be tested. The idea of making paper from sawdust is not new. In 1852, Wilkinson, in England, patented a process of making paper from sawdust, and a man named Johnson also secured a similar patent in England in 1855. Although it is very evident that sawdust could be much more easily made into pulp than solid logs of wood, there are several serious obstacles that prevent the production of a proper quality of this pulp. One is this:—In making paper from wood it is necessary to remove all the bark and also the knotty portions before attempting to reduce the wood to pulp; but in the process of sawing lumber, portions of the bark and also of the knots are cut away and mixed with the sawdust. Then, too, all kinds of wood are being constantly cut in the saw mills, and the sawdust made of them all mingles and includes much pine pitch, which renders the whole mass of sawdust very objectionable for paper making purposes. To remove these obstacles and some others is the problem, and it has not been satisfactorily solved. Wood-pulp is so largely in demand that factories for making it can be established with the certainty of doing a good business. So scarce was wood-pulp in the United States during the past season that some of the mills, unable to obtain enough, were obliged to shut down on certain grades of paper.

Two kinds of wood-pulp are used in the manufacture of printing paper, respectively designated as "mechanical pulp" and "chemical pulp." Any ordinary wood which is fibrous, free from knots and decay, and is easily disintegrated, is suitable for making cheimical pulp, though the whiter the wood and the less acid it contains the better. The wood is cut into small pieces, diagonally with the grain, by revolving knives, just as logwood is cut for dyeing purposes. It is then treated with a superheated bath of caustic alkali, and afterward subjected to the same processes as are clear rags. In making mechanical pulp no chemicals are used—not even lime. An ordinary white wood is suitable for the purpose, but poplar is preferred, although the dark heart is not used. The process of manufacturing is the most stupid that could have been devised, yet it is cheap. Water power is used, and it is estimated that one cord of wood, with two stones or emery wheels and 30 horse power will produce the equivalent of from 1,200 pounds of dry pulp per day, with the labor of three men—one to attend to barking and sawing the wood, one to attend to the stones, and one to look after the pulp. The wood is used soon after it is cut, or, if seasoned, it must be steamed. The sticks are pressed endwise against the stones or wheels, and with a plentiful supply of water they are literally ground to pulp, thus destroying the fibre. Unlike the chemically prepared article, this pulp is not allowed to dry before being used. The damp sheets are folded, packed in bundles and sold, with an allowance of 40 per cent. for the moisture. To manufacture paper from it, the addition of some kind of fibre is essential—say from 20 to 80 per cent., according to the kind of paper required. Good printing paper is made from the chemical pulp without the addition of any other fibre, and the use of it is desirable in making even the best book paper. Some excellent book paper is made of 40 per cent. of this pulp, and the printing paper now being used by the government is made wholly of white spruce pulp. Machinery of the capacity for making, say 7,000 pounds of rag paper per day, will turn out from 12,000 to 15,000 pounds per day.—Philadelphia Record.

FARM AND GARDEN.

AN hour spent in making seed clean will save a day or a week in the future in eradicating weeds.

THE receipts of cattle at Chicago for week ending Oct. 15th were 43,758 head, the largest ever known.

ONE Portland, Me., firm has put up this season 530,000 cans of sweet corn, 300 tons of which were shipped to the West.

ABOUT four thousand bushels of onions have been raised at Dighton, Mass., this season, and it has been decided by many farmers that onion growing is more profitable than the culture of strawberries.

ONIONS keep well in a cold, dry cellar, if not too early; they should be stored in a dry loft, or on a barn floor, until cold weather endangers their freezing, when they may be barrelled and put in the cellar.

THE best farmer is the one who thinks as well as works; who knows what he intends to do a day, or at least, a night, in advance; who believes that thought has as much to do with successful farming as plenty of muscle, if not more.

PLANTS prepared for the greenhouse and the window gardens should be kept in the open air to harden them, as long as the frost keeps off, but at night they should be either brought into the house or protected from the chilly air.

RHUBARB plantations may be manured as soon as the leaves are killed by frost, and the work will be out of the way in spring. It is usually done by first raking off the rubbish, after which a light furrow is turned from the roots on each side; the manure is then spread along the furrows, and covered by the plough.

BEETS, carrots, and potatoes should be harvested in the fine, clear, dry weather of this month, and placed in heaps in the field, covered with an inch or two of loam, to await a convenient opportunity for placing them in the pit or cellar for winter storage. The harvesting of turnips and cabbages is usually delayed till November, in order to insure cooler weather, and in order to allow these crops to grow as long as possible.

THE use of charred bran for preserving delicate fruit while on the road to market bids fair to solve the problem which has so long perplexed some millers. Converted into charcoal, the light and slippery product of the mills ceases to be unmanageable; and it is quite likely that a large local demand for charred bran will arise in the vicinity of most mills, for packing not only quickly perishable fruits like peaches, plums, and grapes, but also apples and other firmer fruits, for storage as well as for transportation.

A Wise Deacon.

"Deacon Wildes, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors visiting us so often." Bro. Taylor, the answer is very easy, I used Hop Bitters in time; kept my family well and saved the doctor bills. Three dollars worth of it kept us well and able to work all the time. I'll warrant it has cost you and the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time." "Deacon, I'll use your medicine hereafter.

Parnell has been forbidden to see his solicitor for the purpose of instructing him to take steps to test the validity of his arrest unless the warden be present. A protest against this order has been lodged with the governor of the prison.

POLITICS IN SPAIN.

MADRID, Oct. 31.—300 Democrats who lately rallied to the dynasty, dined together on Sunday. They drank toasts to the alliance of democracy with monarchy under the ægis of liberty. Moret and General Prendergast T. Gordon, the newly appointed Governor of Cuba the latter being chairman, eulogized the King, and were loudly applauded.

THE FRENCH ELECTIONS.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The Chamber of Deputies to-day validated great numbers of the elections, including that of Gambetta for Belleville.

CHURCH vs. LEAGUE.

DUBLIN, Oct. 31.—The pastoral of Archbishop McCabe was read in all the Catholic churches of the Dublin diocese yesterday, and created considerable sensation. Passages from the pastoral were printed late last night, and demonstrations against it to be made to-day, were at once organized. At the pro-Cathedral in Marldoro street about one hundred young men rose at the moment when the priest began his references to the Land League, and drowned the speaker's voice in the noisy demonstrations they made in leaving the building. At Arran Quay chapel a similiar incident occurred and in other chapels dissenting noises and gestures were made.

A FRENCH VIEW.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The Republique Francaise, discussing the election of Gambetta to the temporary presidentship of the Chambers, says:—"This vote appears to have a deep political significance. As every one knows, M. Gambetta has no intention of definitvely resuming the post of president of the Chamber; another, doubtless one of his friends, will replace him at the Palace Bourbon. It seems to us that M. Gambetta cannot long remain an inert force in the Republic."

EUGENIE IN FRANCE

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The Figaro yesterday morning announced that for several days past the Empress Eugenie had been in France. She was said to be staying at Viscount Aguadas' country seat, the Chateau de Sivry, and to have been seen both in the palace at Fontainebleau and in Paris. "Napoleon III's widow," says Figaro, "is in deep mourning, and her hair is quite white."

RUSSIA AND TURKEY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 31. — The Russian Ambassador consents to the reduction of the interest on the war indemnity, but demands a settlement of the indemnity simultaneously with the arrangement with the Turkish bondholders.

BISMARCK'S VIEWS.

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—Bismarck, replying to a telegram from the anti-Semitic club of German students, regretting the result of the elections, says he is neither surprised nor discouraged, and that chronic diseases require time and patience for cure.

PROBABLE DISSOLUTION.

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—It is probable there will be a dissolution of the Reichstag if the Conservatives and Clericals combined should not have a majority.

NIHILISM IN RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31.—What is believed to be the greatest political trial in the history of Russia will take place early in November. Some forty of the most prominent Nihilists now under arrest will be tried, chief among whom is Tregonai. The trial will be conducted in profound secrecy, and the world will only know of the main result when sentence has been pronounced. The Russian revolutionists are very busy in their movements about the empire, which forbodes some evil stroke. The people feel from what they see of these mysterious and effective movements that preparation is being made for the striking of some terrible blow, but where it will fall none but the inside leaders of the revolutionary party can even surmise. What adds to the feeling of common terror is the action of the Government of Russia. It has ordered that large bodies of troops be kept in readiness to act at a moment's notice in every large city of Russia, especially at St. Petersburg.

THE SUPPRESSED PORTIONS.

DUBLIN, Oct. 31.—Considerable commotion was caused by Mr. Parnell's letter, printed in Freeman's Journal on Saturday. The following are the suppressed portions which are most significant:—"The only organization any longer possible is that the tenants should meet upon the estates where they are called upon to pay rent, and should decide upon the common line of action recommended in the manifesto of the executive. The time is now come for the Irish people to choose between the Government Land Courts and the principles of the League. We have used our resources to support those who stand by our principles, but we won't aid any tenant on those estates where fellow-tenants on the same estates are unmindful of those principles. We have therefore directed those in charge of the relief funds to refuse assistance to tenants on any estate where the rest of the tenants have paid rent or applied to the court to have a fair rent fixed. We advise evicted tenants to continue to rely on the League, and not to waste their resourses on a useless legal struggle. Permit me to express in conclusion the unanimous feeling of every man in the gaol, that they are willing to remain here for any number of months or years, that may be necessary, so long as the Irish people, whom it is impossible to imprison, stand by the lessons we taught them during two years."

Press Despatches to the Review.

CABLE.

A FAST DAY.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—This being a fasting day in the accounting department, the Bank of England and the Stock Exchange are closed.

WILL GLADSTONE RETIRE?

The Standard says that we have the best reason for the belief that Gladstone contemplates resigning the Chancellorship of the Exchequer. There are also grounds for the belief that he meditates retiring altogether from official life.

A CHANGE OF BASE.

VIENNA, Nov. 1.—A semi-official letter from Berlin states that the members of the Farmer Centre Party in the Reichestag will now become devoted supporters of Bismarck. This is fraught with deep anxicty for the vatican.

THE GERMAN ELECTIONS.

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—The election excitement last week was most intense. It is stated that the whole question of Bismarck remaining in power depends upon the amount of support he can expect from the Clericals. Should the Chancellor refuse to expunge or modify the May laws directed against the Catholics, he will encounter opposition almost as great as that of Progressists. Little can at present be expected by the Covernment from the Conservatives. The criiss is severe, and made more so by the report that Bismarck will probably dissolve the present elected Parliament before Christmas.

MORE ARRESTS.

DUBLIN, Oct. 31.—Several more arrests were made to-day in various parts of Ireland. It is stated a secret meeting of a branch of the Land League was held at Dublin on Saturday, when 200 new members were enrolled.

A BRITISH LAND LEAGUE.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The police to-night prevented a meeting at the east end of London called to from a branch of the Land League of Great Britain.

FOR WANT OF EVIDENCE.

Andrew and Patrick Gallagher, secretaries of the Ballybuttes and Killinan Leagues, recently arrested on suspicion of firing upon a party returning from working a "boycotted" farm, were discharged to-day for lack of evidence, but were re-arrested under the Coercion Act.

AMERICAN.

A "GRANT" CABINET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Herald's Washington special says that Blaine has expressed freely in very recent conversations his views as to the next Cabinet. For himself, he says that he will retire in December. The Cabinet, he says, will be Grant from top to bottom after 1st January.

GUITEAU'S TRIAL.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Guiteau's counsel hope to have the case ready a day or two before November 14th, the day set for the trial. The trial promises to be protracted.

FALL FAILURE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—John A. Bertaller an importer of fancy worsteds, has assigned; liabilities over $100,000.

THE COTTON EXCHANGE.

Fifty business men of various distant cities were admitted to membership of the cotton exchange yesterday, paying $5,000 each. The price of seats hereafter will be $10,000.

A TEMPERANCE ACT.

PENDLETON, Ind., Nov. 1.—Nathaniel Jukes' saloon was blown up with dymanite on Sunday night. It is supposed to be the work of the radical temperance party.

A HANDY WITNESS.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 1.—Dr. Rice, of Wankehaw County, has been subpoenaed as a witness for Guiteau. It is expected that he will testify that he examined the Assassin three years ago, and declared that he was then suffering from softening of the brain.

THE "RINGERS" JUBILANT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Tribune Washington special says that the "star route" ring is all jubilant over the non-appearance of Cook and Brewster, the special counsel for the Government, in court yesterday.

BALDWIN'S SPECULATIONS.

A gentleman conversant with Wall street affairs said yesterday that he knew that Baldwin speculated largely in the street for many years, and both made and lost.

GAMBLING IN GRAIN.

The American Agriculturist for the current month very properly calls attention to the great grain speculation or craze of 1881, which has surpassed anything of the kind which has ever taken place in the United States, the head centre of these gambling operations. For those not familiar with the modus operandi of these gamblers it may be necessary to explain: Suppose the present price of wheat is a dollar per bushel, the gambler thinking prices will go up, goes to a broker and buys a given quantity of wheat to be delivered at some future date, say one month hence, and deposits with him a sum equal to five cents per bushel on the quantity contracted for. As long as wheat keeps up, this is all that is necessary to keep his contract good, but if it should fall, the broker calls for more "margin" which must either be put up forthwith or that already up becomes forfeited. In this way it often happens that after the buyer has put up his last cent, the price declines or is forced down still further and he is cleaned out. To those, however, who hold out until the day agreed upon for delivery, or rather for settling arrives, not a bushel of wheat is delivered, or was ever intended to be delivered. If it has gone up the buyer is handed over the difference between the price at which he purchased, and the price quoted on the day of settlement, and of course is returned his margin, and that is the end of the transaction. Some idea of the length to which this kind of gambling has been carried may be formed when we state that on the first of October last, the "deliveries" (settlements would be the proper name) in Chicago alone footed up to thirty-two millions of bushels. Apart altogether from the pernicious effects of these transactions upon those who engage in them, this sort of "speculation" is demoralizing the whole trade, and proving most injurious to both the bona fide dealer and producer. Of course wherever such transactions are indulged in there is always two elements at work; the one to raise or "bull" the market, the other to depress or "bear" it, and so completely have the bulls and bears got hold of the Chicago market, not only in wheat, but in nearly all kinds of farm produce, that its quotations are valueless as a true index to the real values of farm produce, much to the injury of both producers and consumers. Hitherto this kind of gambling has been confined to the United States, and chiefly to Chicago, but there is too much reason to believe that it is being gradually introduced into Canada, and that men who would hold up their hands in honor at the idea of their playing a game of whist, have no hesitation in betting (for it is nothing more or less) on the price of some article of produce, one, two, or three months hence.

Wood For The Paper.

The Lindsay Post says:—About this season, or a week or two later, the sturdy farmer casually remarks to the family, at supper time. "I guess I'll run in a load of wood to town tomorrow and settle up with that printer man." And he does it. Hitches up in the morning, drives down to the old fellow, throws on a lot of charred branches, three or four hemlock stumps, and half a dozen logs that had done duty on a corduroy road since the early settlement, comes back across the lot, heaves on a panel or two smashed up fence rails; plugs up the load with a rock or two to keep it from falling off, steers round by the manure heap, throws on last year's sideboards; jerks out his grandfather's hay rack and adds that for luck. Three or four pump logs and the middle slab of a stone boat finished off the assortment upon which he climbs and hies himself away to town, feeling that he is doing a meritorious thing. Walks into the office of the Slabtown Roarer, and says, "Boss, I've a load of wood out here, I want to turn it against my paper. Where will I throw it off?" Proprietor demurs, says the wood doesn't look as good as it might. Farmer dodges the issue and remarks that he can get the Globe for one dollar. Proprietor intimates that he can't sell the Globe his wood. Farmer says he can get a dollar for the load and then subscribe for the city paper. Proprietor comes back at him and offers one dollar for wood. Farmer can't see it. Proprietor, in desperation, tells granger to throw it off. Full-cloth wins. 'Twas ever thus.

CANADA'S RESOURCES.

Immense Tracts of Pine Land Discovered North of the Georgian Bay.

Col. William Mercer, a railway engineer of large experience, passed through Chicago a day or two ago to commence the survey for the Quincy, Vandalia and Eastern road. The Colonel brought the first tangible information from the mysterious exploring expedition which recently left a port on the Lake Huron shore and proceeded to the mouth of Spanish River, on the Georgian Bay, where they dismissed the steamer which had taken them thus far, and took to small boats, in which they proceeded up the river one hundred and fifty miles, penetrating a region little known to the white man, and which the Candian Government has never yet

SURVEYED OR EXPLORED.

The expedition was gotten up so quietly that only a few persons interested in the result of the exploration knew of its destination. Its abandonment of the steamer on the shores of the Georgian Bay was a matter of wonderment even to the officers of the boat, who could not, though they tried hard, guess the object of all the preparations which they found awaiting the voyagers at the mouth of Spanish River, and the extended trip of the adventurous little party at least awakened in the minds of friends at home fears that some serious disaster had overtaken them in this wild and unknown region. Launched upon Spanish River, the voyagers proceeded leisurely, noting the depths and currents of the stream, the magnitude of which surprised them more and more as they ascended. Reaching a point 100 miles inland from the Georgian Bay and the limit of Government surveys, the party landed and prepared to penetrate the great unexplored region before them. Here began the work that from its results may in the not far distant future open up a new and almost inexhaustible source of lumber supply. This, in fact, was the primary object of the expedition—to investigate the resources of this region as regarded the growth and quality of pine timber, and discover if such forests, could they be found, could be utilized when the pine supply of Michigan should be exhausted.

Establishing a base line six miles in length, the surveyors moved forward, sending outside parties, and in this way covered an area of 75 square miles. They found the pine timber of a superior quality, exceeding that of the Michigan forests, and in such quantities as to convince them that they had discovered a source which would furnish building material for Canada and the West at least. It was estimated that the area surveyed by them would furnish 24,000,000,000 feet of lumber, and they had not begun, according to the Indian guides, to penetrate this immense forest tract. The explorers also encountered small streams connecting with the Spanish River, which, in the event of the future tapping of this great lumber supply, would serve admirably in floating the logs to the greater stream, which is free from rapids and well adapted to the logging trade. The value of this great pine forest will perhaps be better understood when it is stated that the entire stock of uncut timber in the state of Michigan is estimated by practical engineers at only 35,000,000,000 feet.

In addition to this immense lumber supply, the party found evidences of which of themselves will in time serve to open up this great wild region to the fuller and freer knowledge of the enterprising white man.

Spanish River, according to Col. Mercer, is from its mouth to its rise, or as far as the expedition navigated it, a splendid stream, devoid of rapids or other impediments its entire length. It runs through a grandly picturesque country, with lofty cliffs and jutting precipices interspersed here and there with lengthy reaches of high plateaus. Its waters are of a good and uniform depth throughout. This river, together with the Ottawa River—the one running south west and the other south-east—serve as the

GREAT DRAINING AND IRRIGATING ARTERIES

to this widely extended land of the pine. The Ottawa River, however, is obstructed by frequently recurring rapids, and as a logging stream has many disadvantages which could not be overcome without the application of immense labor and expense. Plodding along through this almost interminable wilderness of pine, the explorers were surprised and gladdened by the voice of man coming from a source least expected—in fact, they ran upon a party of engineers engaged in the work of surveying for

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY.

Mutual greetings and congratulations were exchanged. The railway surveyors had long since cut loose from civilization, and yearned for some means of communication with their fellow-men. In accordance with these hopes and longings their daily accumulations of mail matter had been kept in the best state of preservation and at the foremost front, ready for any chance benighted party like themselves who would volunteer to carry them to their destination. This package of letters, which had assumed a goodly bulk, was taken in charge by our pioneers and religiously packed with their choicest instruments, in order that their charge might be properly regarded and respected.

Col. Mercer, who has been bred to eminent practical work, soon found occasion to question his newly acquired friends with regard to the prospects and ultimate intentions of the Canadian Government touching this great railway project. He had, through his own knowledge of the country, discovered that this road must pass through in the largest portion of which the print of the Indian moccasin has never been seen; and yet the Colonel, who is, as has been before stated, an eminently practical man, could not see how a road through such a country could be made to pay. To the casual observer it would appear that this vast tract of timber, with the accompanying mineral resources, as discovered by this exploring party, gives promise of a successful future to the railway enterprise that at its inception has such a wide and otherwise apparently unprofitable gap between its remotely separated termini.

Guiteau the Assassin.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Scoville's correspondence regarding the insanity of Guiteau has assumed great proportions. Scoville believes there will be no difficulty in establishing insanity. The assassin was very exciteable on Saturday, and angry because the attorneys are pressing the insanity plea. He says he rests his defence upon the inspiration of the Almighty, who caused him to kill the President. Insanity will also be pleaded in the case of Mason, who attempted to kill Guiteau.

1—Farmers and Mechanics.—If you wish to avoid great danger and trouble, besides no small bill of expense, at this season of the year, you should take prompt steps to keep disease from your household. The system should be cleansed, blood purified, stomach and bowels regulated, and prevent and cure diseases arising from spring malaria. We know of nothing that will so perfectly and surely do this as Electric Bitters, and at the trifling cost of fifty cents a bottle.—Exch. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.

THE PRINCESS LOUISE.

An Interesting Account of Her Indisposition from a Kingston Physician.

Anent this subject Dr. Dupuis, of Kingston, writes to the Kingston News as follows:—

Dear Sir,—I notice that in your issue of Tuesday evening you excuse the long absence of the Princess Louise from Canada by stating that she was seriously ill from the effects of the bruise which she received when thrown from her sleigh. I was glad to see that you had the facts of the case, as many persons and some newspapers incline to the opinion that she made use of that accident as a pretext for being absent from Canada. I am able to state on the best of authority that she was hurt so badly by the accident that her ultimate recovery from its after effects were considered doubtful. In July last, at the Royal College of Surgeons, I was introduced to Erasmus Wilson, one of the oldest and most eminent surgeons of England. As soon as he knew that I was from Canada, he entered into a conversation respecting our country. In the course of his remarks he spoke somewhat as follows:—"I always like to meet Canadians; but I tell you I shall not think so much of them hereafter if they do not use our Princesses better when we send them over there." This brought up the subject of her injury, and I told him that most persons here supposed that she was not seriously injured, and that her absence was caused by her dislike to Canada. He said, "Well, I know better than that; I know that she was badly injured, for I was consulted on her case as soon as she came home, and I can tell you, sir, that she was very seriously injured." The old gentlemen then went on and detailed to me the nature of the injury and the consequences that had resulted from it, and convinced me that what we had ignorantly considered as a trifling bruise, not knowing the facts, was an injury of the gravest import. And he further informed me that it was by the advice of her medical advisers and of her friends that she remained at home.

Also, another gentleman who is personally acquainted with the Princess informed me that she was anxious to have returned to Canada, but on account of the serious results that had followed the severe bruise she received on the side of her head, her friends and medical advisers would not allow her to return.

I think, therefore, we should not judge the motives of our Princess, nor accuse her of dislike to Canada, without knowing the reasons why she has been so long and so sadly separated from us.

See to It?

Zopesa, (from Brazil) will cure the worst case of Dyspepsia. A single dose will relieve in a degree that shows its wonderful curative powers, and its peculiar action on the Stomach and Digestive Organs. It is a positive and absolute cure for Costiveness and Constipation, acting in a remarkable way upon the system, carrying off impurities. As a Liver regulator its actions are most remarkable. SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of many to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES:—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

THE LATE MR. JAMES HOLDEN.

A Large Attendance at the Deceased Gentleman's Funeral.

WHITBY, Oct. 30.—The funeral of the late James Holden, Managing Director of the Whitby, Port Perry and Lindsay Railway, took place here to-day. The body arrived by the Grand Trunk mixed, and was received at the station by a large number of friends, and the Mayor, members of the corporation and citizens. The funeral was the largest seen in Whitby for a quarter of a century. There were between three and four thousand people present. Upwards of seven hundred came in by the funeral train from Lindsay and the north. Almost all the townspeople turned out en masse. The carriages numbered 180.

The procession was fully a mile and a half in length, reaching half way from the residence of the deceased to the Union Burial Ground. Amongst the general public were:—Hon. S. C. Wood; Hon. Senator Gibbs; F. W. Glen, M. P.; John Dryden, M.P.P.; Dr. Rae, Mayor of Oshawa; Mr. Taylor, Mayor of Lindsay; Col. Deacon; G. A. Cox, President of the Midland Railway; Lewis Ross, ex-M.P., Director Midland Railway; A. White, General Traffic Superintendent Midland Railway; Rev. Mr. Starr, Rev. Mr. Learoyd, Rev. Father McDowell, Rev. W. Briggs, Rev. Father McEntee, Dr. McGill, ex-M.P.P.; Mr. James Carmichael, Postmaster Oshawa; Mr. Jeffers, Secretary Midland Railway; Mr. Grace, of Lindsay, etc.

Mr. Ross, Superintendent of the Whitby, Port Perry and Lindsay Railway, and Mr. John Rice had charge of the funeral arrrangements, which were all carried out in an admirable manner. Seldom has there been such a spontaneous manifestation of public respect and of private grief as at the funeral of James Holden for the loss of a worthy citizen. His widow and large family have the sympathy of the entire community.

THE MONTREAL ASSAULT CASE.

Young David, Capt. Geddes' Assailant, Arrested—Investigating the Case.

MONTREAL, Oct. 29.—Last evening Detective Richardson arrested Mr. Florence David just as the latter was leaving his house for a stroll. The assailant of Capt. Geddes was very much inconvenienced by the arrest, and grumbled at it exceedingly. He was taken down to the police office, however, and would probably have remained there had it not been that he was accompanied by his father and Mr. Jesse Joseph. Alderman Grenier was sent for, though the hour was too late, and bail was received, David being allowed to depart. The detectives have not yet found Grant, the pugilist, for whom they are looking, but will likely catch him during the day. It is alleged that this professional fighter was engaged by David to be near at hand while he committed the assault, to protect him in case he became the assaulted instead of the assaulting party. Just now the preliminary investigation is proceeding in the Grand Jury room, and the case will likely be one for aggravated assault. That it was a deliberate affair will be the more apparent when it is shown in court that the young man waited until his bonds to keep the peace expired before attacking his victim. Thus the money under which he had his sureties were bound will not be forfeited. The more the affair is talked of the worse it seems. There may be some extenuating circumstances for David. If there are the trial will bring them forth. At present his brutality is all that is spoken of in connection with the affair. The presence of the prize fighter made matters worse, as the inference is, that had he been unable to cope with Geddes the pugilist would have put the finishing touch to the attack.

CANADA'S WHEAT PRODUCT.

Bradstreets recently gave some very interesting figures concerning the wheat crop of the Dominion. A synoposis of returns collected this fall in Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba, compared with those of the two preceeding years, gives this result:—

	No. of the replies Below avge.	avge.	Above avge.	Total
1881.
Fall Wheat	36	11	39	86
Spring wheat	51	9	39	99
1880.
Fall wheat	55	26	11	86
Spring wheat	24	92	5	121
1879.
Fall wheat	40	2	53	95
Spring wheat	57	66	19	142

It also appears that spring wheat has not been extensively sown this year, and that fall wheat was very generally substituted for it. Generalizing, nearly one half the reports place winter wheat above an average crop, while only 8 per cent, of the returns make it under the average. Regarding spring wheat, the small amount grown shows a yield averaging high and a harvest gathered under favorable conditions, although the present wheat crop of Canada has never been surpassed in quality and quantity.

The surpluses of Canadian wheat for this year and the three preceding are approximated as follows.

CANADIAN WHEAT IN EXCESS OF HOME CONSUMPTION.

	No. of bush.
1878	3,587,000
1879	5,908,000
1880	6,586,000
1881	7,000,000

The surplusage of 1881 points to a yield of wheat this season in Quebec and Ontario of 25,000,000 bushels. The good harvest is apparently not due to extended planting, as the acreage in the 2 sections has not been materially increased. Our returns from Manitoba point to a wheat acreage there of 100,000 acres, yielding in round numbers, 300,000 bus. of wheat. This amount added to the yield of Quebec and Ontario, gives 28,000,000 bushels as the wheat crop for the Canadian Dominion for 1881.

A Mother and Her Child Burned.

HALIFAX, Oct. 29.—On Friday a man named Owen Sweeney, living on the Carlton branch of the Tasket river, about six miles above Carlton, Yarmouth Co., heard cries of distress from the premises of Charles Bethune, his next neighbour. A moment later he saw Mrs. Bethune at the corner of her house enveloped in flames, and heard her agonizing cry "For God'sake save my child, it is burning in the house." Mr. Sweeney on entering the house found one of her two children, the youngest, terribly burned and its clothing still on fire. He instantly extinguished the fires which were consuming both mother and child, and alarmed the neighbourhood, and a doctor who resides in the vicinity was quickly on the spot. Mrs. Bethune was found to have been horribly burned, and after lingering in terrible agony for 10 or 11 hours she expired. The child was so badly burned that amputation of one or more limbs was deemed necessary. Before dying Mrs. Bethune explained that the fire caught her dress while she was sitting at the cook stove warming her back, that she vainly rolled herself on the mats to extinguish the fire, and that the child's dress caught fire from the burning mats as she crawled to her. Mr. Bethune was absent at the time. Mrs. Bethune was a native of Long Island, Digby, and in her 25th year.

NOVEMBER DAYS.

"Red o'er the forest peers the setting sun,
The line of yellow light dies fast away
That crowned the eastern copse: and chill and dun Falls on the moor the brief November day."

The year is begining to sing its Nunc Dimittis; the best part of its life is over; the greater and chief part of its work is done. And now a great silence creeps sometimes over the year—a lull, a breathless hush; and through dell and dingle and brake no sound comes save the brief song of the robbin, bubbling into life for an instant, then breaking off abruptly, as if scared at the echo or its own solitary note.

"Sweet messenger of calm decay,
Saluting sorrow as you may,
As one still bent to find or make the best,
In thee and in this quiet mead
The lesson of sweet peace I read,
Rather in all to be resigned than blest."

That last line touches the right chord of these November days. Decreasing daylight, gathering vapours, falling dews, the red sunset through the leafless trees—are the signs which follow in the train of the year's joyous working days that are now past.

What a contrast is this autumnal silence to the hot haste of harvesters of a few weeks back—the busy labour of carrying in the the year's crowning wealth! A little while ago the summer fields of the south were vocal with the note of joy and gladness. The mirth of the vintage was not over, the shoutings of the vinepressers had not ceased. A little while ago the hopgardens, those mimic vineyards of the North, were gay with holiday gatherers, a crowd of womenfolk and children glinting in and out among the arcades and festoon-work of golden greenery, plucking the scented harvest of clustering hops. A little while ago the yellow cornfields on the upland were lined and shreaked and starred with a pomp of ripening ageaves. But now all that is over, even the gleanere are gone. And the foolish, fond old year, as Longfellow somewhere calls him, is left to live on the memory of days that are past. It is like these red sunset skies, which are only a reflection of a light that is gone down, the lingering glory of a day that is done. If you go into the glen where a network of dewy gossamer threads is spread about your feet, or take a morning ramble by the brookside, the read leaves still left on the tangled briers that trail over the ferns only bring back to you the thought of other times.

"But thou, wild bramble! back dost bring,
In all their beauteous power,
The fresh green days of life's fair spring
And boyhood's blossoming hour.
Scorned bramble of the brake! once more
Thou bidst me be a boy,
To gad with thee the woodland o'er
In freedom and in joy."

And then the melody of the brook itself is changed. Coleridge tells of "a hidden brook, in the leafy month of June, that to the sleeping woods all night singeth a pleasant tune." But November has made bare all the leafy covering of this brook, and the dancing lights and shadows no longer sparkle over its ripple and play, and the melody is changed.

"In the chill sunbeam of the faint brief day
The dusky waters shudder as they shine;
The russet leaves obstruct the straggling way
Of cozy brooks with no deep banks define,
And the gaunt woods' in ragged scant array,
Wrap their old limbs with sombre ivy twine."

In fact "everywhere the spirit of some sad power seems to direct the time: It hides from us the blue heavens: it walks through the fields and lays the damp ungathered harvest low: it steals the summer bloom from the infant cheeks: it makes old age shiver to the very heart: it goes to the churchyard and chooses many a grave. It is God that goes his yearly round: that gathers up the appointed lives: and even when the hour is not come engraves by pain and poverty many a sharp lesson in the heart."

And this changed melody of the brook, this changed note in the robin's song, seems to run unconsciously through all the many verses which have been written about November days:—

"And now when comes the calm mild day, as still such will come,
To call the squirrel and the bee from out their winter home:
When the sound of dropping nuts is heard, though all the trees are still,
And twinkle in the smoky light the waters of the rill—
The South Wind searches for the flowers whose fragrance late he bore,
And sighs to find them in the wood and by the stream no more."

One more extract, and this a sonnet of Shakespeare:—

"That time of year thou mayest in me behold,
When yellow leaves, or none, or few do hang
Upon those boughs which shake against the cold;
Bare ruin'd quired, where late the sweet birds sang.
In me thou seest the twilight of such day
As after sunset fadeth in the West:
Which by-and-by black night doth take away,
Death's second self, that seals up all in rest.
In me thou seest the glowing of such fire
That on the ashes of his youth doth lie
As the death-bed whereon it must expire,
Consumed with that which it was nourished by.
This thou perceivest, which makes thy love more strong
To love that well which thou must leave ere long."

Apples as Food.

From the earliest ages apples have been in use for the table as a desert. The historian Pliny tells us that the Romans cultived twenty two varieties of the apples. In these later days we probably possess over two thousand. As an article of food, they rank with the potato, and, on account of the variety of ways in which they may be served, they are far preferable to the taste of many persons; and, if families would only substitute ripe, luscious apples for pies, cakes, candies, and preserved fruits, there would be much less sickness among the children and the saving in this one item alone would purchase many barrels of apples. They have an excellent effect upon the whole physical system, feeding the brain, as well as adding to the flesh, and keeping the blood pure; also preventing constipation and correcting a tendency to acadity, which produces rheumatism and neuralgia. They will cool off the feverish condition of the system; in fact they are far better for these purposes than the many nostrums which are so highly praised in the advertisements and so constantly purchased by sufferers. A ripe raw apple is entirely digested in an hour and a half, while a boiled potato takes twice that time. Now that apples can be purchased at such cheap rates, every family should keep a dish of them in the dining-room, where the children can have access to and eat all they please of them. They will rarely receive any injury from them, if they are thoroughly masticated. In France and Germany apples are much more in use as a common food by the laboring classes than with us. Baked apples should also be as constant a dish upon the table as potatoes. Every breakfast and every tea table should have a plate of them. Baked sweet apples are a very pleasing addition to a saucer of oatmeal pudding, and when served with sweet cream they are very appetizing. They are not as commonly used as they should be, as they will supply as much muscular and nervous support as dishes of meat and vegetables. Thousands of bushels of sour apples are used for pies and puddings in hundreds of families, where well-baked sweet apples would prove more nourishing food and much more economical. They are also good food for old people and are usually greatly relished by them. In my own family they are always, when in season, a part of the meals of the day and are as commonly used as a slice of bread.—Country Gentleman.

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

BRONCHITIS.—From John Flagg, Esq., of Bennington, N.H.—"Three years since I was very much reduced with a dreadful cough, which resulted in Bronchitis, affecting me so severely as to render it difficult to speak in an audible voice. To this was added severe night sweats, and I was fearful of going into a decline. After recourse to various remedies to no purpose, I made use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, a few bottles of which fully restored me to health. Since that time I have had several severe attacks of cough, but the Balsam have always moved them. I always keep it by me, and should not know how to do without it." 50 cents and $1 a bottle. SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Daily Evening Review

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1881.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Doomed to Disappointment.

On Monday afternoon the residents in the vicinity of that stagnant pool, with the high sounding name of Spaulding's Bay, noticed a number of men at work in the vicinity of the old mill, and at once jumped to the conclusion that the Town Council had at last taken action and were about to commence the work of filling up the "Bay," but shortly afterwards, when they noticed that the men lifted from the bottom the old smokestack of the mill and carted it away, their hopes fell and their dream was o'er.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Anthony and Ellis' Ideal Uncle Tom's Cabin Company played the above named well-known drama, to a crowded house, on Monday evening, in Bradburn's Hall. The play was fairly put on, some of the characters, noticeably those of Eva, Topsy and Uncle Tom, being well taken, while the others were not above the mediocre. The Memphis students, bloodhounds and the donkey lent additional attraction to the play.

An Outside View.

The Mail says that the Midland Railway is making a strong bid for a share of the grain-carrying trade of the West, and it possesses a valuable aid in the excellent harbour at Midland. Already the latter is becoming known in Chicago, and has diverted considerable grain from the old-established routes via Buffalo or Collingwood. It will prove a formidable rival to the Northern and North-Western railways.

Said to be Insane.

An information has been laid against "Peggy" Oakley, charging her with being insane, and dangerous to be at large. There is not the slightest doubt but that she is deranged, and judging from her recent actions is growing worse all the time and should be placed in some asylum, before she has a chance to inflict severe injury on some person.

Filling Up.

The Street Inspector has a number of men at work, filling up, with gravel, the numerous holes along the sidewalks and crossings on the front street. Heretofore these have been filled with water that lodged after every rain, but now it is expected that the water will flow down and find an outlet through the gratings and sewers.

Injuring Property.

On Monday evening a number of young scamps serenaded Mr. Justis Dunn on Charlotte street, and smashed several panes of glass and bespattered his porch with ancient eggs and other articles. Mr. Dunn knows some of the youths and intends to punish them for their misdeeds.

Timber Limits.

We learn that Messrs. R. and G. Strickland have purchased the Dominion Bank timber limits in the townships of Oakley and Hindon, County of Victoria. We have not learned the price paid, but understand that the limits are among the most valuable in the back country.

Cow Killed.

The evening train on the Grand Junction, on Monday, killed a cow on the track a short distance this side of Downer's Corners. After a time the owners of cattle will find out that it pays best to keep their animals off the railway tracks.

Literary Society.

A meeting of the Peterborough Literary and Debating Society takes place at the Mechanics' Institute building on Monday evening next, when the election of officers will take place.

Board of Education.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education, takes place at the Collegiate Institute building, this evening, at 7.45 o'clock.

Fire Brigade Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Fire Brigade, takes place this evening at the Simcoe street hall at 8 o'clock.

Town Council.

The regular meeting takes place at the Council Chamber next Monday evening.

POLICE COURT.

D. AND D.

TUESDAY, Nov. 1.—John Hicks alias "the learned blacksmith," a rather respectable, hard looking case was arraigned, charged by Chief Johnston with being drunk and disorderly on the streets on Monday night.

The prisoner pleaded guilty as he did not remember what took place and he supposed that he must have done something "out of the way" or he would not have been locked up and brought before "His Highness the Judge."

CHIEF JOHNSTON stated that he found the prisoner on George street, about 12 o'clock on Monday night, and tried to get him to cross to Ashburnham where he said that he worked at his trade as a blacksmith. Prisoner refused to go and became disorderly, whereupon he was placed in the cells and kept there until this morning.

The PRISONER had nothing to say for himself except that he was a "thoroughbred Canadian," and had fought for his country at Ridgeway, and was prepared to do so again at a moment's notice. He grew quite enthusiastic on this subject, but was stopped in the middle of a great oration by one of the officers. He then implored the Magistrate "in the name of the Queen," to allow him to go and he would never repeat the offence.

The MAGISTRATE cautioned him and allowed him to go, reserving sentence.

Extending the Trade.

The last Canada Gazette contains the following notice of great interest to our readers:—

Notice is hereby given that application will be made after the expiration of one month from the first publication of this notice to His Excellency the Governor General in Council, for Letters Patent under the provisions of "The Canada Joint Stock Companies Act, 1877," by Robert Jaffray, of the City of Toronto, merchant, William Gooderham, of the same place, President Toronto and Nipissing Railway Company, George Albertus Cox, of the Town of Peterborough, President Midland Railway of Canada, Harman H. Cook, of the City of Toronto, Lumber Merchant, and Harvey P. Dwight, of the same place, Manager Montreal Telegraph Company, to constitute them and others a body corporate and politic, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, and that—

1. The proposed corporate name of the Company is "The Midland Lake and River Navigation Company (Limited)."

2. The purposes for which incorporation is sought are to carry on a passenger, freight and general forwarding business on Lakes Superior, Huron, Erie and Ontario, and the River St. Lawrence and the navigable waters flowing thereinto and therefrom; and to construct, own, charter, lease, purchase or dispose of steamships, vessels, tramways, wharves, docks, warehouses and such other property as may be or become necessary or desirable in connection with the carrying on of such business.

3. The operations of the proposed Company are to be carried on upon and near the navigable waters aforesaid, and its chief place of business is to be at Toronto, in the Province of Ontario.

4. The capital stock of the Company is to be two hundred thousand dollars, in two thousand shares of one hundred dollars each.

5. The said Robert Jaffray, William Gooderham, George Albertus Cox, Harman H. Cook and Harvey P. Dwight are to be the first or provisional Directors of the Company.

J. D. EDGAR,
Solicitor for Applicants.

Dated Toronto, 27th October, 1881.

New Freight Shed.

There is now in course of erection at the north east side of the Union Station, a new freight shed, the building now used having become far too small to accommodate the rapidly increasing trade. The erection will be pushed forward with all haste, a large force of men being employed, and it is expected that it will be ready for occupation by the end of this month. The building will be 120x24 feet, with a platform on each side, and an office in the north end. The customers of the road will find this a great convenience, as a very large amount of freight can thus be handled with comparatively little trouble.

Think What it Means.

We, on Monday noticed the arrival at Midland of vessels bringing 150,000 bushels of grain in a single day. Now, 150,000 bushels is equivalent to 300 cars containing 500 bushels each, which is equivalent to 15 trains of 20 cars each, and which, following one another at periods of half an hour between each, would require seven and a half hours to pass a given point. Giving the same time for the return trains the arrivals of that day at Midland, were sufficient to occupy the road for fifteen out of over twenty-four hours. And yet, what a small part do six vessels a day play in the Western grain trade.

Disorderly Conduct.

At the hall on Monday night the roughs again raised a disturbance and hooted, yelled and whistled to their hearts' content without being interfered with. Respectable people are declining to go to the hall on account of the disorderly conduct permitted there, and very soon the number who will attend entertainments will grow very small, unless steps are taken to put a stop to such proceedings. A few arrests are all that is required, and it is high time that they were made.

Waterworks.

Mr. Ferris, a hydraulic engineer, from New York, has been here since Monday, taking levels, etc., in order to become fully acquainted with all the different eligible sights for the erection of the pumping house, etc. He is highly pleased with what he has seen. Mr. Gamble is also in town, and in company with Mr. Ferris, is on a tour of inspection. Nothing definite has as yet been made public.

Hallowe'en.

The last anniversary of Hallowe'en night was the quietest that we have ever seen in Peterborough. With the exception of the case mentioned in another paragraph, everything passed off quietly, and no damage worth speaking of was done. The presence of the special constables on the streets, kept down the rowdy element, and in consequence, only one arrest was made.

Oysters! Oysters! Oysters!

Fresh oysters by the plate, raw, stewed or fried, at the St. James Hotel and Restaurant.

Stolen Geese.

A resident of Ashburnham complained to the Peterborough police that some person had stolen half a dozen geese from his house previous to Hallowe'en. He tracked the thief to a certain house and discovered lots of feathers, but our police declined to interfere, as he resides outside of their limits.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

Arrested.

Geo. McMaster, an employee at Baptie's plaining mill, was arrested this morning by P. C. McGhee, on a warrant charging him with threatening his wife.

About the Same.

Malcolm Maitland, so seriously injured last Thursday, still remains in about the same condition.

FENELON FALLS.

DEER HUNTING.—The Gazette says two of our villagers, Messrs. George Cunningham and Edward Edwards, went to Swamp lake on a hunting expedition last Wednesday week and returned on Monday with three fine deer, one of them a buck weighing 230 pounds. The others were smaller but in capital condition, as we can testify from personal knowledge, Mr. Edwards having sent us a nice roast, for which he already has our thanks. We are particularly fond of venison, as well as all other kinds of game; but we never have time to go and look for any, and probably wouldn't be able to shoot if we had.

THE NEW MILL.—We spent a few minutes in McArthur & Thompson's new saw mill last Monday, but only three or four persons were present, and they were too busy putting finishing touches on the gearing to answer questions. The engine—which can be run up to one hundred horse-power if desired—was making a "trial trip," and was supplied with steam from two large boilers, which can easily furnish more than will ever be required. Everything was almost ready to commence operations, and this (Thursday) morning the proprietors, whom we met up town, told us that they would begin cutting lumber some time during the day

WILD RICE.—Mr. George Cunningham, of this village, has procured, on behalf of himself and other sportsmen, a quantity of wild rice, from Rice Lake, which he will sow next week in Goose Lake and the mouth of Balsam River, with the view of inducing wild ducks to come to those localities to be shot at. It is unthreshed and queer looking stuff, resembling coarsely chopped hay more than anything else we can think of. Mr. Cunningham bought a bushel and a half, which cost him a little over $4 laid down here. Duck are remarkably fond of it, and if it can be got to grow well in these waters the consumption of powder and shot will no doubt be largely increased.

BELLEVILLE.

THE WATER-WORKS SCHEME.—Mr. Gamble, the leading member of the New York firm proposing to construct water-works here, will arrive next week, bringing with him an engineer, who will examine the various proposed sources of supply.

THE MURRAY CANAL.—Messrs. John White, M.P., and Alex. Robertson, M.P.P., called on Sir Charles Tupper with reference to the Murray Canal. Sir Charles stated that the work would be commenced as early as possible, and when begun would be pushed forward to completion with due rapidity.

PANIC IN A THEATRE.—There came very nearly being a dangerous panic at the Metropolitan Hall last night. A vast audience had assembled to witness the performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and as is usual on such occasions the passage ways were filled with chairs. At about half-past nine the smell of smoke was discovered, and some one in the rear part of the hall raised the cry of fire. The people rose to their feet and a rush for the exit was begun, but the chief of police rose and assured the frightened people that there was no danger. It was, however, some time before confidence was restored. Some ladies fainted. But for the action of Chief McKinnen terrible results must have ensued, as the only means of exit is a stairway, which is closed a short distance down by storm-doors, through which a narrow door affords the only means of egress. Some of the ladies withdrew after quiet had been restored. The smoke was discovered to have issued from a defective stovepipe in the ticket office below.

CAMPBELLFORD.

YOUTHFUL THAMPS.—The Herald says that four little children scantily and poorly clad, one of them an infant just beginning to give utterance to words, made their appearance at the station on Saturday afternoon last, and inquired the road to Lindsay. The young quartette had made up their minds to travel to Lindsay on foot, and perhaps accomplished a short distance of their projected long journey before night set in. It was afterwards found that they were little fugitives—the children of a man residing in this village. Their mother is dead, and in the absence of their father, who was performing his daily labour, we are told they left the house and started for Lindsay, hoping to find a home with some acquaintances in that town.

IMPROVED STOCK.—Mr. W. J. Bell, of Seymour, visited Toronto a few weeks ago, and purchased from Mr. Joseph Featherstone, breeder, of Toronto township, two fine Suffolk pigs, which he intends to keeep for breeding purposes. The cost to Mr. Bell, including freightage, was in the neighbourhood of $70. Mr. Robt. Curle, also of Seymour, purchased from the same gentleman, two Cotswold sheep.

TOOK A HORN.—A vicious cow attacked a little boy of four years, son of Mr. Hawley, last week, and tossed him with her horns. He was rescued before the dangerous brute could repeat the move.

Fire Risks and Tall Buildings.

We have frequently called attention to the fact that modern architecture was the greatest peril with which our large cities is threatened. During the present year, thousands of new buildings are being erected in this city, and of these a large number are tall buildings, seven, eight and nine stories high, insecurely built from the foundation to the mansard roof, having granite foundations to support cast iron columns which in turn support iron girders, upon which the floors are laid. Such a building is dangerous for a fireman to enter when a fire is raging within, as the granite foundation is liable to melt away under intense heat, and the iron columns and girders to twist and break, precipitating the floors above, with all their contents into the basement. Put on top of such a building a mansard roof made of pine, and introduce an elevator shaft to carry the flames almost instantly from one floor to another, and you have a modern death trap that could scarcely be improved upon as a fire hazard, threatening the surrounding buildings and the lives of whoever may venture near it. In the lower part of the city there is one building whose roof is 185 feet above the sidewalk—away out of the city limits—and near by are many others nearly as tall. A fire in that roof would be wholly inaccessible to the firemen, while a high wind would scatter the blazing brands upon the roofs of lower buildings for many blocks.

Humbert's Visit.

VIENNA, Oct. 29.—The Emperor has given to King Humbert the honorary command of the 28th infantry regiment, which formerly belonged to Benedek, and is at present in garrison at Budweis. King Humbert went out hunting to-day with the Crown Prince and a select company at Hamberg. There was a monster battue, lasting three hours, which resulted in the slaughter of over seven hundred hares. Queen Margaret, who has a keen dislike to everything connected with sport, went out shopping on foot in a simple walking dress, accompanied by a lady in-waiting, the Marquis de Villamarina, and Chevalier Seysiel D Aux. She looked at all the beautiful Vienna trifles in the shops of the Graben, and purchased souvenirs in many of them. She afterwards breakfasted with Archduke Regnier in his palace and returned to the Holifburg. Half an hour later she drove out with the Empress to the picture gallery in the Belvedre, and thence went to the studio of the famous Austrian painter, Hans Makart.

Feasting Humbert.

VIENNA, Oct. 29.—The Gala dinner given to-night by the Emperor in honor of the King and Queen of Italy was a magnificent affair. One hundred and thirty persons sat down at the vast hall, which was most tastily decorated for the occasion with Gobelin tapestry, gigantic mirrors, flowers, and tropical plants. The long table was covered with massive gold plate in the middle and massive silver on either end, the gold for the imperial and royal guests, and the silver for those who were fortunate enough to obtain cards of invitation. The court band, concealed in a perfect garden of palm trees, was led by the prince of band-masters, Edward Strauss, who played throughout the evening.

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL will leave on Friday for Quebec, and will sail on Saturday for England. Before leaving he will be presented with an address from the Corporation, in the City Hall.

AN EXPLORATION PARTY have just returned from a trip 250 mile north of the Des Joachims. They passed through the Tete Bule Indian Reserve and report a large tract of very rich agricultural land.

THE CITY COUNCIL will meet this afternoon to make arrangements for the presentation of the address to Lord Lorne.

ON TUESDAY NIGHT two parties entered the house of a man named Duff, residing on York street, and without the slightest provocation, proceeded to beat him. He did know who they were, but a slight description of the roughs has been furnished the police, and they are now looking them up.

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL attended the Fisk Jubilee entertainment in the Opera House on Tuesday night.

Mr. PEDEN, secretary of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Railway, was interviewed relative to the rumour of the sale of the road to the Syndicate. He cannot say whether the sale has taken place, as any and all communications with reference to such would be made directly with Mr. Stanley, the manager, who is and has been sick for some time at London Ont. He stated that the heirs of the late manager, Mr. Reynolds, who held a very large, if not controlling interest in the company, were anxious to dispose of their stock and it might be probable that the Syndicate had purchased their interest and also received the stock held by other parties, thus enabling them to secure the road. He had heard the rumour that the road had been purchased by the Syndicate, but as negotiations would not come under his notice, he was consequently, as he pointed out before, not in a position to verify or deny the alleged sale.

COMPLETE RETURNS.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—The complete returns from 395 districts show 44 Conservatives elected, 22 Free Conservatives, 100 Centre party, 31 National Liberals, 24 Secessionists, 35 Progessionists, 3 Party of People, 15 Poles, and 17 Particularists and Protesters. One hundred second ballots will be necessary.

THE WINTER CAMPAIGN

TUNIS, Nov 1.—The failure to surround the Arabs by the advance on Kairouan has necessitated important changes in the plans for a winter campaign, which may entail important results. General Saussier will assume the command of Forgesgt's columns, now encamped south of Kairouan, and march to Gafsa. Philibert, Logerot, and Sabatier will execute a combined movement on the coast. Etienne will be permanently stationed at Kairouan, and will protect the railway from Susa. A small flying column in the north will be reinforced, and will march from Kairouan into the provinces of Sahel and Djerid, in the direction of Tripoli. If carried out, this plan will constitute the third and most important phase of the Tunisian expedition.

A BAD TUSSLE.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The three Frenchmen arrested at St. Petersburg, in whose possession it is said compromising documents were found, made a desperate resistance. They fired several shots, wounding a policeman.

INSTALLING BRADLEY.

The Rev. George Granville Bradley was today formally installed as Dean of Westminster in the presence of a large congregation.

IF HE RETIRES.

Relative to the rumoured Ministerial changes, Mr. Gladstone, replying to a correspondent of the Telegraph, said, "There is nothing of any kind to be added to my public declaration on this subject." This refers to Mr. Gladstone's speech at Leeds, when he said he would leave the affairs of the country in the hands of men in whom it had confidence. The Standard says that in the event of Gladstone resigning the Chancellorship of the Exchequer, Hugh C. Childers, the present Secretary of State for War, will succeed him. Lord Northbrook, First Lord of the Admiralty, will take take the War Office, and Sir Charles Dilke, Under Foreign Secretary, will probably take the Admiralty Office.

THE LANCASHIRE COLLIERIES.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—All the collieries in southwest Lancashire have stopped until Thursday. The colliers have decided that if the advance of wages is refused they will only work four days weekly.

FRANCO-ITALIAN TREATY.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—At a Cabinet Council to-day M. Tirard, Minister of Commerce, informed his colleagues of the approaching satisfactory conclusion of the negotiations for a commercial treaty with Italy.

THE TRIAL OF LEFROY.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The grand jury to-day has found a true bill against Lefroy for the murder of Mr. Gould while robbing him in the compartment of a railway coach on the Brighton railway last spring.

MORE WRECKS.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A telegram from Hong Kong reports that the Humboldt, from Shanghai to New York, was totally wrecked at Paracels, in the China sea. Part of the crew were saved. The steamer Black Sea, from Jamaica, arrived in the Thames to-day, bringing the crew of the Victor, bound from New York to Stettin.

THE YORKTOWN SALUTE.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The International Arbitration and Peace Association passed a resolution to-day recording satisfaction with the saluting of the English flag at Yorktown. Such an incident, the resolution says, is unparalleled in history, and must ever remain of deep international interest. It regards the act as a weighty and significant testimony to the eternal oblivion of all animosities resulting from the war of independence, and an emphatic expression of the brotherly love existing between England and America.

PARNELL'S INDISPOSITION.

DUBLIN, Nov. 1.—The Freeman's Journal, says Parnell was suddenly seized with violent spasms on Sunday, and suffered greatly for several hours.

THE SHOOTING AFFRAY.

The latest account of the shooting affray at Belmullet, county Mayo, last week, when the police fired upon the people, states that two persons were killed and twenty wounded. A renewal of the disturbances is feared, and reinforcements have been sent out.

UNDER THE LAND ACT.

DUBLIN, Nov. 2.—The tenant whose case was first decided under the Land Act, is Patrick McTavy, of Coolatra, county of Monaghan, on the estate of Henry Bond, an absentee landlord. The holding is ten acres, and the rent £8 16s. Govt. valuation £7 8s. The rent was reduced to £6 6s., and the landlord was obliged to pay half of the county rate saving the tenant another 5s. McTavy is 28 years old and lived in Albany, United States, for some years. This is regarded as a serious defeat for the landlords, and proves Parnell's cleverness and wisdom in selecting for test cases those in which the rents are not exorbitant but moderate, so that the decision which was almost necessary to the success of the act, would be a precedent for further decisions. It is thought that the landlords will appeal to the chief commission. Another important judgment in connection with the case was the decision that both parties were to pay their own costs.

THE REASON WHY.

VIENNA, Nov. 2.—It is stated that the interview between the Czar and Emperor of Austria was postponed because a member of the Holy Cohort, a new self constituted body, represented that the journey to the frontier was exceeding perilous. It is said that the Cohort are continually scaring the Emperor with the discovery of new Nihilist plots. They have a strong ally in the Empress, who is so nervous that the Czar cannot move out of her sight without she is in terror.

MARINE DISASTERS.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—A large unknown vessel foundered off Skibbereen, and a small vessel went to pieces at Mount's Bay. The crews were all drowned.

TO FIX JUDICIAL RENTS.

LIMERICK, Nov. 2.—2,000 tenant farmers in the county of Limerick have resolved to apply to the Land Commission to fix judicial rent or set aside unjust leases.

FOR WASHINGTON.

CAIRO, Nov. 2.—I. Van Schooffer, Consul-General of Austria, has been appointed Austrian Minister at Washington.

NIHILISTS DISCOVERED.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 2.—Suspicions having been directed to the inmates of a house in a respectable quarter of the city, the police surrounded the place at night, burst open the doors and seized a number of men and women preparing explosives, and socialist pamphlets in the rooms of students in the school of mines. Last week numerous Nihilist proclamations were distributed about the city, and several copies were thrown into the barracks of the Imperial Guard. It is stated that the Czar has lately received many threatening missives.

CONTRADICTORY.

DUBLIN, Nov. 2.—The report that several persons have been released from Kilmainham gaol on account of illness is untrue.

ANOTHER ARREST.

Gilhoolie, secretary of the Banitre branch of Land League was arrested last evening under the Coercion Act.

IRISH RIOTS

The disturbances continue at Belmullet, thus far four persons wounded in the affray on Thursday, have died, and six more deaths are expected. Two hundred military and two hundred police are on the spot. The roads leading to Aglow are blockaded with stones, and a bridge has been broken for the purpose of impeding the movements of the military.

A SMALL-POX EPIDEMIC.

PITTSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 2.—There are over a hundred cases of small-pox in this town, and in Port Griffith, within a space of two blocks are 39 cases. The dead are buried at all hours of the day and night, regardless of the consequences to the unprotected citizens, who pass along the streets. A young man, a member of a Benevolent Society, died and was borne to the grave by his brethren, and two-thirds of the members of the Society are now down with the disease. The excitement is intense. During the whole summer no sanitary means were adopted, on account of wrangling between the Poor Board and others, as to who should pay the expenses of burials.

MR. COX'S AMALGAMATION SCHEME.

We presume that the notice which has appeared in our columns for some days past may be taken as giving form, to some at least of the railway rumours which for several months past have served to keep many of our readers on the tip-toe of expectation. As we understand the notice in question, it appears that Mr. Cox has been successful in inducing Mr. Gooderham to enter into such a preliminary agreement for the sale of the Toronto and Nipissing railway, and Toronto and Ottawa charter, as he believes to be in the interest of the Midland to accept, and that he has accordingly called a meeting of the owners of the latter road to accept the same. With regard to the Grand Junction and North Hastings roads, this evidently is the final step necessary to complete the amalgamation which practically came into effect last June.

That the proposed amalgamation is to the interests of the proprietors of the several companies concerned, there can be no doubt, even though there may be a difference of opinion among their several owners as to the exact basis of sale or consolidation. Even in the tight little island of Great Britain, where distances are short, experience has proved that true economy consists in the amalgamation of small lines, and of course the chief reason which applies there applies with increased force in Canada, where most shipments are made for much longer distances. Under such circumstances we believe it is useless to oppose the proposed amalgamation, even if it were our interest to do so, which it is not. Indeed, we are strongly inclined to think that the present scheme will prove most beneficial to the interests of both the town and county of Peterborough.

It is quite true that most of our readers will look upon this as the last of the Toronto and Ottawa project, as a through line between Toronto and the east, and as a rival to the Grand Trunk, and we are not prepared to say they are far wrong, although we think they may still derive considerable advantage from it as a part of the Midland, as it is extended eastward towards Ottawa. As a portion of the Midland it will bring us in direct connection with an important local trade, while every mile built eastward will also assist the Midland in building up its through traffic, even though that through traffic should be transferred to the Grand Trunk or the water at Port Hope or Belleville.

We may as well look matters straight in the face, and if we do, we think the conclusion will soon force itself upon us that the Midland should strengthen its position by such amalgamations as those which the notice contemplates, until it becomes strong enough to stand alone; or it must either be swallowed up by the Grand Trunk or some rival company to the latter. In the interest of the district served by it, and especially of our own town and county, we should prefer the first alternative, because as an independent line, largely dependent upon local traffic for its success, it is more likely to study our requirements, and to develop our resources than it would be were it to form a part of the Grand Trunk or any other great through line, and have its chief managers located in a commercial centre where they would be surrounded with influences, at least to a certain extent, antagonistic to the progress of the towns and villages along the line.

Let us point out a few of the reasons which lead us to look favourably upon the present scheme. Assuming the proposed amalgamation to be an accomplished fact, it will at once give ourselves, in common with the rest of the country served by the amalgamated road, direct connection with Midland on the Georgian Bay, and the trade, which we have the best evidence is destined to, almost all at once, centre there, as well as with Toronto, Port Hope and Belleville on Lake Ontario, and the mining district of North Hastings—a much more important matter than many may be disposed to think. Of all these points, in view of the future, we look upon Midland as the most important, both to ourselves and the company, while to the development of the trade naturally centering there, this amalgamation is of primary importance. As everybody knows, to do a large east-bound grain trade with success, the Midland must find return cargoes for the vessels bringing it grain. Without this, either grain will not be shipped this way, or the vessels bringing it will have to receive, not only fair rates for so doing, but enough in addition to recoup them for taking in and throwing out some worthless material to serve as ballast while the vessel is seeking another cargo in another port. Under such circumstances we imagine the proprietors of the Midland understand it is useless for them to attempt to secure a portion of the western grain trade. That being the case, it is a matter of almost life and death to their line that they should in some way secure at least, a reasonable amount of west bound freight, and, as a means to this end, the proposed amalgamation will undoubtedly prove of the greatest service. With it they will not only have their present line and its connection with the Grand Trunk and the lake at Port Hope, but Toronto and the country served by the Grand Junction, the North Hastings and the Toronto and Ottawa, as fast as they see fit to construct it, to draw upon. Perhaps no better illustration of the effect of the drawing of the western grain trade to this route could be given than the statement that among the return cargoes which have been found for vessels bringing grain to Midland this fall, has been three of barley, which was taken to Chicago, and that there is every probability of our iron ore being shipped in the same way to Duluth. Return freights becoming in this way a necessity to the Midland, it becomes obvious that the road will of necessity be compelled to do everything in its power to foster and develop the local production of those commodities which contribute to this end, and as the western demand for much that we either produce or manufacture is quite as good as any eastern outlet, it will at once be seen how important the development of this trade becomes to us—especially as a manufacturing point, in view of the business thus placed within our reach in the north west.

But some may be disposed to say, that from this stand point Peterborough would be better without the new connections, inasmuch as she would have fewer places to compete with for this trade. Not at all. This kind of transport business connot be done as a one horse business. Vessel men will not seek Midland, or any other port, unless they can discharge and reload at once. With them time is money, and it is only at ports where a large business is done that a profitable shipping business can be done, and it is doubtless in view of this fact, and the vital importance of this trade to the Midland, that this amalgamation scheme has been worked up by Mr. Cox, and for the same reason, although not the best possible line between Toronto and Ottawa, it is evident, that with connection made with Ottawa, this line will for many years prove the shortest and best between Montreal and Midland, and the lake ports connected with the latter by regular lines of steamers, and will therefore be in a position to attract much of the business which would otherwise go by way of Toronto, as well as the shortest route between the two capitals.

We find that we have already written at such length that other reasons which present themselves to our mind, as calculated to make us favour this scheme, must wait a future occasion.

THE SYNDICATE.

Duncan McIntyre Says they Have not Asked for a Strip of the Public Lands.

Montreal, Oct. 28.—Mr. George Stephen, D. McIntyre, W. B. Angus, and Hon. J. J. C. Abbott returned from Ottawa this morning. In a paragraph that has an official ring about it Mr. McIntyre publishes the following with reference to the statement telegraphed from Ottawa last evening to the effect that the Canadian Pacific Syndicate had made a demand on the Government for the timber lands of the Dominion east of Winnipeg:—"We don't want an acre of timber lands except for the construction of the road, and that is provided for under an article of our charter, which grants us permission to take what timber etc., we require from the public lands adjacent to the road. We have no use for timber lands and never asked for them, nor do we want them. That despatch from Ottawa is simply ridiculous. We went to Ottawa to arrange for immigration matters for next year, to exchange views with the Government about it, and to see that the interests and arrangements of the Government and the Canadian Pacific did not clash."

A $2,000,000 DEFALCATION.

Failure of the Newark Mechanic's National Bank—Arrest of the Cashier.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 31—The Mechanics' National Bank closed in consequence of a statement of the cashier to the directors yesterday. An investigation is going on. The bank has been regarded as the strongest here, and the stock sold at 180. It is reported that the cashier is defaulter for $2,000,000. Intense excitement prevails here. The bank is the largest in the State. A meeting of the directors was held yesterday. The cashier, O. L. Baldwin, stated that the liabilities were so great that futher attempts to carry on the business would be useless. Baldwin has been arrested on a charge of embezzlement. The loss will fall principally upon the stockholders. It is thought that the depositors will be to a great extent shielded from loss. The bank's last statement showed a surplus of $400,000. It is reported that the entire assets of $2,000,000 to $3,000,000, have vanished. It is said that Baldwin calmly told the directors they had their safe left and nothing more.

C. Nugent & Co., morocco makers, have sustained so heavy a loss by the defunct bank that they have assigned. Other failures are expected. Baldwin, the cashier, is a leading member of Trinity Episcopal Church, and a vestryman.

Later.—It is now expected that the bank will not pay depositors more than 40 per cent. Another report is that the assets will not be over 15 per cent. of the liabilities. The feeling against Baldwin is very bitter.

Baldwin is protrated and confined to his residence, but was waited on by the U. S. District Attorney and Commissioner and admitted in $25,000 bail to appear at court November 7th. Baldwin stated voluntarily that about the year 1873 he began to make loans to C. Nugent & Co., morocco manufacturers, without security, or the sanction of the directors. Having thus begun he was in the power of Nugent & Co., and continued the accomodations for some time, allowing them $50,000 a month, till the total was increased to a ruinous amount. Nugent assured him he had large property and capital in business, which would make all the loans good. Nugent was well aware he (Baldwin) was using the bank's money and always promised to surrender his property in case of trouble. Under these circumstances the loan was increased till it reached over two millions.

Christopher Nugent, head of the morocco firm, was arrested this evening on a charge of embezzling the funds of the bank. He gave $25,000 bail.

A Strange Accusation.

Kingston, Oct. 31.—A Lansdowne farmer named Michael Ivey has laid information against his wife, charging her with infanticide. They were married last June, and Ivey alleges that one day last month his wife locked herself in the house and would admit no person for several hours. When he entered she looked very ill. Subsequently he found the dead body of an infant in the room, all knowledge of which his wife denied. When he next entered the room the body was gone. The man has kept the affair quiet until now, and would have perhaps said nothing, but that his wife's brother came to his house, broke in the door, assaulted him (Ivey), and took the woman away. Mrs. Ivey was arrested on Saturday evening at her brother's residence and taken to Gananoque. The preliminary examination will take place before the Police Magistrate to-morrow. Mrs. Ivey's mother and father are dead, and her brother, with whom she lived, said the story is all made up. He says he took his sister away from Ivey because she was very badly treated, not being allowed proper fires, light, clothing and other comforts. She is a young woman of about eighteen years. Ivey's first wife died in the Kingston Asylum.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and complete restoration of vigor and manhood. Also for Rheumatism, neuralgia, Paralysis, Liver and Kidney difficulties, Ruptures, and many other diseases. Illustrated pamphlet sent free. Address Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

For Cholera, Cholera Morbus, and Cholera Infantum, as well as all Summer Complaints of a similar nature, Perry Davis' Painkiller, acts with wonderful rapidity, and never fails when taken at the commencement of an attack, and often cures after every other remedy has failed.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of mpny to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES:—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

GOOD-BYE.

Good-bye: it has a mournful sound
When uttered by a friend;
It tells of happy bygone days,
Of pleasures at an end.
It tells of lonesome days to come;
And though the years may fly,
True-hearted friends will ne'er forget
That last, that sad good-bye.

Good-bye; it has a heavenly sound
When spoken from the heart;
A fervent prayer for blessings on
The friends from whom we part.
We wish them well where're they dwell,
Or be it far or nigh;
For "God be with you" is the thought
Of every true good-bye.

Good-bye: it has a hopeful sound;
If God be with us here,
Will He not lead us home at last,
Though life be long and drear?
Then if no more we meet on earth
We may beyond the sky,
In realms that know no parting hour,
That never hear "good-bye!"

THE CANINE CURSE.

From the American Agriculturist.

Few persons dispute the usefulness and value of a good dog, that may serve as an active intelligent assistant or companion by day, or as a trusty guard by night; ready, if need be, to yield up his life in defense of his master, or his master's property. Such an animal is justly held in high esteem, and deserves the same kindly treatment accorded the most faithful of our dumb servants. While this is so, there is but a limited appreciation of the fact that the country is overrun with multitudes of worthless curs, in which savage, treacherous cruelty is inherent, along with a predisposition to the dreaded hydrophobia, causing enormous losses, and untold numbers of the most horrible deaths known to mankind, to say nothing of the cost of their subsistence, which alone, if saved and utilized for some good purpose, would afford the means of much benificence.

So many, and of such frequent occurrence, are their atrocities, that not a few thoughtful men are propounding the query, if it would not be better for humanity if the entire canine race were to become extinct. The industry upon which the innumerable dogs bear most heavily, is sheep and wool growing, and in some localities it is the case to such an extent, as to virtually amount to prohibition. That wool growing in this country should be fostered, would appear demonstrated by the fact that, in fifty years, America has sent abroad $1,250,000 for woollen goods, or if we accept, as we must, the statement in the latest report of the Treasury Department Statistician that, in the year ending June 30th, 1880, our people expended for foreign wool and woollen fabrics, the sum of nearly $58,000,000; the value of a wool-clip from 35,000,000 well bred sheep. In the year preceding, 128,000,000 lbs., of wool alone were imported. As long ago as 1868, the Commissioner of Agriculture estimated the direct losses to sheep owners by the ravages of dogs, at $1,000,000 in the wool and mutton, and the indirect loss in preventing sheep husbandry, especially in the south, at double that sum annually. Fortunately we have at hand a few official figures, showing to some extent the discouragements caused to sheep husbandry by the presence of so many destructive dogs. In 1878, Massachusetts was reported as having 114,000 dogs, and 55,000 sheep, the latter gradually decreasing in numbers, while the form er made a noticeable increase. In Ohio the statistics show that during the thirteen years, from 1867 to 1879 inclusive, the number of sheep killed by dogs wes 459,437, valued at $1,295,388.23; the number injured by dogs was 309,682, estimated worth $407,132.31. In Illinois, in 1876, the value of sheep slaughtered by dogs, was $30,578; in 1877, $63,752; in 1875, $43,885; for the year ending May, 1879, the loss was 27,338 head, with a valuation of $2.40 per head, or a total of $65,384. Kansas, its people being imbued with an appreciation of its advantages as a pastoral region, has as little partiality for dogs as any State, and strongly indistive of this is the returns of the assessors showing an increase in sheep during the year ending March 1st, 1880, of nearly 42 per cent. and for the year ending March 1st, 1881, almost 100 per cent; but at the same time, this does not signify that there are no dogs in Kansas. The State Census of 1875, showed an enumeration of 74,696, and the assessors found 143,650 in 1881. It is the opinion of those who have endeavored to make such enumeration in this and other States, that through fear of taxation, and from other causes, not more than half the actual number are returned. If this is a correct theory, the canine population of this new State approximates about 287,000 officially reported as destroying in the year ending March 1st, 1879, 8,025 sheep; March 1st, 1880, 4,369 sheep, and March 1st, 1881, 5,361 of the same useful, harmless, wool-bearing, meat-producing emblems of peace and thrift. In the four counties of Doniphan, Norton, Sheridan, and Wyandotte, where a million sheep could thrive, the assessors this year found 1,377 head, watched and tended (presumably), by 4,576 dogs.

Observing men are of the opinion that an ordinary dog—and he is always hungry—will eat and destroy in a twelvemonth, the equivalent of that which, if given to a well-bred pig, would make him weigh at the expiration of that time, 300 pounds, gross; 286,000 such pigs would aggregate 85,000,000 pounds of pork, now worth at the home shipping station, more than $4,700,000; requiring to transport them, more than 2,860 cars, carrying fifteen tons each, or a train more than sixteen miles long. This would represent nearly $1,500,000 more than the entire amount paid in the State in 1880, for school, township, and State taxes combined; it would build 9,400 school houses and churches, worth $500 each, or would pay the average wages of 14,000 school teachers, twice the number now employed. A condition of affairs, of which the above is but a poor outline, is at the bottom of what is each year becoming a greater and more irrepressible conflict between the wool growers and the savage brutes that keep in jeopardy, or destroy the flocks that protected, would enlarge and increase to the extent of producing the wool for which we now send so many millions across the seas. If the dogs are maintained as a luxury, they are a luxury we cannot afford, and should give way to something less expensive, and less productive of loss and misery.

A well-known western agriculturist lost $300 worth of sheep by them in one night, and in another $250 worth, and says: "Iowa would have, to-day, $10,000,000 worth of property in her borders, that she does not have, only for dogs; and the farmers are the veriest fools in the world for allowing such a state of affairs." What in this respect is applicable to Iowa, is equally so to other States, and while the greatest masses of the people are so apathetic, or educated up to the point of prohibiting such a curse, the day will come when the valueless curs will not be permitted to exist as a stumbling block to one of the most profitable and pleasurable branches of rural husbandry.

The rearing of better classes of sheep, always indicates a high state of civilization, where intelligence, comfort, and competence abound, and no more unfailing sight of ignorance, squalor, and poverty, can be manifested, than the presence of a varied and increased assortment of flea-bitten curs, unclean, and of low degree. It should not be difficult to choose between raising sheep and growing dogs.

LIVELY SCENE IN PLYMOUTH CHURCH.

A Member Who Would Read the Bible and Would not be Turned out.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The Friday night prayer meetings of Plymouth Church have been rather sleepy of late, but that held last evening was remarkably lively. At the beginning of the time allowed for discussion a young man asked permission to read a small passage of scripture. Mr. Beecher told him he might do so if he intended to make comments on what he read. After the reader had rattled through several pages of Genesis without a pause, the more patient spirits in the assemblage began to yawn, while some of the brethern cast fierce looks upon the intruder, who seemed to be proud of his elocutionery abilities and oblivious to all surroundings.

"The brother will please sit down," said Mr. Beecher from the platform in a very decided tone.

"I'm going to prove— excuse me one moment," cried the young man, raising his voice to drown the voices and rattling of settees as the congregation rose to its feet in excitement.

"We'll excuse you altogether, sir!" said Mr. Beecher; but the Bible reader "would not down." He continued to read until two stalwart brethren laid hold of him and invited him to take a walk. He then laid hold of the settee with both hands, and shouting that he was a member of the church and would not go out, struggled so fiercely that the brothers finally let go, and the young man thereupon subsided and was heard from no more.

ACCORDING to the Times, 149 new buildings have been erected in St. Thomas this season at an outlay of $178,350. Last year the number of new structures was 108 and the expenditure $133,650. There are three huge contracts on the boards for next season—the Government buildings, the Grand Central hotel, and the new Presbyterian church.

1—FARMERS AND MECHANICS.—If you wish to avoid great danger and trouble, besides no small bill of expense, at this season of the year, you should take prompt steps to keep disease from your household. The system should be cleansed, blood purified, stomach and bowels regulated, and prevent and cure diseases arising from spring malaria. We know of nothing that will so perfectly and surely do this as Electric Bitters, and at the trifling cost of fifty cents a bottle.—Exch. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.—With ordinary good grooming, and the occasional use of Harvell's condition Powders, any horse, no matter what the condition of his health or physique, can be so restored in every relation, as to make him an almost new animal. They are sold everywhere.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Acknowledged by many eminent surgeons to be the safest and mildest pills for every constitution.
In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.
Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6. Sold by all Chemists. LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Looking After the Factories.

Mr. Lukes, who is on a tour of inspection of the various factories throughout the Dominion was in Peterborough on Tuesday last. It will be remembered that during the last session of the Dominion Parliament, Dr. Bergin, of Cornwall, introduced a bill regulating the employment of factory hands, which was largely a copy of the English act, and that he consented to withdraw the same upon the understanding that the Government would enquire fully into the subject during the present recess, and be prepared to deal with the matter during next session, and it is in compliance with this promise that Mr. Lukes is making the present inspection. The necessity for some such legislation as that proposed becomes self-evident when it is stated that in several factories children of ten years are employed for the full working of ten hours, and that the sanitary conditions of the factories and the provision for escape in the event of fire, are not always what they should be. We were pleased to learn from Mr. Lukes that the Auburn factory was fully up in all these respects to the best that he had yet inspected.

The Weather.

The weather continues fine and warm, but the overcast sky looks very much as if rain was a thing of the near future to-day. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—Southerly to easterly winds increasing to strong or moderate gales, fair to cloudy mild weather with rain towards evening or to-night. The Meteorological department has ordered up cautionary signals No. 1 at Port Dover, Burlington, Oakville, Port Stanley, Port Colborne, Port Burwell, Port Dalhousie, Toronto, Port Credit, Cobourg, Port Hope, Deseronto and Kingston.

Waterworks.

The promoters of the waterworks company are losing no time, but are pushing things forward as rapidly as possible. The company is now in existence on more than paper, having been organized at a meeting held on Tuesday. Mr. W. Cluxton was elected President and the other officers will be elected at a subsequent meeting. The stock book was opened and considerable stock subscribed. The engineers are still hard at work and will report in a few days, after which the company will be in a condition to go on and prosecute the work at once.

Macadamizing the Streets.

Work, at laying the broken stone on George street, has commenced, and some think it is rather too soon, while others who hold a contrary opinion, say it is rather late. There is no doubt that the work is needed bad enough, and the sooner the principal street of the town is in a first class condition the better. Tearing up the streets to lay the waterworks mains may toss up the stones some, but surely they can be smoothed down again so as not to interfere with the traffic.

Change of Business.

We understand that Mr. Sam. F. Allin has purchased the business of Messrs. Brownscombe & Goodfellow, manufacturers of pottery, etc. As Mr. Allin has long been in the employ of the late firm and is thoroughly acquainted with business in all its branches, its customers will find that he is in a position to fully maintain the reputation of the Peterborough potteries and give entire satisfaction to his customers.

Fine Deer.

Mr. James Daly returned home on Tuesday evening after a very successful hunt in the back country. He brought home with him two of the finest deer of the season. The guests at the St. James' can now rely on getting fine fresh venison and the real article at that.

Good Market.

The Market this morning was extra large for Wednesday and produce of all kinds was in abundance. Prices remain at just about the same figures as they have been for the last week or ten days.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

THE SALARY QUESTION AGAIN PROVES A BONE OF CONTENTION.

The Services of one Teacher Dispensed With and the Salaries of Others Raised—"Cramming" Condemned—A Number of Pertinent Inquiries.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education took place at the Collegiate Institute on Tuesday evening.

Present, James Stevenson Esq., chairman and Messrs. Poussette, Toole, Sawers, Rutherford, Denne, McClelland, Dumble, Wrighton, Stratton, Burnham and Best,

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

INQUIRIES.

Mr. DENNE asked if the High School Inspector's report of his visit to the school on the 2nd and 3rd of March 1881 was read in full at the last meeting?

Mr. J. STRATTON said that a portion of the report had not been read.

Mr. Denne, then read the portion of the report that had not been read at the last meeting, showing that the different classes stood as follows, as regards proficiency in the various subjects:—

Latin, excellent; French, middling and bad; German, middling, middling, bad and bad; Literature, excellent; Reading, bad; Arithmetic, excellent; Algebra, excellent and excellent; Natural Philosophy, excellent; Chemistry, good and middling; History, excellent; Geography, good.

Mr. RUTHERFORD objected to the "cramming" process, which was being indulged in to a large extent by some of the teachers. He thought that "cramming" was a very bad practice and should be stopped at once. He instanced a case in his own family, in which a young child had, among other things, been given over five pages of geography to commit to memory, in one night. He trusted that the thing would be stopped at once.

Mr. DUMBLE said the remarks of the previous speaker was well timed, and that the thing of giving children too much to do was very injudicious.

Mr. TOOLE said there were two ways of looking at this matter. Some parents thought that their children were not getting on fast enough, while others whose children did not have any more to do, said that their children were being "crammed" to death. If pupils did not make good progress, the government grant would fall off. He thought that some person desired to make capital out of it.

Mr. DUMBLE denied that any person wanted to make capital, and said that members of the Board had better judgement than young teachers.

Mr. J. BRADEN said the charge made by Mr. Rutherford was against him, as he was the teacher referred to, and said that the pupils had studied the matter before, and were simply reviewing what they had gone over in other rooms. He thought that he knew how much to assign to a pupil, and if he did not he was willing to be dismissed at once.

Mr. MCCLELLAND said that a child of his had been assigned too much for one night, only a few days ago, and if the matter had not been brought up by another person he would have brought it up himself.

Mr. DUMBLE said the matter was not a personal one and he thought that the discussion would do good.

Mr. J. STRATTON, town inspector, said there was a misunderstanding in the matter. Pupils were not required to commit to memory every line of a lesson, but to get at the principal points. If only a page at a time was given, very slow progress indeed would be made. He thought that there were some judicious teachers who could be trusted to give lessons to the pupils without the interference of the board. He felt that the board by interfering in this matter, were doing harm to the schools and scholars, by letting the matter get into the papers and then come to the ears of the pupils, who, backed by their parents, would neglect their studies.

Mr. DUMBLE thought that it would do good to bring this matter before the board and people. He read a report adopted in the early portion of the year, which denounced the system of "cramming."

Mr. J. STRATTON said the suggestions of the report were being carried out every day.

MR. RUTHERFORD said when he brought the matter before the Board, he did not refer to Mr. Braden or any other teacher, and thought that gentleman "flared up" without any good cause. If Mr. Braden had given too much before, he should not do it again. His children had to-night no less than five columns of history to learn.

MR. J. BRADEN explained that the geography and history lessons spoken of were merely review work, the pupils having gone over it all before, in different rooms of a lower grade.

MR. MCCLELLAND asked about the religious texts?

MR. STEVENSON said they would be ready in a short time.

MR. POUSSETTE asked about the boys waiting room?

MR. WRIGHTON said that arrangements had been made to provide a room, which would soon be ready.

APPOINTMENT COMMITTEE.

MR. DUMBLE, chairman of the appointment committee read and submitted the following report:—

The committee on appointments having considered the matters to them referred, beg to report as follows:—

1. That Miss Dowling be appointed to the room now taught by Miss Flavelle, at a salary of $360 a year.

2. That Miss Matthews be appointed to Miss Dowling's room, at a salary of $250 a year.

3. That Miss Johnston be appointed to Miss Matthews' room at a salary of $225 a year.

4. That in making the above appointments the services of one teacher in the west ward school are dispensed with.

The scholars of the room left vacant are by re-adjustment apportioned to the other rooms without impairing the efficiency of the work done, but as more work will be imposed on the teachers, your committee recommends that Miss Hall's salary be increased by $25, making it $250. The committee also recommends that Mr. Braden be authorized to select an assistant to take his work when it is necessary for him to be absent in the inspection of the other rooms of the common schools.

Your committee have considered the question of the salaries of the common school teachers and recommend that a slight increase be made in them, and that salaries be as follows, taking effect, except as above mentioned, after the 1st of January, 1882:—

Mr. John Braden	$750 00
Mr. Smith	500 00
Mr. Kidd	500 00
Mr. Thos. Braden	500 00
Miss Preston	400 00
Miss Nicholls	325 00
Miss Dowling	300 00
Miss Jenkins	325 00
Miss Perry	280 00
Miss Fair	280 00
Miss Becket	280 00
Miss Irwin	250 00
Miss Hall	250 00
Miss Johnston	225 00
Miss Matthews	250 00
Miss Graham	210 00
Miss Ross	210 00

Your committee in view of the probability of the re-arrangement of the high school salaries, deem it inexpedient to consider at this time the salaries of the high school teachers, and ask leave to consider and report on the high school salaries at another time. Your committee are of opinion that it may be possible to make a slight increase in these salaries without adding anything to the expense of the schools, if changes, which may be effected, may be accomplished.

(Signed,) D. W. DUMBLE,
Chairman.

Peterborough, Nov. 1, 1881.

MR. TOOLE, opposed the report and said he was of the same opinion as he was in April last, and wanted to see Mr. McKee's salary increased, as that teacher had done good work as shown by the reports from time to time. When he saw that the salaries of some six or eight teachers were increased, when they had not even asked for it, he felt that Mr. McKee had been thrown overboard.

MR. TOOLE moved in amendment that a clause increasing Mr. McKee's salary by $100, be added to the report. Mr. Denne seconded it.

Mr. SAWERS wanted the salaries of some half dozen other teachers increased.

Mr. RUTHERFORD did not object to some of the increases made, but he thought that the salary question should be buried, as they had had enough of it in the spring. He thought the report a very equitable one and one that should commend itself to the Board, and he trusted that no amendments to it would be moved.

Mr. TOOLE said that the committee should report on all the matters referred to them, and not select first what they saw fit. He had not heard the report read, and the Chairman of the Committee told him when he asked to have it read, that he would hear it read before the Board.

Mr. POUSSETTE said it was impossible to take up the question referred to by Mr. Toole at the committee meeting, held this evening, before the regular meeting of the Board. The trustees were not afraid to deal with high school salaries and would do so at a future time. He thought the report a good one and said it should be adopted.

Mr. SAWERS moved an amendment that the salaries of Messrs. Earl and McKee, and Misses Fair, Perry and Beckett be increased by various sums.

Mr. DUMBLE said that if one of the suggestions made were acted on, teachers teaching the same grades would be paid unequal salaries and there would be dissensions in the staff.

Mr. DENNE said he thought that the question of salaries should be left over for the new Board in January.

Mr. POUSSETTE said if the Board did not act now they would stultify themselves. The matter was referred to the committee by a very full meeting of the Board.

Mr. DENNE said he was not at the last meeting, for the very reason that he had not been notified of two meetings, which it was understood were not to come off, but of which fact he as well as others, had not been notified, and had come to this room for nothing.

Mr. DUMBLE thought it was not fair to leave over for a new Board that which they were afraid to do themselves.

The two amendments having been defeated, the report was received and adopted on the following vote, Mr. Sawers demanding the yeas and nays:—

YEAS—Dumble, McClelland, Rutherford, Poussette, Stratton and the Chairman, 6.

NAYS—Denne, Best, Burnham, Toole, Sawers and Wrighton, 6.

The Chairman by virtue of his office declared the report carried.

The Board then adjourned.

Ontario and Quebec Railway.

Mr. Lumsden, General Engineer of the Ontario and Quebec Railway, is looking for a new route in the vicinity of Moberly and will probably select one a mile south of that place. The object is to avoid crossing the Toronto and Ottawa track, as the two lines by the old route would cross each other four times.

Fancy Goods at Auction Prices.

In order to prepare for the approaching Christmas holiday season, Mr. J. F. Austin has decided to sell by auction without reserve the whole of his present stock of Fancy Goods, Silver Plated Ware, &c., together with a consignment of new goods to arrive. This sale will afford a splendid chance for ladies and gentlemen desirous of purchasing reliable goods of this class at the lowest possible cost, and the public are invited to visit Mr. Austins fancy goods store, and inspect for themselves. The sale begins at eight o'clock on Friday evening, the 4th inst., when Mr. Austin promises such inducements as will eclipse all former sales of a similar character ever held in Peterborough. Come and patronage your own local merchant.

Oysters! Oysters! Oysters!

Fresh oysters by the plate, raw, stewed or fried, at the St. James Hotel and Restaurant.

"Hallo! Good Evening."

"I say, what are they going to do in T. Menzies old stand?"

"Why, don't you know the great mammoth sale that took place there last year, of E. Plummer's & Co's., Bankrupt Stock of fancy goods, clocks, watches, cutlery, cruets, gold and roll plate jewellery, and in factall sort of goods in that line, that caused such a great sensation on account of their cheapness!"

"Oh, of course I do, and I am mighty glad they're coming back. Gives a fellow a chance to get first-class goods at city prices. When does their sale begin?"

"In a few days, about 65 boxes of goods have arrived, and are all to be opened, besides as many more on the way. Tell your sisters, and your cousins, and your aunts, all to come."

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

PEOPLE ARE BEGINNING to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa-Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

1—FREE OF COST.—All persons wishing to test the merits of a great remedy—one that will positively cure Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any affection of the Throat or Lungs—are requested to call at Taylor and Macdonald's Drug Store and get a trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, free of cost, which will show you what a regular dollar-size bottle will do.

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

HANLAN has just said to a reporter that on no account will he row another race before before the spring. He says it is not fair for Trickett to pounce upon him and ask him to row a race on a few minute's notice. Hanlan's attention having been directed to newspaper comments he said, "I expected that, but I will row away from these reports in the spring. Any body who wants a race with me in the spring can have it. This is final."

ENGLAND AND THE VATICAN.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Times says:—"The Ministry has given no encourgement whatever to opening the question of the establishment of more direct relations with the Vatican. The proposal to appeal to the spiritual authority of the Pope in order that the Government may indirectly control the conduct of Catholics in Great Britian, which could be the only object of the re-establishment of relations with the Vatican, is not one that can be popular with any class of Englishmen, or which can have any chance of practical success."

BISMARCK AND GAMBETTA.

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—Nothing is known here as to the reported interview between the Prince Bismarck and M. Gambetta. The Journal de St. Petersburg, the official organ of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, makes no comment on the Vienna interview.

NO CONFEDERATE FUNDS.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Pall Mall Gazette says:—"There is no truth in the statement that there is a large amount of money in the Bank of England deposited to the credit of the Confederation Government, and available for payment on confederate bonds. We believe it does not hold a single penny, and doubt whether there is any such money in any bank in this country. The whole story is a base fabrication and a fitting product of speculation that has no substantial foundation."

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Conservative gain in the municipal elections is 86, and the Liberal gain 45. The most important change is at Stanbridge, where the Conservatives gained 6 seats in the municipal council. They gained 4 in Oldham, 3 in Cardiff, and 3 in Liverpool. The foregoing results are probably attributed to the Irish vote, but the Conservative gains are pretty evenly distributed among towns of large Irish population and those purely English.

JAMES ROTHSCHILD.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—It is said the late Baron James Rothschild's incurred losses on the Bourse in October amounting to eighty million francs, and his anxiety caused the bursting of an aneurism.

SEXTON'S SAYINGS.

DUBLIN, Nov. 2.—The Herald correspondent sought an interview with Mr. Sexton immediately after his release, but was informed that he had retired to rest at once and was then being examined by a medical man, who had been called a few minutes after Mr. Sexton reached home. The doctor stated that his patient is in a very bad condition, and very much worse than before his incarceration. Mr. Sexton is suffering from a complication of diseases, including febroid pneumonia, spinal irritation, and gastric disturbance. He has been ordered abroad at the earliest moment when he can be removed. He is at present unable to travel. As a matter of fact this course had been urged upon him long before his arrest. Owing to the precarious condition of his heart, it now appears absolutely necessary that he should seek a more genial climate. There are no conditions attached to his release. During the eighteen days of his imprisonment he was confined to his bed, and for seven days was in absolute solitude. Mr. Sexton speaks in the highest terms of the treatment he received from all the officials in the gaol.

FATHER SHEEHY SNUBBED.

LIMERICK, Nov. 2.—The Bishop of the diocese of Limerick, who is strongly opposed to the "no rent" manifesto, has signified to Father Sheehy the desirability of prolonging his absence from the diocese during the agitation.

STARTLING FIGURES.

CORK, Nov. 2.—An application was made to the Land Court to fix the rent of a holding in Cork, where the value is £27 and the rent £113. Justice O'Hagan said the figures were very startling.

"RESOURCES OF CIVILIZATION."

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 2.—The secretary of the Liverpool branch of the Land League has telegraphed to Mr. Gladstone:—"The elections yesterday show your 'resources of civilization' are appreciated by a hundred and fifty thousand Irish citizens here."

POLICE AND LEAGUE.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—In connection with the recent prevention of the Land League meeting in the east end of London, the Scotland Yard authorities state that they were not ordered to interfere with such meetings, and the police subordinates appear to have acted on their own responsibility.

INSURRECTION AT MECCA.

MECCA, Nov. 2.—It is reported that the tribes in Mecca have risen in insurrection, and that the Grand Schereef has proclaimed himself as Caliph, and has liberated Midhat Pasha.

A CHANGE OF FRONT.

DUBLIN, Nov. 2.—It is stated that the Land League leaders have changed front, and directed the tenant farmers to send in their claims under the Land Act, with a view of swamping the commission.

THE EXAMINER'S REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Comptroller Knox says, regarding the Newark bank failure, that the report of Bank Examiner Shelley of August 16th, 1880, contained the following:—"I verified the accounts of the Mechanics' National Bank, of Newark, by obtaining its own balance and reconciling it." The comptroller says if the examiner had not been deceived by the forged letter of Baldwin, which was handed to the examiner in place of the genuine letter of the cashier of the bank in New York, the enormous losses of the bank would have been exposed fourteen months ago. Bank examiners have always been instructed to verify the accounts of correspondents when ballances are exceptionally large, or whenever there is reason to doubt their correctness.

STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS.

NEWARK, N. J., NOV. 2.—It is reported that a large number of notes held by the failed bank against Nugent are outlawed by the statute of limitations. It is also reported that Baldwin lost $80,000 in Wall street in one day. Baldwin says the directors when making an examination counted the money carefully, but accepted the balances written in the books as gospel truth. Bank examiner Shelley said as far as he had gone the deficiencies amounted to $2,246,000; there was no doubt the amount would be materially increased, as many false entries and irregularities had come to light. The bank examiner says the deficiency in the account of the Mechanics' Bank will certainly reach two and a half millions. From present indications he believes the depositers will lose $900,000.

NO INTERFERENCE.

Miss Parnell, wishing to testify to the leagality of the proceedings of the ladies' League, publicly announced in the newspapers on Wednesday morning that a meeting of the League would be held that evening. There was no attempt to interfere with the meeting, although detectives watched those who entered the League room.

ITS SIGNIFICANCE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 3.—It is stated that Russian Government thinks that the interview between the Emperor of Austria and the King of Italy is entirely the result of Bismarck's intriguing, and at least for the present its signification is threatening only to France.

NOT A SQUARE DEAL.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The branches of the Ladies' Land League throughout the provinces, complain loudly that their meetings should be dispersed while the Central League in Dublin is permitted to meet uninterrupted.

SECRET TRIALS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 3.—It is stated that five political prisoners were tried here last week. The authorities maintain secrecy concerning the matter.

NOT SO BAD.

Mr. Sexton has resumed chief direction of United Ireland, and will contribute leaders to its editorial columns.

THE LADIES' LEAGUE.

The Ladies' Land League met in this city today without interference from the Government. Miss Parnell and Miss Helen Taylor were the principal speakers. It was resolved to form a political prisoners' aid society.

GAMBETTA TOLD ALBERT EDWARD.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—It is stated that the Prince of Wales asked Gambetta whether he had seen Bismarck. Gambetta answered that he had not seen him and that his recent visit to Germany was his third visit there incoquito.

THE STARS AND STRIPES.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The only novel feature of the Lord Mayor's procession on the 9th inst. will be the banner of the United States escorted by a guard of honour. When the procession has reached Westminster the American flag will be borne to Palace Yard, and the massed bands will play the American National Anthem. Mr. W. J. POLITICAL.

The Mail of Wednesday announces that it has been wisely decided to hold a Provincial Liberal Conservative Convention at Toronto, on Tuesday the 22nd of November next, and requests that immediate steps be taken by the local associations throughout the Province, to select and send to the Convention not less than four and not more than six representatives from each constituency. It also announces that the proceedings of the Convention will be followed by a grand banquet to Sir John A. Macdonald, the present Premier of the Dominion.

This is undoubtedly a step in the right direction, as the great danger at the next general election for the House of Commons, is that our friends will be too confident of success and too disposed to allow minor differences of opinion to make them lukewarm in a contest which will be quite as important, and require to be fought with the same vigour as be that of 1878 to ensure success.

We hope to see the county of Peterborough fully represented at Toronto on the 22nd of November next, but to ensure its being so, immediate steps should be taken to that end.

THE ONTARIO BANK.

We regret to learn, directly and indirectly, that some of the depositors and note holders of the Ontario Bank have become alarmed at recent developements, and are withdrawing their deposits and refusing to take its notes as usual, notwithstanding that there is not the slightest ground for alarm on their part.

Did we for a moment think that there is the slightest possibility of any of its creditors suffering inconvenience, much less loss, by the Ontario Bank, we should be the the last to discouraging them taking every possible means of securing themselves, but as matters stand we deem it our duty to discourage everything tending to discredit this Bank's entire solvency so far as the public is concerned.

It is unfortunately too true that through past management, a considerable portion of the Stockholders' money has been lost, but taking even the most gloomy view of the state of its affairs, and accepting Mr. Holland's report as certain to be fully realized, the bank still possesses undoubted assets, which amount to within a fraction of one hundred and thirty-five cents for every dollar which it owes to the public. But perhaps the best evidence that the Bank is thoroughly solvent so far as its creditors are concerned, is the fact that notwithstanding Mr. Holland's proposal to reduce each $100 of its present stock down to $50, yet the speculators in both the Montreal and Toronto markets are paying about $60 for every $100 of its present stock or for every $50 of the new stock, which is equal to a premium of twenty per cent. on the stock as reduced. This is the strongest possible proof that those most likely to be best informed still place a very substantial value upon its stock, and believe that things are likely to turn out much better than Mr. Holland's estimate. Be that as it may, however, it is quite clear that this stock cannot be worth a single cent, unless there be a surplus after paying every creditor. The Stockholders are the only ones which can suffer by the bank's losses, and that being the case we have no hesitation in strongly deprecating any action on the part of any of its creditors calculated to increase the already serious loss of its proprietors.

Sudden Death of a Young Man.

Lindsay, Nov. 1.—Robert McLean, aged about 20 years, was found dead in his bed this morning. Death was caused by a paralytic stroke during the night. He was badly deformed from injuries received from two paralytic strokes previous to this.

THE DR. THOMAS CASE.

Dr. Burn's Theology Repudiated at a meeting of City Methodist Ministers.

At a meeting of the Methodist Ministers' Association of Montreal held on Saturday, the following resolutions were passed as a disavowal of the views attributed by Dr. Burns of Hamilton, to the Methodist ministry of this country. Upon enquiry, it could not be learned what action the London Conference, to which Dr. Burns belongs, was likely to take in the matter; but apart from any formal legal process, it was thought that similar deliverances to the following from different ministerial associations throughout the country would do much to change the erroneous impression created by Dr. Burn's letter as to the theological position of the Methodist Ministry of Canada;—

Whereas, the Rev. A. Burns, D.D. L.L.D., of Hamilton, Ont., a Minister of the Methodist Church of Canada, has declared in a recent widely published statement of his views on the theological topics of inspiration, atonement and retribution:

1. That the idea of plenary inspiration of Holy Scripture is "the very quintessence of absurdity" and that "no scholarly man among us holds it," and that "it is our own absolute stupidity that has saddled us with such a notion," and that he does not know "a man except a tenth or twentieth rate man who holds it."

2. That he knows of "no scholarly minister who holds to the old idea that the Father had to be pacified, reconciled, or brought to a merciful attitude toward the sinner." "Christ came to show humanity the love of God." "The substitution theory is dead and almost buried."

3. That the doctrine of eternal conscious torment is not an essential doctrine, and that he does not know a thinking minister to-day who so regards it.

And whereas in seven different places in the aforesaid document, Dr. Burns implies that he represents not only his own views, but those of Methodist ministers in Canada generally, and states that he knows of "no well-read, scholarly minister on this side" who thinks differently from him on the points named.

Therefore, it is resolved,

I. That as members of the Montreal Methodist Ministers' Association, composed of the Professors of the Wesleyan Theological College and the pastors of the city churches, we do for ourselves most strongly protest against the statement of Dr. Burns that ministers of the Methodist Church of Canada are generally in harmony with his theological position, and that we hereby express our belief that this body of 1,100 men has, to the great injury of our church, been thus incorrectly represented before the public.

II. That we cannot but express our surprise that Dr. Burns should attempt to make his assertion stronger by the unwarranted assumption that those who differ from him are lacking in ministerial scholastic qualifications, and are occupying but very subordinate positions in the Church, thus appearing practically to assert that the true standard by which all learning and ability are to be measured is departure from established doctrinal standards.

III. That we feel very great sorrow that Dr. Burns should have allowed a commendable, personal and private friendship for the Rev. Dr. Thomas of Chicago, to have led him into a public attitude clearly antagonistic to a sister church between which and ours the warmest fraternal feeling has ever existed, and at a time when that church was called to a duty which could only be performed with great pain to itself.

IV. That we readily recognize the peculiar circumstances under which Dr. Burns has made the aforesaid statements, viz., in the form of private correspondence, briefly and, perhaps, hastily written, and not as an explicit declaration of his theological views, and probably not designed at the time for publication, although this, it appears, he subsequently sanctioned, and that we, therefore, entertain the hope that such an expanded explanation of these statements may be given as will satisfy the public that he does not hold the views which seem to be implied in his statements.

FRIGHTFUL DEATH.

500 Tons of Earth slowly Falling on a man—Thrilling moments.

Erie, Oct. 19.—A horrible tragedy was enacted here yesterday morning. Mr. Ralph Gore, one of Erie's largest contractors, was superintending the work of the new sewer in course of construction on Popular street. While at the bottom of the deep excavation. it was noticed that the earth on the west bank was giving away. A shout was raised, and a rush was made for the surface. City Engineer Bridgen, and half a dozen workmen with two surveyors, were among those flying for life. Mr. Gore being nearest to the slope leading to the surface, could have reached the top first but he generously stepped aside, and let every man in his employ go first. The act was his own death warrant. Before he had advanced five paces the trembling bank split, and an immense volumne of earth caved in. When the dust cleared away the top of Mr. Gore's head could be seen just above the earth. City Engineer Bridgen sprang down and cleared away the earth from the unfortunate nan's face. To his surprise he found Mr. Gore alive and apparently but little injured. The earth had closed about him in a mass, from which it was found impossible to extricate him "I think my legs are broken, gentlemen," said he, "but set to work with the spades and dig me out of my grave." He spoke encouragingly, and notwithstanding the great agony he was in he made light of the accident. While the workmen were engaged in digging away the earth another cry of alarm was sounded, and to the horror of the unfortunate victim and his rescuers the other bank was seen to be giving away. It hung right over the spot where Mr. Gore stood, wedged as in vice. Five or six hundred tons of earth and rock must come down unless a miracle intervened. The laborers had cleared away the earth from Mr. Gore's shoulders, but now they had to fly again for their own lives. The next moment the noble-hearted man was alone. Above him was the tottering avalanche, and on the south bank stood a crowd of people with palid faces, waiting with solemn silence and with averted heads for the fall that would reduce his body to a shapeless mass. The look of despair he gave when he took in the situation will never be forgotten by those who saw it. He made one more desperate effort to extricate himself, and then resigned himself to his fate. He fixed his eyes on the slowly moving mass, and watched it creeping nearer to the point where he knew it would receive sufficient impetus to be hurled down upon him. "God help me," he exclaimed and the tearful, awe-striken crowd audibly echoed the dying man's wish. Then his lips were seen to move in prayer, and the landslide moved faster. It received a temporary check, but again glided on towards the brink. The suspence at this moment was terrible. A large school opposite had just let out, and the teacher and children had gathered on the bank to watch the dreadful scene. Men, women and children sobbed aloud, and some knelt in prayer for the salvation of his soul. Mr. Gore thanked them with his eyes, and bent his head. The avalanch was now within two feet of the point where the bank became steeper. Slowly it crept; inch by inch the point was reached; its pace quickened; there was a rush, and five hundred tons of earth plunged over the brink and fell with a crash on the top of the devoted man's head. Later in the day the body was recovered, a shapeless mass of humanity.

AN ENORMOUS PENALTY.

A Member of the Quebec Legislature Fined Under the Electoral Act.

Montreal, Oct. 31.—Judge Johnson never does anything by halves; this afternoon, in the Court of Review, he dilivered judgement in a case that made at least one getleman start. J. Legris, of Coteau landing, brought an action against Wm. Ducket, member for Soulanges county in the Local House. The action was for the penalty placed upon members under the Section 124 of the Electoral Act, for sitting in the House when not duly qualified. The defendant in the case was held to be insolvent, but the Court below took a different view and decided otherwise. Judge Johnson reversed this decision, and under the law making the defendant liable to $2,000 a day for every day he sits in the House, condemed Mr. Duckett to pay $75,000. It is called the first decision under the new Act.

MARKETS.

THE POULTRY TRADE.

The Montreal Gazette of the 1st inst. says the poultry trade of Canada is growing in importance every year, as farmers have found out that the raising of poultry is not the least profitable of their pursuits. The Americans seem to depend more upon our supply of poultry than previously, and already we hear of American buyers in Ontario, endeavouring to contract ahead, some contracts having been closed. It is thought that the United States will require larger quantities of Canadian poultry than for a number of years. Notwithstanding the very unfavourable state of the weather for the handling of dressed poultry, shipments have already commenced to come forward, several cases and boxes have been received, and the sale was reported to-day of a case of turkeys at 9c. and a case of chickens at 8c. per pound. The sale was reported of 200 brace of partridge at 50c. por pair.

BUTTER AND CHEESE.

The shipments of butter from Montreal to Great Britain since May 1st, (the commencement of the season,) 113,882 packages, against 161,042 packages for the corresponding period last year, showing a decerease of 47,159 packages. The shipments of cheese for the same period were 486,207 boxes, against 494,369 boxes last year, which shows a decrease of 8,162 boxes as per the following table:—

	1881.	1880.
Cheese, boxes—From May 1st to October 29th	486,207	494,366
Butter, packages—From May 1st, to October 29th	113,882	161,141

The following statement shows the receipts and exports of cheese at Boston since the 1st of May, 1871, compared with the same time last year:—

	Receipts.	Exports.
Total since May 1st, 1881	198,287	94,701
Same time last year	240,798	135,783

The following statement shows the receipts and exports of butter at Boston since the 1st of May, 1881, compared with the same time last year:—

	Receipts.	Exports.
Total since May 1st, 1981	409,735	31,181
Same time last year	507,109	98,562

Judging by the foregoing figures one of two things seem to be self evident, viz:—Either the production of the present year is much below that of last, or the stocks on hand must be much greater than at this time last year. If the former be the correct explanation of the decrease in exports, then present prices are likely to be maintained, but if not, then prices must decline.

Agricultural Distress.

London, Nov. 1.—The agricultural distress of the last three or four years has had an effect which is becoming very marked upon the London clubs. The land owners, looking around to see in what direction a saving can be made, have, in not a few instances, cut off their club subscriptions, and have determined, instead of belonging to three or four clubs, to confine themselves to one, or at most two. On the other hand, the pressure of candidates even at the older clubs is said to have delined. A piece of evidence which tends in the same direction is the extraordinary reduction in the return of taxation for men servants, which indicates a diminution in the number of persons so employed amounting to 15,000

On Thirty Days' Trial.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and complete restoration of vigor and manhood. Also for Rheumatism, neuralgia, Paralysis, Liver and Kidney difficulties, Ruptures, and many other diseases. Illustrated pamphlet sent free. Address Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

For Cholera, Cholera Morbus, and Cholera Infantum, as well as all Summer Complaints of a similar nature, Perry Davis' Painkiller, acts with wonderful rapidity, and never fails when taken at the commencement of an attack, and often cures after every other remedy has failed.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of mpny to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES:—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

A LITTLE GIFT FROM IRELAND.

"Here, Gran'ma, here's a present, it has come a distance too,
"Tis a little pot of shamrocks, and it comes addressed to you;
Yes all the way from Ireland, and the card here mentions more—
They were gathered at your birth-place on the banks of Avonmore."

"From Ireland! do you tell me! O darling, is it true?
Acushla let me feel them—and you say 'twas there they grew?
Why I can scarce believe it; is it really what you say?
From my birth-place in old Ireland! poor Ireland far away.

"I'm old and stiff and feeble, and in darkness, God be praised,
Yet, Katy, how it stirs me, how my poor old heart is raised,
To feel it here so near me, the soil that gave me birth,
The very clay of Ireland; let me kiss the holy earth.

"These blessed little shamrocks! I can't see them, yet I know
They bring me back the eyesight of the happy long ago;
And gleaming thro' the darkness comes the vision that I love,
The dear green fields of Ireland and the sunny sky above.

"I see, as I once saw them, when a girl like you I stood
Amid the furse and heather; there's the chapel, hill and wood;
There's the abbey clad with ivy, and the river's winding shore,
And the boys and girls all playing on the banks of Avonmore.

"God bless the little shamrocks, then, for bringing back the scene,
The beauty of the sunshine, the brightness of the green;
Thro' long, long years to see it, and to see it all so plain,
Ah! child, I'm sure you're smiling, but I'm feeling young again.

"And though I'm truly thankful for the blessing that God's hand
Has brought around me, Katty, in this great and happy land;
I can't forget the old home, 'midst the comforts of the new,
My heart is three parts buried where these little shamrocks grew."

OFF FOR THE WOODS.

Probably at a thousand towns there are men now waiting for transportation to the camps, or hanging around looking for jobs. They are not burdened with Saratoga trunks, and few of them have even white shirts. Their days are merry ones, when they are sojourning in places of civilization, and after they shall have all departed the saloon keeper will detect a material decrease in his receipts. It would be strange if at some places special policemen have not been appointed to hold in check the strangers who are stopping among them. It would be somewhat out of the natural order of events if some of these strangers have not slept in the calaboose over night, and perhaps occasionally one of them has asked a citizen for a little money to enable him to pay his board bill for a day or two longer or until he can find work. These favors, however, are never asked as a gift, but are accompanied by a promise that the money will be returned immediately after the first pay day, and it might be possible to find better dressed, and more polished men who would not remember their debts as well.

We do not infer by this description that these loggers are really bad men. Many a good man has worn a woollen shirt, and been able to carry his entire wardrobe in a big handkerchief. Noble-hearted fellows, many of them are, who would share their last dollar with a companion disabled by a falling tree, or prostrated by sickness in camp, and the hat that is passed among them for a suffering comrade would often make the contribution plate, that circles around many an elegant church for the cause of charity, look mighty sick. The men in the woods will swear at one another, fight often, and are always ready to beat his fellow workman out of his last cent at poker, but when it comes to helping the unfortunate, their hearts are in the right place.

The majority of the men who go into the pineries do not leave behind them pleasant homes. In fact, many of them are homeless, and, virtually, wanderers—in the mills in summer, on the drives in the spring, and in the woods in the winter. They float from Maine to Canada, and from Canada to the Northwest, ready at any season to travel in any direction where inclination or a promise of increased pay may lead them. They can wield an axe, "yank" a saw, flourish an ox-gad, or hold a pair of reins, and feel that these qualifications will earn them a living anywhere in the lumber regions. Their stock in trade is easily carried, and they tramp, tramp, but always with an object in view.

The dangers of a camp are many. The giants of the forest will crush many a man the coming winter under their heavy bodies and spreading wings, as they go down before the axe that year after year is cutting them away. The treacherous binder will sweep scores of drivers from their loads into eternity, and often, when loading and unloading, a log will roll over the man or men in its way, breaking limbs or destroying life. The axe will go amiss, and, instead of being imbedded in the wood, will strike some poor fellow standing in its course. The men are subjected to these dangers, and others as well. The wages they obtain would be little inducement for others than habitual woodsmen to chance the risk, but they go into the woods in a mood that tells little of a thought that before the season shall end some of them, maimed, will, with blankets thrown over them, be carried to the nearest hospital, and the bodies of others drawn on ox sleds to the nearest settlement, and thence forwarded to their friends, or buried in graves that will never be wept over, or even sought. They probably think little of this phase of the life they are entering upon afresh, and it is just as well that they do not.

These men possess an enviable virtue—the virtue of good health. No weak-chested consumptive, no one deliberated by any disease can be included in the great army. Every member of it must be performed. If he does not, nothing is surer than the law regulating the survival of the fittest will force him to abandon his position to be filled by someone else. They must be men who can eat pork and beans and molasses, who can get along without butter and other delicacies of the table, and who can work in the snow, sleet and cold from daylight until dark for six days in the week, month after month. The business in which a logger is engaged calls for more endurance than that of a soldier, for in addition to exposure, the logger is called upon to do severe manual labour. During the civil war many of the most enduring men in the army, and as brave as ever faced a gun, came from the pineries of the three great lumber states.

It need not be supposed that because of the hard work in the woods, and a lack of so many of those privileges which are commonly supposed to make up civilized life, the loggers go dreadingly to their tasks. They gravitate to the forest as naturally as a small footed belle seeks the ball room. It is their life. They are used to work and do not expect to live without it. They feel at home under the trees, and in the camps, where of an evening they tell their stories through clouds of smoke. The fashions and ambitions that agitate the outside world, if none to them, cause them no unrest. In a certain sense they are happy, insomuch as they eat heartly and sleep soundly. They are doing a more important work than they are aware of. They are filling a great niche in the world that is necessary to be filled, and which, if it were not filled, would be disastrous to trade and progress. The blow of an axe, and the click of the saw are the forerunners of many of the blessings that we enjoy, and which the ones who do so much to produce them are forbidden to enjoy, even if they have a desire to.

FOREST TREE CULTURE.

BY HON. H. G. JOLY.

The following valuable article appears in the last report of the Montreal Horticultural Society and Fruit Growers' Association of the Province of Quebec:—

The European traveller who visits only the settled parts of this Province, is invariably disappointed at the scarcity and meanness of our trees. Of course, if he leaves the beaten tracks of travellers, and goes far enough into the wilderness, up the Ottawa and the St. Maurice, he will see fine timber, but, in our settlements, we can only show him, here and there, at long intervals, one solitary elm, model of grace and beauty, and the traveller will feel, as we do, grateful to the man who spared that tree.

On a warm summer's day, the Desert of Sahara, with its lovely oasis, would be suggestive of coolness, compared with our country. No trees to shade the dusty roads, to shelter the panting cattle, to set off the neat white-washed houses; only far away, hidden nearly out of sight, the patch of small neglected timber which the farmer is compelled by our stern winters, to spare from the general slaughter, as he will die, without fuel.

If every acre of ground were covered with valuable crops, one would try and get reconciled to the absence of trees, and bow to the iron rule of our age which converts everything into cash. But what a small proportion of all that ground is used profitably! We can find plenty of spare room for growing forest trees; they are not only the most beautiful ornaments to a country, and the most useful product of nature, giving fuel, timber, shade, shelter, retaining moisture and a protection against droughts, &c., &c., but, considering the question from a strictly money-making point of view, the culture of forest trees is perhaps the best and safest investment that can be made.

It is rather difficult, I admit, to induce people to plant forest trees in this Province, where, for generations, they have been brought up to look upon the forest tree as their natural enemy, to be got rid of at any cost, hacked down, burnt out of the way (for want of a better mode of disposing of it), and still troubling the settler for years with its everlasting stump, an obstacle to thorough cultivation. The children and grandchildren of the settlers remember too well; they cannot be expected to love the forest tree, but self-interest ought to conquer instinct and prejudice. With us, land is not too valuable for forest tree culture. In Europe, where land is scarcer and more valuable than it is here, they plant, every year, thousands and thousands of acres in forest trees.

To those who say that our country is too new, to think of that, I will answer that New Zealand, the Australian Colonies, India (so far as the settlement of the land by Europeans is concerned), are newer countries than ours, and they are all taking active steps towards the planting of forest trees on a large scale. In the United States, the Federal as well as the States' Governments encourage the culture of forest trees by grants of land, and money, and exemption from taxation, and powerful societies are co-operating with energy and liberality. The Government of Canada has begun by offering free grants to those who undertake the planting of a certain number of trees on the Western prairies, but I will here observe that it will require more active measures to set the people in motion, and especially the establishment of nurseries, where the people can buy young trees and seed, and the beginning of some large plantations, as an example, to show to the people, by practical results, that the culture of forest trees is within the reach of every one.

We seen in the papers that the Western railways have started the culture of trees on their own account; the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba railway is reported as having appointed a superintendent of tree culture, who has just contracted for three hundred thousand trees, and most of the roads west of the Mississippi and Missouri rivers have also begun to raise trees, in order to insure a supply of ties, and for other purposes.

How many give as their reason for not planting forest trees, that they will not live long enough to get any profit out of them. You do not hear that in Europe. Are people more selfish in America than they are in Europe? Or is the feeling of self-reliance so much more developed in America that the people here expect the next generation to take care of itself as they take care of themselves? Then leave them some timber, if you wish them to have the same chance that you had. It was but a heathen who wrote, more than eight hundred years ago, "Arbores serit diligens agricola quorum fructus numquam videbit." "The good husbandman plants trees whose fruits he shall never see." But I must not drift away from my subject into philosophical considerations; it will be more to the point to show that the profits of forest tree culture are not only enormous, but that their realization is far from being delayed to an indefinite future.

I do not pretend that the whole of our farms should be planted in forest trees; that would be too absurd. Our farms are generally too large for the small number of hands we employ; there are always some odd corners, idle strips, stoney or damp patches which it does not pay to cultivate; begin and plant forest trees there, suiting the tree to the nature of the soil—you will find some for every kind of soil. Once planted and fairly started, they will take care of themselves, give no trouble and increase yearly in value, in a wonderful ratio, so well expressed by the Honorable F. B. Hough, chief of the Forestry Division of the United States Agricultural Department, in the address lately delivered by him at Columbus, Ohio.

1—FREE OF COST.—All persons wishing to test the merits of a great remedy—one that will positively cure Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any affection of the Throat or Lungs—are requested to call at Taylor and Macdonald's Drug Store and get a trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, free of cost, which will show you what a regular dollar-size bottle will do.

WHY become a suffering martyr to Headache, when Burdock Blood Bitters will surely cure the cause of all varieties of either Sick or Nervous Headache, clense the system, regulate the Secretions, relieve Constipation of the Bowels, purify the Blood, renovate the Liver and tone up the Nervous System, and distressing headache will be unknown. Sample bottles ten cents. Large bottles $1.00.

"HAIL, beauteous, bounteous, gladsome Spring,"—this was Mark Twain's prize poem—but the dire diseases incident to Spring, spoil the romance. Burdock Blood Bitters is the prize remedy, the remedy prized by all who have tried it as the best Blood Purifying Tonic and System Regulator in the market. It cures all Blood Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple. Sample bottles ten cents, for sale by all dealers in medicine.

1—FARMERS AND MECHANICS.—If you wish to avoid great danger and trouble, besides no small bill of expense, at this season of the year, you should take prompt steps to keep disease from your household. The system should be cleansed, blood purified, stomach and bowels regulated, and prevent and cure diseases arising from spring malaria. We know of nothing that will so perfectly and surely do this as Electric Bitters, and at the trifling cost of fifty cents a bottle.—Exch. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.

How to Fatten Turkeys.

Nothing pays better to be sent to market in prime condition than the turkey crop. Many farmers do not understand this. Their turkeys grow on a limited range, get little or no food at home through the summer, and if fed at all with regularity, it is only for two or three weeks before killing. I see these lean bony carcasses in the local markets every winter, and feel sorry for the owner's loss. They have received a small price for their birds, and a still poorer price for the food out. The average life of a turkey is only seven months, and the true economy of feeding is to give the chicks all they can digest from the shell to the slaughter. If they get all they can eat on the range that is well. Usually this should be supplemented by regular rations when they come from the roost in the morning, and two or three hours before they go to roost at night. The food may be slack in the morning, so that they will go to the range with good appetites, and fuller at night. They continue growing quite rapidly until midwinter, and you will be paid for the longer feeding. There is nothing better for fattening than old corn, fed partly in the kernel and partly in cooked meal mashed up with boiled potatoes. Feed three times a day, giving the warm meal in the morning, and feeding in troughs with plenty of room, so that all the flock may have a chance. Northern corn has more oil in it than southern, and is worth more for turkey food. Use milk in fattening if you keep a dairy farm. Feed only so much as they will eat up clean. Cultivate the acquaintance of your turkeys as you feed them. No more charming sight greets your vision in the whole circle of the year than a large flock of bronze turkeys coming at call from their roosts on a frosty November morning. New corn is apt to make the bowels loose, and this should be guarded against. There is usually green food enough in the fields to meet their wants in the fall, and cabbage and turnips need not be added until winter set in. If the bowels get loose give them scalded milk, which will generally correct the evil. Well fattened and well dressed turkeys will bring two or three cents a pound more than the lean birds. It will not only be better for your purse, but for your manhood, to send nothing but finished products to the market.

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.—With ordinary good grooming, and the occasional use of Harvell's condition Powders, any horse, no matter what the condition of his health or physique, can be so restored in every relation, as to make him an almost new animal. They are sold everywhere.

Failure of the American Cabbage Coop.

The New York Bulletin says:—"The steamer Leipsig, from Bremen, which arrived at Baltimore on Saturday, brought 8,000 head of cabbage. It is claimed that this is the first importation of vegetables ever brought to this country. A leading dealer in country produce and vegetables said to a Bulletin reporter yesterday that the cabbage crop, owing to the drought and worms, was a total failure. Long Island and Jersey have usually supplied this market with cabbage, but this year are unable to do so. The Shenandoah Valley has heretofore furnished Baltimore with this esculent. The failure of the crop there accounts for the recent German importation. Within a comparatively few years market gardening has come to be a profits are much greater than in ordinary farming. This year, however, the failure of the cabbage crop alone will make a difference of many thousand dollars in the income of gardeners. In former years, it has been common to import sour-krout from Germany, but never whole cabbages. To-day the price is from $8 to $12 per hundred heads, which is about three times the rate obtained in seasons past. This dealer says cabbage can be bought on the other side at $2 a hundred, and laid down here for $5, so that at $8 and $10 a fair margin of profit can be realized. From present indications, sour-krout, which has been a standard dish from time immemorial on this island, is likely to be a luxury."

THAT marvellous purifyer Burdock Blood Bitters, will speedily change the sallow face to one of freshness, health and beauty. It regulates the Bowels, acts promptly on the Liver and Kidneys and strengthens the system when broken down by Nervous or General Debility. Ask your druggist for a trial bottle, the cost is only ten cents. Large bottles $1.00.

How to Choose a Cow.

In choosing a cow the crumply horn is a good indication; a full eye another. Her head should be small and short. Avoid the Roman nose; this indicates thin milk, and but little of it. See that she is dished in the face, sunk between the eyes. Notice that she is what stock-men call a handler—soft skin and loose like the skin of a bag. Deep from the loin to the udder, and a very small tail. A cow with these marks never fail to be a good milker. There is more difference in cows than is usually supposed, and but few really good cows are offered in our markets.

ZOPESA.
(FROM BRAZIL.)

The New Compound, its wonderful affinity to the Digestive Apparatus and the Liver, increasing the dissolving juices, relieving almost instantly the dreadful results of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and the TORPID LIVER, makes Zopesa an every day necessity in every house.

It acts gently and speedily in Biliousness, Costiveness, Headache, Sick Headache, Distress after Eating, Wind on the Stomach, Heartburn, Pains in the Side and Back, Want of Appetite, Want of Energy, Low Spirits, Foul Stomach. It invigorates the Liver, carries off all surplus bile, regulates the Bowels, and gives tone to the whole system.

Cut this out and take it to your Druggist and get a 10 cent Sample, or a large bottle for 75 cents, and tell your neighbor about it.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalcula which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LIVER COMPLAINTS.
DR. KING'S DANDELION & QUININE LIVER PILLS (without Mercury.)
THE BEST REMEDY FOR BILLIOUSNESS, STOMACH DERANGEMENT, FLATULENCE, PAINS BETWEEN THE SHOULDERS, BAD APPETITE, INDIGESTION, ACIDITY, HEAD-ACHE, HEARTBURN, and all other symptoms of disordered liver and dyspepsia. Acknowledged by many eminent surgeons to be the safest and mildest pills for every constitution.
In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.
Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine. Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Another Ploughing Match.

We are pleased to learn that another ploughing match is to take place on Tuesday next, on the farm of Mr. John Tully, Lot 8, 1st Con. of Smith. As some of the defeated men in the last contest are not contented, and many others who were merely spectators on that occasion have boasted that they can do better work than was done, some of the farmers in that vicinity, in order to afford them an opportunity of showing their prowess, have collected a handsome sum of money and offer prizes in the following classes:—

(1) Men over fifty years of age—three prizes.
(2) Sod ploughs (only)—four prizes.
(3) Common ploughs (only)—four prizes.
(4) Boys under 18—four prizes.

Prizes consisting of cash and valuable and useful articles will be given in each class. The contests are only open to North Monaghan and Smith. The match will be governed by the same rules as the last one, with the exception of confining the contestants to North Monaghan and Smith, and the rule allowing the use of any kind of plough struck out. The committee of management are as follows:—Messrs. Joseph Barnard, J. B. Fowler, William Swinton, John Tully and Joseph Tully, Secretary-treasurer.

Vital Statistics.

The number of registrations made with the Town Clerk Division Registrar, during the month of October, were as follows:—

Births	19
Marriages	5
Deaths	12

The total, 36, is not very large and it is plain to see that in spite of all the warnings that have been given, through the press and by other means, people still neglect the important duty of registering births and deaths. All should attend to these matters in order to escape trouble, or some fine morning they may find themselves condemned to pay a fine of $20 and costs, for neglecting to do a thing that could have been done in a few minutes, without the least trouble or difficulty.

Waterworks.

Another meeting of the stockholders of the Peterborough Water Company took place on Wednesday evening, the President, Mr. W. Cluxton, in the chair. Mr. G. W. Hatton was elected Secretary of the Company and the Bank of Toronto, Peterborough, the bankers, Messrs. Ferris and Gamble stated the position of affairs to the stockholders for their consideration. Messrs. Gamble and Ferris left on the evening train, but will soon return. We learn that ample water power and pure, wholesome water can easily be obtained. It will require 9,000 gallons of water per minute as power to supply 460 gallons per minute, the amount that will be supplied to the town by the Company, an amount sufficient for a place twice the size of Peterborough.

Poison in the Pencil.

A medical paper says that users of the celebrated automatic pencil will not find it necessary to insert the lead in their mouth previous to writing; it is not intended to be used in that way, and answers the purpose fully as well, and is quite indelible. It is also a dangerous practice, medical men having pronounced the lead so poisonous that a particle the size of a pea is sufficient to kill the strongest man.

New Books.

We have received from the Toronto News Company, two very amusing books entitled "A Curious Experience," Mark Twain's latest effort and "The Blunders of a bashful man" by the author of "A bad boy's Diary." Both are very readable and entertaining, neatly got up and cheap, so there is no reason why they should not be in the hands of every person. They may be had at the bookstores.

Mounted Police.

The sight of Chief Johnston, mounted on a fine steed, installed terror into the small boys the other day. He was simply looking after some street and bridge work, in the outskirts of the twn. It would be a idea to have a couple of mounted men on at night to look after the outlying districts.

Oysters! Oysters! Oysters!

Fresh oysters by the plate, raw, stewed or fried, at the St. James Hotel and Restaurant.

The Ontario Sault Line.

The adjourned annual meeting of the shareholders of the Ontario Sault Line, took place at Toronto on Wednesday. The President's report contains the following paragraph:—"At the east end of our location the consolidation of the Midland, Toronto and Nipissing, Grand Junction, and Toronto and Ottawa lines, proposed to be made, is an important step towards securing the early completion of our project. The interests of the consolidated companies must be largely promoted by the construction of this railway, and the Directors have every reason to expect both sympathy and substantial support from the new organization. Its system will control over 300 miles of railway in the Province of Ontario, and the business of every part of it will be greatly increased by the traffic to be contributed by our line."

Fancy Goods at Auction Prices.

In order to prepare for the approaching Christmas holiday season, Mr. J. F. Austin has decided to sell by auction without reserve the whole of his present stock of Fancy Goods, Silver Plated Ware, &c., together with a consignment of new goods to arrive. This sale will afford a splendid chance for ladies and gentlemen desirous of purchasing reliable goods of this class at the lowest possible cost, and the public are invited to visit Mr. Austins fancy goods store, and inspect for themselves. The sale begins at eight o'clock on Friday evening, the 4th inst., when Mr. Austin promises such inducements as will eclipse all former sales of a similar character ever held in Peterborough. Come and patronage your own local merchant.

Chas. Stapleton's Coming Sales.

MONDAY, Nov. 7th.—The Unreserved Sale of Farm Stock, Implements, &c., of Mr. Nicholas Walton, on his premises, Lot 8 in 4th Con. of Ennismore, opposite Bridgenorth, at the end of the bridge. Sale at eleven a.m.

TUESDAY, Nov. 15th.—Strictly Bona-Fide Sale of Cattle, Sheep and Swine, of Mr. Michael Hathuck, on his premises, Lot 11, Block A, Indian, reserved Hiawatha. Sale at 1 p.m. Lunch.

THURSDAY, Nov. 17th.—Sale of Valuable Well-bred Horses, Cattle and Sheep, of Lewis Davis, Esq., on his premises Lot 18 in 8th Con. of Smith, being the old homestead. Sale at 10 a.m. Lunch.

MONDAY, Nov. 21st.—Unreserved Sale of Farm Stock, Implements, &c., of Mr. James Hayes, on his premises, Lot 24, in the 11th Con. of Otonabee, about two miles from Peterborough at Scibberene.

Big sale of Tea at Stapleton's Auction Room on Saturday next.

The Weather.

There has been a change in the weather during the last 24 hours, and instead of the soft, mild Indian summer weather of the last few days, the air is now cold and raw with rainfalls at short intervals. The sun tried hard to shine this morning, but the attempt was a miserable failure, and old Sol retired behind the clouds in disgust. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours as reported from Toronto by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company at 10.30 a. m., are as follows:—Lakes—strong winds and gales between the south-west and north-west. Generally cloudy, colder weather, with occasional showers or snow flurries.

Councillloric.

Instead of publishing the names of Councillors present at the meetings of the municipal councils, several of our contemporaries are giving the names of absentees, so that the electors may see at a glance who is neglecting to fulfil the pledges given on the day of election. The plan is not worth trying in Peterborough, as all of our Councillors make a practice of being on hand at every meeting of the Board, unless kept away by urgent business. It might work well with the School Board, the members of which do not attend as regularly as they might.

The Steam Fire Engine.

The steam fire engine has again been undergoing repairs at W. Hamilton's foundry and, is now in good trim for a time. It is to be hoped that we will not have a fire of any magnitude until our waterworks are in order, as the foundered machine on which we have now to depend on for fire protection, needs a thorough overhauling to place it in first class condition, and this cannot be accomplished without sending it to Seneca Falls, a thing that will take some time.

Lacrosse Meeting.

A meeting of the Lacrosse Club will take place this evening at 8 o'clock sharp. The committee appointed at the last meeting with regard to securing a suitable club room and gymnasium will report. We understand that the committee have been successful and have procured a room suitable in every respect.

Thrown on the Road.

This morning a young lad who was riding a horse "bairback" style, was thrown over the animal's head on Brock street. The youth fell in a puddle and was slightly stunned, but did not sustain any injury, as the horse remained quite still. The boy did not remount, but led the horse on.

New Goods.

Use the Poland Metallic Hair Brush "for headache." British Plate Mirrors for ladies' toilet. Choice lot of those very desirable Gentlemens' Dressing Combs. TAYLOR & MACDONALD, Medical Hall, Corner of George and Hunter Streets.

Council Meeting.

At the request of a member of the Board, we again announce that the regular meeting of the Town Council, will take place on Monday evening next, at the council chamber at 7.30 o'clock.

For Winnipeg.

Within the last week at least twenty persons from Peterborough and the surrounding country have left for Winnipeg and the North-West to become residents of the Prairie Province.

R. C. Separate School Board.

The regular monthly meeting of the Roman Catholic Separate School Board takes place this evening at the Murray street school at 7.30 o'clock.

Inspection of Arms, etc.

Colonel Villiers has been inspecting the arms, clothing and accoutrements of the local companies of the 57th "Rangers" and the cavalry. We understand that he has found everything in good condition. At the school some slight difficulty occurred, owing to the fact that the Principal and others did not appear to know where the arms were kept. The Inspector came very near ordering the arms, which were in good trim, back into store, but finally consented to allow them to remain here for the present. It is a great pity that the Cadets do not take more interest in their drill, as seemingly now, they pay no attention whatever to it, and have almost dropped out of notice.

No. 1 Company.

The members of this company are determined to keep up their drill by drilling once a week in the evening during the months of November and December, after which the snow shoes will again be called into use. The change made by a recent order to the "short rifle drill" will furnish something to learn for the older as well as newer members. There are vacancies just now for a number of recruits. All members, old and new, are requested to be on hand on Monday evening next, when the first drill will take place.

Lost and Found.

One of the men employed in levelling the broken stone on George street had his shovel stolen while absent at dinner. It was afterwards found in the cellar of one of T. Dolan's stores, where it had doubtless been placed for a "lark" by some passer by.

Personal.

Messrs. G. A. Cox, and J.M. Ferris, M.P.P., were elected Directors of the Ontario Sault Railway at the annual meeting on Wednesday.

The Rev. J. W. R. Beck, who is at present in Toronto attending the meeting of the Anglican Synod, has been elected a member of the Executive Committee on the "High Church Ticket."

Military Gymnaisum.

The meeting to make arrangements for the winter was adjourned until Monday evening next at 7.30 p. m. When a full attendance is requested.

Municipal

The Fire, Water and Gas Committee of the Town Council meets at the Committee Room this evening at 7.30 o'clock. The Finance Committee meets at the same place at 8 o'clock p.m.

FROM ALL OVER.

HAY has been so scarce in Walkerton that pressed hay had to be imported.

BERLIN'S expenses for street improvements during the present year will amount to $3,000.

THREE thousand one hundred and forty-one freight cars crossed the river St. Clair at Port Huron during one October week.

MRS. THOS. KENNEDY, of Owen Sound, was partially paralized by a stroke of lightning recently. She has since recovered.

ON Monday, the first regular passenger train left Chesley for Stratford and Port Dover, in charge of Conductor Crann.

THE formal opening of the Grand Trunk mechanics' and recreation rooms at Stratford will take place on Friday, 11th November.

A FISH and game protective association has been organized in Owen Sound. Where are they going to get any fish or game to protect?

SEVERAL French capitalists are expected in Montreal shortly from Paris, in connection with the tunnel from Hoghelaga to Longueuil.

MRS. CROWE, who lives with her son on the 1st con. of Culross, is aged 115 years. Her brother died a few years since at the age of 107.

IN Belleville Mr. Craig, inspector under the cow by-law, has impounded one hundred and eighty-six cows, one horse, and fifty-one geese since August.

SUDDEN CHANGES IN THE WEATHER are productive of Throat Diseases, Coughs and Colds. There is no more effectual relief to be found, than in the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches."

THE census in Italy and France will be taken December 31st of the present year. In France a loan of 700,000 francs has been inscribed on the supplementary budget for this purpose. The enumeration will include the entire population, whether foreigners or not.

A NEW gas company has been incorporated in San Francisco. There is talk of incorhorating a ship building company, with $5,000,000 capital. There will be large additions made to the vineyards of the State next spring. Fruit of every description pays handsomely.

WORDS OF WISDOM.—No doctor will fail to impress his patients "that the mouth and teeth should be healthy because it receives the food and prepares it for its digestive work." Use Sozodont, gratify your family physician, and enjoy life comfortably.

A BOARDING-HOUSE at Floyd, Ind., is kept wholly for the accomodation of persons temporarily residing there for the purpose of obtaining divorces. It now has twenty-five inmates. In several instances marriages have grown out of companionship in this house.

THE work of improving Galveston (Texas) harbour is reported to be going on rapidly. The steamship San Antonio recently crossed the bar drawing thirteen feet nine inches. This is said to be, by four or five inches the deepest draft ever obtained on the bar, even at highest sprong tide.

MR. CHARLES TOWNSEND, of Sedalia, Mo., had rheumatism of the worst kind. A sea trip was a failure as to renewing his health, and he was going home to die. An Ex-Consul of Great Britain advised the use of St. Jacobs Oil, with the result of curing him in two days.

PEOPLE ARE BEGINNING to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa-Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

HAGYARD'S PECTORAL BALSAM; a few doses relieves the most distressing cough, and a twenty-five cent bottle has cured many a sufferer from Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Influenza, Hoarseness and Soreness of the Chest. It is the grand specific for all throat and lung complaints leading to Consumption.

IT is now claimed that the population of Denver, Col., has increased 8,000 during the past year. Also, that there are now in that city 1,000 new buildings in process of erection or recently completed, including a $500,000 brick block, containing a $200,000 opera house. This is in accord with reports from Salt Lake City and other western cities. They are feeling the effect of the extension of trade in that region of country.

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

GET OUT OF DOORS.—The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle.—Christian Recorder.

BRONCHITIS.—From John Flagg, Esq., of Bennington, N.H.—"Three years since I was very much reduced with a dreadful cough, which resulted in Bronchitis, affecting me so severely as to render it difficult to speak in an audible voice. To this was added severe night sweats, and I was fearful of going into a decline. After recourse to various remedies to no purpose, I made use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, a few bottles of which fully restored me to health. Since that time I have had several severe attacks of cough, but the Balsam have always moved them. I always keep it by me, and should not know how to do without it." 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Shaving in Seven Kingdoms.

I have now been shaved in seven kingdoms and in seven languages. They all perform the ceremony differently. But they all, from Scotland to Naples, insist in sitting you in a plain straight chair, and bending your head over back until your spine howls in agony. And they all agree in another custom—they never wash off the soap they have put on. But they bring you a bowl of water, hold it under your chin as you are leaning back and insist on you washing your own face then and there. If you object to the attitude, they shrug all the upper part of themselves and sling a disdainful smile at you; if you comply, little rivulets run pleasantly down inside your shirt and some of the soap they have generally swoggled into your ears gets into your stockings. I have seen no barber wash his victim's face since I landed in Glasgow. Prices vary. In London they charge a shilling (twenty five cents) for a shave; in Naples, they will for fifty centimes (ten cents) shave you cut your hair, wash your face and hands, curl your eyebrows, and wax your mustache till you look like Victor Emmanuel and can pass for a prince on any side of the street. Yesterday I was shaved for ten centimes—about two American cents—but I took the remainder out in garlic, of which I had a generous bath in the form of respiration. In Verona, the city of the loved and loving Juliet, the barber asked me if I would have my feet washed and my toenails cut. That certainly is going to extremes. —Naples letter.

GREAT FLOODS.

VIENNA, Nov. 3.—There are great floods at Knin, in Dalmatia, and in Croatia, owing to the overflowing of the river Kerka. Houses are inundated, crops much damaged, roads submerged, and postal communication suspended. The rain continues, and the water is still rising.

MR. SEXTON ILL.

DUBLIN, Nov. 3.—The Herald correspondent sought an interview with Mr. Sexton immediately after his release, but was informed that he had retired to rest at once, and was then being examined by a medical man who had been called a few minutes after Mr. Sexton reached home. The doctor stated that his patent is in a very bad condition, and very much worse than before his incarceration. Mr. Sexton is suffering from a complication of diseases, including febroid pneumonia, spinal irritation and gastric disturburance. He has been ordered abroad at the earliest moment when he can be removed. He is at present unable to to travel; as a matter of fact this course has been urged upon him long before his arrest. Owing to the previous condition of his heart it now appears absolutely necessary that he should seek a more genial climate. There are no conditions attached to his release. During the eighteen days of his imprisonment he was confined to his bed and for seven days wes in absolute solitude. Mr. Sexton speaks in the highest terms of the treatment he received from all the officers in the jail.

KING AND EMPEROR.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 3.—The Imperial Council met on the 30th of October for the first time since the interview between King Humbert and the Emperor of Austria. Austria will not have cause to regret the engagement it has just taken till later. These engagements will probably lead to her losing part of the German territory. Italy is free to act as she pleases so long as her action don't clash with the interests or the three Emperors, with whom is now concluded a moral alliance, through the intermediary of Austria. Whatever Italy may do in regard to matters neither Russian nor German she may count on the neutrality of Austria. Italy, on the other hand, has pledged herself not to hinder Austria from acting as the latter may think fit in the direction of Greece, and in dealing with the question of Greek territory. The Imperial Council which was presided over by the Grand Duke Michel is unanimously of opinion that as Russia has her hands full in attending to her domestic troubles and Austria is likely to be ere long embroiled with Greece, if not, indeed, eventually with Russia, neither nation will be able to interfere in other European affairs for a long time to come.

AMERICAN.

MISSIONARY MATTERS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—A general missionary meeting of the M. E. Church met in New York to make appropriations for all missions of the church for 1832. Bishop Harris presided. The treasurer's report shows an increase in the receipts the past year of $68,000; total disbursements, $730,000; receipts, $626,000; leaving a debt of $104,000.

GARFIELD YET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Lorenzo Montufar, secretary of State of Guatemala, yesterday conveyed in person the sympathy and condolence of his government with the government and people of the United States upon the death of Garfield.

ERIE STOCK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The movements in Erie stock attracted much attention. It is reported Vanderbilt has accepted control from London trustees, who, by the terms of re-organization, have voting power on the majority of stock until dividends on preferred stock have been declared.

INSURANCE MURDER.

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 3.—Intelligence has just reached here through private sources of the murder of a man at Hahnstown, a village in this county, to procure an insurance on his life. Two parties interested in the policy made him drunk, took him into a hayloft, arranged a trap, and then after he had slept for a time, called him. He staggered upon the trap, fell through and died.

EARLY SNOW.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—A heavy snow storm, the first of the season, began this morning.

MORTALLY SHOT.

CANTON, Mass., Oct. 3.—Yesterday J. G. Thypen, independent Democratic candidate for cotton weigher at Canton, Miss., was shot mortally in a difficulty with the City Marshal Kemp. The organization of the shooting was politics.

ON STRIKE.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 3.—All the cigar manufacturers, except one, in Milwaukee have granted the advance in wages demanded by the workmen.

SAILED FOR HOME.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Count Lichtenstein, representative of the President of France at the Yorktown Centennial, sailed for France yesterday.

SPECULATION IN BONDS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The Times says the remarkable activity in speculation or confederate bonds continues to attract much attention. At Washington it is thought by one of the Treasury officials that at the close of the war the Government was informed that the Confederate Government disposed of in Europe property to the amount of $10,000,000. It is now belived that the property is worth four times the above amount. The Treasury officials are inclined to look with suspicion upon the frequent trips of Jefferson Davis across the water and to believe that they have been in some way connected with the disposition of the Confederate property stored or secreted there. He is in London now. Their Treasury hopes to obtain information in in a few days that will throw light upon the mysterious transactions in rebel bonds.

A GREAT REDUCTION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The reduction in the Star route postal service in October aggregated $55,778 making the total since James began the reductions of about $1,575,000 per annum.

A NEW EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Board of Managers of the New York Produce Exchange voted in favor of erecting a new exchange at a cost of two million dollars.

THE FLOODS.

ALABAMA, Miss., Nov. 3.—The recent overflow of the Mississippi caused damages between Keokuk, Iowa, and Louisiana, Mo., amounting to $2,930,000.

EXTENSIVE FIRE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Keller's picture factory at Chicago was damaged by fire to the extent of $40,000.

ANOTHER CRANK.

WASHINGTON, Nov, 3.—A crank called at the Capitol yesterday, claiming to have been elected Vice-President and that Mr. David Davis was a usurper. He was surprised to learn the Senate had adjourned, but said he should wait until December before pressing his claims further. He was middle aged and benevolent-looking, said he was a minister, and claimed to be a grandson and namesake of Thomas Jefferson. He intended after taking office to dissuade the Senators from indulging in whiskey and other intemperate habits. Politically he said he was a Whig with know-nothing tendencies.

BLASPHEMERS PUNISHED.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 3.—People in this region are much exercised over two remarkable events which have just been reported. Robert Nelson has suffered heavily by reason of the long continued drought, and one day began cursing the Lord for permitting such an affliction. While thus engaged he suddenly fell backwards, having been stricken with paralysis. He has not spoken since. A similar occurrence is reported in Union County, where a young man named John Freeman, who had spoken blasphemously of the Lord for not sending rain, was struck by lightning and killed. These incidents were the topics of several preachers on Sunday.

TORONTO.

POULTRY ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the Toronto Poultry Association was held on the 27th ultimo in Shaftesbury Hall, the President, Mr. Doel, in the chair. The meeting was called to receive a report of the committee to consider the question of holding a Poultry Exhibition in Toronto during the coming winter. The committee reported as to the cost of running the exhibition. After discussion it was resolved to hold the exhibition provided a guarantee fund of about $1,000 can be raised, and a committee to issue books for that purpose was appointed. It is proposed that the exhibition shall be held in January, when the birds are at their best, to last for five days. The exhibition of the Ontario Poultry Association will be held in Brantford next year, and in Toronto in 1883. The question of incorporating the Association was discussed, but it was finally decided to defer action in that matter till some future time. The names of the committee having the exhibition question in hand, are Messrs. Doel, President; W. S. Boddy, L. N. Greenslade, J. Nunn, J. James, C. Bonnick, and W. Miller.

GET OUT OF DOORS.—The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle.—Christian Recorder.

EXTENDING SPANISH TRADE.

MADRID, Nov. 4.—Many papers comment favorably on the speech of Minister Hamlin in Boston, and express hope that the reform policy of the Madrid Government, both in the peninsular and Cuban tariff, will induce the American Government to facilitate trade between Cuba and the United States by some counter reduction in the flag and tariff duties of America. Sagasta and his Finance or Colonial Ministers are very well disposed to meet America half way.

CRUEL TO COOLIES.

LIMA, Oct. 12.—It is reported that horrible cruelties are inflicted on Coolie labourers on plantations in Peru.

AID FROM IRELAND.

DUBLIN, Nov. 4.—A meeting of the Central Executive of the Land League yesterday was attended by Helen Taylor, a member of the London School Board, who come over to throw in her lot with Miss Parnell. She said that every English man or English woman who had the smallest respect for constitutional liberty was morally bound to enter the strongest protest against the iniquities now disgracing the English in Ireland. Miss Taylor was appointed a member of the "Political Prisoners' Aid Society."

THE IRISH JUBILANT.

A good deal of jubilation exists in League quarters at the result of the municipal election in the Great Irish Centres in England on Tuesday.

NO HUNTING THERE.

When the Kilkenny hounds met at Killeen Cover, the farmers told the hunting party that they would not allow them to pursue their sport over their farms, and the hounds were taken back to their kennels.

RELEASED BY FRIENDS.

WHEELING, West Va. Nov 4.—Two convicted members of a band of "Red Men" were forcibly released from gaol, in Barbour County by their comrades.

"THE PEOPLE'S WILLIAM."

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Standard reasserts the truth of the rumour that Gladstone proposes to retire from public life.

COUNCIL MEETING.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A Cabinet council probably will be held on Tuesday. Some have reason to believe that the Irish Government has information of serious designs of a section of the extremists to provoke risings throughout the country, before the progress of the land act has time to create a better feeling among the people.

ANOTHER COUNSEL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The Sun says that the Government has retained District-Attorney Rollins in the Guiteau case.

ONE OF DAKOTA'S WANTS.

The Tribune's Washington special says that at the next session of Congress a vigorous effort will be made to admit Dakota as a State.

THAT ROTTEN BANK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Wm. Squire, formerly a clerk and stock holder in the suspended bank, informed the comptroller of currency two years ago, that the bank was probably unsound. The examiner who was sent on was hoodwinked by Baldwin, and made only a superficial examination. Now it is revealed that three years ago a clerk in the bank embezzled $50,000.

NO GRAVEYARD INSURANCE.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 4.—The Insurance Commissioner refuses to authorise grave yard Insurance Companies to transact business in this State.

A BIG INVESTMENT.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—It is stated that the English Syndicate, that is seeking to invest one hundred million dollars in America, is about to purchase railroads and coal lands in this state.

HIS OWN MEDICINE.

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Nov. 4.—James W. Teal, aged 18, died here on Wednesday. It is supposed that he was poisoned by arsenic in a patent fever ague cure, of which he was agent. Being sick he took 20 to 30 bottles without regard to directions.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.

NEW LONDON, Con., Nov. 4.—George Stinson was arrested for attempting an outrage upon a young lady. He was visited at night in jail at Mystic Bridge by masked men who tarred and feathered him and tied him to a cell door.

RECEIVED WITH FERVOR.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—The new British minister, Mr. Sackville West, responding to an address at the reception of the committee today, expressed the hope of the present good feeling between the United States and Great Britain might be lasting.

A MURDERER REGRETS.

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y., Nov. 4.—Henry King, who murdered Michael Haeglin in Clinton prison on July 13th, was hanged here at 11.30 this morning, in the county jail. King wrote last evening to the editor of the Plattsburgh Republican, saying that he believed his sins were forgiven on regretting his course.

CANADA TEMPERANCE ACT.

The Celebrated Test Case about to go Before the Privy Council in England.

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—In the case of Russell v. Woodward, to come before the Privy Council of England, the legality of the Canada Temperance Act will be fully tested. The respondent in the case is a Fredericton policeman, who acted merely in the public interest in enforcing the Act, and has no personal interest in the matter. As it questions the right of the Dominion Government to pass such a measure, the Privy Council of Canada have passed an order-in-Council to indemnify both appellent and respondent, so that the validity or otherwise of the Act will be established. The respondent, it should be stated, was unwilling to to incur any any expense in opposing the appeal, hence the present action of the Government.

A MYSTERY CLEARED UP.

Fate of a Young Girl—Betrayed and Murdered by Her Father's Coachman.

New York, Oct. 29.—Several weeks ago the mutilated corpse of a young woman was found in a dismal swamp near Freeport, L.I. This discovery was made by a boy who was on a shooting expedition. The body was wrapped carefully in two packages of newspapers, firmly bound together with stout cords. One package contained the head, which had been skilfully severed from the trunk, while in the other, pressed together with similar care, were the trunk and extremities. After a month of doubt and profitless speculation and careful detective work the mystery respecting the identity of the woman has been cleared away. Her identity has been established beyond a reasonable doubt, as has also the fact that and met her death through the treatment of a malpractitioner of this city, to whom she had gone for aid in her distress. It is further probable that the efforts of the police will result in bringing all the persons concerned in the affair to justice, and that at least one of the principals, who has hitherto escaped punishment, although his arrests have been many, will receive his just deserts under the law. The dead girl was an American by birth, and named Ella Clark. Three months before the mutilated body was discovered her brother had informed Superintendent Walling that his sister had mysteriously disappeared. She had been living in Stamford, Conn. After the discovery of the body the brother went to Freeport, examined the skull, and from the false teeth and shred of hair pronounced it that of his sister. Investigation by the detectives showed that a coachman in the service of the family in which the girl lived had ingratiated himself into her favor and ultimately accomplished her ruin. The unfortunate girl endeavored to conceal her act of folly, and finally, and probably by the coachman's advice, determined to procure medical aid. A quack advertisement that she clipped from a New York paper was found by her employer afterwards, having accidentally fallen from her pocket-book, and it gave the clue to her whereabouts, after she had left Stamford ostensibly on a three weeks' vacation to visit her relatives in this city. Simultaneously with her departure the coachman gave notice that he was going to leave, and greatly to the surprise of the family at once quitted their employment. He has not since been seen, though his mysterious disappearance has since been fully explained by the girl's unwise course after reaching New York. It is known that here she sought the assistance of a notorious quack. It is believed that

SHE HAD BEEN DECEIVED

HE KILLED HER

by his quack treatment, and then cut up her remains, packed them in the manner in which the were found, and caused them to be removed from the city in the hope it would never be brought to light. This man is now under the constant surveilance of the New York police, and his arrest on the charge of malpractice is only a question of time. There are witnesses who saw Ellie Clark on May 3, the last day she was seen alive, and their evidence brings home her death to the quack physician's door. How the body was removed from this city is still a mystery, finding a parallel in its ingenious concealment of clews only in the Howard murder, where a burglar's dead body was

HID IN THE WOODS OF YONKERS

some years since so secretly that the perpetrators of and accessories to the crime have never yet been discovered. It is known that the remains after arriving in Freeport were carried to their hiding place in the swamp in a wagon and at night, but how many persons were concerned in this removal is not known. The coachman is known, and is carefully watched by the officials.

LAKEFIELD NEWS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

FORESTERS' MEETING.

Court Lakefield No. 43 C. O. F., will meet in Union Hall on Queen street on Thursday evening the 10th instant, at 8 o'clock.

HALLOWE'EN.

On Monday night, being the anniversary of Hallowe'en, a bus load of young slips from Peterborough visited Lakefield evidently for the purpose of having a good time, for they made the night hideous with their howling and screaming on the streets. A number of old waggons and cutters and everything that could be got hold of with trespassing, were piled promiscuously on Queen street, which at dawn the next morning presented a comical aspect. In other respects the evening passed off remarkably quiet, private parties and oyster suppers being the order of the day.

SAD BEREAVEMENT.

We regret to learn that Mr. Joseph Harvey, of Burleigh, has met with a sad loss in the death of three of his children by diphtheria. Harry, a boy of six, died on Friday night after an illness of only a few hours. Edith, aged eleven, died on Sunday morning, and Vaughan, aged four, on Wednesday. Others are ill with it, but we trust they may be spared to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey who have the sympathies of all in this their hour of trial and trouble.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

The regular meeting of the Lakefield Public School Board will be held in the Council Room, Lakefield, on Tuesday evening next, the 8th instant, at 7.30.

ORANGE MEETINGS.

Loyal Orange Lodge, No 122, will meet in the Orange Hall, Lakefield, on Monday evening next, the 7th instant, at 7.30. The Young Canadian Orange Lodge meets in the same place on the evening of the following day at the same hour. The Young Canadians did not meet last week, the night of meeting being changed to the 7th instant.

HUNTING PARTIES.

Mr. Josiah Blewett of this place, and party, were back at Bell Lake in the township Harvey, last week, hunting, and were very successful. They succeeded in taking seven fine deer, three of which were large bucks, in five days. Mr. Blewett is an old hunter, and success generally attends his hunts, and this year he has beaten all competitors so far.

Messrs. Casement and Urquhart were out back for a hunt for a week past, and with assistance succeeded in taking four deer.

TIMBER LIMITS.

Messrs. R. and G. Strickland of this Village have purchased the Dominion Bank Limits in the Townships of Oakley and Hindon, in the County of Victoria. These limits are said by those acquainted with them to be among the best in the back country and to contain at least a hundred million feet of lumber. We understand that the Messrs. Strickland could get $25,000 on their bargain.

Mr. Tanner, with a gang of men are engaged at, and are making excellent progress with the erection of the new station.

CANOES STOLEN.

The party of Americans who have been back hunting for some time had four canoes stolen from the camp ground on the last night of their stay. Something should be done to bring the guilty parties to justice.

APSLEY.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Dear Review,—Will you kindly inform me if Old Dan is dead, as we have not heard from him for some time, and it is the general impression in this country that he has made his exit from this world of sin and iniquity. Please answer. You may think that it is a piece of impertinance on my part, asking you this question, but seeing as I am so closely connected with the old man you must make allowance for my cousinly feelings. There have been lots of doings up in this country since we heard from the old man last, so do not think that I am presumptious by giving you a few jottings in his place. In the first place His Royal Highness, the Black Prince, has taken a new idea into his head which is droving, finding the law monotonous, and the woods having absolutely nothing in them to shoot. He drives his cow down to a neighbour's, leaves her there for three or four days, and then drives her back home, expecting, at least, a pail of milk at the first milking from the change of living. I had to laugh when I met him, poor soul, he looked so comical with a long stick in his hand and his hat on the back of his head, and by the same token it was an old straw one at that, with half of the brim off it, and the prespiration was rolling down his cheeks and his face was oh! so black that at the first sight I would have taken him for "Ould Nick" himself, only for seeing the cow. I had a good notion to ask him after my first surprise whether he wrote to Her Highness the Princess Louise, they being so closely connected, you know, for a donation for the English church. He always intended to ask her the first time he saw her, but as she has been detained so long in the Ould Country, I suppose we will have to await the results, and wait as long for it as we have to wait for our own little bills. We have got two doctors now in the village, one at each hotel; sure they are very useful too, as the cratur which you get nowadays is so bad that it requires them to cure up the boys again after a bit of a spree. His Lordship has been very ill of late, though better now. The parliament had to meet at his own residence a day or two ago. We did not hear whether they settled all with the collector or not. 'Tis a curious fact that our collectors always comes out short in the cash, (does yours?) and it always takes six or seven auditors to find out how, and they never find out. The big fellow is bigger than ever now, that he has got a baby to nurse. He is very fond of it, only he says it is far too musical at nights. Billy is sparking another girl now, and faith I believe on my soul she is six feet high. He looks like a dwarf when walking by her side, and Tommy doesn't like it a bit. Arthur, now that he has quit the hotel business, looks for all the world like a codfish out of water. We have a new tenant on the hill now, who has built a pomb which puts one in mind of Noah's ark on Mount Ararat after the flood. The boy with the infant moustache has got very religious of late; he would not give the hired man five cents on Sunday to put on the plate. The blacksmith up north, (I mean just round the corner), is doing a rushing business, and faith he needs to too, as it takes fifty pounds of sugar a week to keep a coon in a lane and the cooks (as he has a new one every three days) eat nothing else. Poor Jim will have to get another bridge contract pretty soon if this style of things goes on much longer. The wandering Jew struck a job the other day in a lumber shanty. He says "it is bully, only he can't go greasy beans." I think he will come down to them in time, and when he comes out in the spring the parson won't know him from a load of wood. I must now bring my lengthy epistle to a close, and I sincerely hope, my dear Review, that I am not putting you to too much trouble to read my few remarks. So hoping that you will find out the location of ould Dan, and let me know as soon as possible where he is,

Believe me, yours truly,
THE YOUNG DANIEL O'GRADY.

YACHTING.

What the New York Men think of the Atlanta's Chances.

New York, Nov. 2.—Yesterday Mr. Minton Secretary of the New York Yacht Club, received a communication from Captain Cuthbert advising him that the yacht Atalanta had arrived. Mr. Minton transmitted the communication to Mr. Krebs, Chairman of the America's Cup Committee on behalf of the New York Club, who in turn notified Treasurer Smith of the America's proposed whereabouts, that he may officially visit her while out of the water. There is some doubt as to Captain Cuthbert's ability to have the Atlanta in shape for the first race before the early part of next week. Nothing definite regarding the days of racing will be known until after the special meeting of the New York Club to-morrow. So little time has been had to officially notify the yacht owners of the meeting that fears are expressed that there may not be as large an attendance as desired, but it is more than probable that a majority of the owners in this city and vicinity will be present in order to give such a power to the America's Cup Committee as is demanded by the occasion. Much interest has been manifested by yachtsmen in the vicinity regarding the Atalanta, and to-day veteran owners and sailing masters will visit her by the score, as she will be out of the water and can be inspected at leisure. When prerared for the races the Atalanta will doubtless appear to more advantage than she did the first day after her arrival, but it will take considerable time and much labour to give her the finished smoothness of the crack sloop yachts about New York. While the Canadian is preparing for the contest the sloops Gracie and Mischief, of the New York Club, upon one of which will fall the task of defending the prize, are being put in trim to meet the visitor. Prominent New York yachtsmen, who were spoken to yesterday regarding the visit of the Canadian boat and the result of the coming contest, said the Bay of Quinte Yacht Club deserved credit for the move they had made, and whatever the end may be, the fact would exist that they had worked hard to achieve success. Still, the majority of those spoken to did not feel that the old cup would leave the New York Club at present, and "to be understood more plainly," were the words of one, "I will bet $500 to $200 that the Atalanta don't carry away the prize." Many heard this offer but no takers appeared.

The Atalanta.—Since the arrival of the Atalanta in New York, numerous opinions have been expressed regarding her. The Sun says: "All were surprised at the extreme beauty of the Atalanta's lines. She is very sharp forward, her neatly straight stem curves under the bowsprit in a graceful cut-water. Her midship section, so far as can be judged from what is seen above the water, is indicative of power as well as speed, and from there she tapers quickly aft into a run that is as near perfection as can be attained. Her stern is unique. It is what might be called a concave pink with elliptic quarters, surmounted by a round taffrail. Her spars are taut and her rigging neat, although showing signs of haste in its arrangement. The hull also shows that there is much yet to be done before she is thoroughly finished. Her bulwarks are very low and she has no deck stanchions. Her deck-house, or cabin trunk, extends well forward, and her cabin is entered from a cockpit aft, much as in the ordinary sloops of the American fleet. She steers with an iron tiller. Below she is neatly and plainly finished, and her arrangements are of the ordinary kind; a large room forward of the saloon on the starboard side, and a couple of rooms on the other. Forward of them is the gallery and forecastle, with enough cubic feet in it to satisfy the most exacting. She has as yet neither hawse pipes nor windlass, but these will be put in here."

For Cholera, Cholera Morbus, and Cholera Infantum, as well as all Summer Complaints of a similar nature, Perry Davis' Painkiller, acts with wonderful rapidity, and never fails when taken at the commencement of an attack, and often cures after every other remedy has failed.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of many to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES:—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

ARCTIC EXPLORATION.

Captain Adams' Account of his Recent Journey—Probable North-West Passage.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Pall Mall Gazette says that the first meeting of the Geographical Society promises to be of unusual interest. It will be devoted entirely to Arctic matters. It is expected that some one will read a paper from Captain Adams, the Dundee Whaler, about his remarkakable Arctic voyage last year. Prof. Nordenskjold is expected in London in the early part of the month, and it is to be hoped that he will be caught. The subjects for discussion will be the whereabouts of Leigh Smith, who set out early in the summer for Franz Josef's Land, and has not yet returned; also of the Dutch expedition in the William Barentz, supposed to be caught in the ice in the neighborhood of Spitzbergen. Another point for discussion will be the fate of the Jeanette and the proposed international search expedition next summer, and the scheme of Polar observations, the first of which was settled at Lady Franklin Bay, up Smith's Sound, some time ago. There will therefore be no want of variety. From the ease with which Capt. Adams sailed about so far north, and the rapidity with which the American expedition has reached Lady Franklin's Bay, combined with other observations during the last three years, it is conjectured that the Polar ice cage has migrated from the American to the European side. This would account for the detention of Leigh Smith in the Eira, and the Dutch in William Barentz. We believe that Sir Gore Booth is to set out, if he has not done so already, in search of Mr. Leigh Smith, late in season though it be.

Your correspondent has had a most interesting interview with the now famous Captain Adams at Dundee, and learned from him many interesting particulars of his dashing voyage in the Arctic sea. He entered Lancaster Sound in June, giving the slip to the other whalers who love to hunt in company, and do not like to trust themselves alone in unfrequented regions. he pushed up Prince Regent's Inlet, but was driven out by the ice. Crossing Lancaster Sound he visited Berchy Island, and then carried his vessel to the very head of Wellington Channel, and thence back again to Barrow Strait. He then bodily returned into Peel's Sound, and penetrated within a short distance of the spot where the Erebus and Terror were abandoned. Had Captain Adams not been on a whaling voyage he says that he could have gone on and reached Dease and Simpson's Straits and made the North-West passage, a feat never yet accompolished. "I believe," he said, "that the North-West passage can be made by way of Peel's sound and by that way only, and that if Franklin's vessels had been steamers he would have made it in 1848. I may myself live to go into Lancaster Sound and report myself at Honolulu." Returning from Peel Sound, he again tried Prince Regent's Inlet, and this time successfully, and advanced to the very entrance of the Fury and Hecla Straits. There, as the brief season open to such hazardous navigation was ended, he pushed, for home, rewarded by a most ample cargo.

A most interesting incident in the adventurous and fortunate voyage of Captain Adams was his meeting with an Esquimaux, who told him something which shed fresh light on the dark, pathetic story of the Franklin expedition. Successive search voyages have almost cleared up the mystery which once surrounded the missing crews of the Erebus and Terror. The spot where the ships were beset by the ice, and we they were abandoned, the fate of the commander and many of the crew, all these are points long ago made known to the world. But there was one matter which remained a mystery. What had become of Lieut. Crozier? Capt. Adams here remarked:—"During the course of my voyage I had aboard a very intelligent Esquimaux. He belonged to the Igloolika, on the north-western coast of the Melville peninsula. He told me that when he was a boy, and travelling with his father, he met three men, being the survivors of a party of seventeen who had travelled from two English ships far to the west. I showed him a chart and questioned him very minutely on this important subject, but he never wavered in the least, and I could not shake his story. He said the three men were very much worn and severely frost-bitten. one was a great captain, and was looked up to by the others. He died, and was buried by them. They cried very much. The other two men lived in his father's hut some time, but they also died. All three men were buried in their clothes, and the last two with all they possessed, according to the custom of the Esquimaux."

Capt. Adams then showed a correspondent on his chart the track of the three survivors, and the places where they are buried, as pointed out to him by the Esquimaux. It is very probable that those three, worn out and frost-bitten, were the last survivors of the crew of Sir John Franklin.

In answer to an inquiry, Captain Nelson reports from Gothenburg that the Oscar Dickson was crushed in the ice on the 2nd of August, but that the crew were saved.

THE DAVID-GEDDES AFFAIR

Commitment of the Prisoner for Trial by the Queen's Bench.

MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—The press has been severe upon the David brutality, and to-day when the case came up the prisoner's lawyer said "The Outrage on Mr. Geddes" as a newspaper heading was of itself a comment on the case. He advocated closed doors, but Mr. Geddes' lawyer took other grounds, and the Magistrate decided that the case was one for public reporting. The carter whom David on the morning of the assault testified that he drove Grant, the boxer, and David to the scene of the assault, and that the two men struck at each other with their sticks, and that he then saw Geddes knocked down three or four times, but that he did not seem badly beaten. Then when sitting on the curbstone David gave Geddes more little slaps on the cheek with his hands, and then witness drove them away. Dr. Reddy swore that he found Mr. Geddes very weak this morning, with a stiffness in his neck. He was about the same as last reported. The swelling about his left cheek has nearly subsided. Sleeplessness and inability to take solid substantial food interferes with his recovery. Witness considers it advisable to have a consultation with other physicians to-day as a matter of precaution. He is not in a posstition to swear that Mr. Geddes is out of danger, though the symptoms are more favourable.

Cross-examined—Q.—Out of danger of what? A.—Of death.

Q.—On what do you ground your opinions? A.—On the swelling at the back of his head not decreasing, which might produce a disturbance and effect his brain.

The prisoner was full committed for trial on December 1st at the Queen's Bench, having pleaded not guilty.

Sold by all druggists.

MEDICAL AND SCIENTIFIC.

FRECKLES.—For the benefit of young persons afflicted with freckles, it is reported that powdered nitre moistened with water and applied to the face night and morning, will soon remove all traces of them.

GRAPES AS FOOD.—Accordiug to the views entertained by Dr. Hartsen, of Cannes, in France, the organic acids in grapes deserve more consideration, dietetically, than they have generally received, and their nutritive value has been commonly underrated. It is known that they are changed to carbonic acid in the blood and possibly careful researches will show that they are convertable into fats. It is thought that they should be ranked with the carbo-hydartes as food; they have also been found a valuable diet in fever, and the well known "grape cures" the tyrol prove their benefit in other diseases.

HOW MILK SHOULD BE TAKEN.—Milk is a food that should not be taken in copious draughts like beer or other fluids, which differ from it chemically. If we consider the use of milk in infancy, the physiological indigestion, that is, of it, we find that the sucking babe imbibes little by little the natural food provided for it. Each small mouthful is secured by effort, and slowly presented to the gastric mucous surface for the primal digestive stages. It is thus regularly and gradually reduced to curd, and the stomach is not oppressed with a lump of half-coagulated milk. The same principal should be regarded in the case of the adult. Milk should be slowly taken in mouthfuls, at short intervals, and thus it is rightly dealt with by the gastric juices. If milk be taken after other food, it is almost sure to burden the stomach, and to cause discomfort and prolonged indigestion, and this, for the obvious reason that there is insufficient digestive agency to dispose of it. And the better the quality of the milk the more severe the discomfort will be under these conditions.

Fatal Accident.

The Pilot Mound (Manitoba) Signal gives the following particulars of a fatal accident that shocked the community, and which happened on the afternoon of Monday of last week. The large new machine of the Woodside Threshing Co. was being started upon the farm of Fred. Parsonage and Talpert Wood, eldest son of Georgh Wood and one of the finest young men in the settlement, while adjusting a belt, had his right foot caught by the teeth of the cylinder, and was in a moment dragged into the very jaws of death with such firmness that the five span of horses attached to the horse-power were suddenly stopped. Some delay was caused in getting the unfortunate young man out of his dreadful position as the machine had to be partly taken asunder, yet he made no complaint, although nearly torn to peices. He was taken to his father's house, and a messenger at once despatched to Nelsonville for Dr. Wilson, but subsequent events proved that he was beyond human aid, and he breathed his last about eight o'clock in the evening.

About Gladstone.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Standard's startling announcement that Mr. Gladstone contemplates resigning the Chancellorship of the Exchequer at an early date, and meditates retiring altogether from official life, has naturally produced much excitement. The Liberal papers deny that there is any truth in the latter part of the assertion, though they think it would be wise for the Premier to be released from the financial part of his duties. In his speech at Leeds, Mr. Gladstone uttered his conviction that the future of the Liberal party was assured even without himself as its leader. But it is apparent from his second speech on the same day—in which he styles Lord Derby as one of the brightest ornaments of the Liberal party, as also from his recent visit to Knowsley, that the Premier had taken into serious consideration the question who may eventually be his successor in the leadership. St. James' Gazette thinks that Lord Derby will be at any rate brought into the Cabinet in order to put himself on record more clearly on the the Liberal side, or that even the rank and file of the party may begin to look to him all through the country.

The Anglo-American Cable.

The traffic receipts of the Anglo-American Telegraph Company during the 12 months ended June last were a little over half a million sterling, the rate per word being 2s. Since the beginning of August last the rate has been reduced to 1s., and allowing for increased business the receipts of the company are now probably at the rate of £300,000 per annum. The dividend distributed for the 12 months was 3½ per cent, on the ordinary capital, and the present rate of earning does not promise more than 2½ per cent., supposing the company to continue setting apart the usual renewal funds for the maintenance of their property. Mr. Jay Gould's new cables are not yet at work, but as soon as they begin to compete it seems more than probable that the above mentioned rate of receipts and dividends respectively must further decline.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalcules which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LIVER COMPLAINTS.

DR. KING'S DANDELION & QUININE LIVER PILLS (without Mercury.)

THE BEST REMEDY FOR BILLIOUSNESS, STOMACH DERANGEMENT, FLATULENCE, PAINS BETWEEN THE SHOULDERS, BAD APPETITE, INDIGESTION, ACIDITY, HEAD-ACHE, HEARTBURN, and all other symptoms of disordered liver and dyspepsia. Acknowledged by many eminent surgeons to be the safest and mildest pills for every constitution.

In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.

Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

Daily Evening Review

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1881.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

"Twa Hours at Hame."

As most of our readers are already aware, Kennedy, the world-renowned Scottish vocalist, with his family, will visit Peterborough on the 11th and 14th of this month—Friday and Monday—allowing them to spend Sunday also in our town. On both public occasion we have little doubt but that these splendid vocalists will be greeted with overflowing audiences. Evidently Mr. Kennedy has a warm heart for Peterborough, and many warm admirers to fraternize with here; for we observe that while other towns, such as Kingston and Belleville, are only to have one night from him, Peterborough is to be favoured with two. This will be a rare pleasure, especially to all lovers of Scottish songs. In addition to the very attractive nature of the programme which the Kennedy family had when they last visited us, the public may expect something new and "uncanny" from the experience gained by their professional tour through Cape Colony, the Orange Free States, Diamond Fields, and Natal. Mr. David Kennedy, jr., has furnished the world with an interesting history of this tour, entitled "Kennedy at the Cape." It is told in a pleasing and scholarly manner, and should be in the hands of all admirers of the Kennedy family in order to be properly appreciated.

Mechanics' Bank Bills.

The following appeared in the Ottawa Free Press of Saturday last, which parties in this vicinity holding bills of the above bank will do well to note:—"Holders of Mechanics' Bank bills throughout the country districts should be made aware that they must return their notes or bill of the bank before the final dividend of the bank liquidators shall have been declared. It is believed that the advertisement announcing the last dividend will be made shortly, and when this has been paid the bills of the bank become valueless. It is in the interest of bill holders that this matter is brought to their notice."

Toronto and Ottawa Railway.

The Perth Expositor says that work on the Toronto and Ottawa railway is progressing. The men are now engaged in stripping rock and cleaning bush. It requires a very great amount of labor to make much show. The difficult task of diverting the creeks, &c., has been successfully accomplished, and rock work has commenced. Mr. D. G. Charles, C.E., the engineer in charge has given contracts for chopping, &c., to be completed by the fifteenth of next month, after which time work will be pushed on vigorously. There is now not the slightest doubt that the road will be built at once.

Committed at Last.

"Peggy" Oakley was brought before the Police Magistrate this morning, and upon the evidence given, was committed as a lunatic. She will probably be taken to the asylum in a short time and the various towns around us will be glad to hear of her conviction. She has a child in one of the charitable institutions at Kingston.

Personal.

At the opening of the Anglican Synod in Toronto, on Tuesday last, the Lord Bishop of the Diocese announced in the course of his charge that he had appointed the Rev. Vincent Clementi to the incumbency of St. Paul's church Lindsay. Mr. Clementi was subsequently elected a member of the Clergy Commuation Trust Committee.

"Telegraph it! Telephone it!"

That the great Auction Sale takes place on Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m., Menzie's Old Stand. This is no farce, but a live auction sale, and everything to be sold without any reserve whatever.

SEPARATE SCHOOL BOARD.

The Board of Separate School Trustees met on Thursday evening, the 3rd inst.

The chair was taken at 8:10 o'clock by the chairman, Mr. Thos. Kelly.

Present: The chairman, and Messrs. Grant, McGrath, Cahill, Lemay, Hourigan and Sullivan.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

Reports of attendance at the several schools were read and received.

It was resolved that teachers for the ensuing year be advertised for, also that the necessary fuel required for the schools be purchased by tender.

A committee was appointed to see that better accommodations were secured for the first ward school.

The meeting then adjoured.

Ladies' Missionary Meeting.

In consequence of the Grand Trunk train from the west not making a connection with the Midland this morning, the Ladies Missionary Meeting announced for this afternoon, has been postponed until this evening at 7.30 p.m., in the Baptist Church, when Mrs. Armstrong will be present and address the meeting.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

PORT HOPE.

A WARNING.—The Times says that an accident, which should prove a warning to all who are in the habit of jumping from trains while in motion, occurred on Saturday evening last at the Summit, near Millbrook. It appears that a man named Deyell got on the express train at Millbrook, with the intention of riding as far as the Summit, and then getting off and walking home, his residence being but a short distance from that place. By some means, however, he had neglected to get off at the Summit, and did not discover his error until the train was decending the grade on this side. On finding his mistake, he thought that rather go to Garden Hill, and then walk back again, he would jump off the where he was. As this time the train must have been running at the rate of thirty miles an hour, if not more. He did not say anything to the conductor about his mistake, or ask him to check the train in any way, but forthwith took the mad leap from the car. Conductor Mimms, who saw the man jump, and fearing he might be killed, immediately signalled the engine driver and had the train stopped. In company with another, Mr. Mimms went back to the place where the man jumped off, and found him in a very helpless condition, having had one of his legs broken in two places, several of his ribs fractured and his collar bone seriously injured. A few boards were put together and coats spread over them, and on this conveyance he was taken to his own house, where every attention was paid to him, and his injuries carefully attended to. This is but another instance of the serious results which so frequently follow the fool-hardy practice of jumping from trains while in motion, and one which should prove of lasting benefit to those who are given to this dangerous custom. Although expressing sympathy with the family in the sad calamity which has befallen its head, yet words cannot too strongly condemn this wreckless practice, which has become so prevalent in our day, and which is costing so many lives throughout this and other countries.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—One of Mr. Samuel Caldwell's sons met with a very severe accident on Saturday last. While engaged at work with a yoke of oven, the animals became unmanageable and ran away, throwing the young man from the stone boat, breaking his thigh bone and otherwise injuring him. He is progressing favorably under medical care.

HAND SMASHED.—While engaged in putting in a new switch in the Midland Railway yard here, the section foreman, Mr. Glass, met with a very painful accident. He was making some adjustments when a bar of iron canted over and fell, catching his hand between it and the tie. His hand was badly cut and torn, but is thought no bones were broken.

COBOURG

A LOT WORTH HAVING.—The Sentinel-Star says that some time ago Mr. Mulholland purchased in the city of Winnipeg, a quarter acre of land. After his purchase he was made several what might be considered exceedinly good offers for the land, but he held on to it, until the other day, when he received the extraordinary sum of $200 a foot for it, or $13,200 for the quarter acre. Things are booming in the great north-west, thanks to the policy of the Government in having the Canadian Pacific Railway pushed through at once.

LARGE OWL.—Mr. J. P. Brisbin showed us a large owl last week, which measured 5 feet 2 inches from tip to tip of the wings, and in regard to weight would put to shame any goose shown on the market. It was captured at the barn of Mr. Joseph Rosevear, near Precious' Corners. Mr. Brisbin has placed it in the hands of Mr. Grieve, Division Street, who is going to stuff it.

SALMON.—The above fine fish have commenced coming up the factory creek to deposit spawn, and in consequence a watchman has been placed there, and those caught in the act of taking them, will be subject to a heavy fine.

BROKEN ARM.—On Thursday last a young lad named McGuire, while working on a shed at the Dunham House, fell off and broke his right arm.

BELLEVILLE.

GOLD MINERS FROM ITALY.—A party of miners arrived here on Tuesday, Nov. 1st, and yesterday proceeded to the Canada Consolidated Gold Mining Company's mine at Marmora, where they have been engaged.

MALACIOUS DAMAGE.—The principal belts in Burrell's axe factory were cut on Monday night, with the effect of stopping the factory all day Tuesday.

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

Why will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's German prescription, and it is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced their has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced. 2d1w1y

THE GOLD DRAIN.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—M. J. de Beinach contributes an alarmist financial article to Les Debats this morning. According to the writer the gold reserves, not of the bank of France, but of France itself, are running perilously low in consequence of the continued exportations.

GREAT DISASTER AT SEA.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—It is feared that a great calamity has overtaken six fishing boats with 119 men on board. They went out to sea from Boulogne-sur-mer a fortnight ago, and it is believed they perished in the terrible storms of October 14th.

A HOPEFUL OUTLOOK.

The Marquis of Harrington, in speaking at Yeovil yesterday, said he hoped the Government would be able to redeem the pledges made to the tenant farmers of England during the present session of Parliament.

EFFECTUALLY PREVENTED.

DUBLIN, Nov. 3.—The police of Blackburn threatented the lessee of a hall with the loss of his license if he permitted a Land League meeting at which Miss Anna Parnell was announced to speak.

ANTI-GAMBETTISTS.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—A split in the extreme left of the most radical group in the Chambers seems to be imminent. A number of deputies whose anti-Gambettism is not thought to be genuine will probably be excluded by the intransigeant portion of the group. As a writer in the Voltaire pleasantry observes, "the policy which can be summed up in hostility to Gambetta is really a religious and retrograde policy."

THE CHAMBERS.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—The Chambers resume work to-day. The chief feature of the seance is likely to be the election of a President and Vice-President. Mr. Crisson is certainly to be elected President. There is some talk of an interpellation on the Tunisian affairs. The intransigeants have abandoned the wild idea of proposing the impeachment of the Ministry.

A SATISFACTORY CASE.

DUBLIN, Nov. 4.—One of the first cases of agreement between landlord and tenants regarding the purchase of an estate is reported from Monaghan. The tenants on the estate of Wm. Ancketell, deputy lieutenant met under the auspices of Mr. Givan, M. P., who advised them to go before the Land Court or to arrange to purchase the estate on the basis of the existing rent. It was of immense advantage that they should become absolute owners of the land. For such as could not raise the necessary one-fourth purchase money he was prepared to find it rather than that they should lose the benefit of the Act. The landlord, Mr. Ancketell, who was present, was received with loud cheers. On rising to address the meeting, he said shat nothing would give him greater pleasure than to see the estates of his ancestors going back into the possession of the people who had been tenants upon them so long. He was quite prepared to accede to the purchase of the estate by the tenants, and would go with them to the Commission to avail himself of the arrears clause of the Land Act. He desired to see the estate settled, and in quiet possession of those whom he addressed. He would afford them every facility to become their own landlords. The tenants then resolved to take advantage of the peasant proprietary clause of the Land Act and become purchasers of their farms.

LEFROY'S TRIAL.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The trial of Lefroy, for the murder of Gould on the Brighton railway train, has commenced at Maidstone. The prisoner was calm, and pleaded not guilty. The court was densely crowded.

BISMARCK AND THE JEWS.

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—Prince Bismarck recently informed a prominent Jewish manufacturer that he would never entertain a proposition to curtail the constitutional rights of the Jews, and that he made no distinction between his Christian and Jewish opponents.

THE RUSSIANS IN ASIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 4.—The Russians will shortly occupy Merv. A Tekke chief has arrived at Merv to negotiate on behalf of Russia for the submission of all the Turcomans.

TO PROVOKE RISINGS.

DUBLIN, Nov. 4.—There is some reason to believe that the Irish Government has information of serious designs of a section of the extremists to provoke risings throughout the country before the progress of the Land Act has time to create a better feeling among the people.

A COMMON SENSE VIEW

DUBLIN, Nov. 4.—An Armagh correspondent, discussing the fears entertained in some quarters in regard to a block in the working of the Land Act, says it is obviously absurd to suppose that because so many thousand notices have been served they will all, or even a decent proportion of them, ever come to trial. As soon as a few decisions have been given, and as soon as the tendency of the decisions begins to be grasped by landlord and tenant, amicable arrangements will take place in an overwhelming proportion of the cases.

BURGLARS AT WORK.

ROME, Nov. 5.—Burglars last night entered the bank of Walker & Co., in this city and stole 50,000 francs and negotiatable securities and burned the greater part of the books. The bank closed its doors on Wednesday.

LUCAN ARSON CASE.

LONDON, Nov, 4.—Mr. Hutchinson, County Crown Attorney, has asked to be relieved of the prosecution of the Donnelly arson cases, as his sympathies are with the Donnellys, and Mr. Ildington, the County Crown Attorney, of Perth, has been appointed to do the work. West is in Michigan, and it is said he has been promised immunity from prosecution if he returns and gives evidence against the Donnellys.

FRENCH POLITICS.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—In an elaborate leader, La Republique Francise discusses the difficult and exciting question of the so-called revisions—or more properly speaking, the electoral reform—of the Senate. The changes advocated by M. Gambetta's organ are not after all very radical of a sweeping, and though they might give a different political colour to the French Upper House, they would not greatly affect its authority. The following reforms are proposed:—The prerogatives of the Senate in financial matters should be limited, the seventy-five life Senators should in future be elected by both Chambers, and the number of constituents who elect the other 225 should be largely included in towns, which it is contended are not fully represented at present. After all the threats and agitation of the electoral campaign, the relative moderation of this programme is something of a surprise.

ARCHIBISHOP CROKE.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Archbishop Croke, of Cashel, replying to an address of the branch Land League, advised tenants to tender fair rent. If refused, the fault would not be theirs. It would show that the Irish can, for their country's sake, endure insults and injuries. He declared that the Government had established a reign of terror.

PARTIES IN GERMANY.

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—The Conservative committee has telegraphed to Prince Bismarck that the Conservatives in the Reichstag will continue to oppose the Progressist ring. Bismarck replied that he was grateful for any support for the struggle against the aims of Progressist which are prejudical to the Emperor and the empire.

THE TUNIS MATTER.

In the French Chamber of Deputies to-day the President announced that he had received notice of three interpellations on the Tunisian question. Premier Ferry said he wished to state the position of the Cabinet in regard to the interpellatians. The Cabinet always considered its powers would expire with the last Chamber. Its resolve to retire from office, which would be carried out whatever happened, was only adjourned in order to reply to the charges against it. Previous to retiring he would give what explanations were considered necessary, and the sooner the debate commenced the better. The discussion was fixed for Saturday.

MORE ARRESTS.

DUBLIN, Nov. 4.—Mr. Cantwill, honorary secretary, and Mr. Kenny, treasurer, of the Castle Comer Land League, whose evasion of arrest when warrants under the Coercion Act were first issued a week ago created considerable excitement, have returned home and have been arrested.

A FIGHT WITH THE POLICE.

DUBLIN Nov. 4.—A serious collision has taken place between the police and people of Ogonnelloe, county Clare, in consequence of the sheriff making seizures for rent. Several persons were injured on both sides.

INFORMATION WANTED.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—A good many, as well as myself, would like to learn if the Arthur Kidd, whose name appears on the Dummer assessment roll as 21 years of age, is the same Arthur Kidd who took the first prize in the boys' class at the late county ploughing match. Can you throw any light on the subject?

Yours,
A. SCOTT.

THE splendid tower which has been erected on the Catholic Church, Dungannon, has been completed. The tower is not only a great ornament to the magnificent and spacious edifice over which it is built, but also to the entire town of Dungannon.

MR. JOHN TREANOR, auctioneer, sold a farm of land in the township of Leagh, on the Rossmore estate, on Oct. 12th, for £15 an acre. The purchaser was Mr. J. Rafferty, Monaghan. Before the passing of the Land Act, sale by auction was prohibited on the Rossmore estate, and the selling value of land was restricted to £5 an acre.

VALENTINE JAMES BLAKE, of Dundermont, Ballymoe, Esq., has peen appointed to the Commission of the Peace for the co. Roscommon. The O'Connor Don having been appointed a member of the Rossborough Land Commission, gave a separate report upon the Land question advancing the establishment on a large scale of peasant proprietary.

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

A VEXED CLERGYMAN.—Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easily can all this be avoided by using Dr. Kings new discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles given away at Taylor and Macdonald's.—2

INDISPENSIBLE.—There are some simple remedies indispensible in every family. Among these, the experiences of years assures us, should be recorded Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. Both for internal and external application we have found it of great value; especially can we recommend it for colds, rheumatism, or fresh wounds and bruises.—Christian Era.

THE HEAD AND STOMACH.—When the head aches the stomach is, almost invariably, the cause. A single dose of Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills will relieve the former though purifying the latter, and restoring its tone. These great cathartics are sold everywhere. They never fail! Try them.

"Arkansaw or Arkansas." It is immaterial which pronunciation is adopted in this case, but quite material that the citizans of Arkansas with the rest of the United States and the Dominion should be supplied with good pens. Esterbrook's are popular reliable and standard.

TORONTO vs. THE PROVINCIAL.

The Toronto papers in discussing the question whether next year's Provincial Exhibition shall or shall not be held in Toronto next year, assum that the object of the Association in voting to go to Toronto next year was simply for the purpose of recouping their funds. But this is not the case. As everybody knows in the ordinary course of rotation which has been observed for at least the last twenty years, it becomes Toronto's turn to have it next year, and it was in accordance with this state of things that next year's exhibition was voted to Toronto. Doubtless had any other course been pursued, the Torontoites would have been the first to cry out about their not getting their regular turn of the Provincial. The truth of the matter is that ever since 1858 the people of Toronto have been doing all they could to render the Provincial a permanent Toronto institution, and their present course is only another tack in pursuance of the same policy.

RAILWAY SMASH-UP.

Freight Collision on the Canada Southern—Disobedience.

Ridgetown, Nov. 2.—An accident occurred here at 12.45 a.m. to-day, which will result in a heavy loss to the Canada Southern Railway Company. It seems that train No. 25 west-bound had orders to meet train No. 32 east-bound at Highgate, but owing to a heavy fog the engineer of the west-bound train did not see the light at Highgate until too late to stop the train, and still having fifteen minutes ahead of train No. 32, endeavoured to make the next station before her. He made it in time to cost the company some thousands of dollars, a loss of the use of one engine and several box cars, etc. The wreck was visited by Mr. Carroll, superintendent, and Mr. J. C. Moorhead, assistant superintendent, this morning, who personally superintended the clearing up. The engineer and firemen saved their lives by jumping. It is rumoured here that the engineer of No. 25 has cleared out. It is understood that the operators at Highgate and here and the despatcher at St. Thomas are entirely clear, and that the blame, if any, rests entirely on the officers of train No. 25.

Dangers of the Electric Light.

It is reported that the disastrous fire at the Landenberger Mill, Philadelphia, on Wednesday night, had its origin, as the local journals express it, in the "unaccountable flickerings and sparks from the electric lights used in the establishment." If these statements be correct, it becomes a matter of no inconsiderable importance to ascertain from the scientists how far these eccentricities are likely to be permanent conditions of the use of these lights in other establishments. It is a serious business thus to have life and property at the mercy of their scintillations.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

There is more or less danger of the falling of sparks from all electric lights. Any imperfection in the carbon or irregularity in the driving engine will produce snapping and sparking. A simple safeguard is to place a glass cup around or under the carbon to catch the sparks.—Scientific American.

TRADE NOTES.

Of the total exports of foreign merchandise of the United States 73.29 per cent. were shipped from New York, 7.23 per cent. from Boston and Charlestown, 1,16 per cent. from New Orleans, .14 per cent. from Baltimore, .45 per cent. from Philadelphia, 3,71 per cent. from San Francisco, 14.02 per cent. from all other ports.

Five hundred millions of bricks were made at the brickyards on the Hudson river during the past season.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

RAILERY.

UNCLE RUFUS HATCH TALKS.

Old Uncle Rufus Hatch, if sometimes mistaken in his notions, is always amusing, as witness the following "interview" appearing in the New York Sun of late date:

On Saturday Uncle Rufus Hatch was again in a reflective and talkative mood. He expressed increased concern about the fate of the country. "The financial baloon," said he, "is soaring away above the clouds in the thinnest atmospheres. Whenever she approaches the ground Jay Gould heaves over a sand-bag, and up she goes like a gull. Then Vanderbilt quietly pulls the safety-valve, and down she comes like a plummet. Between them both she'll soon be without either sand or gas. Speculation is just red hot, and there is every indication that the fever is nearing its height. Here's Hannibal and St. Joe cornered, and there's Ohio and Mississippi in a flurry, while the stock of both is utterly worthless, except for a dead permanent investment. Judging from the past Pacific Mail is the next thing for a corner. Stockwell concerned it once, but it finally concerned Stockwell. Men sometimes get concerned as well as stock. Jay Cook and all his friends got concerned in trying to build the Northern Pacific Road. Villard is issuing bonds for its extension on $91,000,000 in stock, and the road may eventually corner him. I've heard Horace Greeley say that history invariably repeats itself, and I know that cyles of time are Vennor's best hold. With the exception of a few "monopolists" and Joe Medill, and one or two other editors, everybody seems to be insane. Medill says that wild inflation and desperate stock-gambling remind him of old-time steamboat races on the Mississippi, when the rival captains threw oil and bacon in the furnace-fire to raise steam, and then placed a nigger on the safety-valve to hold it down until the boiler burst, and blew everything skywards, and I guess he's right. Every broker is either driving a dog-cart or sailing a yacht, and half of them are running country seats more expensive than their seats in the Stock Exchange. These seats represent $30,000,000 in value, while the real estate of the Stock Exchange is worth about $1,000,000. No wonder we're having corners. At this rate brokers will soon corner themselves. If things go on as they have been going everything will be cornered. All the grain will be cornered in the large cities, and all the farmers will be compelled to move to town to feed themselves and their stock. All the bank presidents will be forced to join the Stock Exchange to facilitate business. All the bank examiners will join the army of civil-service reform, and a good many speculators will be looking for the salvation army. I tell you that the commercial community is on stilts, and we're all getting groggy. The comet has left a train of evils behind it. Everybody seems to be gone on some hobby. Even Vanbilt's gone on Maud S. Dog-carts, yachts and similar luxuries will soon be at a discount. Everything seems to be dancing the racket to Jay Gould's music. I'd like to see a change."

"What sort of a change?" was the next inquiry.

"Well," Uuncle Rufus replied, "I'd like to see the Police Commissioners forced to furnish beds for our surplus immigratian. The park benches are already filled to overflowing. Then I'd like to see Vennor forced to guess until he guessed right, and my friend Russell Sage give $5,000,000 in trust to build tenements for poor people before he sells any more calls to bank presidents on Hannibal & St. Joe. I'd like to see the Central Pacific stop building opposition lines to itself, and Gould and Vanderbilt kiss and make up, and Garrett move Baltimore out into the Atlantic, so as to make it stand equidistant with new York from interior points. Yes, and I'd like to see the Grand Trunk keep quiet, and if it can't keep perfectly quiet, keep as quiet as it can. I'd like to see men who pay $5 to go from Boston to Chicago via New York brought back to New York via Boston on the Grank Trunk for the same sum. Then I want to see the Irish land question transferred to England where it belongs. Washington moved to Colorado to escape the malaria of the Potomac flats, and all the Indian agents corraled on a reservation near the Northern Pacific Road with Sitting Bull in charge. These things ought to happen. Next, I'd like to see a corner De Lesseps Panama Canal Company, and one in the Mexican Construction Company, with ex-Mayor Dowd at the head, for he's the only man who has ever run stock up to 350. I'd also like to see a more original financial idea than the deferred bonds of Reading. Probably there'll be a good many other deferred bonds if this smoky atmosphere and aurora borealis continue. I'd like to hear the members of the Stock Exchange, led by Jay Gould, when they sing the refrain:

I dreamt a dream the other night,
Whem all around was still,
Railroads were in a lovely fight,
And water ran up a hill.

Chorus: Oh, Bill Vander,
Don't you cry for me:
I come from Texarkana
With my chromos on my knee.

"You may not believe it, young man," Uncle Rufus continued, "but I'd actually like to see all the Denver & Rio Grande bonds listed on the New York Stock Exchange, and all the railroads in the country widened to a narrow gauge and their earnings pooled on the Fink system. Then I'd like to see Fink himself dumped into Blaine's civil service reform hopper, and see whether he could pan out a salary of $25,000 a year. There's nothing like a consolidation of interests you know. With Fink and Blaine running the custom-house, what a time there would be! Another thing. There's water enough in ther Stock Exchange to run all the laundries in the country, and if things go on as they have been going, I expect to see more Chinese laundries in Wall street than there are in Baxter street. With all the Chinese in Wall street and all the farmers in large cities, and Fink pooling their earnings, things will be conclusively consolidated.

"Why, what will the farmers do in the cities?" we asked.

"Oh, I suppose that they deposit their money in the Bank of North America and put up at the first-class hotels," Uncle Rufus replied. "Then they must do the same as we do—buy yachts and dog-carts Hannibal & St. Joe, Ohio & Mississippi, Pacific Mail, Class B. of the Ohio & Chesapeake, deferred bonds of Reading and other bonds not yet deferred. Mexican Construction and other construction companies to numerous to mention. Of course, the farmers will be let in on the ground floor, and if enough gas is generated, everything will go up at least as high as Prof. Clarance King's Minnesotta balloon. To accomplish all this, Secretary Windom should be made an honorary member of the Stock exchange, and the Bank of England be moved either to Jauncy Court or New Street.

"Times look bright," Uncle Rufus continued, "but the brightness is the reflection of a Prairie fire on the blackest of storm clouds. The failure of the crops means the failure of everything. Even the cucumber, tomato, and lemon crops are failures. There seems to be plenty of cabbage-heads in Wall street, but they are mighty small and scarce on Long Island. Milk is already 15 cents a quart in Cincinnati. It'll be 15 cents a "pint" in Wall street before winter's over. Everybody has been standing bricks on end, and when one falls it will knock over all the others. The first to fall in '73 was Jay Cook. The first to fall now may be some other Jay. This has been a great season for jays and gulls."

KINMOUNT.

The old Bridge is now all pulled down. Several car loads of lumber, timber, and iron have arrived, for the new bridge. The carpenters are now at work framing the new top, the sides of which will be covered with galvinzed iron, where the queen trusses are. When the new bridge is completed it will make a great improvement on the main street as the bridge is put in line with the road. People and teams cross daily on the raft from one side of the river to the other in safety.

"Peace hath her victories," etc., and General A. T. Sharpe, of Ottawa, Kansas, so says the Republican, of that city, has found more substantial benefit for severe muscular rheumatism, by using St. Jacobs Oil, than from any other substance he ever tried.

BOBCAYGEON.

The Independent says Mr. Howson, the reeve of Bobcaygeon, has been to Peterborough, and had an interview with Mr. Cox. The latter gentleman repeated by word of mouth what he had already said in letter. The Midland Railway company will provide iron rails and lay them down, and work the line, provided those interested will buy the land and right of way, and grade the road ready for rail-laying. This seems to be a fair and reasonable proposition, so that the people of Verulam, Harvey, and Bobycageon now know with certainty what they have to do to obtain railway connection. If Peterborough would help, that project might become practicable.

An Established Remedy.—Brown's Bronchial Troches" are widely known as an established remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, and other troubles of the Throat and Lungs.

PORT HOPE.

Shooting Accident.—An accident took place yesterday by which Mr. Thomas Willcock, gun and locksmith, had one of his hands severely injured. It appears he had been repairing the spring of a pistol for Mr. H. G. Hawkins, and when the owner called for it took a cartridge from a box to see if the weapon worked all right. After inserting the explosive in the pistol, by some manner it was discharged, the ball entering the middle of Mr. Wilcock's hand in a direct line with the wrist, which it traversed and coming out well up towards the elbow, the spent ball striking Mr. Hawkins on the hand, and grazing the skin. It is most fortunate that nothing worse than a rather sore arm for Mr. Willcock is the result we have to chronicle.

No articles ever attained such unbounded popularity in so short a time as Burdock Blood Bitters, and that too during the existence of countless numbers of widely advertised bitters and blood purifiers. It is evident that this medicine begins its work at once, and leaves no desirable effect unattained.

People are Beginning to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa-Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

The Causes of Colds are getting overheated in hot rooms or crowded assemblies, sitting in a draught, or cooling too rapidly after exercise, muffling up warm and changing to light wrappings cold and damp feet. No matter what is the cause Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is the cure for all throat and lung diseases that nduce consumption.

Tonic.—Every one, at times, feels the necessity of some restoratives of the vital powers, depressed by mental or bodily exhaustion. In such conditions, let every one, instead of flying to the alcoholic or medicinal stimulants, which must be followed by depression equal to their excitement, reinvigorate his deranged system by the natural tonic elements of the Peruvian Syrup. Sold by all druggists.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of mpny to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES:—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

A POMOLOGICAL HYMN.

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

O Painter of the fruits and flowers,
We own Thy wise design
Whereby these human hands of ours
May share the work of Thine,

Apart from thee we plant in vain
The root and sow the seed;
Thy early and Thy later rain,
Thy sun and dew we need.

Our toil is sweet with thankfulness,
Our burden is our boon;
The curse of earth's gray morning is
The blessing of its noon.

Why search the wide world everywhere
For Eden's unknown ground?—
That garden of the primal pair
May nevermore be found.

But, blest by Thee, our patient toil
May right the ancient wrong,
And give to every clime and soil
The beauty lost so long.

Our homestead flowers and fruited trees
May Eden's orchard shame;
We taste the tempting sweets of these
Like Eve, without her blame.

And, North and South and East and West,
The pride of every zone,
The farest, rarest and the best
May all be made our own.

Its earliest shrines the young world sought
In hill-groves and in bowers,
The fittest offerings thither brought
Were Thine own fruits and flowers.

And still with reverned hands we cull
Thy gifts each year renwed;
The good is always beautiful,
The beautiful is good.

LIFE AND RELIGION IN CANADA.

Extracts from a Thanksgiving Sermon preached by the Rev. A. J. Bray at Queen's Hall, Montreal, Sunday, 23rd October, 1881.

Psalm xxxiii., 12—"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord."

By civil authority we were called upon last Thursday to render thanks to Almighty God for the late bountiful harvest. * * This thanksgiving is well timed, and well worthy of zeal, you know. But you would have a far more vivid sense of the meaning of it if you had wandered in England during the harvest-time, as I did. In that great corn-consuming country the wheat was lying in the fields rotting in the rain. Day after day, and week after week, the bright sun was shut back on itself by the thick clouds that poured out water when heat was required. The church was on its knees; the profane were loud-lipped in open profanity; still the heavens poured down rain as if the price of bread was of no concern in the world. Here it was not so. After the winter, during which the snow had lain as a huge blanket on the soil, came the warm breath of spring, melting the snow and ice, and quickening the root life of the earth; and then our glorous tropical summer came ripening the fruit into harvest. What active part may be ascribed to divine Providence in all this,—the adverse circumstance there, and the favourable circumstances here—is much more than I can pretend to tell, or even guess at. The very theological among us ascribe everything of good and ill directly to God; and the very anti-theological deny Him any place or power in the universe. Some firmly believe that God, according to man's desert, will bless or curse; and others that all things work in a natural way, and according to physical law and order. Some others think that the truth lies between the two extremes, but is undefinable by any philosophy of ours. Who is right we cannot tell, but it is certain that we dare not assume the arroganee of imagining that England, for its sins, deserved storms instead of sunshine; that in Canada we merited from Providence favourable harvest weather. This divine philosphy of good and evil fortune is beyond the reach of our reasoning, and when we try to puzzle it out, the answer of Christ to his disciples, when they wanted to be metaphysical instead of pratical, and demanded for whose sins it was that a man was born blind, comes back in a stern rebuke and example: "I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is called day, for when night cometh in which no man can work."

But the fact that as a nation we set a day apart for thanksgiving to God is a matter and full of rich suggestiveness. We put our agriculture, our mechanical industries, our commerce and our politics, under the great idea of God. We have a vast country with uncalculated resources, and we have a God. We have no State Church to embody our religious idea and give it form of expression; but a free government said to a free church we desire to recognize the goodness of God and the people lifted to heaven the anthem of praise. I am neither blind enough, nor foolish enough, to believe that all joined in this thanksgiving to the Sender of good. I knew that many deemed it an idle thing and a waste of time; but we may take it for granted that the religious sentiment was that of the majority; and not the churchly, but the civil authority said: "Let the people praise thee, O God—yea, let all the people praise thee." We have given acknowledgement that at least the good of life is from the God of life. No small thing in this age of hardness and coldness and no-faith, but in power of self-reliance. A great thing, in truth, and one to be pondered and spoken of. From my heart of hearts I wish we could turn it into a practical and binding statute for all our national life. That would be the best and most acceptable worship we could render to the Lord of the harvest—a nation's sacrament of pure, just living.

Let us see for a little what it means and how it may be done. How may every day in the year be made Thanksgiving day; how may we worship God without ceasing the labour in the field or the office? You will grant that as a people we have many advantages. We are a young people, necessarily working down at the foundations and tracing the general design. All past history is open before us, like a book; we can see what works of men have succeeded and what have failed of success. We can take the good they did and re-cast it into modern forms of thought and deed. We are free to shape our own destiny and answer to our own fortune. But we must not dream that we have been put down at a point where all things good find a focus. Our advantages are great and manifold, but, then—so are our difficulties * * * We havh a great variety of races and of creeds, and each strives hard against absorption in the others. In no country in the world are the denominational lines drawn more closely and distinctly than here. We have a great deal of very pronounced church life,—an intense and flaming orthodoxy,—and I am persuaded that Atheism in its most distinct and blatant type abounds.

Now, I want to say that I have a deep and firm faith in the sentiment of my text. I believe that the nation is blessed whose God is the Lord, and that nation is cursed and damned which has another God before the Lord. We in this country—we on this continent, are in danger of making money our God. The "Almighty Dollar" is an apt and expressive phrase. We have no glory of aristocracy; our oldest families are but of a day; our titles are importations which cost but little, were duty free, and usually signify, less than the original cost. We have no great and growng traditions in memory of which men may well be proud. In the Old World men sought the glory of war; in this New World, Mammon is Lord of the ascendant. And I think the change is for the better. Inherited glory is a poor thing at the best. To have lands, and a name, and a place in society, because a remote ancestor was able and active in the work of throat-cutting, is not very heroic I think. But there is an equal peril in the other extreme from that. Names and titles go for but little here. We have not yet woven the cursed meshes of European respectability round our life, putting degradation on mutual labour; but we have given honour and glory to mere possession, out of all proportion to its real value. True, we do not ask who a man is; nor do we ask what he is? but the question is, how much money has he? Does he live in a big house and keep a carriage? That is the important thing. And so commerce and industry are put under that idea. Business is carried on just to make all the money that can be made; it is simply a struggle of selfishness against selfishness: a clash of wits and dexterities; a free trade in lying and fraud. I do not mean to say that all our trade is conducted upon dishonest principals, and with dishonest practices, but I do mean to say that a very great deal of it is; and it arises from the fact that we ascribe so much honour and power to mere money. Like soldiers, fired with ambition to make a name will face any odds and rush on certain death; so men, anxious to command the name and fame and power of wealth, will work the hardest and risk the maddest for its sake. All this is going on, and there stands the church, munching her crust of orthodoxy with toothless gums. She has a keen nose for heresy, but never smells the rank foulness of dishonesty in business and in social life. If I were a rich man convicted of sharp practice, I would desire no more lenient court than a court ecclesiastical; for I am sure the reprimand would be light and I should be offered one of the best pews in the church if not an official position. Men mean if they do not put it into words, business is business, and religion is religion; they move in different spheres, and we do not desire that one circle shall cut and overlay the other. And they are kept apart, often they are polar to each other. But, I am sure that all this is wrong, and in such a temper we can never build up a great and prosperous nation. Sometimes mere cunning succeeds, and avarice and mad ambition beat down opposition; but I am sure that commercial men would cultivate their own good and fortune by having a supreme care for honesty. We need confidence in each other there as everywhere, and when trader can say to trader "I believe you," there will be joy and prosperity in the land. The churches should take this matter up. They should evoke the thunders of the divine law against dishonest trading. A gospel of honesty would be real good tidings for the day. It would require not very eloquent lips, but a little knowledge of the commercial world to preach a broad and telling sermon on the text, "let him that stole, steal no 'more;" and a whole series of discourses might well be delivered on the eternal impossibility of serving God and Mommon. I wish we could take it in hand to believe and convince men that condition is not much, and character is everything. I wish we could come to think less of possessions and more of mental and moral forces,—more of divine beauty in human life,—more of manly charity and truth and justice,—for only that way can we have the blessedness of that nation whose God is the Lord.

Now, turn to another branch of our national life, I mean our politics, and see what we have there and what we ought to have there. As I said just now, a young country like this will necessarily be intensely political, although I hardly think it necessary or natural for us to be so extensively political as we are. No doubt we have too much of it, and too many kinds of it; but what I want to draw attention to more especially is the entire divorce of politics from religion. I do not mean to say that it is peculiar to this country; but a wrong is no less a wrong because we share it with other nations. It seems to me that the prevalent notion of politics and Government is altogether false. We demand popular Government and representation by majorities. So the worst passions of the people are appealed to, and their most selfish instincts aroused to win the vote of the majority. And often that majority is made up of the thoughtless and the foolish in town and country. Now, it seems to me that one other is to be had thought of—God—who is the centre and the sum of right and truth and highest law. It seems to me, that Government should be in the name of God and the common good of man. The Bible is as much a revelation of right laws and principles, for the guidance and governance of society, as it is for the thinking and life of individual souls. The Bible is God's word to man—first, as to facts of spirit: theology is man's answer to that or interpretation of that; and second, the Bible is God's word as to facts of Government, and what we call politics are the answer to that. Politics are the theories of laws—Government is the pratical application of them to daily life. So that for a man to say: I am the representative of a constituency; I am to advocate their cause as they understand and expound it—whatever their aim, whether inspired by ignorance or passion, or no—whether they tend to the good or the individual unit and the general whole or no, I am their representative—no more; is only and intesely a degradation of politics, and a travestry of the true idea of Government. It is Government—not a toole; it is a rule, not a slavery—and the man who as politican or ruler holds himself as simply having it that he shall minister to the caprice or a passion of a people, is just as ignorant of the true nature of his office, and just as unworthy and unmanly, as the preacher—who being sworn of heaven to declare the truth of God as he best knows it, yet utters the Shibboleth of a sect or part in the church. The man who has our vote for Parliament, is in truth the representative of right: he is to see that justice holds an even balance and that honesty is made the policy of public life. Do we ever, or often, think of that need? I fear not. Who ever hears of justice as an election cry? Who ever hears of argument for the right and the good in a House of Commons? We have not Government from over, but from under: it shakes the ashes out that the fire of passion may burn more freely and more fiercely. But Government should be from over. It should have a thought and a purpose and a policy not dictated by the love of power and place—not taught by mere office seekers at election times, but imposed by a deep sense of what is right for the man and right for the many.

Now, the churches should take this matter in hand. I know that you are as much opposed to "politics in the pulpit" as you are to talk of business in the pulpit. And so am I to party politics. I do not want to see priests, Catholic or Protestant, meddling with politics; because the priests are only mindful of their church—they seek to protect their professional interests. I do not want to see priests deal with politics; but I do want to see Prophets at the work—men of great minds, filled with a thought of God; and of great hearts, burning with an honest love—men who will stand forth in the name of God and say to the swelling flood of man's ambition—"thus far shalt thou come and no further,"—men who with strong hands will clutch oppression by the throat, and bear good opinion to a loftier seat—men commissioned to speak for God and the people. No, no, not priests but prophets,—God in mercy send us prophets who will demand that Government be religious.

The expenditure of brain power too early or too severely in children often results in physical debility; the use of Fellow's Hypophosphites exerts a singularly happy effect in such cases.

ENNISMORE.

WEATHER NOTES.—October has again come and gone with the usual warning of snow which fell on the forenoon of the 9th. The highest temperature reached during the month was on the evening of the 16th, standing at 80° at sun down, and the lowest on the morning of the 27th, which gave 18°. The aggregate for the month at sunrise and sunset being 45° 31'. There was frost on nine days and rain fell on fifteen, giving a depth of 10½ inches, being apparently determined to make up for the summer's deficiency.

RESPECTING our root crops, now finished, in removing, mangolds and carrots will be about 95 per cent of an average crop, turnips about 75, but that has again been diminished by about 10 per cent with a small light coloured louse which has destroyed a large number of them, and is causing them to rot.

WE ARE AGAIN in a bad plight with a considerable portion of our roads, the continued wet weather making them very muddy and disagreeable for travel.

DESERVING OF PRAISE.—Too much cannot be expressed in favor of that unsurpassed remedy for coughs, colds, asthma, croup, sore throat, and all lung complaints. If you suffer from neglected colds, try Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. The cost is trifling, only 25 cents.

HAGYARD'S YELLOW OIL will be found invaluable for all purposes of a family liniment. Immediate relief will follow its use in all cases of pain in the stomach, bowels or sides; rheumatism, colic, colds, sprains and bruises. For internal and external use. It has no equal in the world for what it is recommended. For sale by all dealers at 25c. per bottle.

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND.—A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease. More particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.—2

Wheat Soil.

The farmer must sow his wheat upon such land as he has, it may be clay or sand, wet or dry, rich or poor. If it be clay and other conditions are favorable, he may expect a plump, soft berry, and a full crop. If his soil is sandy, and other conditions favorable, the wheat is likely to have a smaller but harder kernel, the quality will will perhaps be better, but the quanity somewhat less. If the soil be to moist, it will pay to underdrain. Tile drains, two rods apart, and at an average depth of three feet, have doubled the crop and paid the total expense of the drainage in a single year. If for any reason underdraining cannot be pratised, no fear of incommoding the reaper ought to be allowed to prevent making a sufficient number of open furrows for surface drainage. The greatest possible inconvenience at harvest time is a poor crop. Black mukey land, after it is drained needs to be dressed with fertilizers, such as salt, lime, or bone-dust. A dry poor soil needs barn-yard manure.—Prof. N. S. Townsend, in American Agriculturist.

ZOPESA.

(FROM BRAZIL.)

The New Compound, its wonderful affinity to the Digestive Apparatus and the Liver, increasing the dissolving juices, relieving almost instantly the dreadful results of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and the TORPID LIVER, makes Zopesa an every day necessity in every house.

It acts gently and speedily in Biliousness, Costiveness, Headache, Sick Headache, Distress after Eating, Wind on the Stomach, Heartburn, Pains in the Side and Back, Want of Appetite, Want of Energy, Low Spirits, Foul Stomach. It invigorates the Liver, carries off all surplus bile, regulates the Bowels, and gives tone to the whole system.

Cut this out and take it to your Druggist and get a 10 cent Sample, or a large bottle for 75 cents, and tell your neighbor about it.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1881.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Personal.

The Rochester Herald says that conductor E. H. Nash and Frank Swain, assistant train despatcher of the Rochester and Pittsburg railway, with M. D. Tarba, S. S. Brewer, and E. A. Boosinger, have returned from a two weeks' hunt in Canada. They made their headquarters at Camp Dunlap, Jack's Lake. With Joseph Dunlap, of forty-eight years experience, and Dick Purser as guides, and P. Cassidy to star the dogs, the sportsmen were enabled to kill eleven deer, five of the finest of which they brought back with them. Dick Purser accompanied the party on their return. They speak in the highest terms of their trip, and say that there is no finer place for sport than Jack's Lake.

A Narrow Escape.

On Friday evening as the Midland train was running down from the G. T. at Port Hope an accident occurred that came very near being attended with fatal results. A man tried to cross the track in front of the train at the John Street crossing, and not being smart enough in his movements he was caught by the cow catcher and carried quite a distance before the train was stopped. A young man named Cochrane, firemen of the engine, walked out on the board and caught the man, and held him until the train was stopped, thus saving his life. When picked up the man was senseless but soon recovered.

The Weather.

The weather is now miserable, snow and rain falling alternately, making a drizzle. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—Strong winds and gales from the eastward, shifting towards the west; cloudy weather with rain and sleet. Higher temperature.

A Coming Event.

We learn that a ball is to take place on New Year's at Bradburn's Hall, under the auspices of the Fire Brigade Band. Those who have patronized former balls under the same auspices will look forward to the coming event with pleasure. Music will be furnished by the new orchestra, under the leadership of Messrs, J. Reynolds and Freeman.

Football.

Arrangements have been completed for a football match, to take place here on Wednesday next, between the local club and a team from Trinity College School, Port Hope. The visiting team have a strong twelve and play a good game, but we feel inclined to think that our boys will hold their own.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

DAVID KENNEDY'S DESCRIPTION OF THE ZULU.

We extract the following interesting description of the Zulu, which is given by Mr. David Kennedy, jr., a member of the Kennedy family of Scottish vocalists, in his book entitled "Kennedy at the Cape":—

"The Zulus are a continual source of interest in these towns of Natal. They are powerful, well built fellows, and inveterately cheerful. Their grins are always at half-cock; if you look at them, their faces are at once wreathed in smiles. It may be said that the Kafir supplies South Africa with laughter. If you hear merriment anywhere, be sure it proceeds from the native, not from Boer or Africander. There is more sparkle in a Zulu's left eye than in a Dutchman's two eyes put together. Never was there a more appropriate word than that of "boys" as applied to the Kafirs. They are self-satisfied, jolly, happy-go-lucky in their work. Their clothing is never ample, but what they do wear is worn with grace. Their well-shaped bodies set off the most ragged coats or trousers. Tatters on a Kafir never suggest dirt, squalor, or destitution, as on a home beggar. They are very fond of ornament or finery. The men trim their hair into strange shapes, and any day in Maritzburg you may see them sitting on the crub-stones doing up each other's "wool." With a small piece of stick they pluck up the hair into ridges, or peak it like horns. Their toilette is completed by a long piece of bone thrust through the quaint coiffure. The Kafir ladies do not seem to indulge in anything so fantastic their hair being made up into as near an approach to a simple chignon as their short bristly tresses will allow. The Kafirs bore large holes in their ears, in which they carry their snuff-boxes, small bouquets of flowers, scraps of paper, or bits of ivory. They are very fond of wearing soldiers' coats and cast-off helmets and busbies. Failing these, the Zulu will look elegant in a corn-sack, with holes cut for his head and arms. Another thing that strikes one is the effect the Kafirs produce by simple means. I have seen a "boy" with a piece of pink tape bound around his forehead, who looked as attractive as an Acis; and another who was equally handsome in a coronet of green leaves. The Kafir seizes on everything that can be used as ornament—beads, brass buttons, gold braid, shreds of coloured cloth, or bits of glass; and every native carries a stick, sometimes two or three. You might as well expect them to be wanting an arm or a leg as be without their "knob-kerrie." They stride along, swinging it if a short one, or using it as a walking stick if about the length of a spear-handle. On the country roads you see the Zulus on the tramp, with their sticks across the back of their necks, and grasped in both hands, as if going through calisthenic exercise.

"The normal condition of the Zulu seems to be loafing. They work for six or eight months, sometimes a year, but seldom stay longer. One Maritzburg gentlemen told me that it is well to get a good name as a master amongst the Kafirs, for then you are never in want of help. Even during the late scare he was not left without "boys." It soon spreads abroad that you are a desirable "baas," in which case the whole of the tribe will serve you, if need be. One fellow will come for half-a-year, perhaps, by which time he fancies he has made enough money to buy a wife. Then he goes back to the kraal, and gets his brother or his cousin to work for you. If they like you, they will come any distance to your place. This same gentlemen was at that time being served by members of a tribe that lived 150 miles off, on the lower Tugela River. There are scarcely any Kafir woman in service. Those you see are descendants of slaves from the Dutch settlements. The reason of this is, that the Kafir woman is of great value, that is, as a marketable article. The father can sell her to a suitor for ten or fourteen head of cattle. You can imagine an old Kafir parent saying to the expectant bridegroom, with a twinkle of the eye, "Oh! yes; you can have your bonnie lassie—when the kye comes hame!" Then when the girl becomes a wife, she does all the work about the hut, hoes the ground, sows and reaps, hews wood and draws water; while the happy husband loafs all day, merely doing such light work as milking the cows—an exchange of occupation as pronounced as in the case of John Grumlie. It is not known, however, that this Zulu prototype ever showed discontent with his lot! The more wives he marries, the more ground he can cultivate, and the richer he becomes. There are no old maids in Zululand; and as long as polygamy exists, it will be impossible for Europeans to get Kafir woman for servants. The colonists, however, do not feel this so very irksome. A Scottish housewife in Maritzburg told me she perferred a "boy" to a Kafir girl, as he was so very much cleaner and handier. It takes a little time for one to get over the peculiar sensation of seeing a black man doing the cooking, the cleaning up of bedrooms, and the making of beds. A good Kafir is a real blessing. A friend informed me he had had one for actually six years. He did all the cooking, and the waiting at table. "I admire him; I love him!" said my friend. And this leads me to remark, that the relations between black and white in Natal are much more satisfactory than in the "old colony," as they here call the Cape Colony. The "boys" seem more intelligent, vivacious, and industrious, and the colonists speak of them more kindly. War or no war, the Natal Zulu have ever been friendly to the settlers."

DASTARDLY OUTRAGE.

An Old Man has his House Wrecked by two Miscreants.

The Belleville Intelligencer says an event occurred near the northern outskirts of the city last evening which is somewhat of a satire on our county constabulary. An old and inoffensive man, living just in the rear of Albert College, had his house broken into and partly demolished by two notoriously bad characters who live, or rather hover, in the neighborhood.

To begin at the beginning, Mr. Michael Brennan, the old man in question, had nine of his geese stolen a couple of weeks ago by Alex. Macdonald and a man named O'Brien. (Macdonald is popularly known as "Coffin" Macdonald, the name being derived from a circumstance in his eventful career which many of our readers will probably remember. When the victim of the shooting affray at "The Farm," a couple of years ago, died, Macdonald received a sum of money from the father of the unfortunate man for the purpose of buying a coffin. But instead of procuring the coffin he came to town and spent the greater part of the money in whiskey. He has been known as "Coffin" Macdonald ever since.)

Mr. Brennan discovered that "Coffin" and O'Brien had stolen his geese, and he accordingly got a warrant issued against them. O'Brien was arrested and brought to town, but Macdonald contrived to elude the authorities. But he did not like the idea of going about with a warrant hanging over his head, and so he came to Brennan and offered to restore six of the geese if he would consent to stop the proceedings against him. This Brennan refused to do, and with many threats Macdonald took his departure. Yesterday he and a man named William Bass (almost as worthless and scoundrelly a character as himself) met the old man driving along the road, on his way to the house of Prof. Macoun, who lives in the vicinity. Macdonald seized his horse by the head and stopped him. "Look here," he said, "I want you to go to town and stop this action." "I don't see any reason why I should," said Mr. Brennan, "and besides I don't believe I could if I wanted to." "Do you refuse to do it then?" yelled "Coffin," as he came up closer to the carriage. "Yes, I do," answered the old man, quietly. "Then," said the other, with a terrible oath, "I'll have your heart's blood to-night, and don't you forget it!" Brennan smiled, and said, "I never saw a little dog yet that wasn't a great barker." This infurated Macdonald still more, and he and Bass went away, vowing vengeance on Brennan, and bidding him to look to his property and his life. Mr. Brennan drove on, and thought little more of the incident. Last night, however, between 8 and 9 o'clock, he was coming home, having been absent for an hour or two, and as he approached the house he heard a great commotion, and the incident on the road flashed upon his mind again. As he came nearer he heard the screams of his wife (who is an invalid, and whom he left alone in the house), and he then realized that Macdonald and Bass were carrying out their threats. Rushing into the stable he tried to find a pitchfork, but could not do so in the dark. Unarmed as he was he dared not venture into the house to confront the two desperadoes, for he was certain they had come for the purpose of killing him. The nearest house was that of Prof. Macoun, and Brennan ran there as quick as his trembling limbs would bear him. The Professor was fortunately at home, and on hearing the old man's story, he put on his hat and hurried over to Brennan's house, in the meantime telling Brennan to go down town and inform the police. Just as Professor Macoun arrived at the house the two men were leaving having demolished everything that could be demolished in the house, and they escaped into the darkness. Mrs. Brennan was in bed when the men came to the house. She says they asked for Brennan, and when she told them he was not in they began to smash the windows with huge stones and they did not stop until they had knocked out every window in the lower part of the house. Macdonald remained outside smashing the glass, while Bass entered the house. He had an immense club in his hand, with which he set to work to smash the furniture, table, chairs, china, glassware, everything that was breakable were shivered into atoms under his club. Finally he approached the bed in which Mrs. Brennan was lying, half paralized with fear. He swung his club over his shoulder, and would no doubt have struck her had she not sprung suddenly from the bed, and with a strength with which the frenzy of fear can sometimes endow the weak, twisted the club from the brute's hand, struck him with it twice, and escaped through one of the windows to the house of a neighbor. In the meantime Mr. Brennan had come to town, applied to the police for assistance, but was refused, on the ground that his house was outside the corporation. He then secured the services of the County Constable Garrett; but when he and Mr. Garrett arrived at the house Macdonald and Bass had gone.

This morning the house presents a scene of ruin and desolation. Not a window in the lower part of the house has a sash in it, while inside there is not a whole piece of furniture to be seen. The floors are covered with great stones, broken glass, fragments of earthenware, and the wreck of chairs and tables.

Macdonald and Bass are still at large.

Oh, maden with grim teeth, avaunt!
Though fair you seem to look upon,
Because you don't use sozodont.
The sweetness of your mouth is gone;
Your breath is heavy, and, from this,
Your lips no more invite a kiss.

POLICE COURT.

IMMODERATE DRIVING.

MONDAY, Nov. 7.—Michael Collins was charged by P. C. McGhee with driving at an immoderate rate of speed on Smith Street on Sunday, October 30th.

THE DEFENDANT admitted that he drove at a rather good speed.

As this was his first offence, the Magistrate only opposed a fine of $2, and $2.50 costs to be paid forthwith.

INFORMATION WANTED.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—A good many, as well as myself, would like to learn if the Arthur Kidd, whose name appears on the Dummer assessment roll as 21 years of age, is the same Arthur Kidd who took the first prize in the boys' class at the late county ploughing match. Can you throw any light on the subject?

Yours,
Smith, Nov. 5, 1881. A. SCOTT.

[We cannot answer Mr. Scott's question, but we are sure, in view of all circumstances, Mr. A. R. Kidd, Reeve of Dummer and father of the winner of the prize referred to, will clear up the matter in our next issue.—ED. REVIEW.]

Colonization Company.

The Canada Gazette contains the following notice:—

Notice is hereby given that application will be made to His Excellency the Governor General in Council for Letters Patent under the provisions of "The Canada Joint Stock Companies Act 1877," by the Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, of the City of Toronto; James Beaty, the younger, of the same place, barrister-at-law; George Albertus Cox, of the Town of Peterborough, in the County of Ontario, railway manager; Robert Jaffray, of the City of Toronto, merchant; and Frederick Charles Denison, of the City of Toronto, barrister-at-law,—to constitute them and others a body corporate and politic for the purposes hereinafter mentioned and that,—

1. The proposed corporate name of the Company is "The British Canadian Colonization Company (Limited.)"

2. The purposes for which incorporation is sought are the acquiring by purchase, lease or otherwise of lands or any interest in lands in the Dominion of Canada, and the improving, selling, leasing or otherwise disposing of the same, and of assisting emigration from other countries, and settlement upon lands in Canada; which power to assist immigrants and settlers to colonize the lands of the Company by grants of land, advances of money or otherwise, and to take security for such advances and assistance and for the balance of the price of lands sold by the Company by way of mortgage upon the lands so sold; with power to sell and assign such mortgages, and also to act as agents for any person or corporation for the purchase, sale or mortgage of lands in Canada.

3. The operations of the proposed Company are to be carried on in the different Provinces in Canada, and its chief place of business in Canada is to be in the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario.

4. The capital stock of the Company is to be one million dollars, in ten thousand shares of one hundred dollars each.

5. The said Honourable Alexander Mackenzie, James Beaty, the younger, George A. Cox, Frederick Charles Denison, and Robert Jaffray are to be the first or provisional Directors of the Company.

A VEXED CLERGYMAN.—Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easily can all this be avoided by using Dr. Kings new discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles given away at Taylor and Macdonald's.—2

INDISPENSIBLE.—There are some simple remedies indispensible in every family. Among these, the experiences of years assures us, should be recorded Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. Both for internal and external application we have found it of great value; especially can we recommend it for colds, rheumatism, or fresh wounds and bruises.—Christian Era.

WINNING WELSH HEARTS.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The Prince of Wales has pleased the Welsh people. After a private dinner at Mr. Hussey Vivian's house the Prince called for a tankard of Welsh ale, and raising the foaming goblet to his lips, drunk to the memory of his ancestors, Llewellyn the Great and Cadwalladar, the last of Cambro-British princes.

OUR MARQUIS.

The Princess Louise will meet the Marquis of Lorne on board the steamship Sardinian on its arrival at Liverpool.

A FOOLISH HOAX.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 5.—The story in a morning paper that Mr. Stewart's body has been recovered at a cost of $37,000 is regarded by the police as a silly hoax.

DAKOTA'S POSITION.

The Tribune's Washington special says that it is considered certain that the Democratic convention will oppose any attempt to admit Dakota into the Union as a State.

A PECULIAR BURGLARY.

ZURICH, Switzerland, Nov. 5.—Burglars on Tuesday night entered the bank of Walker & Co., this city, and stole 50,000 francs and all the negotiable securities and burned the greater part of the books. The bank closed its doors on Wednesday. Unpleasant surmises regarding the affair are current.

IMPORTED MUTTON.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Australian mutton brought at wholesale in London this week 3¾d per pound. It is retailed at a shilling. The consigners of American and Australian meat are unable to fathom the mystery of the difference in the price they receive and the price the public pay. It has wisely been resolved to apply to the corporation for shops in the new Ledenhall market.

THE LEFROY TRIAL.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The interest in the trial of Lefroy for the murder of Mr. Gould continues unabated. The evidence thus far has been merely repetition of that given at the inquest and at the magisterial examination, except as to the deposition of his relatives with whom the prisoner lodged, that he was at home all day on June 21st, which is the date on which the prosecution allege he pawned the pistol which he redeemed on the morning of the murder. The judge evidently disbelieved this evidence and after vainly endeavouring to elicit from the principal witness the reasons why he had not mentioned such an important matter previously, angrily ordered the witness to quit the box. The evidence of a servant in the house of the prisoner's relatives on the 21st of June did not confirm that of the previous witness.

AN EDITOR IMPRISONED.

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—The editor of the Berlin Boersen-Courier has beeh sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment for imputing unworthy motives and actions to the Minister of Works and the editor of the Anti-Simitic Journal, and insinuating that Prince Bismarck as private owner of Varzin used his public position to circumvent and crush litigant peasant proprietors. The court decreed the immediate arrest of the accused, on the ground that there was a strong suspicion that he meditated flight.

SOON SUBSIDED.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The rumours of Mr. Gladstone's retirement and of Cabinet changes have subsided as quickly as they were raised. If they were put out as feelers, the response of the Liberal papers all over the country has been that Mr. Gladstone's personality is an indispensable necessity to the continuance of the Liberal party in power, and this acknowledgement of the importance of his personality is seized upon by the Conservatives as a sign of want of confidence in the party.

THE VICEROY HISSED.

DUBLIN, Nov. 5.—An unseemly scene occured at the Gaiety theatre, in Dublin, on Tuesday evening. The Lord-Leiutenant and Countess Cowper on entering a box were received with a storm of hisses by the gallery, but with hearty cheering by the occupants of the other portion of the house. His Excellency bowed to both parties, and the row subsided.

A NEW IDEA.

DUBLIN, Nov. 5.—A curious plan has been adopted in some places in the west of Ireland with a view of keeping the "no rent" manifesto before the tenants. It takes the form of a promissory note, which has been circulated among the farmers attending a sale at Moate, County Westmeath. The note is a promise to pay rent on the day Messrs. Parnell, Davitt, and other suspects are released. It is intended that the note shall be signed by tenants and sent to the landlords.

PARNELL'S RELEASE.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The Manchester Examiner says that it is the intention of the Government to release Mr. Parnell and his colleagues in time to allow them to take their seats at the commencement of the next session, provided that the state of the country justifies such a step.

AGITATION IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Lord Fitzwilliam, who will probably soon be gazetted Marquis of Rockingham, has remitted unconditionally the past half year's rent of all his tenants. Many other English landed proprietors are making large deductions, thus taking the sting out of the land agitations in England. The Mark Lane Express finds that the average reduction on new lettings in England is thirty per cent., or more than the Irish landlords expect to lose by the decisions of the Land Court.

UNCOMPLIMENTARY.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Professor Mahaffy has been utilizing Oscar Wilde's college career as an illustration of his theses that a stupid boy gains more than a brilliant one from a university training. Mr. Gladstone has allowed the outline of his head to be taken for a book about the hands of distinguished men, about to be published. There is a bet that Oscar's hands will need a double page for their pictorial representation life size.

THE GENERAL OPINION.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Extensive enquiries have been made among London bankers about the Confederate bond mania. The general opinion among financiers is that not a penny is invested, and certainly not in the name of the Confederate Government. The Bank of England does not accept investments from foreign Governments, only from individuals. Mr. Puleston says "that there has been an inquiry for such funds for years, but he never could learn that a penny had been invested here." "Besides," he adds, "the Confederate Government had no money to send here at the time.

UNHAPPY RUSSIA.

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—A Diplomat just from St. Petersburg, gives a very gloomy discription of the situation of Russia affairs, they are growing more critical daily and riots are feared in consequence of the increasing dearness of provisions. The Nihilists are outraging, charging the Czar with being the cause of all the trouble, stating that he is sending all the gold of Russia to Denmark. High Russian officials are advising the landlords to leave the country for the cities, if they do not wish to be assassinated. Great anxiety prevails.

RELEASING "SUSPECTS."

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—It is rumored that negotiations are completed for the release of "suspects" on condition that they will stand about and let the Land Act have a fair trial. It is said that some of the "suspects" are inclined to keep their hands off for a reasonable time, but will not bind themselves to anything.

"A REAL LIST."

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—It is stated that a real list of the Land Act must be made on monster estates in the west and south-west of Ireland, where famine occurs in bad seasons, and where there are thousands of tenants paying from one to ten pounds yearly, to whom 25 per cent off their rents would be of little or no benefit, upon whose holdings the landlords have spent thousands on improvements.

EXPLAINING MATTERS.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Egan and Biggar had an interview with the Papal Nuncio to whom they explained the objects of the present Land League movement and strike against rents.

THE VIENNIA INTERVIEW.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—Owing to the explanations of the Austrian Ambassador, an impression favourable to the Vienna interview now prevails here.

FOURTH OF NOVEMBER.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Guy Fawkes' celebrations were held in London and elsewhere in the United Kingdom last evening. Effigies of Mr. Gladstone, Parnell, Biggar, and others, were burned in the poorer districts of London, but no disturbance occurred. Among the effigies burnt at Lewes, where the anniversary was celebrated with great eclat, was one of Guitteau.

LEOPOLD'S MARRIAGE.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Truth states that the official announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of the Duke of Albany with a German princess.

PERSONAL.

GENEVA, Nov. 7.—It is said that Prince Krapotkine's wife, who has just passed an examination for Bachelieres-science at Genoa, intends to grrduate in medicine at University College, London, when she arrives.

CHOLERA'S RAVAGES.

DARGELING, India, Nov. 7.—The deaths from cholera amount to one thousand during the past few days.

NO FREE SPEECH.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—Two speakers at Milan and Mentana, were silenced by the police.

AMERICAN.

CONFEDDRATE BONDS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald's Washington special says that a Washington broker interested in the matter says, the scheme of purchasing confederate bonds was originated by a New York firm in connection with one in England. The whole intention of the purchasers was to run the bonds up to a figure higher than they give and then put them off on the public at much higher prices.

PAYING THE PIPER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—It is stated that Harry Genet's friends have raised $9,600 to pay his fine at the expiration of his term of imprisonment next Friday.

BIG FIRE.

JOBLING, Mo., Nov. 7.—The Opera House here was burned. Lose, $50,000.

THE AMERICAN NAVY.

The Herald's Washington special says that the Naval Advisory Board, which has been considering the reconstruction of the navy, has concluded its labours. The report will recommend Congress to appropriate $40,000,000 for the construction of a certain number of vessels which will compare favourably with any modern war ships. The report favours the construction of several classes of vessels, such as cruising ships, iron-clads, harbour vessels, etc.

CAPSIZED AT SEA.

DEMSPORT, Mass., Nov. 7.—The whaling schooner Dela Hodgmson capsized in a squall off Pollock Rip lightship on Friday and sunk. The crew of 15 had barely time to get into the life boats, and before reaching shore the captain and mate perished. The remaining survivors were picked up by a passing vessel on Saturday night.

AN UNDUTIFUL SON.

SCRANTON, Penn., Nov. 7.—George Pfeiffer and Adolph Fleizer have been arrested on the charge of forging the name of Eva Pfeiffer, mother of one of the conspirators, to an application for a policy on her life in a graveyard insurance company. Mrs. Pfeiffer, who was seventy-five years old, was dying at the time. The knowledge of her son's act hastened her death. Her son Christian is the prosecutor in this case, in accordance with his mother's last request. This is the first graveyard prosecution in this county, and is the beginning of a harvest of law suits. It is thought that worse crimes than forgery will be exposed.

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

The Perth Expositor of the 3rd instant says during the past week the Railway Committee have been active in taking steps to secure the success of the By-law granting a bonus to the Canadian Pacific Railway, for the establishment of their workshops in Perth, and the passage of the By-law is now assured. During the past week the Engineers of the Ontario & Quebec R. R. under Mr. Lumsden, C.E., have been laying out the line through the town, and they have endeavoured to locate it so as to injure private interests as little as possible. The road is also located from Perth to the K. & P. Road at Sharbott Lake, with the exception of four or five miles in the neighborhood of Maberly, where a change will be made in order to avoide crossing the line of the T. & O. R.R. The timber for the workshops has been ordered and their construction has already commenced.

With the completion of the section of the Ontario and Quebec Road from Perth to the K. & P. R. R., we believe, that we will be far advanced on the way to getting, not one, but two great through lines within the next few years. There is not much doubt, but that the question of the building of the Toronto and Ottawa Railway depended, in a great measure, on the success which the rival Company may have in completing its line. If there were no Ontario & Quebec Road, we would not hear much of the Toronto & Otttawa; but if the first is built, the latter Company must build also, or its supporter, the Grand Trunk, would lose the valuable traffic of a large extent of country. It seems as if we were on the eve of a great railway contest between the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific. The latter Company has now obtained the control of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Road, by purchasing the stock held by the heirs of the late Mr. Reynolds and some other large holders, and they have practically cut off the Grand Trunk from the whole Ottawa Valley trade. The speculation will be a good one, as Ottawa will probably pay the whole cost of the purchase within a year or two, by the increased tariff on its westbound freight. There is also some talk of the Canadian Pacific buying the Kingston and Pembroke R. R. which has running powers over its line to Calendar station. On the other hand the T. & O., the Midland, the Grand Junction and the Toronto and Nipissing are about to be amalgamated into one strong Company, which will probably push through the road to Ottawa without delay. One effect of the purchase of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa by the Canadian Pacific may be some change in the location of the Eastern portion of the Toronto & Ottawa road, as that Company will not now be able to obtain connection with Ottawa over the St. L. & O. from Manotic, and they may have to build a branch from Richmond to Ottawa direct, while the line as located may be used for through traffic. Perth may yet become a prominent railway Centre and the golden opportunity now offered should not be let slip.

CITY AND COUNTRY WEEKLIES.

The Stratford Beacon in the course of an article on the above subject, says:—We predict that the publishers of the city weeklies will not continue their "reckless competition" long; that they will advance the price of the weekly edition on short notice as they did that of the daily.

There are a few men in every community who judge everything as they judge a "hog," simply by size, but the number is fortunately getting smaller and smaller every year. The skinflint who took a huge city weekly in one hand and a local journal in the other and choose the city paper simply because it was the larger of the two is not a factor in society to the extent he was a few years ago. A few men of that kind can be found yet without a search warrant. They die as slowly as a snake's tail, but when they do die, thank fortune they have no successors. Intelligent men know that good local journals are indispensable and do vastly more to promote the interests of the locality than a paper, however large or cheap, published in a distant city. A good local journal at $2 a year is cheaper in proportion than a city weekly at half the price. A really good large sized country paper, brim full of local news, cannot be published at a reasonable profit for less than two dollars. This is not a large sum to pay for a really good home paper, and even at that price it requires prompt cash and a large advertising patronage to make the business moderately profitable.

Another Steamboat Disaster.

Keokuk, Iowa, Nov. 4.—About seven o'clock this evening the steamer War Eagle, going south, ran against a span of the Keokuk and Hamilton bridge, breaking it into fragments. The boat was completely demolished. Eight persons are known to be drowned.

THE NEW BRITISH MINISTER.

Reception of the Hon. Lionel Sackville-West at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—At nine o'clock this morning the revenue cutter Hamilton, having on board the Reception Committee, started down the river to meet the steamer Indiana, and escort the new British Minister, Mr. Sackville-West, up to the city. The cutter met the steamer opposite League Island, where the Committee and guests boarded her. Joel Cook, Secretary of the Committee, read an address of welcome from the Mayor, in which the latter regretted his inability to be present, but tendered the hospitality of the city to the Minister. Another address was read by J. Price Wetherell on behalf of the Reception Committee. Mr. Sackville-West replied in a few well chosen sentences, in which the hope was expressed that the present good feeling between the United States and Great Britain would be lasting, and assured his listeners that he would do all in his power to promote that end. This concluded the formalities. A general introduction then took place. Among those present were several gentlemen prominent in shipping and business circles here. The Indiana arrived at the dock at 11 a.m.; and fifteen minutes later the party took carriages at the hotel, where lunch was partaken of. In the afternoon Mr. Sackville-West was escorted to the various places of interest throughout the city, and to-night was the receipent of a banquet at St. George's Hall.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED.

An Ugly-Looking Case at Halifax—Suspicions of Death from Ill-Usage.

Halifax, Nov. 4.—Last week a woman died in the western suburbs of the city, and was buried. The rumours in circulation caused a partial investigation into the matter, when it was found that the woman came down to breakfast one morning very ill, and could hardly move at all. Her husband went for a doctor, who arrived to find the woman sitting by the stove dead. Those who laid out the corpse said she was covered with bruises, the result of a beating she had received the day previous to her death. The children, five in number, were in a very neglected state, two with badly burned feet. The case has such an aspect that it was deemed expedient to place the matter before the coroner, and the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals have taken the initiative, so as to have the rumours thoroughly sifted.

SPORTING NEWS.

THE INTERNATIONAL YACHT RACE.

Belleville, Nov. 4.—The dates of the races between the Atalanta and the Gracie, or whatever yacht may be named by the New York Yacht Club, were fixed last evening at a meeting of the Club. They are to be next Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, the 8th, 10th and 12th inst. Mr. D. B. Robertson received a telegram this morning from the secretary of the club, asking that a representative of the Bay of Quinte Yacht Club be appointed to meet with representatives of the New York Club for the purpose of arranging the details of the races. Mr. R. S. Bell, secretary of the Bay of Quinte club, who left for New York to-day, will no doubt undertake this duty.

Special by Telegraph to the Mail.

New York, Nov. 4.—The committee of the New York Yacht Club having in charge the coming contests for the American Cup have completed their arrangement, so far as practicable, and now think there will be no difficulty in sailing the races as before stated, this is, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of next week. The first race will be over the inside course of the New York club, which is from a point off Stapleton, L.I., to and around Sandy Hook lightship and back to buoy No. 15 on the west bank. The second, on Thursday, will be over an outside course, likely twenty miles windward or leeward from the lightship, and return; or the start may be made from buoy 5½ on the Hook, or Gedney's Channel buoy. The direction of the wind on that morning will doubtless settle the matter of the starting point. Should a third race be necessary, Saturday's course will be decided by lot, the captains of the respective yachts tossing a penny to decide. The starting hour of each race is fixed at [illegible] five minutes will be allowed after the signal for boats to cross the line. The boat that goes over after the expiration of the five minutes will be handicapped. In case either race is not made within eight hours it must be settled the next day if at all practicable. A reasonable time for repairing will be allowed by the club, should either yacht be disabled. The committe have waived the rule requiring a model to be deposited at the club-room. Each party will place a judge on the opposite boat during the races. Mr. Richard S. Bell, Secretary of the Bay of Quinte Yacht Club, has been invited to be present by the America's Cup Committee, and will doubtless act as judge on the New York boat, on behalf of his own club. In order that as many of the New York Yacht Club members may see the race as wish to do so, the Regatta committee have been authorized to provide suitable accomodations.

At high water yesterday morning the Atalanta was taken on the Communipaw dock, and if a shrewd guess were given the delay of three days is not the fault of the proprietors of the dock, or the amount of business previously contracted for and required to be performed before the yacht was taken out. Still the bright dry weather was worth waiting for, particularly as captain Cutbert says that all the work of planing and smoothing her bottom will be completed by Monday morning, when it is likely that the yacht will go down the bay "just to wake up," as one of the crew expressed it. One glance at the Atalanta's hull below the water-line is sufficient to decide that she was hastily built, and that the passage through the Erie canal bruised her badly in one or two places. The "whittled off" appearance of the yacht at both ends indicates that the basis of the great confidence shown by Captain Cuthbert and party as to their ability to carry away the valued prize for which they have come may be hidden in this "little joker" of the cubical contents. Judging from appearances she will not measure more, cubically, than the Hildegarde, as there is much resemblance between the two, both forward and aft. The result of the official measurement of the Atalanta shows that all the reports regarding her size have been inaccurate, and that the statements about her draught of water have also been incorrect. And another enigma is where, in a hull of her size, can there be 28 gross tons of iron ore stowed away as ballast. Many yachtsmen and sailing masters visited the dock to-day, all of whom had something to say about the Atalanta's model. The Gracie is still on John F. Mumm's ways at Bay Ridge, L. I., ane will be pot-leaded to-morrow. The Mischief is on Jones' ways at Port Richmond, L. I. and has been pot-leaded.

VICIOUS SHOOTING.

An Old Man Shot Seven Times While Lying On the Ground.

Ottawa, Nov. 4.—On Wednesday the residents of L'Auge Gardieu, on the line of the Q. M. O. & O. R., were thrown into a state of excitement by a shooting affray, of which an old man named Paul Patrie was the victim. Elie Cousineau is the name of the party who did the shooting. It seems that Cousineau owned some property at L'Auge Garden, but it fell into the hands of the late James Wilson, of Buckingham, through a mortgage foreclosure. Patrie was placed upon the land for Wilson, and Cousineau consequently held a spite against him. There were frequent disputes, and Bousineau had often threatened that he would shoot Patrie, but although he is of a quarrelsame disposition it was not thought he would dare to carry out his threat. However, when he met Patrie on the day mentioned, near the latter's residence after a few words had passed between them, Cousineau drew a seven-shooter and began firing. Patrie is a man of nearly 70 years of age, and fell immediately after the first shot. Causineau fired at him shot after shot as he lay pleading for mercy. Cousineau coolly walked away after committing the dastardly deed, and Patrie was picked up by his son and carried into his own house, when a doctor was summoned. Three bullets were found lodged in his arms and four in his groin. The most of these were extracted, but the injuries inflicted are most serious. Cousineru was arrested soon after the occurrence and taken to Aylmer. He came before district magistrate Roulean yesterday afternoon, when he was fully committed for taial at the next Court of Queen's Bench.

THE POTATO CROP.

Shortness of the Yield in the United States—Canadian Shipments.

A good deal of anxiety has been created in the United States in consequence of the publication of a report by the Department of Agriculture to the effect that the potato crop is short by at least one third the average yield.

THE CANADIAN SUPPLY

is reported by the leading dealers in Toronto to be much more limited than usual. Mr. Jackman, one of the principal potato merchants here, says he expects to handle about 300 carloads, most of which he will export to the States, principally to the west. Mr. Barratt also states that the supply this year is short; while Mr. McCuaig considers the yield as large as it was last year in the district from which he gets his supply, viz., Shelborne, on the Toronto, Grey, and Bruce Railway. As winter approaches the price, in the opinion of well-informed dealers, will fall very sensibly, on account of the difficulty of safely transporting such a tender article as potatoes.

The crop in Ireland, England, and Germany this year is reported to be in excess of the average yield, and if the tubers in those countries were as good as in Canada they might be profitably imported. The general feeling among dealers in this city is that the prices will fall very considerably within the next few weeks, so that housekeepers need not become alarmed.

The Apple Supply.

Last week a steamer laden with 3,000 barrels of Canadian apples arrived at Charlotte, N. Y., and this seems to have been a surprise to many, inasmuch as the Canadian surplus is generally shipped to England. In consequence of the great supply of apples in Canada and the comparative failure of the American crop, the exportation can be carried on with a profit to the Canadian shipper. The supply at present going to Charlotte are gathered on the shores of the Bay of Quinte, the neighbourhood of Cobourg, Port Hope, and Toronto. A dealer at Philadelphia has contracted for about ten thousand barrels of Canadian apples, and buyers are paying from $2.50 to $3 for winter fruit, with prospects of higher prices.

On October 14th the tenants of the Misses King, Dublin, residing in the neighborhood of Causeway, North Kerry, went to Tralee in a body for the purpose of paying the September gale. They went to the agent's office and paid their rent on getting a reduction of 20 per cent. About a fortnight before these same tenants went to Tralee for the same purpose, but at that time no reduction would be given, and they went home with the rent in their pockets. A few days afterwards it was intimated to them by the agent that a reduction of 10 per cent would be allowed, but the tenants took no notice whatever of this annoucement. It was not until the offer of 20 per cent reduction was given that the tenants came to terms.

A WELCOME TO KENNEDY.

BY WILLIAM TELFORD.

Yer welcome back, my canty chield,
We're fidgen fain to meet ye,
Not on the blood-stained battle field,
Here love an' smiles will greet ye.

Man, four lang years has nearly gane,
Since last we heard ye sing'in
Wh'le Africa an' India's plain
Wi' auld Scotch sangs were ring'in.

The Scots wi' joy wad claw their croon
The first ni'cht they beheld ye,
An' heard ye sing the Banks-o-Doon,
Or Birks of Aberfelday.

Guid faith we are as daft oorsels,
For ilka time we hear ye,
It seems as if ye hae some spells
To draw ilk Scotchman near ye.

We like to hear the auld Scotch twangs,
Our Scotias glens and cairns,
O, come an' sing the auld Scotch ngs
We heard when we were bairns.

Ye gae our hearts loup tae oor mouth,
Tho' our heads be turn'in grey,
Ye mind us o' the days o' youth,
An' joys that's passed away.

Our auld Scotch hearts ta'ks hameward flichts
When we hear your Scotch voice ring'in,
We feel at hame for twa short nichts,
While the auld Scotch sangs yer singin',

Ye gar us laugh till sides is sair,
And droons oor deepest sorrow,
Ye sing o' love an' lasses fair,
An' tell a guid Scotch story.

Auld Scotia's poets the sangs did mak',
Tho' auld still guid an' glorious,
An' ye are gifted wi' the knack
To sing them rale victorious.

Come, Scotia's hero singer, come!
An' bring yer bairn'ies wi' ye,
For your ain sake, for Scotia some,
A bumper house weel gie ye.

Lang may ye sing the sangs o' hame,
An' tell a guid Scotch story,
May naught but death eclipse your fame
Or dim your world-wide glory.

Smith, Nov. 5th, 1881.

CAMPBELLFORD.

DAMAGED BY FIRE.—The Herald says that the dwelling house of Mr. Thomas Dunk, a frame building near the saw mill, took fire on Saturday morning last, between 8 and 9 o'clock, but was saved from destruction by the efforts of the fire brigade, and those who were early on the spot before the bell was tolled. The house being near the river, a plentiful supply of water was at the command of the firemen, and the engine was made to do good service. Most of the furniture was removed before the flames were extinguished, but in a damaged condition both from fire and water. The upper part of the building was thoroughly scorched, and much of it destroyed. The fire had its origin in a quantity of wearing apparel which was placed near the stove-pipes to dry, upstairs.

NOT LARGE ENOUGH.—The Railway Station here, is found to be inadequate for the business done, both as to its size and location, and it may not be long before a new and improved building will be erected, in which case the present building will be used as a storage room for freight. Should a new station house be built, it will probably be located a short distance east of the present one, near Rathburn & Son's office. The road which wiseacres prophesied would not pay for the oil necessary for the cars, is now the medium for a great and growing traffic, and bids fair to become the line for transportation of western freight. So may it be.

FOR THE FACTORY.—Three large and heavy water wheels for the new woollen mills, arrived by G. J. Railway, last week. They were manufactured in Montreal, and weigh thirteen tons each. The wheel itself weighs seven tons, and the case or iron frame in which it revolves, six tons. One of the former was transferred from the car to a truck on Saturday last, but before the team had reached the road, the wheels of the conveyance sank down nearly to the hubs in the soft soil near the track. Further advancement was postponed two days later.

FELL IN A WELL.—A cow belonging to Mr. W. H. Castiday, fell into a well on the premises of Mr. R. Waller, at an early hour on Sunday Morning last. She landed about nine feet below the surface, but fortunately for both animal and owner, there was no water in the well. Eight or ten men with the aid of a stone lifting machine, raised her up out of the prison without injury.

FENELON FALLS.

ACCIDENT.—The Gazette says that on Saturday evening last Mr. A. A. McDonald of this village met with a painful accident in a very singular manner. Mr. E. Fitzgerald, druggist, has in his back shop a camp chair which is constructed of light wooden frames fastened together with belts in such a manner that it can be folded up for carriage or to be put away, and when in use is held up by one frame catching in notches cut in another. A strip of carpet forms the seat and back, and the chair being a very comfortable one to recline in, as well as a novelty, almost every person who sees it is tempted to try how it works. On Saturday evening it unfortunately happened not to be securely fixed, and when Mr. McDonald sat down in it the supporting frame slipped from the notches spoken of and the chair collapsed. At the instant Mr. McDonald's right hand was grasping the edge of the seat, and the point of the third finger being caught between two of the frames, (which shut together like a pair of shears,) the bone was broken and the flesh terribly lacerated. Dr. Bryson, who was entering the store when the accident happened, replaced the finger nail and torn flesh and applied a bandage, but the hurt was so exceedingly painful that for more than forty-eight hours Mr. McDonald could get no rest by day nor sleep by night. On Wednesday he enjoyed comparative ease, and told us that his finger appeared to be healing as rapidly as could be expected, but it probably will always retain the marks of the unmerciful squeeze to which it was subjected.

AN ESTABLISHED REMEDY.—Brown's Bronchial Troches" are widely known as an established remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, and other troubles of the Throat and Lungs.

THERE is a rumour that the Board of Customs Appraisers are to be abolished, and a prominent member of the board appointed Assistant Commissioner of Customs.

THE HEAD AND STOMACH.—When the head aches the stomach is, almost invariably, the cause. A single dose of Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills will relieve the former though purifying the latter, and restoring its tone. These great cathartics are sold everywhere. They never fail! Try them.

The expenditure of brain power too early or too severely in children often results in physical debility; the use of Fellow's Hypophosphites exerts a singularly happy effect in such cases.

TONIC.—Every one, at times, feels the necessity of some restoratives of the vital powers, depressed by mental or bodily exhaustion. In such conditions, let every one, instead of flying to the alcoholic or medicinal stimulants, which must be followed by depression equal to their excitement, reinvigorate his deranged system by the natural tonic elements of the Peruvian Syrup. Sold by all druggists.

THE saying of M. de Tocqueville that Frenchmen do not make good colonists, is not strickly borne out. The Province of Quebec affords a living contradiction of it. By and bye fresh experiments are to be tried in the North-west, under the direction of the Marquis de Bassano, who expresses the hope that in course of time a large French population will be settled there. As yet, however, the plans are incomplete.

FOR DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. T. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND.—A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease. More particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.—2

TALMAGE says about newspapers:—"Do not take the idea so prevalent that when a man can do nothing else he can edit a newspaper. If you cannot climb the hill back of your house, you had better not try the sides of the Matterhorn; if you cannot navigate a sloop up the North River you had better not try to engineer the Great Eastern over to Liverpool. To publish a newspaper requires the skill, the precision, the vigilance, the strategy, the boldness of a commander-in-chief; to edit a newspaper one needs to be a statesman, an essayist, a geographer, a statistician, and so far as all acquisition is concerned, encyclopœdic. To man and to propel a newspaper requires more qualities than any other business on earth."

MISS NELLIE'S CHOICE.

The Elopement of a Young Lady of Chautauqua County, N. Y.

BUFFALO, Nov. 4.—Forestville, Chautauqua County, was startled yesterday by a report that Miss Nellie Ricord, the daughter of a prominent and well-known lawyer of that place, Mr. John G. Ricord, had been married to and eloped with Mr. Dell Dye, a young man well-known in Forestville. Inquiry confirmed the truth of the report, and the news spread as only such news can spread in a country town. Miss Nellie was to have been married this evening to her father's law partner, Mr. Warren Hooker, a well-to-do and much respected gentleman, about six years her senior. Invitations had been out for some time, and the brides trousseau had been delivered, and all arrangements for the happy event completed, when the elopement took place. All the parties concerned move in the highest circles.

Brutal Assault.

BRACEBRIDGE, Nov. 4.—On last Thursday evening while Mr. W. Neilly, head teacher of the Public School, was standing in the post-office, with his back to the door, Mr. Thomas M. Bowerman, Clerk of the Division Court, entered, and without saying a word dealt him a blow from behind with a heavy walking stick, cutting his head open to the skull. Bowerman was immediately arrested, and yesterday committed to Barrie gaol to await his trial, the Magistrate refusing bail. The teacher's having punished Mr. Bowerman's boy is the alleged cause of the assault.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by [illegible] Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LIVER COMPLAINTS.
DR. KING'S DANDELION & QUININE LIVER PILLS (without Mercury.)
THE BEST REMEDY FOR BILLIOUSNESS, STOMACH DERANGEMENT, FLATULENCE, PAINS BETWEEN THE SHOULDERS, BAD APPETITE, INDIGESTION, ACIDITY, HEAD-ACHE, HEARTBURN, and all other symptoms of disordered liver and dyspepsia. Acknowledged by many eminent surgeons to be the safest and mildest pills for every constitution.
In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.
Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain between the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

Daily Evening Review

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1881.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

No. 1 Company.

Members will please bear in mind the drill this evening, at 7.30. Several recruits have already joined and more are still wanted. The Snowshoe Club will also be reorganized soon.

Journalistic.

We have received the Daily International, published at Emerson Manitoba. It is an exceedingly neat five column folio, well got up and filled with news. The advertising patronage is good. We wish our new contemporary unlimited success.

Another Wet Saturday.

Following the lead of the five Saturdays of last month, which were all wet, the first Saturday of this month had to follow suit and was wet and miserable, injuring business to a great extent. We can only hope for better luck next time.

The Port Hope Elevator.

The News says that it is stated that an addition will be made to the Midland elevator at Port Hope at the close of the present season, so as to double the capacity of the building. Frequently this year the company have had to decline shipments that were being offered.

Connecting.

The Uxbridge Journal says: Mr. Wheeler commenced work last week on his contract for the construction of the loop line railway connecting the Toronto & Nipissing and Midland lines at Woodville Junction. He has a large staff of men at work, and is shoving operations ahead rapidly.

These Letter Boxes.

We understand that the Post Office Inspector is waiting until the iron lamposts in the south, west and north ends of the town are erected, before placing the letter boxes in position. If the posts had been up last week, as expected, the letter boxes would now be ready for use; as it does not take long to attend to them.

Still Quiet.

The presence of the special police officers on the streets exerts a very beneficial effect, and the rowdyism which formerly disgraced our town every Saturday night is almost unknown. Four or five young men, who ought to know better, separated on Sunday night on George street, by yelling at the top of their voices and going different directions. Names next time.

Free Fight.

A free fight took place at the corner of George and Hunter Streets on Saturday evening, shortly before six o'clock. One man is said to have thrashed two others and put them to flight. The fight lasted only a short time, but drew a large crowd, who did not disperse for some time after the row was through. No arrests were made, but some of the contestants are known.

Well Pleased.

Our district exchanges almost without exception, appear to be well pleased with the commitment of Peggy Oakley as a lunatic. They seem to think that she should have been sent to some institution years ago, and we are inclined to agree with them. The police of this and neighboring towns will, no doubt, pass a vote of thanks to our worthy Police Magistrate for ridding them of one pest at least.

Guy Fawkes' Day.

Saturday, the fifth of November, the anniversary of the Gunpowder Plot, was not celebrated in Peterborough, nor has it been for years. On Tuesday evening, the regular meeting night of one of our Loyal Orange Lodges, a quiet social was given just to keep the affair in remembrance, Tea, speeches, songs, readings, etc., enabled those present to pass a very pleasant evening.

Rowdyism in Public Halls.

It would appear from the statements of our Port Hope contemporaries that Peterborough is not the only town that has entertainments in public halls disgraced by rowdyism of the worst kind. At a recent entertainment at Port Hope we read that at least twenty seats were broken by "gallery gods." That is going a little too far, and is somewhat worse than in our own town where the "gods" confine themselves to whistling, stamping and yelling.

Oysters! Oysters! Oysters!

Fresh oysters by the plate, raw, stewed or fried, at the St. James Hotel and Restaurant.

Debating Society.

A meeting of the Literary and Debating Society takes place this evening at the Mechanics' Institute building at 7.30 o'clock. Election of officers, etc.

Town Council Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Town Council takes place this evening at the Council Chamber at 7.30 o'clock. There is considerable business to transact and the meeting will probably be an animated one. This is also the regular meeting night of the Ashburnham Council.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

Football Notes.

The members of the football team are practising steadily for the match with the Trinity College School, Port Hope, on Wednesday next, on the Ashburnham ground. Both teams are in good trim, and a close and exciting game may be looked for. We hope to see a large attendance of spectators, both male and female, in order to show the boys that their efforts to introduce such healthy games are appreciated. We will publish the names and weights of the team to-morrow.

A match took place at Port Hope on Satuday last between the "Torontos" and the College team resulting in an easy victory for the former by two goals and five tries to nothing.

A match at Montreal on the same day (between the "Montreal" and "Britannia" clubs, was won by the latter by one touch down.

Lacrosse Notes.

The lacrosse club have obtained the use of the bowling alley in rear of the Murray street Roman Catholic School, and intend to fit it up in a first class manner as a club room and gymnasium, for the use of the members during the winter months. This is the best plan we know of to keep the boys together during the "off" season, and we hope that all will keep in good training to be prepared for a vigorous campaign next season.

A match took place at Port Hope on Friday last between the "Independents" of Bowmanville and the Port Hope club, resulting in a victory for the latter by three straight games in 14 minutes, 7 minutes and 30 minutes respectively. The Port Hope players are to be congratulated on their victory, as the club was only established late in the season this year.

Midland Matters.

The Chicago Tribune of a recent date says that every vessel captain that takes a load of grain to Midland returns to the port loud in praise of the courteous treatment received and the rapid facility with which their vessels are unloaded at that port. The last vessel to return from that port is the schr. Edward Blake, commanded by Capt. Brooks. He reports that the Blake was the first craft to have her grain taken out by steam shovels in use at that port under the superintendency of Mr. Pepelow, the superintendent of the elevator at Midland. The steam shovel used is known as the 'Irish-Yankee' shoveling-machine. Captain brooks reports that the grain in the Edward Blake was taken out and placed in the elevator as rapidly, if not more rapidly, than is done at either this port or Buffalo. Capt. Brooks, represents Midland harbour as one of the finest on fresh water, and says that the conduct of the harbour officials is of the most gentlemanly and courteous character, they doing everything in their power to facilitate the loading and quick departure of vessels trading at that port. There is no doubt that if the elevator people there continue their present facilities to unload, Midland will be a favorite place in the future for vesselmen to seek charters for.

Subjects for Debate.

About this season of the year debating societies are organized all over the country, and are sometimes in want of a subject for debate. The following list which appears in one of our exchanges will help them out of the dilemma, as it contains a wide range of subjects:—

"Will Free Trade with the United States be a benefit to Canada?

Which has done the most to civilize the world, the sword or the pen?

Is the present system of trial by jury the best means of attaining justice in civil causes?

Does machinery increase or lessen employment?

Are the Americans justifiable in taking up arms against Great Britain?

Does commerce aid or impede the progress of religious missions?

Has the Magistrate or clergyman the greater influence on society?

Is the prodigal or the miser the worse member of society?

Is the use of foreign commodities a benefit or an injury?

Are works of nature, without the aid of the Scriptures, sufficient to prove the existence of a Supreme Being?

Is love or anger the stronger passion?

Should the press have more restrictions than at present?

Ought parliamentary representatives to be bound by will of their constituents?

Is total abstinance or the moderate use of spirituous liquors the best method of abolishing intemperance?

Is there sufficient evidence from nature without the aid of the Scriptures to prove the existence of a future state or the immortality of the soul.

Is a colony more readily and beneficially settled by condesending the population or by dispersing it at once over the face of the country?

Will the seat of Government benefit Kingston?

Which is the happier state, married or single life?

Which exert the most influence on society, males or females?

Ought the mechanics to oppose the present system of teaching convicts trades at the Provincial Penitentiary?"

Bulk Oysters

By the pint or quart for sale at Carton's Fruit Store. d102

Another one in.

The Globe announces that the Whitby, Port Perry, and Lindsay will, it is said, join the Midland, Toronto and Ottawa, and Nipissing combination.

Temperance.

We are requested to announce that the Rev. John Shaw, M.A., Paster of the George Street Methodist Church, will deliver a temperance lecture in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday next. From Mr. Shaw's well known ability we predict a rich treat.

New Goods.

Use the Poland Metallic Hair Brush "for headache." British Plate Mirrors for ladies' toilet. Choice lot of those very desirable Gentlemens' Dressing Combs. TAYLOR & MACDONALD, Medical Hall, Corner of George and Hunter Streets.

A Parlor Social.

A Parlor Social under the auspices of the Ladie's Aid Society of the George Street Methodist Church is to be held at Mrs. Dumble's, McDonnell street, to-morrow, Tuesday night. The remembrance of the pleasant night under her roof last year will no doubt secure a full house on Tuesday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Ploughing Match.

We learn that all the perliminaries for the ploughing match, to take place to-morrow, have been arranged. The number of entries is now large, and more are expected. Thanks to the energy of the committee, liberal prizes will be offered in each class, and the competition promises to be very keen for each event. The match commences at 9 a.m. sharp, and takes place on the farm of Mr. John Tully, the same place where the recent county match took place.

The Weather.

The weather of Saturday was wet and dismal, but on Sunday it was fine and warm. To-day has been cloudy but rather warm withal. At present it looks exceedingly like rain, and if we mistake not, we will have a fall before many hours. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto by the Great North-Western Telegraph Company, at 10.30 a.m., are as follows:—Lakes—Fresh to strong southerly to easterly winds, cloudy mild weather with light rain in some localities.

Losses by Fire.

STRATFORD, Nov. 4.—About two o'clock this morning, the large mill belonging to W. Mowat, and worked by the Stratford Flour Milling Company, was totally consumed, with its contents. The first spread to the adjoining block, owned by J. J. Odbert, which was also completely gutted. Great damage was also done to the blocks owned by J. M. Fraser and John Gibson. The fire engine was on hand, but was very slow in getting to work, and great indignation is expressed on all hands at the general inefficiency of the fire department, and the tardy manner in which the work is done. Some 45 minutes elapsed before the engine got fairly to work, and the general opinion is that the fire should have been confined to the mill. This loss is estimated at $20,000, divided as follows:—Stratford Flour Milling Company, $16,000; insured for $10,000, as follows:—Western $4,100, London Association $3,500, Lancashire $1,000, Ætna $1,000, North British $1,000. J. J. Adbert, 18,000; insured as follows:—Ætna $2,000, Hartford $1,000. J. M. Frazer, $1,000 on damaged stock and rear of building; fully covered by insurance in several companies, names not known. John Gibson, $500 to stock and building; fully covered in several companies. G. G. Ewart, $200 to building; fully covered by insurance. M. Glass, cigarmaker, loses $700; a total loss, with no insurance. Miss Cashan, who occupied the first flat in Odbert's block, loses considerably by damage to furniture by removal; no insurance. The origin of the fire is a mystery; posaibly a defective flue. The mill was running by water and the only fire was in a stove in the office of the mill, which shut down at 6 p.m.

DR. CARSON'S STOMACH AND CONSTIPATION BITTERS, are rapidly taking the place of all other purgatives, including Pills, Powders, etc., There action is mild yet effectual and they are a certain cure for all bilious complaints. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

GET OUT OF DOORS.—The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle.—Christian Recorder.

SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of mpny to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

DOMINION AND PROVINCIAL POLITICS.

From our Montreal and Quebec despatches it would appear that the Local Government of Quebec was going to have an easy time of it in Quebec, in spite of Mr. Blake's confidence in the brilliant future of "Liberalism" in that province. Of course these pre-election predictions, as our Opposition friends know too well, often turn out disastrously; but the facts, so far, seem to be on the side of the Local Government of Quebec.—Mail Nov. 7.

We cannot but regret the persistency with which too many of our contemporaries mix up Dominion and Provincial politics. While there are undoubtedly Provincial as well as Dominion political issues, they are very largely, if not altogether as distinct and capable of separation from one another, as those involved in either a Dominion or Provincial election are from those involved in a Municipal campaign. For our own part, we are strongly impressed with the idea that any attempt to act upon the assumption that because a man supports Mr. Chapleau in Quebec, he must also support Sir John Macdonald at Ottawa, or vice-versa, is a mistake in the interests of party as well as of the country, and is to be avoided just in the same manner and for the same reasons that it is not desirable to make the church which a man attends, a reason for his supporting or opposing a political party. In entertaining this opinion, we do not concieve we are in any way belittling the standing of the Provincial Legislature—quite the reverse, inasmuch as it proves that we believe that they, as well as the large Legislature, have matters to deal with about which there is room for an honest difference of opinion, and that are of considerable importance to be fought out on their merits at the polls. Entertaining this opinion, we need scarcely say that we earnestly hope that no attempt will be made at the coming Provincial Conservative Convention to deal with Provincial as well as Dominion questions. Somebody must be the first to set the example in at least trying to keep the two distinct, and we should be glad to claim the honor for the Conservative party—leaving the honor with Mr. Blake, in this as in so many other things, of having preached one thing and practiced another.

CANADIAN TELEGRAMS.

PORT HOPE.

Special to the Review Nov. 8.

THE WIDOW of the late Thomas Dolly, whom it will be remembered died a short time ago under somewhat suspicious circumstances, was arrested on Sunday and taken to Cobourg gaol. She will be arranged on a charge of manslaughter. The warrant was issued by the county attorney.

PAISLEY.

Special to the Review, Nov. 8.

COLLECTOR CAVEN, of Stratford, and officer Craig, of Walkerton, on Monday night seized an illicit still in operation on the banks of the Saugeen river in this vicinity. It is not yet known who the parties are, though there is a strong suspicion.

AN ABATEMENT DEMANDED.

ATHLONE, Nov. 7.—A large meeting of tenants upon the estate of Sir John Ennis unanimously resolved to demand an abatement of rents. In the event of a refusal, they will apply to the Land Court. There are upwards of 5,000 tenants on the estate.

SUPPRESSION OF MEETINGS.

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—A circular has been issued to the police instructing them to immediately report any meeting supposed to be held for League purposes, though held ostensible for another object, with a view to arrest the participators. The Executive is considering what to do in regard to the Ladies' League.

A DENIAL.

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—Mr. Parnell writes that the report of the interview between him and two members of the Home Rule League on Saturday is almost wholly inaccurate and misleading.

ANGLO-AMERICAN RELATIONS.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Dr. Bradley, the new Dean, in his inaugural sermon in Westminster Abbey yesterday, laid great stress on the common inheritance in the Abbey which the citizens of the great Republic across the seas might claim could they forget divided counsels and unhappy memories. America had twice this year, he said, been drawn to the Mother Country by common griefs.

THE GRAIN TRADE.

LONDON Nov. 7.—The Times, replying to the arguments of the fair-traders drawn from the progress of the trade of America, points to the comparative statement as tending to show that trade of great Britain has increased even more wonderfully; that the increase in American exports is principally in articles such as grain, for which America has natural advantages, and to which she gives no protection. The Times estimates the money and trade loss to America through the decline of her shipping at £16,000,000 yearly, and considers that an increase of the severity of America competition with European agriculture is certain. The question whether it is wise to permit this dependence on a single foreign country is one which may force itself on the attention of public men.

MORE PROSECUTIONS.

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—Police stationed at the doors of the new office of the Ladies' League took down the names of all who entered, with a view to their prosecution. Despite the suppression of the Land League several local branches continue to meet secretly.

INTERVIEW WITH PARNELL.

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—Mr. Parnell was interviewed by two prominet members of the Home Rule League on Saturday. He said the recent judgments at Belfast agreed with his estimates that rents in Ulster should be reduced to Griffith's valuation. He believed the reductions in the south of Ireland would not be as large, and consequently would not satisfy the tenants. Any general reduction of rents to Griffith's valuation would, because of the extent to which the land is mortgaged, deprive the landlords of the means of living, and compel the Government to buy them out or compensate them. This would demonstrate the soundness of the views enunciated by the League. Mr. Parnell admitted the possibility of many tenants acting directly with the landlords.

THE STEAMER DISASTER.

LONDOD, Nov. 7.—Another boat containing 27 persons from the steamer Koenig der Nederlanden has been picked up, and the survivors landed at Dondra Head. Four boats with 129 persons are still missing. They have been a month on the Indian Ocean, and their provisions must be exhausted.

BRITISH EXPORTS.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The British Board of Trade returns for October show an increase in the value of exports of £2,539,201, and an increase in the value of imports of £4,871,253, compared with the same month last year.

LORD BYRON'S STATUE.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The statue of Lord Byron has been unveiled at Missolonghi, where he died. The ceremony was attended by great enthusiasm.

ANOTHER CONCESSION.

TUNIS, Nov. 7.-Negotiations are actively proceeding for the absolute cession of all territory north of the River Medjerda to France. The insurgents number fifty thousand fighting men.

THE GAMBETTA CABINET.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—M. Jules Ferry will probably be Minister of Public Instruction in the Gambetta Ministry; M. Challemel Lacour, Minister of the Interior; Gen. Level, Minister of War, and M. Leon Say, Minister of Finance. It is rumoured that Count St. Vallier, ambassador to Germany, will be recalled.

COMPREHENSIVE UNDERTAKING.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—At a meeting of the shareholders of the Union M. Bonton emphatically denied the report that the Union, was a Catholic organization which used the funds of convents and religious congregations for the purpose of Bourse speculations. Referring to the enormous rise in the shares of the company, he stated that it has not participated in the manœuvres that led to that result. The intention of the Union is to promote trade in Servia, to second the effort to retrieve the credit of Austria, and to develop the unworked resources of Brazil. Resolutions were passed to raise the capital from one hundred million francs to a hundred and fifty million.

ITALY AND AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, Nov. 7.—In the Hungarian Delegation Herr Von Kallay explained that King Humbert's journey to Vienna may be inferred to mean that Italy recognized the advantages of a rapprochement with Austria, who, on her side, had nothing to ask or fear from Italy. Count Andrassy expressed himself satisfied with the explanation. He said, particularly since the relation of Austria to Germany was so firmly established, he had no fear of an Irredenta agitation, which at most could only injure Italy.

AMERICAN.

AN INCORRECT RUMOR.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The Times Washington special says the story, that at a Cabinet meeting the President took Macveagh severely to task for not making proper preparations for the prosecution of the Guiteau case, is pronounced by a prominent members of the Cabinet to be wholly false.

IMPORTANT SURRENDER.

TUNIS, Nov. 8.—Some important tribes in the Tehoursouk district have agreed to submit to the French.

A GIGANTIC STRIKE.

HALLEY, England, Nov. 8.—The various towns of the Staffordshire Potteries are on the eve of a gigantic strike. The whole of the men connected with the operatives' association have resolved to cease work unless an advance of wages is granted. The strike will effect 50,000 employees. Yesterday the employers pledged themselves to refuse an advance.

THE FRENCH MILITARY.

PARIS, Nov. 8—In a discussion of the affairs of the chamber department yesterday, LeFaurie caused a profound sensation by declaring that the affective strength of the regiments was so reduced in some cases that they now mustered only a couple of hundred men, while several companies have dwindled down to nothing but a few officers and from seven to eight men, so that it is now difficult to form a guard of honor for the present chamber.

LEFROY TO SWING.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The trial of Lefroy for the murder of Gould closed to-day. The court room was densely crowded; a remarkable number of women were present. Lefroy looked very dejected. The Lord Chief Justice summing up the evidence for prosecution, which lasted from 3 to 4 hours, was strongly against the prisioner, and tended to throw discredit on the point on which the defence relied, that Lefroy had not pawned the pistol. He shewed his entire disbelief in the prisoner's assertion that a third party was in the car at the time of the murder. The prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to be hanged. After sentence was passed Lefroy protested his innocence.

AN AFRICAN WAR.

BONAMY, Africa, Nov. 8.—War has been declared between King Amakure and Willbard. Several sanguinary contests have already occured between both parties. The powerful chiefs Oko, Jimbo and Saja intend joining in the hostilities, the former siding with Willbard and the latter with King Amakure.

THE CANALS DOOMED.

VENICE, Nov. 8.—It is said the syndic and prefect at Venice having control of municipal affairs have determined to fill up the canals and convert them into streets. The gondolas are threatened with absolute extinction owing to the recent concession to a steamer company on the Grand Canal. Through this competition the gondoliers have been reduced to great poverty. It is stated that their masters have received thirty thousand francs as the price of their acquiescence in the changes.

PARDONED AND ARRESTED.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Jas. Tinte, formerly Secretary of the Mullingar Branch of the Land League, was discharged from Kilmainham gaol on Friday, and re-arrested to-day, supposed to be caused by violent speeches. There is much excitement.

AMERICAN.

HE DID'NT ESCAPE.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Nov. 8.—John Crawford, a burglar, while attempting to escape from the State Prison yesteaday, was shot dead by the guard.

EXAMINING GUITEAU.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The surgeons of the [illegible] House have visited the jail to examine Guiteau's physicial condition.

THE YANKEE NAVY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—It is stated that the report of the Minister advised the board that he could find only twenty war-ships in the navy adapted to active service, or worth rebuilding. It is said that the report recommends fifty new ships to be built of various classes. A majority of the board it is reported estimate that the entire cost of re-establishing the navy, according to the estimate, will cost $31,000,000.

NO FEMALE VOTERS.

SANFRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—The Washington Territory Legislative Council killed the Woman Suffrage Bill by five yeas to seven nays.

NO LIVES LOST.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—An investigation this morning by policemen and firemen showed that no lives were lost by the tenament fire last night.

UNREQUITED LOVE.

MARETTA, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Wm. Newking, known as a Chinese Missionary student in the preparatory department of Maretta College, suicided with chloroform last night; cause, disappointed in a love affair.

ON ELECTION DAY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Election day to-day, is being observed as a close holiday. All banks, exchanges, and down town offices are closed.

PEOPLE ARE BEGINNING to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa- Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

INDISPENSIBLE.—There are some simple remedies indispensible in every family. Among these, the experiences of years assures us, should be recorded Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. Both for internal and external application we have found it of great value; especially can we recommend it for colds, rheumatism, or fresh wounds and bruises.—Christian Era.

A VEXED CLERGYMAN.—Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easily can all this be avoided by using Dr. Kings new discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles given away at Taylor and Macdonald's.—2

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

TOWN COUNCIL MEETING

THE GAS CONTRACT AND A CHARITY MATTER OCCASION MUCH DISCUSSION.

The Building By-Law Again Broken—Finance and Fire, Water and Gas Matters—The Park Matter—Miscellaneous.

The regular monthly meeting of the Town Council took place at the Council Chamber on Monday evening.

Present, His Worship Mayor Smith in the chair, and Councillors Cahill, McNaughton, Douglas, Paterson, Kelly, Yelland, Rutherford, Menzies and Richardson.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From William Course, asking for remission of taxes for 1879.—Finance Committee.

From W. H. Ellis, asking for payment of an account for making estimates for waterworks some years ago.—Finance Committee.

From D. W. Dumble, asking for the payment of $14.71 railway damages due to Gideon Fitzgerald, and threatening an action in Chancery unless it was paid at once.—Finance Committee.

From the Treasurer, giving the receipts and expenditure for October.—Finance Committee.

From Mrs. Anglesay, asking for a crossing near her premises.—Street and Bridge Committee.

From Clement Gordon, asking for remission of taxes.—Finance Committee.

From Moses Rangie, asking to be relieved from the payment of water rates.—Finance Committee.

From John Cameron, asking for a culvert on Brock street.—Street and Bridge Committee, with power to act.

From George McCombs, asking permission to erect a shed inside of the fire limits.—Received.

From Joseph Pine, asking remission of taxes.—Finance Committee.

From Geo. Edmison, for Jno. Edmison, asking for a rebate of taxes on buildings on Water street, recently destroyed by fire.—Finance Committee.

ACCOUNTS.

Fire Brigade, (filling tank)	$ 7 00
A. Comstock (coffins, etc)	40 20
J. R. Stratton	112 00
Times	5 30

The first, third and fourth were ordered to be paid when certified, and the other was referred to the Finance Committee.

THAT WATER TAX.

Councillor McNaughton said that Moses Rangie had no right to pay water taxes, as he lived on Charlotte street.

The Clerk produced the contract and By-law relating to the collection of water rates, showing conclusively that Charlotte Street, from Water to George streets, was included, and the man referred to should pay water rates.

FINANCE REPORT.

Councillor Paterson, Chairman of the Finance Committee, read and submitted the following report:—

The Finance Committee beg leave to recommend the payment of the following accounts:—

All of which is respectfully submitted,
(Signed) W. Paterson, Jr.
Chairman.

Peterborough, Nov. 7, 1881.

Received and adopted.

FIRE, WATER AND GAS.

Councillor Rutherford, Chairman of the Fire, Water and Gas Committee, read the agreement proposed to be entered into between the town and the gas company. The speaker gave it as his opinion that the town should purchase the gas works, as they now paid $1,600 a year, representing 10% on $16,000, thus showing that they could easily purchase the works and pay for them in a few years. He also explained that there were a number of more advantages to the town in this contract than in the last, the principal of which were as follows:

The Fire, Water and Gas Committee beg leave to report:—

1st. That the contract with the gas company for lighting gas lamps extend for a period of five years, commencing on the first of December next.

That the Council by giving six months' notice may terminate the contract at the end of any one year.

2nd. All lamps to be lit before dark and to be kept burning until after the hour of twelve o'clock.

3rd. Six lamps to be kept lighted all night at the following places:—

One at the corner of Brock and George streets.

One at the corner of Hunter and George Streets.

One at the corner of Hunter and Water Streets.

One at the corner of McDonnel and George Streets.

One at the corner of Simcoe and George Streets.

4th. The company shall not be required to light the lamps during the nights in each lunar month, viz:—for seven nights before the full moon and one hight at full moon, and the two nights following, except, that in case any of the ten nights are clouded and dark, the lamps shall be lit as any other night.

5th. The company shall keep at their own expense, all repairs required to lamp posts and glass except as may maliciously and wilfully be broken.

6th. The price to be paid for each lamp shall be $20 per annum.

7th. In case the company fail to comply with the above conditions after they have been properly notified through the Town Clerk, the company shall pay to this corporation the sum of $10 for each and every night.

8th. It shall be the duty of the Chief Constable and his assistants to see that the above conditions are carried out, and in case of any failure to report the same to the Chairman of the Fire, Water and Gas Committee.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

1st. Your committee further recommend to the council the purchasing of the four suitable waterproof coats for the use of the branchmen, also four lanterns.

2nd. The purchasing of 200 feet of the "Merryweather" hose.

All of which is respectfully submitted,
(Signed) Arthur Rutherford,
Chairman.

Peterborough, Nov. 7, 1881.

Councillor McNaughton asked for information regarding the gas contracts in other places, wanting to know the price per lamp and how long they were kept lighted.

Councillor Rutherford said,

Toronto—$22.25; 10 hours.

Belleville—$20.00; outskirts, dark to two a.m., centre of town dark to four a.m.

Chatham—$25.00; dark of moon, until daylight, new moon, lit late and kept burning till day light.

St. Catharines—$22.50; Lit at dark and kept burning till day light.

Kingston—$13.00; From 1 and 1½ hours after sun set, extinguished at midnight.

Guelph—$22.50; Sundown to sunrise, except moonlight nights.

Cobourg—$20.00; Until 11 p.m.

Port Hope—$20.00; From dark to 12 when there is no moon.

London—$16.50; Lighted every night, moonlight excepted.

Hamilton—$18.00; The company shall not be required to light the lamps during eight nights in each lunar month, namely, for seven nights next before the full moon, and one night after a full moon, during all other nights the lamps shall be lit at sunset, and not extinguished before dawn, except for one week next after full moon, when they may be extinguished on the rising of the moon above the horizon.

Councillor McNaughton asked how much it cost per year to keep the lamps in repair?

The Clerk said about $40.

Councillor McNaughton wanted some particular hour mentioned in the contract, stating at what hour the lamps should be lighted.

Councillor Cahill thought a lamp should be lit at the corner of Charlotte and George streets all night. In fact he thought that several lamps were needed on Charlotte street for the convenience of travellers coming from the railway station.

Councillor Rutherford said the lamp at the corner of Water and Hunter streets at might be extinguished.

Councillor Cahill said the lamp in that locality was needed. He had no doubt the company would agree to his proposition.

Councillor Richardson did not see the necessity of keeping any of the lamps lit after 12 o'clock.

Councillor McNaughton said that trains came in last week on three occasions after 12 o'clock.

Councillor Chamberlain wanted the contract so worded that it could be cancelled by giving six months' notice. He saw but little difference in this contract from the former one. He would favor a one year contract.

Councillor Rutherford thought the contract this year was far more favorable to the town than the last one. Peterborough and Barrie were the only inland towns that had gas, and the latter town paid $25 per post.

Mr. J. Stevenson could say but little more than Mr. Rutherford had said. If Mr. Cahill would drop his opposition he would give orders that the lamp referred to should be lighted on any nights that the trains were late. The company had made great concessions this year and could not afford to do as they did in cities, where the gas takers were numerous, and the lamps closer together than here. The company had expended over $800 in mains during the present year to accommodate the town. The company had only paid two dividends. The company had replaced the old lamps with handsome new globe lamps. People found fault that the lamps were not lit in many instances, when malicious persons had extinguished them or the wind had blown them out. It now takes over two hours to put out all the lamps. The men commence first at the outskirts to extinguish the lamps, and by the time those in the centre of the town are extinguished it was two o'clock, almost daylight in summer.

Councillor Cahill thought the lamp on Charlotte street was required as well as any other in town.

Mr. Stevenson said if the lamp on McDonnel street was dropped, the one on Charlotte street would be lit.

Mr. Cahill's amendment was carried.

Mr. Stevenson said the company would try and fall in with the amendment, although it was hardly fair.

AN INDIGENT FRENCHMAN.

The Mayor said that Mr. Antoine Dubois was now keeping and had been keeping for the the last three months an indigent Frenchman, who was in the second stage of consumption, as reported by the town physician. He had seen the man and said he looked bad. Mr. Dubois had never received any money whatever from the man. The man had no friends, and it was not fair to ask Mr. Dubois to keep him.

Mr. Dubois declined to address the council, as he could not speak good English.

Councillors Douglas and McNaughton said it was not fair to ask Mr. Dubois to keep the man.

Councillor Yelland said there were no funds at the disposal of the Charity Committee.

The Clerk said that there were $23 to the credit of the Charity Committee.

Councillor Rutherford asked if the Town Physician had made a report?

The Mayor,—Only a verbal one. The doctor says he may live during the winter.

Councillor Richardson was opposed to keeping strangers, as we have enough of our own poor to look after during the winter.

Councillor McNaughton thought that Mr. Dubois should be recompensed for his trouble.

Councillor Menzies thought the man should be sent to the lower Province, to where he belonged. It would not cost much money.

After some further discussion, the matter was referred to the Charity Committee with power to act.

THE BUILDING BY LAW.

Councillor Yelland brought up the matter of Mr. Geo. McCombs, asking to be allowed to erect a shed inside of the fire limits. The speaker and Councillor McNaughton had visited the premises, and found that Mr. McCombs was building a shed that was not a shed in some respects, as it was simply a fence and a few loose boards to keep the water off the boxes while the horses were feeding. The case came before the Police Court, and was enlarged, awaiting the action of the council. Mr. McCombs proposed to erect a brick shed in the spring, and he was in favor of allowing him to go on if the risk was not increased more than at present proposed. Mr. McCombs was a very old citizen and deserved consideration.

Councillor Cahill,—And he keeps the only temperance house in town.

Councillor Yelland.—No. Mr. Cahill is wrong. Mr. Allen, also keeps a temperance house. The worthy Councillor knows all the other kinds of houses well, but is ignorant in some other matters. (Laughter.)

Councillor McNaughton was opposed to breaking the by-law and said the building by-law had been broken by a neighbor of Mr. McComb's, and nothing had been said about it.

Councillor Richardson was willing to allow Mr. McCombs to go on with the present work if that gentleman promised to put up a brick building in the spring.

Councillor Chamberlain was opposed to oppressing a poor man when this same by-law had been broken and twisted so often to suit rich men.

Councillor Yelland again spoke of the manner in which the by-law was broken time after time. He instanced two or three recent cases.

Councillor Menzies said the building by-law was systematically broken by citizens, and he did not see why Mr. McCombs could not have the same privileges as others. The mansard roofs on the principal streets were regular fire traps and would burn the town some day.

Councillor Cahill said that the by-law had been often broken, but by breaking it again they would not accomplish much. He thought the line should not be drawn in this case, but that Mr. McCombs be allowed to erect a good substantial shed that would be of some benefit to him. If it was run straight back from Mr. McCombs' building the risk would not be as great as before.

Councillor Rutherford said that the erection of mansard roofs was not prohibited by the town by-law as long as the shingles were laid in mortar. He agreed with Councillor Cahill that Mr. McCombs should be allowed to go on and build a good substantial shed at present.

Councillor Yelland was not satisfied to add the suggestion to his motion, as Mr. McCombs was satisfied with the shed he had referred to before.

Councillor Douglas said that Mr. McCombs should be allowed to erect buildings the same as his neighbors.

Councillor Yelland's motion was carried, allowing Mr. McCombs to go on in the way he had started.

INCREASED MARKET ACCOMMODATION.

Councillor Rutherford said that the business of the market had increased so much of late that it was a great inconvenience to the townspeople and others to have to walk around the weigh scales in muddy weather. The verandah should be extended.

Councillor Cahill said that Councillor Rutherford's remarks were all right, but they did not go far enough. There was room enough, but it was not used. The whole matter might be referred to a committee to report.

Councillor McNaughton had seen ladies compelled to walk in the mud last Saturday, the platform being taken up with produce, etc.

The matter was referred to the Market Committee.

THAT INDIGENT AGAIN.

Councillor Menzies wanted to give Mr. Dubois $10, and give the man a ticket to Montreal.

Councillor McNaughton thought that $10 was not enough.

Councillor Rutherford was astonished at Councillor McNaughton, the economist. It was establishing a bad precedent.

Councillor Richardson thought that Mr. Dubois should have looked after his own interests before he took the man in. He thought that $12 would be sufficient for Mr. Dubois.

Councillor Douglas agreed with the last speaker.

Councillor Paterson thought that the matter should be disposed of by the Charity Committee.

Councillor Cahill agreed with Councillor Richardson that $12 was sufficient.

Councillor Chamberlain said that it was a mere speculation on the part of Mr. Dubois. If money was granted in this case, where was the thing going to stop?

Councillor Richardson was willing to grant a small sum to Mr. Dubois.

It was finally agreed to give Mr. Dubois $10 and send the indigent man away from town.

OUR WORTHLESS CURS.

Councillor Chamberlain moved the first reading of a by-law to provide for licensing dogs and destroying them for not wearing the proper collars and tags.

The by-law was read a first time.

The committee then went into Committee of the Whole on the second reading, Councillor Richardson in the chair.

At the suggestion of the Mayor and Councillors Cahill and McNaughton, the by-law was referred to Messrs. Chamberlain, McNaughton, Menzies and Rutherford, as a special committee to report at the next meeting.

GASEOUS.

Moved by Councillor Menzies seconded by Councillor Richardson, That the matter of drawing the gas contract be referred to the Town Solicitor, with instructions to prepare it before the next meeting.—Carried.

AFTER THE FIRE BUGS.

Moved by Councillor Menzies, seconded by Councillor Richardson, That the Council offer a reward of $500 for the conviction and apprehension of the person or persons who set fire to the premises of Mr. Paterson & Son, on the 15th of October, and $500 for the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who set fire to the premises of Mr. Charles C[illegible], on the 16th of October last. And that [illegible]ward be advertised in the local papers.—

Council[illegible]Naughton objected to the amount [illegible] and thought some people would swear a[illegible]ything for $500. He raised a point of [illegible]

Councillor Menzies said it would not cost the town anything if the persons were not committed, and he felt that it may deter others from incendiarism. If they were committed it was worth many thousands. If the guilty person is not discovered the town will not have to pay anything.

Councillor Paterson said no more harm could be done to his firm.

Councillor McNaughton said he would withdraw his objection.

Councillor Richardson thought that it was worth thousands of dollars to find out the guilty persons.

POLICE PROTECTION.

The Mayor explained that in consequence of the 'complaints' of citizens, and paragraphs which had appeared in the papers, special policemen had been employed to go on duty on Saturday and other nights, and had been the cause of suppressing much of the rowdyism that has disgraced the town for some time past.

Moved by Councillor Chamberlain, seconded by Councillor Paterson,—That the Chief of Police report monthly on the number of specials employed by him and the amount paid for their services.—Carried.

BREAKING A BY-LAW.

Moved by Mr. Yelland, seconded by Mr. Douglas,—That P. C. McGhee withdraw proceedings against Mr. Geo. McCombs in regard to his shed.—Carried.

A NEW DRAIN.

Moved by Councillor Paterson, seconded by Councillor Cahill,—That the Clerk be instructed to ask the Monaghan Council to make a grant towards opening up the drain between the boundary line and Weller street.—Carried.

PETERBOROUGH'S PARK.

Moved by Councillor Paterson, seconded by Councillor Yelland,—That the Park Committee use their utmost endeavors to procure a suitable place for a town park, and report to this council at a future meeting, as soon as possible, and that Mr. Paterson be chairman.—Carried.

Councillor Rutherford at first favored selling the old burying ground, but now he was in favour of keeping it for a time, as it was growing in value all the time and would be worth double its present value.

Councillor Menzies suggested that the council purchase Idyl-Wild.

A NOTICE OF MOTION.

Moved by Councillor Paterson, seconded by Councillor Cahill,—That the petition of G. M. Roger, presented at the last meeting of this council, be granted, cost not to exceed $30.—Carried.

OUR FEVER BEERDER.

Councillor McNaughton drew the attention of the Council to Spaulding's Bay, and was understood to say the town owed to No. One Ward $12,000, but owing to the cries of "Question," "Order," and "Adjourn" from other members, who owing to the late hour did not like to take up the matter, the speaker dropped the subject.

The Council then adjourned for two weeks.

An Established Remedy.—Brown's Bronchial Troches" are widely known as an established remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, and other troubles of the Throat and Lungs.

Deserving of Praise.—Too much cannot be expressed in favor of that unsurpassed remedy for coughs, colds, asthma, croup, sore throat, and all lung complaints. If you suffer from neglected colds, try Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. The cost is trifling, only 25 cents.

Hagyard's Yellow Oil will be found invaluable for all purposes of a family liniment. DOCKS ON FIRE.

A Big Blaze—Half a Million Dollars' Worth of Property Destroyed.

HOBOKEN, Nov. 6.—This evening a fire broke out on the Eagle Steamship Dock, consuming property and merchandize estimated to be worth $500,000. The steamship Rialto, of the Wilson line, which was occupying the dock took fire in the rigging, but a fire tug towed her into the river and the flames were extinguished without much damage. The steamer Plymouth Rock, which had become exposed to the fire by the removal of the Rialto, and whose stern was on fire was next towed into the stream. The damage to her was slight. Three hay barges lying close by were destroyed. The dock, which was four hundred feet long, was packed with merchandise of every description, none of which was saved. The fire spread with such rapidity that it was almost impossible to tell where or how it originated. A large stonehouse, used by all the steamships companies whose vessels land at Hoboken, was on fire, but the flames were extinguished before material damage was done. It is claimed that the fire could have been controlled had the Hoboken fire department turned out promptly, but several companies last evening, for some grievance, turned their apparatus in to their houses tongue first, and were virtually disbanded at the time the fire broke out. In consequence of this the Mayor telegraphed to the New York and Jersey City fire departments for assistance, which was promptly rendered. When the Hoboken firemen found the fire was serious they appeared on the scene. The dock was owned by the Hoboken Dock Company, of Hamburg, and leased by the Wilson and Eagle steamship companies. Two full cargoes of merchandise, one just unloaded from the steamer Malto, the other in readiness for the National line steamer to sail in a few days for London and Liverpool, with the dock, were totally destroyed. Most of the merchandise, including a large quantity of cotton and steel rails owned by the New York Merchants' Dock Company, costing two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, was insured. Several lighters were also burned. The Rialto had a narrow escape, and but for the timely arrival of the tug would have been destroyed. Portions of her woodwork had ignited. The steamer Plymouth Rock was also in imminent danger and on fire in several places. The watchman had applied a small tin kerosene lamp attached to a pole to the gas on the dock, and almost instantly the cotton and oakum lying around were in a blaze. This is the only explanation given of the origin of the fire. The Hoboken firemen say the city authorities refused to furnish proper supplies to the department, and recently designated the engine houses as places of registration for voters, an action which the firemen protested against. It is said the chief of the department refused to order the men out until he received certain guarantees. These were given by the Mayor, and the engines reached the scene of the conflagration more than an hour after the first alarm was given.

SPORTING NEWS.

TRICKET AND HANLAN.

TORONTO, Nov. 7.—Edward Trickett and Edward Hanlan held another meeting in the Mail office on Saturday afternoon. The matter to be considered was the contents of the Australian's letter, published on Saturday morning, offering to row Hanlan on Creve Cœur lake for $2,000 a side on May 4th next. The proceedings were very short and business-like. Hanlan's attention was directed to the letter, and he was asked what he intended to do. He replied that he would not row on Creve Cœur lake, but that he would row Trickett in the spring either at Toronto or Barrie for $2,000 or $1,000 a side, and would give the Australian until Wednesday next to find the money. Trickett said he did not want to row on Toronto bay, but if he could find the money here he would not care. He thought Hanlan wanted to choke him off. Hanlan declared he was giving Trickett a fair chance, but the latter would not have it that way, and said he was not getting a ghost of a chance. Hanlan said his offer was final, and with a parting shot the long Australian, whose face betokened the anger that he felt, rose to go. "If I had backers on Barrie bay," he indignantly declared, "then Hanlan would want to row me somewhere else." With a good morning, echoed by the fidus achates, Harry Kelly, the Australian strode out of the room. Kelly leaves for England this week, but the Australian will winter in America in the hopes of yet being able to arrange a race with his old opponent. After they had left, Captain Mullett, who was an interested spectator of the scene at the meeting, expressed the opinion that Hanlan was in the right, and that if any gentleman present was in his place he would act in an exactly similar manner. Hanlan, who has a firm hope that the Australian will yet accept his terms, said if he has got to risk his money at St. Louis, Trickett's backer might just as well risk his here. If they thought so much of him, why shouldn't they do so? The question remained unanswered. If a race with Trickett should come off, it will not be until Hanlan has rowed Ross.

The New Brunswicker has changed his mind about going to England, and will now remain on this side of the Atlantic in order the better to be prepared to meet the champion. Hanlan says he will be prepared to meet all comers next summer, and is now ready to make all the matches offered. It will be his last season as an oarsman. That he may do himself justice, he will endeavor to relieve himself of the cares of business by letting his hotel, or, at any rate, farming out his bar.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT.

General Trade Activity not yet Resumed—Failures in the United States and Canada.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Bradstreet's says:—"The lines of transportation across the country have failed to free themselves entirely from the blockade during the past week. This has been due to the enormous increase in shipments. In spite, therefore, of the fact that general trade as a whole has not yet fully resumed the activity expected between now and the close of the season, the traffic of the country has borne the appearance of being in excess of that of any preceding week. The failures numbered 140, an increase of 19; Canada 5, an increase of 1."

A Bad Mix.

The foreman of a Montreal paper is in trouble. In making up his forms he mixed an article on Catholic advances in Africa with a receipt for making tomato catsup. As published the article reads: "The Roman Catholics claim to be making material advances in Africa, particularly in Algeria, where they have 185,000 adherents and a missionary society for central Africa. During the past three years they have obtained a firm footing in the interior of the continent, and have sent forth several missionaries in the equatorial regions. They are accustomed to begin their work by buying heathen children and educating them. The easiest and best way to prepare them is to first wipe them with a clean towel; then place them in dripping-pans and bake them until they are tender. Then you have no difficulty in rubbing them through a sieve, and will save time by not being obliged to cut them in slices and cook for several hours."

FROM ALL OVER.

"I WAS confined to my bed for four months," says Mr. Charles Lowe, 508 East Eighteenth street, New York, "with the rheumatism, and can say that the use of three bottles of St. Jacobs Oil made me a sound man. It is regarded here as the greatest remedy of the age."

IF it be true that the Russians will shortly occupy Merv, there will be in that fact a strong justification of the policy of Earl Beaconsfield's Government with respect to Afghanistan, and a correspondingly strong condemnation of the course pursued by Mr. Gladstone in withdrawing from Herat.

THE HEAD AND STOMACH.—When the head aches the stomach is, almost invariably, the cause. A single dose of Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills will relieve the former though purifying the latter, and restoring its tone. These great cathartics are sold everywhere. They never fail! Try them.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General sailed from Quebec at 10 a.m. on Saturday by the S.S. Sardinian. A number of spectators including the local Ministers, the Mayor and City Council and prominent militia officers of the district, were assembled on the wharf. "A" Battery received the governor with a salute, and the Lieutenant-Governor read an address, to which his Excellency formally replied, immediately after which he embarked.

KEEP THE FEET DRY.—This is the season of sloppy weather so productive of colds, and lung troubles; neglected cold or damp feet is a great source of these difficulties. Cure your cough with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Pleasant to take and always reliable.

ITALY is fairly supplied with newspapers. At the begining of the year it had 1,454 newspapers and periodicals, of which 149 were dalies. Milian has 210 journals; Rome 147; Naples 114; Florence 102. Of the daily papers 18 appear at Rome, 17 at Naples, 13 at Palermo, 12 at Milan, 9 at Florence, 6 at Turin, and 5 at Venice. On an average there is one journal to 10,281 of the population, and 8,000 readers to each journal. In 1836 there was only 185 periodicals in Italy, of which 110 were published in Rome.

No articles ever attained such unbounded popularity in so short a time as Burdock Blood Bitters, and that too during the existence of countless numbers of widely advertised bitters and blood purifiers. It is evident that this medicine begins its work at once, and leaves no desirable effect unattained.

THE Irish system of railways covers 2,570 miles, constructed at a cost of £34,000,000, against a mileage in Scotland of 2,907, the construction of which cost over £92,000,000. Notwithstanding the very much greater proportionate cost of Scotch Railways they yield fair dividends, while the Irish roads make no return to their shareholders. The yield of the former was for the past year seven millions, while the returns of the latter were only two and a half millions.

TONIC.—Every one, at times, feels the necessity of some restoratives of the vital powers, depressed by mental or bodily exhaustion. In such conditions, let every one, instead of flying to the alcoholic or medicinal stimulants, which must be followed by depression equal to their excitement, reinvigorate his deranged system by the natural tonic elements of the Peruvian Syrup. THERE lately died in England a man who h done more service to his country than thousands whose names are household words. This w Professor Postgate. Working as a boy in a grocer's shop, he became disgusted with the adulteration practised, and resolved when he got the chance, to try and arouse public opinion on the subject. This he was at length enabled to do through one of the members for Birmingham, and the recommendations of the select Parliamentary committee, now law, against adulteration were almost entirely based on Mr. Postgate's recommendations, which have done very much to secure the poor man erpecially the worth of his hard-earned money.

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND.—A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease. More particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.—2

REPLYING to some interpellations on the Tunisian policy in the French Chamber of Deputies on Monday, Mr. Ferry indignantly repelled the calumnies against M. Roustan, French Minister at Tunis. The Tunisian expedition, he said, was originally due to the necessity of protecting the Algerian frontier, and the same policy had been pursued by all former Governments. Moreover, the last Chamber approved the expedition and the treaty with the Bey. A French protectorate over the country was invitable. He denied that the expedition caused France to lose alliances or has disorganized her army. He urged the Chamber to do nothing that might compromise the interests of France or of the army. M. Amagat, of the Left, attacked the Ministry.

A Pretty Incident.

A pretty incident occurred at Lebanon, Ont., the other Sunday. Into the Methodist church flew a robin during service. Perching on the rail opposite the pulpit, it sang loudly when the people sang, was silent during prayer, but when the minister preached it chirped occasionally as if to encourage him. It remained until the congregation was formally dismissed, and then flew away. Another pretty incident will occur when the author of this yarn gets to the Celestial City and tries to square himself with St. Peter about it.—Indianapolis Journal.

ZOPESA.

(FROM BRAZIL.)

The New Compound, its wonderful affinity to the Digestive Apparatus and the Liver, increasing the dissolving juices, relieving almost instantly the dreadful results of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and the TORPID LIVER, makes Zopesa an every day necessity in every house.

It acts gently and speedily in Biliousness, Costiveness, Headache, Sick Headache, Distress after Eating, Wind on the Stomach, Heartburn, Pains in the Side and Back, Want of Appetite, Want of Energy, Low Spirits, Foul Stomach. It invigorates the Liver, carries off all surplus bile, regulates the Bowels, and gives tone to the whole system.

Cut this out and take it to your Druggist and get a 10 cent Sample, or a large bottle for 75 cents, and tell your neighbor about it.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully cure. Thus. It carries the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LIVER COMPLAINTS.

DR. KING'S DANDELION & QUININE LIVER PILLS (without Mercury.)
THE BEST REMEDY FOR BILLIOUSNESS, STOMACH DERANGEMENT, FLATULENCE, PAINS BETWEEN THE SHOULDERS, BAD APPETITE, INDIGESTION, ACIDITY, HEAD-ACHE, HEARTBURN, and all other symptoms of disordered liver and dyspepsia. Acknowledged by many eminent surgeons to be the safest and mildest pills for every constitution.
In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.
Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid inside only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

Daily Evening Review

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1881.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Personal.

Mr. F. C. Taylor, Mayor of Lindsay, is in town to-day.

No. 1. Company.

Twelve recruits were enrolled on Monday night and were put through a short course of squad drill. Several others have handed in their names, and by next drill night the roll will probably be full. Tuesday night of each week was selected as the time for drill. The next drill night will be the 15th.

A Run Off.

It now appears that the reports of the run off on the Grand Junction on Saturday evening, in the neighborhood of Stirling, were greatly exaggerated, and the damage done did not amount to much. As to how it occurred reports differ, but we are assured that the correct facts are as follows:—A number of section men were at work putting in new ties, and having removed several old ones had not time enough to replace them when the train came along. The weight of the train broke the rails and in consequence three cars left the track and were ditched, one box car loaded with eggs being badly broken up. No person was injured and the freight having been transhipped, the train arrived in Belleville several hours late.

The Caisse House.

That the above house is making rapid strides forward and securing a large share of the patronage of the travelling public is a fact that is well known to all of our readers. Mine Host Choat, has been making wonderful improvements of late, and as soon as all the contemplated changes are finished, the Caisse will rank for comfort and elegance with the leading hotels of the Dominion. Mr. Choate has secured the services of Mr. Hugh Mottashed, known for many years in connection with the Dafoe House, Belleville, as manager, and Hugh is bound to place the house in the first rank. He enters on his duties at once. He is thoroughly posted in the hotel business, knows every man on "the road" and is bound to create a first class "hum" in the hotel line.

The Football Team.

Below will be found the names and weights of the team that are to do battle for Peterborough to-morrow afternoon in the football match against Trinity College School, Port Hope. We hope to see a large attendance of spectators at this, the first match of the season. We wish the boys success:—

The Kennedys.

Regarding the Kennedys, who sing here next Friday and Monday evenings, the Port Hope Guide says that two hours of rich enjoyment was spent in the Music Hall last Wednesday night, with the Kennedy family. Mr. Kennedy has improved (if it were possible) in telling the history of his songs. His gestures and quaint expressions during the recitation were true to the life, and brought forth roars of laughter. The Misses Kennedy sang exceedingly well, especially Miss Helen, who has a most remarkable voice; in fact they all have very cultivated voices. The performance of Master John on the violin was very well executed, and Mr. Robert Kennedy is hard to beat. Twenty-one selections were given during the evening. The audience was large and appreciative; constant rounds of applause greeted each and every song, and encore after encore called, which Mr. Kennedy met by at once introducing the following piece on the programme—which quite satisfied the audience, Mr. Kennedy continues to be the life of the company; his singing is most remarkable for a person of his years. Any one who wishes to spend a pleasant evening should never fail to visit Kennedy whenever he appears.

The Weather.

The weather to-day is exceedingly fine and warm. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a. m. to-day, by the Great North-western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Strong winds and moderate gales from the south and west. Fair to cloudy, mild weather with showers in some localities, probably followed by cooler weather to-morrow.

Midland and Grand Junction Railways.

The traffic returns of the above railways, for the week ending Oct. 31st, 1881, were as follows:—

MIDLAND RAILWAY:—Passengers and mails, $4151,37; freight, $11147.36; total, $15298.73, as compared with $12183.92 for the corresponding week of 1880, being an increase of $3114.81; and the aggregate traffic to date is $345,529.49, being an increase of $53,501.56 over 1880.

GRAND JUNCTION RAILWAY:—Passengers and mails, $674.26; freight, $2323.22; Total, $2997.48; as compared with $2077,90 for the corresponding week of 1880, being an increase of $919,58; and the aggregate traffic from 1st June to date is $52,439.32, being an increase of $30,405.76 over 1880.

The Price of Gas.

We collect the following from information obtained by the Fire, Water and Gas Committee from the various towns and cities named. The table gives the price per 1,000 feet charged to private consumers for gas:

Toronto	$1 75
Belleville	2 50
Chatham	2 50
St. Catharines	2 50
Kingston	3 00
Guelph	3 00
Cobourg	3 50
Port Hope	3 00
London	1 50
Hamilton	2 00
Peterborough	3 00

The average price is about $2.57, showing that we pay slightly above it, paying the same as Port Hope and 50 cents less than Cobourg.

The Weather Prophets Again.

Moses Oates, the rival of Vennor among the weather prognosticators, has issued another weather manifesto for November, December, January and February. His forecasts for these months are:—November will be decidedly mild, and there will be an unusual number of unusually mild days, the mercury reaching its highest temperature of from 65 to 75 and 80 degrees according to locality. There will be two cold snaps in December, the first near the third of the month, the second near the fourteenth. The first part of January will be mild. There will be a little or no sleighing and rather frequent rains. In February there will be sleighing for a short time and rain and snow will fall in considerable quantities. March will be a somewhat cold and disagreeable month.

Magic's Wonders.

"While in London, England, a short time ago," said the professor, "our Oxford street waiter was made the victim of a practical joke. One morning, as this tonsorial artist sat reading his newspaper, he was startled by seeing a young man enter in a very excited manner, who throwing, rather than seating, himself in a chair, demanded a shave instanter. The barber, who was a ready fellow, at once set about obeying the commands of this excited and hurried guest. With a rapidity that surprised himself, he shaved the right side of his customer's face, and then immediately turned to the left That side he also shaved with cleanliness and despatch, but, judge of his surprise when his customer demanded to know in tones anything but pleased why he did not shave the right side. The poor bewildered barber was almost certain that he had done so, but perceived to his surprise that the side in question was covered with jet-black hair. Again he shaved it, but while he did so, to his surprise and horror, the hair was growing on the other side. Thus it continued for nearly an hour. While he shaved one side, he could actually see the hair growing on the other side. Terrified beyond expression, he stood motionless; hereupon the young man leaped from the chair, and, snatching the razor, drew it across his throat, and fell to the floor covered with blood. The barber flew into the street halooing "Murder!" at the top of his voice. A crowd soon gathered, and, with the affrighted barber, beheld the supposed corpse quietly arranging his tie before the mirror—turning very pleasantly, he paid the barber and departed. A theatrical gentleman among the lookers-on soon gave it out that it was Professor Hermann, the great American Magician. I went to my hotel and awoke next day to find myself the talk of London," concluded the Professor, for it was I who did it. I gave the poor barber fits. "Did you ever hear how I gave a friend of mine the snakes?" asked the Professor. On receiving an answer in the negative, he said: "A friend of mine, who was as great a drunkard as he was an actor, and that is saying a great deal, was one morning seen by me to enter a drinking saloon when he was almost on the verge of delirium-tremens, and knowing his horror of "snakes," as mania-a-potu is vulgarly called, I resolved to save him. I entered just as he raised a glass of whiskey to his lips, and rushing forward, I snatched the glass from his hand, crying at the same time: "Hold, S., until I take this fly out. Pretending to take the fly out, I held up a serpent. C. cried out: "My God! that is a snake!" "Not at all," said I; 'it is a simple house-fly. See? you are covered with them," saying which I approached, and from his sleeves, and hair, etc., I proceeded to pull snakes, protesting all the time that they were flies. 'They are snakes!" cried C. again, "My God! that is a snake; I tell you, Hermann, they are snakes!" "Nonsense," said I, 'they are but flies." "Then," said he, 'I have the snakes myself!" and he rushed from the saloon. He was not seen for more than a week after; but when next seen he was sober, and has been so since." "Professor," asked the interviewer, "were you, who are so fond of surprising others, ever surprised yourself?" "Once," was the answer: "then the surprise was a very great and agreeable one, I assure you. It came about in this way: I was for a number of years a sufferer from cramps in my left side, immediately under the heart. I suffered regularly at the close of each performance, and very often was compelled to cancel engagements which I had made, owing to my inability to fill them, being postrated by cramps, and being in a very weak condition. I entertained very serious thoughts of giving up my profession and spending some years in travel, and would have done so, but for an attendant of mine, whose head I had cut off occasionally while preforming my wonderful decapitation act. The individual to whom I complained of the pains and the cramps in my side on one occassion said it was curious—that I, who could decapitate another and replace the head at will, ought to cure myself. I told him that the best doctors in Europe and America had failed. He laughed at me and, said he could cure me. That night he presented me with a bottle of St Jacobs Oil, the Great German Remedy, saying that its use would produce an effect more magical than I could readily beleive. I laughed at the idea of St. Jacobs Oil doing what baffled the greatest doctors, but said that I would try it, simply to convince him that trying it would do no good. That night on retiring, I rubbed my side with the Oil, and, sure enough, its good effects was instantainous—magical, in fact; I felt relief at once, I slept better that night than I had done for a long time before. Again in the morning I rubbed with the Oil, and at the close of the afternoon performance I noticed a great diminution of the painful cramps. Was I suprised? Well I was very much suprised, and I told my attendant so. In less than a week, and before I had finished using my third bottle, I was entirely and permanently cured. The effect of St. Jacob Oil was indeed magical, so much so that I could scarcely beleive my senses. I have never felt a cramp since—nor is there prophet, seer, soothsayer or magician who can preform such wonders as St. Jacobs Oil."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Different Sorts of Gold Finds.

HALIFAX, Nov. 5.—A rich find of gold has been made on the shores of Lake George, near Yarmouth, and the prospecting licenses covering upwards of a hundred acres have been taken out by Charles Annard, of this city, and R. Balfour Brown and David Cowan, of Yarmouth. Wm. Fulton, of Fort Ellice, Colchester, while ploughing his farm turned up a box two feet long, containing silver and gold, and weighing three hundred pounds. It is supposed to have been buried there by early French settlers.

Must say it is the nicest thing I ever used for the teeth and breath," says everyone having tried "TEABERRY," the new toilet gem. Get a 5 cent sample.

Oh, maden with grim teeth, avaunt!
Though fair you seem to look upon,
Because you don't use sozodont.
The sweetness of your mouth is gone;
Your breath is heavy, and, from this,
Your lips no more invite a kiss.

SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of mpny to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

J. HACKETT

Seems determined to do the BLACK CASHMERE TRADE. He keeps the largest and best selected stock of Black Cashmeres to be found in any retail store. This opinion is confirmed by the very large quantity sold daily.

—"Indeed I am in the waist two yards about; but I am now about no waste; I am about thrift."—Shakespeare.

The Ladies of Peterborough have found it to their advantage to buy their CORSETS at J. HACKETT'S, where they are saving from 25 to 40 cents a pair.

—"To most men experience is like the stem lights of a ship, which illumine only the track it has passed."—Coleridge.

Some dry goods men never profit by experience. Many of them go along in the old rut or groove, selling English made Cashmeres for French, but the public soon discover the fraud, and buy elsewhere. J. HACKETT'S BLACK CASHMERES are warranted French Make, and best dyes.

CANADIAN TELEGRAMS.

OTTAWA.

Special to the Review, Nov. 9.

IN A CERTAIN QUARTER of the city for a few days past a topic of engrossing interest to those acquainted with the facts has been furnished by the sudden downfall of a widow who has possessed an enviable reputation. The widow, who has lived for some months on Nicholas street, and who has for five years mourned the demise of her protector, has been of late receiving the attention of a party well known in social and military circles, and who is credited with being the author of her disgrace. A few days ago the woman gave birth to a child which she claims was removed to the residence of the parents of its alleged father. The residents, however, claim that this is not true, and are under the impression that a waif found the other day on the door step of a lower-town institution, is the off-spring of the unfortunate woman.

A TEMPERANCE SOCIETY has been formed in connection with St. John's church, and Sir Leonard Tilley has promised to deliver an address on the 22nd instant.

AT A MEETING of the city council the report of the deputation's interview with the Syndicate directors will be submitted.

THE OTTAWA CURLING CLUB has re-elected the Governor-General patron, and Col. Allen Gillmour, president for 1882.

THE HON. JAS. ARMSTRONG, C.M.G., Chief Justice of St. Lucia and Tobago, West Indies, and a member of the Legislative Council of these colonies arrived in town yesterday, and is a guest of his son-in-law, Mr. Sangevin, under secretary of state. Chief Justice Armstrong has just returned from England.

THE OTTAWA FOOT BALL CLUB have abandoned the proposed trip to Montreal on Saturday.

THIS BEING THE FORTY-SECOND birth day of the Prince of Wales, flags are flying from the Departmental buildings.

AT THE ASSIZE COURT to-day, the trial of Dunn and Kehoe for murder is being proceeded with.

A VEXED CLERGYMAN.—Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easily can all this be avoided by using Dr. Kings new discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles given away at Taylor and Macdonald's.—2

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

THAT 2ND MANIFESTO.

DUBLIN, Nov. 9.—There were only thirty persons present at the Home Rule meeting at which the manifesto was promulgated.

MORE ARRESTS.

Several more suspects were arrested on Tuesday.

OCTOBER'S OUTRAGES.

DUBLIN, Nov. 9.—Forty-nine outrages are reported as having been committed during October.

REDUCING RENT.

LIMERICK, Nov. 9.—At the first sitting of the Land Commission here 200 claims for reduction of rent were presented.

THE BIG MEETING.

DUBLIN, Nov. 9.—At the Home Rule meeting, D. Sullivan, a brother of A. M. Sullivan, moved that the manifesto be the regulation throughout Europe, America and Australia. Detectives watched those who attended the meeting.

ARCHBISHOP McCABE.

The arms on the pillars of Archbishop McCabe's house have been broken. It is supposed on account of the Archbishop's recent pastorial.

BISMARCK RESIGNS.

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—The news rapidly spread that Bismarck had resigned, as he says there is no way of remaining at the head of a government which he practically cannot control. The Conservatives are determined to vote for Socialists rather than Progessists.

THE LORD MAYOR'S SHOW.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—To-day is devoted to the Lord Mayor's show. Business is generally suspended.

AMERICAN.

THE REPUBLICANS LEAD.

HARTFORD, Conn. Nov. 9.—The House Islands Republicans, 149; Democrats, 9; Greenbackers, 1. The Republican majority in the Senate is 10.

REDEEMED.

PERU, Nov. 9.—The Republicans carry the city for the first time in several years.

SPREAD ALL OVER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Herald says it is probable that the change in the political complection of the State is due to the Democratic gains which are spread all over the country counties, so large in their aggregate that they overpower the Government in the great Republican centres in New York and Brooklyn.

REPUBLICAN LOSSES.

The Sun says it looks like a general destruction of the Republican party in this state. Throughout the State the fight between Stalwarts and Half-breds told greatly against the Republican party.

PURSELL'S MAJORITY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Herald makes Pursell's Democratic net majority 5,120.

A DEMOCRATIC GAIN.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 9.—Returns from nearly one third of the state give Daniel a majority of 6,563. The Democrats claim a gain of nine members in the legislature.

LOWERY ELECTED.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 9.—Lowery's majority for governor is from 15,000 to 20,000.

REPUBLICAN WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 9.—The Republican ticket is elected by three thousand with a possible loss of the state treasury.

NEW YORK STATE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Tribune says that the Republican party has sustained a loss in New York, and has succeeded in every other important election where it had any reason to hope for success. In this state the election involves no office of vital importance politically, nor does it indicate any change in public opinion in favor of the Democratic party, as is manifested by the work of those who pretend to be special friends of the President, and they may be left to explain and justify it.

ANOTHER TENEMENT HORROR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—This morning a three story tenement corner, on south Fifth Avenue and Grand Streets, fell in, burying the occupants. The fire department were immediately summoned, and, with the assistance of citizens, thus far have extricated five victims from the debris. Two are dead and the others are seriously injured. It is not known how many were in the building. The debris is being removed with speed.

WIDESPREAD DEFEAT.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The Republicans elected the clerk of the county council and one of the five county commisioners. Democrats elected three and one is still in doubt. The defeat of the Republican Commissioners was unexpected.

DEMOCRATIC MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 9.—The Democrats yesterday elected the State Comptroller and carried both Houses of the Legislature.

DENVER THE CAPITAL.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 9.—The Republicans claim a majority for Mayor. The supporters of the peoples' ticket concede a hundred majority. The returns from other parts of the State indicate that Denver is selected as the permanent capital.

A BRILLIANT VICTORY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The World says tt the Democratic party has been notified tha there is nothing whatever to gain from Truckling to the worst element in it. It has won the most brilliant and complete victory that it has obtained in the Empire State for ten years.

READJUSTERS CONFIDENT.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 9.—The Democrats claim that they have gained five more members of the Legislature and lost one, making a net gain thus far of 13, which gives them a majority of 3 on a point ballot. The readjusters are confident that their state ticket is elected, and claim a good working majority on a point ballot of their legislature.

AT ALBANY.

ALBANY, Nov. 9.—The Argus editors at noon claim that the Democratic state ticket is elected by 2,000 majority. Though Carr may be elected, they say the Senate is a tie and the assembly in doubt. Evening Journal editors say the Senate is a tie and the assembly has two Republican majority. They claim the election of Carr, but doubt the 2,000 majority, and consider the remainder of the Republican ticket, except Husted, is probably elected.

THE FALLEN BUILDING.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The tenement building which fell was owned by O'Brien who kept a saloon on the ground floor two years ago, and an extension was made without strengthening the foundations. This undoubtedly was too much weight for the week understructure. Up to 11 o'clock the dead bodies of the following persons were recovered: Mrs. Frances Knaupp, and son, of Mrs. Jno. Rudalf, and two others whose names are unknown. It is reported that the building had been condemned some time ago.

TERRIBLE TYPHOON.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—The superior of the Missions Etrangeres in this city has received a despatch from Hong-Long to-day announcing that a terribly disasterous typhoon has ravaged western Tonquin. Two hundred churches, thirty-four presbyteries and colleges, and two thousand houses have been reduced to ruins. Sixty thousand Christians have lost all they possess. The suffering is frightful.

CUBA'S GOVERNOR.

MADRID, Nov. 8.—General Pendergast embarked at Cadiz on the mail steamer leaving Havana on Nov 10th. With the new Governor-General of Cuba goes with his wife, the Marchioness de Lavictoria de la Junas, one of the most amiable ladies in the Spanish Court. Like her husband, she is a capital linguist. She is also a good musician, and was recently honoured with the decoration of the order of Maria Lousa, specially reserved for princesses of the royal blood and noble ladies in Spain. General Prendergast is a tall, strongly built, military-looking man about fifty-five yerrs old with a pleasant, open countance and amiable manner. He is always temperate in speech or conversation, but quickly reveals his liberal and concilatory views on politics at home and on colonial government. He believes in the feasability of a policy of assimilation, subject to a few restrictions, arising out of the pecular conditions of the colony.

THE GAMBETTA CABINET.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—A personal friend of M. Gambetta, who breakfasted with him this morning, says in regard to the composition of the next Cabinet that Gambetta is still uncertain whether he will assume the premiership without special duties. M. Challemel Lacour will probably be minister to the Interior, and M. de Freycinet will be offered the portfolio of Foreign Affairs. M. Gambetta has no idea whatever as to whom he will entrust with the Ministry of War.

AMERICAN.

ELECTION TROUBLES.

MERIDIAN, Miss., Nov. 8.—Four whites were killed and two seriously wounded by negroes to-day at Marion station. The negroes opened fire on the whites at the polls while the election was going on. The whites had no arms to defend themselves, and consequently the negroes were unhurt. The sheriff with a posse found a hundred negroes barricaded in the house of their leader, Ed. Vance, and were fired on by the negroes. Armed men have gone from here to assist the sheriff.

LATER.—The sheriff's pose attacked the negroes barricaded in Vance's house, killing John Vance and wounding Ed. Vance, jr. Old Vance and forty negroes are retreating to the woods. A. G. Warren, of the sheriff's posse, was killed and several others were wounded.

BIDDULPH

Arrest of the Amateur Detective West—The Donnellys' Trial.

LONDON Nov. 7.—On Saturday afternoon County Constable Shoebottom visited Lucan and arrested West, the amateur detective, upon a warrant issued by Squire Hannah charging him with stealing a rifle from the armoury about the first of April last. West returned to Lucan upon reading the announcement that he had been granted immunity from arrest, and was much surprised when arrested. He was taken before Squire McIllargy and gave his own recognizance to appear on Thursday next at London to answer to the charge. The arrest may give rise to a question of the right of the Ontario Government to guarantee immunity from arrest or prosecution other than so far as the Government taking the initiative is concerned. The arms are owned by the Dominion Government, and it is asserted that the Government officers in whose charge they were at the time of the theft are not bound by the Ontario Government's assurance.

THE DONNELLYS' TRIAL.

The trial of William and Robert Donnelly on the charge of incendiaryism will come up before Judge Elliot to-morrow forenoon, at the County Hall, commencing at ten o'clock. The witnesses will be examined for the defence, which will be conducted by Mr. Ed. Meredith.

PORT HOPE.

THE LATE ROBBERIES.—The Guide says that it seems that the robberies committed in Port Hope during the past summer were done by a man named Chas. Thompson alias Finegan. The first of the series by the above villian in this vicinity was the store of Skitch and Sons, clothiers, some time in the latter part of August; then followed Burns' boot and shoe store, Whitby, followed by robbing Mr. Russell's boot and shoe store here on the 17th September; then Mr. Hooper, Newcastles, was robbed of clothing, &c.; the same villian next robbed a farmer in the township of Darlington of $300 in money; next in order was the boot and shoe store of Mr. Saunders, in Whitby. The scoundrel was finally arrested by the Chief Constable of Oshawa, and part of the goods stolen from Saunders were found in his possession. He was arraigned for the robbery of Saunders at the late assizes in Whitby and pleaded guilty; was tried for the robbery of Burns' store and the farmer and found guilty in both cases. The Judge sentenced the scamp to seven years in the penitentiary. For the present we leave him there.

IS IT FAIR PLAY?

The following letter was forwarded to the editor of the Globe from Peterborough on the day it is dated, and a copy of the same was forwarded to the editor of the Mail on the 3rd inst., and neither of these journals have, up to the time of writing, (Wednesday the 9th,) seen fit to give it a place in their columns :—

To the Editor of the Globe.

Sir,—Knowing by observation that it is contrary to your sense of fair-play to permit those differing from either your opinions or statement of facts, a fair hearing in your columns, I cannot say that I am surprised at the treatment which you have thought proper to accord to the brief communication which I ventured to address to you on the 19th inst., with regard to some of the statements contained in an article on "The Provincial and Toronto" in your previous Monday's issue. Happily the Globe is not the only medium through which the public can be reached, as if it were, it would not only be useless for me to pen this, but impossible for any one questioning the correctness of either your facts or opinions to make themselves heard. As it is, however, I feel rather encouraged than discouraged by the treatment which my letter received at your hands in the article on "Toronto and the Provincial" published in your issue of the 27th inst. Had the facts I submitted and the question I asked been as easily disposed of as you would have your readers believe, we have evidence in the promptness with which room can be found in the Globe for anything written in the interests of "Canada's Great Fair," that my letter would not have been held under consideration for a week, and then presented in the garbled form in which it appeared in your last named article.

In addition to giving you the amount paid in prizes and for expenses in 1878 I called your attention to the fact that while the gross receipts on exhibition account that year, amounted to $22,570.21, the association paid for :

Prizes	$15521 00
Fodder	1004 00
Gate Keepers	825 00
Judges	1315 00
City of Toronto	4000 00
Making a total of	$22,665 00

or nearly $100 more for these five items than the gross receipts, and, I think not unfairly, asked you to point out how, with these facts before you, you could make out that the Provincial Association still owed the City of Toronto some four or five thousand dollars on account of the exhibition of 1878. Well sir, for reasons best known to yourself, you did not deem it expedient to place before your readers all my figures, but instead picked out the two items which suited your purpose best, and after so culling them let us examine your reply to my question.

You say (I won't garble your answer): "The explanation is this :—In 1879, 1880 and 1881 the Toronto Exhibition was conducted by the local association. The financial results of the two first named years were that the sum of $25,672.99 was cleared over and above the expenses of the exhibition and the prize lists. In 1881 there was a cash surplus of receipts, over expenditure amounting to $1,576.30 making a total sum earned in the three years and applicable to the extinguishment of debt $27,249.29—an average of more than $9,000 a year. The presumption is that if the exhibition of 1878 had been conducted by the Association it would have yielded an equally large surplus. Doubtless the surplus of 1881 would have been much larger had it not been for the prevalence during the entire period of the axhibition, of bush fires, which made farmers afraid to leave their homes."

There Sir, is your explanation of how the Provincial owes, in your opinion, your city some four or five thousand dollars, and I venture to think that before I get through I shall be able to show your readers, if you permit them to see this letter, that however much the farmers were afraid to leave their homes last Setember, you are not "afraid" to presume upon their supposed ignorance of the facts to which I propose to call your and their attention. You say that "the financial results of the two first named years were that the sum of $25,672.99, was cleared. Pray where did you find that out! I have before me the reports of the Industrial Exhibition Association for 1879, and 1880, and I can't find such a result there. I will however, tell you what I do find : I find in 1879's statement of Assets and Liabilities, the "amount to credit of capital account, being balance over liabilities" set down at your sum for the two years, to a cent, namely, at $25,672.99, and this being the case, I think I may assume that it is to this sum that you refer. If so, then you are guilty, either through ignorance, or because it would have made your previous estimate too small by about $1600 per annum, (and you must always be right under any circumstances) of understating the earnings of your Industrial, because the same item in the report of 1880, on the same balance sheet, is set down at $30,284.20, which, with this year's surplus of $1,575.30, brings the total up to $31,860.50, or equal to an average for the three years of $10,620. So that according to this method of figuring the Provincial owes Toronto, not four or five thousand, but $6,620 on account of 1878. But, is this an honest way of stating the case? Does it really tell the whole truth? Not by any means. Turning to the reports of the Industrial we find among its receipts such items as the following :—

City Council	$5,000.00
County Council of York	2,000.00
Net amount of subscription rec'd	13,259.65
Electoral Dis. Agricult'al Society	400.00
Total in 1879	$20,659.65
and in 1880 we find "subscriptions"	1,575.00
and in 1881 we find "subscriptions"	633.00
Total outside rec'pts during 3 yrs	$22,887.65

Now sir, dare you or any one else openly and above board claim one single cent of this $22,887.65 as earned by the Association in the sense in which you use the word in the extract quoted from your article. Why sir, the Provincial Association might just as well and as honestly claim that they earned the Government grant which they receive. Well then, this being the case the nett savings of these three years as set forth above must be reduced by this amount, leaving the honest earnings of the Industrial for these three years, $8,972.85 or an average of less than $3,000 per annum, and the "presumption" being "that if the exhibition of 1878 had been conducted by the (Toronto) Association, it would have yielded" the same amount, it is clear that the Council of the Association granted to the city of Toronto in 1878 a $1,000 more than was their due.

Then sir, you feel it necessary to excuse the smallness of the surplus of 1881 by reminding your readers that "the prevalence during the period of the exhibition of bush fires," reduced the attendance, and consequently the receipts. It also reminds me that in 1879 (to quote the words of the Industrial's report,) "the Association was fortunate in having the presence, at the opening of the exhibition, and on several subsequent occasions, of His Excellency the Governor General and Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise, and there is no doubt that a knowledge of the fact that the Exhibition was to be under the immediate patronage of their excellencies was an incentive to many even from very long distances to visit it. The exhibitors also experienced much pleasure from being afforded an opportunity to explain to their excellencies the nature and quality of the various goods, &c., manufactured by them" while we are also told that the "trials of speed, "the display of horsemanship by ladies," the games of school children, and the "glass hen" were features which attracted considerable attention—and yet, with all these special attractions, the honest earnings of 1879 only netted some $5,000.

Then in 1880, notwithstanding "the finest display ever made in the city of Toronto" by the Oddfellows, Caledonian games, the dog show, bicycle races, and in fact everything calculated to draw a crowd except the greased pole and pig, and notwithstanding the collection of $5,042 for entrance fees and space charges for which the Provincial makes little or no corresponding charges, the exhibition of 1880 only netted out of honest earnings between three and four thousand dollars. While those of 1881 have droped down to less than $1,000.

A good deal has been said about the costlyness of the management of the Provincial, and I am free to confess not without cause, yet fair play is fair play, and fair play constrains me to point out that while the expenses of the Provincial in 1878 footed up $7,110, exclusive of the grant to the city, the expenses of the Industrial in 1879 were $9,190.40; in 1880 $9,182.80, and 1881 $7,942,13. I mention this fact not to justify unnecessary expenditure on the part of the Provincial, but to show that it scarcely lies in the mouth of Mr. Withrow and his colleagues to talk, as they have been doing about the expensiveness of the Provincial Association.

If I have not gone over, by any means, all the ground which one might touch upon in connection with this subject, yet I fancy I have said enough to render it necessary for you to "try again" before you make good your assertion, and that I had better stop or I will give you some ground for refusing to insert this on the score of its length. I must, however, add that while I am prepared to defend the association from unjust or unfair attacks, I, as a new member of the Council, not only do not feel any responsibility for its past short comings, but that I cordially agree with you when you said on the 3rd inst., that "the truth is that the entire agricultural expenditure of the Province and its whole policy with regard to the encouragement of agriculture need over hauling." But the first thing to a proper overhauling is to elicit the facts, and this I am sorry to see you do not seem to desire.

Yours,
JOHN CARNEGIE.

Burglary of a Hardware Store.

Belleville, Nov. 7.—The hardware store of Mr. C. F. Smith was broken into on Saturday night, and a quantity of goods missing, consisting of revolvers, jack knives, and razors to the value of about $200 were stolen. The burglars effected their entrance through a window in rear of the building. No clue has yet been obtained as to the offenders.

GRAND TRUNK vs. THE C. P. R.

We clip the following from the Montreal correspondence to the Globe :—

The Georgian Bay lines, from what can be learned, have already commenced to feel that they have not the proper accommodation to do the carrying trade that is even now commencing to come to them. There is but one elevator at Midland city, and so well choked up has it become that orders were a few days ago sent to Chicago to stop any further shipments of grain in that direction. The only elevator at Midland is one that carries but 250,000 bushels. The Grand Trunk Railway, well aware of the excellence of this route, is making the most of it. They have control of the Midland, and it is but a day or two since they opened the road from Listowel to Durham. The line through to Colpey's Bay will be completed next year some time. Thus the Grand Trunk are taking time by the forelock, and before the Syndicate can touch the Georgian Bay they will have two, and if the Courts are with them in the T. G. & B. matter, three, feeders for their trunk line, all from the Georgian Bay. Thus it seems little wonder that the Syndicate will try and get even with them nearer home. As matters now look, the Grand Trunk and the Canada Pacific will in the near future be quite as far apart in their aims as are the Grand Trunk railway and that great American railway king and emperor of monopolists, Vanderbilt. This will give Canadians what they have been sadly in want of —competition all along the line. Meantime, railway men await with interest the shuffle of the cards that is to reveal a much more decided reason than any yet stated for the purchase by the Syndicate of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa railway.

A Canadian Speaks.

When anything worth saying is spoken in that terse and pointed way that bears the impress of honest conviction, we like to have people know the nature of the communication. Of such a nature is the following from Mr. W. F. Haste, Campden P. O., Lincoln Co., Ontario. Mr. Haste says : With great joy over my restored health, I would write a few lines concerning that great remedy, St. Sacobs Oil. For the last six years I have been using various medicines internally and externally, but nothing would help me. Finally I procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, which cured me after a few applications. My mother-in-law who has also been a great sufferer from rheumatism, was also instantly relieved by the use of the Great German Remedy. St. Jacobs Oil is a great blessing to suffering humanity, and I shall do everything in my power to make known its merits.

The Causes of Colds are getting overheated in hot rooms or crowded assemblies, sitting in a draught, or cooling too rapidly after exercise, muffling up warm and changing to light wrappings cold and damp feet. No matter what is the cause Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is the cure for all throat and lung diseases that induce consumption.

Get Out of Doors.—The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle.—Christian Recorder.

LOVE'S ROMANTIC COURSE.

A London Gentleman Wins an Heiress in Toronto.

The romantic story of a marriage which occurred in Toronto within the last ten years comes up with all the interest that usually clusters around such incidents. A young and pushing Londoner had been in the habit of doing business with a certain wholesale firm in Toronto, and it occurred to another large house that it wouldn't be a bad stroke to get the account turned over to his firm; for behold the transactions of the aforesaid young man were profitable to his supplier. How to accomplish this little piece of commercial diplomacy, however, disturbed the brain of the manager to a considerable extent, and with no small amount of difficulty did he at last evolve a plan to get his customer. Now, the senior member of the firm was very wealthy, and had a niece living with him who was also heavily endowed and was the old gentleman's heiress. His home was richly furnished and attractive, and to invite the young Londoner up to spend the evening, and thus gain his business affections, was the scheme of this enterprising manager. He mentioned it to the senior partner, who winced not a little and half objected, but finally consented. Not knowing where the end was going to be, the young gentleman from the "Forest City" went around to the comfortable residence, and spent the evening. Somehow, he enjoyed himself remarkably well, and somehow, too, the niece felt unusually entertained. The firm got the account and this so pleased the old man, that he didn't object to his customer accepting a second and a third invitation to call around and smile and chat with his niece. Love runs in strange channels, however, and in the end, the wholesale house won a good patron, the latter won a wife and an heiress to nearly half a million in the person of the accomplished neice. Blessings and congratulations followed, and the curtain falls with everybody apparently well pleased.

WAR EAGLE.

Further Particulars of the Steamboat Accident at Keokuk.

KEOKUK, Ia., Nov. 5.—The following further particulars of the disaster to the steamer War Eagle, which struck against the bridge near here, have been learned:—The vessel in attempting to pass through the draw was baffled by the eddies and cross currents and swung around against the bridge, breaking out one span and entailing a loss of $150,000 to the bridge. Several lives are supposed to have been lost, but the names could not be learned. The boats in the river gave the alarm by a continued whistle and the fire bells were rung. A large crowd were soon attracted to the scene.

A few women remained on the boat, and all were placed forward so that they could be taken off easily. The steamer floated with the current, but it did not make water rapidly. A few hundred yards below the elevator, with the assistance of parties who came out in a skiff, a line was taken ashore and the craft was made fast, resting on the railway track, which was covered with the water. The crew with the remaining passengers soon reached the shore. The head clerk gave the alarm to ten or twelve women in the cabin as the boat was about to strike the bridge, and all reached the deck safely. When the boat struck, the span gave way with a fearful crash. The boat leaned on the west peir, the stern having cleared the east peir where the break in the bridge occured. The people immediately began to climb from the boat to the bridge, and by the time she swung off the greater part had escaped in this way.

It is known that a passenger jumped overboard and was drowned, and a dock hand struck by a peice of iron and killed, when the steamer War Eagle collided with the bridge. Mr. Cullon, of Seneca Falls, was aboard and escaped. There is little doubt that several were drowned, but it is as yet impossible to tell how many or who they are.

THE COLOR LINE.

A White Woman Hustled From the House of a Negro by the Latter's Lawful Wife.

ST. CATHARINES, Oct. 5.—A white woman, of rather comely appearance, bearing evident traces of former prosperity and culture, sought protection in the police cells on Friday night, accompanied by her son, a good-looking lad about 14 years of age. The story this woman tells is a peculiar one. She claims to be a native of a town in Yorkshire, Eng., where she married a man named Kenny, who was in comfortable circumstances, having six thousand five hundred pounds invested in Turkish and Egyptian bonds. Owing to the depreciation of these bonds, their income was considerably reduced, and they came to Canada and settled in Burlington, near Hamilton. They had a family of one son and two daughters. The husband became dissipated, and last year a colored man named Moore seems to have become a boarder. An intimacy sprung up between the white woman and the negro, and they eloped to this city about four months ago, living in a house on North street as man and wife. On Friday night Moore's wife, a coloured woman, appeared on the scene, and drove the white woman away, who then sought protection in the police cells.

A Health Officer's Gross Neglect.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Nov. 4.—The brigantine Miggie, Capt. McLeod, from Savannah, with a cargo of pitch pine for Kingsport, N. S., arrived in this harbour last evening. The Captain reports that fever broke out among the crew after leaving Savannah, and that a seaman named Andrew Crisps died on the passage. Some of crew were sick when the vessel arrived here, and early last evening the captain came ashore for a physician. Dr. Harding, the Quarantine officer here, was seen, but he said he could not go aboard that night. The captain told him that if medical aid was not had one of the men would die before morning. Dr. Harding examined three remaining cases, and pronounced them malarial or intermittant fever. Indignation is expressed at Dr. Harding's course in not having gone on board last night. The captain and the mate were the only ones able to be about, and the unfortunate seamen lay on board without any attendance whatever.

A Distressing Accident.

KINGSTON, Nov. 7.—Two men were severely injured at the Levant mine on Saturday. Their names are Patrick Sullivan and Patrick Burns. A rock weighing five tons fell from the roof and rolled upon Burn's head and body. It was slightly hallow, and saved him from being crushed. His mouth was cut and four of his teeth knocked out. His arm and leg were also damaged. Sullivan got pinned to the earth by the stone striking his leg, fracturing it in four places, and crushing the bones near the ankle. The accident occurred eighty feet below the surface, and the poor fellow lay under the weight until help could be got from above. Sullivan may lose his foot. The men were brought into the city to-day, and will be kindly cared for at the hospital.

FROM ALL OVER.

THE value of the property destroyed by the great fire at the Hoboken docks on Sunday is placed at over one and a quarter million dollars. One life is believed to have been lost.

CONSIDERABLE excitement has been occasioned in Paris by the mysterious disappearance of a well-known American theatrical agent who was negotiating with a number of artistes for a season in Havana.

THE Italian brigand Esperito, now in gaol at Palmero, through his council sues, under his true name of Randozzo, a fruit dealer of this city named Castmano, for $10,000 damages on account of former partnership.

AN extra of the Quebec Official Gazette was issued yesterday, containing three proclamations one dissolving the Assembly, another fixing the nominations for the 25th November and the polling for December 2nd, and another convening the legislature for Thursday, the 29th December.

COLE'S GREAT CIRCUS was lately wrecked on its way to Kansas City. After its arrival there a Kansas City Times' reporter found John Sawbright, its veterinarian, rubbing the injured animals with St. Jacobs Oil. He said it was the best remedy known for injuries to horses, and was so very clean to use.

NOTICE is given in the Canada Gazette by Mr. Drinkwater that the deed of mortgage executed under the provisions of the charter of the Canada Pacific railway company securing the issue of $25,000,000 of land grant bonds has been deposited in the office of the secretary of state for Canada, as required by the 35th section of the said charter.

FOR DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

SOME time ago a melon patch was raided near the agricultural college. The matter was settled by one of the raiders. Next night one hundred students compelled the owner of the melons to refund the amount paid. The faculty have tried to get the students to return the money, but they have refused. On Wednesday night all the students engaged in the raid were suspended. The students' meeting voted to rebel and leave in a body.

TONIC.—Every one, at times, feels the necessity of some restoratives of the vital powers, depressed by mental or bodily exhaustion. In such conditions, let every one, instead of flying to the alcoholic or medicinal stimulants, which must be followed by depression equal to their excitement, reinvigorate his deranged system by the natural tonic elements of the Peruvian Syrup. Sold by all druggists.

A LARGE deputation from Ottawa, headed by the Mayor, two members of the City Council, and the members of Parliament for the city, waited upon the Canadian Pacific railway directors in Montreal yesterday, and made them very liberal offers of land free and exemption from taxation, if they would establish the workshops in the capital. The directors promised to consider the proposal and give an answer hereafter.

ADVICES from Spanish Honduras state that heavy rains, previous to October 20, caused immense floods which swept away the bridges of the greater portion of the only railroad in the country, and submerged or partially swept away towns and villages in the fruit district. It is reported that five hundred lives were lost, but nothing definite is known regarding this. The loss of live stock is very heavy. The total damage is estimated at $20,000,000. Of this amount the damage to the railroad was estimated at $10,000,000.

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND.—A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease. More particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.—2

Mr. H. G. BARLOW, formerly a hotelkeeper in Galt, recently died at Grand Rapids, Mich., at the advanced age of 94. Deceased kept the old "Galt House" in Galt, up to about 1840, when he left the established "Barlow tavern" in Rockton, in the Township of Beverly. At that time the whole travel between Hamilton and the then "far west" of the Huron tract was by way of what for many years has been known as the macadamized road, and Mr. Barlow in is capacity as hotel keeper on this great thoroughfare became one of the best known men in the country.

ONE day last week while Mr. and Mrs. Bynes, 10th concession, McKillop, were away from home, a tramp called at their residence and demanded a coat from the servant girl. The day was wet, and he said he was going to Grey township to purchase stock, and that if she could for the present lend him a coat he would return it in a day or two. She, relying upon his word, consented, and gave him an oil-cloth of Mr. Dynes'. The whole thing appears to be a fraud, as Mr. Tramp alias cattle-buyer, has not yet returned it or made his appearance, and Mr. Dynes is at present minus his oil-cloth coat. This ought to be a warning to others to be on the loookout for such rascals.

How to Fight a Mad Dog.

A gentleman writes to the St. James' Gazette as follows:—"It is clear from the description of the 'Struggle with a Mad Dog' contained in your paper of the 8th, that fighting a dog forms no part of the training of the Metropolitan Police; and as it is an important branch of the art of self-defence, I submit this for their information. The requisite weapon is a stout stick or truncheon, to be held by a hand at each end accross the chest close to the body. The dog on flying at the neck, is to be received with the middle of the stick, pushed with greatest force and rapidity across the throat of the dog. The brute, being thus thrown back, is to be struck on the nose; and should he renew the attack (which is not likely) the dose must be repeated. Before bull-baiting ceased in England, a man of prowess, who will long be remembered in Wensleydale as 'Deaf Jack,' fought for a wager, and thus conquered the most savage bulldog in the district. The dog came up a second time but could not be induced to attack again. The stick was only two feet long. Had Dective Thompson known how to use his staff in this wise he might have escaped the serious injury which he suffered. An illustration of the method will be found in the tail-piece to 'Bewick's Birds' (Hancock's Edition, 1847) Vol. 1., p. 109."

Must say it is the nicest thing I ever used for the teeth and breath," says everyone having tried "TEABERRY," the new toilet gem. Get a 5 cent sample.

Oh, maden with grim teeth, avaunt!
Though fair your seem to look upon,
Because you don't use sozodont.
The sweetness of your mouth is gone;
Your breath is heavy, and, from this,
Your lips no more invite a kiss.

Mothers! Mothers!

Are you disturbed at night or broke of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and gives rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians, and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle. d52w9

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LIVER COMPLAINTS.
DR. KING'S DANDELION & QUININE LIVER PILLS (without Mercury.)

In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.
Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere, The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, billiousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

Daily Evening Review

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1881.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Oysters! Oysters! Oysters!

Fresh oysters by the plate, raw, stewed or fried, at the St. James Hotel and Restaurant.

Our Ratepayers.

According to the Town Clerk's return to the Government, Peterborough has 1933 ratepayers; quite an increase over the number of last year.

Arrested.

Thomas Phalen, a young lad hailing from the north ward, who has been wanted by the police ever since last August, to answer to a charge of stealing apples from the garden of Mr. A. Smith, of the fourth ward, was arrested by P. C. McGhee on Tuesday afternoon and taken to gaol.

Complimentary Supper.

The officers of Court Peterborough, No. 29, Canadian Order of Foresters will give a complimentary supper to the members of the Court on Thursday evening next, the 10th of November, at A. P. Morgan's hotel. The chair to be taken at 8.30 o'clock. Those who have received invitations will be sure to be on hand, as a pleasant and profitable evening is assured to all who attend.

A Handsome Present.

We are requested by the Chief of the Fire Brigade to return the thanks of the members of that body to Mr. Walter Paterson, Jr., for a handsome present to the Brigade, consisting of two finely bound volumes of "The Circle of the Sciences" by Lord Brongham. The Brigade are desirous of forming a library, and donation of books are now in order. Who's next?

The Weather.

Last night was one of the finest nights of the season, being bright moonlight, and the air quite warm. To-day is fine and warm, with a slight wind, but is withal not as fine as yesterday. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—Fresh to strong westerly to south-westerly winds; fair cooler weather.

Parlor Social.

The parlor social on Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. D. W. Dumble, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the George Street Methodist Church, was in every respect a great success. The attendance was large and the genial host and hostess by their kind attentions made every person perfectly at home. We understand that these socials are to be repeated at short intervals throughout the winter months, and being for the benefit of a worthy object, are deserving of a large patronage.

Dangerous Sidewalks, &c.

We are requested to call attention to the dangerous condition of some of the sidewalks and bridges in the west part of the town. Part of the railing of the Park street bridge is gone, there are quite a number of loose boards in the sidewalk on the north side of McDonnel street forming nasty traps for pedestrians; the sidewalk over the stream adjoining Thos. Tully's residence is still unprotected at the sides. Any one of these dificiencies might at any time cost the town a heavy sum for damages for personal injuries caused by them. The crossing over Gilchrist street on McDonnell street is also gone, and MacDonnel street itself, from end to end is in a most wretched condition.

Poultry Association.

The annual meeting of the Midland Central Poulty Association was held on Tuesday evening, in the room adjoining the council chamber. The attendance was not large, but those present were very enthusiastic, and the outlook is brighter than ever before. The finances are in a very satisfactory condition, the membership large, and every thing tends to the opinion that the coming show will be the best ever held under the auspices of this Society. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

President.....J. R. Stratton.
Vice-President.....James Saulter.
Secretary.....Geo. B. Sproule.
Treasurer.....J. McClelland.

Directors—Messrs. J. Bell, Smith; J. Baptie, Spingville; R. Hall, Peterborough, and R. Howden, Millbrook.

It was decided to hold the annual show in January 1882, a month earlier than usual.

Bulk Oysters

By the pint or quart for sale at Carton's Fruit Store. d102

New Goods.

Use the Poland Metallic Hair Brush "for headache." British Plate Mirrors for ladies' toilet. Choice lot of those very desirable Gentlemens' Dressing Combs. TAYLOR & MACDONALD, Medical Hall, Corner of George and Hunter Streets.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

Another Report True.

The report that the Whitby, Port Perry and Lindsay and Victoria Railway Companies had also come under Mr. Cox's amalgamation scheme proves to be correct, and the names of the companies will now be found in the advertisement calling a meeting of the bond and shareholders of the Midland Railway, for the 12th of December next.

Football.

The Trinity College School Port Hope football team arrived on the noon train to-day. The following are the names of the fifteen:—Mr. Montizambert captain, Mr. Coleman, A. E. Abbott, H. J. Bethune, W. F. Coy, E. C. Cayley, F. B. Hill, R. M. Hamilton, G. J. Leggatt, H. B. Lewis, R. Cassels, H. P. Leader, A. C. Macdonell, H. K. Merritt, W. J. Rogers, P. E. S. Cooper, spare man. They are rather light looking, but no doubt will play a good game as they have lots of practice. As the match is in progress as we go to press, we are unable to give particulars until to-morrow, when a full account of the match will appear in our columns.

Pushing the Work.

Mr. Wm. Lasher, builder and contractor, is well known as an enterprising man, but in building the new hotel on Hunter street, for Mr. D. G. Henthorn, he is taking a step in advance. The hotel is to be ready for occupation in the course of three or four months, and as it is to be quite a large building, great efforts will have to be made to complete it in time. Work was commenced at the cellar on Tuesday evening, and taking advantage of the fine moonlight nights, four teams and about a dozen men were set at work, and continued operations all night, so that in the morning the large cellar was almost completed and ready for the stonemasons. The novelty of night work of this character attracted a large number of spectators, who remained on the street until a late hour. The building is to be a three story brick with a mansard roof, and will be quite an ornament to the street which already boasts of so many fine buildings. It replaces an old wooden blacksmith shop, and is to be built between Laplant's carriage shop and the livery stable. It is already rented to Mr. John Sullivan, who now occupies the house across the street.

POLICE COURT.

THE BROKEN BY-LAW.

TUESDAY, Nov. 8.—The adjourned case of P. C. McGhee against George McCombs, charged with a violation of the building by-law, again came up.

In accordance with the resolution of the council ordering him so to do, the case was withdrawn by the prosecutor.

STEALING FRUIT.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 9.—Thomas Phelan, a young lad, was arrested on a warrant yesterday afternoon by P. C. McGhee, charging him with stealing growing fruit from the premises of Mrs. Alexander Smith, on the 22nd day of August last.

The warrant was issued at the time of the occurrence, but the prisoner eluded the vigilance of the police until yesterday. He was remanded to gaol until Friday next at 10 o'clock a. m.

ASSAULT.

Edward Tutton was charged by Lafayette Carpenter with committing an assault on him on Saturday night last.

Defendant pleaded not guilty.

Determined Incendiaries.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Between three and four o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke out in a frame building on Elizabeth street, London East (the rear portion of which was burned on the night of Monday last), and owing to the absence of a supply of water, was totally consumed. As on the former occasion, the fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. The building was owned by Francis Faulkner, and was insured.

PEOPLE ARE BEGINNING to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa-Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

CANADA'S FUTURE.

Mr. Norris in Favor of Independence—Mr. Todd for British Connection.

The Canadian Monthly for November, has two articles dealing more or less with Canada's future.

COLONIALISM AND SIR FRANCIS HINCKS

is the title of a paper by Mr. Wm. Norris, in which he answers the article of Sir Francis in the month previous. Mr. Norris had previously asserted that we are governed by laws and treaties in the making of which we have neither hand, act, nor representation, that by our position we are liable to great risks and dangers without any compensating advantage; that all the laws passed in this country by our own parliament are liable to a veto in a foreign country three thousand miles away by subordinate officials, who have no knowledge of the circumstances under which they are passed, and that this political condition has prevented the material flow of emigration to Canada from Europe and has reduced the Canadian people to a political grade one remove from that of the coolie. He then goes on to say that the gallant knight makes no answer to these charges, but contents himself with asserting that the idea of a Canadian republic under British protection would be impossible. Mr. Norris gives particulars of our weakness in the matters of treaties. "The difference between us and the Americans is that no one but an American can be chief magistrate of the Union." The journals advocating number two in Montreal, two in Toronto, one in London, one in St. John, and a great portion of the Liberal press is favorable to it. The writer favors the formation of a Canadian national league, with a parent organization in Toronto and branches throughout the province.

IS CANADIAN LOYALTY A SENTIMENT OR PRINCIPLE?

This is the question that Mr. Alpheus Todd asks himself. Upper Canada, he points out, was largely settled by the U. E. Loyalists, who left their homes in the United States for the sake of a principle. Touching on the conduct of the Canadians in the war of 1812-13, in the rebellion of 1837, and in other instances, he concludes: "If we have interpreted the history of Upper Canada aright we may rest assured that Canadian loyalty is no mere transient emotion liable to be affected by the fleeting changes of popular sentiment, but an enduring principle powerful enough to enable us to withstand many vicissitudes before consenting to exchange our free institutions protected by the British flag and subject to the supremacy of British law for any other form of government upon earth."

"In severing their connection with England," Mr. Todd remarks, "the United States abandoned a political system wherein politics and religion were advisedly, if not inseppraby counected. * * They have left out of their constitution any acknowledgement of the existence of a Supreme Being.

Off for England.

QUEBEC, Nov. 5.—The Governor-General sailed at 10 a.m. by the S.S. Sardinian. A number of spectators, including the Local Government ministers, and Mayor and citizens, City Council, and prominent militia officers of the district, were assembled on the wharf. A battery received the Governor-General with a salute, and the Lieutenant-Governor read an address, to which his excellency formally replied. Immediately after he embarked.

INDISPENSIBLE.—There are some simple remedies indispensible in every family. Among these, the experiences of years assures us, should be recorded Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. Both for internal and external application we have found it of great value; especially can we recommend it for colds, rheumatism, or fresh wounds and bruises.—Christian Era.

SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of many to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1881.

ST. ANDREWS' SOCIETY.

The Annual Meeting—A Decrease in Members, but an Increase in Funds.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough St. Andrew's Society was held on Wednesday evening, 9th instant, in the room adjoining the Council Chamber.

Mr. THOMAS TELFORD, second-Vice, occupied the chair.

The attendance was small, although nearly all the most active members were present.

TREASURER'S STATEMENT.

Mr. WILLIAM CUMMINGS, Treasurer of the Society, read his annual report of the receipts and expenditures for the past year, which showed the funds to be in a very prosperous condition—a balance of $162.90 remaining to the credit of the Society in the Bank of Commerce to be carried forward to next year. This statement was considered all the more satisfactory, seeing that the membership had fallen off considerably during the year.

On motion, the Treasurer's report was received and referred to Messrs. W. Telford and Turner to audit the same, who carefully examined the accounts and vouchers, and found them correct.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The following officers were then unanimously elected for the ensuing year:—

President—Thomas Telford.
First Vice President—Peter Hamilton.
Second Vice-President—John Patterson.
Third Vice-President—A. McNeil.
Treasurer—William Cummings, (re-elected.)
Executive and Charitable Committee—Messrs. Adam Turner, John Stewart, Andrew Hewie, William Telford and Henry Bowie.

THE ANNUAL CELEBRATION.

On motion, it was decided to have no formal celebration of St. Andrew's Day this year, but a committee was appointed to make arrangements for holding a social gathering on the night of the 20th instant of as many members as desired to participate.

The Secretary and Treasurer were appointed to wait on the Rev. Mr. Torrance, of St. Paul's Church, for the purpose of inviting him to preach the annual sermon.

A number of grants for charitable purposes were then passed, after which the meeting adjourned.

Ashburnham Public School.

The following is the Honor Roll of the Ashburnham Public School:—

GRADE I.—(a) J. Joy, 466; A. Graham, 388; M. Ward, 280. Full number of marks 560.

(b) A. Smith, 544; H. Bennett, 512; J. Anderson, 452; J. Bogan, 398. Full number of marks 650.

GRADE II.—(a) George Overton; Lizzie Rombough; Maggie Pollock; George Crowe.

(b) Caroline Bridgewater; Effie Faint; Laura Young; Carrie Downer.

GRADE III.—(a) Maggie Forsyth; Maud Pakenham; Emma Cathcart; Hannah O'Brien; Effie Bennett; Willie Heap.

(b) Fred. Long; Willie MacGregor; Maggie Weigester; And. Forsyth; Lillie Mercer; Fred. Dobbin.

(c) Lizzie Beattie; David Rogers; Aggie Wells; Rupie Weir; G. Nethercutt; Joseph Starr.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

CABLE.

NIHILIST TRIALS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 9.—On or about the 20th of this month will begin the great trial of twenty-two Nihilists. The principal one accused is a lieutenant of the navy, M. Soukanoff, whose silver dagger has been found in the mine laid down under the whole length of the street, called Little Sadowa, by which Alexander II. and the future Alexander III. always returned after the reviews to their respective palaces.

REPUBLICANISM.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Mr. Daniel Grant, Liberal member of Parliament for Marylebone, speaking at a large meeting, declared, amid much cheering, that the growing thought in England was towards republicanism. Though he was content with the present condition of affairs, the land should be for the people, in accordance with the constitution.

GERMAN ELECTIONS.

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—Of the twenty-two elections the Liberals carried fifteen, the Socialists four, and the Clericals one. It is believed that Bismarck's threat to resign was intended to influence the supplementary elections.

ITALY AND AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, Nov. 9.—In the Hungarian delegation Count Andrassy said that during the whole of his Ministerial career he has been convinced that a union of Italy and Austria was a grand and important factor in the preservation of the European equilibrium.

ANOTHER REDUCTION.

LIMERICK, Nov. 9.—The Limerick Land Sub-Commissioner, in the case of Enwright, a tenant holding over three acres of land, reduced the rent from £19 to £9.

HOME RULE OR NOTHING.

DUBLIN, Nov. 9.—The Home Rule League at their meeting to-day resolved that nothing but an independent native Parliament would ever satisfy the Irish people.

THE TUNISIAN QUESTION.

PARIS, Nov. 9.—The French Chamber of Deputies rejected the motion for an inquiry into the Government's acts in connection with Tunisian affairs by 343 to 168. M. Gambetta moved the order of the day, declaring that French is resolved loyally to observe the treaty with the Bey. This was adopted by an affirmative vote of 379.

FUNDS WANTED.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Central Executive of the Land League of Great Britain has issued a violent manifesto, stating that the League, proclaimed but unbroken, will save the nation, and appealing for subscriptions.

LORD MAYOR'S DAY.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—In the Lord Mayor's procession to-day the Stars and Stripes were carried, preceded by the drum and fife band of the 4th Battalion, London Militia, playing "The Star Spangled Banner." The band from the training ship War-Spite followed, playing "Yankee Doodle." The American flag was received with general clapping of hands and cheers. The same honour was not conspicuously rendered to any other feature in the procession, except the coaches of the old and new Mayors. There was a striking demonstration as the procession passed the office of the United States Cable Co. Four young ladies waved American flags from the windows, and there was loud and continued applause. A great demonstration was made at the American Exchange, where three hundred ladies waved the American colours from the balconies. Among the decorations throughout the city, American flags wore conspicuous. There was enthusiastic cheering in the Palace Yard as the American banner entered, escorted by a guard of honour with fixed bayonets. As it passed the band played "Hail Columbia."

AMERICAN.

FLOWER'S MAJORITIES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Flower's majority over Astor is 118. In the Congressional central district it is 260.

GONE REPUBLICAN.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 9.—The State is Republican by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority.

THE GREAT YACHT RACE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The International yacht race here to-day between the Atalants of Belleville, Canada, and the Mischief of New York, was won by the latter. She beat her opponent 28 min. 30½ sec.

THE Atalanta is a sloop-rigged, centreboard yacht, built of wood. She is 63 feet 10 inches long and 16 feet wide on her water line, 81 feet long and 16 feet 5 inches wide over all. Her depth of hold is 6 feet 10 inches, and with 28 gross tons of ballast, her draught of water is 6 feet 6 inches. The centreboard "well" is 18 feet long and her board drops from 8 to 10 feet. She carries a 71-foot mast, 36-foot top-mast, and the bowsprit is 28 feet outboard. Her frame is oak, outboard planking oak and rock elm, deck of white pine, with ample accommodations below. She is plainly finished and has cotton sails; she has wire rigging and cost about $9,000.

PEOPLE ARE BEGINNING to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa-Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

THE HEAD AND STOMACH.—When the head aches the stomach is, almost invariably, the cause. A single dose of Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills will relieve the former though purifying the latter, and restoring its tone. These great cathartics are sold everywhere. They never fail! Try them.

A VEXED CLERGYMAN.—Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easily can all this be avoided by using Dr. Kings new discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles given away at Taylor and Macdonald's.—2

August Flower.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects; such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Heart-burn, Waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits &c. Go to your Druggist and get a 75 cent bottle of AUGUST FLOWER or a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Try it. Two doses will relieve you. 2d1w1y

THE FIRE FIEND.

GRAND HAVEN, Mass., Nov. 10.—Milliard, Session and Lilly's mill was burned yesterday, and ninety million feet of lumber was destroyed. Loss $250,000.

EVERYTHING ARRANGED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Tribune's Washington special says:—It is understood that during the President's visit to New York the new cabinet was virtually arranged, and the last nominations to the different Departments, as well as those to vacate the Foreign Missions, were made to be transmitted to the Senate.

AMERICAN POLITICS.

The Tribune's Washington special says the defeat of Aston for Congress reduces the Republican vote in the House to 146, one less than a majority over all, and his vote does not make it any more possible for the Democrats to organize the House, but it gives the Greenbackers an independent balance of power.

EFFECTS OF THE GALE.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Nov. 10.—The schr. Agnes Hope, Captain Clark, in attempting to enter this harbor last night, during the gale, was driven on to the new East brakewater. She is reported to have struck heavily, bows on, carrying away her gibboom, bowsprit and head gear. The tugs Wheeler and Redford succeeded in getting a line aboard of her, and brought her into the harbor.

WHITES VS. NEGROES.

VICKSBURG, Va., Nov. 10.—It is stated that the bloodshed at Marion on election day arose from the refusal of the Inspector to allow a non-resident negro to vote. It is reported that all the negroes who fled from Vance's house-top to the woods were killed by armed men. Vance, the leader of the negroes is a white man. The negroes throughout the entire country surrounding Marion, have disappeared to a hill. Vance is in jail at Marion, and will probably be hanged by the citizens.

A HOUSE FALLS.

CLARKSNILLE, Tenn., Nov. 10.—An old dwelling fell down killing Commodore Fentress, his colored wife and three children.

PERILS OF THE DEEP.

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—The steamer Bavarian from Liverpool experienced a hurricane. Quarter-Master James, was washed overboard and lost, and Morris Daly, boatswain, was severely injured.

A SMALL REBELLION.

Trouble in the Military College at Kingston—Boycotting a Professor.

KINGSTON, Nov. 7.—There has been a small rebellion at the Royal Military College. Prof. Ferguson has been one of those mixed up in the difference between the Commandant Hewitt and Major Ridout. He it was who communicated to the head of the College remarks of a confidential nature made in his presence by the Adjutant, which gave rise to the recent Court of Enquiry. His action provoked the cadets to exhibit their hostility, and they commenced by refusing to further study German, which until the present has been an optional study. The affairs of the College are not usually made public, but it has leaked out that the professor was not only not able to get a class together, but was insulted by remarks written upon the blackboard. On Saturday things reached a climax. The Commandant summoned those who belonged to the German class to one of the lecture rooms, where he addressed them in regrad to their conduct and then reduced those that had rank and ordered a forty day's restriction from privileges which had previously been granted them. The cadets seem to have been prepared for this. The Commandant later on reversed the order given a few minutes before, restoring those he had humbled to rank, and cancelling the mandate respecting the restrictions. The condition of the College seems to be somewhat demoralized. Major Ridout was extremely popular, and the cadets appear to be bound to show their dissatisfaction in consequence of his removal. Prof. Ferguson, espically, they seem anxious to punish. They say he will never earn the $500 advance for which he has been recommended if they can help it. They will only study German in the event of it being made an obligatory subject. It is proposed to present Major Ridout with a testimonial, and to give public expression to the esteem and popularity in which he is held.

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

HAGYARD'S YELLOW OIL will be found invaluable for all purposes of a family liniment. Immediate relief will follow its use in all cases of pain in the stomach, bowels or sides; rheumatism, colic, colds, sprains and bruises. For internal and external use. It has no equal in the world for what it is recommended. For sale by all dealers at 25c. per bottle.

SMITH-MONAGHAN PLOUGHING MATCH.

A ploughing match open to competitors from the Townships of Smith and North Monaghan, was held in the same field as the recent county match, on Tuesday last, and was more numerously attended than its predecessor. This match as has already been stated, grew out of the previous one, owing to some of the non-competitors on the former occasion thinking they could do better, than those who had already tried their skill on the lea. Through the liberality of the merchants of Peterborough, to whom the committee desire to return their grateful acknowledgements, a number of very respectable prizes were forthcoming for competition, and the day proved all that could be desired. The following is the prize list :—

CLASS NO. 1—OPEN ONLY TO MEN OVER FIFTY YEARS OF AGE—2 ENTRIES.

1st prize, a cruet stand, value $10, presented by George Stethem. Less $2 to be paid by the winner; won by Gordon McKee.

2nd prize, neckyoke, presented by W. Hetherington, value $2 and cash $2; total $4, won by Wm. Tully, Senior.

CLASS NO. 2—OPEN TO SOD PLOUGHS ONLY—6 ENTRIES.

1st prize, tea pot, presented by Adam Hall, value $6, won by F. Waldron.

2nd prize, meerschaum pipe, presented by G. Rubidge, value $4.50 and cash 50c., total $5.00, won by Robert Newton.

3rd prize, pickle stand, presented by R. Muncaster, value $4, won by John Tully, Jr.

4th prize, caddy of tea, presented by B. Morrow, value $3, won by Alex. Wright.

5th prize, box of cigars, presented by Rush and Elliott, value $3, won by W. J. Tully.

CLASS NO 3—OPEN ONLY TO GENERAL PURPOSE PLOUGHS —8 ENTRIES.

1st prize, a clock, presented by W. Sanderson, value $6, won by John Grant.

2nd prize, neckyoke, presented by T. Laplante, value $2 and cash $3, total $5, won by John Walton.

3rd prize, rocking chair, presented by John Brown, value $2 and cash $2, total $4, won by James C. Davidson.

4th prize, whip, presented by C. LeFrance, value $1.50 and cash $1.50, total $3, won by Peter Whitney.

5th prize, pair of girths, presented by John Armstrong, value $2, won by Chris. Moffat.

CLASS 4—OPEN ONLY TO BOYS UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE, WITH ANY PLOUGH—3 ENTRIES.

1st prize, whip, presented by McKee and Davidson, value $2, and cash $4, presented by Dr. Kincaid, M.P.P., total $6, won by walter McKee.

2nd prize, tape line, presented by McKee & Davidson, value $1, and cash $4 presented by Dr. Kincaid, M.P.P., $4, total $5, won by W. A. Barnard.

3rd prize, whip, presented by W. J. Devlin, value $2 and cash $2 presented by Dr. Kincaid, M.P.P., total $4, won by David Swinton.

The duty of judges was discharged by Messrs. H. Collins, North Monaghan, Wm. Best, Emily, and D. Kennedy, Otonabee. As soon as the judges had finished their duties, their awards were announced and the several prizes distributed, after which the ploughmen, committee and judges were entertained in Mr. and Mrs. Tully's, now well known hospitable style. We must not omit to state that the getting up and successful carrying out of this match, was chiefly due to Messrs. Joseph Tully and Joseph Barnard, who discharged the duties devolving upon them in a manner which proved them to be the right men in the right place, and led many to express the hope that this would not be the last match held under their management and for these two townships.

Fat Cattle Convention.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—The fourth annual Illinois fat stock show was opened at 10,30 this morning at the Exposition building. President J. R. Scott called the spectators to order, when Mayor Harrison delivered the opening address. John B. Sherman, President of the Union Stock Yards Company, replied on the part of the stock men of the country. The display of blooded animals is very fine, and composed of the choicest breeds, Canada, New York, Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Wisconsin and Illinois being represented. Recently imported horses from England, France and Scotland are also exhibited

LAKEFIELD NEWS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Lakefield Public School Board was held in the council room on Tuesday evening last the 8th instant. Members present: Messrs. G. J. Galvin, chairman, Wm. Cox, Andrew Wilson, John Isbister, W. C. Sanders and John Clarin. The minutes of former meeting were read and confirmed. Communications were read from Mr. Shearer, the master of the school, enclosing his monthly report for the months of September and October, which, upon motion of Mr. Sanders, seconded by Mr. Cox, were received; from Miss Munro, a former teacher of the school, asking for a recommendation, which was left in the hands of the chairman and secretary; and from Miss Duff tendering her resignation.

Moved by Mr. Cox, seconded by Mr. Isbister,—That the resignation of Miss Duff be accepted at her earnest request, though with sincere regret at the loss the school will sustain by the same.

Moved by Mr. Sanders, seconded by Mr. Cox,—That this Board do now adjourn, to meet at the call of the chairman.—Carried.

Lakefield Public School, general proficiency standing for the month of October, 1881 :—

COUNCIL MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Lakefield village council will be held in the council room on Monday evening next the 14th instant, at 7.30 o'clock sharp.

NEW SCOWS.

It seems that Messrs. Casement and Sacret are making preparations to build, during the coming winter in Lakefield, four large and fine scows, for the purpose of supplying the increased demand for facilities for carrying wood, timber, etc., on the route between Lakefield and Stoney Lake. Messrs. Casement and Sacret, who are proprietors of the steamer Cruiser, find it necessary to have scows of their own in the interest of their proprietory and we understand that they intend, since they have decided to build, to commence at once in order to have the work well advanced before the rigour of the winter sets in. Gentlemen, success to your undertaking—your energy merits nothing else.

YOUNG'S POINT.

The Roads.—The road from here to Lakefield on the Douro side of the river is in such a bad state of repair that it is unfit to travel on this fall. The Burleigh stage has quit plying over it; Hugh Sutherland, the stage driver would rather go three miles out of his way than risk breaking the springs and axles of his conveyance. The Douro Council should have it put in proper repair at once. I heard the other day that they would grant so much money towards putting it in repair, the rest to be made good by subscription. Your correspondent for one, objects to this in toto; let the lumbermen who use the road, and the Lakefield merchants and tavern keepers, who reap the benefit of the back country trade, along with the Council see to the outlay. We are not badly off as long as we have a good gravel road on the Smithtown side of the river to travel on.

Mean.—Some party or parties (interested, no doubt, to some extent), through their employers at Lakefield, as no one below Lakefield would go to the bother at this time of the year to lift any stop-logs or brackets, came up here last Friday night or early on Saturday morning while all were asleep, and cut away stop-logs, brackets and everything else they could do damage to with axes. It is just as well they were not caught in the act, as it is a punishable offence. Mr. Walters informs your correspondent that it caused him a good deal of annoyance, as he was repairing the same, and the consequence was the washing away of nearly all the gravel he was using to repair the leakage. Mr. Geo. Chalmers was also put to some loss as several logs went over the dam and down the river. It is to be hoped for, all concerned that the like will not occur again.

Government Works.—Mr. Walters, jun., who has been here for some few weeks back, has had a gang of men repairing the dam and making the canal wider where there was a nasty curve some little distance from the upper lock gate. He has got eight feet cut away, which is a great improvement; the lock gates are also getting overhauled. Mr. Walters has to be congratulated on the work he has got done, and he evidently understands his business thoroughly.

Painting.—Mr. John Young is having the store occupied by Mr. J. Stewart re-painted outside and it looks well. The paint brush, in the hands of a good painter, makes a great improvement to a building.

Shanties.—Our enterprising citizen, Mr. Geo. Chalmers, has now three shanties in full blast, and will have his hands full from now till spring, overseeing and attending to all their wants. It is a great boon to this section, Mr. Chalmers going into lumbering so largely.

Deer Hunting.—A jolly hunting party, consisting of Messrs. Brown, Tarla, Bossingu, Nash and Swain—hailing from Rochester, N. Y.—passed through here a week ago, en route homewards. They were successful in killing 11 fine deer in about two weeks. They were accompanied by Mr. J. Dunlop, the veteran sportsman of these waters, and were highly pleased with their camping out on Jack's Lake, but unfortunately they got all their canoes stolen, five in number, which says very little indeed for the settlers in that district. The canoes are all marked and made by J. Gordon, Lakefield, so the thieves had better return them and no questions will be asked. Suspicion is attached to one or two parties.

Snow.—We have had several showers of snow, hail, etc., the last few days, which have made the roads very bad to travel on, especially the one from here to Burleigh Bridge; some one will lose horse and buggy in a mud hole some day. None of our Township Councillors live in the section, which no doubt accounts for the bad state of things. Your correspondent wonders if the two gents (?) who they say represent this section (but only near election time) are going to run again? Other two good men will have to be found to take their places. Nothing like having new Councilmen every two or three years; they are apt to get old fashioned.

Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, are rapidly taking the place of all other purgatives, including Pills, Powders, etc., There action is mild yet effectual and they are a certain cure for all bilious complaints. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

A GALLANT RESCUE.

The Crew of a Sinking Vessel Rescued During a Terrible Gale.

Halifax, Nov. 8.—The barque Templar, of Yarmouth, Capt. Samuel Robbins, arrived at Shelburne to-day from Dublin, bringing the crew of the Norwegian barque Uranus, which had been abandoned at sea and set on fire. Capt. Robbins reports having sighted the Uranus in lat. 44.10 north, long. 41.50 west, and perceiving her flying a signal of distress, and also one denoting that she had no boats, at once bore down to do his utmost to save the crew. On getting near enough, information was passed that the barque was sinking, and that the men on board wished to abandon her. A terrible gale was blowing at the time, and those who would attempt the rescue in the awful sea that was running must expect to run a terrible risk. Brave men were now wanting, however, for five of the Templar's crew, including Thomson, the second mate, stepped forward and volunteered to make the venture. A moment later a boat was lowered over the side, the five got in, and the journey to the sinking Uranus began. So fierce was the storm which was raging that at times almost nothing could be seen of the wreck, and it was feared that the rescuing boat would never reach the helpless crew. Now and then, as it was seen to rise on top of some huge billow, the oarsmen were cheered on by those they had left behind them. Some times so long would they remain out from view in the trough of the sea that it was thought they had disappeared for ever. But at last after a full hour's hard work, the disabled vessel was reached, and ropes were flung to those on board. The boat could not get near enough for the men to drop in, and singly, with ropes tied securely around them, they jumped into the water, and were speedily draggrd on board. When half the number had been taken off in this way, the boat returned with them to the Templar, where the same means which had to be employed to get them from the sinking ship were necessary to land them in safety on the other. The second trip of the five heroes was much more dangerous than the first, the gale, which all the time was increasing, now blowing with terrible fury; but they never wavered, and at the end of four hours they had the whole of the crew of the Uranus out of their perilous position and safely deposited on board the Templar. The captain and mate of the wrecked barque had been crippled in the hands and feet before their ship was fallen in with by the exertion they had been put to in pumping and bailing to keep them from going to the bottom of the sea. On the morning following, when the gale had moderated somewhat, it was found that the Uranus was still in sight, and she was boarded, and what stores remained, with the nautical instruments and clothing and effects of her seamen, were transfered to the Templar. The water was found to have risen two feet over the keelson, the vessels seams were all open, and her sand ballast and oakum were washing out. Before being abandoned she was set on fire, and when last seen had burned almost to the water's edge. The Uranus, which was built in 1879, belonged to Tensberg, Norway, and was on the voyage from Ostend to Musquodoboit, N. S.

The Causes of Colds are getting overheated in hot rooms or crowded assemblies, sitting in a draught, or cooling too rapidly after exercise, muffling up warm and changing to light wrappings cold and damp feet. Get Out of Doors.—The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle.—Christian Recorder.

GUITEAU'S TRIAL.

Application by Scoville for Control of his Papers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Surgeons on behalf of the Government have visited the gaol to examine Guiteau's physical condition.

This morning Scoville, counsel for Guiteau, called the attention of Judge Cox to the motion made a few days ago by his associate Robinson. The Judge said the motion referred in the first place to a postponement of the trial. While he was exceedingly anxious to accommodate the convenience of the counsel he did not see how he could postpone the trial without the consent of the counsel on both sides. In regard to the other part of the motion, to direct the District Attorney to deliver to the counsel for the defence certain papers, he said that in consultation yesterday with the District Attorney has offered to furnish any papers he had for inspection of the counsel. He did not see that the court could give an order for the production of papers that might be evidence on the part of the prosecution. On that score, however, there would be no difficulty.

Scoville remarked that the matter had hardly been presented the other day exactly in the view which he had of it. There were three classes of papers in the possession of the District Attorney, and he considered it very important that counsel for the prisoner should not have merely an inspection of the papers in the presence or under the supervision of the District Attorney, but should have the papers for consultation among themselves and with the prisoner. There could be no difficulty about the custody of the papers, because a receipt could be given for them and noted. There were certain clippings from newspapers gathered by the prisoner during the six weeks before the shooting. The clippings were evidence for the defence as to the influence brought to bear upon the prisoner's mind, and of the motives which operated on him finally in committing the deed. Ordinarily an application for things of this character in the possession of the District Attorney might not be proper, but in this case the defence consisted of a claim of insanity. There was also a printed book, the property of the prisoner, which has been taken from him. During the six weeks before the act was committed Guiteau was, as he understood, engaged in making annotations in the book. These things were important, as indicating the condition of the prisoner's mind. Scoville said Guiteau prepared a communication which he desired to have published and sent it to Scoville, but as the latter could not be found it had been left with the District Attorney, who would not give it up. Scoville declared that he was not asking for anything as a favour. He held that he was entitled to those those papers without any qualification.

The judge said—I do not see that I have any power to order the District Attorney to deliver letters which he may desire to use as evidence. I believe he is willing to give an opportunity to examine everything he has. I do not think any order will be necessary. I will consult the District Attorney as soon as he comes.

Corkhill subsequently entered the court and said the papers found on the assassin being evidence, he would not concede the right of any person to them. He declared that he never received any communication addressed to Scoville, and had nothing of the kind in his possession. He said Scoville's associate (Robinson) had stated that he was misinformed relative to the papers Corkhill had. What Robinson desired was a matter which Corkhill never had in his possession.

Scoville said he would present to-morrow an affidavit by Warden Crocker in relation to the matter.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—A number of witnesses for the defence in the Guiteau case were summoned to-day. The assassin's brother has been enjoined to bring thirty-six letters and two family bibles to be used as evidence.

A STARVING PEOPLE.

Terrible Distress on the Island of Anticosti—The Quebec Government's Assistance.

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—From private letters just received I gather the following statements respecting the distress in Anticosti. One correspondent writing from West Point, Anticosti, says:—"The excess of poverty prevailing is caused by the failure of the fisheries, which this season turned out a total failure on account of the high winds and scarcity of bait. There are twenty families leaving this fall, having been granted by the Government free passage to Quebec. They are the most intelligent of our population. Those leaving are obliged to sell all they possess and at very low prices, as potatoes are 20c. per barrel. One man sold a splendid new boat with four sails for $13. People have no money to buy with. I am frightened some of them will starve; most of them have only potatoes for their food, though some families have a little flour. I know some families of nine or ten who have only two barrels of flour to feed them during the long winter of seven months, and they will have to put up with what they can get for there is no way of assistance and nobody on the Island can give them food, for others have but enough for themselves and the Government has several times helped us, giving $200 after the fire last summer which left fourteen families shelterless. On other occasions they forced the Government to assist them. They are so near starvation that they broke open the Government depot, and by saying this I do not wish to attack them. They are all honest, laborious people, and they would have starved otherwise. And whole families had to live on clams for weeks. As to assistance it would take hundreds of barrels to supply the demand. The number leaving the island all told is a hundred, and there have been fifteen deaths here with scarlet fever and diphtheria, which is unusual, the island being generally a healthy place."

Another correspondent writing from South-West Point, Anticosti, under date Nov. 2nd, says:—

"The cause of the distress is the failure of the fisheries and the partial failure of the potato crop. The principal food of the people have been potatoes for months, and that of the poor, watery kind that the island generally produces, and in consequence there has been a great deal of sickness—diphtheria and low fever—and consequently many deaths. The people have been recently assisted by the Government and saved from starvation, but they are nearly every winter in a chronic state of starvation. Several families have left to join their friends in Wisconsin, and the rest of the people at South-West Point are preparing to leave for there or Manitoba as soon as they can get the means to go. I regret I cannot give fuller particulars. I live a long way from the principal seat of population, and consequently from the greater portion of the distress.

The Question Settled.

There is no use in arguing the question of the potency of some subtances for especial services in emergencies. They will do all they promise, and more if judiciously used. The following from Mr. P Murphy, of No. 1 Fire Station, Ottawa, bears upon the point stated above. Mr. Morphy says: I had occassion to use St. Jacobs Oil recently and must say that it is the best Liniment I ever used. I caught cold from getting wet at a fire, and it settled in my shoulder and down my back to my hip. I suffered a great deal from the pain. I was advised to try St. Jacobs Oil. I did so, and after the fourth application I was entirely free from pain. I cannot speak too highly of it, and advise others to use it.

FROM ALL OVER.

TERENCE GLAZIER, a deserter from "B" Battery, was captured recently at Ottawa, and is serving a sentence in jail of 168 days for his foolishness.

A NUMBER of Americans have arrived on a hunting expedition in the back country around Sharbot Lake and Mississippi River. All kinds of game are plentiful.

THERE are lively times in St. John, N. B., regarding the right of way of different railway companies. Tracks are laid down by one company and torn up by another.

AS an instance of the success of the Beauce gold mine, two Quebec gentlemen went west last night with over five thousand dollars worth in the pockets, the profits of one month's work on two lots they own.

SOME twenty-five families from Anticosti arrived in port by S. S. Napoleon III., having no means of subsistence on the Island. They will probably be sent upon free grant lands by the Government and supplied with food and seed until next summer.

CAPTAIN JACOB SCHMIDT, of Tompkinsville, State Island, New York, suffered with severe rheumatism for many years. He used St. Jacobs Oil with splendid effect, and adopted it as a family medicine.

THE English railroads, in 1880 carried 540,669,175 passengers, twenty times the population of the country. Of these passengers, 32,097,645 or only 6 per cent., travelled first class, and 450,677,401 third class. The first class passengers, however, paid 16 per cent of the total fares.

DESERVING OF PRAISE.—Too much cannot be expressed in favor of that unsurpassed remedy for coughs, colds, asthma, croup, sore throat, and all lung complaints. If you suffer from neglected colds, try Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. The cost is trifling, only 25 cents.

ILFRACOMBE, a lovely seaside place, seems to be the English Niagara. A gentleman who went there for his honeymoon says that before he had been at the Royal Clarence Hotel three days he was asked to occupy the head of the table, as being the oldest married man present and he hadn't been spliced a week!

KEEP THE FEET DRY.—This is the season of sloppy weather so productive of colds, and lung troubles; neglected cold or damp feet is a great source of these difficulties. Cure your cough with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Pleasant to take and always reliable.

A MEETING has been held at Ottawa to make suitable arrangements for the annual meeting of the Dominion Temperance Alliance, immediately after the meeting of Parliament. The Hon. Neal Dow and other prominent personages are expected to be present.

No articles ever attained such unbounded popularity in so short a time as Burdock Blood Bitters, and that too during the existence of countless numbers of widely advertised bitters and blood purifiers. It is evident that this medicine begins its work at once, and leaves no desirable effect unattained.

LONDON Truth states that the rage for monograms has burst itself out, and the lady who wore the husband's heraldic emblems upon her court dress and on the sleeve of her walking dress in the park, did much towards showing up the snobbishness of advertising one's name and rank upon one's garments.

INDISPENSIBLE.—There are some simple remedies indispensible in every family. Among these, the experiences of years assures us, should be recorded Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. Both for internal and external application we have found it of great value; especially can we recommend it for colds, rheumatism, or fresh wounds and bruises.—Christian Era.

A WRITER in a French paper makes these remarks about the change of fashion in the matter of feminine physique: "Not long ago thin women were all the rage. The more slender and frail a women was the greater was her empire. Now opulence and rotundity of body have become the fashion, and thin and slender women have no chance.

FOR DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

THE Duchess Eugene Litta has sold her magnificent palace for the reason that it is to vast to be manageable. Baron Rothchild has bought it and willi transform it into the head offices of the Upper Italian railway. The interior decorations are magnificent; the famous Luini cartoons were bought for this palace at a cost of $22,000.

TONIC.—Every one, at times, feels the necessity of some restoratives of the vital powers, depressed by mental or bodily exhaustion. In such conditions, let every one, instead of flying to the alcoholic or medicinal stimulants, which must be followed by depression equal to their excitement, reinvigorate his deranged system by the natural tonic elements of the Peruvian Syrup. Sold by all druggists.

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND.—A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease. More particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.—2

THIS is the way a Collingwood paper works up a wedding: "As the Bulletin gazed upon the bride, whose beaming countenance lit up the dinning-room with joy and cast a reflection of softened loveliness and beauty over all the guests and caused the bridegroom to appear as if imparadised in the radient smile of cheer and happiness that for five and twenty years had cheered his home and warmed his hearth with a love that made life's joys sweeter, and life's burden soft, as downy pillows, its bachelor heart began to think of the pleasures it had forfeited and solemnly vowed that if Venus were propitious this should be no more." Gosh!

A Brutal Assault.

KINGSTON, Nov. 8.—George Jinman, a carter of stout build and very strong, was arrested this afternoon charged with an assault on a small-sized old man named Patrick Cummings, aged about 55 years in his own house on Johnson-street this forenoon. It is said Jinman while intoxicated entered Cummings' house and asked for something to eat. No one was at home but the old man, and an altercation occurred in which Cummings was badly pummelled. Jinman left, and in the afternoon Cummings' wife, who was out washing, was sent for, as it was said her husband was dying. She informed the police, and an officer was despatched. He says that when he entered the house he found blood on the floor and Cummings lying on the bed with a wit towel covering his face. His clothing was saturated with blood, and his face greatly swollen. He had evidently been thrown on the floor and beaten on the head. Jinman says Cummings struck him first.

ZOPESA.

(FROM BRAZIL.)

The New Compound, its wonderful affinity to the Digestive Apparatus and the Liver, increasing the dissolving juices, relieving almost instantly the dreadful results of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and the TORPID LIVER, makes Zopesa an every day necessity in every house.

It acts gently and speedily in Biliousness, Costiveness, Headache, Sick Headache, Distress after Eating, Wind on the Stomach, Heartburn, Pains in the Side and Back, Want of Appetite, Want of Energy, Low Spirits, Foul Stomach. It invigorates the Liver, carries off all surplus bile, regulates the Bowels, and gives tone to the whole system.

Cut this out and take it to your Druggist and get a 10 cent Sample, or a large bottle for 75 cents, and tell your neighbor about it.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Acknowledged by many eminent surgeons to be the safest and mildest pills for every constitution.
In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.
Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Installation of Officers.

The installation of the Carswell Lodge, I.O. G.T., took place on the 4th inst., wherein the several elected officers were duly installed in their respective offices, by the Rev. John Shaw, P.G.W.C.T., in the presence of seventy members of the order. The officers for the ensuing quarter are as follows, viz :—

Brother T. Esterbrook	P.W.C.T.
Brother G. A. Mitchell	W.C.T.
Sister M. Wallace	W.V.T.
Brother G. J. Early	W.S.
Sister F. Douglas	W.F.S.
Brother J. King	W.T.
Brother C. Huffman	W.C.
Sister M. A. Russell	W.I.G.
Brother A. Moore	W.O.G.
Sister G. A. Mitchell	W.R.H.S.
Sister Baxter	W.L.H.S.
Sister E. Morris	W.A.S.
Sister E. Rishor	W.D.M.

There was also a prize of a beautiful ink stand composed of several pieces of cut glass inserted into a handsome frame, accompanied with a gold pen, and presented by Sister E. Morris to the Brother who brought in the highest number of male members, of which Bro. G. J. Early was the recipient. Much credit is due the members of the lodge for the graceful manner in which they had their hall decorated for the occasion, all of which presented a gay aspect. The lodge in general is in a very prosperous condition at present, and is still progressing favourably in membership each night of late. At the 21st order of business, the Rev. Mr. Shaw, W.M.M. and P.G.W.C.T., addressed the lodge on the vice of intemperance, and how necessary it was for the temperance people to work in order to reclaim the inebriate, and save others from falling. He remarked the prosperous and healthy appearance of the Carswell Lodge, wishing them every success and hoping soon to be able to meet with them again.

After Many Days.

Most of our readers will remember the series of thefts of buffalo robes, horse blankets, etc., that took place from church sheds and hotel yards last winter. Among the articles stolen at that time was a new horse blanket, the property of Mr. James Davidson, of Smith. Notwithstanding that a vigorous search was made at the time, no trace of it was discovered until the other day, P. C. McGhee noticed a blanket similar to the one stolen, on a horse standing on George Street. He questioned the owner, who told him that he bought it from so and so, and it was traced back to a man who resides in Cavan, but who has not yet been seen. Mr. Davidson fully identified the blanket. Further developments are expected.

Placed in Position.

The letter boxes, recently sent here by the Government have been attached to the lamp posts at the following places :—

(1.) At Richardson's grocery, North end of Water street.

(2.) At John Lynch's, corner of Elm and Park streets.

(3.) At Dunford's grocery, opposite the South Ward School.

(4.) At Crow's grocery, corner of George and Perry streets.

Collections will be made daily at 7 a.m. and 4 p.m. The first collection will be made this evening.

Narrow Escapes.

Two very narrow escapes from injury occurred on George street on Wednesday. A man was passing Cluxton's new block on Hunter street when a board from the scaffolding above fell to the ground, coming within a few inches of his head. On the opposite side of George street, a short time afterwards, a large pane of glass in a third storey of one of the buildings broke and pieces fell to the sidewalk below. One of the largest struck a gentleman passing on the shoulder, cutting his overcoat but doing no other harm.

A Repairer.

The Great North-western Company has stationed a repairer in this district with his head quarters here. Now we hope that it will not take so long to repair a break.

THE FOOTBALL MATCH.

The Home Club Defeat the Trinity College School Club of Port Hope.

On Wednesday afternoon, according to previous notice, a football match took place on the Ashburnham ground between the Trinity College School Club, Port Hope, and the Peterborough Club. The ground was in splendid condition, as one of the players remarked, it was just soft enough not to hurt you if you chanced to fall, and the weather was all that could be desired.

As usual on such occasions the men of both teams were rather dilatory in making their appearance, and it was not until half an hour after the appointed time, 3 o'clock, that both sides were ready. Mr. James G. Macdonald having been chosen umpire, the men took their places on the field, the teams and weights being as follows :—

PETERBOROUGH.

As soon as the teams were arranged in order it was plain to see that Peterborough had the advantage in both weight and size, but what the visitors lacked in weight they made up in activity. The visitors won the toss and chose the western goal, having both the sun and wind in their favor. The ball was kicked off by R. B. Rogers, but owing to the wind the distance it travelled was but short, and the Peterborough forwards following up well, a scrimmage, the forerunner of many more, took place. The Trinity men by working well together showed the result of assiduous practice, from the very commencement of the game, while the home team, four or five men more particularly, tried to win the game by individual play, an impossibility in the this case at least. While the Trinity men invariably passed the ball, whenever opportunity offered, the Peterborough men did the very opposite, and held on to the ball without making the least headway until they were compelled to cry "down" whereas by so doing they lost many opportunities for allowing the "backs" to make good kicks, that might have often turned the tide in favor of the home team, when they were sorely pressed by their small but wiry opponents. During the first fifteen minutes Trinity had the advantage, and by repeated "scrimmages" and "kicks" worked the ball up in the proximity of the Peterborough goal, but McLeod, Hubbell and the Rogers brothers, ably assisted by the others, soon drove it down, until Hatton by a good run got a "touch down," after the Trinity men had been compelled to "touch down" the ball behind their line. Hubbell kicked the ball but failed to score, and play was resumed, Peterborough having somewhat of an advantage until "half-time" was called, and the players had five minutes intermission.

SECOND HALF-TIME.

"Play" was soon called by the umpire and the teams changed ends, Peterborough this time having the advantage of wind and sun. From the "kick off" to the end of the game Peterborough had the advantage, their opponents getting the ball down only a few times. R. B. Rogers scored two "goals" and four more "rouges" were added to the Peterborough score, while Trinity did not score anything, so that when "time" was called the score stood:—Peterborough two goals, one try and five rouges to nothing for their opponents. After cheers for the victors, vanquished and umpire, the men left the field.

The attendance of spectators was only limited.

From beginning to end the game was played in the very best spirit, rough play being unknown, and the services of the umpire were not often called into requisition. Every man on both teams played hard and all are deserving of credit. For the visitors the play of Abbott, Merritt, Coleman, Rogers, Hamilton and a few others was really good.

After the game the members of both teams were entertained at tea at the residence of Mr. G. C. Rogers, where a very pleasant hour was spent by toast, speech, sentiment and songs, after which the visitors were escorted to the Midland station, and cheered as they left for home.

A Provincial Appointment.

The Globe announces that "G. T. Leonard, County Court Clerk, Deputy Clerk of the Crown, and Registrar of the Surrogate Court for the County of Peterborough, has been removed from office by the Lieut.-Governor for misconduct, and John Moloney, Peterborough, was appointed in his stead."

A Cool Thief.

The other evening some thief walked into the sheds of the the George Street Methodist Church and coolly carried off a pair of gloves, taking them from the pocket of an overcoat lying in one of the carriages. He left the overcoat.

A FOREIGN TRIBUTE.

In the Stillwater, Minn., U. S., Lumberman of November 4th, we find the following poem, in reply to the poem, "How are the Mighty Fallen," referring to the death of General Garfield, by Mrs. M. E. Muchall, which appeared in our columns some time ago :—

TO MRS. M. E. MUCHALL—BY HAWTHORNE.

O ! Gentle heart who sends us from the distance
Such tender words for our dear country's dead,
As touches all our souls, while grief's persistence
Like her's, who loved him best, is quieted.
We weave for you with homely words and phrases
A simple woof of rough but heartfelt rhymes,
A rustic offering, like our own field daisies,
And fragrant with the perfume of our pines.

When Garfield faded from our sky, forever,
And every land in shadow lay for him—
We felt the "moving tide of time" would never
Obliterate the touch, which made the whole world kin.
And we were prouder of the land which bore him
Because all other lands mourned at his grave,
And the bright flag which at half-mast hung o'er him,
Seemed a fit symbol of our fallen brave.

And memory came and gilded with rich glory
The sombre trappings of our national woe ;
We told each to the other, the grand story—
Of the heroic days of long ago.
And how the stars upon our country's banner
Had lit the sky for Freedom everywhere,
And how our dying soldiers cried Hosanna !
When their eyes saw it mid the battle's glare.

But sudden, mid the hush of hearts grief stricken,
A widowed Queen joins in the sad lament
And every true man felt his pulses quicken,
At the sweet tender impulse, Heaven-sent ;
Oh, peerless England ! Love has bridged the waters,
And faith, and hope, and all things grand and good,
Are born anew—and we, your sons and daughters,
Though aliens long, accept your mother-hood.

Stillwater, Minn., October 31st, 1881.

A Good Idea.

Fearing that the broken stone, with which George street is being macadamized, would give out before the work was completed, the Street Inspector is now placing gravel on the road, and on top of this the stones are placed, so that the hollows in the road-bed, of which there are many, are filled with sand and gravel, thus effecting quite a saving of stone, and at the same time, in the opinion of many, making a firmer and better road.

G. J. R.

As the most of our readers know, the Grand Junction trains on departing and arriving at the station do so with the engine in rear of the train. To give better warning to pedestrians who may want to cross the track, a small bell has been placed on the last cars of the trains, and this being sounded all the way up Bethune street gives warning.

SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT :—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN :—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of many to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR :—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto :—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

PROCLAMATION.

We beg to advise the public that our Xmas Stock will be a most extensive one, comprising cheap as well as the choicest of gifts.

Our selections have been made so that every line will comprise a full and complete variety.

We may just state that in putting our goods on the market this Xmas, it is done with the hope that everything will be thoroughly examined before purchased.

In making this request, it is done because we have every confidence in our goods proving to be honest. To sell dissatisfaction at a customer's expense is selling at a loss.

J. HACKETT

Seems determined to do the BLACK CASHMERE TRADE. He keeps the largest and best selected stock of Black Cashmeres to be found in any retail store. This opinion is confirmed by the very large quantity sold daily.

—"Indeed I am in the waist two yards about; but I am now about no waste; I am about thrift."—Shakespeare.

The Ladies of Peterborough have found it to their advantage to buy their CORSETS at J. HACKETT'S, where they are saving from 25 to 40 cents a pair.

—"To most men experience is like the stem lights of a ship, which illumine only the track it has passed."—Coleridge.

Some dry goods men never profit by experience. Many of them go along in the old rut or groove, selling English made Cashmeres for French, but the public soon discover the fraud, and buy elsewhere. J. HACKETT'S BLACK CASHMERES are warranted French Make, and best dyes.

CANADIAN TELEGRAMS.

ST. JOHNS, N. B.

Special to the Review, Nov. 11.

AS AN EVIDENCE of the improved condition of trade in Canada, it is announced that the increase in traffic on the Intercolonial Railway for the past year exceeded that of the previous year by two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

FOREST, ONT.

Special to the Review, Nov. 11

A MOST DARING burglary was committed here last night. The safe of John Shaw, a lumber merchant, was blown open and money to the amount of $60 was stolen. The doors of the office was pried open by means of a crow bar and hole was drilled in the top of the safe and a fuse was put in. Mr. Shaw's safe is badly broken up, the door being blown completely open, smashing the bolts and tearing the inside of the safe to pieces. The safe of Mr. Frayn, a grain dealer, was also opened and slightly damaged, as it contained nothing of importance it was left unlocked. The burglary must have been committed by parties well acquainted with the place as the drills used were stolen from Mr. Scoville's blacksmith shop. There is no clue to the perpetrators. Much excitement prevails in the village.

TORONTO.

Special to the Review, Nov. 11.

THE METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE has ordered up the cautionary signals at Port Dover, Port Stanley, Port Colborne, Port Burwell, Port Dalhousie, Burlington, Oakville, Port Credit, Toronto, Cobourg, Port Hope, Deseronto and Kingston.

A LETTER has been received from Hugh Fletcher saying that his brother, Wm. Fletcher, B. A., a distinguished graduate of Toronto University, and brother of Prof. Fletcher, of Kingston, was drowned on Saturday night when trying to ford the river Magare in Cape Breton. The postman refused to venture over the stream which was in flood, and Fletcher endeavoured to reach the other bank for the mail, but was carried over the rapids.

A. W. WRIGHT is in Toronto. He has been stumping New York and New Jersey in the greenback interest. He says that the vote has doubled in both States.

EDWARD MOORE who is committed for trial on a charge of stealing Lilian Minorie's $200 diamond ring, was further committed for trial on a charge of stealing boots and slippers from his employer, Wm. West, to give to Rosa Lee, a disreputable female.

WHILE JOHN GRAHAM was unloading lumber at Davenport, he was crushed to death through the load falling on him.

PARKDALE OFFERS to supply Yonkville with better and cheaper water than the city. Yorkville, however, seems bent on an amalgamation with the city.

BLONDE CARRIE, who fell from a window when trying to escape from the Mercer Reformatory, will be a cripple for life, her spine being injured.

NEXT THURSDAY a meeting will be held here to organize a chartered trotting association with $10,000 capital, in 200 shares of $50 each. They will connect with the National Association of the United States, and try to get dates between Buffalo and Rochester.

THE TELEGRAM this afternoon will publish a striking sequel to the Dain shooting case, embracing Leavitt's confession. He puts the blame on Meagher, now sentenced for life, to gain his own liberty.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

CABLE.

A LEGISLATOR DISGRACED.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—A Sydney despatch says the Legislative Assembly has expelled Mr. Caker, late Minister of Mines, in consequence of charges against him in connection with the disposal of money.

FLOODS IN ALBANIA.

All the rivers of Upper Albania have overflowed, and large tracts are inundated. At Scutari the bazaar is flooded and several lives have been lost.

FOR MIXING MORTAR.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Advices from Cape Coast Castle dated Oct. 16th, state that the King of Ashantee killed two hundred young girls for the purpose of using their blood for mixing mortar for the repair of the state building. The report of the massacre was received from a refugee who was to have been one of the victims.

A COWARD'S WEAPON.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Sir Vernon Harcourt and Mr. Forster have examined a box that has been forwarded from America to Mr. Creyke, M.P. It is believed the screws fastening the box have at the base some kind of explosive. The investigation is proceeding.

REDUCTION RATIFIED.

DUBLIN, Nov. 10.—The Land Commission at Ballina has ratified an aggreement between Miss Knox and a tenant, by which a rent of £18 is reduced to £8 10s., slightly over the poor law valuation. Other cases on the same estate will be settled on a sililiar basis.

THE RIGHT OF ASYLUM.

CUNSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 10.—The Kavass arrested at the American consultate in Salonica charged with brigandage has been placed at the disposal of the Porte for trial, on condition that the trial will be by the ordinary tribunal and court-martial, and the American consul to be represented at the trial. The American frigate has left Salonica.

RENTS IN IRELAND.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—On the Edgeworthstown estate, county Longford, the tenants of Mr. George Errington, member of Parliament, will not pay rent in consequence of the refusal of a fifteen per cent. reduction. The tenants of Sir George Featherstone, in the same district, the tenants of Earl Buckinghamshire, and the tenantry of other estates near Limerick, have made similar declarations.

AMERICAN.

BEATEN AGAIN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—In the International yacht race to-day, the Mischief again defeated the Canadian Atalanta by over 38 minutes.

CONFEDRATE PROPERTY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Herald says that from estimates presented to the treasury, at various times after the war, confedrate property in Europe and some parts of this continent amounts to an agregate of $41,000,000. The treasury agents who recovered $100,000 in Europe only turned over $50,000 to the treasury. It is stated that the English agents for the Confederation compromised a claim of nearly $100,000, against them for $8,000.

PEOPLE ARE BEGINNING to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa- Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

FOR DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

GET OUT OF DOORS.—The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle.—Christian Recorder.

THURSDAY, Nov. 24, is appointed as Thanksgiving Day in the United States.

AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS

Press Despatches to the Review.

CABLE.

A TRIBUTE.

MADRID, Nov. 11.—Maret's speech in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, caused much sensation on account of the blow it dealt to the Republicans, who were already much divided. Maret made an eloquent allusion to Garfield, and the American people who so touchingly proved that in defence of principles, justice and morality, a Republican people could accept Queen Victoria's wreath of flowers laid on the tier of a great and noble martyr to his duty. Loud cheers from all in the House and the galleries saluted these remarks.

NOT AMERICANS.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The six passengers who who embarked for Gibraltar on the wrecked steamer Caliope were not Americans.

AFFLICTED LEAGUERS.

DUBLIN, Nov. 11.—It is stated that Kettle is threatened with paralysis, and Bolton has lost the sight of one eye.

COMPENSATION WANTED.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The large reductions in rent made by the sub-committee under the Land Act are causing an outcry on the part of the Landlords and a demand for government compensation.

THE LAND COURT.

DUBLIN, Nov. 11.—The reports from all parts of the County of Cork, disclose, the most extraordinary scenes on the part of the farmers, and the Government Land Court. In some districts large sums are being subscribed for the formation of a mutual protection fund.

A JOCKEY'S FALL.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 11.—Macdonald rode Foxhall, which, at the races yesterday, was the favorite for the Liverpool Cup. At a critical period of the race, the horse crossed his legs, fell, and threw his jockey on his head. His skull was fractured and there are slight hopes of his recovery.

AMERICAN.

A PERSONAL DIFFICULTY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—A letter from Santa Fee states that General Bull has been put under arrest by General Mackenzie. This is surmised to be the outcome of a personal difficulty.

SNOW STORM.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 11.—A violent snow storm, the first of the season, prevailed here last night.

SHOT BY AN OFFICER.

SEDELA, Mo., Nov. 11.—Officer McNally last night shot and killed Walsh Hyde, who was insane or drunk, and resisted arrest. NcNally was arrested.

BLAINE RESIGNS.

PORTLAND, Nov. 11.—The Republican State Committee yesterday accepted Blaine's resignation of the chairmanship which he had held for 21 years.

STAR ROUTE FRAUDS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Tribune's Washington despatch says that the agents of the government for the prosecution of the Star Route conspirators are subjected to a good deal of adverse criticism. There is danger that the prestige which the conspirators have gained will have an effect upon the Grand Jury. There is a general impression that it can, and will be made morally certain, that there has been enormous rascality somewhere, but there are still missing links in the chain of legal evidence to convict.

ROBBING THE MAILS.

DESMOINES, Oct. 11.—Albert Madden, a Mail Agent on the Rock Island Road, has been arrested on a charge of robbery. It is said that eight hundred missing letters have been traced to him.

A FRAUD PUNISHED.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 11—John Brady has been convicted of the false acknowledgement of a deed and has been sent for seven years to the penitentiary. Brady was concerned in a great land swindle last spring. Herman Schensler and George Brown, who were implicated, pleaded guilty, but have not yet been sentenced.

GUITEAU INDIGNANT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Guiteau is represented as being indignant at the haste shown in bringing him to trial. He claims that he should have time till spring in which to strengthen his defence.

STAR ROUTE PROSECUTION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Gen. Bliss, is reported as saying, we are going on with the Star Route cases and intend to prosecute them exactly as if no such decision as that of Cox had been rendered.

FATALLY DRUGGED.

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 11.—Micheal Conley died from the effects of laudanum, put in his beer by Daniel Driscoll, when he was boisterous, in order to quiet him. Driscoll has been arrested.

SERIOUS RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

CORSICAN, Texas, Nov. 11.—A railroad accident occurred near here to-day. It is reported that twenty men were killed.

HOMELESS ORPHANS.

READING, Pa., Nov. 11.—The Orphans' home at Worthington was burned this morning. The children were all saved. Loss $20,000.

A BIG PROFIT.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—A New Jersey man yesterday bought 180 acres of land, a few miles from miles from here for a million dollars, and afterwards sold it to an improvement company for three million dollars.

TARIFF REVISION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Herald's Washington despatch says that the opinion of the Republican Senators who have been questioned, is that there will be an attempt during the coming session to revise the tariff, by the appointment of a commission composed of eminent merchants and manufacturers. A joint representation of both Houses of Congress, to determine what revision the tariff needs is to be advocated. The remark of Sherman, that among the leading measures likely to engage the attention of Congress, would be the revision of the tariff and the reduction of taxes, has attracted general attention. The treasury officials do not beleive that Sherman intends to be understood as favoring either measures. Lincon desires the reunion of a disagreement between himself and General Sherman.

STAR ROUTE FRAUDS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Tribune's Washington despatch says that the agents of the government for the prosecution of the Star Route conspirators are subjected to a good deal of adverse criticism. There is danger that the prestige which the conspirators have gained will have an effect upon the Grand Jury. There is a general impression that it can, and will be made morally certain, that there has been enormous rascality somewhere, but there are still missing links in the chain of legal evidence to convict.

ROBBING THE MAILS.

DESMOINES, Oct. 11.—Albert Madden, a Mail Agent on the Rock Island Road, has been arrested on a charge of robbery. It is said that eight hundred missing letters have been traced to him.

A FRAUD PUNISHED.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 11—John Brady has been convicted of the false acknowledgement of a deed and has been sent for seven years to the penitentiary. Brady was concerned in a great land swindle last spring. Herman Schensler and George Brown, who were implicated, pleaded guilty, but have not yet been sentenced.

GUITEAU INDIGNANT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Guiteau is represented as being indignant at the haste shown in bringing him to trial. He claims that he should have time till spring in which to strengthen his defence.

STAR ROUTE PROSECUTION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Gen. Bliss, is reported as saying, we are going on with the Star Route cases and intend to prosecute them exactly as if no such decision as that of Cox had been rendered.

FATALLY DRUGGED.

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 11.—Micheal Conley died from the effects of laudanum, put in his beer by Daniel Driscoll, when he was boisterous, in order to quiet him. Driscoll has been arrested.

SERIOUS RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

CORSICAN, Texas, Nov. 11.—A railroad accident occurred near here to-day. It is reported that twenty men were killed.

HOMELESS ORPHANS.

READING, Pa., Nov. 11.—The Orphans' home at Worthington was burned this morning. The children were all saved. Loss $20,000.

A BIG PROFIT.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—A New Jersey man yesterday bought 180 acres of land, a few miles from miles from here for a million dollars, and afterwards sold it to an improvement company for three million dollars.

TARIFF REVISION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Herald's Washington despatch says that the opinion of the Republican Senators who have been questioned, is that there will be an attempt during the coming session to revise the tariff, by the appointment of a commission composed of eminent merchants and manufacturers. A joint representation of both Houses of Congress, to determine what revision the tariff needs is to be advocated. The remark of Sherman, that among the leading measures likely to engage the attention of Congress, would be the revision of the tariff and the reduction of taxes, has attracted general attention. The treasury officials do not beleive that Sherman intends to be understood as favoring either measure. Lincon desires the reunion of a disagreement between himself and General Sherman.

Daily Evening Review

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1881.

STILL THEY COME.

ALTHOUGH we do not expect to see every new project that is launched, through either the Dominion or Ontario Gazette, and letters patent granted therefor, grow to full manhood, yet out of the number of companies now being formed, a fair percentage may reasonably be expected to reach maturity and prove a benefit to the country.

Among the applications for "Letters Patent" now to be found in the Ontario Gazette is one to incorporate "the Steel Association of Ontario" for the purpose of acquiring and working iron mines, and establishing smelting works and works for the manufacture of the several grades and kinds of iron and steel, principally in the adjoining county of Hastings. The persons asking to be incorporated are we observe all residents of the United States, except one, who is a Mining Engineer, resident in the township of Marmora. We are informed that this company is being organizad for the purpose of working a premier deposit of ore suitable for making steel which has been discovered near the Dufferin mine, and within three and three quarter miles of the present track of the North Hastings Railway. It seems that this particular mine is expected to yield a quality of ore which is now imported into the states from Spain, Africa, India, &c., and of course to take its place in the American market. We also understand that it is the intention of the promoters to ship their first quality ore to the States chiefly to Chicago via Midland, and to use up the second quality at smelting works which they propose to erect at Belleville where they will manufacture all the iron and steel which they can find a market for in Canada. There can be little doubt, but that in view of the amalgamation of the Midland and Grand Junction Railways, and the completion of the missing link between here and Omemee, no better point for smelting works, &c., could be found in Ontario than Belleville. The grain trade from the west will undoubtedly cause barges to come as far west as the Bay of Quinte, and by reason of their so coming coal will be obtainable there from the east, upon much better terms than at any other point we know of, while the interest of the Midland railway in the grain trade, and in the mining trade of North Hastings will be the very best guarantee not only to Belleville, but to those investing their capital in such an undertaking that the company will do everything in its power to foster and develope such enterprises. We sincerely trust that our information with regard to this matter may prove more than correct, and that Belleville may in this way soon reap a return for the sacrifices which she has undoubtedly made to secure the construction of the Grand Junction and North Hastings Railways.

THE GARFIELD FUND.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The following letter is published :—

"MENTOR, O., Nov. 7, 1881.

"DEAR FRIEND,—Your letter of October 6th is received, giving me a final statement regarding the fund for Gen. Garfield's family, so kindly supervised by you. As I have heretofore made only a verbal acknowledgement, I now wish formally to communicate to you, and through you to all who have contributed to it, my thanks for this generous testimonial, as an expression of the high esteem in which my husband was held; and as a tribute to his memory. My children join me in this gratitude, and in the desire that, as we accept this trust in their father's name, we may be able to use it in a way worthy of him and satisfactory to those by whom it has been bestowed.

"With sentiments of high regard, and with sincere regards to you, my dear friend, I remain,

"Very truly yours,

THE CRAMMING SYSTEM

DR AIKINS ON THE EFFECTS OF THE HIGH PRESSURE SYSTEM IN SCHOOLS.

A Long List of Bad Results—No Home Work for Young Children—Physical Education Neglected—Unnatural Confinement.

From the Toronto Globe.

In order to learn what opinion medical men of experience, high attainments in their profession, and cool and thoughtful judgment would be likely to hold regarding the prevalence and results of the "cramming" system in the Public Schools, a member of the Globe staff called upon Dr. Aikins, whose extensive practice in the city affords him excellent opportunities of judging whether "cramming" exists to any great extent, and if it does, what results it has on the physicial health of the children. In reply to the question, "Does cramming exist to any great extent in the schools?" the Dr. said :—

"I am satisfied that it does, and that not only is it

A CRYING EVIL IN THE SCHOOLS,

but that it prevades our whole educational system from the common schools to the Universities. The Globe, in calling attention to it is doing a worthy work, with which I fully sympathize."

"How do you know that it prevails?"

"I have its effects in Upper Canada College brought directly under my notice in a manner which shockingly impressed me. I have seen frequent evidences of it amongst University students, and in visiting families I have found the pupils engaged until a late hour in their home studies, and know from its effects on them, and from conversation with their parents, that it prevails extensively. In our medical schools there have been deaths directly traceable to over study."

"But they may have been the fault of the students rather than of the school system."

"Yes. In the medical schools it is wholly the fault of the students themselves, but elsewhere it is the natural effect of the system."

"To what do you ascribe the existence of too heavy home tasks given the pupils?"

"I think it is largely due to teachers.

OVERRATING THE UNDERSTANDING OF THE CHILDREN.

The work assigned appears simple to the teacher, and some children get through with it without much difficulty. The teacher does not appreciate the difficulty many, perhaps most, of the children have, and, moreover, overlooks or is ignorant of the baneful effects of too much mental effort on undeveloped mind and bodies. Bad as these are, they are aggravated by the neglect of physical exercise."

"What are the effects of over-study as it exists in our schools?"

"In the case of girls it leads, combined with lack of physicial exercise, to hysteria among other things, and unfits them in after life for their duties as wives and mothers. In both sexes it sometimes produces paleness, emaciation and nervous debility. The heart is rendered unusually sensitive, and so is the nervous system generally. The nervous exhaustion leads in after life to in many respects, and drunkenness and other evil habits follow."

LACK OF SELF-CONTEOL,

"Do you mean to say that drunkeness can be traced to over-study among children?"

"I do. Even though they pursue their studies no further than the Public School course the seeds of drunkenness are sown. Nervous exhaustion and excitability unquestionably are caused even in early life by over-study and the rivalry which exists in the schools, and a craving of the body for stimulants is created. I have, too, in my own practice attended to cases of inflammation of the brain which I had reason to suspect originated in, or were at least partly caused by over-study. In the case of children of nervous temperament or of delicate constitutions the effects are intensified in every respect. I am generally afraid when I see children, even comparatively vigorous ones, studying hard, that besides all the evils attending nervous excitability that of

SHORT LIFE WILL FOLLOW.

The nervous fire is burned away, and the more study youth, particularly when physical exercise is neglected, the less likely is a child to reach a good age.

"What mental effects has over-study among children?"

"Mental enfeeblement is a frequent result of it. I do not look on the future of the most brilliant graduates of our common schools as hopeful. Here and there a brilliant pupil will attain eminence in after life, but generally it is not so. The nervous excitability and nervous exhaustion in their early years lead to a mental enfeeblement, and, even apart from the danger of falling into bad habits, they are not so likely to be as

USEFUL MEMBERS OF SOCIETY,

or as brilliant in manhood and womanhood, as ordinary bright pupils who do not make special exertions to win the highest places. Both as to longevity and brilliant manhood and womanhood, the boys and girls below the pupils who stand highest have the better prospect. The slower, more natural, and less forced methods of advancement, promise the best ultimate results. A University course increases the evil. I would like to see the result of an enquiry by a commission into the after life of brilliant graduates of our universities, both in regard to long life, and habits, and usefulness to themselves and to society. I believe the enquiry would show that the able enough, but less studious, generally live longer and occupy better positions than those who bore off the honours. This is also true regarding school children."

HOME WORK.

"What amount of home work do you think children should accomplish?"

"I wouldn't give them any until after they are ten years of age. Second Book pupils should have absolutely none. In the upper classes an hour or two would do, but the standard should be fixed not for the average child, but for children below the average, in physical vigour and mental ability. I think very many of the children would turn out better men and women were they to have no home work and shorter hours at school. The confinement and restraints imposed on the very young children are altogether unnatural and injurious."

"But they are dismissed at eleven o'clock in the forenoon and three in the afternoon, and besides when they become restless they get a few minutes singing and calisthenics. The schools generally occupy a recess occasionally in marching."

"That is so far good, but the marching does not amount to much. It is too stiff and constrained a style of exercise to do much physical good. The pupils in all grades require a large amount of exercire such as children at country schools get. But where are the playgrounds in Toronto? As to the little children the long time they are obliged to sit still and avoid talking is objectionable. God has implanted a restless desire for exercise in the little ones, and that exercise is essential to their growth and the health of every organ of the body at an early age. The Galt system with its half-time in the class-room and half-time in the play hall is an improvement both mentally and physically.

BAD VENTILATION.

The evil of confinement is increased by bad ventilation. There are over 2,000 deaths in Ontario annually from consumption, and one-half of these could be prevented by better ventilation in houses and school-rooms. The defect in school-rooms contributes very much to consumption, and though I cannot speak of the Toronto schools generally, not being acquainted with their arrangements for ventilation, I can of the model school. There it is wretched, and much worse than in the central prison.

The doctor then entered into an explanation of the defects of ventilation, and the best systems. He said he thought the hot air system of warming better than that with steam, though there was sometimes a difficulty in getting the heat properly distributed throughout the building. Where steam is used a draft of fresh air should be introduced below, and an escape for foul air should be made near the ceiling; with hot air an escape near the floor is sufficient.

THE GREAT FOREST FIRE.

A Distressing Tale from the Burnt Michigan District by a Former Peterborough Man.

To the Editor of the Review.

DEAR SIR,—Having received a number of communications from old friends from Peterborough and other localities since the fire of September 5th, in regard to our welfare and the particulars in regard to the fire, and as the impression is quite general that we were burned up, allow me through the columns of your paper to state that such is not the case. Myself and family were all burnt more or less, but thanks to the Great Ruler of the Universe, our lives were saved, while others all around us perished in the flames, every thing that we had was consumed, not one dollars worth was saved except what we had on our persons and even that was torn from our backs to save us from burning. We sought refuge in a corn-field and remained there from 1 until 6 o'clock p.m., with the air so heated and the smoke so dense that breathing was very difficult. Our only relief was lying with our faces on the ground and covering ourselves with the grain stocks. Let me here state that there are hundreds of people in the burned district to-day that are losing their hair by reason of the extreme heat. At times it was as dark as night, and the darkness was the cause of many deaths, as the people could not see the way to escape from the flames. The fire reached my place about 1 o'clock, and was one broad extended sheet of flame as far as the eye could reach, and as it was blowing a gale at the time, it travelled a distance of twenty one miles in less that one hour and swept everything before it, leaving death and destitution in its wake. There were thousands of acres of land upon which it did not leave a living thing of any kind, not even one splint of grass. Mr. editor, could you have travelled over that space of ground on the following day, you would have witnessed some of the most heartrending scenes that it is possible for the eye to behold. Whole families clustered together, some burned to a cinder and others partially burned, writhing and groaning in their agony, crying and begging for relief, when death alone was the only relief possible for them. Such my friends were some of the scenes witnessed by those that were so fortunate as to save their lives, and which has left an impression upon their minds that time will never efface. As regards our present welfare I may say that we have "thanks to the good people of our land" enough to eat and clothes enough to wear at present. The great trouble will be to get feed for our horses, as there is not any in the country and it will have to be shipped from a distance and in all probability many will perish for want of it. By inserting the above you will confer a great favor.

I remain yours &c.
HENRY LAWSON.

THE AMERICAN FENIANS.

Details of the Scheme of Army Organization —Strength of the Army.

The London, Eng., Evening News has had forwarded to it for publication the following scheme of army organization, drawn up in council by the New York Fenians. The News claims that it is based upon a communication from a secret service official for many years engaged at Washington and elsewhere in connection with the Fenian organization. He was one of the agents of the Canadian Government who were first instrumental in discovering the decision of the Fenian commanders to invade the Dominion of Canada; and in consequence of his accurate information the government was perfectly enabled to make the extensive military preparations which resulted in the projected invasion being repelled. His statement is as follows:—A series of military councils was held the first week in September, at which Fenian officers from nearly every Eastern, Western, and Northern State were present. It was resolved, after a long debate, to make an important step in view of possible desturbances in Ireland—it having been represented that the British Government were pursuing a policy of exasperation, which was expected to result in massacres. This step was a secret instruction to all Fenian commanders to take the number of strong men of first line ready and willing for immediate active service. The first line active service men are members who have taken the oath to go anywhere and to do anything ordered by their superior officers. They consist exclusively of efficients who have passed the drill instructors, and are in every respect capable of bearing arms. The non-commissioned officers and officers, almost without exception, served in the war of the Rebellion. They are all armed with Government rifles and accutrements, and well equipped in everything except uniform—the latter being served out to abont one-third of the total number enrolled. In some of the large cities, it was stated, whole regiments of Irish had been raised; but as these were organized under the pretence of serving the State as militia, it would be necessary to treat the rank and file as members of newly designated Fenian Companies. The returns under this resolution are now coming in, and the following among others have been received:—Buffalo, in round numbers, 1,200, other points on the lake shore in the district, 1,600; Detroit, 400; the district, 1,500; Milwaukee, 300; the State, 1,300; Chicago, 1,800; La Salle County, 1,100; other parts of the State, 2,500; New York City, 4,200; parts of New York State, excluding Buffalo and places especially designated, 3,700; St. Louis, 900; Mississippi, towns, 3,000; Arkansas, in all about 1,300; Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth and other places, in Minnesota, 1,700; Indiana, 1,800; Iowa, 1,100; Cincinnati, 900; other places in Ohio, 2,200; Philadelphia, 600; the coal and iron regions of Pensylvania, 5,100; Boston, 400; other parts of Massachusetts, 2,400; Kansas City and State, 1,200; Texas, 800; places not enumerated in the above along the Pacific Railroads and branches, 1,400; various ports on the Northern Lakes, 2,700; San Francisco, 1,300; the other parts of the State, 900; Connecticut, in all, 1,400; New Hampshire, in all, 1,000; Rhode Island, in all, 700. There are still many of the large centres of the population to hear from. The above gives a list of 50,500 men, and it is declared not to exceed one-half of the number that will be found available by the time the returns are all in. Measuring these figures by the aggregate number of the Canadian militia, and taking for the purposee of comission the total population of the New Dominion, and the whole number of Irish in the United States, as shown by the census returns, one cannot be struck by the moderation of the above statistics. The correspondent also sends an account of the proceedings at the most important series of councils, including a summary of the speeches of the presiding officers, from which it would seem that the pressure of influential subscribers to the skirmishing fund—for measures of destruction against British commerce and English cities to create a diversion which could be taken advantage of by the active element in Ireland—was becoming so great that the executive might be compelled to yield to it before, in their judgment, time and opportunity served.

A PERILOUS DESCENT.

Attempt to Escape From the Mercer Reformatory—Daring Feat.

TORONTO, Nov. 10.—A daring attempt at escape was made last night by two of the inmates of the Mercer Reformatory, known as Blonde Carrie and Sarah McComber. Blonde Carrie was serving a term of twelve months for keeping a disorderly house, and McComber one of eighteen months for larceny. It appears that the two women had previously arranged a plan of escape, which at nine o'clock last night they proceeded to put into execution. Tying together a number of Blankets, the women made fast one end to the window of their room, and then ATTEMPTED TO DESCEND TO THE GROUND.

McComber got down safely, but her companion was not so fortunate, for while she hung suspended in mid air the blankets gave way, and she fell to the ground, a distance of thirty feet. The poor creature was seriously hurt, and her groans brought the engineer, Sherman, to the spot. The unfortunate woman was at once carried into the Reformatory and medical aid procured for her. In the meantime McComber had suceeded in reaching the city, but she was re-captured in less than two hours' time by Detective Burrows, whose services had been called into requisition, and safely lodged again within the walls of the institute.—Mail.

NORWOOD.

SEVERELY CUT.—The Register says that James Nickum, (colored), while standing on the sidewalk on Peterborough street, near P. W. Reynolds store, on Thursday evening last, was, without the least provocation on his part, struck in the neighbourhood of the temple with a stone weighing at least a pound and a half, and rendering him almost insensible, by some person unknown to our informant. We think that it is high time that our village authorities were taking some action in the matter as this kind of work has gone on long enough. A few arrests would put an end to such diabolical attacks.

HAPPY HUNTERS.—Capt. Gifford and Messrs. Wright and Mann, of Cobourg, and Thomas Morrison and son, who have been encamped in the vicinity of Coskemogobog Lake for a month past, passed through here on Saturday last with eleven deer. Mr. Charles Gillespie, hardware merchant, Campbellford, and B. Scriver, T. & J. Wells, J. & W. Ellis, and A. Brown, of Belmont, killed fifteen dear in seven days at Deer Lake. That beats our Norwood hunters.

BADLY BITTEN.—A young fellow named Newall, while engaged in drawing gravel, on Wednesday of last week, had occasion to buckle a strap in connection with the bridle on one of the horses, and while so engaged had one of his hands almost bitten off by the vicious animal before he could effect his escape.

An Antidote to Snake Poison.

From a note to the Paris Academy, it appears that M. de Lacerda has dicovered a fact of considerable scientific and practical importance—viz., that permanganate of potash counteracts very effectively the poison of serpents. In a first series of experiments a water solution of the poison was injected into the cellular tissue of dogs, under the legs; and its usual effects were large swellings with abscesses, loss of substance, and destruction of tissues. But when an equal quantity of filtered (one per cent.) solution of permanganate of potash was injected one or two minutes after the poison, those local injuries were quite obviated; there was merely a slight swelling where the syringe had entered. Next, introduction into the veins was tried, and the permanganate again succeeded admirably. In only two cases out of more than 30 was their failure, and this is attributed to the animals being very young and weak and badly fed; also to the antidote being at too long an interval after the poison, when the heart was already tending to stop. In one series of cases the permangimate solution was introduced half a minute after a solution of venom, and the animal showed no dearrangement beyond a very transient agitation and acceleration of the heart for a few minutes. In another series, the characteristic troubles caused by the poison were allowed to manifest themselves (dilatation of the pupil, quick breathing and heart action, contractions, &c.,) before the antidote was given. In two or three minutes, sometimes five, the troubles disappeared; a slight general prostration followed for 15 or 25 minutes, after which the animal would walk, and even run about, and resume its normal aspect. Other dogs poisoned similarly, but not receiving the antidote, died more or less quickly.

FROM ALL OVER.

THE closing of the gates on the new dam just completed at Carillon took place on Wednesday in the presence of an immense concourse of people, and was a pronounced success. The dam and slide have cost a large amount, but will be of incalculable advantage to the lumber interests on the Ottawa.

THE Hamilton butcher Muirhead, who is charged with being concerned in the disappearance of supplies from Hamilton Insane Asylum was committed for trial, the evidence against him being very strong. The case of the steward of the asylum, who is also implicated in the irregularities, will be investigated to-day.

A GENTLEMAN entered the parish church of St. Jean Baptiste village yesterday morning and kneeeled to take part in early mass. When the Sexton went to arouse him from what he believed to be sleep, he found that he was shaking a corpse.

THE HEAD AND STOMACH.—When the head aches the stomach is, almost invariably, the cause. A single dose of Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills will relieve the former though purifying the latter, and restoring its tone. These great cathartics are sold everywhere. They never fail! Try them.

DR. CARSON'S STOMACH AND CONSTIPATION BITTERS, are rapidly taking the place of all other purgatives, including Pills, Powders, etc., There action is mild yet effectual and they are a certain cure for all bilious complaints. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

THE condition of the public thoroughfares is deemed to be a fair index to the kind of people using them. If the streets are badly kept, the citizens are looked upon as shiftless; per contra, if they are clean, well paved, and otherwise well cared for, the inhabitants are looked upon as business like and up to the times.

THE convicts of the pententiary who escaped by scaling the walls last winter, and also those who jumped from a Grand Trunk Railway train while coming from St. Vincent De Paul, will at the expiration of their present sentences be tried for escaping, at the assizes.

INDISPENSIBLE.—There are some simple remedies indispensible in every family. Among these, the experiences of years assures us, should be recorded Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. Both for internal and external application we have found it of great value; especially can we recommend it for colds, rheumatism, or fresh wounds and bruises.—Christian Era.

TWENTY years ago, when cotton was king, the crop, although enormous in the aggregate, was not half as great on many plantations as it has been since the war. One of the most significant proofs of the inefficiency of slave labor is the steady increase of the cotton crop in spite of the incessant complaint that the free negro will not work.

MAJOR F. MELCHER, editor of the Charleston, (S. C.) Deutsche Zeitung, writes:—"One of my pressmen, Mr. J. M. Wheaton, was cured of a severe case of rheumatism by the use of St. Jacob's Oil, after other remedies had failed. He speaks very highly of it, and I think such a preparation is deserving of the highest praise that can be given."

A VEXED CLERGYMAN.—Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easily can all this be avoided by using Dr. Kings new discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles given away at Taylor and Macdonald's.—2

THERE may be a corner in circuses next season It is proposed to consolidate all the big shows, valued at $1,200,000. and parcel out the world so that routes will not conflict. But it is probable that when the time comes to act that the big managers will not consent to be swallowed up by rivals, and the little managers who can do a paying business in towns which the former dare not touch, will have no object in going into the combination.

TONIC.—Every one, at times, feels the necessity of some restoratives of the vital powers, depressed by mental or bodily exhaustion. In such conditions, let every one, instead of flying to the alcoholic or medicinal stimulants, which must be followed by depression equal to their excitement, reinvigorate his deranged system by the natural tonic elements of the Peruvian Syrup. Sold by all druggists.

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND.—A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease. More particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.—2

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS OF CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LIVER COMPLAINTS.
DR. KING'S DANDELION & QUININE LIVER PILLS (without Mercury.)
THE BEST REMEDY FOR BILLIOUSNESS, STOMACH DERANGEMENT, FLATULENCE, PAINS BETWEEN THE SHOULDERS, BAD APPETITE, INDIGESTION, ACIDITY, HEAD-ACHE, HEARTBURN, and all other symptoms of disordered liver and dyspepsia. Acknowledged by many eminent surgeons to be the safest and mildest pills for every constitution.
In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.
Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles; 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine. Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

POLICE COURT.

STEALING FRUIT.

FRIDAY, Nov. 11.—Thomas Phelan, 13, was charged with stealing growing fruit from Mrs. A. Smith in August 1880. Mr. E. H. D. Hall appeared for the prosecution.

The prisoner was brought down from gaol by P. C. McGhee, and changed his former plea of not guilty to one of guilty. The prisoner cried incessantly while in the Court room, and expressed a horror of the gaol, where he passed two or three days.

The MAGISTRATE said that the prisoner had not only stolen the fruit but had evaded the police for over a year.

The PRISONER said that he had not left town but had been here all the time.

The MAGISTRATE said that prisoner had lied to an officer, when asked his name.

The PRISONER said he only did that on two occasions.

The MAGISTRATE said that he was afraid that prisoner was the making of a bad boy if he was not checked.

The PRISONER said he would never steal again, if let off this time.

The MAGISTRATE remarked that the other boys who were up for the same offence received a week in gaol and as prisoner had already been in gaol for several days, he would again commit him to the same institution until Monday morning next at 7 o'clock, but if ever the offence was repeated or prisoner came before him again, he would surely commit him to the Reformatory.

A Contemptible Trick.

On Thursday evening two men at present unknown, played a contemptible trick upon Mr. J. D. Tully, druggist, George street. A short time ago Mr. Tully, for the convenience of his customers, had a night bell placed at his store. The handle was inserted in the brickwork near the door, and was in an exposed position to those who were on the street. On the night in question the young man who sleeps over the store, was aroused about 12.30 o'clock by a furious ringing of the bell. He at once arose and upon going to the door found that the bell had been broken, and the wire and handle carried off. He saw two men running off, but of course was not able to identify them. Mr. Tully is naturally aggrieved and will willingly pay a reward of $5 for the conviction of the guilty person or persons. Another argument for night police.

Who Is She?

Several of our exchanges state that a woman from Peterboro in the Hotel Dieu, Montreal, is endeavoring to cure her-self of opium eating. She was travelling in Europe with a lady, and there became addicted to the habit. She often eats an ounce in a day. When the drug is not given to her in small quantities at the hospital, she acts like a lunatic. She is thought to be a hopeless case. No person here appears to know who it is and the general question asked is, who is she?

New M. D's.

We are pleased to notice among the names of those who received degrees, at the recent convocation of Trinity College Toronto, no less than three Peterborough boys, Messrs. G. S. Beck, T. Sullivan and E. A. Spillsbury, all of whom received the degree of M. D., C. M. We congratulate them on their well earned honors, and wish them success.

The Scottish Vocalists.

The Members of the Kennedy Family of Scottish Vocalists, arrived by the 11.30 train to-day, and are registered at the "Oriental." We are requested to state that a plan of the reserved seats is now on view at the bookstore of Wilson & Davis, so that seats may be secured before this evening's concert.

CANADIAN ORDER OF FORESTERS.

Complimentary Supper to the Members by the Officers of Court Peterborough.

The Canadian Order of Foresters, though with one exception; the youngest of the benevolent societies in this town, has so firmly established itself that Court Peterborough No. 29, now boasts of as many members as any single lodge of any benevolent order in town. The primary objects of the society are to relieve sick members as long as the sickness may continue, provide for funeral expenses in case of death and pay $1,000 to the widow or family of the deceased member. The Canadian order is an off-shoot from the American order, and has only been established for about two years, during which period it has made astonishing progress and has now obtained such a firm foothold, that new courts are being established almost every day, and the membership is increasing at a very rapid rate.

On Thursday evening the newly elected officers of Court Peterborough, tendered a complimentary supper to the members of the Court and a few invited guests, at Mr. A. P. Morgan's hotel. At the appointed hour about thirty-five persons sat down to the table, prepared to eat the tasty bivalves which were prepared in Mr. Morgan's well known first-class style.

The chair was occupied by Mr. Jas. Byrne, Chief Ranger, who was supported on his left by Mayor Smith and on his right by Mr. Edgecombe Pearse, County Clerk and Treasurer, and the Vice-chairs were filled by Mr. F. J Jameson, Vice-Chief Ranger, and Mr. Robert Robertson, Chaplain. After grace by the Chaplain, the attack commenced and was continued all along the line until the plates looked rather empty.

After the eatables had been disposed of, the Chairman proposed "the Queen," received with the usual honors, the company singing "God Save the Queen."

"The Prince and Princess of Wales," and "The Governor General and the Princess Louise," followed.

The First Vice. proposed the "Army, Navy and Volunteers." Song: "Jolly Good Fellows."

SERGEANT MAJOR WATSON replied for the latter body, referring to their deeds in the past, and stating that they were always ready to respond to the call of duty.

MR. H. W. WATSON, proposed "The High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters."

MR. H. NESBITT, D. D. H. C. R., in rising to respond, said he had no idea, when he entered the room, that he would be called on to respond to such a toast. When the Foresters' Court was first organized in Peterborough, they were the I. O. F., but finding that the Southern death calls were too high, the Canadian Order had been organized about two years ago. The Canadian Courts first asked the High Court for separation as to endowment. This was refused; so they seceded and formed the Canadian High Court. Then they only had 400 members and 19 Courts. Many at first were doubtful of the ultimate success of the infant Court, as they did not think the endowment imposed would be sufficient, but it had been found that the fee of 50 cents per month from each member, was sufficient to pay $1,000 for each of the death calls. The Order had, on the 1st of June last, 1,710 members. During the first year five deaths took place, still no extra calls had been made, and at present, after paying $8,000 for death calls, the order has from $6,000 to $7,000 to their credit. He then read at some length from the organ of the Order, an article setting out the principles of the Order. He explained that the 50 cents per month from each member was sent to the High Treasurer, who deposited it in the bank, and ample security was given for the amount and the money was so placed that it could not be drawn without the consent of the officers, thus affording ample security. If a member is sick, after the first week the Court pays $3 per week to his family and furnishes a physician free of charge. In case of death this Court pays $30 for funeral expenses, and pays to the widow or family of the deceased member $1,000. The death rate of insurance companies is 8 in 1,000 while the Court provided for 6 in 1,000 for the reason that insurance companies took men up to the age of sixty while the Court did not take any over forty-five. Again, the members look after one another, visiting the sick, and if a member is misbehaving himself in any particular, the matter is reported to the Court and steps are taken to put a stop to the misbehaviour.

The FIRST VICE CHAIRMAN proposed "Sister Benevolent Societies."

Responses were made by Messrs. G. H. Johnston, D.D.G.M., for the I.O.O.F., Mr. Jos. McLelland for the A.O.U.W., and J. R. Stratton for the A.F. and A.M.

Mr. R. WRIGHT proposed "Canada our Home."

Song, Mr. G. H. JOHNSTON, "God Bless Our Dominion." Response by Mr. J. R. Stratton.

Mr. H. W. WATSON proposed "The Mayor and Corporation."

MAYOR SMITH replied at considerable length, thanking the officers of the Court for their courtesy, and wishing them success. He gave a resume of the principal questions that had come before the Council during the past year, and spoke of the economy practiced in everything, and showing that our rate of taxation was lower than that of any town or city in Canada. He concluded an able speech by paying a compliment to the Clerk and Treasurer of the town, whom he eulogized as a painstaking and efficient official. (Applause.)

Mr. E. PEARSE, auditor, also returned thanks.

"The Learned Professions," by the chair was responded to by Mayor Smith, who returned thanks for the legal profession. He regretted the absence of the Court Physician, Dr. King, who was unable to be present, and congratulated the Court on having such a worthy officer, and one so well qualified to fill the arduous position. His Worship's remarks were received with loud applause.

The FIRST VICE CHAIRMAN gave the "mercantile and manufacturing interests." Responded to by Messrs. R. Robertson, F. Foote and G. Kingdon, the latter of whom blamed the N. P. for the prosperous times.

"The Ladies" by Mr. H. NESBITT elicited, responses from Messrs. G. H. Johnston, R. Wright and J. G. Macdonald.

"The Press" by Mr. R. WRIGHT was responded to by Messrs. Stratton and Jameson, Examiner, and Macdonald, REVIEW.

Mr. E. PEARSE, in a very neat speech, gave "The officers and members of Court Peterborough, No. 41, C.O.F," to which Mr. J. Byrne, C.R., returned thanks as did Mr. F. J. Jameson, V.R.

The CHAIRMAN proposed "The Host and Hostess." "Jolly Good Fellows." Mr. Morgan returned thanks.

The gathering, which by the way was one of the most agreeable and enjoyable that it has ever been our lot to attend, was brought to a close by singing "God Save the Queen," and "Auld Laug Syne."

Mill Refuse Furnaces.

During the last week there has been shipped from Mr. W. Hamilton's foundry the prepared material for two mill refuse furnaces, one for Byng Inlet, and the other for Port Severn. Another will shortly be shipped to Waubaushene, and an extra large one will be made during the winter for shipment to Trenton. These burners, or furnaces, are immense circular structures of plate iron, lined with fire brick. They are from twenty to thirty feet in diameter at the base, and from one hundred to one hundred and twenty feet high. With a well appointed system of sawdust and slab carriers, the premises about a saw mill may be kept as neat as around a woollen factory. All the leading mills are getting them.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

BOTH HIS ARMS BROKEN.—The Guide says that on Wednesday Mr. B. D. Deering's eldest son, Robby, climbed up a willow tree on Julia street, after birds nests, when the limb broke and the boy fell to the ground, some fifteen or twenty feet, breaking both his arms. A surgeon was called who reduced the fracture. The little fellow is doing as well as can be expected.

SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of many to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Tender for Work in British Columbia.

SEALED TENDERS will be received by the undersigned up to NOON on WEDNESDAY, the 1st day of FEBRUARY next, in a lump sum, for the construction of that portion of the road between Port Moody and the West-end of Contract 60, near Emory's Bar, a distance of about 85 miles.

Specifications, conditions of contract and forms of tender may be obtained on application at the Canadian Pacific Railway Office, in New Westminister, and at the Chief Engineer's Office at Ottawa, after 1st January next, at which time plans and profiles will be open for inspection at the latter office.

This timely notice is given with a view to giving Contractors an opportunity of visiting and examining the grounds during the fine season and before the winter sets in.

Mr. Marcus Smith, who is in charge at the office at New Westminister, is instructed to give Contractors all the information in his power.

No tender will be entertained unless on one of the printed forms, addressed to F. Braun, Esq., Sec. Dept. of Railways and Canals, and marked "Tender for C. P. R."

BELLEVILLE.

CAPTURE OF MACDONALD AND BASS.—The Intelligencer says that for nearly a week the county authorities have been searching for Macdonald and Bass, the miscreants who wrecked the house of Mr. Michael Brennan one day last week, but though the whole country round was scoured no trace of the two men could be found. They were, however, arrested on Tuesday night and lodged in the police cells here. The capture was made single-handed by policeman Newton. Between 11 and 12 o'clock two men passed him while he was standing on the upper bridge. The bright moonlight enabled him to recognize the men as Macdonald and Bass, and he immediately gave chase. The two men ran, but the officer soon overtook them, and laid hold of Macdonald, who, by accident or design, fell suddenly to the ground, and Newton tripped over him and fell also. When Bass saw that the officer was engaged with Macdonald he made no further effort to escape, but quietly walked on. Newton quickly rose to his feet, and looking down on the prostrate Macdonald, saw him drawing a revolver from his hip pocket. He had already got it out and was just about to point it when the officer pounced upon him, and after a short struggle wrenched the weapon from his hand. He then levelled the revolver at Bass, who had gone only a short distance, and called to him to stop and give himself up, or he would shoot. Bass went no further, and when the officer and Macdonald came up to him he was ordered to walk on a few paces ahead, which he did, and in this way the little procession moved down to the police station, where the two prisoners were safely lodged in the cells.

Blake And Independence.

The Hamilton Spectator says:—The Bobcaygeon Independent has indorsed Mr. Blake. And so long as the honorable gentleman enjoys the approval of his conscience and of Bobcaygeon he can afford to smile at the sneers of envy and at all the spurns which patient merit of the unworthy takes. It is a coincidence that at the very moment when Mr. Blake's name is popularly associated with the revised agitation in favor of Independence, he should be patted on the back by the Independent. And the Independent of Bobcaygeon, too. How funny it would be if the rallying cry of the Reformers at the next election should be "Blake, Bobcaygeon and Independence forever!

DECIDING LAND CASES.

DUBLIN, Nov. 11.—The Downpatrick Land Commission to-day announced its decision in sixteen cases on the Martin and Cornwall estates. Among the reductions are £10 on a rent of £21, £15 on £41, £4 on £19, £8 on £22, £4 on £17, and £8 on £27. In one case the existing rent was confirmed.

TREASURY FRAUDS.

MADRID, Nov. 11.—A telegram from Havana announces a discovery made by the Director-General of Finance in Cuba, of recent frauds amounting to several millions of dollars in the Treasury. The accounts are now being secretly investigated.

"HUNT AHEAD."

DUBLIN, Nov. 11.—Mr. Parnell has written to a member of the Wicklow Hunt enclosing a subscription, and stating that he hopes hunting will not be stopped.

"NEVER."

COLOGAE, Nov. 11.—The Gazette says that should Prince Bismarck resign the Chancellorship we hope the Emperor's answer will be 'never,' as far as the guidance of Germany's foreign relations are concerned; but, with regard to her domestic and social policy, may it, in God's name be entrusted to some less hasty and more skilful hand, for the empire needs internal repose.

GERMAN ELECTIONS.

BERLIN, Nov. 11.—The returns from the supplementary elections continue to be more and more unpleasant to the Government. At Gnees, a town of about 1,500 inhabitants, at Offenbach, in Hesse Darmstadt, with a population of about 18,000 souls, at Freiburg and at Stuttgart, the Socialists have returned their candidates. At Magdeburg, Schwern, and Eigenach the Progressists have been successful. At Delitzsch the Secessionist has been elected. At Leipsig a National Liberal has been returned. Hanover has returned a member of the Centre; Ladersion, Dare, and Dresden have elected the Conservative candidates. The meeting of the new Reichstag is looked forward to with much apprehension. A serious change of policy on the part of the Government is thought to be absolutely necessary to prevent something like a revolution. In the supplementary elections Prince Hohenlohe was defeated by three thousand votes by a Progessist.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.

PARIS, Nov. 11.—Last night an attempt was made to murder a M. Durand, said to be an American. He had just left the Cafe de Paris and was in front of the Avenue de l'Opera when an individual who had been posted on the other side of the street crossed over and fired two shots from a revolver at him. The assassin was quite close, but fortunately both times missed his aim. He was arrested. The motive of the crime is unknown, for at the first report M. Durand fled, and has not since been heard from.

PROHIBITING IT.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The captain of the steamer Germanic has been fined £10 for bringing into the dock cases of cartridges shipped at New York, in spite of the prohibition, and not indicated on the bill of lading.

CHARGES AGAINST POLICE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 11.—Indictments against three high police officials who failed to discover the Little Garden street mine, charges that their negligence contributed towards the death of the Czar.

A MONOPOLY.

DUBLIN, Nov. 12.—The Transvaal Government have granted a monopoly of the gold fields to private speculators, and have forbidden the public from trespassing thereon. They have also ordered that the English miners be driven away.

THE SPANISH CORTES.

MADRID, Nov. 11.—The debate on the reply to the royal speech was continued in the Chamber of Deputies to-day. Senor Martos declared that his party would cordially support all Liberal Governments. Premier Sapasta welcomed the adhesion of the Monarchical Democrats to the present regime. He said no European country enjoyed greater liberty and order than Spain at the present time. He prefered the constitution to previous ones because it was more liberal regarding religious toleration. The Premier announced that the Cabinet is perfectly united on its home and foreign policies.

FREEDOM OF WORSHIP.

The Supreme Council of penitentiary establishments has decided to allow prisoners to ask attendance of ministers of their own creed. Nobody belonging to other religions will be forced to attend Catholic worship. Other private officials in prison and penal settlements will be appointed without distinction of creed.

DIRECT TRADE.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The Mayor of Hull, speaking of commerce with America, said he believed arrangements were about to be made by which direct trade with Hull and Baltimore will be opened. When the deep water docks of Hull were constructed the Inmans might send some large steamers to Hull.

THE MARQUIS OF LORNE.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—There is reason to believe that the Marquis of Lorne has every intention of returning to Canada early in 1882.

INDIAN COTTON DUTIES.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Lord Hartington, replying to an enquiry presented to him by a deputation of Manchester merchants, said he must refuse to pledge the Government to remove the Indian import cotton duties.

AMERICAN.

THE CONFEDERATE WEALTH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Herald says: The estimates presented to the treasury for various times after the war, of the confederate proptrty in Europe and some parts of this continent aggregate $41,000,000. The treasury agents, who recovered $100,000 in Europe, only turned over $5000 to the treasury. It is stated that the English agents for the Confederacy compromised a claim of nearly $10,000,000 against them for $80,000.

SNOW ON THE UNION PACIFIC.

OMAHA, Nov. 11.—Owing to a snowstorm and heavy drifts the overland train from the west was abandoned.

A RING BOSS RELEASED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Harry Genet, or "Prince," Hal, one of Tweed's accomplices in the great frauds in connection with the New York Court House, was released from the penitentiary to day, after 8 months imprisonment. Genet's friends had to pay a fine of $9000 before he was released.

ANOTHER BANK EMBEZZLER.

ATLANTA, Nov. 12.—Wm. Paterson, cashier of the Citizens' Bank, which failed in April, was arrested yesterday charged by J. K. Carleton with embezzlement of $200,000. Paterson denies the charge and has entered a prosecution against Carleton for perjury.

DEATH ON THE RAIL.

BATAVIA, N.Y., Nov. 12.—Yesterday Ellison McLean, brother-in-law of the late treasurer E. B. Maxwell, while surveying the road for two tracks between Rochester and Buffalo, having the instruments between two passenger trains, and while one train was moving he stepped on the other track and was struck by the train on the other track and horribly crushed. He died shortly afterwards.

JOINED THE MAJORITY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The Hoffman Fire Insurance Company on account of poor business has decided to wind up and re-insure its risks.

SUSPECTED FENAINS

BRUCETOWN, Pa., Nov. 12.—It is reported that five men, supposed to be Fenains, are manufacturing explosives in a cave near here. A party has gone to investigate.

AN ENORMOUS INCREASE.

WASH. Nov. 12.—The annual report of the chief of the Bureau of statistics shows that the aggregate traffic on the New York Central, Erie and Pennsylvania Railway, was more than three times as great in 1880 as in 1868, and that the average freight charges in 1880 were sixty per cent less than during 1868. The report is in favor of the supervision of railways by expert public Commissioners.

LAKEFIELD NEWS.

From our own Correspondent.

GUY FAWKES.

The anniversary of the gun powder plot, was celebrated in Lakefield on Saturday evening the 5th November, by the burning of old Guy with a good deal of pomp and show. At about 8 o'clock a procession of about 30 torch-bearers was formed headed by an effigy or representation of Guy Fawkes placed upon a scaffold carried by four young men. The torch bearers were nearly all fantastically dressed. The procession marched through the principal streets of the village and by the time it had reached the corner of Queen and Reid streets quite a considerable crowd had collected to witness the performance. A bon-fire was made on the water mill reserve and after a hearty cheer and considerable shouting the crowd dispersed and every one seemed homeward bound. Every thing was carried out orderly and quietly.

ANOTHER SHANTY.

Mr. John McCoy, foreman for Messrs. R. & G. Strickland, started from here on Tuesday last for their limits in the township of Hindon with a gang of men, for the purpose of taking out timber and saw-logs.

A NOBLE ACT.

On Tuesday evening, the 8th inst., Master Robert McWilliams, son of Councillor McWilliams, went around the village and in a very short time gathered up a crowd of boys, who, with axes on their shoulders, marched through Queen street with joyous steps to the wood yard belonging to an old and infirm couple living on Regent street. A large quantity of wood which had lately been drawn was soon split and neatly piled, and the boys left for their homes enjoying the consiousness of having done a noble act. This act of the Lakefield boys, led by Master McWilliams, has been the theme of conversation in the village, and had as it should received general commendation. Many of our boys were sorry that they were not notified.

STILL ANOTHER SHANTY.

Mr. Leon Dion, foreman for Messrs. R. & G. Strickland, of Lakefield, left for their limits in the Township of Oakly, with a large number of men for the purpose of taking out square timber for the above firm. This makes four shanties that the Messrs. Strickland have already started. We believe the same firm intends to put into the woods a couple more shanties in the course of ten days or a fortnight.

DIPHTHERIA.

Diphtheria is still spreading in Burleigh. Mr. Thomas Boulton, recently of that township, but formerly of Lakefield, lost a child a few days ago from the decease, and we are informed that he has seven other children down with it.

NEW STATION.

The erection of the new station proceeds rapidly, though Mr. Tanner has but a small gang of men employed. The frame is up and is being rapidly enclosed.

STEAMER CRUISER.

The steamer Cruiser started again on Thursday November 10th, after having been laid up for some time on account of the water being stopped or dammed back at Buckhorn and Young's Point. The Cruiser has still a considerable quantity of timber, cord wood, etc., to bring down from Stoney Lake. Whether her work will be done or not depends entirely on Jack Frost.

PARIS, Nov. 11.—Nothing is known as yet as to the probable composition of M. Gambetta's Cabinet, and there is less speculation than usual on the subject, owing to the conviction that the new Premier will not consider himself bound either by old claims or new pretensions in the selection of its elements. So much is expected from what is styled "Le Grand Ministere" that mistakes in the choice of the Premier's colleagues must be avoided even at the cost of political ties or personal friendships. For this reason it may be some days before a list of the new Ministry is published.

PEOPLE ARE BEGINNING to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa- Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

GET OUT OF DOORS.—The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle.—Christian Recorder.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1881.

THE COMING CONVENTION.

ASSUMING that the convention about to meet in Toronto has been called for the purpose of consultation, and not to ratify some cut and dried resolutions, and that it will influence to a certain extent at least, the future policy of the Dominion Government, it would seem to be not out of place for us, in anticipation of its meeting, to point out the direction in which we think the future policy of the Government should be directed. The country being prosperous, and, as a consequence, the revenue so booming that even the opponents of the Government have to concede the fact, there can be little doubt but that the propriety of reducing taxation, or entering upon more liberal expenditures for public improvements, will be among the questions which will receive consideration. For our own part, we have no doubt as to the proper policy for the Government to adopt under existing circumstances, and that is, that they should at once go on with not a few of those public improvements which are decidedly required both in the present and future interests of the Dominion.

In the first place we have no hesitation in declaring against any general reduction in the present tariff at the present time, because we believe that such a course would have a tendency to increase imports, which in prosperous times require to be repressed rather than encouraged. It cannot be disputed that our past financial troubles, as a people, have always been preceded and intensified by excessive imports, and that looking at it from this point of view alone, the true policy would be to increase rather than decrease our import duties, even though such increases gave us a revenue which could only be employed in paying off old scores at a much faster rate than was necessary.

But in a young and undeveloped country like Canada, there is plenty of room for the judicious expenditure of our surplus revenue, even if it were double what it is. We have a magnificent country to develope, and he only is the true statesman who seizes the present opportunity, not to make some paltry reductions in our customs duties, in deference to an opponent's cry for "lower taxation," but to carry out those public works which are essential to the growth of the country—works without which its resources cannot be developed—works, the future existence of which will the better enable our people successfully to weather the next "spell of bad times," which we cannot hope to escape altogether, even under the best Government—although Governments can do much to alleviate them. We venture to predict that out of all the counties which will be represented at Toronto on the 22nd inst., there will not be one whose delegation will be unable to name some public work, the construction of which at least a majority of the people whom they represent would much prefer to see carried out rather than any possible reduction that could at present be made in the taxation, which some would have us believe, they are groaning under.

THE MIDLAND CONSOLIDATION.

A Line From Toronto to the Seaboard via Ottawa—The Sault Ste. Marie Branch.

A matter at present attracting a great deal of attention in railway circles is the projected consolidation of the Midland, Victoria, Toronto and Nipissing, Whitby, Port Perry and Lindsay, Grand Junction, and Toronto and Ottawa railways. A meeting of the representatives of each of these railways is to be held on the 12th of December next, to finally settle on a definite basis of consolidation. It will be seen that the scheme includes almost every railway line of consequence running east and north between Toronto and Brockville. The advantages sought to be gained by the consolidation are numerous, and of very great importance to the commercial interests of the Province of Ontario, and particularly to those portions lying north and east of Toronto. To obtain a clear idea of the interests to be served by the scheme a Globe reporter yesterday interviewed Mr. Robert Jaffray, of this city, who is a prominent promoter of the scheme.

TORONTO TO OTTAWA.

"One of the great aims of the project," said Mr. Jaffray, "is to secure by the consolidation of these lines of railway a tolerably direct route from Toronto to Ottawa, such as will give all the advantages that would have been secured by the construction of the Toronto and Ottawa road as at first proposed. It will be seen that by means of the building of two or three short connecting links this connection can be obtained."

"Between what points is it proposed to build these links?"

"Well, as you are aware, the Toronto and Nipissing Railway is a party to the scheme. It is proposed to widen the gauge on that road to the standard—indeed work in that direction is at present going on. Trains, therefore, will leave Toronto on that line and proceed up as far, probably, as far as Wick, from which point a six-mile link will give connection with the Whitby, Port Perry and Lindsay road at Manilla, thence along the W. P. P., and L. to Lindsay, where a junction with the Midland is formed, which will carry the line to Omemee. from this point it is proposed to build a direct link of 15 miles across to Peterborough. Here connection is made with the Grand Junction Railway, and a clear line is then gained away on to Madoc. From Madoc it will be necessary to construct a link running into Ottawa, a distance of about 125 miles, on the original Toronto and Ottawa survey. Work on this section has already been begun, and on that portion between Madoc and Bridgewater, construction is being vigorously pushed forward."

"Is it the intention, then, to complete that link at once?"

"No, not immediately. The line will be put through to Perth, a distance of 71 miles, with all necessary speed, and in the meantime such connections for Ottawa as can be made there with the Brockville and Ottawa Railway will be taken advantage of. The distance from Perth to Ottawa is less than 54 miles."

"What connection eastward from Ottawa do you anticipate to make, in order to get through to the seaboard, for, of course, that necessarily forms a portion of your scheme?"

"Once in Ottawa the Coteau Railway will furnish an outlet, and at Coteau Landing, on the St. Lawrence, a ready means of access to the United States will be obtained."

"Your proposed line from Toronto to Ottawa however, Mr. Jaffray, will lack the directness which the original plan of the Toronto and Ottawa would have given, will it not?"

"It is true it will not be so nearly an air line but I am of opinion it will serve its purpose and the public demands equally well. And when you come to compare the lines there is actually not so much difference. The Toronto and Ottawa was surveyed to the south of Lake Scugog, while our scheme will simply take the north side, and in either case a divergence from the straight line would be necessary. The country to the south of the lake, through portions of Cavan, Manvers, and Cartwright, is of an exceedingly rough nature, where great difficulties in construction would be met. On the north side the line is already built, and all further trouble on that score is obviated. From Peterborough eastward to Madoc, where the line will run over the Grand Junction Railway, there is a deflection to the south from the original route of the Toronto and Ottawa line, but this might easily be remedied in the future if it were found that it was any considerable deterriment to the road. But I do not think it will be. The link from Madoc to Ottawa will, as I have said, be over the original route of the Toronto and Ottawa Railway."

GRAIN AND LUMBER INTERESTS.

"What other ends is the proposed consolidation likely to secure, Mr. Jaffray?"

"One of the most valuable will be the opening of a route from Chicago, Thunder Bay, and Duluth by steamer to Midland harbour, and thence over the consolidated road to Toronto, Port Hope, and Belleville. As you know, the northern terminus of the Midland Railway is at Midland, and since its completion to that point a few years ago the traffic over the line from Chicago and the North-West has been rapidly increasing. The article of shipment is of course mainly grain, and for the accommodation of the traffic elevators of large capacity have been built at Midland, Port Hope and Belleville, and one will also be built at Toronto."

"What sort of lake accommodation is there for the traffic to Midland?"

"Next season it is proposed to place two large passenger steamers on the line between Chicago, Duluth, Thunder Bay, and Midland, besides as many propellers and other vessels as may be necessary for the traffic."

"What advantages for the purpose of grain transhipment does the proposed line possess over others having termini on Georgian Bay."

"In the first place, at Midland there is undoubtedly the finest natural harbor on Georgian Bay or Lake Huron, and the distance to Toronto is from five to ten miles shorter than by any other line. Besides these advantages, grain intended for exportation may be shipped directly over the Midland to Peterborough, and hence by the Grand Junction to Belleville, where it can be immediately transhipped on barges down the river. This is a great gain to shippers, and cannot be obtained with safety—if at all—at points farther west on Lake Ontario.

"An end of much importance to Toronto which the proposed line will serve," said Mr. Jaffray, "will be the shipment of lumber. From about Waubaushene, and away on north from that point to the Nipissing district must come the future supplies of lumber, as well for Western Ontario as for the export trade. In addiion to those at present in operation it is intended to erect several extensive saw-mills at Midland, and the product of these, when the western trade is to be supplied, will be sent down the Nipissing Railway to Toronto. When it is to be exported it will probably go by Port Hope and Belleville, these points offering, as will be readily observed, superior advantages for that purpose. At Belleville a capital location exists for the rafting of square timber for export. When this is done at points farther west losses are of frequent occurrence through the rafts being broken up by the storms which rise in the open waters of the lake.

THE SAULT STE. MARIE BRANCH.

"Is it proposed in course of time to push the system thus consolidated on to Sault Ste. Marie?"

"That is the intention. The line will start either from Atherly (opposite Orillia) or Kirkfield, and, proceeding north through Muskoka, pass to the south of Lake Nipissing into Algoma and thence on to the Sault. Here connection will be made with the American railways, and the great national route to Manitoba and the North-West will be consummated. The distance from Atherly or Kirkfield to the Sault is 350 miles."

Mr. Jaffray went on to speak of the general advantages that such a consolidated scheme would give, the great local traffic it would command, and its importance as a factor in the development of the resources of the country.

Mr. Geo. A. Cox, President of the Midland Railway, was also conversed with on the subject of the consolidation, and gave information similar to that contained in the interview above.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and complete restoration of vigor and manhood. Also for Rheumatism, neuralgia, Paralysis, Liver and Kidney difficulties, Ruptures, and many other diseases. Illustrated pamphlet sent free. Address Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

A PROTECTED PROFESSION.

Under the above heading the London Free Press hits the present leader of the revenue tariffites the following neat and pointed tap square on the head:—The Globe is mistaken in supposing that the Free Press has any objection to the fact that Mr. Blake has amassed a large fortune at the practice of the law. On the contrary, we hold that he is fully entitled to the happy result of his industry and talents, which in each case has been exceptionally prominent. But we pointed to him as a prominent member of a highly protected profession—one hedged round and round with legislative aids, which not only keeps the everlasting Yankee from trespassing upon the privileges of his pasture field, but holds many of his own countrymen at arm's length also. The legal profession is a highly protected one. It is the avenue to the highest places of trust and profit in the community. It is not one open to competition on the part of all comers, but is a special and pet preserve in which a chosen few luxuriate, and many become rich. We do not object to this, because it has been thought by many well capable of judging of the matter, that it is better for all concerned that it should be so. Certainly it is better for the members of the legal fraternity themselves, because under the legislative ægis which protects them, their fees are set forth and secured, and obtain priority of payment. The members of it do not run those many commercial risks to which the manufacturer is exposed. They do not find their goods subjected to an intermittent process of "slaughtering." They are not the subjects of fierce combinations on the part of foreign capitalists to break down and ruin their industry. No, no! The sharp winds which grind the faces off many a manufacturer blow as kindly zephers in their cosy offices and comfortable homes. What the Free Press pointed at was, that the leading representative of an interest so specially favored should be among the last to step forward and deny to the Canadian manufacturer some measure of protection which would temper the blasts of adversity. When they were blowing across this fair land did they sacrify the countenance of Mr. Blake? Not at all. He continued to gather in riches, and could come up smiling every morning, while care and anxiety were imprinted upon the countenances of those whose time, and talents, and capital, were devoted to the pursuit of manufactures and cognate industries. That interest found true friends in Sir John Macdonald and the leaders of the Liberal-Conservative party. And they are not likely to forget the benefits they received at their hands, because one so highly protected in his professional pursuits as Mr. Blake thinks fit to belie his own experience, and tells them that protection is a bad thing.

FOR DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND—A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease. More particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.—2

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourisling breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of many to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

READING FOR SUNDAY.

PRAYER FOR FRIENDS.

Father, who to us has given
Love and friends as Summer flowers,
Who hath brought the once sad-hearted
To the joys of many hours;
Hear us, Friend of love divine,
Let the friends we love be thine.

Lo! they gather at the fireside—
Happy hearts and shining eyes;
And they walk along the valleys,
Cheering us with sympathies;
But we ask thee evermore,
Let them all Thy name adore.

Look upon the merry children,
Look upon the happy young;
And, by their sweet, ringing voices,
Let thy words of praise be sung,
That their happy lives may be Given alone, O Lord, to thee.

When shall fall the evening shadows,
And the sunset dyes are deep,
And the children, safely sheltered,
Calm and happy fall asleep;
And hands uncling that held us fast,
Let not that parting be the last.

Let us meet again in heaven,
Undivided families;
Heart to heart in happy greeting,
And unbroken sympathies,
In thy home, and near to thee,
Let us with our dear ones be.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

A NEW international Belgian expedition is to be organized by Major Hanssens and Lieutenant Vandevelde.

IT is understood that the withdrawal of British troops from South Africa will proceed with all speed.

IN ten years the church membership of Madagascar has nearly doubled, increasing from 37,113 to 71,585.

THE Gospel of St. Luke has been translated into the Yahgan language, spoken by the natives of Patagonia.

WHOEVER entertains you with the faults of others, designs to serve you in a similiar manner.

JOHN BRIGHT wisely says: Every man must work at something. The moment he stops working for himself the devil employs him.

NEVER sacrifice a right principle to obtain a favour. The cost is too great. If you cannot secure what is right and needful for you by square and manly conduct, better to do without by all odds. A little self-denial is better than dishonour.

A BAND of five missionaries have started from Wuchang, in Central China, for the purpose of opening a mission in the provinces of Kweichau, in the west of China. The station is 1,500 miles from Shanshai, and about 900 miles from Wuchang. This is certainly good pioneer work.

REV. CANON WILBERFORCE: "People talk about regulating liquor traffic; they might as well try to regulate toothache, when the true remedy is extract." The advocates of the license law would say: "Tie a stingent rag around the jaw, and leave the effected molar to throb and 'stoon.' Drawing the tooth would savour too much of coercive legislature."

A COLPORTAGE law has lately been passed in France, allowing any Frenchman to hawk religious books. The cemeteries have been declared national property, hence away go burial squabbles over Protestant graves; and Protestant soldiers and all Protestant functionaries of the Government as well as other folks are released from bowing to the Host at great national celebrations.

BISHOP CROWTHER, of the Niger, in Africa, was recently called upon by a wealthy chief from Okrika, a town which had never been visited by a mission agent, who stated that Christianity had extended from the Boony mission to that town, and that the people had built a church accommodating 500 people, where the service was read every Sunday to crowded congregations by a schoolboy from the Brass mission.

During the discussion of "Training Schools for Native Converts in Heathen Lands," at the Ecumenical Conference, the Rev. James Calvort, (Wesleyan Methodist) made the following instructive statement:—"In Fiji we have 23,000 church members, and 5,000 on trial for church membership. The great work of God in Fiji has been accomplished mainly through the instrumentality of native agents. We have employed there 48 native ministers and 996 catechists and lay teachers. All of these are paid for by the persons for whose benefit they labour and we find that this works remarkably well. In addition to these helpers of our great work there, we have 2,252 school teachers, 1,405 local preachers, and 2,733 class-leaders. We had to employ early, as native labourers, persons who had not been educated or trained to any great extent. They were truly converted, their souls were right, and they were anxious to benefit their countrymen, and they gave themselves to this work, and we appointed them and sent them forth. Besides this, each circuit or station has its regular training institution, instructing and training native agents for the great work in which they are employed."

The American Elections.

The Democrats claim that they have not only carried the State of New York in respect of the unimportant judiciary offices, but that they have gained a working majority in the Senate and the Assembly too. A month or two ago this result might have been expected as the result of the dissensions in the Republican ranks consequent on Mr. Conkling's withdrawal, but latterly it has appeared probable that the Republicans would hold their own, for the Democratic party was not without its divisions' Under the circumstances, the Democrat victory, if all that is claimed has been won, is a significant fact, and the winning party is to be congratulated upon its success having been the result of a break with the disreputable element which has hitherto brought contempt and disaster upon it.

The Democrats have made important gains elsewhere. In Wisconsin they narrowly escaped winning what has hitherto been a banner Republican State. In Minnesota the Republican majorities are reduced. In Virginia the Readjusters seem to have gone down before the straight Democrats. In Pennsylvania the majority claimed by the Republicans is very small, and that is disputed.

It is not frequently the case that in the year succeeding a Presidential election there is a reaction against the victorious party. But the best judges did not think the reaction would manifest itself this year, for the reason that the Republican majority in 1879 was so slender, and the public sympathy for its head had been so brought out by the recent deplorable events in Washington.

It is to be feared that the defeat in New York, which will be ascribed directly to the absence of Conkling, will call the Republican party to fall back into the machine rut from which it had partly wrenched itself free.—Globe.

HAGYARD'S YELLOW OIL will be found in valuable for all purposes of a family liniment. Immediate relief will follow its use in all cases of pain in the stomach, bowels or sides; rheumatism, colic, colds, sprains and bruises. For internal and external use. It has no equal in the world for what it is recommended. For sale by all dealers at 25c. per bottle.

FROM ALL OVER.

THE Archbishop of Canterbury has promised to become one of the presidents of the Church Funeral and Mourning Reform Association.

A TYPHOON in China has demolished thousands of buildings. The loss of life and prevalent qistress are described as terrible.

A PROMINENT lawyer in Ottawa had recently a narrow escape from marrying an adventuress, supposed to be an escaped convict.

THE bench of judges in Massachusetts have endorsed Chief Justice Gray's decision against the admission of women to the bar of that state.

FOUR hundred cars of stone and brick have been shipped from Belleville to Campbellford for use in the new woollen mills in that village.

THE Joseph Hall Manufacturing Company received a letter the other day from a mill owner in Adilade, Cape of Good Hope, inquiring for water wheels.

MRS. MONEY has commenced a suit against her sister, the Baroness Burdett-Coutts, in reference to the fortune passing under the will of the late Duchess of St. Albans.

THE chief clerk of the Imperial Hotel Steubenville, Ohio, Mr. John M. Heagland, heartily indorses St. Jacobs Oil. By applying it to his throat he relieved himself of severe pain and was cured of a chronic sore throat that nothing would relieve.

DESERVING OF PRAISE.—Too much cannot be expressed in favor of that unsurpassed remedy for coughs, colds, asthma, croup, sore throat, and all lung complaints. If you suffer from neglected colds, try Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. The cost is trifling, only 25 cents.

THE employees of the extensive factory of Booth and Fox, Cork, have forwarded to Mr. Parnell a present of an eider down dressing gown, made on the most elaborate principles, and combining comfort and fashion.

KEEP THE FEET DRY.—This is the season of sloppy weather so productive of colds, and lung troubles; neglected cold or damp feet is a great source of these difficulties. Cure your cough with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Pleasant to take and always reliable.

THE Mark Lane Express finds that the average reduction on new lettings in England is thirty per cent, or more than the Irish landlords expect to lose by the decisions of the Land Court.

THE Spanish Government are about to submit a bill authorizing negotiations with France for a tunnel through the Pyrenees, near Somport, at the joint expense of the two countries.

No articles ever attained such unbounded popularity in so short a time as Burdock Blood Bitters, and that too during the existence of countless numbers of widely advertised bitters and blood purifiers. It is evident that this medicine begins its work at once, and leaves no desirable effect unattained.

STRINGENT orders have been issued to officers commanding Irish garrisons to send an experienced officer in charge of troops attending Catholic places of worship; and, if any allusion be made to Land League or political matters, he is instructed to take prompt measures for removing his men and reporting the occurrence to head quarters.

MORE ascents of Mont Blanc have been made during the past season than on any previous year. Between July and October, sixty-four tourists, of whom nineteen were French, seventeen English and six Americans, gained the summit. Three were ladies, natives respectivly of England, France and Switzerland.

THE HEAD AND STOMACH.—When the head aches the stomach is, almost invariably, the cause. A single dose of Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills will relieve the former though purifying the latter, and restoring its tone. These great cathartics are sold everywhere. They never fail! Try them.

DR. CARSON'S STOMACH AND CONSTIPATION BITTERS, are rapidly taking the place of all other purgatives, including Pills, Powders, etc., There action is mild yet effectual and they are a certain cure for all bilious complaints. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

THE Channel tunnel between France and England is no longer a question of preliminary experiments. The boring has already been effected to the extent of 1,800 metres from the French and 1,600 metres from the English side. This makes altogether rather more than one-tenth of the entire distance to be pierced.

THE CAUSES OF COLDS are getting overheated in hot rooms or crowded assemblies, sitting in a draught, or cooling too rapidly after exercise, muffling up warm and changing to light wrappings cold and damp feet. No matter what is the cause Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is the cure for all throat and lung diseases that induce consumption.

INDISPENSIBLE.—There are some simple remedies indispensible in every family. Among these, the experiences of years assures us, should be recorded Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. Both for internal and external application we have found it of great value; especially can we recommend it for colds, rheumatism, or fresh wounds and bruises.—Christian Era.

A VEXED CLERGYMAN.—Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easily can all this be avoided by using Dr. Kings new discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles given away at Taylor and Macdonald's.—2

TONIC.—Every one, at times, feels the necessity of some restoratives of the vital powers, depressed by mental or bodily exhaustion. In such conditions, let every one, instead of flying to the alcoholic or medicinal stimulants, which must be followed by depression equal to their excitement, reinvigorate his deranged system by the natural tonic elements of the Peruvian Syrup. Sold by all druggists.

CAPTAIN GEORGE LESSARD, a Frenchman who fought in the Peninsular war under Napoleon I., is living in Montreal, and has attained the great age of 104 years. He came to Canada early in the present century, and served the British Government under the gallant Desallberry in the war of 1812, for which he has a pension. He is able to move about, but his memory is impaired.

Squeaky Shoes.

Cannot some one suggest a method of suppressing the squeaky shoes that are peculiar to this season of the year? At the opera and the theatre, in church and in the parlor, the agonized squeak of the new autumn shoe is heard, and somehow the wearer seems always to come in late, when every one specially desires quiet. Physicians are driven half frantic by the noise of their own new shoes, and how many of their patients have been squeaked to death will never be known until the great day of retribution when incompetent shoemakers will be called up for final judgment. Children must have new shoes in November, just as in every other month in the year, and when a man has several lively boys, each with the squeaky shoes that dealers seem to take a fiendish delight in making for little feet, he is utterly incompetent to see anything wrong in the judgment of old King Herod. The man who will discover and announce an absolute cure for squeaky shoes will be greater than he who discovers a new religion, for while the latter may help some people to heaven, the squeaky shoe causes thousands to consign their fellow beings to the other place.

BOBCAYGEON.

FISH.—The Independent says that fish are still occasionally caught in the river. We saw some fine one's the other day, caught below the locks by an enthusiastic angler.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Mr. J. Kelso had a "barn raising" last week. Whilst one of the timbers was being raised, some of the appliances slipped and a log slipped down, and caught a youth named Thomas Reid. At first it was thought that his legs were broken, but it was found that he was only severely bruised. He will be laid up for some time and had a narrow escape.

VENISON.—There are lots of deer in the woods north of this village. Several parties have been out hunting, and not less than a dozen deer have been killed within four miles of our Post Office. The most successful hunt was made last Monday by Mr. Thomas McCamus. He went out with two companions, and during the day shot three fine bucks. Mr. McCamus is to be congratulated as a successful hunter. The deer are in fine order, fat, juicy, and full flavored.

RAILWAY.—Mr. Howson is still corresponding with Mr. Cox relative to the proposed branch of the Midland from Fowler's Corners to Bobcaygeon. As soon as the meeting of the Company, on the 5th, has ratified the agreements with the Grand Junction and Nipissing, Mr. Cox will be at liberty to turn his attention to this direction. If Peterborough would help, this village and that rising town might be united for ever and ever.

ZOPESA.
(FROM BRAZIL.)

The New Compound, its wonderful affinity to the Digestive Apparatus and the Liver, increasing the dissolving juices, relieving almost instantly the dreadful results of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and the TORPID LIVER, makes Zopesa an every day necessity in every house.

It acts gently and speedily in Biliousness, Costiveness, Headache, Sick Headache, Distress after Eating, Wind on the Stomach, Heartburn, Pains in the Side and Back, Want of Appetite, Want of Energy, Low Spirits, Foul Stomach. It invigorates the Liver, carries off all surplus bile, regulates the Bowels, and gives tone to the whole system.

Cut this out and take it to your Druggist and get a 10 cent Sample, or a large bottle for 75 cents, and tell your neighbor about it.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LIVER COMPLAINTS.
DR. KING'S DANDELION & QUININE
LIVER PILLS (without Mercury.)
THE BEST REMEDY FOR BILLIOUSNESS, STOMACH DERANGEMENT, FLATULENCE, PAINS BETWEEN THE SHOULDERS, BAD APPETITE, INDIGESTION, ACIDITY, HEAD-ACHE, HEARTBURN, and all other symptoms of disordered liver and dyspepsia. Acknowledged by many eminent surgeons to be the safest and mildest pills for every constitution.
In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.
Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere, The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

Ask your dealer for "Castorine" Machine Oil, and see that the barrel is branded "Castorine," as none other is genuine.

Daily Evening Review

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1881.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

The Kennedys.

The celebrated Kennedy family of Scottish Vocalists gave an entertainment in Bradburn's hall on Friday evening, and, as was to be expected, they were greeted with a house filled in every part, embracing not only the Scotch, but also the English, Irish and Canadian elements, who all joined with their brethren from the "Land of the Heather" in the evening's enjoyment. Mr. Kennedy has, in the opinion of many, improved in several respects since his last visit, and has lost none of the vein so characteristic of him. Each of the pieces were perfaced by explanatory remarks of Mr. Kennedy, explanatory of Scottish life and character. From the beginning to the end of the lengthy programme, when not convulsed with laughter, the large audience listened with wrapt attention to each piece, and by the liberal applause bestowed, it was plain to see that the rendering of each song met with their approval. Mr. Kennedy is a whole list in himself, and to hear him sing "Allister McAllister," or relate one of his many humorous stories, is well worth the price of admission alone, but when combined with the singing of the family the entertainment is worth several times the money. Those who were not present on Friday evening should not miss the opportunity of hearing them on Monday evening next, when they sing for the last time in Peterborough. There will be an entire change of programme.

A Hoax.

P. C. McGhee, on Friday last, received through the post office as a dead letter, a rather curious epistle, and although it has his signature at the bottom of it, still he disclaims all knowledge of it. For the benefit of our readers we give the letter in full, omitting, for obvious reasons, the name of the person to whom it was addresssd, who we may say is a respectable farmer residing in the township of Smith, only a few miles from town, but who is inclined every now and again to get on a little "bum." The letter was probably sent to him by some of his friends to cure him of his failing, but as it was never called for, it probably had not the desired effect:—

PETERBOROUGH, July 30, 1881.

I have a warrant out for you for being drunk and disorderly on the streets of Peterborough. Please call immediately at the Police Court and save the expense of me going up to arrest you. Unless you do this I will certainly go up and put the hand-cuffs on you.

Yours &c.,
JOHN MCGHEE.
(Police Court.) Constable.

The letter is a rather impudent forgery, and if the officer lays his hands on the person tha wrote it, some person will be arrested.

Building By-Laws.

It appears from our exchanges that it is customary, in both Port Hope and Lindsay, as well as in our town, to systematically break the building by-laws of the town. This is a very pernicious practice, and one that should be put down with a firm hand, as, if wooden buildings are allowed to be erected in the centre of the vast business blocks of the town, fires are sure to follow, and fires in most cases that will not stop with the destruction of the sheds. We hope that our councillors will take a commonsense view of this question and not grant any more permits for the erection of "fire traps."

A New Wrinkle.

A new wrinkle for raising funds at church and Sunday school fairs is as follows:—The ladies write their names and weight on slips of paper, and the gentlemen draw the slips, each gentlemen taking the lady whose name he has drawn to supper, and paying half a cent per pound on the weight of his partner. If the lady should happen to overestimate her weight it isn't a sin, as it is for the benefit of the church.

Another Wet Saturday.

And still they continue. Another wet Saturday. Rain and snow, or rather a regular slush. Merchants are growling, and the people generally are complaining. Where is it going to stop?

RODDY vs. NEITHERCUTT.—Non suit.

BRADBURN vs. FOLY et.al.—Judgment reserved.

SIMPSON vs. BRADBURN.—Non-suit.

MASON vs. LAW et.al.—Judgment for plaintiff.

HILLIARD vs. IRWIN AND BOYD.—Referred to Judge.

LAPLANTE vs. O'DONNELL.—Judgment for plaintiff.

IRWIN AND BOYD vs. ROGERS.—Judgment for plaintiff.

BURKE vs. MORGAN.—Non-suit.

Toronto & Ottawa Railway.

A direct line for the Toronto and Ottawa road has at last been located between Peterborough and Casselmain, or High Falls, a distance of 182 miles. The work on the section between Madoc and Perth is being pushed rapidly and the Company has telegraphed to a number of places in the province for more men. All the laborers obtainable will be immediately employed. Two parties of engineers are going over the road taking soundings at creeks and rivers and making estimates of the cost of bridges, culverts and other structures. Mr. Patterson, the chief engineer, left on Friday morning with his party, to survey the district through which the proposed branch between Wick, on the Toronto and Nipissing Railway, and Manilla on the Port Perry road, will run. Mr. J. Campbell is busily engaged in purchasing the right of way all along the line, and all the necessary preparations are being made for the resumption of work next spring with a large gang of men.

The End of the World.

Prophetic intimations of the approaching end of the world continue, doubtless in the hope that some time some of them will prove true. Various circumstances have pointed to this particular period, and one of the latest prophets has ventured once more to set aside the day for the final consummation of all things. According to Professor Swornstedt, of Cincinnati, the world will come to an end at midnight, to-night. His detailed description of the scene is terrible. The earth will be filled with fire, and while the saints will be translated and dwell with Christ, the wicked will be consumed; and this is to continue for years.

Grand Junction Notes.

The Intelligencer says that Mr. Geo. A. Cox, General Manager of the Midland Railway, will be in Belleville next Wednesday, with his own and a consultinig engineer, and will meet with the special committee of the City Council with a view of coming to some understanding with regard to the removal of the G. J. R. track from Pinacle street. We regret to learn that Mr. Geo. Perks, Grand Junction Railway station agent at Belleville, has had to leave for Port Hope, on account of an attack of malarial fever. His place is temporarily filled by Mr. Geo. Healey of Port Hope.

Sermons to Young Men.

In connection with the week of prayer for young men, which commences on the 13th, an arrangement has been made by the Y. M. C. A, with the Rev. Messrs. Bell, Shaw, Torrance, Stobo and Jolliffe, to preach sermons to young men to-morrow (Sunday) evening in their respective churches. The Tuesday evening meeting, held in the rooms of the Association, will next week be devoted to prayer for this same object. It is hoped there will be a large attendance of young men at all these services.

Firemen's Library.

We are happy to state that our request for books for the formation of a Fireman's library has already met with a response, and we are much pleased to acknowledge the receipt of two books, for the library, from some lady friend. Keep the ball rolling.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

Gas for Lindsay.

At a meeting of the provisional directors of the Lindsay Gas Company, Mr. J. R. Dundas, was elected President and Mr. F. C. Taylor, Managing Director. Several Peterborough gentlemen convinced that there is money in the speculation, want stock, but the Warder is not willing that they should get any, or at least but a small number of shares. It is contemplated to manufacture water gas, which it is said, can be manufactured cheaper than coal gas, and with equally good results.

The Kennedy Family.

Mr. Kennedy and family have kindly consented to assist the choirs of St. Paul's and St. Andrew's Churches at the services to-morrow. St. Paul's in the morning and St. Andrew's in the evening.

BEATEN TO DEATH.

Sad Fate of the Wife of a St. John N. B., Tavern-Keeper.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Nov. 11.—The Spruce Lake house was kept by Teatulleer Theal, who was born in Carleton. He married a daughter of Charles, Lord of Lancaster. She lead with him a very unhappy life. The house he kept was the resort of bad characters, and was kept against her wishes. For some years he has been drinking hard and beating her continuously. About three weeks ago he beat her so hard with a stone bottle that death has resulted. Dr. White was called in to see the woman a few days ago, but Theal did not give him a very kind reception. The neighbors did what they could for her, but practically since the woman was beaten she has not been able to move in her bed, and death has resulted from the beating and from neglect. Theal was arrested last night at the instance of the woman's brother, who was formerly his partner in the Yorkshire tavern, and the coroner is holding an inquest to-night.

THE SHAW CASE is to go to the Privy Council. The city treasurer was left trustee for Col. Shaw and in that capacity executed a $4,000 mortgage on Shaw's grove of 90 acres with a loan company, which foreclosed and sold the property for $9,000, taking the $5,000 as interest. The purchaser of the property was the late Gov. Crawford. Suit was brought in chancery to recover, but the sale was sustained there and in the Court of Appeal. The property is now valued at $180,000.

The DAILY EVENING REVIEW is delivered to subscribers at ten cents a week.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

CABLE.

A CURIOUS COMPARISON.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The Rev. Stafford Burke preached last night, Sunday, a curious sermon. He compared the English and Irish to the Romans and Jews during the Gospel era. Mr. Parnell, in his opinion, was not so far-seeing as the Founder of the new religion, in that he did not advise his countrymen to render to Cæsar the things which were Cæsar's. But in most other respects there was, according to the divine, a great similiarity between the two.

A FLOATING FAIR.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Now that the Ceylon has been despatched on a voyage round the world, with about forty passengers, some enterprising gentlemen in the city are about to issue a prospectus floating an Industrial Exposition, to visit the principal ports of the world in order to sell the exhibitors' goods. It is proposed to charter a steamer of 2,600 tons. On board will be an army of commercial men with samples. The voyage is to last twelve months.

GENERAL WOLSELEY.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—General Wolseley will soon be appointed Adjutant-General of the British army, and the practical control of the army will fall into his hands.

A ROYAL GIFT.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Princess Beatrice has given $2,000 out of the proceeds of her Christmas book to the support of the Belgrave Hospital for children.

ANOTHER NIHILIST PLOT.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 12.—Several Socialists at Regensburg, Bavaria, have been arrested, charged with having connection with Swiss Nihilists. The police arrested at Snowica, in Russian Poland, a man with a French passport, and sent him in chains to Warsaw. The prisoner confessed that several Nihilists from Paris had gone to St. Petersburg, where a plot was expected soon to mature.

FRIGHTFUL EXPLOSION.

ROME, Nov. 12.—An explosion occurred yesterday in a sulphur mine at Gessolung, by which forty persons were killed and forty-one injured.

ANOTHER EXPLOSION.

HAMBURG, Nov. 12.—At Hamburg a gas explosion destroyed the gas-house, and three persons were killed and six injured.

A LANDLORD'S OFFER.

DUBLIN, Nov. 12.—The Earl of Devonshire has made a good offer to his Limerick tenants, namely, to allow them to surrender their leases, which preclude them from the benefits of the Land Act, in order that they may apply to the court. It is stated that Lord Cork intends making the same offer.

MORE ARRESTS.

DUBLIN, Nov. 12.—Arrests continue to be made over the country. About seventy persons have been arrested since Mr. Parnell's arrest. The gaol at Armagh has been prepared to receive a large number of prisoners. It is expected that several of the notable prisoners at Kilmainham will be removed there.

THE CLOTURE.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Mr. Gladstone is considered by the entire English press to have said absolutely nothing of interest at the Lord Mayor's banquet. Only on one point was he clear, that the muzzle must be clapped on the minority of the House of Commons. The Ministerial Radicals are almost to a man in favour of the cloture simply by a bare majority, but the probability appears to be that power will be given to the speaker and the chairman of the committee to name a member for anything like wilful obstruction, such naming, if backed by the result of a division without debate, to exclude the offender for a month, while a second conviction should exclude for the whole session.

LEAGUE MEETINGS.

DUBLIN, Nov. 12.—A secret circular was issued to the metropolitan police this week, informing them that there are twenty-one branches of the League in Dublin, and the authorities believe these branches to be meeting under various disguises, as benefit societies, or social clubs, or under other designations. The police are instructed to watch carefully and report to the Castle, in order that the leaders may be arrested.

CASTAWAYS RESCUED.

ADEN, Nov. 12.—The captain and thirty-eight of the passengers and crew of the steamer Konig der Netherlanden, which foundered in the Indian ocean, have landed here. They were picked up on the Solomon Islands. The search for the remainder of the missing continues.

BISMARCK AND THE KAISER.

BERLIN, Nov. 12.—Prince Bismarck received an audience from the Emperor this afternoon. It is reported that the discussion dwelt at great length on the political situation. It has been decided that the Emperor will open the Reichstag in person. Prince Bismarck's friends positively deny that he intends to form a Conservative Clerical coalition.

TROOPS FOR IRELAND.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—It is stated that one or more regiments returning from Natal will proceed to Ireland to relieve the Marines. At a banquet to-night, Earl Spencer, Lord President of the Council said:—"Every Irish grievance will be redressed. We shall extend to the Irish all the privileges and liberties we possess, but we are ready to shed our blood against the repeal of the Union."

CHOLERA AT MECCA.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—A Djeddah despatch says:—The cholera at Mecca has increased. The mortality on the 3rd, 4th, and 5th inst. was 55, 215, and 214 respectively. Caravans comprising 6,000 pilgrims left Mecca on the 6th inst. It is feared that 460 Egyptian troops stationed at El Wadj will be unwilling or unable to prevent them entering the town. The sanitary commission will probably establish a strict quarantine against El Wadj.

ARCTIC DISCOVERIES.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The news of the Rodgers' discoveries in Wrengel Land has created great interest here. They are regarded as narrowing the problem of polar search. "They close up," says to-day's Standard, "one more avenue to the mysterious Polar basin." The route by Francis Joseph Land is considered now as the last alternative way to the undiscovered north, and accordingly Mr. Leigh Smith's investigations are looked forward to with the intensest interest. On Monday night we shall hear the Arctic problem discussed by some of the most famous and experienced Arctic men at the meeting of the Geographical Society. Captain Adams, of Dundas, will be present to give an account of his recent voyage.

GAMBETTA'S CABINET.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—M. Gambetta's organ Le Journal de Paris, says M. Gambetta will be Premier without a portfolio, M. Cazot Minister of Justice, M. Waldeck Rousseau Minister of the Interior, M. de Freycinet Minister of Foreign Affairs, Paul Boyet Minister of Public Instruction, M. Bouvier Minister of Agriculture and Commerce, and M. Coehery, Minister of Posts and Telegraphs. Nothing has been decided respecting the Ministries of War, Marine, and Finance. M. Leon Say will probably not join the Cabinet. M. Spuller will be Under-Secretary of Foreign Affairs.

AMERICAN.

GUITEAU SPEAKS HIMSELF.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Guiteau was brought into court to-day. Robinson, counsel for defence, asked for a postponement of the trial, but Guiteau insisted upon being heard, and said he was not aware that a postponement would be requested, and desired to be heard on his own behalf. On the very threshold of the case as far as he was concerned he did not want any further time, and was ready for trial now.

MORMOM CONVERTS.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 11.—Mormom missionaries passed through the city to-day with 100 converts from Tennesee and Georgia. At Tullahoma old Mrs. Angell and her three beautiful daughters joined the party. Old Mr. Angell wept at parting from his wife and daughters.

A SOLDIER'S SUICIDE.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 14.—Wm. Hughes, a soldier at McPherson's barracks confined for intoxication, committed suicide in his cell by hanging himself.

THE SOLICITOR GENRAL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The Times says it is understood that the President will formally accept MacVeagh's resignation to-day, and that Solicitor General Phillips will be designated to act as Attorney General until the members of the Cabinet are arranged.

FREIGHT RATES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The freight rates from New York to Chicago were increased to-day, first class to third class 40 cents, fourth class 28 cents. It is said that the Erie railway will change its freight rates in a day or two.

BLACKMAILING GOULD.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Howard Wells, who has been arrested on a charge of attempting to blackmail Jay Gould, sent to the latter a number of letters, in which he by turns threatened Gould, and implored him to help him to win back some hundreds of thousands of dollars, which he claimed to have lost in stock speculations. He sent Gould a key to a cypher, by which though personals published in papers, Gould could give him information on which he could speculate safely. Wells claims to be related to the late Secretary of the Navy. Wells is a brother-in-law of General Charles Room of this city. He is also said to be a relative of the President of Hamilton college. Wells stood high socially having been appointed a Lieut.-Colonel for services as commissary during the war. He formerly had considerable money, but it is said he lost a good deal in Wall street. On several occasions he spoke of having just $10,000 a day, running up the amount to $30,000. When he lost money some time ago he seemed to break down and said he would shoot himself. His mind is believed to be effected, Gould's brokers said that Gould has been almost constantly receiving threatening letters from different parties.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

Daily Evening Review

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1881.

A FORMER PETERBORONIAN.

We take from the Bradford, Pa., Era of the 8th instant, the following account of the life of the late Colonel Haffey, at one time a resident of this town, and some of whose relatives still reside here :—

Telegrams were received in this city last evening announcing the death of Col. J. K. Haffey, which occurred at his home in Beverly, N. J., at 3 p. m. yesterday. Deceased was well known in Bradford, and a brief review of his life will be of special interest to the readers of the Era, of which journal he was the founder, John Keenan Haffey was born in Newry, county of Armagh, Ireland, in November, 1831, and, consequently, was just fifty years of age at the time of his death. His parents emigrated to Canada when he was fourteen years of age and settled at Peterborough, Ontario. Both in Ireland and Canada he was afforded the best educational advantages the neighborhood and the limited means of his parents could secure. He was apt and studious and in time acquired an excellent practical education. In the spring of 1852 he left his home to seek his fortune in the States, and drifted to the then hamlet of Bradford. In December of the same year he was united in marriage to Miss Diantha De Golier, daughter of Nathan De Golier, from whom the station on the Erie railway and little village south of this city received their names. From that time until 1860 he was variously employed. During one year he preached as a "hard shell" Baptist. For four or five years he examined the mineral deposits of McKeen county and prepared very elaborate reports of the same for Daniel Kingsberry, an extensive land owner in and around Bradford. He also carried his investigations into Jefferson county where Mr. Kingaberry owned large tracts of land. In 1858 or '59, Mr. Haffey was editor of the Brantford Miner, a weekly paper, and the first journal ever published in the Tuna Valley. The Bradford Miner was subsequently removed to Smethport and still flourishes, being now known as the McKeen Miner. In 1861 Col. Haffey, assisted in recruiting Company I, of Gen. Thos. L. Kane's famous Bucktail regiment. On May 30, 1861, he enlisted for a term of three years with the gallant men of Company I and was made a Sergeant. After remaining in service until Feb. 22, 1863, he was discharged by surgeon's certificate on account of protracted and severe illness. He returned to Bradford and when sufficiently recovered again engaged in recruiting men and again went to the front. His old disease returning however, unfitted him for service in the field, but the Government recognizing his ability, appointed him superintendent of the extensive Government saw mills, located five miles north of Fortress Monroe. At the close of the war he immediately returned to Bradford and in 1865 was one of the persons interested in the first oil well on the outskirts of the city, which revealed the great petroleum deposits of the northern part of McKeen county. Subsequently he changed his place of residence to Beverly, N. J., where his death occurred. During his residence in Bradford Mr. Haffey was appointed on the staff of Governor Hartranft and thereby gained the title of Colonel by which he was familiarly known. After the death of Daniel Kingsberry, Mr. Haffey was active in securing for the Universalist society in this city the church property at the corner of North Mechanic and Croydon streets. About a year ago he disposed of this property, and in connection with Geo. A. Berry, Esq., Horace Little and others became interested in certain rights of the Sawyer electric light. To the introduction of this he has given his time principally during the past twelvemonth. His last visit to Bradford was in May last. Ever since his service as a soldier, he has suffered more or less with an affection of the kidneys. Six weeks ago he was taken quite ill and had been confined to his bed up to the hour of his death. He was of an active mental disposition, energetic, restless, shrewd, and by time [illegible] he was even charged with being slightly visionary, so great were the multiplicity of his business schemes and enterprises. In politics he was a firm and uncompromising Republican, tireless in advancing the interests of that party, but never seeking preferment for himself. Col. Haffey leaves a wife, daughter and two sons, (the children now in their majority) and an extended circle of friends to mourn his death. The Carew brothers of this city are nephews of the deceased.

Wooden Dishes.

The Wooden Dish factory is a new and extensive industry just started at Indianapolis, Ind. Not many years ago persons would have laughed at the idea of wooden dishes, but they have become a necessity. They are cut from the most ingenious sycamore or the gum tree by most ingenious machinery, which will cut and trim 200,000 dishes a day; other machines shape and fasten the cups together. Fifteen of these are employed, each of which can turn out 10,000 a day. The wood is, of course steamed, so as to be readily worked and moulded.—N. Y. Observer.

FRENCH CAPITAL.

Proposed Investment in Canadian Mining Property—A Good Lookout.

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—Yesterday there arrived in this city Mr. James Strich, a delegate to Canada from the Societe Generale de Paris and the Societe Commerciale de Paris. He was accompanied by M. Lenique, one of the most eminent French chemists, and M. Guoyn, a practical miner of great experience. They came to Canada for the purpose of seeking good mining investments for the financial societies they represent. Mr. McLeod Stewart learned that they were in the Eastern Townships, and invited them through Mr. Bentley, consul-general for Brazil, to come to this city. They arrived here yesterday, and at once visited the Geological Museum, where they spent some two hours in examining the specimens exhibited there. They were delighted with what they saw, and unanimously expressed a belief that Ottawa and its vicinity was the best place for the company to invest their capital in. They were particularly pleased with the specimens of iron and phosphates from the Ottawa valley, and Mr. Strich, a gentleman of wide experience and practical knowledge, and who has visited all parts of Canada and the United States, said that he had yet seen no place which promised to give such a rich return for the investment of capital in mining property as this part of the country. The delegates represent some twenty million of francs for which investment is sought in the Dominion, and they intend upon their return to France to recommend that it be invested here. As the two societies named selected delegates of great experience, and in whom they place implicit confidence, there can be little doubt that there will shortly be a large influx of French capital into Ottawa. The delegates expressed a belief that owing to its geographical position and the immense mineral resources of its neighborhood, Ottawa is destined at no distant day to become one of the largest cities in the Dominion. It is also the intention of the Societe Generale to establish in Canada a large mill for the manufacture of new patent diamond gunpowder. Good water power will be required for this, and the delegates intend to recommend that the mill shall be established here, this being the most suitable locality they have yet seen. The delegates left the city last evening.

THE AMAZONIAN SKIRT.

Their First Appearance in New York—The Merits of the New Dress.

Last Sunday a well-known young leader in New York fashion appeared at 3 o'clock and walked from Twenty-ninth to Fortieth street in an amazonian skirt, and then took her carriage, which was following her, and rode away to a friend's house up-town.

The lady had on (to begin at the top) a beautiful plush beaver hat of peacock blue, trimmed with two sweeping ostrich plumes of shaded greenish blue, fastened in front by a shield, set thick with emeralds, turquoise and diamonds. She wore an English jacket of plush, the color of the hat, on which were a dozen large buttons matching the hat ornament, the set having been made to order for $300. Now, the interest commences. The skirt was made in two legs of rich brocade, joined by a wedge-shaped piece of the silk as a duck's toes are by the web between them. Around the bottom of the legs and across the connecting curtains was a pleated flounce of three or four inches depth. The usual drapery fell in narrrow space behind, and across the front was draped a sort of apron, but the walk was not the walk of a biped with petticoats on.

The only garment admirable under this new skirt is the much derided "chemiloon."

It is claimed for the invention that it gives perfect freenom to the limbs, which is denied by the tight skirt that ties us up in the pantaloon leg; that it gives the extreme lankiness so desirable; that it is warm and light. (They quilt the leg in winter "amazonians," and put eider down in them). It's a funny costume anyway, and tuck them and ruffle them as much as much as you please there's a trousery effect about them calculated to alarm the other sex. There's no telling how soon the frills may come off the bottoms, the gore let in between the pants be ripped out, the apron front dropped, the enormity stand confessed, and the whole world know that women wear the breeches.

A SERIOUS BLAZE.

Woodstock, N.B., Visited by a Disastrous Fire—List of Insurances.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Nov. 11.—A terrible fire broke out in Woodstock about midnight last night. It caught in the institute building on the hill, and is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. A high wind was prevailing at the time, and all efforts to stop the flames were unavailing. The Western Union offices, both in the station of the New Brunswick and Canada railway building, and in the regular office are destroyed, and it is impossible to get particulars. At one o'clock the operator in the station called the operator at St. John,—"The flames are coming down on me, and I must go!"

Woodstock is on the St. John river, and is the shiretown of Carleton county. It contained over one hundred stores, had a large number of hotels, several foundries and factories, and a population of 3,000 or 5,000.

WOODSTOCK, N.B., Nov. 11.—The following are the aggregate of insurances: North British $18,050; London, Liverpool and Globe, $7,340; Commercial Union, $20,000; London and Lancashire, $64,000; Queen, $3,000; Lancashire, $10,500; Ætna, Hartford, Imperial Fire Assurances companies of London the sum of $12,600. The vault of the register's office was opened and records and valuables found all safe.

Mississippi River Reservoirs.

The plan of providing reservoirs near the headwaters of the Mississippi river, as a source of supply in seasons when the river is at a low stage, has for a long time been in contemplation. It is now likely to be practically tested. Congress in 1880 made an appropriation of $75,000 for a dam at Lake Winnebigoshish, and last spring made an additional appropriation of $150,000 for the same purpose. The enterprise for some months was halted because Congress failed to provide means for estimating the amount of damage to lands that the overflow would cause; but that matter has now been overcome by an ordinary appraisement, and the work is likely to go on, and the dam at Winnebigoshish will be constructed at an early day. It is not expected that this one structure will have any appreciable effect upon the water in the Mississippi river. But it will solve certain problems in practical engineering, and the extent to which it may be made to control the water passing through it, will be looked upon as a test of the efficiency of the general system. If the work about to be constructed prove a success, as there seems no good reason to doubt, a few more years will bring the extension of the system over enough of the territory near the river's source to graduate the amount of water in its channel, and with a corresponding improvement of the channel, assure the long-wished for navigation by large boats through the whole of the open season.—Northwestern Lumberman.

OVERWORK AT SCHOOL.

We extract from the Mail the following article giving another view of the subject of overwork in schools:—

There can be no reasonable objection to any reform in our educational system which seems desirable in the interest of the rising generation; but there is grave cause for excepting to the prevalent custom of parading a "fad" during the recess simply to occupy editors and reporters. Our morning contemporary wanted a subject, and might have found one if it had not begun at the wrong end. Cramming and overwork are not, to any extent, chargeable to the public school system. On the contrary, any tendency in that direction under the old regime has been carefully eliminated. The real evil will be found in the higher institutions, and in private academies, especially those intended for the education of girls.

At all events, no possible good was to be expected from our contemporary's plan. It was feeble in its inception, and unsatisfactory in the carrying out. No one who has ever come in contact with children attending public schools will admit for a moment that there is any tangible amount of intellectual pressure. Indeed, at times, it seems to those who have any experience in the matter that the reverse is the case. So far as home lessons are concerned, we perfectly agree that they should not be imposed at all upon young children, and should not be excessive in any case; but it has yet to be proved that they are. To our knowledge boys will loiter for hours over lessons which, with ordinary application, might be mastered by any boy above idiocy in a fourth of the time.

As for severe study within school hours, we believe it is impossible to any extent. The schools are altogether too crowded to make the forcing system practicable. Moreover, the hours are so short, and the intervals of relaxation so well appointed, that overstudy is out of the question. What cramming there may be is usually voluntary on the boy or girl's part, and arises from ambition to excel.

Of late years there appears to have arisen a disposition to spoil the rising generation by a process of "coddling." Every boy and girl is treated as if he or she were an incipient consumptive or epileptic. Humanity is supposed to be all nerves, and no muscles or lungs. The doctors prescribe for our schools as though they were hospitals. There is a great deal of nonsense in all this. Either the human race is moribund, or we can afford to dispense with the physician in the schools until he is wanted. The medical "fads" of the last quarter of a century are numberless. Moral insanity is one of these, kleptomania being a form it. There is nothing, in fact, men do, no form of women's dress, no single article of diet from white bread to fried oysters, that has not been tabooed by some sapient member of the faculty. It is surely time that a stand should be taken against a dogmatism which threatens to leave the race starved, nude, and ignorant.

Petitions to Parliament should be written in a bold, round, open hand, for which purpose Esterbrook's blunt and broad pointed pens are the best. Address the Esterbrook Steel Pen Co., 26 John St, New York, for samples.

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.
Tender for Work in British Columbia.

SEALED TENDERS will be received by the undersigned up to NOON on WEDNESDAY, the 1st day of FEBRUARY next, in a lump sum, for the construction of that portion of the road between Port Moody and the West-end of Contract 60, near Emory's Bar, a distance of about 85 miles.

Specifications, conditions of contract and forms of tender may be obtained on application at the Canadian Pacific Railway Office, in New Westminister, and at the Chief Engineer's Office at Ottawa, after 1st January next, at which time plans and profiles will be open for inspection at the latter office.

This timely notice is given with a view to giving Contractors an opportunity of visiting and examining the grounds during the fine season and before the winter sets in.

Mr. Marcus Smith, who is in charge at the office at New Westminister, is instructed to give Contractors all the information in his power.

No tender will be entertained unless on one of the printed forms, addressed to F. Braun, Esq., Sec. Dept. of Railways and Canals, and marked "Tender for C. P. R."

SUNDRIES!
The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of many to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

HALLO! JACK FROST!

Hallo! Jack Frost!
I thought you were lost;
I was really trembling about you.
I feared, it is true,
I should have to do
The whole winter long without you!

No ice on the lakes,
Nor any snowflakes,
Nor a chance for a slide in the gutter;
Our skates and sleds must
Be covered with rust,
And ruined those beautiful cutters,

That skim o'er the ground,
To the musical sound
Of bells that go jingle-a-jingle,
When soft lies the snow,
And chill breezes blow,
And hearts have a merrier tin

Hallo! Jack Frost!
I thought you were lost,
You are such a terrible rover,
Or else, frozen fast
To the North Pole at last,
You'd stay till the winter was over.

But here you are now,
With your frosty old pow,
And soon will the breezes mellow
Ring sharp and clear,
And shouts of cheer
Will welcome you back, old fellow!

My mittens and cap,
My skates and strap,
And sled, are ever so handy,
Just waiting for you
And your frosty crew,
My beautiful Jack-a-dandy!

And soon we'll go
Over ice and snow;
And soon will the sleigh-bells' ringing
Join in the song
Of the merry throng
Of boys and girls who are singing;

Hallo! Jack Frost!
We thought your were lost;
We were really troubled about you,
And feared, it is true,
We should have to do
The whole winter long without you!

—Josephine Pollard.

FROM ALL OVER.

J. A. Bell, an ex-member of the Kentucky Legislature, who, having become incensed at a negro, took him, with the aid of two companions to a stable, tied his hands and feet, and gave him a furious whipping, has been forced to pay $750.

DESERVING OF PRAISE.—Too much cannot be expressed in favor of that unsurpassed remedy for coughs, colds, asthma, croup, sore throat, and all lung complaints. If you suffer from neglected colds, try Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. The cost is trifling, only 25 cents.

THE will of a man who died in Berks County, Penn., the other day, contained this clause:—"And I further disinherit and prohibit from participation in the distribution of my estate such of my male descendants as persist in wearing moustaches.

"I WAS very severely burned about the right leg several years ago," says Mr. R. R. Collyer, 123 Erie street, Jersey City, N. J., "and the spot always remained tender. A short time ago I wounded the old spot, and it refused to heal. I applied St. Jacob's Oil, half a bottle of which cured the injured limb."

MR. JUSTICE CARON gave his decision in Montreal yesterday, in the matter of subpœnaing of Cabinet Ministers as witnesses. His Honor ruled that Dominion Ministers can be subpœnaed, but not outside of the province in which they are residing at the time.

KEEP THE FEET DRY.—This is the season of sloppy weather so productive of colds, and lung troubles; neglected cold or damp feet is a great source of these difficulties. Cure your cough with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Pleasant to take and always reliable.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROLLINS, of New York, has declined to act as prosecuting counsel, in the Guiteau case, owing to his having been elected surrogate, a position which would probably necessitate his withdrawal from the case before its conclusion.

No articles ever attained such unbounded popularity in so short a time as Burdock Blood Bitters, and that too during the existence of countless numbers of widely advertised bitters and blood purifiers. It is evident that this medicine begins its work at once, and leaves no desirable effect unattained.

MRS. FRY, on eloping from Unionville, O., left a note kindly advising her husband to get a divorce immediately, and marry a certain frugal and industrious widow of the neighborhood, who would, as she expressed it, "be good to the seven small Frys."

ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS ABOUT THEM.—And if they have used Harvell's Condition Powders mixed with the feed of their poultry, hogs or cattle, they will at once say they have resulted in more eggs, more meat, more milk and more butter than previously realized. Sold everywhere.

FEARS are entertained that the perpetrators of the Star route frauds in the United States may escape punishment, inasmuch as, while there is no moral doubt that there has been enormous rascality somewhere, the chain of evidence is by no means as complete as it should be.

PERSONS UNDER THE OPERATION of Fellows' Hypophosphites should examine their blood under the microscope from time to time and mark the increase of red and active particles, and diminution of the white or dead ones; these observations are interesting and instructive.

IN the vicinity of Acton, the Free Press says, farmers are jubilant over the fall wheat prospects. Owing to the absence of severe frosts the wheat has had a good start, and is of splendid promise. The recent rains have had the effect of hastening the growth and the young shoots present a healthy and strong appearance.

MORE ascents of Mont Blanc have been made during the past season than on any previous year. Between July and October, sixty-four tourists, of whom nineteen were French, seventeen English and six Americans, gained the summit. Three were ladies, natives respectivly of England, France and Switzerland.

A HINT.—Beware of all the worthless mixtures, and dirty, greasy combinations which are offered you in almost every store you enter, and which some unprincipled shopkeepers try to palm off as a substitute for Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. These mixtures are gotten up expressly to sell on the reputation of the Pain-Killer, but have nothing in common with it.

IN a house in one of the suburbs of Montreal the corpse of George Leser was laid out for burial. The coffin was heavily draped with crape and the usual candles were burning. A gust of wind blew a bit of crape into the flame of a candle, and the room was soon ablaze, and corpse was badly scorched before the fire was subdued.

DR. CARSON'S STOMACH AND CONSTIPATION BITTERS, are rapidly taking the place of all other purgatives, including Pills, Powders, etc., There action is mild yet effectual and they are a certain cure for all bilious complaints. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

Harriston Tribune:—Mr. W. Fulton delivered the turnips grown upon five acres in cars on his property, for which he received $300. The expense of pulling and hoeing the turnips was the labor of two men for four days at $1 per day, which with a team at $3 per day made a total of $20, leaving the net cash for five acres crop at $280—and yet the farmers say they are all poor.

THE CAUSES OF COLDS are getting overheated in hot rooms or crowded assemblies, sitting in a draught, or cooling too rapidly after exercise, muffling up warm and changing to light wrappings cold and damp feet. No matter what is the cause Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is the cure for all throat and lung diseases that induce consumption.

A CASE somewhat similar to that upon which Soloman gave his wise decision, says the Charlottetown, P.E.I., Examiner, has arisen at Vernon River. In this case there is a small child and a large one. Both mothers repudiate the small child. It is claimed that the nurses mixed the children up in some way and could not tell which child was for which mother. It will require another Soloman to satisfactorily settle the dispute.

A VEXED CLERGYMAN.—Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easily can all this be avoided by using Dr. Kings new discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles given away at Taylor and Macdonald's.—2

JUDGE DAVID DAVIDS, the Springfield Republican says, preserves his frugal habits. A young friend found him the other day counting a roll of greenbacks. "Young man," he said, "this is the true way to make money. Economy and saving. There is my stationery allowance. The Senators are allowed $125 for stationery. Too much, too much. I have used just $4 worth, and am entitled to $121 in cash, and here it is. Be economical and saving, young man."

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND.—A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease. More particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.—2

CAR loads of oysters are shipped to California from New York every few days. The "native" oyster of that western coast is obtained in the Gulf of California, and is small and of a coppery taste. There is as wide a contrast between the California bivalve and the eastern as between a crab-apple and a Rhode Island greening. Something of a supply is being obtained on the Oregon or Washington Territory coast. These are better than the more southern.

PNEUMONIA CURED.—From James H. Potts of 97 River St., Cambridgeport, Mass.—"Last winter I was confined to the house six weeks with pneumonia, of which I had a very severe attack. My lungs were extremely sore, and I suffered greatly from pains under my shoulders and in my chest. I coughed incessantly, and every effort caused my eyes to protrude, so that it seemed as though they would be forced from their sockets. I experienced also great difficulty in breathing. My family physician could no nothing for me, except to afford some temporary relief from pain. Many years before this several members of my family had been benefitted by the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and I decided to try it. It gave me immediate relief, and the use of two small bottles completely cured me. I attribute my cure entirely to the Balsam, as while I used it I took nothing else. I cannot speak in terms of too much praise of this valuable preparation, nor can I state in language too strong the remarkable results attending its use in my case." 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. Sold by dealers generally.

DOMESTIC AND USEFUL.

ALWAYS stand a wet umbrella with the handle down; one trial will convince you of the rapidity with which it will drain, and your umbrella will last longer if dried quickly.

GREASE may be obsorbed from a carpet by frequent applications of magnesia or buckwheat flour. It should be sprinkled on the spot, allowed to remain a while, and then brushed off.

APPLE FLOAT.—Prepare twelve apples, as for sauce; when cold add the whites of two eggs well beaten, then beat the whole until stiff. Make a soft custard with the yolks of two eggs, and put the apple mixture on the custard.

THE PARISIAN WAY of cleaning black silk is to brush and wipe it thoroughly, lay it on a flat table with the side up which is intended to show and sponge with hot coffee stained through muslin. Allow it to become partially dry, then iron.

A "CAREFUL HOUSEKEEPER" says: Do not iron a red table-cloth at all; wash it carefully in warm suds (not hot), rince well, and when ready to hang on the line, take great pains to pull it so that it will keep the proper shape. It will retain its color much longer than if ironed.

A STRONG SOLUTION of soda is a relief to a burned finger. If you do not keep a saturated solution (that is, all the soda that the water will dissolve) ready, sprinkle some soda on the burn and put a moist cloth over it. This method of treating burns should not be tried where there is much of the body injured; then a skilful physican must be called.

MACARONI SOUP.—Boil a quarter of a pound of macaroni in one quart of water to which has been added one ounce of butter and half a teaspoonful of salt; let boil three quarters of an hour, then strain through a colender, and cut into pieces about an inch in length. Next put into a stew-pan an ounce of butter and one of flour; blend together and add one quart of artisan's stock; stir over the fire until it boils; season to taste. add one teaspoonful of browning and the pieces of macaroni; stand stewpan by the fire ten minutes, then pour into a hot tureen and serve.

AMBROSIA.—Pour a pint of boiled custard, hot, over one pound of nice sponge-cake sliced in a shallow dish; when cold, take two smooth moulds or forms holding about one pint each; put into each a layer of cake, then a sprinkling of almonds blanched and sliced (of which you must have two ounces), and bits of preserved fruit, then another layer of cake, almonds and fruit till the moulds are full; then cover with the cake. Let it stand on ice an hour, then turn from the moulds and serve. You may use a variety of nuts and fruit; the latter must be rich and well drained from the syrup.

ACID BURNS CURED BY MAGNESIA.—Last year two French students were much burned about the face by the explosion of a retort filled with boiling sulphuric acid. They were at once taken to a druggist, M. Alanore, who covered their faces two millimetres thick with soft paste made of calcined magnesia and water. In a few seconds fissures appeared in the magnesian mask and a new layer was then substituted. The patients were thus tended for five hours, after which the one hurt the least was able to wash his face, which merely showed some reddish spots. The other had his magnesian mask renewed during twenty-four hours. Suffering acutely at first, the students ceased to suffer in less than a quarter of an hour. Their faces have now no traces of burns.

Or rich and poor, if you're not wont
To brush your teeth with Sozodont,
You'll one day suffer deep remorse,
For soon they'll crumble in decay,
And soon you'll cry, "Oh, lack a-day,
That I had never changed my course."

Use "Castorine Machine Oil" for all kinds of Machinery. It is also excellent for harness and leather, making it water and weather-proof. For sale by dealers.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Acknowledged by many eminent surgeons to be the safest and mildest pills for every constitution.
In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.
Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere, The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Chimney Fires.

Chimney fires are again prevalent, if not fashionable. On Saturday and Sunday nights, fully a dozen of these blazes were noticed in different portions of the town, and, wonderful to state, not a single busybody was around to give an alarm. There is a By-law on the town books, that requires all chimneys and flues to be cleaned, a certain number of times each year, but to all intents and purposes the by-law might just as well never have been passed, as it is thoroughly a dead letter. After one or two serious fires, and there is no doubt that the majority of fires in town occur from dirty or defective chimneys, the authorities will wake up and enforce the by-law.

"Grip's" Almanac.

We have received some specimen pages of Grip's almanac for 1882, and after persuing them we have come to the conclusion that the publication will be superior to that of last year, and as is well known Grip's almanac last year was by far the best published. The pages before us are filled with fun, and the illustrations of which there are many, are very amusing. The book will be issued about the 1st of December, will contain about 100 pages, profusely illustrated, and will retail at 25 cents. Leave your order with your bookseller at once, you will never regret it.

Wanted to be Sent up.

Patsy Glen, who was just liborated from gaol this morning, after serving a six months term for vagrancy, appeared at the Police Court this morning and applied to the Magistrate to be sent up for another term. The Magistrate informed Patsy that he could not send him up until a charge of some kind was laid against him. Patsy could not clearly comprehend this and pleaded earnestly to be sent to gaol. The Magistrate persisted, and as none of the officers appeared willing to lay an information, Patsy left the Court room, vowing he would be sent up for something, before very long.

The Kennedys.

To-night the Kennedys sing at Bradburn's Opera Hall for the last time. The entertainment is correctly named "A Nicht wi' Burns," as all the songs, with one solitary exception, are taken from the works of Burns. Those who were present on Friday night will again be on hand, and we advise all lovers of song, who missed the first opportunity, to be present to-night. They will enjoy a rich treat. Reserved seats may be procured at J. I. Davidson's bookstore. Remember this is positively the last night.

Should be Cried Down.

The action of the crowd of young men, who on Saturday night, attempted to rescue a prisoner and followed the officers, hissing and hooting, is one that should be cried down by all good citizens. If the police are not to be protected in the discharge of their duty, we might as well hand the town over to the rowdy element, to run it as they see fit. It would be the correct thing if every one of the crowd was brought before the magistrate and taught a lesson.

The Weather.

The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—South-westerly veering to north-westerly winds, and increasing to gales. Fair to cloudy weather to-day with occasional showers, followed to-night or to-morrow by decidedly colder weather and snow flurries.

Crowded Churches.

The announcement, made through our columns, that the celebrated Kennedy family of Scottish vocalists, would assist the choirs of St. Paul's and St. Andrew's Presbyterian churches on Sunday, had the expected effect of filling both edifices to repletion, the former at the morning service and the latter in the evening.

On the Warpath.

License Inspector Leary entered on his duties on Saturday afternoon, informing all the hotel keepers of his appointment and warning them to be careful about selling during prohibited hours etc.

POLICE COURT.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.

MONDAY, Nov. 14.—Wm. McDowell was charged with being drunk and disorderly on Saturday night.

The DEFENDANT pleaded not guilty.

P. C. McGHEE, sworn.—Defendant was acting in a disorderly manner on Saturday night. He was under the influence of liquor. There was quite a crowd. In company with officer Pidgeon he ordered the crowd to disperse. He arrested defendant. The crowd followed and hissed and yelled, attempting a rescue.

Officer PIDGEON gave coroborative evidence.

A. SANDERSON, sworn.—He was present and did not hear any row. He did not think that defendant was drunk.

Judgment fine, $5.00 and $1.50 costs.

DISORDERLY ON SUNDAY.

Wm. McDowell was charged by P. C. McGhee with acting in a disorderly manner on Sunday night.

DEFENDANT pleaded not guilty.

P. C. MCGHEE, sworn.—On Sunday night he noticed a crowd in front of the Caisse house, and upon going inside he found a number of young men, and Mr. Choate requested him to put them out. The defendant was among those present and was disorderly.

SIMON WEIR, sworn,—He went with others to get supper at the hotel. The proprietor refused to give it to them and told them to leave the house. The crowd did not go, but remained in the hall. Chief Johnston and P. C. McGhee came in and the crowd left. He had something to drink. He is not in the habit of going to the hotel for supper. He was not under the influence of liquor at the time. Four young men wanted supper.

FRED. MINORE, sworn.—He was with the last witness and wanted his tea with the others. He did not hear defendant use obscene language. He did not see Mr. Choate try to put any person out of the house. He was sober.

A. SANDERSON, sworn.—He was at the hotel at the time of the alleged disturbance. He went for supper. He was told that supper was over. Mr. Choate said he could not let them have supper. He saw P. C. McGhee at the hotel. He did not hear any disturbance or bad language. He lives in town. He does not board at the hotel. He saw Chief Johnston in the house. He did not hear the officer tell them to go out. The officer was talking to defendant. The crowd left but returned again. There was no excitement. It was about 6.30 o'clock. McDowell did not go out when he was told. He did not think that L. Mowry was present when P. C. McGhee came.

T. G. CHOATE, sworn.—He saw defendant last night. He was at the hotel with some others on Sunday night and wanted something to drink. They were refused and stood around the hall and refused to go out. The manager tried to put some of them out, but as they wanted to raise a row he desisted. Chief Johnston cleared the hall. They came back again and demanded supper. He would not give them any. It was after supper time. He tried to put defendant out, but he resisted and used obscene language. None of them ever had supper at his house as far as he was aware.

To DEFENDANT.—When the crowd first came in they did not ask for supper. The second time they wanted supper. His son tried to put the crowd out, but they would not go.

The MAGISTRATE said he could not help finding defendant guilty. From what the officers said it was quite apparent that they were disorderly. Their conduct on Sunday night was disgraceful, and Mr. Choate had a right to use force to put them off his premises. Judgment fine $5.00 and $1.50 costs.

Midland and Grand Junction Railways.

The traffic returns of the above railways, for the week ending Nov. 7th, 1881, were as follows:—

MIDLAND RAILWAY:—Passengers and mails, $2,736.88; freight, $7,856.75; total, $10,593.63, as compared with $8,381.09 for the corresponding week of 1880, being an increase of $2,212.54; and the aggregate traffic to date is $356,123.12, being an increase of $55,714.10 over 1880.

GRAND JUNCTION RAILWAY:—Passengers and mails, $710.11; freight, $1,695.52; Total, $2,405.63; as compared with $1,310.68 for the corresponding week of 1880, being an increase of $1,094.95; and the aggregate traffic from 1st June to date is $54,842.95, being an increase of $31,500.71 over 1880.

A Trained Bear.

Two swarthy foreigners, stout able bodied men, have been blocking the streets and inconveniencing pedestrians, by exhibiting the antics of a performing bear. It is a regular shame that such men should be allowed to travel through the country living on the fat of the land, when laborers are in such demand. While one man makes the dumb brute, which is strongly muzzled, perform, the other passes around the hat among the open mouthed crowd, and between them they make a good thing out of it.

Military Matters.

The last Canada Gazette says that with reference to paragraph 233 of Regulations and Orders for the Militia, 1879, the custom formerly existing in the Militia of Canada will be reverted to, and the whole of the infantry, except the Governor General's Foot Guards, and such battalions as obtain special sanction from headquarters, will, though armed with long rifles, drill according to the manual exercise for short rifles.

Railway Notes.

A special cable despatch to the Globe says that the announcement of the proposed combination of the Midland and other railways is well received in London. The Railway News and the Times, as well as other authorities speak in favourable terms of the proposal and express the hope that it may be successfully carried out.

Mr. Little, who has charge of the construction of the car works at Perth, Ont., for the Ontario and Quebec Railway, has a large gang of men employed in sinking posts for the long range of buildings to be erected there. Two of the buildings will be 240x43 feet each, and one storey high. The fourth building will be of smaller dimensions than the first two, but much more substantial than either. The Company has advertised for tenders for half a million feet of lumber, required for the construction of the works.

The Globe says the Toronto and Ottawa Railway Company have decided on constructing their works at Perth, Ont., provided a small bonus is given. The reason why Perth has been preferred is because it is the only place of any size between Ottawa and Peterborough which occupies a central position.

A Borrowed Dog.

Everybody knows P. C. McGhee's spaniel. On Saturday night John missed him and had about come to the conclusion that he was lost, until he received a letter through the post office, signed "a friend," informing him that "his dog was borrowed and would be returned in about a week." Who borrowed the dog? is now the question.

Meteoric Showers.

The grand display of etherial fireworks or shooting stars that was to have taken place on Sunday night, failed to come off, as far as Peterborough is concerned at least. Those who remained up until the "Wee sma' hours" to witness the sight, state that it was a failure, nothing out of the usual run, for this season of the year, being seen.

The End of the World.

The Yankee professor, who predicted that the world would come to an end on Saturday night at 12 o'clock, will now have to be counted among the other almost numberless prophets that have from time to time predicted the same thing. The dreaded hour to some has come and gone and this mundane sphere wags as usual and no change is noticeable,

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

PARQUETRY FLOORING.

The demand for parquetry floors is continually on the increase. They take the place of carpets for covering the coarse boards of ordinary flooring, and are made by ingeniously mortising together different kinds of wood. Most of this flooring is made seven-eighths of an inch thick, and what is known as "wood carpet" is made only about one-fourth of an inch in thickness. The principal body of parquetry work is oak, in different shades, but every kind of cabinet wood is used— mahogany, tulip, walnut, cherry—all furnishing a variety of shades, which when properly set, harmonize with agreeable effect. The entire mosaic, when mortised and joined, can be lifted without breaking or injury.

Nothing neater and more refined can be found for a floor covering to a room than a center rug or carpet, either in the shape of a square or parallelogram, and surrounded on all sides by a neat pattern in wood. If one wishes to practice closer economy he can cover the space occupied by the carpet, the piano, stages, or other large pieces, with plain wood the thickness of the parquetry wood. The surface polish of the wood must be maintained to retain the beauty and finish of the floor. Waxing is often sufficient, or a vigorous application of shellack varnish.

The origin of this style of flooring can be traced back to the early history of western Asia. The material used was usually marble. From those early days to the present changes have taken place. Wood has succeeded stone, and the jig-saw the chisel. For some time past, paraquet work has been successfully used in Germany, France and lately in England; and in this country, although new at present, we predict for it great popularity. In our American homes parquet flooring is particularly adapted for backgrounds to rugs or square carpets.

HAGYARD'S YELLOW OIL will be found in valuable for all purposes of a family liniment. Immediate relief will follow its use in all cases of pain in the stomach, bowels or sides; rheumatism, colic, colds, sprains and bruises. For internal and external use. It has no equal in the world for what it is recommended. For sale by all dealers at 25c. per bottle.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

Eight Boilers Torn to Shreds at East Saginaw—Four Canadians Killed.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., Nov. 13.—At fifteen minutes before five o'clock this morning a battery of ten boilers in the brick boiler house attached to the saw mill and salt block of Hamilton, McClure & Co., six miles below this city, exploded with an earthquake force, scattering the buildings like chaff, and causing immense destruction. Eight of the boilers were torn into shreds, and the pieces flew in every direction, one boiler-head dropping 900 feet away. Not a brick of the boiler-house was left standing upon the other, and the large brick chimney, 100 feet high, was completely levelled to the ground. The west end of the large steam mill was torn to pieces, and the entire structure wrecked and demoralized. The large steam dome was lifted high in the air and came down on the opposite side of the mill, and bricks, pieces of iron, and timbers were thrown hundreds of feet away. Bricks and timbers were found half a mile from the mill. The salt block was badly wrecked by the explosion, timbers and iron being driven through it, and a salt drill house two hundred feet distant received a piece of boiler that shattered the tower, and another smashed in one side of the roof. It is impossible to give an idea of the tremendous force of the explosion and the destruction that followed. The boilers were fired at night to supply steam for the saw mill, and the firemen at work were all killed, not one escaping to tell the story. Michael Lebeau, head fireman, who had charge of the boiler-house, was covered in the debris, and the body was dug out an hour after the explosion occurred. Both legs were broken below the knee and the body was badly bruised. Joseph Lebeau, brother of the first mentioned, was found thirty feet distant with his right arm and shoulder broken, his abdomen crushed in, and his clothing torn off. These men were thirty-eight and twenty-three years old respectively, and resided at Zilwaukee. They came from Montreal years ago, and have relatives in Canada. Frank Blanchard was blown into the bay 200 feet distant, and his body was not recovered until this afternoon. The body was badly mangled. He was a single man, twenty-five years old, and belonged to St. Onesime, Quebec. Charles Carpenter was found only a few feet from Joe Lebeau, his clothing torn off, and his body badly scalded and burned. He was a single man, twenty-seven years old, and came from Quebec. The damage by the explosion will reach $25,000. Low water is given as the cause of the disaster.

THE GAMBETTIST POLICY.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—The new Ministers held a Council to-day, when the declaraation of policy to be made by M. Gambetta at the opening of the Chamber of Deputies on Tuesday was drawn up and approved. The declaration, it is understood, contains pacific assurances in regard to the foreign policy, declairs the necessity of revising the mode of electing senators, and advocates the introduction of the scrutin de liste. It is expected that Count Saint Vallier, Ambassador at Berlin, will be replaced, as Prince Bismarck has made representations unfavourable to M. St. Vallier. Bismarck declared to General Chanzy that he in no way feared the contingency of M. Gambetta's return to power, as he recognized in him not only a great orator, but also a great patroit, who loved his country too sincerely to launch it upon adventure which might end fatally.

GERMAN FINANCIAL REFORM.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—It is reported that the Emperor William has given Prince Bismarck authority to take any measures that he may choose to constitute a majority in the Reichstag in order to realize the projected reforms in the finances and the improved condition of the working men, and also to end the ecclesiastical conflict by a formal agreement with the Roman Curia.

NIHILIST TRIALS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 14.—The trial of the twenty-two Nihilists has been simplified. First Lieutenant Loukanoff has acknowledged the truth of the charge against him. He says that the dynamite used to blow up Sadowa street was taken by him from the naval powder magazine.

THE CZAR'S CORONATION.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 14.—The Empress is enceinte, and will probably be confined in May. The ceremony of coronation will therefore, it is believed, be hastened, and will take place toward the middle of February. Active preparations are being made at Moscow. The condition of the Empress is not generally known.

OUR MARQUIS.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Marquis of Lorne, Governor-General of Canada, arrived at Liverpool to-day. He was met by the Princess Louise, and proceeded to the seat of the Duke of Westminster near Chester.

FENIANS AGAIN.

LONDON, Nov. 14—An important discovery in connection with the operations of the Fenian organization has been made in Bradford. Accident led to the seizure of a box containing fifty revolvers, with documents and other clues, including, it is said, a list of the local members and Fenian organizers throughout the country. The box containing the arms was found in the cellar of an Irishman named John Tobin, in Manningham, a suburb of Bradford.

MID DAY MURDER.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—General Meares, deputy-lieutenant for county Westmeath, has been fired at by two men behind a hedge in broad daylight, but was not injured. No arrests have been made.

THE PORTUGUESE MINISTRY.

MADRID, Nov. 14.—The new Portuguese Ministry has been formed a following:—Senhor Fontes Pereira de Mello, President of the Council and Minister of Finance and ad interim, Minister of War; Senhor Revire, Minister of the Interior; Senhor Velhena, Minister of Justice; Senhor Pemphenkl, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Senhor Hintsee, Minister of Public Works; Senhor Gouveau, Minister of Marine. All of the members of the new Ministry belong to the Regevado party.

THE NEW MINISTRY.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—There seems to be such a general concurrence as to the accuracy of the subjoined list of the new Ministers that there is reason to believe it will appear in the Journal Official to-morrow. M. Gambetta, President of the Council and Minister of Foreign Affairs; M. Waldeck Rousseau, Minister of the Interior; M. Alain Targe, Minister of Finances; M. Cazot, Minister of Justice; M. Raynal, Minister of Public Works; M. Deyes, Minister of Agriculture; M. Rouvier, Minister of Commerce; M. Paul Bert, Minister of Public Instruction; General Camperon, Minister of War; M. Antonin Proust, Minister of Fine Arts; M. Cochery, Minister of Posts and Telegraphs; M. Gougeart, Minister of Marine.

THE CAMPAIGN IN TUNIS.

KAIROUAN, Nov. 14.—All the inhabitants have been disarmed. The quartering of French troops in the mosques and colleges has given great offence to the Tunisians. General Logot strongly objects to the proposed march to Gabes and Susa, and only started on receiving stringent orders from Paris. His route lies through a difficult and mountainous country, where operations will be almost impossible after the rains, which have already begun. It is impossible to describe the unpopularity of the expedition among all ranks. It is openly denounced as a waste of lives, and the French officers contemplate the wholesale resignation of their commissions at the close of the campaign. Fever and dysentery continue among the troops in Susa, 670 of whom are in hospitals. Two hundred and fifty have been sent to France in ten days.

AMERICAN.

THE NEWARK BANK.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 14.—The case of Cashier Baldwin come before the United States Commissioner this morning. Mr. Martin, of Martin & Runyon, Wall street brokers, produced a batch of Nugent's drafts negociated by the firm for Baldwin. Nugent's counsel examined Martin to show that Baldwin had large stock transactions in other names. Martin testified that one account was in Baldwin's wife's name, but the amount involved was not over $5,000. Baldwin's brother, Theodore, a bank teller, also had an account which became so large that the cashier was notified. He appeared surprised, but afterwards said it was all right. The account increased, and sometimes he sent $30,000 to $40,000 in cash for margins by a messenger, and brokers borrowed for him as much as 10,000 shares of stock, representing a million dollars at par. Martin finally ordered the accounts to be closed, as he prefered not to have such large dealings with a person holding a position of trust. The case was then ajourned till Saturday.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and complete restoration of vigor and manhood. Also for Rheumatism, neuralgia, Paralysis, Liver and Kidney difficulties, Ruptures, and many other diseases. Illustrated pamphlet sent free. Address Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

THE "JEANETTE."

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Royal Geographical Society has authorized the President to communicate with the Chief Secretary for the Colonies and suggest that the Hudson Bay Company be asked to send out a land expedition in search of the Jeanette. The Secretary is prepared to contribute toward the expedition.

AN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 15.—In the trial of the Nihilists, Lieut. Sankanoff acknowledged that the dynamite used to blow up Sadomo street was taken by him from the naval powder magazine.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—It is reported that Perry Burlow and Wheeler, owners of the wharf and mills at Walden, New York, assigned to the Rev. Dr. John Hall on Sunday night.

DISFIGURED FOR LIFE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—While alighting from a street car, the Rev. John Hall fell, striking the curb stone and breaking his nose. His face will be much disfigured if not permanently.

NEW HORSE DISEASE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—A new horse distemper prevails here. One eighth of the horses of the city are prostrated with the disease. It is not necessarily fatal. New features are the discharge from the nose and swollen legs.

WELLS' TRUE INWARDNESS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—J. Howard Wells, charged with attempting to blackmail Jay Gould, defrauded the Government of from one to two million dollars during the war and departed for Europe for short comings that had been discovered while Wells was commissary of the purchasing depot in Baltimore, at the close of the war. He was succeeded by an inexperienced man to whom he turned over the property on hand in bulk without a detailed statement. It is said that Wells' method of operations was similar to that recently adapted by Captain Howgate. After Wells went to Europe nothing was heard of him till the affair in New York. While at Baltimore Wells was a heavy operator in Wall street, and it was reported that he was very successful in his operations in gold.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The boiler of the tug Lehigh exploded yesterday at Glen Island. Jas. Tillotson, of Albany, who was the only person aboard, was blown 150 feet and killed. The tug was torn to pieces.

STRUCK WHALES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The steamer Newport of New York, of the Cuba line, reports that she ran into a school of sperm whales, half a mile wide and twenty long, off Delaware cape. The steamer cut two immense whales in two.

STARVED TO DEATH.

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 15.—A woman died in a shanty here of starvation. Her husband is sick and three small children are half starved. A nearly starved child was found hanging around the dead mother.

THE NEW TELEGRAPH CO'Y.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The lines of the Mutual Union Telegraph Company were opened for business yesterday, from this city to Albany, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

A TUNNEL COMPANY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Hudson River Tunnel Construction Company was organized at Jersey City yesterday, to build a tunnel under the Hudson River, between Jersey City and New York. It is now under construction with a capital of $200,000,000. Trenor W. Park was chosen President of the company.

A DEFERRED APPOINTMENT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The day before Garfield was shot, he determined to appoint A. G. Riddle, District Attorney here, in place of Corkhill. Lincoln also the day before he was killed decided to appoint Riddle to some office.

NEW LINE OF STEAMERS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The World brings up the subject that among the schemes to be brought before congress is one asking for a subsidy in aid of a line of steamers to be established on the Pacific Coast.

IN A DUEL.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 15.—Jno. Jasper and Jas. Casey, well known coloured men of Norfolk Co., disputed about politics. A mock duel was arranged. By mistake shots were placed in Casey's gun, and when the men fired Jasper was fatally wounded.

Beatty Organs and Pianos.

We learn that Mayor Beatty, of Washington, New Jersey, is receiving hundreds of orders for his Pianos and Organs for Christmas presents. We advise our readers to order early and avoid the rush. Read his advertisement.

CAPTAIN GEORGE LESSARD, a Frenchman who fought in the Peninsular war under Napoleon I., is living in Montreal, and has attained the great age of 104 years. He came to Canada early in the present century, and served the British Government under the gallant Desallberry in the war of 1812, for which he has a pension. He is able to move about, but his memory is impaired.

PEOPLE ARE BEGINNING to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

FOR DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

HUMBUGGED AGAIN.—I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife who was always doctoring, and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some I concluded to be humbugged again; and I am glad I did, for in less than two months' use of the Bitters my wife was cured and has remained so for eighteen months since. I like such humbugging.—H. T., St. Paul.—Pioneer Press.

Daily Evening Review

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1881.

WHY WE SUPPORT IT.

THERE is no use ignoring the fact that not a few of the people of Peterborough and its vicinity are somewhat sceptical as to the advantages to be derived from Mr. Cox's amalgamation scheme. In the first place there exists a very general feeling against amalgamations, and the consequent formation of large railway corporations, and, although we favour the present scheme, we are glad that the general sentiment of our people is running in that direction. If there is one thing more than another which is likely to endanger the good Government, of not simply Canada, but of the American continent, it is the influence and power of the vast railway corporations which are now being developed, and their control by single men or little cliques of men. But while this is true, it does not follow that all amalgamations, and the formation of all large corporations are to be opposed. In fact in a country of the vast extent of Canada large railway corporations are a necessity to its proper development, and our object should be not to prevent their formation, but to surround them with such "checks and guarantees" as will prevent their becoming masters instead of servants of the public. How these checks and guarantees are to be provided without taking the railways altogether into the hands of the Government—which we fear would only be getting out of the frying pan into the fire—is undoubtedly a question of considerable difficulty—one which it is easier to theorize about, than to deal with in a practical manner. Hitherto the only effectual check upon the greed of the great railway corporations south of the lakes, when they are not quarelling among themselves, has been the water ways. It is an undisputed fact that the Erie Canal, and, for the last two or three years the Mississippi have been the means directly and indirectly of saving millions upon millions to the producers and consumers of the United States. And we are convinced that it is to the improvement and development of our water ways that Canada must look for the best and most effectual check upon the greed of the large and soulless railway corporations, that will grow up among us and that are in some respects desirable.

But perhaps the chief reason why so many are doubtful as to any benefit accruing to us from the present amalgamation scheme is the feeling that it puts an end for ever to the Toronto and Ottawa project as a competing line to the Grand Trunk, and we are not surprised at this, because it was to this particular aspect of the situation that our attention was chiefly directed by its promoters. Now, although we are not without information which would lead us to dispute the conclusion of those who entertain this opinion, yet, we are going to grant that they are correct, for the purpose of our present argument as even under such circumstances the people of Peterborough and its vicinity, in common with those on every part of the amalgamated line, can with good reason look forward to deriving very considerable benefits from the proposed amalgamation.

We find that there is a very general impression that the rates of freight will be the same after amalgamation as before. Now this is one of those statements which is at once correct and incorrect. We do not for instance expect any reduction between here and Port Hope, or between here and Belleville, but we do expect a reduction in the present cost of freight between here and any point upon any of the lines now about to be amalgamated with the Midland. For instance, if you wanted to ship an article weighing, say 100 lbs, to Whitby, the freight would, under present tariff arrangements, be, Peterborough to Port Hope 20 cents, and Port Hope to Whitby 20 cents more, making a total of 40 cents, or, if sent by way of Lindsay, it would be, Peterborough to Lindsay 22 cents, Lindsay to Whitby 22 cents, total 44 cents, but the moment you make the Midland and Whitby roads one, the freight would be calculated, not on the 38 miles from here to Lindsay, and then on the 45 miles from Lindsay to Whitby, but on the total distance from here to Whitby of 93 miles, which, according to the same mileage tariff, would bring the charge down to 32 cents, or a reduction of over 25 per cent. Take again the shipment of goods between here and Toronto; from Toronto to Port Hope the distance is 63 miles, and the charge for 100 lbs., according to the same tariff, 28 cents, and from Port Hope to Peterborough, 31 miles, for which the charge is 20 cents, total 48 cents. When amalgamated the distance on the Midland by way of Woodville, to Toronto, will be 102 miles, the charge for which, according to the same tariff, would be 34 cents, and by way of Manilla and Wick 88 miles, for which the charge would be 32 cents, a reduction of 33 per cent. Take another instance; the charge from here to Lindsay as already stated, is 22 cents per 100 lbs., from Lindsay to Kinmount 20 cents, and to Haliburton 27 cents, making a total of 42 cents from here to Kinmount, and 49 cents to Haliburton. Knock the two roads into one, as Mr. Cox's scheme does, and the charge from here will be 30 cents to Kinmount, and 32 cents to Haliburton—only 10 and 5 cents more from Peterborough to Kinmount and Haliburton respectively, than it will be from Lindsay to the same places, notwithstanding that the above figures are for the mileage, by way of Millbrook. When the missing link is completed a further reduction of 2 cents per 100 lbs. between Peterborough and the two places named will be made.

Now all these reductions will be the practical result of the amalgamation, because the tariff we have been quoting from is a non-competitive tariff and one which has been framed by the Midland in what it conceives to be its own interests, and therefore one from which there is little chance of departure, so far as the relative amounts are concerned, If one is raised the other will be raised proportionately, and if one is lowered the other will be lowered proportionately.

So much for the reduction of rates which this amalgamation practically guarantees us, to all points on the lines about to be amalgamated with the Midland. A very brief word now as to the new fields which this change in the cost of transport will open up to our merchants, manufacturers and producers. Since the opening of the Victoria Railway we have been practically shut off from the trade of the northern part of our own county. By the amalgamation we will once more be placed very nearly on an equality with Lindsay, in competing for this trade. To the east, we will be placed, in so far as railway facilities and cost of transport are concerned, on a par with Belleville for the trade to be had at Madoc and points east and north of it—the distance from Peterborough and Belleville being so nearly the same as, according to the tariff we have been quoting, to make a difference of only a cent per 100 lbs, and a dollar on a car of grain or flour. Now this will be of the greatest importance to the farmers, and, consequently, to the merchants of Peterborough, inasmuch as Madoc is the business centre of the mining region of North Hastings, where, if only a moiety of what we hear about it proves true, an immense demand for every kind of farm produce will speedily exist—a demand which we are in a very much better position to supply than the city of Belleville ever can be. In fact, in order to place Belleville on a par with Peterborough for this particular trade, farm produce must rise until it is worth as much in Peterborough as it is in Belleville.

THE OTTAWA ROMANCE.

Legal Proceedings to be Taken by the Disappointed Lady—Vindicating her Character.

OTTAWA, Nov. 13.—The bewitching young lady who nearly entrapped a city lawyer into marrying her has sufficiently recovered from the shock to her nervous system to take proceedings against him. She has retained counsel, and demands the carrying out of the nuptial ceremony which was so unceremoniously broken up. She claims that she has been slandered, but confesses to being a little eccentric and indiscreet. In an interview with a reporter she asserted it was not filthy lucre that she wanted—it was her rights and an opportunity to vindicate her character. Whatever the woman's faults may be, it is quite evident that she has occupied a high social position. She is highly educated, and displays wonderful conversational powers. Her name having been mentioned in connection with several high dignitaries, she has taken steps to prove the utter falsity of the rumours. Should the case ever come into court some very interesting developments will in all probability be made. In a previous report she was referred to as an "escaped convict"; it should have read an "escaped nun."

A Long Trestle.

The Chattanooga Times says:—Fletcher Wessenberg & Co. have been awarded the contract for building a trestle across Lake Pontchartrain and approaches. The trestle will be twenty-five miles long, and the contractors bind themselves to finish it in one year.

The contract is the largest timber contract ever before awarded in the south. It will amount to at least 1,250,000. Thirty million feet of lumber and seventy-five car loads of bolts, 1,500,000 pounds will be used in building this trestle. All timbers which will go in water will be creosoted; creosote works will be erected at once near the lake at a cost of $75,000.

The works are on the line of the New Orleans and North-Eastern railway, the extension of the Vicksburg and Meridian railway to New Orleans. The rest of the work is now under contract, as well as the road from Monroe to Shreveport, and is to be finished within a year, at which time the Erlanger system, extending from Cincinnati to Shreveport and New Orleans will be intact.

Medical Recrimination.

TOPEKA, Nov. 11.—Dr. Boynton is reported as saying that he entertained hopes of President Garfield's recovery until July 23, when the first rigor occurred. The President's wound was never properly cleansed until three weeks after he was shot. The other surgeons signed the bulletins on Dr. Bliss' report at Elberon. It was suggested to Dr. Hamilton that the surgeons were being deceived. After that Dr. Hamilton or Dr. Agnew took the indications, and the pulse then went up in the bulletins.

New Use of Buffalo Skins.

An inventor proposes to make machine gear wheels of raw buffalo hides by cementing and pressing together as many layers as are required for the breadth of the wheel. The blanks thus prepared are cut to form the teeth in the usual manner with suitable tools. The advantages claimed are smooth and noiseless action at very high speeds and greater durability without lubrication.

THE ADMINISTRATOR.

Sir Patrick Macdougall Taking the Oath of Office—To Reside in Montreal.

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—It was known that Gen. Sir Patrick Macdougall would arrive by the Occident Railway shortly after one o'clock, and quite a number of citizens had gathered at the station in expectation. He was officially received on alighting from the train by General Luard, Lieutenant-Colonel Stuart, of the Governor-General's office, and Captain Holbech, Aide-de-Camp. Sir Patrick was accompanied by Lady Macdougall, Colonel Fremantle, and Captain Barker, Aide-de-Camp.

At half-past two Sir Patrick, accompanied by General Luard, drove to the Eastern Block for the purpose of taking the oath of office as Administrator of the Government. He was received at the main entrance by a guard of honor from the Governor-General's Foot Guards, under command of Captain Grayburn.

Sir Patrick, after acknowledging the attentions of the guard of honor, on turning to enter the building was met at the door by Lieutenant-Colonel Maunsell, A.D.C., Lieutenant-Colonel Bacon, Brigade-Major, and Lieutenant-Colonel Ross, with whom he shook hands. They accompanied him up-stairs to the Governor-General's office. After remaining there a few months he proceeded to the Privy Council Chamber, where Sir Wm. Ritchie, Chief Justice of Canada, was in attendance to administer the oath of office. After the usual personal greetings the oath of office was duly administered by the Chief Justice. His Honour the Administrator on leaving the building a few minutes later was again saluted. It is understood that he will return to Montreal this evening, and will reside there during his term of office as administrator.

A FATAL FIGHT.

Death of the Victim of a Bar-Room Fray—The Assailant Under Arrest.

PARKHILL, Nov. 12.—A man named John McKinnon, living on the 14th concession of East Williams, about four miles from here, died this afternoon from the effects of a bar-room fight at the Rob Roy tavern, about two miles south of Parkhill on Friday night. His assailant's name is Ned McLellan, of West Williams, a rough character, who, it appears struck McKinnon about the head while under the influence of liquor, causing injuries which resulted in his death this afternoon. Both parties are well-known here. The deceased, although a helpless inebriate, was a harmless man, and of respectable family. McLellan is at present under arrest.

Or rich and poor, if you're not wont
To brush your teeth with Sozodont,
You'll one day suffer deep remorse,
For soon they'll crumble in decay,
And soon you'll cry, "Oh, lack-a-day,
That I had never changed my course."

SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of mpny to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

A Terrible Fate.

KINGSTON, NOV. 12.—A most horrible death occurred last night on the Grand Trunk Railway track about a mile and a half below the depot. A man was run over, decapitated, and most frightfully mangled by No. 16 train from the East. When the train reached the station it was found that a mitten was on the cowcatcher. After some time a pilot engine was ordered out, and a relay of men with torches proceeded down the track and found the remains. The trunk of the man, divested of clothing, covered with blood and dirt, was lying in the middle of the track, the head and other parts were scattered along the track. His arms and legs were both off. The clothing was scattered around, having been torn from the remains by the brakes catching in them. The remains were gathered up, wrapped in the tattered garments, placed on the pilot engine, and brought to the station, where they now lie. Identification is out of the question except by the clothing. From the hair the man would be over 50 years. He was stout, wore an old brown hat, pants of faded diagonal cloth, a coat much worn, and a shirt of home-made flannel, checked, red, white and black. He wore old gaiters, these were off his feet. Two dollars in silver and a rule were found near the remains. Such a man passed Rideau Station early in the afternoon, coming towards the city. He may have been intoxicated and slipped on the track, and striking his head against the rail causing insensibility. If not identified the remains will be buried.

No more disgraceful prize fight is recorded than that between O'Neill and Lynch in East St. Louis on Friday. O'Neill was forced by his "friends" to stay in the ring for fourteen rounds after he was disabled. He stood up only to be knocked down by his opponent, until at last he fainted. The authorities are on the track of those who took part in the affair.

MR. MENELAUS, General Manager of the great Dowlais Iron-Works, in Wales, receives the largest salary paid in commercial life. He was receiving $10,000 a year, when, trade being slack, a reduction was suggested to him, and he at once resigned. Unable to do without him, the firm offered to restore the old salary, but as he had works of his own he declaired it did not pay him to give up so much time, nor did he pay any heed to the overtures made till the sum of $50,000 a year paid quarterly, was proposed, which figure he now receives.

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND—A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease. More particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle.—Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.—2

A TALE of almost unequalled self sacrifice comes home from the Transvaal. Dr. Landon of the Army Medical Department, was wounded at the Majuba Mountain on the day when Sir George Colley was killed. The bullet struck his spine and paralyzed his lower limbs. Knowing he must die, he called to the orderlies near him causing himself to be proped up against a boulder. There, in the presence of death, he with his own hand forced the morphia solution into the wounded arm of Corporal Farmer, and thus frightfully wounded and suffering most acutely, he died.

THERE is every reason to believe that Mr. Goldwin Smith will succeed to the Mastership of University College, Oxford, rendered vacant by the promotion of Dr. Bradley to the Deanery of Westminster. He was a candidate on the last occasion, but his reputation as a pronounced Radical or as what Lord Beaconsfield in "Lothair styled "a wild man of the cloisters," told against him. His recent appearance in Ireland and letters against the Land League, his hearty professions of loyalty to the Queen, and his defence of theism against scepticism in various magazine articles, are understood to be a condonation of his earlier political indiscretions, and there is every prospect of Mr. Smith mellowing into a safe University dignitary.

PNEUMONIA CURED.—From James H. Potts of 97 River St., Cambridgeport, Mass.—"Last winter I was confined to the house six weeks with pneumonia, of which I had a very severe attack. My lungs were extremely sore, and I suffered greatly from pains under my shoulders and in my chest. I coughed incessantly, and every effort caused my eyes to protrude, so that it seemed as though they would be forced from their sockets. I experienced also great difficulty in breathing. My family physician could no nothing for me, except to afford some temporary relief from pain. Many years before this several members of my family had been benefitted by the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and I decided to try it. It gave me immediate relief, and the use of two small bottles completely cured me. I attribute my cure entirely to the Balsam, as while I used it I took nothing else. I cannot speak in terms of too much praise of this valuable preparation, nor can I state in language too strong the remarkable results attending its use in my case." 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. Sold by dealers generally.

Use "Castorine Machine Oil" for all kinds of Machinery. It is also excellent for harness and leather, making it water and weather-proof. For sale by dealers!

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, obdurate skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

LIVER COMPLAINTS.

DR. KING'S DANDELION & QUININE LIVER PILLS (without Mercury.)

THE BEST REMEDY FOR BILLIOUSNESS, STOMACH DERANGEMENT, FLATULENCE, PAINS BETWEEN THE SHOULDERS, BAD APPETITE, INDIGESTION, ACIDITY, HEAD-ACHE, HEARTBURN, and all other symptoms of disordered liver and dyspepsia. Acknowledged by many eminent surgeons to be the safest and mildest pills for every constitution.

In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.

Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

POLICE COURT.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.

TUESDAY, Nov. 15.—John McGhee vs. Simon Weir. Defendant pleaded guilty. Sentence, fined $2; costs $3; total $5.

John McGhee vs. A. Sanderson. Adjourned from yesterday. Prisoner pleaded guilty. Sentence, fined $2; costs $2; total $4.

John McGhee vs. Lanny Mowry. Complainant stated that he was mistaken as to the identity of defendant and asked to withdraw charge. Charge accordingly withdrawn.

VAGRANCY.

George Johnston vs. Patrick Glen. Prisoner pleaded guilty. Sentence, 6 months in gaol.—Committed.

TO KEEP THE PEACE.

Emily McMaster vs. William McMaster. Application for sureties to keep the peace. Charge withdrawn by complainant.

ASSAULT.

Emily McMaster vs. William McMaster. Charge withdrawn by complainant.

The Police Magistrate held a court at one o'clock.

VAGRANCY.

Elizabeth Baker vs. Elizabeth Baker, the younger.

ELIZABETH BAKER, (mother), sworn:—The prisoner is my daughter; she was 16 on the 26th April last; she has been living as a domestic servant until about two weeks ago. I do not know who her associates are; she has no means of support and no employment; I have asked her to return home; she refused; she lives, I am informed and believe, an immoral life.

JOHN MCGHEE, Constable, sworn,—I know the prisoner; her mother asked me to try and find her; I have searched for her but could not find her until this morning after the information was laid by her mother; I then arrested her, she told me she wanted to go to the Post Office to meet a woman called Rowton, who is a disreputable character. The prisoner is a disreputable girl; she is said to keep company with men at nights by lying in sheds and hay lofts; she says she will not go home; she admitted to-day that she was with a girl named Annie Heffernan last night, and when they saw me they ran, and Heffernan was so drunk she fell.

Judgment, guilty, sentenced to six months in Andrew Mercer's Reformatory, Toronto; committed.

It Certainly Will Pay.

It must be a source of pleasure to those of our citizens who are able to spare the money to have such an opportunity, so close upon the Christmas holidays, as that offered by Austin's clearing sale of Fancy Goods. Suitable articles for presents or for house furnishing and adornment can be bought every night from one-quarter to one-half less than the regular prices. To those, also, who would like to possess themselves of some of these luxuries, but who cannot well afford to pay full prices for them, this sale of Austin's has enabled many to buy what they desire at very cheap auction prices. As this sale will be continued night after night until further notice, it will pay everyone to attend who wants bargains in such goods.

Entertainment.

We are pleased to be able to announce that an entertainment will be given in Bradburn's Hall, on Thursday evening the 24th inst., of which the first part will consist of a concert by the leading amateurs of the town and neighborhood and the second part of a play. All those who wish to have an evening's recreation should hold themselves disengaged for this occasion.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

PORT HOPE.

MANITOBA COAL.—The Guide says we have at our office for the inspection of the curious, several samples of Manitoba coal just as it is taken from the surface. It is a bituminous coal and burns quite freely. The samples before us came from the Sowden settlement, from the farm of Mr. John Hayden, son of Mr. T. Hayden.

TRADE LOTES.

A PORTION of the machinery for the Merchants' Cotton Company of Montreal, is now being placed in position in their new mill on the Lachine Canal.

THE enterprising firm of Healy, Pickles & Mills are about adding two or three thousand dollars worth of new machinery to their woodenware manufactory at Round Hill.—Halifax Herald.

THE St. John, N. B., Daily News says of the business of the Oxford Manufacturing Company:—During the last few years the company has gone into the manufacturing of blankets, which have long ago commanded a sale entirely beyond the capacity to fill orders.

A MEETING of the New Glasgow Glass Factory Company was held last week and the result of the business so far is most gratifying to the stockholders. Seventy men are constantly employed. As the orders cannot be filled with despatch, it is proposed to enlarge the premises.—Cape Breton Addvertiser.

THE North Sydney (Cape Breton) Herald points out the benefit the coal duty has been to Canada, in the advantages it has been to steamships plying with grain, lumber, etc., as cargo, between this continent and Europe. In 1881, up to Oct. 1st, fifty-four more steamers (or 148 in all) called for coal than in the corresponding period in 1880.

MR. HART recently received an order for a large number of base-burning coal stoves from a merchant in Heriseau, Canton of Appenzall, Switzerland. Yesterday he shipped several samples, but is so pressed with work that he cannot fill the order for some time to come. They go by way of New York to Havre, and thence through France and up the Rhine to their destination.—Toronto Mail.

MR. J. E. BIGELOW, of J. E. Bigelow & Co., of Amherst, leaves next week for a trip to the United States, to purchase machinery for carrying on the manufacture of mineral water. The firm has decided to establish its factory in Amherst, finding that town possesses superior facilities as a manufacturing and distributing centre. The necessary building will soon be in course of erection.

MR. JOHN A. MCCALLUM informs us that work on the new cotton factory, Windsor, is being pushed rapidly. The foundations are laid, and the building will be put up and covered in before the winter. The machinery will be put in during the winter, so that operations may be commenced early in the spring. The amount of the company's stock is $200,000.

THE Hopewell Woollen Mills began preparing the foundation of their new building on Wednesday morning, under the superintendence of James McDonald. They propose having this wing finished this season, machinery, etc., placed in for the spring trade. Mr. John Mc. Donald has gone to the United States to purchase additional machinery for the company.

IT would appear that all of Canada is benefiting hugely by the energy and outlay of the Canada Pacific railway directors. In addition to all the principal workshops and iron foundries in the upper Province being fully taxed with work for the company, the Hon. Peter Mitchell has just returned from the lower provinces, where he has given out contracts for hundreds of thousands of dollars, also for the railway. To Harris & Co., of St. John, N. B., alone Mr. Mitchell gave a contract for freight cars exceeding $150,000. To many others, also, he gave large contracts. This is a sample of the diffusion of money going on all over Canada, caused by the vigorous prosecution of the great national work now pressing forward with such gigantic strides in the North-West.

The Prize Ring.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 12.—Considerable excitement prevails over the prize fight in East St. Louis yesterday, between Joseph O'Neill and Billy Lynch. O'Neill was disabled in the sixth round, but his friends compelled him to stay in the ring for fourteen rounds more, during which Lynch knocked him down without the slightest resistance on his part. After the twentieth round O'Neill became insensible and Lynch was declared the victor. O'Neill was cut almost to pieces. The fight lasted forty-five minutes. Every effort is being made to arrest all parties concerned.

"Bonnie Maggie Lauder."

One Dominie Campbell was one day watching a carpenter making repairs in his house. The carpenter whistled "Maggie Lauder," as he laboured and worked in time to the tune. "Saunders," said the dominie, presently, "can you no whustle a mair solemn and godly tune while ye're at wark?" "Ay, weel, minister, if it be your will, I'll e'en not do it," and he immediately changed the tune to the "Dead March in Saul," still planing in tune to the music. The worthy dominie looked on for some minutes in silence, and then said, "Saunders, I hae anither word to say till ye. Did the guidwife hire ye by the day's wark, or by the job?" "The day's wark was our agreein', minister." "Then on the whole, Saunders, I think ye may jist as weel gae back to whistling 'Bonnie Maggie Lauder!'"

The DAILY EVENING REVIEW is delivered to subscribers at ten cents a week.

Lumbering and Farming.

There was a time when lumbermen scouted the idea of mixing their pursuit with farming. When they bought timber land they valued it for the logs and timber it would produce. For years the light, sandy soil on which pine grew in Michigan and Wisconsin, was considered nearly worthless for agricultural purposes. Lumbermen would strip this land of its forest growth, and then turn it over to the dominion of wilderness denizens, the wild beasts, and to the annual sweep of the devouring tempests of fire. But latterly a more economical spirit has aroused the owners of pine lands to make better use of their denuded real estate. Some of them have become awake to the conviction that it were cheaper to grow food supplies on their own soil, in the immediate vicinity of their logging camps, than to first pay for them in distant markets, and afterwards transport them, at a heavy cost, to the far-away camps. In the matter of grain and vegetables a great saving is thus made. Besides, their lands are thus converted from a dead waste of fallen limbs, and discarded timber, intermixed with growing briars, brambles and tangled undergrowth, to fruitful fields, and acquire a fair, saleable value as farm property. That heavy lumber concern, the Ludington, Wells & Van Schaick Company has adopted this thrifty scheme, and this year, on its own two farms, has raised 3,000 bushels of potatoes. Its other products this season consist of 400 bushels of onions, 500 bushels of beets, 300 bushels of carrots, and 5,000 heads of cabbage, besides peas, beans and other farm products. These will enter into the food supply of the logging camps this winter, wherein 600 men will be employed. In this connection it may be interesting to mention the other supplies that supplement those produced on the company's farms, and which mostly have to be purchased outside the lumber district. Among these are 800 barrels of flour, 300 barrels of beef, thirty barrels of syrup, 35 barrels of peas, forty barrels of dried apples, and 300 bushels of beans. Its stock will consume 500 tons of hay, 20,000 bushels of oats, corn, bran, etc. Fifteen barrels of kerosene oil will be required to light its camps.—Northwestern Lumberman.

DR. CARSON'S STOMACH AND CONSTIPATION BITTERS, are rapidly taking the place of all other purgatives, including Pills, Powders, etc., There action is mild yet effectual and they are a certain cure for all bilious complaints. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

A WORLD OF GOOD.—One of the most popular medicines now before the American public is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters, as it is not a whiskey drink. It is more like the old fashioned bone set tea that has done a world of good. If you don't feel just right try Hop Bitters.—Nunda News.

A VEXED CLERGYMAN.—Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easily can all this be avoided by using Dr. Kings new discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles given away at Taylor and Macdonald's.—2

—"In this world a man must be either anvil or hammer."—Longfellow.

J. HACKETT

Seems determined to do the BLACK CASHMERE TRADE. He keeps the largest and best selected stock of Black Cashmeres to be found in any retail store. This opinion is confirmed by the very large quantity sold daily.

—"Indeed I am in the waist two yards about; but I am now about no waste; I am about thrift."—Shakespeare.

The Ladies of Peterborough have found it to their advantage to buy their CORSETS at J. HACKETT'S, where they are saving from 25 to 40 cents a pair.

—"To most men experience is like the stem lights of a ship, which illumine only the track it has passed."—Coleridge.

Some dry goods men never profit by experience. Many of them go along in the old rut or groove, selling English made Cashmeres for French, but the public soon discover the fraud, and buy elsewhere. J. HACKETT'S BLACK CASHMERES are warranted French Make, and best dyes.

ANOTHER French company has been formed to work phosphate mines in the county of Ottawa.

INGERSOLL.

Special to the Review, Nov. 16.

A FIRE OCCURRED here about three o'clock this morning, burning two valuable barns, one owned by Dr. McCausland and the other by Nelson McCarty, of Thamesford. It is supposed that incendiarism was the cause. The loss is about $1,500, and there is little insurance.

TORONTO.

Special to the Review, Nov. 16

MAGGIE GORDON, in an ill-advised moment, complained of Nellie Hackett and Mary Smith coming to her house, raising a disturbance and breaking $20 worth of goods. The two women were fined $20 each, a portion to go to Gordon, but the authorities turned round and fined her $20 for having a disorderly house. They also fined two of her witnesses $10 each for being inmates, and another $1, all with costs. There is a further charge against her of selling liquor without a license.

SECRETARY CRAIG, of the Board of Works, admitted in court to-day that he was running two saloons, while a civic official. Some queer developments are promised relative to his land speculations. The object is to see if he has any interest in the burning of the Yonge Street pavement contract.

THE STAKE HOLDER in the prize fight telegraphed to the Evening Telegram that it will take place assuredly to-day or Friday.

IN THE Meredith case to-day evidence was given as to the value of a mine in Colorada, and as to the general character of the parties. Meredith's cross examination was resumed, and he detailed the method which he adapted to bring about a reconciliation. He offered his wife a divorce, but she said a separation was quite as good.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

CABLE.

AN IRISH REPUBLIC.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—A correspondent at Middleborough says that the documents seized in connection with the arrest of Tobin the Fenian, relate to the establishment by force of arms of an Irish Republic. They reveal the existence of an extensive organization, known as the Irish Republic Society, with numerous members. The books of rules and lists of members of the society are likely to throw light on the existence of similar organizations elsewhere.

BISMARCK REFORMING.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—Bismarck advocates an extensive electoral reform. He desires that minorities be represented in Parliament, and a radical change in the formation of the Electoral Districts.

THE FRENCH MINISTRY.

PARIS, Nov. 15.—The new ministry is gazetted as announced yesterday. The ministries of Public Instruction and of Worship have been re-united. There is important in view of the violent anti-clerical opinions of Minister Bert.

THE NEW FRENCH MINISTRY.

PARIS, Nov. 15.—The Ministerial declaration created a rather favourable impression. It was looked forward to with considerable anxiety owing to the refusal of men like M. de Freycinet and M. Leon Say to enter the Cabinet, and to the nomination of a furious anti-Clerical like M. Paul Bert to the Ministry of Public Intruction and Worship.

A DENIAL.

DUBLIN, Nov. 15,—Archbishop Croke repudiates the statement that he sent a despatch to the New York papers admitting that he had given advice in 1880 to hold the harvest.

A ZULU MASSACRE.

LONDON Nov. 15.—D'Urban advices state that the Zulu chief Oham recently defeated the Maqulisino tribe and massacred the whole of them, numbering 1,500.

IMPERIAL TOURISTS.

VIENNA Nov, 15.—The Crown Prince and Princess of Austria have begun their tour though Hungary and Transylvania, and have met with great enthusiasm among the people.

THE AUSTRIAN TARIFF.

VIENNA Nov, 15.—The Austrian and Hungarian Ministers have decided to increase the duties on many articles, including petroleum. The readjustment of the Customs tariff, coupled with the petroleum tax, is expected to produce 8,000,000 florins revenue yearly.

ELECTORAL REFORMS.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—Prince Bismarck advocates extensive electoral reforms. He desires that minorities be represented in Parliament and a radical change in the formation of electoral districts.

NIHILIST TRIALS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 15.—Before the coronation of the Czar all political prisoners, from fifty to sixty, of both sexes implicated in the Nihilistic and Socialistic propaganda during the last six years will be disposed of. The negligent police officials will he tried first, and the other offenders will be tried in three batches. Some of the most deeply implicated will be dealt with by an administrative order without trial. It is reported that the real author of the Winter Palace explosion has been captured.

A REASONABLE FENIAN.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Mr. O'Leary, member of the Fenian triumvirate, writes frrm Paris declaring that while he maintains his principles and is resolved to combat England, he deprecates the maligning of Englishmen. Mr. Gladstone, he says, has given Ireland a Land Act such as nobody a few years ago could have hoped for, and Mr. Forster is very much better than most Irish secretaries.

A STARTLING DECISION.

LIMERICK, Nov. 15.—The Limerick sub-commission of the Land Court has reduced the rent of a tenant of Lord Clarina from £53 to £44, notwithstanding that the landlord contributed to the expense of building and drainage. The judgment is considered startling.

A LAND DECISION.

LIMERICK, Nov. 15.—The Limerick sub-commission of the Land Court has decided that a number of holdings in the vicinity on which tenants reside are agricultural holdings, and therefore entitled to the benefit of the Land Act, and that they would have been rightly excluded if merely held as market gardens by persons residing in the city. The decisions were received with applause. A large number of cases affected by these decisions will be appealed

THE GERMAN BUDGET.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—The German Bundesrath has approved the budget. The revenue and expenditure are each estimated at 607 million marks, A grant of 300,000 marks is proposed for enabling Germany to participate in the international Polar expedition.

MRS. GARFIELD'S THANKS.

LONDON, Mov. 15.—The London News publishes a letter from the Secretary of the American Legation conveying Mrs. Garfield's heartfelt thanks for the resolutions, addresses, letters, and poems transmittted to her from corporations, societies, and individuals in Great Britain and Ireland on the occasion of the death of her husband, and expressing regret that owing to their large number she is unable to acknowledge them separately.

SPAIN AND MOROCCO.

MADRID Nov. 15.—In the Spanish Chamber of Deputies to-day Senor Canovas del Castillo maintained that the empire of Morocco must not be allowed to disappear. When the period for its collapse arrived Spain should be ready to defend a certain portion, including the desert villages. The opposition to carrying out the destinies of Spain and Africa was not at the Straits of Gibraltar, but at the Pyrenees,

AMERICAN.

GUITEAU'S TRIAL.

WASHINGTON. Nov. 15.—The pressure to obtain admission to the Court Room this morning was greater than yesterday. Guiteau was hurried in by half a dozen policemen and Deputy Marshalls. When his handcuffs were removed he shook hands with his sister and brothers. Scoble applied for an order for an additional witness. The court made the order. Guiteau manifested less nervousness and was less excitable than yesterday, although in whispered conversations with his brother, he was very demonstrative in his manner.

AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS

Press Despatches to the Review.

CABLE.

AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—The decree announcing the separation of the ministers of agriculture and commerce points to the United States, and other countries which have made agriculture a distinct department.

A DOOMED VILLAGE.

GENEVA, Nov. 16.—The annihilation of the village of Elm, Canton of Glarious, appears only to be a question of time and of the weather. The summit of the peak nearest the village is moving.

IMPERIAL CONNECTION.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The Marquis of Lorne, in replying to the address of the Corporation of Chester, said that there was hardly one person in ten thousand in Canada who did not attach the utmost value to its imperial connection.

GAMBETTA'S PROGRAMME.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—M. Gambetta presented himself with his colleagues in the Chamber of Deputies to-day, and explained the policy of the Ministry. He said:—"We desire a policy which will advance gradually and wisely towards reform. We rely on finding a majority which will afford us its frank support in both Chambers, and upon a disciplined public service. We propose a reform of the judicial system, perfect national education, and complete military legislation. We wish, by means of treaties, to extend our commercial relations. We wish strictly to follow the provisions of the Concordat, and to maintain peace at home and abroad. These reforms will suffice us, and enable us to reach the first stage of progress. Universal suffrage has for the third time since 1875 signified a wish to strengthen the republic and surround it with democratic institutions. We have no other programme than what France herself has demanded, namely, a constitution and a united government exempt from all paltry conditions, imposed by discussion and weakness, ever ready to render to the representatives of the nation an account of its acts, and capable of imposing on all degrees of public officials respect, obedience and work. They would seek, without impairing the defensive power of France, the best means of reducing in the land and sea forces the burdens of the country, endeavor to relieve financial burdens upon agriculture, fix by treaties an economic regime of various industries, give greater impulse to the means of production, transport and exchange, and the promotion of social thrift." M. Gambetta was greeted with prolonged cheers.

AMERICAN.

RAILWAY COMPETITION.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—Representatives of the Trunk lines from the east, are here endeavouring to end the present disastrous competition in rates.

RETURNING TO PRACTICE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Conkling has engaged an office and intends to practice law here as soon as he recovers from the indisposition, by which he is now confined to his hotel.

GENEROUS BEQUESTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The will of Col. Chas. H. Northam bequeaths $230,000 to Educational and Charitable Institutions.

SUSPICIOUS BAGGAGE.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Nov. 16.—Five suspicious persons, supposed to be Fenians, left here yesterday taking with them three large iron bound boxes.

GAINING THE CONTROL.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 16.—The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad has bought John J. Black's interest in the Chicago and Pacific road for $1,800,000. This ends some important suits and gives the former road the control of the stock.

THE MISSING JEANETTE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—It is stated that the whaling captains now here are unanimous in the belief that there will never be anything more seen of the Jeanette or her crew again.

THROWN FROM THE TRACK.

PORT JERVIS, Nov. 16.—A Delaware and Hudson Railway train ran into a hand car at the "Stillwater" switch yesterday. The engine and seven cars were thrown from the track. The engineer was killed and a brakeman was seriously injured.

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

SALEDA, Cal., Nov. 16.—A construction train on the California Southern railway jumped the track near the summit of the Saleda grade yesterday. Some flat cars loaded with tiles were upset, killing one man and crushing five more, two of whom will die.

GUITEAU SCARED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—When led out of Court yesterday Guiteau manifested much fear, as there was a considerable crowd. There were a number of persons in the hallway, and a crowd outside. Several jeers were heard. Guiteau became nervous and very much excited. When the van door opened, it was with difficulty that he could mount the steps. Among those in the hallway, was Bethard, who wanted to shoot Guiteau at the time he was arraigned. Bethard said as Guiteau passed by—"oh how I wish I had a pistol." The crowd closed around the van, and the horses started, when there were threats of vengeance loud enough to reach the ears of the trembling prisoner, who crouched in the dark vehicle. The horses were driven at full speed, and in a short time the prisoner was safely lodged in jail. During the examination of the talesmen yesterday, Guiteau especially objected to any one as a juror, who believed him insane. He said he did not wish insanity to be made an issue, but preferred to have the trial on the merits of the case.

PEOPLE ARE BEGINNING to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa- Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

HUMBUGGED AGAIN.—I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife who was always doctoring, and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some I concluded to be humbugged again; and I am glad I did, for in less than two months' use of the Bitters my wife was cured and has remained so for eighteen months since. I like such humbugging.—H. T., St. Paul.—Pioneer Press.

POLITICS.

It has been said that there are more politics to a square mile in America than in any other part of the Globe, and that of those who inhabit America Canadians are by no means the least given to politics. Whether such a statement be absolutely correct or not there is undoubtedly sufficient truth in it to justify us in trying to define in what politics and political issues consist—especially as different people attach such very different meanings to the same words now-a-days.

Now, what is politics? Politics as we understand the word, and as we find it defined by the best authorities is, the art of Government, or in other words the administration of public affairs. In Canada we have three divisions of public affairs, viz: those pertaining to the Dominion; those pertaining to the Province, and those pertaining to the municipality, and in the Government or management of each of these there is room for more or less of honest difference of opinion, as to the proper course to be pursued under certain circumstances, and with honest politicians, whose actions are governed simply by what they believe to be best for the Dominion, the Province, or the municipality, as the case may be, their political personal alliances will not only change with circumstances, but also, as they may agree or disagree with those with whom they come in contact in the different departments into which Canadian government is divided.

Not unfrequently of late have we heard people say that there should be no politics in the management of our Provincial affairs. With such a statement we agree or disagree according to the meaning which they attach to it. If when they say politics should not be introduced into our Provincial elections, they mean that those political issues which pertain to the Dominion—such as the National Policy for instance—should not be introduced, then we cordially agree with them; but if on the other hand they mean that candidates for the Provincial Legislature should have no opinions of there own with regard to those questions with which the Provincial Legislature has to deal—such as the question of the number of its representatives, expost facto legislation, the maintenance or abolishment of Upper Canada College, the management of our Crown Lands, and such like, for instance—then we say they are not only entirely wrong but by so doing strike a deadly blow, at our system of Provincial self government by belittling the issues, and consequently the importance of our Provincial Legislatures. In the same way, although to a less extent, proportionately to the field which they occupy, our municipal contests, and for that matter our school trustee contests have issues involved in them which, if properly looked at, should induce the electors to rise above personal likings or dislikings, and above their agreement or disagreement with candidates on questions not involved in the particular contests before them, and cast their votes for that candidate whose opinions and policy most nearly co-incides with their own on those questions with which he will have to deal, if elected in that particular contest.

If the definition we have given of the meaning of politics and political issues be a correct one, it is obvious that we have Dominion politics, Provincial politics and municipal politics, which are as separate and distinct from each other, and which should be kept as distinct from each other as it is usual to keep a man's religious views distinct from his political opinions, and there is no good reason why the same differences of opinion should not be found among the supporters of the present Dominion Government, in Ontario, with regard to Mr. Mowat's Government, or vice versa, as there is to be found more or less among all our religious denominations, with regard to the political questions of the day.

Unhappily all the tendencies of the present day are running in the very opposite direction to that true liberty of thought and action with regard to our political affairs to which we are pointing, and through which alone we believe Canada can obtain true political manhood, and true independence of thought and action. Nothing can be more injurious than for us, as a people, to assume and act upon the principle that because A. B. and C. are agreed as to the best policy for the Dominion to-day, they must agree either as to future Dominion issues, or, at the same time as to the issues before our Provincial Legislatures, or our Municipal Councils. Such a doctrine is and must ever be contrary to the spirit of true freedom and self-government. Indeed it is to their acting upon the principle which we are condemning that all the evils of the American system may be traced—evils which are largely chargable with the murder of their late President, and which should serve as a beacon to warn us against drifting among the same breakers as those through and from which the energies of the best men in the United States are now being directed, to pilot their ship of state.

But, while we claim for ourselves, and for all who may feel so disposed, the right to act with one set of men as to Dominion affairs, and with another as to Provincial affrirs, and with yet another as to Municipal affairs, without being charged with inconsistency, let it not for a moment be supposed that we approve, much less have any sympathy with those who, under the name of independence, take to themselves liberty to entertain one set of opinions in the morning and another in the evening with regard to the same subject. That man is only truly independent who has, after due consideration, arrived at a conclusion as to the proper policy to be pursued on any given question, and who is prepared to advocate and act upon the conclusion at which he has arrived, whether it prove popular or unpopular, whether it lead him into the company of those with whom he has hitherto acted, or into that of those whom he has hitherto opposed.

Entertaining these opinions, we should be glad to see such steps taken as would separate and render distinct our organizations for the conduct of our Dominion and Provincial contests. At the present time both of our great parties undertake to deal with both Dominion and Provincial matters through the same organizations. In our opinion, we need scarcely say, this is all wrong. It may be, and no doubt is, quite true, that the supporters of Mr. Mowat in Ontario, are very nearly identical with those of Mr. Blake at Ottawa and vice-versa, but it is not always so, and if it be not desirable that it should be so, then facilities should be afforded for those who are disposed to occupy what at the present time is looked upon as opposing positions, to make themselves felt, and give them a voice in the selection of candidates entertaining those opinions which they desire to forward. Such a separation of organization would certainly be a step in the right direction, and in which, past results go far to prove, a considerable body of the electors are prepared to act.

WOODEN ARCHITECTURE.

Mr. Chas. Hayward, F. S. A., in an article, "Our Old Timber Work," which recently appeared in the British Architect, calls attention to the revival of visible timber work construction, after so many years of neglect. "The frequent design and construction of important buildings in timber work," he says, "and the tendency to a further extension of the same, is a remarkable feature of our times. It would seem as if it were a law in our profession, as well as elsewhere, that ideas of art should 'come as the waves come,' and ebb and flow as the tide. It appears more dignified to speak of our changes in taste and practice in this way than to talk of them as mere fashion, though fashion, no doubt, has in its most direct though capricious manner a great influence, not only on the forms of architecture in use at various times, but on the several kinds of materals also, attempts at a 'new style' or a 'new order,' the 'Victorian age,' 'nineteenth century Gothic,' and so on, all showing a healthy, thoughtful vigour existing in the old stock, and a hopefulness ever new for something great to be evolved in the future. When centuries have rolled by, and men begin to reckon up the works of the nineteenth century and twentieth century architects, perhaps they may find that 'something' which we are now unconsciously striving after, and haply helping to accomplish, though we cannot see it.

"Some years ago there was for a little while a fashion to talk of importing timber houses from Norway, designed and constructed all complete, and one or two were actually brought over in sections and set up. At the same time the writer was building, he says, a timber house in Norway, which was actually carried out in a modified form. Curiously it happened that a little later he was called upon to build a mansion of old ship timber in Cornwall, and a Swiss cottage, entirely of wood, elsewhere. The study of some foreign books, as well as of all such home and foreign timber constructions, became specially interesting, and he would now recommend it to those who may be enabled by the present wave of fashion to evolve something out of the style in favour for the time."

The writer concludes as follows:—"We all know the glorious examples of Cheshire, Shropshire, Worcestershire, &c., besides the smaller excellent examples to be found nearly everywhere in the country about us. But I would point to one of our very earliest constructions in wood—well known, and yet, I dare say, seldom remembered—as the very fountain-head of that little stream which became eventually a great flood of art, and covered the whole land. I refer to the little church of Greenstead, in Essex, built in the early part of the eleventh century, of which the walls are composed merely of portions of trunks of trees—thick outside slabs—split or roughly hewn off, measuring 12 to 18 inches across, and 10 to 12 inches thick, roughly joined with tongues, but smoothed on the inside. These uprights, never more than 5 ft. to 6 ft. high, were originally tenoned into a head and cill; but in restorations carefully carried out some yeass ago the cill had to be removed and the lower ends of the timbers cut off as far as they had rotted, and a new cill on brickwork substituted. Substantially, however, we see a wooden chapel of the eleventh century, and the timbers, sound and hearty, standing as they were then set up. One of them on the north side—where there was an original doorway—has a notch cut in it for the purpose of holding a holy water vessel. It seems pretty certain that this chapel was erected for the purpose of receiving as a temporary resting-place the body of St. Edmund the king, on its way (for the second time, date 1013) to 'Boedricesworth,' thenceforth to be called Bury St. Edmund's. So here is an open book on the earliest wooden construction in England, which any one may read."—Timber Trade's Journal.

DROWNED IN THE HUDSON.

A Ferry Skiff Swamped by the Swell of Propellers—Lamentable Loss of Life.

Troy, N. Y., Nov. 12.—This evening a skiff ferryboat with nineteen persons was swamped by the swell of three propellers while crossing the river from this city to Port Schuyler. The following are known to be drowned and three others are missing:—George Hay (unmarried), James Diamond, Thos. Manion, Sr., Giles Leroy and Henry Leroy (his son), Francis Reilly, and John Keyes. Mrs. Leroy, who is dying, has not been informed of her double loss. Owing to the great excitement it is very difficult to obtain accurate particular. Parties are searching for the bodies.

Troy, Nov. 13.—With the exception of the Leroys all the persons drowned were employed at Burden's iron works in this city. One of the deceased leaves a wife and eleven children and another a wife and seven children.

A Troy despatch says, regarding the ferry-boat disaster, that when the boat had almost reached the centre of the river, which was swollen by recent rains, Thomas Fox, sitting in the stern, saw three propellers rapidly approaching from the south. He called to the oarsmen to step but they failed to do so, and the propeller nearest the south shore passed within a few feet of the bow of the skiff. The latter which was overcrowded, having its gunwalls nearly even with the water, passed the first swell in safety, but on reaching the second shipped considerable water. The third swell almost filled the boat, and the occupants became greatly alarmed. The men, aware that the boat would sink, called for assistance, and one of the propellors, the Cora, turned around, but the others continued their course. The Cora steamed slowly towards the skiff, but before she could reach it the boat capsized, and all the men were struggling in the water. Thomas Fox, being unable to swim, grasped the keel of the skiff and called to his associates to follow his example. Several did so, and held on until the Cora drew alongside. On board the Cora a boy named Pickett displayed great bravery and presence of mind, calling on the men who were hanging to the capsized skiff, to hold fast. He threw life preservers right and left to their less fortunate companions and bracing himself against the side of the tug pushed in John Lever. Several others were then secured. A number of row boats soon reached the scene and picked up four men, Fleming Tremble being almost dead. Garrett Rielly, a one-armed man, was saved by Fox, who grasped him by the collar when sinking and pushed him towards the skiff.

Or rich and poor, if you're not wont
To brush your teeth with Sozodont,
You'll one day suffer deep remorse,
For soon they'll crumble in decay,
And soon you'll cry, "Oh, lack-a-day,
That I had never changed my course."

SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of mpny to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house.' For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

Our motto:—"Good goods at fair prices." All parcels sent free to any part of the town.

THE SONG OF CRAM.

With visage haggard and worn,
With eyes deen-sunken and red,
A child sat cramming scholastic bosh,
Who ought to have been in his bed.

Cram, cram, cram,
Algebra, Euclid and Roots,
Cram, cram, cram,
Cram it down into his boots!

No sleep for the urchin to-night—
He fears the "bad mark" of the Ma'am—
He'll toss on his bed till 'tis light
And then to his books and his cram!

Cram! cram! cram!
A school-full of galley slave mutes;
Cram, cram, cram,
Botany, Spelling and Roots!

No laughter of rollicking youth
But an air of old age that's a sham—
A trembling, cringing, prison house air,
The result of the system of cram!

O, when will they mix common sense
With their boasted common school plan,
And learn that a boy was not made for a guy—
But a wide-awake, every-day man?

O, when will the people arise
And rescue the young from the books,
And affectively damn the system of cram
And reform that "Reformer" A. Crooks?

THE TRIAL OF GUITEAU.

COMMENCEMENT OF THE PROCEEDINGS AT WASHINGTON.

The Prisoner Hands Over His Statement for Publication—A Lunatic Production—No Noticeable Excitement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—There was hardly any noticeable excitement outside the Court room to-day, and no very great pressure to obtain admission. The 100 seats reserved for spectators were filled for the most part with rather roughly dressed young men, including a number of tramps and cranks. Half a dozen ladies were sandwiched among the crowd. District Attorney Corkhill, Porter of New York, and Davidge of Washington, were present for the prosecution; Scoville and Leigh Robinson for the defence. Smith represented the Attorney-General, Mrs. Scoville, a matronly lady attired in black, occupied a seat close to her husband, having her brother, John W. Guiteau, on one side.

On the other side a chair was reserved for the prisoner.

At ten o'clock Judge Cox entered, and the court was declared formally opened by the crier. Immediately thereafter Guiteau was brought in by the Marshal and his deputies. He looked in a much better condition than when he last appeared in the same room, still he had the same restless, furtive expression, as of a hunted wolf which characterized him before. He was at once relieved of his hand-cuffs, and took his seat beside his sister. One of his first movements was to thrust his hand into his pocket, and half take out a roll of papers. Scoville, however, in dumb play, ordered him to put it back and he did so. The District Attorney declared the readiness of the prosecution to proceed with the case. Robinson's plea for still more time to prepare for the defence appeared not to meet the approval of Guiteau. All the time Robinson was speaking, Guiteau was carrying on what appeared to be remonstrance with Scoville, who was apparently trying to quiet and suppress him.

About eleven o'clock the work of obtaining a jury for the trial was begun.

The prisoner at this point slowly rose and informed the court that he would like to make a speech to-morrow, but he was ordered by the court to take his seat. He then passed the manuscript of his speech to a newspaper reporter, but before the latter could leave the court Scoville compelled him to return it. This raised the anger of the prisoner, who excitedly declared he was not under control of his counsel, that he was a lawyer and knew the law himself, that when he wanted help he would ask for it, and he desired his speech to be published for the purpose of influencing public opinion. He was again silenced by the court, and it having been agreed that the sittings of the court should be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., daily, allowing half an hour for recess, the court at 1:05 adjourned.

THE SPEECH WHICH GUITTEAU PREPARED

for delivery in court says he is charged with murdering Garfield. Nothing can be more absurd, because Garfield died through malpractice. Garfield was a good man, but a weak politician. Being President he was in a position to do vast harm to the Republic, and was doing it by unwise use of patronage, and the Lord himself took the responsibility of removing Garfield. His (Guiteau's) duty to the Lord and the American people overcame his personal feelings towards Garfield and he sought to remove him. Not being a marksman, Garfield was not fatally shot, but incompetent physicians finished the work, and they, not himself, were responsible for Garfield's death. Guiteau speaks of the breach in the Republican party, and his resolve to remove the President, and claims that the Deity ordered him to fire the shot. He refers to his work on theology, insanity in his family, his married life, and his life in prison, and appeals to those whom he says he has put in position and to the general public to send him money for his defence.

The statement continues:—"The Deity seems well disposed to father it thus far, and I expect He will continue to father it to the end. It is not likely He will allow me to come to grief for obeying Him." "How do you know it was the Deity?" "I was so certain of it I put up my life on it, and I undertake to say the Deity is likely engaged in my defence. I am confident that He will checkmate the wise heads in this prosecution. I beg they go slow; they cannot afford to get the Deity down on them. 'He uttered His voice,' says the Psalmist, 'and the earth melted?' This is the God whom I served when I sought to remove the President, and he is bound to take care of me. I formerly practised law in New York and Chicago. In 1877 I left a good practice in Chicago and went out lecturing, but I had small success. I had ideas, but no reputation. Scoville is developing the theory of hereditary insanity, which may have an important bearing on this case. Insanity runs in my family. My father had two sisters and a nephew and niece in the insane asylum. He himself was a monomaniac for twenty-five years on the Oneida Community. He could see no evil in that concern and no good out of it. He thought Noyes a greater man than the Lord Jesus Christ. He was rational enough outside of the Community idea. On that he was a lunatic. He would get greatly excited in discussing that, and look and act like a wild man. All this time he was cashier of a bank, and attended to his duties promptly and faithfully. It was owing to his fanaticism on insanity that I got into the Oneida Community when a boy. Once under Noyes' influence it was impossible to get away, and I lingered there in the greatest distress six long, weary years. I was in the Community from 1860 to 1866. Since then I have not known nor cared for them. One Smith whom I knew there has taken upon himself to write upon this case, and among other silly and impertinent statements he says I was in the habit of connecting my name with the words "Premier to England," &c. These statements are false. My father was a frequent visitor at the Community, but never resided there. He wanted to go but my step-mother opposed it. I wish this Oneida Community business to pass into oblivion. My ex-wife has been summoned by the prosecution. Our marriage was premature. I only knew her ten weeks, and we were married on ten hours' notice. She was a poor girl. She had been unfortunate, and I had no business to have married her. We were married in 1869, separated in 1873, and divorced in 1874, without issue. I have known little about her since 1873. I have been strictly virtuous for six or seven years. I claim to be gentleman and a Christian. I am a patriot today. I suffer in bonds as a patriot. Washington was a patriot; Grant was a patriot. Washington led the armies of the revolution through eight years of bloody war to victory and glory. Grant led the armies of the Union to victory and glory, and the nation is happy and prosperous. They raised the old war cry, "rally round the flag, boys, rally round the flag," and thousands of the choicest sons of the Republic went forth to battle and to victory or death. Washington and Grant by their valor and success in war won the admiration of mankind. To-day I suffer in bonds as a patriot, because I had the inspiration and nerve to unite the great political party to the end that the nation might be saved another devastating war. I do not pretend that war was immediate, but I do say emphatically that the bitterness in the Republican party last spring was deepening and deepening hour by hour, and that within two or three years or less, the nation would have been in civil war. In the presence of death all hearts were hushed. Contention ceased. For weeks and weeks the heart and brain of the nation centered on the sick man at the White House. At last he went the way of all flesh, and the nation was a house of mourning. To say I have been misunderstood and villified by nearly the entire American press; nay, more, by nearly the entire American people, is a true statement."

Referring to the Oneida community, Guiteau says:—"Notably his mixing with 'Oneida Noyes' for twenty five years was the curse of my father's life, and for six years I have lived under the despotism he yielded in the Oneida community. I expressed my detestation of Noyesism then. To-day Noyes, the founder of the Oneida Community, is an American fugitive on British soil, Noyes is a cold-blooded scoundrel. He has debauched more young women, broken up more reputable families, and caused more misery by his stinking fanaticism and licentiousness than any man of his age. Had Noyes his dues he would be hung thirty years ago for crimes committed with his own flesh and blood, and it would have been a Godsend to a great many decent people if it had been."

IN his work on worms, Mr. Darwin points out that Stonehenge has not been brought to its decadence by time alone. The earth worm has undermined it, stone by stone, and the very monolith lately propped up by Sir E. Antrobus has probably been put out of the perpendicular by the action of the worm.

AT no period were cathedrals and other great churches in England in such fine order as to-day. Forty years ago a number of them were in a condition not many removes from ruinous. Since then millions have been expended on them. In some cases a canonry is permanently left unfilled, and the accruing income devoted to current repairs.

A correspondent of the San Francisco Examiner, in speaking of the big trees of Calaveras County, says:—"In the stump of one of these trees a ball-room thirty-three feet across is built, ane it requires a ladder eighteen steps to ascend to the top of the log, on which was built a ten-pin alley. It has been burned up, but the old, charred monarch of the forest still remains. Think of it—a hollow log, through which one can ride on horseback 100 feet and come out through a knot hole! There are some ninety of these big trees measuring from 50 to 100 feet in circumference, and reaching up the skies—from the rings that denote the annual growth of these trees, science has estimated some of them to be 4,000 years old, while they stand over the fallen bodies of much older growth, covered over with earth and large growing trees, as it is one of the peculiarities of this timber not to decay. It appears to be a species of redwood.

PNEUMONIA CURED.—From James H. Potts of 97 River St., Cambridgeport, Mass.—"Last winter I was confined to the house six weeks with pneumonia, of which I had a very severe attack. My lungs were extremely sore, and I suffered greatly from pains under my shoulders and in my chest. I coughed incessantly, and every effort caused my eyes to protrude, so that it seemed as though they would be forced from their sockets. I experienced also great difficulty in breathing. My family physician could no nothing for me, except to afford some temporary relief from pain. Many years before this several members of my family had been benefitted by the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and I decided to try it. It gave me immediate relief, and the use of two small bottles completely cured me. I attribute my cure entirely to the Balsam, as while I used it I took nothing else. I cannot speak in terms of too much praise of this valuable preparation, nor can I state in language too strong the remarkable results attending its use in my case." 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. Sold by dealers generally.

DYSPEPSIA, that all prevalent disease of civilized life, is always attended with a disordered sympathetic system and bag secretions, and no remedy is better adapted to its cure than Burdock Blood Bitters taken according to the special directions found on every bottle.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS ABOUT THEM.—And if they have used Harvell's Condition Powders mixed with the feed of their poultry, hogs or cattle, they will at once say they have resulted in more eggs, more meat, more milk and more butter than previously realized. Sold everywhere.

FOR DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Eitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

A HINT.—Beware of all the worthless mixtures, and dirty, greasy combinations which are offered you in almost every store you enter, and which some unprincipled shopkeepers try to palm off as a substitute for Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. These mixtures are gotten up expressly to sell on the reputation of the Pain-Killer, but have nothing in common with it.

A VEXED CLERGYMAN.—Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easily can all this be avoided by using Dr. Kings new discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles given away at Taylor and Macdonald's.—2

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND.—A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease. More particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.—2

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will prove to be a match for them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere, The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

Liberal Conservative Meeting.

A fairly attended meeting of the Liberal Conservatives of West Peterborough was held in the Music Hall this afternoon, R. A. Morrow Esq., President of the W. P. L. C. Association, in the chair. He explained that the meeting had been called for the purpose of electing delegates to the convention to be held in Toronto on November the 22nd and 23rd. The following gentlemen were appointed Delegates, viz.:—Messrs. Hilliard, M. P.; Kincaid, M. P. P.; Morrow, Dr. O'Sullivan, Mayor Smith, T. Dolan, J. Stevenson, J. Carnegie, J. McClelland, C. W. Sawers, H. Collins, C. Brealey, C. D. Moore, H. Waddell, D. Costello, R. Dunlop, T. M. Willan, Alex. Clarke, Jos. Bennett, sen., H. Crosley, Jos. Barnard, Lewis Davis, W. Mills, Alex. Scott, Jas. Stewart, I. Garbutt, W. C. Saunders, Ed. Fitzgerald, H. Stabler and T. E. Bell.

Looking Up.

We find that owing to the recent demand for houses landlords are raising rents about twenty-five per cent. There is hardly an empty house in town. Property is begining to change hands at increased prices. Let it be owing to the N.P. or any other cause the fact is that a boon in property is starting in Peterborough. Some gentlemen who have recently come from Winnipeg have invested largely here, feeling assured that Peterborough is going to grow rapidly. Everything points to a rapid growth of our town. Commercial travellers now say that she is the handsomest and one of the best towns in the Dominion.

Entertainment.

There was an entertainment given on Tuesday evening by Peterborough Temple, No. 340 I.O.G.T., when there was a good attendance, and a very pleasant evening was spent. Addresses were delivered by the Rev. Mr. Brown and Messrs. W. J. Nesbitt and Weir. There was some good singing, solos by Miss E. Minore, Miss Minorgan and Mr. J. Millar, and a duet by Miss Stevens and Mr. W. Hill. Miss Grundy, Miss Mowry and Dr. Clarke gave readings, which were well received, and Messrs. Hooper and Russell delivered a dialogue in a very humorous manner.

Well Appreciated.

We learn from the Manitoba Free Press that at the close of the prayer meeting in Grace Church, Winnipeg, last week, the young men of the congregation presented the Rev. J. E. Starr (formerly of Peterborough) with a purse containing $750, and also that only a short time before the same congregation presented Mr. Starr with a fine beaver overcoat valued at $125. The Free Press also states that the list of subscribers to the above mentioned purse only included some forty names, showing that they know how to give as well as make money in Winnipeg.

The Weather.

The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes,—Easterly to southerly winds, fair to cloudy weather; possibly a few light showers of rain or sleet in some localities. Stationary or slightly higher temperatures.

Christmas Cards.

Mr. Sproule, has just received at his photograph studio another consignment of Prang's beautiful Christmas and New Year's cards, being a duplicate order at the urgent request of his customers, who were unable to obtain specimens of his first assortment. They are being sold so rapidly that an early visit must be paid to ensure a choice.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

Personal.

Mr. Allan Huffman, formerly of the Huffman House (now the Oriental) and at present of the Dafoe House, Belleville, was in town this morning.

PUBLIC SPIRIT.

MR. EDITOR,—The following from Scribner's Magazine deserves at this time to be read by every one. I therefore ask you to publish it:—

PUBLIC SPIRIT.

There is no point at which personal meanness betrays itself so strongly and surely as it does when brought into relation to schemes of public improvement. Set a subscription paper going through a community, to raise money for some public object, and it will usually sift out the mean men as certainly as a screen will sift the dust from a bushel of coal. We have a great many men who are not stingy with their families, who are by no means parsimonious, yet who have insuperable objections to giving away anything that does not minister directly to the personal comfort or gratification. A church is wanted, or a public library, or a park, or something else for the common benefit, and the want and the effort to meet it furnish a very reliable test of the character of those appealed to. We have rich men in every community so notoriously stingy, and so unfriendly to all schemes of public improvement, that they are not even approached for a contribution. On the other hand, we have men in every community who have what we call "public spirit." Nothing that can minister to the general good ever receives a cold welcome from them, or a niggardly response to its appeal.

Very few men are so solidly selfish that they cannot see that membership in a family involves certain duties toward the family—support, protection, mutual assistance. The head of a family—no matter how selfish and stingy he may be—recognizes the fact that he owes to that family shelter, sustenance, clothing, education, etc. Very few, too, fail to see that, as citizens, they owe certain duties to the town they live in, to the state, to the nation. They pay their taxes and expect to pay them. It cannot be said that they always do this willingly or honestly, but they know that they must pay something for the laws that protect them, for the roads that give them passage across the country, and for the support of the Government. As heads of families and citizens of the state, they apprehend the fact that they owe duties whose fulfilment costs money. What is necessary beyond this is that they should see that membership in a social community involves duties just as really and distinctly as family ties or citizenship. No man can belong to a social community—as all men do who are not hermits—without having imposed upon him a great many duties. He owes it to to that community to make it, so far as he can, intelligent, comfortable, respectable. There is no wise scheme of improvement to which he does not owe his support and encouragement; and he cannot turn his back upon any such scheme without a failure in the offices of good neighborhood, or without convicting himself of a mean selfishness that is disgraceful to him, and to the family and town to which he belongs.

There is another aspect of this matter which goes to intensify the meanness of treating niggardly the various schemes of public improvement. As there are some who will do their duties, there are others who, in consequence of this deliquency, are compelled to do more than their duty, and often more than they can afford to do. With a profound sense of the public need and a warm desire to fill that need, they are compelled to do more than their part, and are thus made, through the failure of others, to suffer hardship. There are such men as these, thank heaven! in every community, else civilization would suffer or stand still. Now, the meanness of making these large-hearted and free-handed men carry more than their share of social duty, and bear more than their share of public burden, is utterly disgraceful to those who are selfish and inconsiderate enough to indulge in it. It is of the same character as covering up one's property to avoid taxation, thus forcing honest men to pay more than their share for the support of the state. A man who can be guilty of it could hardly be trusted alone in the room with the coppers that close the lid of a dead mother's eyes. This shirking 'one's part in the burdens of society, and virtually forcing what he owes out of other pockets, is about as unmanly a thing as can be conceived. How much better than theiving it is, we leave those guilty of it to ascertain.

If we could reach the young men of the land just starting out in life, we would adjure them to assume from the first every public burden, and carry it manfully to the end. The dodging of public burdens cannot be indulged in without introducing dry-rot into character, or without damaging reputation. To fail in his social obligation injures a man's self-respect, and reduces fearfully the respect in which he is held by the community. Of course it injures his influence, and it ought to do so. A man who cannot be relied upon to do his part in a community, can have no voice in shaping the life of that community. He can only carry the force of a mean example, and be a drag and a disgrace instead of an uplifting influence. One of the first things a young man should do in entering actively upon life is to ascertain what he can do to make things better around him. It is not necessary for him to wait to be invited. If the people see that he is helpful and ready to work, room will quickly be made for him. At least let him never consent to be a beneficiary, or take and use what others have given without adding anything to the common stock. Occupying a free pew in church and paying nothing for what costs somebody something, by those who are not helplessly and hopelessly poor, is disgraceful and demoralizing to the last degree.

How will the men of wealth and leisure in town apply the foregoing? Will they apply it at all? Surely its truths ought to commend themselves to every man. Look at the men in and about Peterborough who occupy themselves solely in looking after the money left to them, or accumulated from their own earnings, who congratulate themselves on the reflection:—"I have enough to do me, and I'll take care of it." This is all very well so far as it goes. But is such conduct not a "failure in the offices of good neighborhood," and selfishness such as above described? If some of the thousands of dollars owned by these capitalists were invested in manufactories, and works of improvement, our town would soon become a city. Instance alone the good that would be done by the establishment of a car factory—the demand for all sorts of cars is unlimited, and will be for years, the country is suffering for want of them—and there is no better point than this at which to establish such a factory.

Yours, &c.,

A LAKE DISASTER.

Collision of Two Vessels on Lake Erie on Saturday—Conflicting Accounts.

BUFFALO, Nov. 13.—A collision occurred on Lake Erie, near Dunkirk, at half-past one o'clock on Saturday morning, which involves the loss of four human lives, and at least $225,000 worth of property. The new iron steamer Brunswick, laden with 1,500 tons of coal for the North-Western Fuel Company, at Duluth, left this port at ten o'clock on Friday night last. When ten miles below Dunkirk, and some distance from shore, she collided with the schooner Carlingford, bound for Buffalo, with 26,500 bushels of wheat from Duluth, consigned to George Sundrock. The schooner was struck on the port side, just forward of the fore rigging, by the sharp stem of the steamer, and was cut open. She went down headforemost in about twenty minutes, and in some 80 feet of water. Captain Homer Durant and all of his crew of six men, excepting one, managed to get into the small boat, and after a rough passage of about twenty miles landed safely at Dunnville, on the Canadian shore at 8 in the morning. A sailor named Edward Conoway, hailing from St. John's, Newfoundland, and said to have been a worthy man, recklessly ran back when the vessel was sinking to save some of his clothing, and he went down with the wreck.

THREE LIVES LOST.

When the huge steamship rushed down the suction of the water capsized the boat on the starboard side, in which was Capt. Chamberlain himself, the first engineer, John Frincomb, and the stewardess, Mrs. A. G. Fletcher, and her daughter Millie of Detroit, who sank at once and were lost. The other five saved themselves by clinging to pieces of the wreck, and were picked up a half hour later by the crew of the port boat. All twelve then made their way safely to shore at Dunkirk. The crews of both vessels lost all of their personal effects. Captain Chamberlain and the survivors of his crew reached this city at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, and Captain Durant, with his rescued sailors, arrived here all right last night.

THE Mail states that a vessel laden with lumber left Toronto on Nov. 10th, bound for Porto Rico, where she will get a return cargo of sugar. Hitherto lumber for the West Indies has been, with the exception of a few cargoes, from Montreal, shipped from New York. This is a striking instance of how even the lumber trade is being benefitted by the N. P.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and complete restoration of vigor and manhood. Also for Rheumatism, neuralgia, Paralysis, Liver and Kidney difficulties, Ruptures, and many other diseases. Illustrated pamphlet sent free. Address Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

DR. CARSON'S STOMACH AND CONSTIPATION BITTERS, are rapidly taking the place of all other purgatives, including Pills, Powders, etc., There action is mild yet effectual and they are a certain cure for all bilious complaints. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

A REAL NECESSITY.—No house should be without a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, in case of accident. There is no preparation offered to suffering humanity that has made so many permanent cures, or relieved so much pain and misery. It is called by some the Good Samaritan, by others the Cure-all, and by the afflicted an Angel of Mercy.

A WORLD OF GOOD.—One of the most popular medicines now before the American public is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters, as it is not a whiskey drink. It is more like the old fashioned bone set tea that has done a world of good, If you don't feel just right try Hop Bitters.—Nunda News.

OVERCOATS!

THE MOST URGENT BUSINESS A MAN WITHOUT AN OVERCOAT HAS TO-DAY IS TO GET ONE. HE MAY GET IT WHERE HE LIKES.

IF HE COME HERE HE'LL BUY IN LESS TIME, BECAUSE HE KNOWS VERY WELL THAT HE CAN GET HIS MONEY BACK NEXT DAY, OR NEXT WEEK, IF HE WANTS IT.

HUMBUGGED AGAIN.—I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife who was always doctoring, and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some I concluded to be humbugged again; and I am glad I did, for in less than two months' use of the Bitters my wife was cured and has remained so for eighteen months since. I like such humbugging.—H. T., St. Paul.—Pioneer Press.

MIDNIGHT TELEGRAMS

CABLE.

MR. BRIGHT'S PECULIAR IDEAS.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Mr. Bright, replying to an address at Rochdale on the occasion of his seventieth birthday, dwelt upon the benefit of free trade. Speaking on the land question, he said unless means were taken to stimulate production by putting increased capital and skill into the soil, there was no remedy whatever for agricultural distress but a great and permanent reduction of rent.

THE SEVERN EXPLOSION.

DUBLIN, Nov. 16.—Forty-three persons were injured by the explosion on the Severn, and four were conveyed to the hospital in a dying condition.

EARTHQUAKES IN EUROPE.

ROME, Nov. 16.—Severe shocks of earthquake occurred at various places in Italy to-day, and at Agram. It is reported that the shocks caused some disasters and loss of life.

SHIPPING DISASTERS.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—There were violent gales and heavy rains throughout the United Kingdom to night, and shipping disasters occurred at Falmouth, Whitehaven and Berwick. The storm was especially severe on the west coast of Scotland.

AGRICULTURAL DEPRESSION.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Mr. James Caird, addressing the Statistical Society, of which he is president, last evening, said that in the ten years ending 1881, 828,000 acres of grain land and 228,000 acres of green crop land in Great Britain had been converted into permanent pasture, and that the annual return of £8,000,000 formerly derived from those crops had thereby disappeared. Mr. Caird attributed the agricultural depression not to American competition, but to bad seasons. He considered the burdens, difficulties, and uncertainties of American agriculture would always place it at a disadvantage with British agriculture in the British market.

MADRID MATTERS.

MADRID, Nov. 16.—Senor Canovas yesterday made the cleverest attack known since the beginning of the debate on the address in the Cortes. He confined his speech of four hours to an analysis of the Sagasta party's policy that excited not only the sympathy but the hopes of every shade of the democracy and republicanism, and his own policy, that had made a restoration of the monarchy possible, and allowed every liberty but that of attacking the throne and religion, and the freedom of all to preach the advantages of the republic as at present. There was a deep sensation at the end of the debate. The discussion will close to-morrow with the speech of Senor Sagasta.

A FEMALE PHYSICIAN

PARIS, Nov. 16.—Paris boasts one more lady doctor, Mme. Perree, a staid mother and wife, who yesterday took her degree amid the applause of her masculine rivals. Mme. Perree was induced to enter the medical arena by the example of an American lady doctor, who had brought her through a dangerous illness.

THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—It is stated that the Princess Louise will accompany the Marquis of Lorne on his return to Canada five weeks hence. The Marquis will resign the Governor-Generalship early in 1882.

FRIGHTFUL MORTALITY.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Five hundred persons are dying daily at Mecca from cholera. The steamers at Djiddan refuse to embark returning pilgrims.

MR. WALTER ON EMIGRATION.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Mr. John Walter, of the London Times, speaking at Abingdon on the result of his tour in America, said it was desirable that there should be in all English counties a body of men able to advise their neighbors who are about to go to America. Any Englishman going to America who is a good judge of land, and steady and industrious, might be certain of becoming wealthy and prosperous before he was fifty years old. Before the close of the next century the United States would have a population of two hundred million. He wished more Englishmen would go there; they would be an additional element of stability in the country, and be as likely to succeed there as any other nationality.

BLOWN UP.

DUBLIN, Nov. 16.—The steamer Severn was blown up to-night. It was at first supposed that the explosion was caused by dynamite. Nine men were killed and many wounded. The vessel was towed to Kingstown harbour. It is now believed that the explosion was due to the bursting of the boiler. The steamer Severn was a small passenger steamer, running from Bristol to Glasgow. Her decks were blown off, and she was much damaged. The wounded have been removed to the hospital.

FRENCH AMBASSADORS.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—The papers this morning announce that M. de Saint Vallier and General Chanzy have resigned their posts of ambassadors at Berlin and St. Petersburg respectively. Private information warrants the belief that M. de Saint Vallier's resignation is only offered pro forma, and that he will be pressed to return to his post. On the other hand, it is said that General Chanzy's appointment to the Governor-Generalship of Algeria is almost certain.

THE PRIZE FIGHT.

BUFFALO, Nov. 16.—The much talked about prize fight came off to-day. The ring was pitched about 20 rods from the Pennsylvania line. At 11.15 Holden shied his castor in the ring, which he entered in regulation costume, followed a few minute later by White. Dean Richmond, of Buffalo, was chosen referee; Pat Leary acted as umpire for Holden and Tom Reynolds for White. Warry Edwards and C. Wilson seconded White, and Geo. Fulljames and Donny Harris seconded Holden. Then ensued one of the best and most scientific battles, for the time it lasted, ever fought. Four rounds were fought and when the fifth was commencing the deputy-sheriff of the county jumped over the ropes and said to Holden:—"You are under arrest." He strode across the ring and made the same remarks to White. A dozen brawny arms then seized the deputy and pitched him headforemost out of the ring. Being a plucky fellow he crowded back inside the ropes. Howls and yells arose, and for a second time he was unceremoniously bounced and hustled some distance from the ring. He then rashly drew forth a pair of handcuffs, for which he was knocked down by a blow under the ear. This brought him to terms, and after some parleying and five dollar bill he consented to retire and let the fight proceed. Holden and White and their seconds in the meantime had crossed the line into Pennsylvania, when the seconds refused to act further, fearing the consequences. The Holden party were hot to fight, but the sheriff still lingered, and, after a long argument, the referee declared the fight a draw, being fearful of the consequences if proceeded with. Holden showed himself to have a great advantage, both in weight and experience, and though the battle would doubtless have been a long one, he was looked upon after the third round as pretty sure to be the winner. The pugilists and their party, excepting the correspondents, afraid to enter Ohio, were compelled to walk eight miles to the station. The members of the press going to Conneaut met with no interferance, and passed the pugilists at six o'clock, when they were still three miles from a railway station.

LATER.—The pugilists and their party arrived in Erie at 10 o'clock, when White and Holden were arrested, had a hearing before an alderman and were sent to gaol to await a requisition.

GUITEAU'S DEMEANOR.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—There were fifty ladies in court this morning. The audience was very respectable. During the calling of the names of the jurors Guiteau was brought in. His appearance was wild and excited, he tossed his high-crowned hat on the desk in an indifferent manner, and turning towards Scoville in a hurry, whispered something in an extremely excited manner. The two entered into a conversation. Guiteau, while speaking, used his clenched fist savagely, as if insisting upon some matter, of which Scoville seemed to disapprove. The examination of the talesman proceeded.

A WHOLESALE ROBBERY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The horse and wagon used by the collector for Younger & Son, brewers, was stolen yesterday. There was a large amount of money in the wagon.

STRIKING COACHMEN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Over a thousand coachmen are now on strike for higher wages. Ten stables have conceded the men's demand.

ANOTHER COMET.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 17.—Director Swift, of the Warner Observatory, at 11 o'clock on the 16th inst, discovered a faint comet in the constellation of Cassiopa, having a right ascension of about 1 hour and 50 minutes, declination north 71 degrees, motion slowly westward. It has a slight central condensation, but no tail visible. It is nearly round. Swift estimates its diameter at about four minutes. The possible stranger is the comet of 1882, which was expected to appear in the north. The comet is in line between Polaris and the great cluster in Perseus, a little nearer the Polaris. This is the seventh comet discovered since January. Swift telegraphed his discovery to Europe and will probably get $2,000, the Warner prize, the second he has received this year and the fifth awarded.

A DEAD DIVINE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Rev. Dr. Henry Phillips Tappar, died in Veracruz, Switzerland, on Tuesday, in the 77th year of his age. He was formerly President of the University of the University of Michigan, and the author of several works.

DASHED TO DEATH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—A passenger fell off a steamer here last night into the paddle wheel and was killed.

ANOTHER COMBINATION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Central Pacific, Southern Pacific and Galveston Harrisburg and San Antonia railways have entered into a contract with the Texas and Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Missouri Kansas and Texas International, and the Great Northern and St. Louis Iron Mountain and Southern railways, known as the Gould roads. Both systems will be operated as a joint line with pro rata mileage.

SHOT BY A TRAMP.

ROCKPORT, Nov. 17.—Albert Greene, a colored tramp, dangerously shot Mrs Fenstner, a poor woman, becaused she refused to give him food. Greene was pursued by some neighbors and arrested.

GRANT REPUBLICANS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Within a few days several attempts were made to have the President relieve postmasters on the ground that they were not Grant Republicans. The President told the visitors that his personal relations to Grant was one thing, but his duty to the entire republican party was quite another thing. His aim will be to keep constantly in view the good of the service, and of the party as well.

SUBSTANTIAL DAMAGES.

WILKSBAIRE, Pa., Nov. 17.—In the libel suit of W. W. Scranton, late manager of the Lackawanna Coal and Iron Co, against Aaron Chase, Editor of the Scranton Times, the jury awarded plaintiff $3,300.

A WRECKED TRAIN.

ELMIRA, N. Y. Nov. 17.—An express train on the Lehigh Valley Railway last night was thrown from the track by a misplaced switch at Wyalusing, Pa., and went down an embankment. The baggage and express cars were wrecked and a sleeper broken up. Although quite a few of the passengers were injured no body was seriously hurt.

Daily Evening Review

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1881.

It is semi-officially announced that Mr. Mowat proposes to organize a Bureau of Statistics for this Province. Statistics are valuable things if they can be obtained fresh and reliable—if not they are valueless. Time alone can prove the value of Mr. Mowats present project.

It is announced from Ottawa that not withstanding the reduction made by the present Government after their accession to office, in the number of persons employed by Mr. Mackenzie under the weights and measures act, a still further reduction has been found possible, and that as vacancies occur in the present staff they will not be filled by new appointments until the number employed is reduced from the present number (68) down to fifty.

A COMPARATIVE statement of the liabilities and assets of the Ontario Bank for the months of September and October, shows that the bank's business has been well maintained during the latter month. During the month its circulation only decreased some $300,000, while its deposits at call have only decreased $116,000 and those payable after notice only $55,000. The return also shows that during the month the Dominion Government deposited $300,000 with this bank.

By the by, writing of Mr. Blake's desire to see the number of senators reduced on the score of economy leads us to say that we should like to have Mr. Blake's views on the desirability of reducing the number of members in the Ontario Legislature. Perhaps the next time he appears along with Mr. Mowat or any of his colleagues, he will be kind enough to enlighten us on the subject. The last is a reform that can be accomplished by Ontario herself without consultation with, or the consent of our friends down by the sea.

THE Globe is troubled about the vacant senatorships. In fact if a recent article in its columns expresses its views, the country is going to the dogs because of Sir John's delay in filling the seven seats in the Senate which are at present vacant. We were under the impression that the Globe was of opinion the fewer Senators the better, while, if Mr. Blake is still of the same mind that he was a few evenings ago in West Durham, he thinks the number of senators should be reduced, but it seems the organ has changed its mind and very probably Mr. Blake has too, and the country is suffering because of these vacant seats. Weather cocks are supposed to be pretty changeable but it would take a pretty smart weather cock to keep up with some of our politicians now-a-days.

THE CATTLE TRADE.

WE learn from the Montreal Gazette that the receipts of live stock at the Point St. Charles, for the last and preceeding week were as follows:—

	Cattle.	Sheep.	Hogs.	Horses.
For week ending Nov. 12,1881..	578	796	214	20
For week previous.....	686	558	139	25

Under these circumstances the market is reported firmer, good to choice shipping cattle being quoted at 4¾ cents @ 5¼ cents per lb, live weight. Sheep were steady at 4½ cents @ 5 cents per lb, and hogs firm at $6.50 to $6.75 per hundred lbs.

Recent cable advices from Glasgow quote best qualities of Canadian cattle, 7 @ 7½d. and Liverpool prices at 7 @ 7¼ d. per lb, live weight. Pressed beef, it is stated, has experienced a considerable decline of late in Liverpool, and is now quoted at from 3½ to 4d. per lb.

The shipment of live stock and dressed meats from Canada and the United States for the last two weeks has been as follows, the first line being the figures for the week ending Nov. 12, and the second line being those of the previous week:—

Cattle.	Sheep.	Hogs.	Beef, qrs.	Mutton Carcases.
2259	800	388	8615	1140
1840	1020	149	5810	705

AN INDUSTRY DEVELOPING.

Mr. Chas. Elliott of this city, who owns one of the quarries at the Forks of the Credit, has received an order from a Chicago firm for 50 car loads of building stone, similar to that used in the construction of Riordon's buildings on the south side of King street, near Yonge street. He will not be able to fill the order for some time owing to the Credit Valley Railway being unable to supply him with cars.—Globe, Nov. 14.

Indeed! An industry developing! Why, what can the matter be with the Globe that it should permit such a paragraph to appear in its columns? Doubtless, after mature reflection the Globe will sagely inform us that the N. P. neither put Mr. Elliot's stone where it is, or made that Chicago firm give him an order for it. True, but that stone was there just as much under Mr. Mackenzie's regime, as under that of Sir John, and yet we heard of no orders from Chicago firms for Canadian stone, although we heard of orders from Canadian firms for American stone. Why this change? Was it not the N. P. which caused Mr. Riordon to look at home rather than abroad for the stone for his building on King street, and was it not because that stone first found its way to King street that it is now finding its way to Chicago? Every mighty river has its rise in some little spring—its begining, and in the same way every industry that is developed must have its begining and find an outlet at home before it can become a creek, much less a river, giving employment to hundreds. The real development of Mr. Elliot's quarry began with the home demand, and the home demand was fostered and developed by the duty imposed on stone under the N. P. Does the Globe understand?

ANOTHER PROPOSED WATER-WAY.

UNDER the above heading the North-Western Lumberman writes as follows:—"The Canadians have shown praisworthy enterprise and energy in improving their water routes of commerce. Possessing the only natural outlets of the great lakes to the ocean, they have not failed to improve this so as to divert commerce down the St. Lawrence, and so on to the sea. The old and new Welland canals are examples of their determination to have their share of the traffic of the Northwest. They have also improved the Ottawa and Sorel, having recently finished an important work on the first named river. Several canals, like the Rideau and De Jardines, evidence their estimate of the importance of water-ways for commerce. Now they are agitating for a ship canal from Georgian bay to Lake Ontario, at Toronto. This would be an important accession to the means for Canadian trade, to say nothing for American traffic. Georgian bay drops down so near Lake Ontario that but a comparatively short cut would have to be made between the two waters. Even this distance could be materially shortened by means of Lake Simcoe. It is, indeed, strange why the work was not done before. Manifestly this canal could be of immense advantages to Canada; nor would the United States be destitute of a large benefit from its completion. All the lower lake and St. Lawrence ports would receive a great accession to their traffic from it. It would save the long, circuitous passage through Lakes Huron, St. Claire and Erie, and their connecting rivers and canals—a distance of 600 miles. Oswego could become an important lake port again, and rival Buffalo as a half-way-house of New York commerce. The proposed canal would become an incalculable advantage to the northern route to Boston and Portland, by way of Ogdensburg. Touching the lumber trade, the new water-route would be a benefit to such traffic as goes east from northern Michigan and the Lake Superior region. A portion of the New York interest will be disposed to jealousy towards the contemplated scheme, but we can see no grounds for such a feeling, as the immense trade of the growing Northwest, both in the United States and the Dominion, will need all the carrying facilities, and more, that can possibly be provided."

"It will be seen that the greater portion of this article applies at least as fully to the opening of the Trent Valley navigation—a project with which the writer is evidently not acquainted, as to the far more costly and less advantageous scheme of Mr. Capreol. Even that may be needed some day for "the immense trade of the growing North-West."

More Canadian Honours.

The Mail's own correspondant in London says,—The last Gazette announcement that the Queen had knighted Mr. William Johnson Ritchies Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the Dominion of Canada, and has been very favorably received in London circles. It is generally felt that, without cheapening honors, much more of this sort of thing could be done by the court. Why, for instance, should a seat in the house of Lords here be solely reserved for a rich British butterman or retired shoemaker? Why should not the men who make our colonial empire abroad, the able hands and still abler brains which sustain the burden of our vast dependencies' well being—the statesmen and merchant princes, in fact, of the Great Britain beyond the seas—Why should not these men, it is often asked be allowed to wear something a little less ordinary than a Knighthood, or a G. C. M., or a G. C. B.? Twenty baronies, a few earldoms, and a dukedom or two, given purely and solely to men of colonial mark, would do more to broaden and strengthen the House of Lords, and more, too to knit the colonies to us, than a cycle of governor-generalships and despatches from the Colonial Office sent out by the ton.

SOME FAMOUS TREES.

A poplar tree in Waukesha, Wis., is attracting attention by its being completely covered with small insects resembling caterpillars. In some places they are two inches thick.

IN the old Rogers burying ground near Chatham, N. C., an oak tree has grown on a grave in which a person was buried seventy-five years ago, and the tree is now five feet in diameter.

IN Lewis County, Ky., a mammoth tree was recently cut that is believed to have been 300 years old. It was 16 feet in diameter, 190 feet high, and yield 33,452 feet of lumber and 25 cords of wood.

IN the village of Noebditz, Saxony, is an oak whose aged and infirm branches are propped up all around by beams. Its trunk has been used many years as a burial vault. Its lower part, which measured 14 ells in circumference, is hollow, and the aperture to this great cave is closed by lattice work of iron bars. Through this sort of window the unsuspecting stranger who is first led to take a peep perceives with amazement the skeleton of a man seated in the middle of the hollow. It is the skeleton of the Lord of Wintersheim, who died about a century ago, and whose choice of this singular mode of sepulture is very minutely described by the inevitable guide who shows the place.

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND.—A friend in need is a friend indeed. This none can deny, especially when assistance is rendered when one is sorely afflicted with disease. More particularly those complaints and weaknesses so common to our female population. Every woman should know that Electric Bitters are woman's true friend, and will positively restore her to health, even when all other remedies fail. A single trial proves our assertion. They are pleasant to the taste and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by Taylor & Macdonald.—2

REMOVAL OF THE G. J. R. TRACK.

Conference Between Mr. Cox and the Special Committee.

The Belleville Intelligencer of Nov. 16th, has the following report:—

The Special Committee appointed by the city council at a recent meeting to confer with Mr. Geo. A. Cox, with reference to the G. J. R. track on Great St. James and Pinnacle streets, met this morning in the Council Chamber, Mr. Cox being present. The members of the Committee who were present were—Ald. Diamond, (Chairman), Smith, Campion, Dunnet, Henderson, and the Mayor. The City Solicitors was also present. Mr. Cox was accompanied by Mr. E. Wragge, an engineer from Toronto, Mr. W. B. Ferguson, Superintendent, and Mr. C. Blackwell, Chief Engineer of the Midland and G. J. Railways.

The Chairman explained the object for which the Committee had been appointed. The main question to be considered was whether an agreement could be made by which the G. J. R. track could be removed from Pinnacle street.

Mr. Cox said that now was the most opportune time to consider this question, as the Company contemplated erecting new wharves and elevators. Coming down the west side of the river would necessitate the construction of another bridge besides other considerable expenditure, which would be altogether $50,000 or $60,000. This route was considered by his engineers the most feasible one, and that was also his opinion. It would be desirable to obtain the right of way without any additional expense to the Company.

(The route proposed by Mr. Cox is as follows:—The track will leave the present route near the G. T. R. track, down Emily street, across the Brennan and Everett Block to Reid street, across the river to Moira street, across St. Charles street to Grove street, down Grove, across the Gordon Block to Coleman street, and down Coleman street to the water's edge. If this route is selected, it is the intention of the Company to purchase Zwick's and Bushy Islands, where they will construct extensive docks and erect elevators.)

The Macdonald street route was also considered. This route is simply the extension of the track almost in a straight line from the G.T. R. down Macdonald street to the water's edge, curving as it approaches the shore in order to reach deep water. This was the route that all the members of the committee advocated. It was discussed at some length, and Mr. Cox and his engineers finally appeared to be favorably impressed with it.

Mr. Cox said he was aware that the city had dealt very liberally with the road in the past, and he did not feel like asking any great expenditure on the part of the city. Still, it should be considered that, by the scheme of railway consolidation which had recently been effected, Belleville would be made the principal water port of over 400 miles of railway, not to speak of the Sault St Marie line. If the city was certain of making a good investment incalculable better by a little further expenditure, it should not hesitate to make that expenditure.

The Mayor said he was convinced that the citizens would not consent to any additional bonus to the G. J. Railway. But any reasonable facilities to the Company in the removal of the line would be granted, and probably an ememption from taxation on the docks, elevators, &c., which the Company might construct.

Ald. Henderson expressed the same view.

Mr. Cox said he was convinced that the company would be satisfied with an exemption from taxation, and any assistance which the city could grant in obtaining the necessary right of way.

After some desultory discussion, Mr. Cox said that he would have his engineers make an accurate survey of the Macdonald St. and western routes, and obtain their opnions, when he would meet the committee again. Probably he would be able to come to a definite conclusion some time this week, so as to be able to meet the committe again next week.

Thursday the 23rd inst., was the day fixed upon for the next conference, after which the committee adjourned.

Or rich and poor, if you re not wont
To brush your teeth with Sozodont,
You'll one day suffer deep remorse,
For soon they'll crumble in decay,
And soon you'll cry, "Oh, lack a-day,
That I had never changed my course."

CAUTION

TO THE PUBLIC.

To Buyers of Furs! Furs!

Buyers of Furs, Astrachan Jackets, Fancy Sleigh and Buffalo Robes, Mink Sets and Furs of all kinds, ARE HEREBY CAUTIONED not to be deceived by the statements that all other dealers of Furs, except themselves, are not capable of furnishing the public with First Class, Genuine and Reliable Furs, and because the general trade do not exact extortionate prices, that the goods cannot be equal in value. WE CAUTION THE PUBLIC NOT TO BE DECEIVED by such INSINUATIONS, that Astrachan Jackets, if not bought from themselves, are so bad that by "the mere shaking off of snow they have been known to fall to pieces." Such might be the case where Jackets are bought in places where they make up old skins from one year to another, when the same skins are almost incapable of being any longer remodelled and made up. It's no wonder such Furs would fall to pieces by the shaking off of snow, or even the touch of the hand. The public are never wrong in buying from respectable dealers, who sell out their stock at the end of every season and supply themselves with New Fresh Goods at the commencement, and who are willing to sell at a fair remunerative profit, without charging extortionately.

We offer to the public this season A FRESH NEW STOCK, bought in the Best Markets, from reliable manufacturers, a SPLENDID ASSORTMENT of Ladies' Astrachan Jackets, Ladies' Fur Muffs and Boas of Various Linds, Gents' Fur Coats, Fancy Sleigh and Buffalo Robes, all New, bought this Season.

SUNDRIES!

The attention of Housekeepers is called to the following variety of edibles, a trial of any of which will be an attraction to the table and a gratification to the palate of the purchaser.

CRUSHED WHEAT:—Made from selected Canadian White Wheat by the new process, and is much superior to the ordinary cracked wheat, as a pleasant, light and nourishing breakfast dish.

EVAPORATED SWEET CORN:—An excellent article for the dinner table, esteemed as a delicacy and imparting pleasant variety to the tea table also. Is quite equal to green corn, and superior in the opinion of many to the Canned Corn as usually prepared.

PEA FLOUR:—Prepared in England by an entirely new process, and put up in tin cans. Is a peculiar "handy thing to have about the house." For Soups and Gravies it is simply matchless.

MIXED PICKLES—An extra fine quality which we sell by the quart or gallon. A convenient, and for the consumer the cheapest mode of supplying the table with this appetizing condiment.

DISTRICT INTELLIGENCE

LAKEFIELD NEWS.

From our own Correspondent.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Members present, the Reeve, Mr. R. Strickland, and Councillors McWilliams, Nelson, Horner and Garbutt. The minutes of the former regular and special meetings were read and confirmed.

The Reeve read a communication from the Toronto Bridge Company in answer to a telegram sent by the clerk, asking if the company would build a sidewalk on the south side of the new iron bridge for sum of $200 extra. The answer of the company was to the effect that it was impossible to do so, as the iron work of the bridge was so far advanced towards construction.

Moved by Councillor McWilliams seconded by Councillor Horner that the following accounts be paid and that the Reeve's order do issue for the several amounts on the village Treasurer, viz,

Isaac Watson, wages	$3.85
C. Gylls, wages	3.50
C. Ell, wages and horseh're	4.50
Jos Northcott, wages	1.50
Geo. R. Shields, drawing stones	1.50
Total	$14.85

—Carried.

Moved by Councillor Garbutt seconded by Councillor Horner that the Road Master be and he is hereby instructed to dig a small drain on Albert street from near the corner of Albert Sreet and Regent street to the main drain, and also to put in a pipe or small culvert n Church street near the Cheese Factory, provided Mr. R. C. Strickland furnish the timber ree of cost.—Carried.

Moved by Councillor Nelson seconded by Councillor Horner that this council do now adjourn at the call of the Reeve.—Carried.

A NEW CHURCH.

The new Methodist Church at Selwyn was opened early in October. The sermons of the Rev. John Shaw, Rev. J. Weldon, ex-pastor, and Rev. J. E. Sanderson, M.A., were highly instructive and appropriate. Collections were good. The tea meeting following was most excellent; we advise the committee, however, to adopt in future some plan whereby guests can be attended in less time. The addresses of the Rev. Messrs. Allen, Ratcliffe, Clark, Weldon and Sanderson were lively, varied, suggestive and evidently full of interest to the large and attentive audience. Proceeds, over $80. The cost at that stage was $1,450. To provide for that $300 more was needed. When subscriptions were asked for, twenties, tens, and fives flowed in till it was met. That so much should have been done by so few in one short year speaks not a little for the intelligence and liberality of of all concerned. Since then the shed has been lengthened and when the fence is completed and the vestry fitted up, it will be a model country church. It is built of white brick, red trimmings, high roof, gothic windows and with vestry in rear. This served well as an orchestra for the Chamong brass band, who gave their services free for the occasion, and did right well. The building is bright and cheery within. The arrangements for heating, lighting and ventilation may be said to be complete. Hendren & Leonard, the contractors, deserve great credit for the style and excellence of work done; as also Mr. George Wallace, contractor for brickwork, and Richardson and Nichols, who are the contractors for stonework. Agitation for an organ is going on already.

LICENSE INSPECTOR.

Mr. Cochrane has not been appointed License Inspector for the West Riding of Peterborough as was expected. The fact is very much regretted in Lakefield, as Mr. Cochrane was well-fitted for the position, and there is but little doubt that he would have enforced the law with a gentle but firm hand, and that Sunday carousing would have been effectually checked. The people here very generally regret that the Local Government was not strong enough to appoint the candidate best qualified for the position, but however it is none of our funeral. Still the fact remains that many Reformers are very much dissatisfied and disappointed.

NORWOOD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Co ATINE Delegates.—A meeting of the N od Liberal Conservative Association was h the Town Hall, Norwood, on Monday e the 14th inst., for the purpose of selecti egates to attend the Liberal Conservat nvention to be held at Toronto on the 22 the call of Sir J. A. Macdonald. Consid he very brief notice given for the meetin was a very good attendance of the Con ves of the village, and a political enthusia evaded all that argued well for future su of the party in this county. Mr. John Fit esident of the Association, presided, an Thos. Burke, performed the duties of y. Mr. J. B. Pearse, reeve of Norwood, ned the object of the meeting. It was mo Mr. Burke, seconded by Mr. T. S. Patterson,—That Mr. John Finlay and Mr. J. B. Pearce be appointed delegates from this association to attend the Liberal Conservative Convention, to be held at Toronto on the 22nd inst.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Burke, seconded by Mr. Robert Scott,—That this meeting, having unbounded confidence in the ability of and Legislative course pursued by the administration of Sir John A. Macdonald, merely express our hearty approval of the National Policy so ably introduced and so successfully carried out by the said Government, and desire to give the delegates from this association full power and authority to express at the Toronto Convention our undivided endorsation of the general policy pursued by the administration of Sir John A. Macdonald.—Carried unanimously. Moved by Mr. Pearce, seconded by Mr. J. P. Brown,—That this meeting tender to John Burnham, Esq., our representation in the House of Commons, a most hearty approval of the able and impartial manner in which he has discharged his duties as our representative since his election in 1878, and assure him a continued support, and our loyalty to the Government whose every pledge has been so honestly fulfilled, resulting in their National Policy giving an overflowing treasury, an impetus to our industries in making our people contented and happy.—Carried unanimously.

FROM ALL OVER.

"I suffered horribly with inflammatory rheumatism," said Mr. Chas. V. Baker, of No. 313 Main street, Kansas City, Mo.; "I was helpless in bed for five weeks. St. Jacobs Oil was applied liberally, and one dozon bottles cured me thoroughly.

The Liverpool (Eng.) Journal of Commerce regards the scheme to open up the Hudson bay route in a very favorable aspect. It says there is every prospect that in course of time an entirely new route will be established between Europe and the interior of North America. The advantages to be derived from the undertaking are well deserving of attention.

Sir Charles Tupper recently inspected the books and buildings at the stations along the Intercolonial and expressed himself much gratified with order in which he found everything and at the increase in the business of the road. The wharf at Romouski was also inspected. A mile a minute was made in some places on the road.

Ask Your Neighbors about Them.—And if they have used Harvell's Condition Powders mixed with the feed of their poultry, hogs or cattle, they will at once say they have resulted in more eggs, more meat, more milk and more butter than previously realized. Sold everywhere.

Persons under the Operation of Fellows' Hypophosphites should examine their blood under the microscope from time to time and mark the increase of red and active particles, and diminution of the white or dead ones; these observations are interesting and instructive.

A Virginian died possessd of a good farm which he left to his two children, and on which there was a debt of thirty-seven cents. The heirs wanted a division, so the court ordered a sale of the farm. It was knocked down at $900. It was placed in the hands of commissioners for settlement, and at the end of six years it was settled, the heirs not receiving a single cent. All the $900 were eaten up in expenses. "These are facts," says the Norfolk Virginian.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

I is now believed that the proposed decoration of St. Paul's Cathedral, in London is in a fair way to become an accomplished fact. Large sums of money have been subscribed for the purpose, but the many suggestions of architects, and the accrimonious correspondence to which they have given rise, heretofore have delayed it. Since Dean Stanley's death comparisons unfavourable to St. Paul's have been drawn between the Cathedral church of London and the Abbey of Westminster. Remarks are made how slight is the interest of Wren's masterpiece for association of antiquity. Because of this the need of decoration is thought to be particularly great.

Pneumonia Cured.—From James H. Potts of 97 River St., Cambridgeport, Mass.—"Last winter I was confined to the house six weeks with pneumonia, of which I had a very severe attack. My lungs were extremely sore, and I suffered greatly from pains under my shoulders and in my chest. I coughed incessantly, and every effort caused my eyes to protrude, so that it seemed as though they would be forced from their sockets. I experienced also great difficulty in breathing. My family physician could no nothing for me, except to afford some temporary relief from pain. Many years before this several members of my family had been benefitted by the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and I decided to try it. It gave me immediate relief, and the use of two small bottles completely cured me. I attribute my cure entirely to the Balsam, as while I used it I took nothing else. I cannot speak in terms of too much praise of this valuable preparation, nor can I state in language too strong the remarkable results attending its use in my case." 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. Sold by dealers generally.

About Waterproofs.

By the way, touching waterproofs, I think I can give travellers a valuable hint or two. For many years I have worn India rubber waterproofs, but I will buy no more, for I have learned that good Scottish tweed can be made completely impervious to rain, and moreover, I have learned how to make it so; and, for the benefit of my readers, I will here give the recipe :—In a bucket of soft water put half a pound of sugar of lead and half a pound of powdered alum; stir this at intervals until it becomes clear; then pour it off into another bucket and put the garment therein, and let it be in for twenty-four hours, then hang it up to dry without wringing it. Two of my party—a lady and gentleman—have worn garments thus treated in the wildest storms of wind and rain without getting wet. The rain hangs upon the cloth in globules. The gentleman, a fortnight ago, walked nine miles in a storm of rain and wind such as you rarely see in the south; and when he slipped off his overcoat, his under clothes were as dry as when he put them on. This is, I think, a secret worth knowing; for cloth, if it can be made to keep out wet, is in every way better than what we know as waterproofs.

A Hint.—Beware of all the worthless mixtures, and dirty, greasy combinations which are offered you in almost every store you enter, and which some unprincipled shopkeepers try to palm off as a substitute for Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. These mixtures are gotten up expressly to sell on the reputation of the Pain-Killer, but have nothing in common with it.

A Vexed Clergyman.—Even the patience of Job would become exhausted were he a preacher and endeavoring to interest his audience while they were keeping up an incessant coughing making it impossible for him to be heard. Yet how very easily can all this be avoided by using Dr. Kings new discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles given away at Taylor and Macdonald's.—2

ZOPESA.

(FROM BRAZIL.)

The New Compound, its wonderful affinity to the Digestive Apparatus and the Liver, increasing the dissolving juices, relieving almost instantly the dreadful results of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and the TORPID LIVER, makes Zopesa an every day necessity in every house.

It acts gently and speedily in Biliousness, Costiveness, Headache, Sick Headache, Distress after Eating, Wind on the Stomach, Heartburn, Pains in the Side and Back, Want of Appetite, Want of Energy, Low Spirits, Foul Stomach. It invigorates the Liver, carries off all surplus bile, regulates the Bowels, and gives tone to the whole system.

Cut this out and take it to your Druggist and get a 10 cent Sample, or a large bottle for 75 cents, and tell your neighbor about it.

Sulpholine Lotion.—An external means of curing skin diseases.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

Sulpholine Lotion, a fluid peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

Sulpholine Lotion.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

Sulpholine Lotion.—Bottles containing nearly half a pint.—Sold by Chemists everywhere. Made in London, Eng.

LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Dr. King's Dandelion & Quinine Liver Pills (without Mercury.) The best remedy for Billiousness, Stomach Derangement, Flatulence, Pains between the Shoulders, Bad Appetite, Indigestion, Acidity, Head-ache, Heartburn, and all other symptoms of disordered liver and dyspepsia. Acknowledged by many eminent surgeons to be the safest and mildest pills for every constitution.

In Boxes at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.

Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

Pepper's Quinine and Iron Tonic strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

Pepper's Quinine and Iron Tonic rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

Taraxacum and Podophyllin.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

It Certainly Will Pay.

It must be a source of pleasure to those of our citizens who are able to spare the money to have such an opportunity, so close upon the Christmas holidays, as that offered by Austin's clearing sale of Fancy Goods. Suitable articles for presents or for house furnishing and adornment can be bought every night from one-quarter to one-half less than the regular prices. To those, also, who would like to possess themselves of some of these luxuries, but who cannot well afford to pay full prices for them, this sale of Austin's has enabled many to buy what they desire at very cheap auction prices. As this sale will be continued night after night until further notice, it will pay everyone to attend who wants bargains in such goods.

Peterborough Ahead.

The Belleville Intelligencer says:—

There are now twenty telephones in use in town, and before the month is out there will be twenty five or six. Still Belleville is far behind Peterborough and other small towns in the number of telephones in use.

Peterborough is certainly ahead in this respect as in some others, but we cannot claim the additional merit of doing this as a small town, for with Ashburnham, which is included in our telephonic circuit, and indeed our general business system, our population is not very far behind that of the small city of Belleville.

The Weather.

Although not very warn the weather is rather comfortable, but rain is coming before long to judge from the appearance of the clouds. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes—High winds and gales from the south and south-west. Cloudy, milder weather. with rain areas, followed towards morning or to-morrow by westerly to north-westerly gales and decidedly colder weather and snow flurries.

Special Notice.

Dry Goods to be slaughtered for the next thirty days, as I have determined to retire from the business. I will commence to-morrow morning and sell all goods at cost, some lines a good deal less. I want every customer to distinctly understand that this is no humbug. I must clear all the goods out before the 15th of December. Remember the place, opposite the town clock. Respectfully yours, JAMES DOLAN.

Jammed his Fingers.

On Wednesday evening a young lad named Frank Taggart, employed at Hall Brothers' biscuit and confectionary works, got the fingers of his right hand severely jammed by one of the "breaks." The boy was running dough through the machine, and by his own carelessness the accident occurred. A physician dressed the hand and says that it will take a month to heal the wounds.

Shipment of Horses.

This morning Mr. C. Quintal of Montreal shipped to that city a car load of fine horses. A very large number have been shipped from here during the last year or two, but still they appear to be plentiful. Two more carloads are to follow in a few days.

To Stammerers.

The stammerer's friend will be in Peterborough the coming week, where he will remain for a few days to treat those who may be troubled with any defects in speech. All are invited to call and consult him. Consultation free. Rich and poor welcomed. No cure no pay. d97

THE TABLES TURNED.

Trinity College School Football Club Defeats the Peterborough's in the retuurn Match.

On Wednesday afternoon the return match between the Peteboroorough Foot Ball Club, and that of Trinity College School, Port Hope, took place on the grounds of the latter. As usual with our men, when away from home, they could not muster a full team, and by dint of hard work they managed to make up twelve men and the School club, of course, had to drop three. At the first match here the home club won a rather easy victory, but on this occasion the fates and Trinity College School were against them, and victory perched on the banners of the school. Although Peterborough had not a full team, they had a strong one, just about as good as they put in the field, so that the success of the school counts for something. The ground was rather soft, and, by the way, very uneven, totally different from the field our boys are accustomed to play on, and if in order for us to do so, we might suggest to the school authorities that if one or more of the stumps were removed, the players could run with a little more freedom. The weather was all that could be desired, being cold enough to make the contestants run to keep themselves warm. The attendance of spectators was rather small, the school boys forming the greater portion of the audience, while three or four ladies graced the field by their presence.

Port Hope won the toss, and had the wind in their favor. The teams were as follows:—

TRINITY COLLEGE SCHOOL:—Messrs. Coleman, Montizambert, (Captain), Abbott, Hill, Cayley, Hamilton, Rogers, Lewis, Leggatt, Bethune, Merritt and McDonnell. Average weight, 137 lbs.

PETERBOROUGH:—Messrs. McLeod, (Captain) Rogers G. C., Rogers R. B., Birney, Orde, Smith, Price, Hatton, Burritt, Snyder, Hubbell and Morris. Average weight, 152.6.

During the first "half time" the play was rather close and exciting, the ball being kept well in the centre of the field, neither of the teams having much of an advantage, but being apparently well matched. After play had gone on for about thirty minutes the superior training and practise of the school boys, commenced to show itself, and for the next fifteen minutes the school had a decided advantage and kept the ball well up in the vicinity of the Peterborough goals, but this advantage availed them but little, as the fine play of McLeod and the Rogers brothers, well backed up by the remainder of the team, warded danger off until "half time" was called and play was suspended for about five minutes.

Play soon commenced again, Peterborough playing up hill and the school boys playing even a better game than they did during the first "half time." The ball was rushed up and down the field by both sides, but very often it was to be seen near the Peterborough goal. The men were defending their goal well and were playing an excellent game, but their old fault, too much individual play, told against them and Port Hope secured a try, kicked and won a goal. The winning of the goal appeared to have a depressing effect on our boys, while the school boys were correspondingly elated. In spite of all that Peterborough could do, two more tries, both ineffectual, were secured, and when "time" was called the score stood Trinity College School one goal, two trys and one rouge; Peterborough one rouge.

The play throughout was in the very best spirit and nothing occurred to mar the enjoyment of the day.

After the conclusion of the game the visitors were entertained at the College and left on the night train.

THE PLOUGHING MATCH.

To the Editor of the Review.

In your issue of the 11th inst., H. Scott asks if the Arthur Kidd whose name appears on the Dummer assessment roll as 21 years of age, is the same Arthur Kidd who took the first prize at the late ploughing match.

ANSWER.—If my son is the one referred to, the "boy" must be an aspiring "Grit." I can state definitely he is not 21 years of age.

Yours,
A. R. KIDD.

[WE regret that Mr. Kidd has not thought proper to answer Mr. Scott's question in a way which would have set this unpleasant matter at rest. The reader will observe that Mr. Kidd does not deny that his son is the Arthur Kidd whose name appears on the Dummer assessment roll, nor that his son is over eighteen years of age, but simply that he is under twenty-one—at form of answer which, we are sorry to have to think, will be generally accepted as going to prove that his age is over-stated on the roll in order to give him a vote, and was understated at the ploughing match in order to enable him to compete in a class from which his age excluded him.—ED. REVIEW.]

A WORLD OF GOOD.—One of the most popular medicines now before the American public is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters, as it is not a whiskey drink. It is more like the old fashioned bone set tea that has done a world of good. If you don't feel just right try Hop Bitters.—Nunda News.

NORWOOD.

HIGH SCHOOL.—The following is the result of the examinations held in the High School during the past week:—Can. History,—Lillian Ford, Lillian Scott, Minnie Sanderson, Annie Pattyson, and Allen Burgess 60 each, Jane Spence, Willie Drope, P. Cope and Kate McKelvey, 50 each, Christina Boland, Nora Ryan and Mary Carberry 40 each.

PUBLIC SCHOOL.—The following is the result of the examinations held in the Public School during the past week:—Geography, (Senior Fourth),—Ida Pattyson 85, M. Elliot 67, Jennie Mahoney 53, Josie Reynolds and Vida Butterfield 51 each. (Junior Fourth),—Hattie Pattyson 70, Albert Raddon 68, Mary Kirkpatrick 57, Lumbert Vincent 50.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE Winnipeg Times of the 11th says:—"350,000 ties have been hauled from the C. P. R. east this season, for construction on the main line west and the branches. There are about 200,000 more yet to come in."

THE apple crop of Nova Scotia this year will be 90,000 barrels less than last season, which amounted to 200,000 barrels. The price this year will average a dollar better per barrel than last. The exports, so far, amount to 15,000 barrels, and it is estimated that there is twice as much to go forward.

HERRING & SONS' window glass manufactory at Napanee began work this afternoon. The first melt was blown and the glass produced was of most excellent quality. The sand, procured from the firm's own quarry at Landsdowne, is of the finest quality, and the securing of it was a most fortunate and profitable investment.

Guiteau's Trial.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The interest in Guiteau's trial is increasing. Scovelle stated that there was no disagreement between himself and Robinson. Guiteau said he would manage his own case, and would not trust to Robinson as he had no brains. He said that two or three "blunderbuss" lawyers would lose the case for him, and he did not propose to submit to anything of the kind. The court informed the prisoner that if he did'nt remain quite he would be removed from the room. At 10,30 Blaine entered the court and shortly afterwards District Attorney Corkhill made an attempt to proceed.

DR. CARSON'S STOMACH AND CONSTIPATION BITTERS, are rapidly taking the place of all other purgatives, including Pills, Powders, etc., There action is mild yet effectual and they are a certain cure for all bilious complaints. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

OVERCOATS!

THE MOST URGENT BUSINESS A MAN WITHOUT AN OVERCOAT HAS TO-DAY IS TO GET ONE. HE MAY GET IT WHERE HE LIKES.

IF HE COME HERE HE'LL BUY IN LESS TIME, BECAUSE HE KNOWS VERY WELL THAT HE CAN GET HIS MONEY BACK NEXT DAY, OR NEXT WEEK, IF HE WANTS IT.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Tender for Work in British Columbia.

SEALED TENDERS will be received by the undersigned up to NOON on WEDNESDAY, the 1st day of FEBRUARY next, in a lump sum, for the construction of that portion of the road between Port Moody and the West-end of Contract 60, near Emory's Bar, a distance of about 85 miles.

Specifications, conditions of contract and forms of tender may be obtained on application at the Canadian Pacific Railway Office, in New Westminister, and at the Chief Engineer's Office at Ottawa, after 1st January next, at which time plans and profiles will be open for inspection at the latter office.

This timely notice is given with a view to giving Contractors an opportunity of visiting and examining the grounds during the fine season and before the winter sets in.

Mr. Marcus Smith, who is in charge at the office at New Westminister, is instructed to give Contractors all the information in his power.

No tender will be entertained unless on one of the printed forms, addressed to F. Braun, Esq., Sec. Dept. of Railways and Canals, and marked "Tender for C. P. R."

MORRISTOWN.

Special to the Review, Nov. 18.

HENRY CARPENTER of Hamilton, was killed by the Credit Valley express going west this morning at 10.30. He boarded with Jno. E. Mcpherson, and was returning from Crieff, by the railroad track, but being totally deaf he did not hear the repeated warnings of the engineer. Both legs were broken and he died in a few minutes after the accident.—Deceased was a brother of Mrs. Alex. McInnis of Hamilton.

TORONTO.

Special to the Review, Nov. 17

COL. HIGINLOTHAN and Col. Clarke are under stood to be the favourites for the registrarship made vacant by the death of Captain Prince. The chances are in favour of the former.

CAPT. EADS has gone to Tampico, and on his return will come to Toronto to report on the harbour.

RICHARD NIXON gave evidence to-day of his alleged robbery by Campbell and Lynch on the highway, at the termination of a trip to places of questionable character. The case was enlarged.

T. O'NEILL, JR., and J. Blakely, witnesses on opposite sides of the Murdoch case fought on the streets last night, and were arrested. The case is enlarged.

C. MAYOR was examined in the contract investigation to-day, relative to Craig's statements. Nothing criminal was elicited.

MR. MURDOCH, a barrister here, has been living apart from his wife, mostly out of the city, for same time and wished to obtain possession of his child, as his wife refuses to live with him until he is in better circumstances. The trial has been going on for three days, this morning Judge Osler, under the discretion given to judges under the new Judicature Act as to the custody of children; decided in Mrs. Murdoch's favour, Mr. Murdoch to be allowed to see the child at stated times. Mr. Murdoch will probably appeal, as he has had a reporter taking the evidence for him.

TRINITY COLLEGE medical students have been distinguishing themselves by turning out a couple of policemen who went to arrest some of them who had given fictitious names and addresses when arrested for turning out the gas lamps, consequently they could not be found.

HANLAN AND ROSS have decided to leave a portion of the five hundred dollars now in a stakeholder's hands, to bind a match for next spring. Ross is willing to row Trickett on the Kennebeccasis in the spring for five thousand dollars a side, allowing him reasonable expenses. Hanlan anticipates a busy season as far as rowing is concerned, and declares that he is now prepared to make arrangements to row any three men in the world one after the other with only three days interval between each race.

THE AVERAGE TIME taken by the English mail on the Allan steamers between Liverpool and Toronto during the last six months has been ten days and six hours. The average for the Cunard line during the same period has been eleven days and eleven hours. It appears therefore that the St. Lawrence route has a decided advantage, and those who have called New York the natural port of Ontario will have to take a back seat.

A DEPUTATION from the Jarvis street Baptist church, which had been abroad on a mission to secure a pastor for the church, has returned, having been unsuccessful in their object.

SOUTH AFRICAN AFFAIRS.

DURBAN, Nov. 17,—White people are crowding into Pretoria. It is rumoured the Kaffir Chief, Mapoch, has taken up arms in Lyonburg district. Kaffirs have taken Boers prisoners in revenge for the execution of a Kaffir. A native rising is considered imminent.

DESTRUCTIVE STORM.

PANAMA, November 17.—A storm on Oct. 26th levelled the entire town of Manzanillo to the ground. Its buildings were blown to fragments. Several vessels in the harbor were lost. The loss is estimated at over half a million dollars independent of the shipping destroyed.

ANOTHER SUSPECT ARRESTED.

GALWAY, Nov. 17.—McPhillen, Catholic curate of Athenry, has been gaoled as a suspect.

NEW REICHSTAG OPENED.

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—The new Reichstag opened to-day. The speech from the throne shows the economic scheme of Bismarck will be presented to the Reichstag.

BRIGHT'S BIRTHDAY.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Bright, speaking on the occasion of his seventieth birthday, said that unless increased capital and skill were put into the soil, a great reduction in rents was the only remedy for the agricultural distress.

THAT EXPLOSION.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The fire on the steamer Severn, yesterday, was caused by the bursting of a barrel of naptha. The cargo consisted of spirits and oils, and the vessel was soon ablaze.

NIHILISM.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 17.—A fresh number of the Nihilist journal Narahia Volio, in an editorial paragraph, surrounded with a deep black line, denounces the crime of Guiteau in the strongest language. It is reported that Lieut. Suhanoff, arrested on suspicion of supplying dynamite, has been secretly executed.

THE TURF.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—At the Shrewsburg meeting to-day the Haughmond Plate for two years olds and upwards, on mile, was won by Lorillard's Passaic, Mar 2nd, Episcopus 3rd. Six ran.

AMERICAN.

WITHOUT TROUBLE.

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 17.—The pugilists, Holden and White, have agreed to go to Conneaut for trial without requisition. The penalty under Ohio laws is from one to ten years' imprisonment.

OBIT.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 17.—James D. Sawyer, the well known president of White's bank and one of our most highly esteemed citizens, died yesterday after a week's illness. He was Vice-President of the Buffalo Insurance Company, a director of the Mutual Gas Light Company and a trustee of the Forest Lawn Cemetery Association; he was also for a time President of the General Hospital Association and one of the advising board of the Home for the Friendless. He was likewise an active and useful friend of the Buffalo Orphan Asylum.

GRAVE ROBBED.

BUFFALO, Nov. 17.—The body of E. G. Burnham, recently interred in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo, was carried away by body-snatchers.

IMMEDIATE RELIEF WANTED

OSHKOSH, Wis., Nov. 17.—A committee of citizens has been appointed to proceed to Washington and ask the immediate removal of the government dam at Menoska and Appleton, which will relieve the flooded condition of the country. The damage already is $600,000, and it is feared the water will freeze before it lowers.

RESIDENCE BURNED.

CONSHOHACKENS, Pa., Nov. 17.—Ex-Attorney General McVeagh's summer residence at Brockville Farm, was burned yesterday. Most of the furniture was saved. The building was insured.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and complete restoration of vigor and manhood. Also for Rheumatism, neuralgia, Paralysis, Liver and Kidney difficulties, Ruptures, and many other diseases. Illustrated pamphlet sent free. Address Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

A REAL NECESSITY.—No house should be without a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, in case of accident. There is no preparation offered to suffering humanity that has made so many permanent cures, or relieved so much pain and misery. It is called by some the Good Samaritan, by others the Cure-all, and by the afflicted an Angel of Mercy.

AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS

Press Despatches to the Review.

AMERICAN.

THE ASSASSIN'S TRIAL.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Long before the court opened several hundred gentlemen assembled in the corridors. At 9 o'clock the prison van drew up and Guiteau, clutching some papers firmly in his hand, shuffled hurriedly into the building. There was a marked absence of noisy demonstration on the part of the bystanders, and yet Guiteau plainly betrayed fear, and appeared afraid of sudden violence. He was taken to the prisoners' room and devoted himself to reading the newspapers. At 9 o'clock the seats were all filled. The assembly seemed entirely free from the rough element.

THE U. S. AND CHILI.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The story which has reached the State Department of the deliberate arrest of President Calderon by the Chilian Admiral Lynch at Lima, in reply to the recognition by the United States of the Calderon Government, is exciting a great deal of feeling, and if it is verified there can be no doubt as to the emphasis with which Chili will be made to understand the facts of the existing situation.

IN SELF DEFENCE.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 18.—Wm McCahill, son of the ex-State Treasurer of Virginia, who last summer fatally shot Martin Corcoran, a striking compositor, who assaulted him for taking a striker's place in a newspaper office, was tried and acquitted yesterday.

SCOURGED WITH SMALL-POX.

TACOMA, Nov. 18.—At Tacoma a town in Washington Territory, there are 93 cases of small-pox and 25 deaths daily. The town is under guard. The Northern Pacific has stopped its trains to Tacoma on account of the scourge.

ANOTHER READJUSTER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Tribune says that Reddleburger will have a walk over for the United States Senate in Virginia.

WAKING UP AT LAST.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18—The Herald says that the annual report of the Secretary for War will say it seems simply a matter of common prudence that we commence without delay and under liberal appropriation, to put our coast in an efficient condition of defence.

"REGULATORS" VS. "MODERATORS."

ASHLAND, Nov. 18.—A bloody fight is imminent in Elliott County, between a Sheriff's posse of seventy "moderators" and and an equal number of desperadoes known as "regulators." Both parties are heavily armed.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

HELANA, Montana, Nov. 18.—A blast was set near New Chicago on the main line of the Northern Pacific Railway. Two hundred pounds of powder was used, and the blast not going off as soon as was expected, Nelson Bennett, a contractor, and four workmen approached the spot. The blast then went off, hurling immense quantities of rock and the five men into a river. The men, although severely bruised, miraculously escaped alive. Bennett was thrown over 120 feet.

THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Blaine in testifying yesterday stated in reply to questions that while party service was an element which always entered into the distribution of offices abroad, yet it was not a conspicious one, and a great many eligible missions abroad are held by gentlemen who never did party service at all. Blaine said, as a rule I think you would find that gentleman who held conspicious position in diplomatic stations are not those who have applications for them on file in the department.

WILL REMAIN ABROAD.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—A Washington special to the World says that it is understood that W. W. Astor who sailed for Europe to-day, will receive a diplomatic appointment and remain abroad.

INPORTANT INFORMATION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Times says that the annual report of the commissioner, will contain a chapter on cattle and hogs at grain distilleries. During the past year upwards of 17,000 beeves were fattened for the market at distilleries in Peoria. The report will state that the quantity of distilled spirits in hand at the close of the last fiscal year was 67,000,000 gallons, an increase of over 30,000,000 gallons as compared with the preceeding year. The increase is due to the act of Congress authorizing the retention in bond of spirits for three years.

ASCANDAL CASE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—In the Christiancy case yesterday the mother of Mrs. Christiancy corroberated the testimony of her daughter.

FIERCE FLAMES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The fire last night, which threated to be serious, was checked before much danger was done. Fifteen men were burned severely.

SHOT BEHIND.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Wm. Brownell, chief clerk of an establishment, was shot in the back and seriously wounded in City Hall Park last night, by Geo. Henry, one of the employees.

ALL ABOUT A WOMAN.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Nov. 17.—It is stated that Postmaster Stathem stabbed Hicks in self-defence. The case against Statham was dismissed. The trouble was on account of a woman.

A FATAL MISTAKE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Adolph Meyer, 61, wishing to awaken a saloon keeper early this morning to get a drink, tapped, in mistake, at the door of Alfred Lyons, whose store was recently robbed. Lyons, who slept in the place, took Meyer for a burglar and shot him in the head. Meyer ran away. Lyons pursued and shot Meyer dead. Lyons has been arrested.

WHAT EVERY ONE SAYS MUST BE TRUE.—And every one who has tested its merits speaks warmly in praise of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam as a positive cure for all throat and lung complaints, coughs and colds, sore throat, bronchitis and incipient consumption.

DR. CARSON'S STOMACH AND CONSTIPATION BITTERS, are rapidly taking the place of all other purgatives, including Pills, Powders, etc., There action is mild yet effectual and they are a certain cure for all bilious complaints. In large bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

FIRES IN OUR FORESTS.

10,000,000 OR MORE OF PINE DESTROYED THIS YEAR IN ONTARIO.

Evidence of a Heavy Annual Loss—The Law Regarding Fires and Its Defects—Remedies Suggested.

Not for many years has fire made such havoc among the pine forests of the country. The extent of these fires is, however, not known, and cannot be approximately ascertained until the agents and bush rangers in the employ of the Ontario Government make reports upon the subject. It is known that thousands of square miles of territory have been burned over along the Ottawa, in the back townships north of Lake Ontario, and through Muskoka and Parry Sound. Much of this burnt land has consisted of farms, woods from which the pine has been stripped, and pine areas previously destroyed by fire.

THE LOSS BY LAST SEASON'S FIRES.

Of the very great destruction which must have occurred throughout the whole unsettled territory lying along the eastern borders of Parry Sound and Muskoka, and thence eastward to the townships along the Ottawa, little or nothing is known. Estimate has been made of the loss in the Ottawa Valley, and it is placed by some at $5,000,000. In Muskoka, and Parry Sound great belts, twenty miles or more in length, and from one mile to five or six miles wide, have been burned over; and according to one gentleman, well acquainted with the districts, the smoke of bush fires has ascended from almost every square mile of territory from Lake Nipissing to the Severn. The magnitude of the loss must therefore have been great, and not improbably quite equal to that along the Ottawa. Yet some almost place it as low as one million dollars. That figure may not be too small on the lowest calculation of the value of the uncut trees to the lumbering companies. But the actual value may be four or five times as much. Along the north shore of Lake Huron the damage from fire has not been so great as it was supposed to be during the prevalence of the fires, but this may apply only to the narrow strip of territory traversed in summer by lumbermen and others. The total loss over the whole Province may be variously estimated at from ten to fifteen million dollars.

CUTTING DEAD TREES.

Much may yet be saved by prompt cutting of the scorched timber, and most of the trees in the burned districts are merely scorched. If these trees be cut down this winter the borer, which invariably attacks dead trees in the summer season, can do no harm, and they will be suitable for lumber, but otherwise the timber will be rendered useless. The cutting of these trees, situated in many instances where access and removal are difficult, can not be expected, so that nearly every one of the few hundred thousand pine trees burned, more or less, last summer, may be considered a total loss.

THE ANNUAL LOSS BY FIRE.

The average annual loss by fire cannot well be estimated even approximately, and if one million dollars be roughly stated as an amount more probable than anything lower, the figures large as they are, can scarcely be considered too high. The surveys of the new townships of Bonfield and Boulter, of which notice has been taken in the Globe, reveal an aspect of the forest lands which is common almost everywhere from the Georgian Bay to the Ottawa. Two-thirds of Bonfield has been burned over at one time and another within recent years, while Boulton has suffered from the sweeping away of one-third of its forest. The same story is told of all other parts of the pine country by the surveyors who have traversed them. Much of this destruction has been done where the lumberman and the trapper were, till recently, the only human beings who traversed the wilds. When the pioneer settler entered the danger increasd, and the pine has only an even chance of survival till the lumbermen can turn it to commercial account.

EXTINCTION OF THE LUMBER TRADE THREATENED.

Settlements have now been formed in most parts of the pine country, and for twenty years at the present rate of progress there will scarcely be the area of a township left unpenetrated by the hardy pioneer. Twenty years later the lumber business may be a thing of the past, so far as Ontario is concerned, unless an efficient system be adopted of protecting the forests. Already only the limited tract along the west side of the Ottawa from Mattawan to Lake Temiscamingue, the wilderness, rapidly diminishing in area, that lies between the county of Peterborough and Lake Nipissing, and a portion of the north shore district are yet unbroken by settlement. Half, perhaps much less than half, of the area contains no pine of commercial valne; so that under the present system of waste, not only may an important source of Government revenue be greatly diminished within a decade or two, but one of the leading industries of the country will be crippled in its competition with districts more favoured by abundance and easy access. The replanting of trees can do little to remedy the mischief, as one hundred and fifty years are required, so it is said, for a pine to reach maturity. That length of time being necessary to produce good marketable timber, it will be seen, if viewed in connection with the progress of settlement and the increasing demand for lumber, that less than one per cent. of our forest trees can be allowed to be cut down or burned if the province hopes to preserve a permanent lumber industry and a Government revenue therefrom.

PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE.

In 1878 the Ontario Legislature introduced better regulations than theretofore had been in use for the prevention of forest fires. The fire district of Ontario, as constituted by the Act, includes a large area; the boundary in the southern part extends from Bruce Mines along the north shore and the Georgian Bay to Midland, then across Lake Couchiching to thirty miles north of Kingston, where it turns northward to Allumette Island, and follows the course of the Ottawa to Lake Temiscamingue. In this district fires are placed under considerable legal restriction. No fire is to be kindled in or within half a mile from the woods, between the 1st of April and 1st of November, except for clearing land, cooking, obtaining warmth, or some industrial purpose. In building any such fires a locality is to be selected where there is the smallest quantity of vegetable matter, dead wood, branches, brushwood, dry leaves, or resinous trees. The place where the fire is to be lighted is then to be cleared of all dead vegetation for a space of ten feet around, and every care is to be taken to prevent the fire from spreading, and it must be extinguished by the parties kindling it before they leave the spot. The pains and penalties of the Act lie on the head and pocket of him who throws or drops a burning match, the ashes, of a pipe or a lighted cigar in this sixty thousand-square-mile tinder-box. The wadding of a firearm must also be looked after or the law will pounce down on the neglectful sportsman.

CAMPING PARTIES.

One section of the Act bears severely on some of the parties who leave Toronto and other towns for an outing near the northern waters. Whether such parties consist of one or more persons they must have a recognized head, if for no other purpose than the purposes of this Act. Such head must carry a copy of the Act with him among his other baggage, and once a week must call his men together and read the Act aloud in their hearing, and also explain it to them. If a man go out alone, it is presumed that he will call himself together and read the Act aloud—a wise provision of the law for the evolution of lawyers, clergymen and stump orators. It would be interesting to know how many pleasure parties have observed this section and escaped liability to the penalty of $50 and costs, or three months in gaol imposed for its violation.

An important section refers to the locomotive engines passing through the fire district. Such engines must have all the most approved and efficient means of preventing the escape of fire from the furnace or ash-pan, and the smoke stack is to be provided with a bonnet or screen of iron or steel wire netting, containing in each square inch eleven wires each way at right angles to each other. The duty of seeing that these appliances are used is especially given to the driver of the locomotive. The penalty for contravention of the Act is fifty dollars and costs of prosecution, and in the case of railway companies one hundred dollars and costs for each offence; this latter penalty to be recovered by suit in any court of competent jurisdiction. Every suit for recovery of a penalty must be commenced within three months after the contravention complained of.

THE LAW A DEAD LETTER.

As every one acquainted with the forest territory knows, this Act is almost a dead letter. The reason is that practically no one is responsible for its reinforcement. Successful prosecution of a suit entitles the complainant or prosecutor to one-half of the fine and costs, and while any person can appear as prosecutor, the duty is said to attach specially to Crown Land Agents, Woods and Forest Agents, Free Grant Agents, and bush-rangers. These men are unlikely to incur the odium of instituting a prosecution which may bring them a direct pecuniary benefit. The same thing has been tried in the liquor law and found wanting. The difficulty is increased by another cause. In these sparsely settled districts it is not easy to discover the offender in one case out of a dozen, for the Government agents are not numerous, while the bush-rangers, whose duties are the measurement of the ties cut by the lumberers, necessarily do their work in the winter, and in summer attend to private business.

A MORE EFFICIENT LAW REQUIRED.

The remedy may partly lie in investing Crown Land or Free Grant agents with power on dry seasons to prohibit the kindling of clearing fires, and at all times in the summer months to require every party about to start a fire to first obtain written permission. Bush rangers should be more numerous, and their special duty in summer should be to constantly scour their districts in search of fires. In this way every party camping out would be known to the rangers, and it would be comparatively easy to fix any contravention of the Act on the right parties.

The regulation regarding locomotives might be made to apply throughout the whole Province, for the past season's record shows that some of the most destructive fires occurred beyond the fire district, and were caused by sparks from passing engines.

The hope is expressed that the Government will instruct its agents to make full reports of the extent of the damage done by fires during the past season, and the causes, as far as can be ascertained, of each fire.—Globe.

A LION LOOSE IN A CAR.

An African Lion on its way from Chicago to Toronto Gets Loose in an Express Car.

Last Monday evening Captain Mullett left Chicago for Toronto on the express, having two African lions, three panthers, one sea lion, and a wolf under his care. The animals were confined in separate wicker cages, and these cages were placed in a separate car attached to the regular train. Before leaving Chicago the animals were fed. Between Chicago and Detroit one of the African lions bit his way out of his wicker basket, and got himself loose in the car. He crouched down in a corner and no one knew that anything was wrong until Detroit was reached. At that place the expressman opened the car and was on the point of entering it, when Captain Mullett noticed the wicker basket was empty and closed the car door again. It was an interesting problem who was to board the lion as the beast was full-grown and savage. Various plans were mooted but at length Captain Mullett and a coloured man entered the car and commenced proceedings. Beyond certain low growls the lion took no notice of them. After some trouble the wicker basket was placed over the lion, and he was tumbled into it without much ceremony. The basket was secured, and the lion and the other animals arrived safely by No. 5 express on Wednesday, Conductor S. D. Bostwick in charge. All the animals are now pretty hungry, having eaten nothing since they left Chicago, and the captain says that unless they are speedily transferred they will break loose again.

GENERAL DEBILITY.—This convenient term includes numerous ill-defined and supposed incurable forms of disease, accompanied by general lassitude and exhaustion, without any ascertainable external or internal causes. The Peruvian Syrup sends its renovating influence to the utmost recesses of the system, and has relieved in our community many cases of supposed incurable disease. Sold by dealers generally.

COBOURG.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—The World says that on Monday morning last a very serious accident occurred to Mr. Bernard McAllister at the Cobourg freight shed of the Grand Trunk railway. Mr. McAllister, who is a clerk in the freight department, was handling a case of goods, when it slipped and struck his leg, breaking the bone so completely as to bend the limb under him. He was at once conveyed home, and the fracture was reduced by Dr. McNichol. Much sympathy is felt for Barney, as the accident was a sore one, and on account of the serious character of the break, it will be several weeks before he can leave his bed.

ACCIDENT AT THE CAR WORKS.—On Friday last, as Mr. Wm. Kerr was assisting in pressing car wheels upon the axles, a thick piece of timber, which he was using as a brace, sprung out and struck him in the face. The blow was a heavy one, as the stick was well braced and flew a distance of two feet. Three or four of his front teeth were knocked out, and his lip so badly cut that the parts had to be drawn together by stitching. He is doing well, and will not lose more than eight or ten days.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—On Friday night, as Mr. W. L. Burnham's teamster was proceeding homewards, on crossing the Grand Trunk track on William Street, his waggon was struck by a passing gravel train and one of the horses killed. The driver escaped without injury, though he had not much of which to boast in the way of distance,—the waggon being used up in the encounter.

BROKEN LEG.—On Saturday last, Mr. H. Mills, of this town, met with an accident which will lay him up for some weeks. He was upon a scaffold at work upon his new building on James Street, when he fell to the ground, and sustained a bad fracture of the bone of his right leg, near the ankle.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Saturday last, Robert Noble, the well-known builder, died at his residence after only a few hours illness. He had been about town on the Saturday, in his usual health. He was the contractor who built the new Smith and Hitchins Blocks, and he had not quite completed his job.

PEOPLE ARE BEGINNING to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa-Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

A WORLD OF GOOD.—One of the most popular medicines now before the American public is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters, as it is not a whiskey drink. It is more like the old fashioned bone set tea that has done a world of good. If you don't feel just right try Hop Bitters.—Nunda News.

WM. LECH'S CAUTION!

To Buyers of Furs! Furs!

TWENTY-ONE YEARS OF UNBROKEN SUCCESS in business is the most fitting reply to Mr. Fairweather's war cry. The selling of Bankrupt Stock by the latter is surely not the best recommendation of Goods fresh every season, and this lie comes back to his own door by the advertisement of Delaney's Furs for the SECOND season. And still his Furs are fresh! How refreshing to know this! How moth-eaten they may be, I cannot say. Nor is the "bankrupt" cry confined to Furs—bankrupt stock all over is no doubt a good recommendation for fresh goods every season! Contrary to expectation, considering the mild season, I have orders on hand for the next three weeks in Persian Lamb, Bocharen, Astrachan and South Sea Seal Jackets, so that repairing of Furs is suspended.

I INVITE MR. FAIRWEATHER and the public cordially for the inspection of my stock, which in Jackets is hardly possible to keep up to the demand. A trip to Europe in the coming Spring is almost a necessity for buying New Stock at the Leipzig Fair.

CHICAGO TARRIFF CONVENTION.

A Testimony to the Beneficial Effects of a Protective Policy.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—In the Tariff Convention to-day Congressman Aldrich made a speech expressing sympathy with the convention. Several other addresses were made by gentlemen representing the shipping, iron and steel interests.

This afternoon the committee on resolutions made their report, which was adopted. The platform says the retrospective policy of America is to be credited with having not only provided a revenue with which to subdue the rebellion, revive the national credit, and discharge in large part the national debt, but also with having quadrupled the industries of the country, maintained unexampled and continued prosperity for twenty years, and turned the balance of trade steadily in our favour, and that however well established our manufactures may be, a tariff for protection and revenue is still needed that skilled labourers and producers may have constant and remunerative employment. The convention gladly accepts the success of the International Cotton Exhibition, now being held at Atlanta, as evidence that the new south is diversifying its industries, employing its people, creating home markets, and working up its own raw material, thereby uniting our interests with theirs as citizens of one nation, and making our American policy of protection a benefit and a need to all sections. The convention recommend to Congress for the more effectual protection and upbuilding of our commercial marine, first, that American maritime property shall be exempt from the burdens of State, municipal and local taxation. The reason for this is that American vessels derive no protection or benefits whatever from the State and municipal governments, which are not shared in an equal degree by foreign vessels touching at our ports which pay no taxes, and hence such taxes upon capital invested in maritime property amount to a very heavy discrimination in favour of foreign against American shipping, this discrimination in the port of New York being 2½ per cent. on the principal. Secondly, they should make American vessels the carriers of American mails, at rates proportionate to the value of the service performed, without regard to the rates at which foreign vessels subsidized by their own Governments may be willing to carry them. Thirdly, the United States should regard the American commercial marine as an integral element of our American nationality, and should so discriminate in favour of American vessels—especially of those which are striving to extend American trade to new countries—as would secure to them a fair and lucrative share of the world's carrying trade proportionate to the dignity and power of the country in other respects. Fourthly, the methods adopted for meeting the expenses of our consular services should be so remodelled as no longer to amount to a discriminating tax on American vessels to which the vessels of other countries are not subject.

It was resolved that "whenever any foreign commodity which is produced or exists in surplusage is constantly brought to our markets as ballast, thus advancing the price of our products, an increased duty should be imposed thereon for the benefit of the home laborer as Government revenues." The convention disapproves of the absurd Treasury decisions regarding steel looms, steel wire reeds, cotton ties, &c. The national internal revenue taxes should be gradually reduced, with a view to their extinguishment within a reasonable period. The convention recommends the passage of a law for appointing a commission to revise the revenue system, including the internal revenues and tariff laws, in the interest of protection, and for the needed revenue.

It was resolved that a committee of five be appointed to visit Washington during the next session of Congress, and present the acts of the convention to the proper committees of both Houses, and to forward its object in the proper ways.

The convention, in common with the afflicted country, and the sympathizing world, recognizes the death of President Garfield as a national calamity, which no words can adequately express, and emphasizes its regard for him as an able champion of the American doctrine of protection to industry, nor is our sensibility to this loss rendered in any degree less acute notwithstanding our respectful and due appreciation of the fact that his successor in the presidential office, President Arthur, is equally in principle and by conviction devoted to the same cause of protection to American industry.

A committee was appointed as a permanent industrial western league, and the convention adjourned sine die.

A STRANGE CASE.

A Chief of Police Accused of Strange Conduct—Stolen goods and no Conviction.

TORONTO, Nov. 16.—A short time ago a special despatch to the Telegram from Belleville announced that Smith's hardware store of that place had been burglarized, and that a large number of revolvers, razors, etc., had been stolen. The despatch was read by the detectives of this city, and thinking that the thieves might possibly come to Toronto to dispose of their booty, they kept a sharp look-out, the result being that they recovered a large quantity of goods in the stores of Moses Woods, York street, and Henry Albert, Queen street, which they believed to have been stolen from Belleville. They telegraphed to Mr. McKinnon, Chief of Police of that place, to come up and see if the goods were those stolen from Smith's store, and the Chief obeyed the summons, bringing with him the manager of Smith's store. After his arrival Detectives Brown and Reid arrested Woods and Albert, and McKinnon took them to Belleville for trial. And now comes the peculiar part of this story. Before going away McKinnon took charge of the goods that were supposed to be stolen, after first signing a receipt and giving a bond that he would return them in case the alleged receivers were acquitted, and the good not thoroughly identified. The prisoners were brought before the Belleville magistrate, but strangely enough there is no evidence offered against them, and they are discharged from custody, having it appears agreed to hand over the property recovered by the police, and McKinnon then dropped the case against them. Not only this, but McKinnon takes unto himself all the credit of having worked up the case, and received at least the thanks of the hardware merchant for his "very clever work." The end of the affair, however, is not yet, as it is believed that some of the goods sent to Belleville were stolen from another town for which McKinnon will be held responsible. The Toronto authorities are very much disgusted over the affair, and will try and keep clear of country policemen in future when they come to the city to "work up a case."

FREE OF CHARGE.—All persons suffering from Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Loss of Voice, or any other affection of the Throat or Lungs, are requested to call at Taylor & Macdonald's Drug Store and get a trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, free of charge, which will convince them of its wonderful merits and show what a regular sized bottle will do. Call early.—3.

THE Deadwood papers are still reporting almost daily strikes of vast bodies of ore of unparallelled richness. It is time a hundred or two new and paying mines were being worked there. They have been constantly discovering ore for years, but few mints have been added to the world's bullion producers since the Homestake and De Smet were opened.

A HINT.—Beware of all the worthless mixtures, and dirty, greasy combinations which are offered you in almost every store you enter, and which some unprincipled shopkeepers try to palm off as a substitute for Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. These mixtures are gotten up expressly to sell on the reputation of the Pain-Killer, but have nothing in common with it.

FOR DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

A CONNECTICUT saloon-keeper lost a pocket-book containing several hundred dollars, and a boy found it and returned it to him. Tears came to his eyes as he gazed upon the honest boy, and he opened the pocketbook, unrolled the wad and took out a fifty dollar bill, he said, "You are a goot, honest poy. Now I vill shake you for de drinks," and he put the fifty-dollar bill back in his pocket-book, and got down the loaded dice and beat the boy.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.—In these times of quack medicine everywhere, it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise, and which really does as recommended. Electric Bitters we can vouch for as being a true and reliable remedy, and one that will do as recommended. They invariably cure Stomach and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary difficulties. We know whereof we speak, and can readily say, give them a trial. Sold at 50 cents a bottle, by Taylor & Macdonald.—3.

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's German prescription, and it is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced their has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced. 2d1w1y

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. Brown's Bronchial Troches do not disorder the stomach like cough syrup and balsams, but act directly on the Inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25c. a box everywhere. d52w9

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 22 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL.

A Villain.

W. J. Glen, Sheriff of Wayne County, N.Y., has issued a circular offering a reward of $250, which is supplemented with $50 by the Police Constable of Weedsport, N.Y., for the capture of that fiend in human form, Joe Smith, who outraged and attempted to murder a young woman at Savannah, on the 9th inst. G. Johnston Chief of Police, has received a copy of the circular. The following description is given of the culprit:—"Smith is some twenty-four or twenty five years old, about five feet nine inches high, rather strongly built, shoulders a little stooping, lightish hair, light complexion, eyes bright blue and large and prominent, rather slow of speech—a little peculiar; he wore when he went away dark pants, yellowish brown sack coat, oldish grey cap. and No. 8 coarse boots (nearly new)." It is to be hoped that this villain will be captured, and the utmost penalty which the law allows meted ont to him, as even this will be all too light a punishment for such a brutal crime.

Direct from Germany.

Germany has been asked to contribute her share of fancy goods for Austin's great sale, and has responded handsomely. In fact, Germany has "come down handsomely" in her prices for this special sale, and thrown off fully half the usual price to Austin in some of the most attractive goods that have ever come out of the Faderland. Just step in to the store during the day or evening and take a note of the prices in a few of the leading lines, such as Berlin Wools, Vases, Picture Frames, Looking Glasses Cruets and Silver Plated Ware, and if you don't get a genuine surprise you will surrender unconditionally.

Building Operations.

Building operations are unusually brisk for this season of the year, and an extra large number of new and substantial dwellings, etc., are being erected. The brickwork of the new hotel on Hunter street has been commenced, and the work is being pushed forward with all speed.

St. John's church is being roofed in, and the contractor expects to finish by Christmas.

In the southern end of the town Mr. Enos Dunford is erecting two dwellings, and in al most every other quarter of the town new structures can be seen.

Baths! Baths! Baths!

Just what was wanted in Peterborough! Mr. I. Guerin has started hot and cold water baths in his new barber shop on Simcoe street, a few doors west of Fairweather's corner, and deserves the credit of the public for supplying this health-preserving luxury. He should be well patronized, as he is determined to keep everything clean, warm and comfortable. Flesh brushes, sponges, towels and every convenience necessary. 120

Accident on the T. and O. Railway.

While three men were engaged on the works of the Toronto and Ottawa Railway, near Bridgewater, on Wednesday, in taking a charge, which had failed to go off out of a hole drilled in the rock, the explosive went off. One man had his arms badly torn by the drill, another was struck in the chest by a piece of rock and had his face badly burned, whilst the third was uninjured.

Good Pay.

We are informed on undoubted authority that a Peterborough bricklayer, who is now working in Winnipeg, during last week earned $115.00 working at his trade. The figures are astounding, but our informant vouches for their correctness. $19 a day is good wages, and a man, if kept employed the year round, ought to save some money.

An Owner Wanted.

This morning some young lads found a woman's hat and muffler, on a wood pile, just in the rear of this office. The owner can get them by calling. They are not very valuable but they may be of use to the owner. They were placed on the wood sometime during the night, as they were not seen when closing up on Thursday night.

The Stammerer's Friend.

All persons afflicted with stammering or any other difficulty of speech will be glad to learn that Professor Grady will be at the Caisse House, Peterborough, on Monday the 21st inst. Consultation free.

Market Matters.

We are requested by the Market Clerk to inform our readers, that the Market Committee decided, at their last meeting that all butter, eggs, and poultry would, in the future, have to be sold upstairs over the butcher's market, and the market clerk was ordered to remove all benches from around the building and place them upstairs. This plan was tried before but was a failure, because some of the women refused to go upstairs, but would rather stand in the cold, on account of some fancied advantage to be gained by so doing. In order to ensure success this time positive orders have been given that all must go upstairs, if they wish to dispose of the produce mentioned. This will allow room for people to pass on the north side of the market building, instead of trampling through the mud.

The Weather.

The weather continues rather warm for the present season of the year, but is nevertheless cold enough. Last night a mixture of rain and snow fell for some, time and afterwards rain alone. To-day a wind has been blowing quite strongly at times. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto at 10 a.m. to-day, by the Great North-western Telegraph Company, are as follows:—Lakes,—High winds, gales from the north-east and north west; cloudy, colder weather; rain turning to snow.

Skin Peelers.

A pair of "knockers" becoming pugilistically inclined yesterday afternoon, spent a few minutes in a game of fisticuffs on the market square. There was some "claret" spilt and skin peeled, and one of the bruisers ran against the other's clenched fist with such force that he fell senseless, and several applications of (whiskey and) water were necessary to revive him. There was no policemen in the vicinity, and consequently no arrests.

Special Notice.

Dry Goods to be slaughtered for the next thirty days, as I have determined to retire from the business. I will commence to-morrow morning and sell all goods at cost, some lines a dood deal less. I want every customer to distinctly understand that this is no humbug. I must clear all the goods out before the 15th of December. Remember the place, opposit the town clock. Respectfully yours, JAMES DOLAN.

Entertainment.

A Social will be held at the residence of Mrs. C. B. Orde, Peterborough, on Tuesday next, at 7.30 p.m. Readings and vocal and instrumental music will be rendered by efficient amateurs. This is the first entertainment in connection with St. Luke's Parochial Association, the present winter, and we wish to see a large attendance. Admission 10 cents.

The Railway Workshops.

The company evidently means business as Thursday's Perth Expositor says that during the past week the planting of the foundation posts for four large buildings for the Toronto & Ottawa Railway workshops has been completed, and progress will be made with the erection of the buildings as soon as the timber can be procured.

The New Company.

We are pleased to notice that the Canada Mutual Telegraph Company, of which some Peterborough gentlemen are directors, is laying a cable at Longue Pointe to connect the north and south shores of the St. Lawrence below Montreal, and commence business when ready, which they hope to be next month.

New Goods.

Use the Poland Metallic Hair Brush "for headache." British Plate Mirrors for ladies' toilet. Choice lot of those very desirable Gentlemens' Dressing Combs. TAYLOR & MACDONALD, Medical Hall, Corner of George and Hunter Streets.

No Mails.

For some reason or another, at present unknown to us, the Grand Trunk has been very late during the last three or four days, and in consequence of the delay this morning, no western mails or Toronto papers reached here at noon.

Town Council.

A special meeting of the Town Council will be held on Monday the 28th inst., at 7.30 o'clock p. m., when business of importance will be transacted. There will be no meeting on Monday evening the 21st November, 1881.

Associate Coroner.

We are informed that the Lieutenant-Governor has been pleased to appoint Dr. R. W. Bell an associate coroner for the County of Peterborough. We congratulate the doctor on this appointment.

Personal.

Mr. George Wilson, sr., of the Port Hope Daily Guide, called on us this morning.

Mr. E. B. Fraser, passenger agent of the Northern Central Railway, Buffalo, is registered at the "Oriental."

A Splendid Sale.

We learn that the great clearing sale at Mr. Lewis Davies' farm, Smith, on Thursday, was one of the most successful yet held this year. It was conducted by Mr. Charles Stapleton, who as usual, sold the stock, etc., at good prices.

Boiler Inspection.

Mr. James B. Cloudsley, Inspector of the Canadian Steam Users' Insurance Association, in is town looking after the boilers owned by the patrons af the company.

Mechanic's Institute.

The quarterly meeting of the members of the Peterborough Mechanics' Institute will be held in the rooms of the institute, on Monday evening, the 21st at 7.30 o'clock.

Oysters! Oysters! Oysters!

Fresh oysters by the plate, raw, stewed or fried, at the St. James Hotel and Restaurant.

Conservative Convention.

Arrangements have been made with the Grand Trunk, the Great Western, Credit Valley, Toronto and Nippising and Toronto Grey and Bruce Railway, to issue tickets to the delegates to the approaching Liberal Conservative Convention at Toronto at reduced rates. Delegates will pay the regular single fare to Toronto, but on the presentation on or before the 24th inst., at the Toronto offices of the various railways named, of a certificate signed by the Secretary of the Convention, return tickets will be furnished on payment of one-third of the regular fare.

LINDSAY.

ACCIDENT TO A CHILD.—The Warder says that a five or six year old child, of Mr. Fred. Reeves, had the thumb of his right hand so badly ground up by the cog wheels of a straw cutter on Friday last that it had to be amputated.

SALE OF TOWN BONDS.—His Worship the Mayor has been fortunate in disposing of the whole of the new town bonds, $8,000, bearing 5 per cent. interest at par. This cannot but be accepted as exceedingly satisfactory. By replacing the old bonds with the new the town is a gainer to the extent of $80 a year. The brokerage in the transaction was a very trifling amount.

ACCIDENT.—An old lady named Mrs. Bell, of the 14th con. Emily, met with a very painful accident at the Daly House on Tuesday morning. She intended going to Toronto by the 6 a. m. train. In walking about the house at an early hour, she fell down stairs and broke her wrist; and received several severe bruises about the head and body.

LEG BROKEN.—While James Mackie was at work on the Catholic Church in Galway, three weeks ago, the scaffolding gave way and he fell a distance of eleven feet, breaking his left leg above the knee. He is under the treatment of Dr. Poole and is progressing favorably.

HUMBUGGED AGAIN.—I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife who was always doctoring, and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some I concluded to be humbugged again; and I am glad I did, for in less than two months' use of the Bitters my wife was cured and has remained so for eighteen months since. I like such humbugging.—H. T., St. Paul.—Pioneer Press.

DYSPEPSIA, that all prevalent disease of civilized life, is always attended with a disordered sympathetic system and bag secretions, and no remedy is better adapted to its cure than Burdock Blood Bitters taken according to the special directions found on every bottle.

OVERCOATS!

THE MOST URGENT BUSINESS A MAN WITHOUT AN OVERCOAT HAS TO-DAY IS TO GET ONE. HE MAY GET IT WHERE HE LIKES.

IF HE COME HERE HE'LL BUY IN LESS TIME, BECAUSE HE KNOWS VERY WELL THAT HE CAN GET HIS MONEY BACK NEXT DAY, OR NEXT WEEK, IF HE WANTS IT.

MAN AND WIFE.

A Woman's Head Split Open at London—Probably Manslaughter.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—What may yet prove to be a case of manslaughter occurred yesterday afternoon, though it was not brought to the notice of the police till this afternoon. In a little log shanty on Pall-Mall street lives a pensioner. He is a labouring man, and drinks pretty hard. Yesterday he got on a bad spree, and went home pretty mad because some hotelkeepers had told him he had had "plenty." Entering the door-way he grabbed an axe, and before his wife, who was leaning over the cradle of their infant child, saw him, he dealt her a terrible blow on the head. The blood flew in all directions, spattering the poor woman's clothing and that of the baby, besides discolouring the floor and walls. Half dazed, the poor woman turned round and shrieked, "save my child!" at the same time staying the hand which was ready for a second blow. "I'll kill the both of you!" shouted the infuriated man. The poor woman was carried into the house and a doctor called in. He found a terrible gash in her head which he dressed. The wound is an exceedingly dangerous one, and it is yet impossible to say how it will result. Owing to the bad condition of the woman's blood, she too being in the habit of drinking, serious results may follow. In the meantime her husband has been remanded to gaol until the 24th instant.

ASHES.

An Extensive Fire at Pictou Warms up $25,000 Worth of Property.

HALIFAX, Nov. 17.—About three o'clock this morning the rear portion of the St. Lawrence hotel at Pictou was discovered to be in flames, and an alarm was sounded, but before the fire could be stayed damage to the amount of $25,000 had been done. It is supposed the fire broke out in the back part of K. J. McKenzie's drug store, or in the kitchen of the hotel. The firemen responded promptly to the alarm, but before water could be brought to bear on the burning building the flames had completely enveloped it, and were rapidly spreading to the Masonic hall and another three-storey wooden building adjoining. They then crossing the narrow lane dividing the house on the east occupied by Mrs. McKenzie as a shop and dwelling, and thence to the meat store of H. Meagher. Here the fire was got under control, but all the buildings mentioned with their contents were reduced to ashes. Some of the inmates of the St. Lawrence hotel had a narrow escape from death. The insurance on the burned property amounted to $15,000—about $10,000 less than its value—in the following offices:—Quebec, $7,000; North British and Mercantile, $2,000; Royal, $2,000; Imperial $1,600; Lancashire, $1,000; Commercial Union, $1,000; Halifax, $600. Of these the Masonic lodge had $1,000 on its hall and contents, Colin McKenzie, $8,400, and K. J. McKenzie, $2,600 on his drugs and shop furniture. Meagher's loss on shop, ice-house, and barn is about $800, and was not insured. The books of the Masonic lodge were saved, but many old and valuable documents were destroyed.

THE DEBATE CLOSED.

MADRID, Nov. 18.—Senor Sagasta closed the debate on the address yesterday with an eloquent speech, which was repeatedly applauded. His references to the assimilation policy in the West Indian provinces, and his appeals to the sectional feeling in Spain on the subject, were recieved with cheers from both sides of the House.

THE REICHSTAG.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—The excitement caused by the Speech from the Throne was great. All kinds of sensational rumours are afloat, including a report that the Emperor had abdicated.

CROSS SPEAKS.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Sir Richard Assheton Cross, Conservative member of Parliament, speaking at Warrington, said the altering of the rules of the house of Commons ought not to be a party question; that if the Government proposals were of a party character then the Opposition was bound to have nothing to do with them.

PAPAL AFFAIRS.

ROME, Nov. 18.—The next consistory will be held on the 18th instant. The Pope will not pronounce an allocution.

THE EGYPTIAN ELECTIONS.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The election for the Egyptian Assembly of Notables passed off quietly. The Arabs manifested little interest. The Premier, Cherif Pasha, has expressed his satisfaction with the result.

FROM THE THRONE.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—The Emperor's speech emphatically points out that social evils are not to be remedied by repression alone, but rather by the concurrent promotion of the welfare of the working classes. The Emperor says he will look back on all his successes with greater satisfaction if he can bequeath to the Fatherland new and lasting guarantees for continuous peace at home and to the necessitous a more secure and generous measure of that assistance to which they have a claim. Referring to foreign affairs the Emperor says the meetings of Gastein and Dantzic were expressions of the close personal and political relations between the sovereigns and their empires. The confidence thus existing between the three imperial courts is a trustworthy guarantee of the peace which is the identical aim of their policy. The Emperor's speech was received by the members with icy coldness. The people are astounded that the Government has taken this mode of declaring what is considered a war to the knife.

LEAGUE EUNDS

DUBLIN, Nov. 18.—Mr. Patrick Egan, Treasurer of the Land League in Paris, received £2,850 last week, practically all from America.

A COURTESY APPRECIATED.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—At a meeting of the Court of Common Council in London, a letter was read from the Secretary to the American Legation, thanking the Government for saluting the United States flag on the occasion of the Lord Mayor's procession. The letter was ordered to be printed in the minutes of the Council.

A BIG ROBBERY.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—A most daring burglary and robbery has just been committed at the Hatton Garden branch post-office, and property valued at sixty thousand pounds has been carried off. No clue to the thieves has yet been obtained. The diamonds stolen in the registered packages, at Hatton Garden, are valued at £80,000. A reward of one thusand pounds is offered.

AMERICAN.

A MURDEROUS CHARACTER.

AUBURN, N. Y. Nov. 18.—Mrs. Devin Searing and Thomas Bonus, of Scipio, had a farm on shares. They quarrelled. Bonus was dismissed yesterday. He met Mrs. Searing on the road and fired two shots at her, one shattering her hand, and the other passing through her head. She is not expected to recover.

LATER.—Thos. Bonus, the man who shot Mrs. Searing yesterday, was found in the woods today with a bullet through his head, having committed suicide.

BURNED TO DEATH.

NORH FERRISBURG, Vt., Nov. 18.—The dwelling house of Laquire was burned here this afternoon, with all its contents. His children, one of five and one two years old, were burned in the building. The mother had left them alone about fifteen minutes before the discovery of the fire.

CORNER STONE LAID.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 18.—The corner stone of the new laboratory of Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., was laid on Wednesday. The building is to be made of stone and will be the largest and most complete of its kind in the United States.

MINING DISTURBANCES.

IRISH AGITATION.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Five more "suspects," imprisoned in the Galway gaol, were released yesterday.

MYSTERIOUS MAN.

PARIS, Nov. 19.—The so-called Durand, who disappeared so mysteriously after he was fired at in the Avenue de l'Opera the other day, has at last come forward. He is not an American, as was supposed, but a Greek who had just arrived in this city. The object of the aggression of the would-be assassin Gauthier is still unknown. He is believed to be a monomaniac. He promises to clear away the mystery at the court of assizes.

AMERICAN.

LOSS ONE MILLION.

VALPARASO, Nov. 19.—The Custom House here has been burned; loss one million dollars.

A WASH OUT.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—At 9 o'clock this morning only one passenger train arrived, instead of fifteen that usually arrive. The heavy rains have washed out the road and inflicted damage on most every road. Railroad communication between St. Louis and Chicago is practically cut off.

RUN ON A BANK.

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—There was great apprehension on State street this morning until after the closing of the banking house meeting, when the announcement that all loans between banks had been promptly paid, and that the rate had not been materially advanced, allayed the general anxiety. There being a heavy run upon the Central National Bank, depositors flocked in when the doors were opened. The bank promptly paid over $450,000 in balances due other banks. The run upon it, however, was steadily maintained. Cheques were cashed as fast as presented up to 10.30, when the paying teller stopped cashing cheques and the directors went into consultotion. At 11.30 the bank resumed payment.

BFFORE THE JURY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The crowd about the Court House is greater than ever. It was found necessary to issue tickets of admission. Guiteau expressed himself as well satisfied with the progress of his case. Scoville said he was not aware that Judge Macgruder had tendered his services. He had received several offers from lawyers, strangers to him, but he feared that he might make a greater mistake by taking a stranger on at this late stage of the trial, than by proceeding alone. He does not expect to have any other assistance than Robinson.

A SOLID PLANK.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The President said to a gentleman on Thursday that he did not intend to have any one appointed to office unless his full record, showing his fitness, was known. On the other hand it was his purpose not to make removals except for cause, and not until the officers interested had received notice of the charges against them, and he had given proper time to make answer to them.

FATAL FESTIVITES.

CINCINNATTI, Ohio, Nov. 19.—Allen Richards, aged fifty, an influental citizen of Greening county, Kentucky, married a widow named Burke. During the wedding festivities Richards and Mrs. Burke's son, aged twenty, drank heavily and quarrelled. Richards shot young Burke fatally. The bride in a rage drove the groom away. Richards was not arrested.

BUILDING OPERATIONS.

CINCINNATTI, Nov. 19.—Five million dollars were spent in erecting new buildings here during the past year. This exceeds the amount expended in any previous year.

A HEBREW COLLEGE.

CINCINNATTI, Nov. 19.—It is proposed to sell 200,000 certificates at five dollars each, the proceeds to be used for endowing a Hebrew Union College, and carrying out a Hebrew agricultural colonization plan.

GENERAL KILPATRICK.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The report that General Kilpatrick is dead, has not been confirmed, but the official advices are that he is very sick and his recovery is doubtful.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Hiccock has arrived. He leads in the race for the speakership.

CHANGE OF OFFICE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Assistant U. S. Treasurer Hill retires from his present position about the 1st of next month to accept the Presidency of a new Trust Company here.

A MISSING SHIP.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The barque Dandiers Moro, which sailed from here for Greece on July 6th has not been heard from since. It is supposed that she has been lost with a crew of twelve.

DELAYED DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Washington specials to the World state there are strong grounds for believing that the cable message at least, if not the despatches of the U. S. Government to their legation in Pern, are detained in passing through the hands of the Chilian authorities. Our only cable communication with Peru passes through Valparaizo, going by way of Europe and Brazil. Cables sent some weeks since have not been recieved at Lima.

A WELL MANAGED CASE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Guiteau has sense enough to appreciate the management of his case in court, which has been manifestly adroit and able.

Daily Evening Review

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1881.

A Toronto firm has just forwarded 107 sets of piano keys and 12,000 feet of basswood to Germany—another evidence of the beneficient effects of the N. P., because had it not been for the manner in which the latter is fostering the manufacture of pianos in Canada, there would by this time have been no piano factory to make and ship these piano keys.

It is stated that Keene, the notorious New York wheat operator, is organizing a company to develop the route for grain to Europe by way of the Mississippi and New Orleans. It is said that he has already secured 61 steamers and 120 barges, and that he is preparing to erect warehouses at convenient points, and that he is confident of being able to transport grain and provisions by this route at rates much below even the present low all-rail rates from the west to Atlantic ports.

The Mercer case has just been decided against the Ontario Government by the Supreme Court. It will be remembered that Mr. Mowat took possession of, and appropriated to Provincial uses, the property of one Andrew Mercer who died intestate and without legal heirs, and that the question of his right to do so had been carried into court. In the Ontario Courts judgment was given in favour of the Province, but these judgments have now been reversed by the Supreme Court by four out of the six judges who form that court. No doubt the case will be carried to the Privy Council, and in the end prove a good fat job for the gentlemen of the long robe who happen to have to do with it, whatever may be the result so far as the Province is concerned. With its usual respect for the Bench, the Globe has an article reflecting on the majority and stating that the dissentients are "by far the ablest and most experienced members of the Court," which is rather hard on Mr. Mackenzie's for some time Minister of Justice, and appointee—Mr. Justice Fournier.

A VOICE FROM THE NORTH.

To the Editor of the Review:

Dear Sir,—Reading your article why we support it, the arguments advanced by you in relation to the advantages Peterborough would derive from connection with the north, by the Victoria railway being amalgamated with the Midland, are cordially endorsed. By present arrangements Peterborough is practically shut off from a large amount of business, which would not only flow to it by reason of its natural position, but from its reputation as a commercial centre and market.

Peterborough does not know what it has lost in the past, or a few of its hard heads, who always oppose one another, would lay down their weapons, look at matters from a business point of view and promote whatever scheme has for its object, the welfare of Peterborough, which in the present case in relation to the north, and the tariff proposed in your article, has the interest of Peterborough at heart.

AN ASSESSMENT QUESTION.

Can the Telegraph Company be Assessed on Income or Personality.

Kingston, Nov. 17.—Yesterday at the Court of Revision an important case was under consideration, that in which the Great North-Western Telegraph Company resisted assessment for income and personality. Mr. James Agnew represented the city: Mr. R. T. Walkem, Q. C., for the company. The latter objected to assessment on income on the following grounds:—(1) That the gross income was taxed and no allowance made for expenses. (2) That it was impossible to ascertain the income without deducting the gains and losses of the whole of the branches; therefore the company could not be assessed for income here. (3) That the company was not assessable for income at all, as the members of it were liable for assessment on shares. After the assessment was made the city gave the company notice that its character would be altered, and that the poles and wires would be taxed as personal property. The defendant's counsel alleges that the poles and wires are real estate, that the statute expressly declared that stockholders shall be assessed upon the income derivable from all these things, and that to assess them would be to take the initial step towards double taxation. An adjournment for a week took place. If the Court of Revision sustains the assessor, it is probable that the case will be taken to the Higher Courts.

DISTRICT INTELLIGENCE

FENELON FALLS.

Wanton Mischief.—The Gazette says that last Sunday night Mr. R. McCallum's wooden boot, which hung as a sign over his shop window, was taken down and broken all to pieces, and other mischievous acts were perpetrated. Perhaps the boys repented of having done so little harm on Hallow E'en, and so went on a second raid through the village.

Fire.—An isolated house near the eastern boundary of the village was destroyed by fire during the night of the 3rd inst. It had been occupied for several months by some women of loose character, who left a day or two before the fire, and the supposition is that the house was burnt to prevent their return. It was owned by Mr. Bradburn of Peterborough, and was not worth much.

Accident.—Mr. Benjamin Smith, of the 1st concession of Somerville, met with a severe accident on Tuesday last. While assisting to put up the frame of a small building on his own farm, one of the joists fell on his head, inflicting a a scalp wound five inches long. Fortunately his skull was uninjured, and under the care of Dr. Wilson, who was promptly sent for, he is doing well.

BELLEVILLE.

Caught at Last.—Several times during the past few months reports have reached the police of men exposing their persons to women in different parts of the city. It was suspected that the offence was committed by one man only, as the different descriptions of him resembled each other. The police have been on the alert for the culprit, but hitherto they have been unable to catch him. On Wednesday evening, however, about 5 o'clock, a young woman named Mrs. McCutcheon came to the police station and informed Sergt. Downs, who was alone in in the station, that a man had just insulted her near St. Thomas' Church by exposing his person. Sergt. Downs, at once hurried to the spot, accompanied by Mrs. McCutcheon. The man was still standing there, and the young woman identified him. As soon as he saw the officer he beat a hasty retreat, and led the sergeant a long chase. But he was finally captured and led down to the police station. His name is Cronk, and he is well known to the police as a man of decidedly thieving propensities. He has served a long term in the Central Prison, and has been tried here for pocket-picking. Mrs. McCutcheon says that she recognized Conk as the same man who insulted her in a similar manner several weeks ago. He is a broom-maker by trade, and it is said he has a wife living in town.

Narrow Escape.—A young man named Ben O'Connell had a very narrow escape from drowning on Wednesday evening. He was going from the city to Ox Point in a small ducking skiff, but he had hardly got out of the harbor, and was just off the G. T. R. dock, when the frail craft capsized. O'Connell climbed onto the bottom and clung there. It was growing dark at the time, and he was not noticed by the men working on shore until after a lapse of fully 20 minutes, when his cries were heard, and three men took a schooner's yawl and rowed out to him. When they reached him he was lying prostrate across the bottom of the boat, and was so exhausted that he could hardly move or speak. He was brought to shore and taken to his home near Bleecker's mill, where he was properly attended to.

LINDSAY.

Central Exhibition.—The Warder says the executive committee of the Central Exhibition met in the council chamber here on Friday afternoon last. Members present—John Connolly, Chairman, Col. Deacon secretary, Messrs. Berry, Beatty, Reid, Scully, Mark, Reeder, Potter, Westington, Isaacs and Winter. A committee composed of Messrs. Connolly Reeder and Scully was appointed to investigate Mr. Reid's protest against the judges' award in giving a prize to Mr. McLean for wheat shown by him. Except in the case of Mr. Dixon of Balsover, who showed fall wheat, no prizes were allowed for extra entries. Several errors of the judges were rectified. In crewel work Mrs. E. Flood was awarded second prize. The entry was No. 2 in its class, and the ticket was placed on her article by the judges, but they put the prize down to No. 21. There being no such entry, the committee were unanimous in the opinion that the prize belonged to Mrs. Flood. A two-year-old bull of David Corneil's was entered in the wrong class, but was entitled to the prize in the class in which it was shown. The thanks of the committee and $50 were unanimously voted to the president. The financial statement exhibited a deficiency of about $375, which will of course, come out of the guarantee fund. Messrs. Carnegie, Beatty and Winter were appointed a committee to receive the auditors' report. An effort is to be made to induce East Peterborough and East Northumberland to join in the next central, which is to be held in Cobourg.

Delegates Selected.—As previously announced, a meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Association was held in the town hall on Wednesday last, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the convention to be held in Toronto on the 22nd inst. Mr. John Dobson, president of the association, occupied the chair, and Mr. F. D. Moore, secretary, acted in his official capacity. The Young Men's Conservative Association was represented on the platform by its president, Mr. E. D. Orde. The following delegates were appointed from Lindsay—A. Hudspeth, J. W. Wallace, A. Wright, John Dobson, E. D. Orde, Isaac Rea, S. Irwin, W. L. Russell, E. Flood, John Kennedy, F. D. Moore, J. B. Smith, E. Veitch, Dr. Coulter, Jos. Cooper, J. R. Dundas, Dr. DeGrassi, J. W. Diament, Thos. Matchett, John McSweyne, A. Parkin, Geo. Matthews, George Ingle, Alex. Wray, James L. Winters, and R. Leary.

DEATH ON THE RAIL.

Brakeman Thomas Alexander Killed on the Kingston and Pembroke Railway.

Kingston, Nov. 14.—The first accident by which a train hand on the Kingston and Pembroke Railway met his death occurred this morning about one o'clock at the Montreal road crossing. The poor fellow who was killed was Thomas Alexander, a recent arrival from Ireland, and who had but a day or so ago secured the position of brakeman on the train. He was passing from one car to an other as the train was about stopping, when he fell, and the wheels of three cars passed over him, killing him instantly. His head was cut off in a second after his falling. His left arm was broken and mangled, as were also his legs, the left one being frightfully crushed. He was only dragged a few feet, as the train was moving very slowly when the accident occurred, so slowly in fact that the conductor stepped off as the lantern which Alexander was seen carrying fell. The remains was gathered up by Mr. Ronan, undertaker, who will have them interred. The unfortunate man was aged about 25 years, and was a nephew of Mr. Henry Coyle, cabman.

THE EAST SAGINAW EXPLOSION.

The Four Victims all Natives of the Province of Quebec—Fearful Injuries.

East Saginaw, Mich., Nov. 16.—The four men killed by the explosion of the boiler at Hamilton, McLure & Co.'s mill, on the morning of the 13th inst., were all Canadians.

Frank Blanchard, assistant fireman, was a resident of St. Onezime, Quebec., where his mother now lives. He was 34 years old, and was unmarried. A sister resides at Windsor Mills, Quebec, and a brother at Cheboygan, this State.

Charles Carpenter acted as a fireman on the night of the explosion. He was a single man, 27 years of age, and came from Quebec, where his mother and father now live. He has a brother at Cheboygan.

Michael Lebeau, in charge of the boilers, and known as the head fireman on the night run, was considered a careful and competent man, well qualified for the responsible position he filled. He was 38 years of age, a widower, and leaves a family of two little boys, aged four and eight years. He had been employed about the mill for two years before which time he resided at Montreal. His home was in Milwaukee, where his widowed mother kept house for him.

Joseph Lebeau was a young man aged 23 years, unmarried, who made his home at Milwaukee, at the house of his brother Michael. He also came from Montreal, and had been at work about the mill for two years, and at the time of his death acted in the capacity of fireman. Another brother of the two men, Louis Lebeau, lives with his family at Milwaukee, and a brother and sister still live in Montreal.

The body of Blanchard was not found until 1 o'clock on the afternoon of Monday, and then it was discovered on the logs in the mill boom, having been thrown a distance of over 200 feet. It was almost naked, the eyes were knocked out and the skull so crushed that the brains oozed out. A leg and arm were broken and the body scalded and bruised.

Michael Lebeau was thrown about 25 feet, and was found in a corner of the fire room, between the fire-room and the mill, his body wound around a post or girder. He was buried beneath an immense mass of debris, from the weight of which he was protected in some degree by the post against which he was found. His moans were heard as soon as the terrible shock of the explosion had called his terrified comrades to the scene; but although willing hands at once set about the task of releasing him it was over an hour before his dead body was removed. He was terribly scalded and burned, and both legs were broken below the knee.

Joseph Lebeau and Carpenter were found ten or fifteen feet south of the boiler house. Both were terribly scalded; with the exception of shreds of their shirts their bodies were entirely nude, the clothing having been stripped off them. Carpenter's legs and feet were shattered and his body badly bruised. Joseph Lebeau's right arm was broken, and his right shoulder crushed. His abdomen was also smashed in, and his body otherwise bruised and blackened. both were dead when found.

People are Beginning to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa-Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

A World of Good.—One of the most popular medicines now before the American public is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters, as it is not a whiskey drink. It is more like the old fashioned bone set tea that has done a world of good, If you don't feel just right try Hop Bitters.—Nunda News.

Do Not be Deceived.—In these times of quack medicine everywhere, it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise, and which really does as recommended. Electric Bitters we can vouch for as being a true and reliable remedy, and one that will do as recommended. They invariably cure Stomach and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary difficulties. We know whereof we speak, and can readily say, give them a trial. Sold at 50 cents a bottle, by Taylor & Macdonald.—3.

WM. LECH'S CAUTION!

To Buyers of Furs! Furs!

TWENTY-ONE YEARS OF UNBROKEN SUCCESS in business is the most fitting reply to Mr. Fairweather's war cry. The selling of Bankrupt Stock by the latter is surely not the best recommendation of Goods fresh every season, and this lie comes back to his own door by the advertisement of Delaney's Furs for the SECOND season. And still his Furs are fresh! How refreshing to know this! How moth-eaten they may be, I cannot say. Nor is the "bankrupt" cry confined to Furs—bankrupt stock all over is no doubt a good recommendation for fresh goods every season! Contrary to expectation, considering the mild season, I have orders on hand for the next three weeks in Persian Lamb, Bocharen, Astrachan and South Sea Seal Jackets, so that repairing of Furs is suspended.

I INVITE MR. FAIRWEATHER and the public cordially for the inspection of my stock; which in Jackets is hardly possible to keep up to the demand. A trip to Europe in the coming Spring is almost a necessity for buying New Stock at the Leipzig Fair.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Tender for Work in British Columbia.

SEALED TENDERS will be received by the undersigned up to NOON on WEDNESDAY, the 1st day of FEBRUARY next, in a lump sum, for the construction of that portion of the road between Port Moody and the West end of Contract 60, near Emory's Bar, a distance of about 85 miles.

Specifications, conditions of contract and forms of tender may be obtained on application at the Canadian Pacific Railway Office, in New Westminister, and at the Chief Engineer's Office at Ottawa, after 1st January next, at which time plans and profiles will be open for inspection at the latter office.

This timely notice is given with a view to giving Contractors an opportunity of visiting and examining the grounds during the fine season and before the winter sets in.

Mr. Marcus Smith, who is in charge at the office at New Westminister, is instructed to give Contractors all the information in his power.

READING FOR SUNDAY.

TENNYSON'S "DESPAIR."

Alfred Tennyson publishes a dramatic monologue, entitled "Despair," in the current number of the Nineteenth Century. It is the story of a man and wife, who, having lost faith in a future life, resolve to commit suicide by drowning. The woman is drowned, but the man is rescued by the minister of the church he has abandoned. Mr. Tennyson exemplifies the misery of a man without hope, without belief, and without the capacity of enjoying the only life of whose existence he can feel sure. The whole poem is addressed by the man snatched from death to his unwelcome friend in apparent need. The following are quotations from this poem :—

Is it you that preached in the chapel there, looking over the sand,
Followed us, too, that night, and dogged us and drew us to the land?
What did I feel that night? You are curious: How should I tell?
Does it matter so much what I felt? You rescued me, yet was it well
That you came unwished for, uncalled for, between me and the deep and my doom?
Three days since, three more dark days of the godless gloom
Of a light without sun, without health, without hope, without any delight,
Can anything here upon earth—but ah! God! that night, that night,
When the rolling eyes of the lighthouse there on the fatal neck
Of land running out into rock they have saved many hundreds from wreck,
Glared on our way toward death, I remembered, I thought as we passed:
Does it matter how many the saved! We are all of us wrecked at last.
Do you fear?—and there came through the roar of the breakers, a whisper, a breath.
Fear? Am I not with you? I am frightened of life, not death,
And the suns of the limitless universe sparkled and shone in the sky,
Flashing with fires as of God, but we know that their light was a lie.
Lightly step over the sands, the waters you hear them call,
Life, with its anguish and sorrow and errors, away with it all.
And she laid her hand in my own, she was always loyal and sweet,
Till the points of the foam in the dusk came playing about our feet.
There was a strong sea current, would sweep us out to the main;
Ah, God! tho' I felt as I spoke I was taking the name in vain.
Ah, God! and we turned to each other we kiss'd, we embraced, she and I,
Knowing the love we were used to believe everlasting would die.
We had read their know-nothing books and we leaned to the darker side;
Ah, God! should we find him on earth: this earth is a fatherless hell,
Dear love, forever and ever, forever and ever, farewell!
Never a cry so desolate, not since the world began:
Never a kiss so sad—no, not since the coming of man;
But the blind wave cast me ashore, and you saved me, a valueless life;
Not a grain of gratitude mine, you have parted the man from the wife.
I am left alone on the land, she is alone on the sea;
If a curse meant aught, I would curse you for not having let me be.
Have I crazed myself over their horrible infidel writings? oh, yes!
For these are the new dark ages, you see, of the infidel press.
When the bat comes out of his cave and the owls are whooping at the noon,
And doubt is the lord of this dunghill and crows to the sun and the moon,
Till the sun and the moon of our signs are both of them turned into blood,
And hope will have broken her heart running after a shadow of good.
For their knowing and know-nothing books are scattered from hand to hand;
We have knelt in your know-all chapel, too, looking over the sand;
Ah! yet I have had some glimmer, at times, in my gloomiest woe,
Of a God behind all, after all—the great God for aught that I know.

OUR YOUNG MEN.

From the Christian Guardian.

This week is devoted to special prayer and work for young men. Every pastor will see the fitness of this, for he is constantly confronted with the question: How can we reach the young men? The indifference manifested by the vast majority of this class is sufficient cause for solicitous alarm. Comparatively few of our yonng people, young men especially, are being converted. Thousands scarcely ever enter a place of worship, especially in our cities, and very few are actively engaged in Christian work. Many boys leave our Sunday-schools as soon as they grow into manhood, and gradually drift off from all Church relation. Many others remain with us, as regular attendants upon our public worship, moral and respectable, but worldly and spiritually indifferent. The vigorous and aggressive efforts of skepticism in its many forms are doubtless effecting some. The popular skepticism of the day, assailing some of the most important truths of revelation, is not coarse and vicious, and is often as fascinating as it is delusive. Many are being deceived by it. The speculative spirit of the age, the eagerness for wealth without giving the equivalent in hard, honest toil, is absorbing the attention of more. The amusements of society that are usually attended with excesses, and against which Methodism, as well as other branches of the Christian Church, has spoken, are sapping the moral life of others. The extensive reading of trashy, sensational literature, by which the mind and heart are polluted and unfitted for the reception of the truth, is also producing incalculable mischief. These are some of the causes of the lamentable indifference to religion shown by our young people. We need not mention the grosser vices of licentiousness and intemperance by which so many are blasted.

We often endeavor to save our young people by striking at these evil causes, and fail because we do not strike low enough. Whatever may be their origin these evils are supported by the unfaithfulness of professed Christians. The doubts that trouble our young men concerning the Christian verities, are made doubly forcible from the fact that so many Christians give the lie to their professed belief in them by their indifferent lives. If the skeptical assaults could always be met by practical manifestations of the truth of religion in the lives of Church members, very few would be injured by them; but the unreliableness, the selfishness, the unkindness, and the spiritual indifference of many, some of whom hold official positions, give color to the assertions of the detractors of Christianity. The increasing indulgence in those associations and amusements which are spiritually injurious is owing largely to the indifference and worldiness of professed Christians. We know young men, once active members of the Church, who have lost their spirituality through indulging in these amusements in Christian homes, and now are confessedly backslidden and worldly. If the Church were more faithful, more devoted to God, this evil thing would not be tolerated. The question of amusements gives little trouble where there is vigorous spiritual life. Amusement, rational recreation, is necessary and should be provided for our young people. They want amusement and we make a great mistake when we endeavor to repress this want and try to put old heads on young shoulders. They will have recreation, and if it is not found under Christian auspices they will seek it elsewhere. It must be provided; but it should not be such as will develop worldliness and unfit for religious duties. Everything depends upon the spirit that pervades the gathering—that imperceptible but potent influence for good or evil that springs from the spiritual condition of the ruling minds—decides the moral character of the entertainment. But many Christian people are too worldly, and their example encourages the same spirit in the young.

If we are ever to reach the young men of our churches there must be greater devotion to God. Parents must carry their religious principles into daily practice in the home. Their lives must be a standing evidence of the power and value of religion. Nothing can compensate for the loss of parental example and instruction. The memory of the piety of his godly parents is a sheet anchor to a young man when assailed by skepticism.

FROM ALL OVER.

THE Princess Louise will accompany the Marquis of Lorne on his return to Canada five weeks hence. The Marquis will resign the Governor-Generalship early in 1882.

MOREAU, the condemned wife murderer at Rimouski, still clings to the hope of a commutation of his death sentence. He is, however, very attentive to the adminstration of his spiritual adviser.

THE Toledo manager of the Standard Oil Co. No. 5 Merchants' Bank, Toledo, Ohio, sprained the muscels of his right leg very severely. St. Jacobs Oil was used and quickly cured him, greatly to his pleasure.

LOUIS ETUE, convict in the penitentiary, was arrai n d on Wednesday at Montreal for a robbery committed after he made his escape from prison, and was sentenced to two years' additional imprisonment.

MR. PUGSLEY, barrister, St. John, N. B. has on behalf of himself and other associates purchased several thousand acres of land from the Syndicate in the Souris district, to locate a New Brunswick colony.

ACID STOMACH, HEADACHE, HEARTBURN AND INDIGESTION are quickly cured by using Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. Bathing the head freely in Pain-Killer will usually relieve the most severe attacks of headache.

GEO. JAMES, of St. John, N. B., second mate of the barque Towood, and four of the crew were drowned while the vessel was on a voyage from Belfast to New York. They perished in endeavoring to rescue the crew of a sinking vessel.

BY a vote of seventy-one to thirteen, the Legislature adopted articles of impeachment against St. Julien Cox, of the Minnesota Judicial Circuit. The articles contain eighteen charges of drunkenness upon the Bench, and charges of frequenting houses of bad repute.

Gray spent seven years in perfecting his "Elegy," but the time required to get a box of Esterbrook's Steel Pens is just long enough to send to the nearest stationer. Wholesale by Brown Bros., Toronto.

TWENTY-FIVE farms in county Tipperary have been sold by the sheriff, and eighteen of the tenants, who were well able to buy in, permitted the Emergency Committee to purchase the farms at low prices.

THE remains of Archbishop McHale were interred on Wednesday in Tuam Cathedral. Two hundred priests, several bishops, and E. Dwyer Gray and T. D. Sullivan, members of Parliament, were present at the funeral.

THEY were walking by the seaside when he sighed and she sighed; and she was by his side he by her side, and they were beside themselves, beside being at the seaside, when she sighed and he sighed.

THE JAPANESE carry their tooth-picks in their back hair, and always use them after eating anything. They take care of their teeth, and the teeth take care of their stomachs. Use tooth-picks freely, clean with Sozodont, and bad teeth and breaths will be scarce.

A CHANGE has taken place in the Manitoba Cabinet. Mr. Goulette having resigned the portfolio of Agriculture, his place is taken by the Hon. Mr. Girard, who, in turn, is succeeded in the Provincial Secretaryship by Mr. Lariviere, member for St. Boniface.

THE Right Rev. Dr. Cleary preformed his first marriage ceremony at Kingston on Wednesday, the high contracting parties being Dr. Neilson, surgeon of B Battery, and Miss Ridout, eldest daughter of Major Ridout, late Staff Adjutant of the Royal Military College.

It is a happily established fact that Fellow's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites will retard vital consumption, increase involuntary muscular power and thereby harden the organs, promote vitality and facilitate restoration. It consequently possesses the wonderful property of prolonging human life.

ON the 27th of October Queen Victoria's reign reached 44 years and 127 days, the full period of that of that predecessor, Queen Elizabeth. The present reign is the longest of all the English sovereigns except three, viz: Henry III., Edward III. and George III.

THE investigation of the intermediate examnation frauds was resumed at Owen Sound on Wednesday, when evidence was given seriously inculpating the School Inspector for West Grey, who was severely reprimanded by the commissioner.

THE magristrate at Kingston after hearing evidence pro. and con. against Barney for purchasing Government goods, dismissed the case, and warned second hand dealers of the serious punishment they would receive were they to purchase such goods in future.

A CORPORATION workman named Hickson, while digging a drain on Cooper-street, Ottawa, was almost buried alive by the caving in of a bank. He was buried almost up to the ears. A little boy of Sir Leonard Tilley witnessed the accident and gave the alarm.

FREE OF CHARGE.—All persons suffering from Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Loss of Voice, or any other affection of the Throat or Lungs, are requested to call at Taylor & Macdonald's Drug Store and get a trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, free of charge, which will convince them of its wonderful merits and show what a regular sized bottle will do. Call early.—3.

FOR DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

ON the night of Wednesday the store of Ford & Murphy was entered by burglars and a safe blown open. It contained no money and the paper were not disturbed. Another safe in which was a large sum of money, stood in the private office, but this was not noticed by the thieves. A number of ladies' shawls were taken from the shelves and placed around the safe to deaden the noise of the explosion. These were all so badly burned that they are worthless. The shop was entered by bursting open the front door with a crowbar. The same night the office of Jas. Sills, lumber merchant, was also entered and the safe similarly opened. Here the burglars received $10 for their trouble. That they were experts is evident from the systematic manner in which they went about their work. There is no clue whatever to the thieves.

ZOPESA.

(FROM BRAZIL.)

The New Compound, its wonderful affinity to the Digestive Apparatus and the Liver, increasing the dissolving juices, relieving almost instantly the dreadful results of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and the TORPID LIVER, makes Zopesa an every day necessity in every house.

It acts gently and speedily in Biliousness, Costiveness, Headache, Sick Headache, Distress after Eating, Wind on the Stomach, Heartburn, Pains in the Side and Back, Want of Appetite, Want of Energy, Low Spirits, Foul Stomach. It invigorates the Liver, carries off all surplus bile, regulates the Bowels, and gives tone to the whole system.

Cut this out and take it to your Druggist and get a 10 cent Sample, or a large bottle for 75 cents, and tell your neighbor about it.

CAUTION
TO THE PUBLIC.

To Buyers of Furs! Furs!

Buyers of Furs, Astrachan Jackets, Fancy Sleigh and Buffalo Robes, Mink Sets and Furs of all kinds, ARE HEREBY CAUTIONED not to be deceived by the statements that all other dealers of Furs, except themselves, are not capable of furnishing the public with First Class, Genuine and Reliable Furs, and because the general trade do not exact extortionate prices, that the goods cannot be equal in value. WE CAUTION THE PUBLIC NOT TO BE DECEIVED by such INSINUATIONS, that Astrachan Jackets, if not bought from themselves, are so bad that by "the mere shaking off of snow they have been known to fall to pieces." Such might be the case where Jackets are bought in places where they make up old skins from one year to another, when the same skins are almost incapable of being any longer remodelled and made up. It's no wonder such Furs would fall to pieces by the shaking off of snow, or even the touch of the hand. The public are never wrong in buying from respectable dealers, who sell out their stock at the end of every season and supply themselves with New Fresh Goods at the commencement, and who are willing to sell at a fair remunerative profit, without charging extortionately.

We offer to the public this season A FRESH NEW STOCK, bought in the Best Markets, from reliable manufacturers, a SPLENDID ASSORTMENT of Ladies' Astrachan Jackets, Ladies' Fur Muffs and Boas of Various Linds, Gents' Fur Coats, Fancy Sleigh and Buffalo Robes, all New, bought this Season.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—An EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it is seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalcule which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Improvement in Flour.

We are always the better off for the enterprise and thoroughness of our business men. In the important matter of flour, Mr. George C. Rogers, of Rogers' mills, Ashburnham, has shown himself to be a thorough and painstaking manufacturer. Quite recently he has had the interior of his mill turned up-side down in making extensive improvements in the machinery, and process of flour-making, of which we may speak more fully another time. The result of his improvements has been that he is now turning out flour equal to the celebrated makers, Messrs. Rathbun & Son, of Deseronto. Bread or pastry made from Mr. Rogers' flour tastes far sweeter than from the ordinary flour, and a lady informs us that a less quantity of this flour makes a larger and whiter loaf, with more solid nourishment in it.

An Old Friend.

An Ottawa despatch says that Mr. Romaine, of the Parliamentary Stationary Department, who recently went to Motreal to inspect a quantity of Government stationary supposed to have been damaged by salt water in transit across the Atlantic in the steamer Grecian, has returnned, and reports the damage much less than was expected. Only 14 cases out of 27 were wet at all, and as they are tin lined it is supposed that the contents have received but slight damage. The packages arrived at Ottawa on Friday and the contents will be examined by experts in the interests of the underwriters.

Off the Rails.

On Friday afternoon the regular Grand Junction train met with a mishap near the Ashburnham station. The engineer was preparing to stop, and while proceeding at the rate of about four miles an hour, three flat cars loaded with lumber, the coach and smoking car, left the track. The trucks of two or three of the cars were rather broken up, but [illegible] no harm was done. After some hours' work the cars were got on again. The accident was caused by the expansion of the rails.

Foreign Honors.

The Port Hope Guide says that among the distinctions conferred during the recent marriage of the Crown Princess of Baden, granddaughter of the Emperor of Germany, to the Crown Prince of Sweden, was the order of Knighthood of the Zachringen Lion, bestowed upon Baron Henry Von Hugel, of Darmstadt, brother of Mr. A. Hugel, of this town.

Successful.

We are pleased to announce that three more of our young men have been successful in passing examinations in law, on Friday Mr. E. A. Peck for Barrister and Solicitor of the Supreme Court, and Messrs. F. A. Hilton and H. B. Weller for Barristers. We extend our congratulations.

The Market.

The rule requiring women with baskets to go upstairs over the market-house, worked first-rate to-day, and should be carried out every Saturday, but at the same time the charges suggested at the last Council, are necessary and should be made at once.

G. J. R.

The Intelligencer says that Mr. Hay, engineer, of Peterborough, has been engaged on Thursday and Friday, in making a thorough examination of the two new routes through the city which have been proposed for the Grand Junction Railway.

The Toronto and Ottawa.

A Madoc despatch of Friday says that Mr. W. C. Nunn is here paying the contractors and staff of the Toronto & Ottawa Railway. Work is progressing favourably on this road, but a large number of men are still wanted.

The Stammerer's Friend.

All persons afflicted with stammering or any other difficulty of speech will be glad to learn that Professor Grady will be at the Caisse House, Peterborough, on Monday the 21st inst. Consultation free.

Wet Saturdays.

This is the tenth wet Saturday that we have had in succession, but it is a decided improvement on its predecessors. The rain to-day was more like snow than rain.

A HORRIBLE CRIME

A Girl, Aged Seven Years, Outraged by a Married Man at Campbellford.

On Thursday last there occurred at Campbellford one of the most brutal outrages that has ever disgraced this portion of the Province. The victim was a child named Emma Bennett, aged seven years, and the fiend in human shape, a married man, aged 48 years, named "Sandy" Tyner alias Thomas Johnston. The deed was committed within the village limits, and the details are so disgusting in character, as to be unfit for publication, suffice it to say that the man was quickly arrested and tried.

The brute was taken through here on Friday night, having been committed to Cobourg gaol by some local magistrates. He was manacled and handcuffed, so that it was with great difficulty that he could move either hands or feet. He was in charge of a county constable and had been brought up on the Grand Junction, and was taken to his destination by the Midland and Grand Trunk.

Two representatives of the REVIEW happened to be at the Midland station when the train arrived, and during a conversation with the constable and prisoner, the foregoing facts were elicited. The prisoner, who by the way, claims to belong to Belleville, is a large stout man, and about the most brutish looking individual that we ever set eyes on. He admitted the commission of the crime and said he was under the influence of liquor at the time, and did not know what he was doing. He sat in the car with his head down, as though he was afraid to show his ugly looking face.

Such crimes as this are almost unknown in this vicinity, although we are sorry to see that they are so prevalent in other neighborhoods, and it is to be hoped that the judges will use all the power that is vested in them to stop such brutish work at once and for all time.

Direct from Germany.

Germany has been asked to contribute her share of fancy goods for Austin's great sale, and has responded handsomely. In fact, Germany has "come down handsomely" in her prices for this special sale, and thrown off fully half the usual price to Austin in some of the most attractive goods that have ever come out of the Faderland. Just step in to the store during the day or evening and take a note of the prices in a few of the leading lines, such as Berlin Wools, Vases, Picture Frames, Looking Glasses Cruets and Silver Plated Ware, and if you don't get a genuine surprise you will surrender unconditionally.

Baths! Baths! Baths!

Just what was wanted in Peterborough! Mr. I. Guerin has started hot and cold water baths in his new barber shop on Simcoe street, a few doors west of Fairweather's corner, and deserves the credit of the public for supplying this health-preserving luxury. He should be well patronized, as he is determined to keep everything clean, warm and comfortable. Flesh brushes, sponges, towels and every convenience necessary. 120

Special Notice.

Dry Goods to be slaughtered for the next thirty days, as I have determined to retire from the business. I will commence to-morrow morning and sell all goods at cost, some lines a dood deal less. I want every customer to distinctly understand that this is no humbug. I must clear all the goods out before the 15th of December. Remember the place, opposit the town clock. Respectfully yours, JAMES DOLAN.

ORANGE YOUNG BRITONS

A Protest Against the Recent Action of the Grand Lodge—Secession of a Lodge.

Ottawa, Nov. 17.—A meeting of the Orange Young Britons was held last night. Members of the lodges in turn expressed regret for and disapproval of the action taken by the Grand Lodge in seceding from the Orange Association and changing the Society's name to that of the Young Mens' Protestant Benevolent Association. A vote of indignation was also passed at the manner in which the brethern of this city had been ignored in the said Grand Lodge in not being notified of the meeting and therefore they had no representation or voice in the proceedings of the late session. After this state of affairs had been fully discussed a motion for seceeding from the Grand Lodge was put and carried unamiously. This new Association will be known by the old name of Orange Young Britons. New passwords, signs, and etc., were given to the brethern, and a Committee of six appointed to draft a new constitution and make other necessary alterations, and to report at the next regular meeting. The same officers as in the old Association will retain their positions until next month, when a general election of officers will take place. Circulars are to be sent out to different lodges in the Dominion which are dissatified with the action of the Grand Lodge, asking their cooperation. A Grand Lodge meet- of this new Association will be called as early as possible

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The report of Lieutenant Berry has been received at the Navy Department. It is accompanied by a map of Wrangel Island, with the course of the boats around it and the shore lines marked out. From Lieutenant Berry's map Wrangel Island appears to be about 60 miles long by 20 wide. Its southern boundary, lying along the seventy-first parallel, and its greatest dimensions being east and west. The shape of the island is almost that of a parallelegram with the corners rounded off. Licut Berry refers to a previous report sent by him on the 14th September, but it has never reached the department. It is supposed that in this previous report the explorations were detailed which resulted in determining Wrangel Land to be an island.

GLENCOE.

Special to the Review, Nov. 19.

A MOLT COWARDLY and uncalled for assault was committed here this morning on a Wm. Sutherland, of Transcrip, a harmless poem was published in the Transcript, by some of the village boys, which he appears to have taken to himself, and as he appears to be no lover of fun watched his chance until this morning, and pounced upon the young printer without a moment's warning. The result was that Sutherland had to pay a fine of two dollars and costs, amounting in all to five dollars and seventy cents.

OWEN SOUND.

Special to the Review, Nov. 19.

A MEETING of the Reform electors of Owen Sound was held in their committee rooms last evening. There was a large attendance of electors and much interest was manifested. The party appeared to be harmonious in the conduct of business, which was chiefly appointing delegates for town to attend the general Convention on the 27th inst. The Convention then convened will proceed to nominate candidates for both Dominion and Ontario Legislatures. The Reformers in this riding seem confident that the general election will follow the present session of parliament, and are preparing to meet the earliest demand for a contest.

OTTAWA.

Special to the Review, Nov. 16.

AT A MEETING of the second Mutual Building Society, a report was presented showing that the shares were worth $136, having advanced five per cent. during the past six months.

IT IS THOUGHT that the following ministers of the crown will attend the Toronto Convention, Sir Hector Langevin, Sir Alex. Campbell, Hon. Mr. Mousseau, Senator Caron, Senator McLelan, and Hon. Mr. Bowell. Sir Leonard Tilley will probably return from Washington via Toronto in time for the banquet.

A MEETING of the Railway Committee of the city council was held yesterday afternoon, when several communications were received from parties who were willing to sell their land for a location for the Canadian Pacific railway work shops. It is understood that the committee will bring a report before the council on Monday night, advising the calling a public meeting to consider the advisability of granting either $200,000 or $250,000, or any other amount to induce the company to locate their work shops within the corporation limits, and leaving the company free to select its own site.

TORONTO.

Special to the Review, Nov. 19

SIR JOHN A. MACDONALD arrived at 11.45, this morning and was welcomed by a committee and the general public at the station. He was driven to the residence of the Hon. D. L. Macpherson, where he and his lady will remain during their stay. The tickets for Delegates were issued at noon.

TRICKETT MAY LOCATE here permanently. He like Toronto better than any other city outside of Australia. Last night a few admirers presented him with a purse of $125. His honorable bearing is generally commented upon.

THE GOVERNMENT INSPECTOR is visiting factories. He finds the regulations of the Act strictly completed with.

AT THE CONFERENCE of laymen and clergymen yesterday, opinion was divided as to what should be done to mitigate the social evil. One party strongly favoured license.

THE VITAL STATISTICS for last week were 32 births, 11 marriages and 18 deaths, two being from alcoholism.

ALD. BLEVINS at the contract investigation to-day expressed a trustful confidence in the officials.

PLEURISY.—This is frequently a most disastrous complaint. It manifests itself in inflammation of the pleura, or membrane that surrounds the lungs. If neglected, should the patient recover even, its effects are sometimes felt ever after. Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills are the remedy.

GENERAL DEBILITY.—This convenient term includes numerous ill-defined and supposed incurable forms of disease, accompanied by general lassitude and exhaustion, without any ascertainable external or internal causes. The Peruvian Syrup sends its renovating influence to the utmost recesses of the system, and has relieved in our community many cases of supposed incurable disease. Sold by dealers generally.

HUMBUGGED AGAIN.—I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife who was always doctoring, and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some I concluded to be humbugged again; and I am glad I did, for in less than two months' use of the Bitters my wife was cured and has remained so for eighteen months since. I like such humbugging.—H. T., St. Paul.—Pioneer Press.

VIVISECTION.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The charge against Prof. Terrier, for the contravention of the Vivisection Act, has broken down. It was proved that although the two monkeys that were the cause of the action belonged to Terrier, he did not perform the experiment. He only pinched one of the monkeys, which could not be very well regarded as an act of cruelty.

THE DIAMOND ROBBERY.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Although the amount of the diamond robbery at Hatton Garden was verp much exaggerated, it caused, nevertheless, consternation in commercial circles, where the registered letter system has been considered perfectly safe. The post-office was in charge of three young women, and it is thought that the robbery will lead to women being less trusted as sole managers of post-offices.

ANTI-LEAGUE MEETING.

DUBLIN, Nov. 19.—A large meeting of magistrates, landowners, tenants, and traders at Roscrea, county Tipperary, yesterday passed resolutions supporting the Government policy in surpressing the Land League, expressing loyalty to the Queen and constitution, thanking the constabulary for their conduct during the late crisis. The meeting formed a society for mutual protection against boycotting.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—After all Mrs. Langtry is to appear on the stage. On the authority of Mr. Charles Harris, the Cuckoo says that the lady has determined to appear on the boards. A CONSERVATIVE VICTORY.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The result of the election at Stafford for a member of Parliament caused great astonishment. The Conservative election is attributed mainly to the Irish vote.

ANOTHER MURDER.

DUBLIN, Nov. 21.—Miss Gafford, the holder of two small farms, was found dead in her bed ar Wexford yesterday. It is thought that she was murdered.

DRESSING THE REVIVALISTS.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The Bishop of Manchester at Oldham yesterday, after referring to the lecture of Moody and Sankey, added that he feared that the effect of the startling excitement passed away as rapidly as it was produced. While tens of thousands rushed to hear Moody and Sankey at Manchester, he said they must not suppose because a man could cry "glory, hallelujah," that he was saved.

A BAD OUTLOOK.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—A Dublin correspondent says that the most sanguine prophet of peace and order must be sadly disappointed at the present state of things and the prospects for the winter. Outrages are breaking out again, which it is feared are only the beginning of a series of crimes.

FIVE PERSONS KILLED.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—An explosion occurred at Celery near Hantriff, by which five persons were killed.

THE EX-EMPRESS EUGENIE.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The ex-Empress Eugenie is adding eighteen rooms to her new residence at Farnborough. There is to be a room filled with relics of Prince Louis, and fitted up exactly the same as the one occupied by him at Camden Place. The idea seems to have been taken from the dressing-room of the Prince Consort at Balmoral, which remains the same as when he was alive. His hat and gloves are on the table, and an effigy of him is also on the table.

KIDNAPPED CHILDREN.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 21.—A French and Arab acrobatic troupe is preforming here in which are twelve English children virtually slaves and horribly ill-treated. It is understood that the British consul-general has been ordered to recover possession of the children. The English acrobatic children, held in a condition of slavery, have been set free by the British consul-general, acting in the capacity of consular judge.

AMERICAN.

KILLED WHILE DESERTING.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 21.—A marine, partly intoxicated, while attempting to escape from the Gosport navy yard yesterday, by scaling a wall, was killed with a bayonet by the sentinel.

TREASURY CHANGES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Tribune's Washington special says that several important changes will soon be made in the Treasury. Some high officials will be relieved and others will be transferred to other Bureaus.

WHAT GUITEAU SAYS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Guiteau is reported as having said yesterday:—"The doctors killed the President, and I intend they shall share with me in the taking of his life. I solemnly resist the plea of insanity. In Garfield's case, from the beginning to the end I was sane."

EIGHT PERSONS DROWNED.

DAYTON, Ohio, Nov. 21.—Frank Copperunt, keeper of the club house, his wife and two small children, and Charles Wilson, the keeper of the Cliff House, his wife and two children, were drowned in the bay on Saturday morning while going to Gananoque in a small boat. The body of Mrs. Copperunt and those of a boy and a child of Wilson have been recovered.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.

ATHENS, Ohio., Nov. 21.—Davis, a Mulatao, charged with outraging an elderly woman at Albany, was hanged last night by a mob who overpowered the sheriff and broke into the gaol.

ROTTEN BANKS.

BOSTON, Nov. 21.—The excitement and nervous state of feeling which has prevailed in bank and financial circles during the past few days has not abated in the least. Fears of fresh complications are entertained and no one seems to know exactly what to-morrow will bring forth. Several banks are said to be in a doubtful condition. Benyon, president of the Pacific bank, denies the damaging statements made concerning his connection with the speculator Weeks.

THE PROSECUTION THROUGH.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—There was an immense crowd in the Court-Room when Guiteau arrived, under an escort of six mounted policemen and two officers on the van. He seemed to have recovered from his scare. He attributed his escape on Saturday to the interposition of the Deity. He desired his hearers to understand that he was not afraid to die if the Deity desired it, but he did not want to be shot like a dog, before he had time to fully vindicate his conduct in Court. After being brought into court he devoted himself to the papers, and, contrary to general expectation, he made no demonstrations or allusions to the latest attempt on his life. Robinson has withdrawn from the case on account of a disagreement with Scoville. The prosecution rested its case on the evidence given so far. Guiteau made a short speech and Scoville then addressed the jury at considerable length, after which the court adjourned until to-morrow.

DREADED SMALLPOX.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 21.—The almost simultaneous appearance of smallpox at several places in the north-west within a few weeks produced considerable alarm. The disease in some places is epidemic. The afflicted places are spread over a territory reaching from Denburke, Ohio, to Bismarck. There are one hundred cases in Sterns county. The neglect of the authorities and the ignorance of the people permitted the disease to spread. Proper sanitary steps are being taken in the infected localities.

A REAL NECESSITY.—No house should be without a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, in case of accident. There is no preparation offered to suffering humanity that has made so many permanent cures, or relieved so much pain and misery. It is called by some the Good Samaritan, by others the Cure-all, and by the afflicted an Angel of Mercy.

FOR THE SECOND TIME.

Guiteau, the Assassin, Shot at and Slightly Wounded—An Arrest made.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—When the van in which Guiteau was riding back to the gaol reached the vicinity of the Capitol a man on horseback came up and fired two shots, and then rode rapidly away.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The driver of the van gives the following particulars of the attempt to shoot Guiteau:—Upon the adjournment of the court, the van started for the gaol having a policeman as guard on the seat with the driver. Before reaching the capitol I noticed a young man on horseback behind the van. Near the corner of East Capitol and First streets the horseman rode directly to the rear of the van and hastily peered through the grating. Guiteau was alone, seated on the righ hand side. After satisfying himself of the location of the prisoner, the horseman suddenly wheeled to the left of the van and

FIRED DIRECTLY THROUGH

it. He then dashed to the front of the van and pointed a pistol at the driver, with the evident intention of intimidating him or stopping the van. The driver was somewhat excited and said to a reporter: "Perhaps the man intended to stop the van by shooting one of the horses." Seeing an armed policman by the side of the driver, he exclaimed,

I'VE SHOT THE——,"

and putting spurs to his horse he dashed down East Capitol street in the direction of the Congressional cemetery. The policeman fired a shot at the fast disappearing horseman, and the driver whipped his horses into a gallop, keeping him in sight several blocks.

THE WOULD-BE AVENGER WAS,

however, mounted on a blooded horse, and readily escaped into the country. He was described as a smooth faced man, about 25 years of age, and a dashing horseman. He had on a dark brown suit of clothes. The van then proceeded to the gaol, and Guiteau was taken out in a state of great excitement. He exclaimed,

"I HAVE BEEN SHOT.

Notify Major Brock at once. Tell him to arrest the scoundrel and have him dealt with as he deserves." On examination it was found the ball just grazed Guiteau's left wrist inflicting a mere scratch. The ball struck on the opposite side of the van and fell upon the floor. The avenger was seen about the court house this afternoon, and attempted to gain admission, but failed. He was also seen to mount a horse near the court house soon after the van left and ride leisurely after it. It was rumored he hailed from Illinois, but there seems to be no foundation for the report.

AN ARREST MADE.

Jones, "a crank," has been arrested on a charge of attempting to kill Guiteau. He denies he was the man. Jones was very drunk when apprehended and probably was so when he committed the assault.

IS HE THE MAN?

The policeman who sat in the van says Jones is not the man who fired the shot while Carson, a colored guardsman, who was at the rear of the van in which Guiteau was conveyed to gaol yesterday, to-night positively identified Jones as the horseman who followed the van.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Times' Washington special says there seems hardly any reason to doubt that the attempted killing of Guiteau was the result of a conspiracy. It is even doubtless that at least a few others participated in the attack besides the man who did the shooting, the man who handed him the pistol just before the shot was fired, and the man who afterwards made the last attempt on Guiteau's life. The affair has caused a good deal of criticism of the authorities by the conservative element. In the city that opinion has been expressed that more than one of those in charge of the prisoner would rather see him killed than risk his acquittal at the hands of the law. That a stranger on horse back rode all the way from the Court House to the top of the Capitol hill, at least half a mile, without a word of protest is peculiar. This extraordinary performance is in keeping with all the Government has done and neglected to do. The belief that the authorities are purposely careless about Guiteau's safety is shared by those who not only do not criticise such conduct but who applaud it. There has been manifested a good deal of hostility to Guiteau and friendliness for his assailant. This feeling is not confined to the rough element and loungers, but extends to what may be called the better element of men about town. These people are raising money for the defence of Jones. One man was bold enough to take $50 to the police station for that purpose. It may safely be said that the people who want to kill Guiteau are strong enough to do as they wish, unless the Government takes better means for his protection. One can hardly hear on the streets of Washington a single expression favorable to the vindication of law in this trial.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Wm. Jones was this morning arraigned for an assault with intent to kill Guiteau. In default of $50,000 bail he was committed to gaol and his case indefinitely postponed.

CUSTOMS SEIZURE.

KINGSTON, Nov. 18.—Some days ago the schooner Goldhunter, with coal from Sodus to Toronto, sprung aleak and made for Kingston harbour. She was towed in and taken to the Queen's Wharf and tied up. Captain Taylor did not report at the Customs House as the law requires, notwithstanding the fact that several times he was sent for by the Customs authorities to do so. Yesterday he was asked to go to the Customs, where his papers and bill of lading were seized, as was also his vessel, and a fine of $100 imposed upon him. Owing to this action there is considerable excitement in marine circles. It is pointed out that a vessel's captain should always report under the circumstances, and that it is even an advantage to the vessel, indicating, as the clearance papers do, the cause of the delay and damage to the cargo, if such occurs. Captain Taylor, of the Goldhunter, consulted legal authority, and found that the Collector had pursued the proper course. He was advised to pay the fine and apply to the Government for its repayment.

THE TAXATION CRY.

DOWN with taxation, is a cry which is always popular with a certain class of people, and in a time of commercial depression and general distress is apt to be popular with the majority, whether the cry be or be not a justifiable one. We fancy, however, that the Globe has rather mistaken public sentiment at the present time when it undertakes to turn the country against Sir John Macdonald and his colleagues because of the "enormous increase of customs taxation" since 1867, and especially within the last year or two.

In a recent issue the Globe presented its readers with the following table showing "the population in each year calculated on the supposition that the increase has been regular; the total amount of customs taxes paid and the rate of customs taxation per head" since confederation:—

Year ending June 30th.	Population.	Customs taxes paid.	Rate of Taxation per head.
1868	3,363,201	$8,819,431	$2 62
1869	3,400,721	8,298,909	2 44
1870	3,448,241	9,462,940	2 74
1871	3,485,761	11,843,655	3 40
1872	3,572,278	13,045,493	3 65
1273	3,658,795	13,017,730	3 55
1874	3,745,312	14,421,882	3 31
1875	3,831,829	15,361,382	4 01
1876	3,918,346	12,833,114	3 27
1877	4,004,863	12,548,451	3 13
1878	4,091,380	12,795,693	3 12
1879	4,177,897	12,939,540	3 10
1880	4,264,414	14,138,849	3 21
1881	4,350,933	18,778,146	4 32

And it calculates that if the estimated revenue for the current year be realized the same figures for the year ending the 30th June, 1882, will be as follows:—

Year ending 30th June.	Population.	Customs taxes to be paid.	Rate of taxation per head.
1882	4,437,450	$22,500,000	$5 10

And concludes that "the figures given above prove that every head of the average-sized family namely, five persons) will pay this year in customs taxation alone, into the Dominion Treasury, a sum of not less than $25.50"—a conclusion which we ventnre to dispute.

Without verifying the Globe's figures—a thing one ought always to do—we propose to assume that they are for once correct and base our reply upon them.

The first objection which we have to take is to the conclusion arrived at, when the Globe claims that "every head" of an average-sized family of five persons will this year contribute $25.50 to the revenue of the country in the form of customs duties. Had the word "average" been applied to the heads as well as size of family, the Globe would have been nearer, although still far enough away from the truth. To any one at all familiar with the practical working of a customs tariff, a moment's reflection will be sufficient to convince them that the Globe's sweeping assertion is unsustainable, and that every family of five persons in the country does not consume the same kind, quality and quantity of imported goods within a twelvemonth. Why, the learned editor of the Globe need not have gone out of his own office to learn that his pressman, for instance, even though the family of the latter number the same as that of the former, does not consume the same kind, value and quantity of foreign goods as he does himself, and consequently that he does not, in proportion to the respective numbers in their families, contribute the same amount to the customs revenue of the country. For instance, we find that out of the duty of two millions odd collected during the month of September last, $134,000 was collected from spirits and wines. We should like to know how much of this sum has, or will be paid by the temperance portion of the community? If not contributed to by them, and it is difficult to see how they can contribute thereto when they do not consume any of it, then they paid no share of this sum, and their share of the customs revenue is proportionately reduced. Take again the item of silks, which during September contributed over $100,000 to the revenue. That has been or will be paid by the wearers of silks. Does the Globe mean to say that "every" family of five persons will purchase and consume the same value of these silks, and therefore pay an equal share of this $100,000. Every body knows that it is only a certain class of the community which uses either spirits or silks, and that it is the "users" of them which contribute the revenue derived therefrom. Other instances of the same kind might be given but these are sufficient to prove that every head of an average sized family does not contribute the same number of dollars and cents to the revenue of the country, and that there are articles, from which a very considerable portion of the revenue is derived, to which many of our people do not contribute a single cent.

But there is still another portion of the revenue which, although collected from articles entering into general consumption, is so collected as to place the tax upon the shoulders best able to bear it. Take the article of tea. Under the Mackenzie-Cartwright tariff it is true a pound of tea whether it was worth twenty or sixty cents, paid exactly the same duty, but that has been altered by the N.P. Under Mr. Mackenzie a pound of black tea paid a duty of fixe cents without reference to its value, and a pound of green tea six cents. Under Sir John Macdonald a pound of black tea pays a specific duty of two cents and ten per cent. on its value, which makes the total duty on a tea worth twenty cents, four cents per pound. and on one worth 60 cents, eight cents or double per pound. The same change has been made in green tea except that the specific duty is three cents per pound instead of two as in the case of black. Hence, under the present tariff, even the consumers of tea do not all contribute the same amount to the customs revenue of the country. The man who enjoys his dollar tea can afford, and has to contribute more than the man whose necessities make him put up with a fifty cent article. This, we believe, is quite right, notwithstanding that Mr. Mackenzie made the two pay precisely the same, and notwithstanding that the Globe endorsed Mr. Mackenzie's policy. So much for the Globe's would be alarming conclusion that "every head" of an average sized family will this year contribute to the Dominion Treasury the sum of $25.50 in the form of customs taxation.

The figures presented to its readers are, however, as fallacious and unsound as the Globe's conclusion. In its figures it assumes that the population, through good and bad times alike, increased at a certain fixed rate for the last fourteen years, which is simply absurd. Depending as we do largely upon a fluctuating immigration for our increase, the increase for this reason, if there were no other, must have been anything but uniform. Indeed it is fairly open to question if, for one or two years during the worst times, our consuming population did not decrease. Those Canadians who went to the States, for that work which they could not then find at home, did not during their absence contribute anything to the customs revenue of the country, and yet notwithstanding these well-known circumstances the Globe claims a regular increase of population. Then it will be observed that the Globe's figures show a steady decline in the per capita rate of taxation from 1875 down to 1879—or during the Mackenzie regime because, although Mr. Mackenzie went out of office in 1878, the present tariff only came into force in March, 1879, or three and a half months before the close of that financial year. Now, how was it, that with practically the same tariff in force during the whole of this period, and with (if it were so) a steady increase in the number of consumers, the "rate of taxation per head," decreased from $4.01 in 1875 to $3.12 in 1878, and to $3.10 in 1879? There is, there can be but one answer to such a question, and that is: That in 1878 the people of this country had become so impoverished, as compared with what they were in 1874-5, that "hard necessity" compelled them (allowing for increased population) to reduce their purchases of foreign commodities to the extent of about twenty-five per cent. That this decrease was not the result of "choice" is amply proved by the fact that, under precisely the same tariff, the amount of their contributions and consequently of their purchases is rapidly increasing. In 1880 under the N.P., the "rate of taxation per head" was $3.31; in 1881 under precisely the same tariff it was $4.42, an increase in a single year of 30 per cent, and in 1882 we have the authority of the Globe for saying it will be $5.10, or an increase of over fifty per cent. in two years. That is in the brief space of two years the purchasing power of our people has increased fifty per cent—three dollars worth now as compared with two, two years ago. Could stronger evidence be produced of the general and rapidly increasing prosperity of the people? No doubt, this is a line of argument, and a use of its "carefully prepared figures" which the Globe did not anticipate, but that does not alter the facts. There they are, and while they show that the rate of taxation per head (on the average) has increased, they also show that this increase is the result of increased prosperity among the people of Canada as a whole—the very result which the N.P. was intended to bring about the very result which it has materially aided in bringing about, and the result which the Globe, notwithstanding its anxiety to do so, is unable to hide from the people.

GRANT V. BEAUDRY.

End of the Orange Trial at Montreal—The Body Declared to be Illegal.

MONTREAL, Nov. 18.—This morning the full bench of Queen's Bench judges, sitting in the appeal cases, delivered judgment in the case of David Grant against Mayor Beaudry. It will be remember that the latter in 1878, July 12, arrested David Grant, county master of the Orangemen, along with several others who made a show of attempting to hold a procession on July 12. Grant sued for false arrest, and the judge, after the case had gone to court and been delayed from time to time, dismissed the case upon the technicality that the 30 days' notice of the prosecution as required by law had not been given to Mayor Beaudry. This morning the court sustained this view of the case that had been appealed to them, but they went into the merits of the case, giving their decision that there was no doubt at all that the society was an illegal one under the law of the country. Chief Justice Dorion and Judges Monk, Cross, Ramsay and Baby were unanimous in this decision.

Very Like a Murder.

COOKSTOWN, Nov. 18.—An old man named Richard Slighe was found dead on the third concession of Innisfil this morning about eight o'clock, not far from his son-in-law's residence. The deceased had gone to Barrie the day before to get a check cashed, taking with him a load of stuff, which he disposed of. From two severe cuts on the back of his head and his cash being gone, foul play is suspected. The horses had turned round and eaten part of his cheek. There is no likelihood of an inquest being held unless authority comes from the County Attorney.

KILLED IN CALIFORNIA.

A Former Resident of Madoc Meets with a Violent Death.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 18.—The news has been received that Mr. Hugh Galloway, formerly a well-known resident of Madoc, and brother-in-law of Mr. Robert Rollins, of that township, has met a violent death in California. Mr. Galloway went to California in April, 1877, and settled in Bute County, where he engaged in farming and threshing. On the 5th inst. he was killed by the man for whom he was working, who stabbed him in the neck, the knife penetrating the jugular vein, causing almost instant death. The letter which brings the sad intelligence gives no further particulars. It is supposed that Mr. Galloway was killed in a dispute with his employer as to wages, of which the man for whom he was working had been endeavoring to defraud him. Deceased was aged about 27, and leaves a wife and three children. His widowed mother lives in Madoc, where the news of the murder has created a sensation, owing to the estimation in which Mr. Galloway was held.

ENGLAND.

The project for building a new bridge lower down the river than London Bridge is to be revived, and will shortly be brought before the Corporation and the Metropolitan Board of Works.

An extraordinary scene occurred in Russel-st, Strand, London, the thoroughfare at the Drury Lane theatre, where no fewer than a thousand women congregated before the stage door in response to an advertisement which had been published by the management to the effect that one hundred young ladies, "who must be young, well-made, and pretty," were wanted for the forthcoming pantomine. Long before the hour appointed the streets were crowded with females of all ages, and in consequence of the block in the throughfare a posse of police were specially told off from Bow-st. to keep them in order. The stage door was literally besieged, and after about 150 of the applicants had been admitted the door was closed.

PEOPLE ARE BEGINNING to find out the true virtues of Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipa-Bitters, and they are becoming the favorite family medicine of the Canadian public for all derangements of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents, special agency for Peterborough at J. D. Tully's.

A WORLD OF GOOD.—One of the most popular medicines now before the American public is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters, as it is not a whiskey drink. It is more like the old fashioned bone set tea that has done a world of good, If you don't feel just right try Hop Bitters.—Nunda News.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.—In these times of quack medicine everywhere, it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise, and which really does as recommended. Electric Bitters we can vouch for as being a true and reliable remedy, and one that will do as recommended. They invariably cure Stomach and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary difficulties. We know whereof we speak, and can readily say, give them a trial. Sold at 50 cents a bottle, by Taylor & Macdonald.—3.

WM. LECH'S CAUTION!

To Buyers of Furs! Furs!

TWENTY-ONE YEARS OF UNBROKEN SUCCESS in business is the most fitting reply to Mr. Fairweather's war cry. The selling of Bankrupt Stock by the latter is surely not the best recommendation of Goods fresh every season, and this lie comes back to his own door by the advertisement of Delaney's Furs for the SECOND season. And still his Furs are fresh! How refreshing to know this! How moth-eaten they may be, I cannot say. Nor is the "bankrupt" cry confined to Furs—bankrupt stock all over is no doubt a good recommendation for fresh goods every season! Contrary to expectation, considering the mild season, I have orders on hand for the next three weeks in Persian Lamb, Bocharen, Astrachan and South Sea Seal Jackets, so that repairing of Furs is suspended.

I INVITE MR. FAIRWEATHER and the public cordially for the inspection of my stock, which in Jackets is hardly possible to keep up to the demand. A trip to Europe in the coming Spring is almost a necessity for buying New Stock at the Leipzig Fair.

Enshrined on British battlements, her royal banners will be found.
No other sovereign, like our gracious lady, in any Kingdom can be found;
Victorious conquests and universal eulogy to our gracious lady will resound
In all the countries around the globe, and whithersoever your steps are led Christian knowledge and great improvements, and the glorious gospel of Christ is spread.
To all the people of all her countries our gracious sovereign is ever kind.
Oh! they never want no other ruler, Victoria only, can please their mind,
Remember her for good, dear Lord, and give her great longevity,
In order that we may enjoy good laws and long prosperity,
And when her rule on earth is done, may she dwell with Christ eternally, Amen and amen.

OMEMEE.

KICKED BY A HORSE.—The Herald says that on Wednesday last, as Mr. J. S. Campbell was driving from Downeyville, and when a little south of that place the horse took fright and ran away. Mr. Campbell held on to the lines, when the shafts broke he was pulled out over the dashboard and received a most severe kick from the horse on the right jaw, which inflicted an ugly gash about an inch and a half long, and very deep. As soon as Mr. C. get the horse under control, he returned to Downeyville where he left the animal and walked to Omemee and placed himself under the care of Dr. Norris, who dressed the wound. As the cut is a smooth one his face will not be disfigured much.

ANOTHER KICK.—On Wednesday morning early, Mr. James Johnston, who lives a short distance north of Omemee, was severely kicked while attending his horses. Dr. Norris, who was promptly sent for, says that four ribs were broken, a bad cut inflicted in the side of the head and the left hand and shoulder were badly bruised. Mr. Johnston will no doubt be confined to his house for some time.

A LONG TIME IN OFFICE.—In the year 1846 Mr. Robert Grandy, of Omemee, was appointed Postmaster for this village and has since then given entire satisfaction, and in 1849 he was appointed clerk for the township of Emily, and since then has performed the duties of that office in an able and straightforward manner.

FENELON FALLS.

MR. JOHN D. SMITH, the well known lumberman having removed with his family to Port Hope, after a residence of fourteen years in this village, a number of their friends resolved to present Mrs. Smith with a piece of plate. The presentation was made at the Mansion House, in the presence of a large number of ladies and gentleman, by Mr. H. W. Greene, Reeve of the village, who expressed the regret of the donors at the departure of herself and her husband, and their sense of the loss that would be thereby sustained by their little community. Mrs. Smith responded in suitable terms. There was subsequently a supper given to Mr. Smith at the McArthur House, in which seventy-five persons participated, including the leading men of the village and neighbourhood, the Reeve being in the chair. There were present a number of Mr. Smith's employees, thus testifying to their mutually satisfactory relations. Mr. Smith will be greatly missed from among us.

THE FUTURE MOTOR POWER.

The steam engine, which has been the means of revolutionizing manufacturing and transportation, was spoken of with a good deal of disparagement by several of the members of the British Association for the advancement of Science at the late meeting at Bath. Nearly every person who spoke on the subject gave it a bad name. It was stated that it was expensive to build, costly to run, difficult to keep in repair, dangerous to life and property, cumbersome, productive of dirt and noise, and not adapted to many purposes where a motor is required. In the opinion of some, the steam engine has had its day, and played its part, and was now ready to be put in a museum of curiosities. They think it is behind the times, and that it should give place to something better. These scientific men of Great Britain object to the steam engine because it does not meet the wants of the present age; and for the additional reason that it is fast consuming the coal that will be wanted for heating purposes. They want a better force, more locomotion, quicker travel, less expense, and greater security. They want something that will propel canoes as well as ships; that will run sewing machines as well as trip-hammers; that will draw pleasure carriages as well as railway cars. They desire a motor that will not consume fuel, produce smoke, or cause noise; that can be managed by a child and run, if desired, in a parlor. They want something that will do all the steam engine does and many things beside.

In the opinion of most of the scientists of Great Britain, electricity is to take the place of steam in driving machinery and moving cars, and is to be generated by the action of tides, winds and falling water. They predict that wind-power will be utilized to a greater extent than any person in a previous age ever believed that it would. Wind will generate electricity for moving machinery, for lighting streets and warming dwellings in Ireland, Belgium, Denmark and other countries where there are few streams that afford water-power. The movements of the tide will produce the same effects in most countries that have an an extensive seacoast, while the fall of water in rivers and streams will generate electricity in all mountain regions. The great electrical exhibition at Paris is doing much to draw attention to what is called the motor-power of the future. A picture called "The Queen of the Nineteeth Century" hangs in many of the shop windows. It is a female figure surrounded with a halo, and emitting rays of light from the hands, which are raised as if to enable the being to fly. The light gives the arms the appearance of wings. The artist is an enthusiast, and is regarded by many as a prophet. We all hope that his fair predictions may be realized. The steam-engine is a good thing, but we are ready for something better. It has done so well that till recently scientific men and inventors have not troubled themselves to make something better. Now that attention is drawn to electricity, great results may be expected.

Belts.

Leather belts will last double the usual time if treated with castor oil; they will be rat proof, they will always remain flexible, and will not crack. A belt four inches wide will be equal to one six inches wide which has not been oiled. It requires twenty-four hours to penetrate the leather. If used sooner the greasiness will make the belt slip.

FROM ALL OVER.

REPRESENTATIVES of all the distilleries in the United States yesterday signed an agreement to reduce the operative capacity, to pool their funds, and to export all the old products.

SERGT. JOHN CONNORS, of the Dominion police force, Ottawa, is said to be the lucky holder of the ticket which drew the $30,000 prize at the Louisiana State lottery at its last drawing.

A PRIVATE letter received at Winnipeg states that E. Dowdney, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, will succeed Mr. Laird as Lieutenant-Governor of the North-West Territories.

WILD geese "swarm like bees" around Washoe Lake, Nevada. The smokestack of a passenger engine, the other evening, knocked three fat old ganders out of a flock that was flying across the track.

A POPULAR REMEDY!—Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is one of the most deservedly popular remedies for the cure of cough, croup, bronchitis, and all pulmonary complaints. For sale by all dealers.

ACID STOMACH, HEADACHE, HEARTBURN AND INDIGESTION are quickly cured by using Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. Bathing the head freely in Pain-Killer will usually relieve the most severe attacks of headache.

Mr. W. S. King, the Ingersoll "flour king," has in his own large mill, and in other mills, filled this season, beginning on 2nd August, 20,000 bags of flour, all for the Glasgow and Liverpool markets.

PASSAGES have been taken for ten thousand Russian Hebrews by the Hamburg and National lines. Several hundred arrived to-day on the Helvetia, telling fearful stories of the persecution they underwent.

THE JAPANESE carry their tooth-picks in their back hair, and always use them after eating anything. They take care of their teeth, and the teeth take care of their stomachs. Use tooth-picks freely, clean with Sozodont, and bad teeth and breaths will be scarce.

THE Ottawa Free Press complains that overshoes cost twenty-five cents more per pair now than before the inauguration of the N. P. The Toronto World hardly knows whether to congratulate or commiserate the able editor upon the growth of his understanding.

People have no more right to become dyspeptic, and remain gloomy and miserable, than they have to take poison and commit suicide. If the stomach becomes weak and fails to perform its functions, Burdock Blood Bitters will speedily remedy the trouble.

LAST year's returns show that the number of persons killed throughout India by wild beasts or snakes has gradually increased from 19,273 in 1876 to 21,990 in 1880. The largest number of deaths occurred in Bengal, where 10,064 persons died from snake bites and 259 were killed by tigers.

DYSPEPSIA, that all prevalent disease of civilized life, is always attended with a disordered sympathetic system and bag secretions, and no remedy is better adapted to its cure than Burdock Blood Bitters taken according to the special directions found on every bottle.

A DEMOCRATIC candidate for State Senator in New Jersey, carries his pardon from state prison in his pocket. It is a handy thing to have with him. Without it the fastidious moralists in his district might refuse to vote for him, thinking he had escaped from prison instead of being pardoned out of it.

OTIS HATHAWAY, Esq., 13 Rock street, Fall River, Mass., had a very bad attack of rheumatism, which racked him sorely. Finally he could scarcely move. St. Jacobs Oil was tried, and proved to be the only remedy that did any good. Two weeks' use of it rendered him as chipper and as active as ever.

THE Montreal Gas Company has a new source of profit. The waste water, which has heretofore been allowed to run off into the sewers, is now put through a process by which the ammoniacal salts are saved with considerable resulting profit. Some 200 barrels have already been shipped as the result of sevecal months' operations.

It is a happily established fact that Fellow's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites will retard vital consumption, increase involuntary muscular power and thereby harden the organs, promote vitality and facilitate restoration. It consequently possesses the wonderful property of prolonging human life.

COMMANDER CHEYNE stated to-night that Lieut. Schwatka and himself hoped to start for the north pole next spring. He advocated the use of a baloon when at the end of the journey, saying, after it passed the pole it might land in Russia, and the discovery might be made known to the world in a week after its accomplishment.

MAJOR RIDOUT, of the Kingston College, has commenced an action for libel against the Messrs. Shannon, editor and proprietors of the Kingston News. After the writ was served, he discovered that the author of the libel was one Joseph A. Allen, of Kingston. A motion is now pending at Osgoode Hall to amend the writ by adding Allen as a party defendant to the suit.

FREE OF CHARGE.—All persons suffering from Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Loss of Voice, or any other affection of the Throat or Lungs, are requested to call at Taylor & Macdonald's Drug Store and get a trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, free of charge, which will convince them of its wonderful merits and show what a regular sized bottle will do. Call early.—3.

HENRY ROBINSON a citizen of Buffalo, found a well formed baby boy wrapped in a breakfast shawl on his door step. On the bundle was penned the following note:—"Charlie when you wake up your mama will be in the Niagara river. Please take good care of my little darling and God will bless you. Give him all he can drink and he is no trouble. Three weeks is the age of my baby."

FOR DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Habital constipation, Biliousness, Liver or Kidney affections, the safest and best remedy is Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, the great family medicine. They can with perfect safety be given to the youngest child as they are purely vegetable in composition and mild in their action. Sold in large panel bottles at 50 cents. J. D. Tully, special agent for Peterborough.

THE Duke of Sutherland has just placed himself at the head of a company for the purchase of sixty square miles of land on the line of railroad to Omaha, for the purpose of founding a colony of Scotchmen. This step is supposed to be taken in anticipation of some great change about to take place in the administration of the Duke's estates in scotland, consequent on observations made on his recent visit over here.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

We will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and other Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to young men and older persons who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, etc., guaranteeing speedy relief and complete restoration of vigor and manhood. Also for Rheumatism, neuralgia, Paralysis, Liver and Kidney difficulties, Ruptures, and many other diseases. Illustrated pamphlet sent free. Address Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

WHAT EVERY ONE SAYS MUST BE TRUE.—And every one who has tested its merits speaks warmly in praise of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam as a positive cure for all throat and lung complaints, coughs and colds, sore throat, bronchitis and incipient consumption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—AN EXTERNAL MEANS of CURING SKIN DISEASES.—There is scarcely any eruption but will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin disorders, that have plagued the sufferer for years, however deeply rooted they may be, "Sulpholine" will successfully attack them. It destroys the animalculæ which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produce a clear, healthy natural condition of the skin. "Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 9d.

SULPHOLINE LOTION, a FLUID peculiar in itself, is the most potent enemy to all Skin Disorders. Nothing like Sulpholine has ever before been produced, nor is there anything else in the least degree comparable for its Healthy Action on the Human Skin.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—The first idea of Sulpholine was taken from a prescription of the late Dr. Startin, and every year it is used adds more and more favourably to its widly increasing reputation. Anyone, however deeply and hopelessly afflicted with Skin Disease, should apply Sulpholine as quickly as possible. In two or three days the effect will become apparent in a diminished appearance of the malady, a growing tendency to fade away, and complete obliteration of the eruption.

SULPHOLINE LOTION.—BOTTLES CONTAINING NEARLY HALF A PINT.—SOLD BY CHEMISTS EVERYWHERE. Made in London, Eng.

Sold by Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world. Prepared by Jas. Rorke, London. Specially valuable Pills for residents abroad and travellers.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC strengthens the nervous and muscular system, improves digestion, animates the spirits, recruits the health. For debilitated health from the effect of hot climates this tonic is invaluable.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC rouses and developes the nervous energies, enriches the blood, promotes appetite, dispels languor and depression, fortifies the digestive organs. Is a specific remedy for neuralgia, ague, indigestion, fevers of every kind, chest affections, and in wasting diseases, scrofulous tendences, &c. The whole frame is greatly invigorated by Pepper's Tonic, the mental faculties brightened, the constitution greatly strengthened, and a return to robust health certain. Bottles, 32 doses, 4s. 6d.; next size, 11s. Sold by chemists everywhere. The name of J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, must be on the label. There is no Tonic so certain in effect as Pepper's Quinine and Iron. It is strongly recommended to residents in India and the Colonies, and should always be kept ready for use in every case of fever or febrile condition.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—Prepared only by J. Pepper, London. This Fluid combination, extracted from medicinal roots, is now used instead of blue pill and calomel for the cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, and all symptoms of congestion of the liver, which are generally pain beneath the shoulders, head-ache, drowsiness, no appetite, furred tongue, disagreeable taste in the morning, giddiness, disturbance of the stomach, and feeling of general depression. It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6. Sold by all Chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape, and Colonies generally.

Vennor's Almanac.

The name of Vennor, the great Canadian weather prophet, has now become a household word, not only in Canada, but throughout the United States, and he is by no means unknown in Europe. His almanac is always eagerly looked for, and the yearly sales are immense. We have just received a copy from the author of the book for 1882, and find, upon perusal, that it contains a vast amount of matter of great interest to all, regarding the weather and kindred subjects, and that it surpasses in many respects any former edition. It gives predictions for every week of the coming year up to June; giving the probable dates of snow falls and cold "dips," and a general chapter on the probable weather for next summer. The book may be procured from all booksellers at the cheap price of 25 cents per copy. Everybody should buy one and keep themselves posted on that all-absorbing topic—the weather.

Toronto & Ottawa Railway.

The Perth Expositor says that the officers in charge of the several divisions of this road have received instructions to put on all the men that they can work to advantage for the present season. The survey party has broken up, and reorganized into four small parties to proceed over different sections of the road and take soundings for bridge piers, note of culverts, road crossings, &c. Chopping and grading is being fast pushed ahead on the Perth Division, and more men are required for rock work. One or two long, but not heavy, cuts on this division will, in all probability, be taken out during the coming winter. The right-of-way agent, Mr. Campbell, is harder worked than ever, and expects to reach Perth at an early date. Mr. Hogg started this week to walk over the line to Madoc. Mr. Patterson in surveying a six mile link between the Nipissing and Whitby roads.

An Unusual Sight.

On Saturday morning a number of our citizens who were standing at the Post Office corner waiting until the mails were sorted, were treated to an unusual sight. A number of sparrows were noticed darting hither and thither close to the ground and upon closer observation, it was seen that they were chasing a large sized "chip monk," which was endeavoring to find a hiding place. After crossing and recrossing the street several times, the pursued animal ran up the street, the sparrows giving hot chase. The "chip monk" at last found refuge under the sidewalk near Wainwright's butcher shop, and when our informant left the sparrows were congregated around the place chirping quite merrily.

The Rev. Mr. Starr.

The Rev. Mr. Starr is gaining great popularity in Winnipeg, and Sunday after Sunday he fills his church, drawing the largest congregations in the city. The Times says that the young and talented clergyman, Rev. J. E. Starr, preached in Grace Church Tabernacle, yesterday morning to a large congregation, taking for his text the parable of the fig tree from Luke 13th chapter, v. 6-9; comparing the three barren years of the fig tree to youth, middle life and old age. He spoke for about forty minutes, preaching a very interesting and instructive sermon. The Methodist body may well feel proud of this young man. There is a great future before him and he is bound yet to make his mark as a divine.

Direct from Germany.

Germany has been asked to contribute her share of fancy goods for Austin's great sale, and has responded handsomely. In fact, Germany has "come down handsomely" in her prices for this special sale, and thrown off fully half the usual price to Austin in some of the most attractive goods that have ever come out of the Faderland. Just step in to the store during the day or evening and take a note of the prices in a few of the leading lines, such as Berlin Wools, Vases, Picture Frames, Looking Glasses Cruets and Silver Plated Ware, and if you don't get a genuine surprise you will surrender unconditionally.

No Council Meeting.

Owing to the fact that several members of the Council will be unable, owing to other business, to be present at the regular meeting this evening, it has been decided not to hold the meeting until Monday evening next.

Personals.

Dr. Kincaid, M.P.P., has admitted into partnership Dr. Alexander, of Ottawa, a graduate of Queen's College, Kingston, and a member of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, of Ontario. Dr. Alexander has had considerable practice, and was highly respected at the capital. We cordially welcome him to town and wish the new firm success.

Mr. Edward Bond, late of the firm of McIntyre and Bond, of the "Oriental," left for Hamilton, where he has secured a lucrative position, on Friday night. A large number of his friends accompanied him to the station to give him a "send off." Although in town but a few months Mr. Bond has made for himself many friends, who will all be grieved at his departure but who will all join with us in wishing him unlimited success in his new home.

Mr. R. Jaffray, of Toronto, one of the Directors of the Midland railway, is in town.

Mr. F. H. Dobbin, of the Lindsay Post, called on us on Saturday evening. He still clings to his old love.

Serious Accident.

On Saturday evening while Mr. Andrew Armstrong, of Otonabee, was returning home from town, his team of horses became unmanageable near Downer's Corners, and getting beyond his control, ran away. Mr. Armstrong was thrown out, and the lines being twisted around his feet, he was dragged a considerable distance on his face before the lines broke. He was found lying on the road and was at once taken home and a physician summoned. Doctors Kincaid, M.P.P., and Alexander were soon in attendance, and found him insensible with his scalp nearly all torn off. His wounds were dressed, but he did not recover consciousness for a long time. This morning he was sensible, but suffering terribly. The report that he died on Sunday is untrue, but he is by no means out of danger.

Another Goose Story.

The other evening two well known citizens, the one a prominent George street merchant, (who gallantly rescued a goose some time ago), and the other well known around the Midland Station, while standing on Simcoe street were rather startled by a flock of geese that suddenly flew out of an archway, striking the two men and making them jump higher than ever they did before in their lives. As soon as they discovered the cause of the commotion they smiled, and the merchant remarked "great smoke" I was frightened, and the other replied that if he got a hack at the flock, they would not scare them again. Neither of them are injured and they are at work now.

The Weather.

The weather yesterday was quite mild, but in the evening it was cold. To-day a wind is blowing, but the air is not so very cold. The weather probabilities for this district for the following 24 hours, as reported from Toronto, at 10,30 a. m. by the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company are as follows:—Lower lakes generally cloudy with light snow and south to west winds; falling followed by rising barometer and a change of temperature.

A Curate Appointed.

Parish Church Work announces that a Curate has been appointed, or rather nominated to the care of Otonabee, under the direction of the Incumbent of Ashburnham. He is now taking temporary duty at Aurora, and we expect him to enter on his work here within a few weeks It is expected that a new Mission will be formed and services commenced in various places throughout the township. The gentleman's name is the Rev. C. H. Marsh

Baths! Baths! Baths!

Just what was wanted in Peterborough! Mr. I. Guerin has started hot and cold water baths in his new barber shop on Simcoe street, a few doors west of Fairweather's corner, and deserves the credit of the public for supplying this health-preserving luxury. He should be well patronized, as he is determined to keep everything clean, warm and comfortable. Flesh brushes, sponges, towels and every convenience necessary. 120

Special Notice.

Dry Goods to be slaughtered for the next thirty days, as I have determined to retire from the business. I will commence to-morrow morning and sell all goods at cost, some lines a dood deal less. I want every customer to distinctly understand that this is no humbug. I must clear all the goods out before the 15th of December. Remember the place, opposit the town clock. Respectfully yours, JAMES DOLAN.

Broke Her Arm.

On Sunday morning Mrs. Robert Darling, who resides at the west end, while on her way to church, slipped on the snow covered sidewalk on McDonnel street, breaking and dislocating her left arm. She went to a Mr. John Tully's house, and was at once admitted, but no sooner got inside than she fainted. Dr. Kincaid attended her and she is now all right again.

Workmen Scarce.

Workmen of all kinds are said to be exceedingly scarce, just at present. A gentleman who required some plastering done, informs us that he could not obtain men for love or money and the same appears to be the case in many instances that have come under our notice,

POLICE COURT.

IMMORAL LIFE.

MONDAY, Nov. 21.—Mary Jane Rowton, was brought up on remand on the charge of having no peacable profession, and supporting herself by an immoral life. On her promise to leave town, to remain away, and to lead a proper life, she was discharged.

After Many Years.

On Thursday afternoon, a young man a perfect stranger to her called on Mrs. A. G. Foley of this town and said that his mother, the late Mrs. Curtain, of Asphodel, owed her $67 and that he had come to pay the debt. He was asked if any person had spoken to him or troubled him about, it and he replied no. Mrs. Foley told him that the debt was outlawed years ago and could not now be collected. The young man said that that made no difference, the mony was honestly hers, and handed her over the amount. Mrs. Curtain has been dead for many years and the debt was contracted over twenty years ago, so that the re-payment of the money after so many years is indeed extraordinary and well worthy of being noticed. Truly, there are a few honest people left on this mundane sphere, and surely Mr. Curtain should take his place among them.

IRELAND.

PEACE and order prevail almost everywhere in Mayo—one of the largest, poorest and most populous counties in Ireland.

THEY have planted a tree in the Cornmarket to commemorate Mr. Parnell's visit to Wexford.

THE Irish Land Commission has now over 40,000 cases before it. Every county in Ireland is represented in the number.

THE large reductions of rent by the sub-commissions under the Land Act are causing an outcry on the part of the landlords and a demand for Government compensation.

THE last words of the Castledermot branch of the Land League were:—"That we inform all whom it may concern that we will allow no more hunting over the lands, while Mr. Parnell or any other suspect remains in prison.

BELFAST seems to be running rapidly ahead in the shipbuilding line. An order for construction of two steamers, which will be the largest afloat, and a sailing vessel has, it is understood, been received by a firm of shipbuilders there.

OWING to Boycotting of Ballyvourney dairy farm and stores the premises are about to be closed. They were started by Sir George Colthurst and Mr. Kirchhoffer, with a view of aiding the farmers of the district by giving them household necessaries on long credit, and taking from them butter at the best prices of the day.

THE Land League meetings announced for October 23rd, at Corimbla, Ballycastle, Attymass and Bonny Conlan, county Mayo, were proclaimed. Strong detachments of military and police proceeded to each place and prevented the meetings. No collision occurred, but in one case the crowd led the police across the hills and bogs for two hours before dispersing.

LONDON Truth says that when the Scottish Volunteer Review was held in August last, at Edinburgh, great care was taken to explain by an official communique, that the Royal Banner of Scotland would be flown on the occasion. It was not a great matter, but doubtless it was very pleasing to our north-country folk to be so considered. But every day the Royal standard is hoisted from the great tower of Dublin Castle, and no one proposes that the Royal Banner of Ireland should be flown there. Yet there must be such a banner, that is to say, it would be the Royal Standard of England, with the Irish harp in the first and fourth quarters, and not in the third only, as at present.

PLEURISY,—This is frequently a most disastrous complaint. It manifests itself in inflammation of the pleura, or membrane that surrounds the lungs. If neglected, should the patient recover even, its effects are sometimes felt ever after. Herrick's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills are the remedy.

GENERAL DEBILITY.—This convenient term includes numerous ill-defined and supposed incurable forms of disease, accompanied by general lassitude and exhaustion, without any ascertainable external or internal causes. The Peruvian Syrup sends its renovating influence to the utmost recesses of the system, and has relieved in our community many cases of supposed incurable disease. Sold by dealers generally.

HUMBUGGED AGAIN.—I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife who was always doctoring, and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some I concluded to be humbugged again; and I am glad I did, for in less than two months' use of the Bitters my wife was cured and has remained so for eighteen months since. I like such humbugging.—H. T., St. Paul.—Pioneer Press.

OVERCOATS!

THE MOST URGENT BUSINESS A MAN WITHOUT AN OVERCOAT HAS TO-DAY IS TO GET ONE. HE MAY GET IT WHERE HE LIKES.

IF HE COME HERE HE'LL BUY IN LESS TIME, BECAUSE HE KNOWS VERY WELL THAT HE CAN GET HIS MONEY BACK NEXT DAV, OR NEXT WEEK, IF HE WANTS IT.
